"Ah, how did that happen?" In Omi's brain, that old man's infant was silly.

At that moment, there came Omi's voice, "Old ghost, you've done this to yourself."

"You, what are you no one? Why can't I control your body even though I've taken you? And I haven't been able to retreat, why?"

"Hahaha, and you want to retreat, you're so pretty, you know what it's like to have no return, that is. Old man, you're stuck in my brain forever."

"No."

Omi allowed the old ghost's infant to hiss.

Of course, their communication in the brain could not be heard by outsiders.

A group of heavenly kings in the outside world were busy asking, "How's it going, Lauper?"

Omi certainly couldn't be known by everyone at the moment that Laupo hadn't succeeded in seizing it.

Omi nodded his head and said, "The seizure was successful."

"Yay, great." The first website m.kanshu8.net

"Yay."

The group of Heavenly Kings high-fived, and Laobo, who was in his brain, his infant sensing the outside world, burst into tears. Furious, he said, "Kid, why are you impersonating me?"

Omi snorted, "Silly old man, how do I get out of this without impersonating you, for now, I'll just borrow your identity for a while."

"You son of a bitch, let me go, I promise, I'll put the past behind me and let you go."

"Don't make me use foul language."

"Ahhhh."

Omi no longer cared about that old devil's infant, and said to the dozen or so Heavenly Kings in the outside world, "Everyone, go back first, don't cause a stir in the entire family, or else it will be easy to spread this out. I'm going back now to sacrifice that brat's infant to obtain information about his memories."

"Laobo, it shouldn't take long, right? You'll have to tell us the secret method of the Shura Eighteen Blades then ah."

"Of course, but not so fast, this kid is a bit powerful, I'm afraid it will be difficult to fuse his infant in a short time. Don't worry, I'll definitely share the secret method of the Shura Eighteenth Blade with you all, after all, I have no reason to hide it privately."

"Hehe."

Omi immediately flew away, and the dozen or so Heavenly Kings also returned to their respective homes happily, only, everyone was a bit gluttonous as they looked at the Heavenly Weapon, but unfortunately, Laobo was the strongest, and he was the one who gave up his flesh to seize it, so he deserved to hold that Heavenly Weapon.

Omi also flew to a luxurious palace, this was that old ghost's cave, Omi obtained information about that old man from his memories, his name was Blue Fox Laobo, he only had less than a hundred years left to live, and was currently at the third stage of the Mahayana stage. It was impossible for him to reach even stronger in this life, that is, he was just waiting for his life to end, if he could obtain Wang Shura's treasure, he might have a slight chance to go even further. Therefore, he did not hesitate to seize Omi.

However, the person who was very depressed at the moment was Omi.

"What should I do? Did I just refine his infant, or? Not refining his infant?"

If one directly refined Laobo's infant, then it would be equivalent to Omi giving up his own infant and exchanging it for someone else's.

Omi a twenty year old infant in exchange for an old infant who only had less than a hundred years of life left, this was not a good deal, although Omi could temporarily gain the strength of the third stage of the Mahayana stage, but he lost himself. Omi's infant's appearance was no longer exactly the same as his original body, but an old ghost.

"No, I would never be stupid like this." Omi immediately shook his head, not going to refine Laobo of the infant, he would rather go find the treasure and slowly become stronger than this kind of result.

For the time being, Omi could use Laobo's identity, with no crisis in the Blue Fox Family, wait for the Rainbow Bridge to open, then go directly to the Six Seas and pinch Laobo's infant.

At night, Omi went to Light Water's cave, but unfortunately, Light Water wasn't there.

Omi went back to the peasant woman's house where Mu Qianji was.

Sure enough, Tang Huan, Light Water, Lu Yuxi, and Yan Xinyi were all there.

"Omi, you're finally back? By the way, are you Don Omi, or the old ghost who took you from me?" Mu Qianji reacted with some caution.

During the day, the scene of Omi being seized in the sky was seen by Mu Qianji and the others.

However, Light Water told him not to worry.

Omi was speechless and deliberately said, "I'm an old ghost."

"Ah." Mu Qianji and the other girls were shocked, it really was an old ghost, oh my god, Omi was dead?

When Omi saw their panicked looks, he stopped joking and said, "Alright, I'm Omi."

"Tang Shao, are you really alright? We all saw that old devil seize you during the day."

"Well, seizing me was the dumbest thing to do, and now I've got that old ghost's infant trapped in my brain. The other Sky Kings of the Blue Fox family think I'm Lauper, so we're safe now."

Everyone was relieved, during the day, when they saw Omi trapped, they all cried in fear, thinking that this time it was really over.

Light Water was busy saying, "Congratulations, congratulations Omi."

Omi rolled his eyes, "What's there to be happy about?"

"Tang Shao, you were able to help me fuse Blue Fox Lily's infant before, so you yourself can definitely fuse Blue Fox Lauper's infant, and as long as you fuse it, you'll immediately be a strong third stage of the Mahayana stage. That Blue Fox Laupo's lifelong cultivation has become yours."

Tang Huan also said happily, "Mmhm, great, it's so addictive, that old ghost, all his life's hard work, he's making a dowry for you."

Lu Yuxi and Yan Xinyi also clapped happily.

Only with a deep frown on his brow, Mu Qianji said, "Omi, you should never fuse that person's infant, it's not even worth it."

"Ah, why?" Light Water and the others were all puzzled as they looked at Mu Qianji.

Omi said, "Alright, Qianji is right, how could I possibly fuse someone else's Yuan Infant. It's silly of me, Omi, who is so young and has an infinite future, to exchange an old infant with a lifespan of less than 100 years."

"Ugh." Other than Mu Qianji, the rest of the girls were stunned there, they hadn't thought about it.

"Tang Shao, then you don't plan to fuse, what are your plans?" Light Water asked.

Omi said, "In a few months, the Rainbow Bridge will open, and then we'll go straight to the Six Seas. When we reach the Six Seas, I'll kill Laobo's infant, and this matter will be over."

Tang Huan and the others nodded, only Mu Qianji did not nod.

Mu Qianji said, "It's too bad to kill Laobo's infant, Omi, you might as well take it to someone who needs it. Just find someone with a very weak strength and fuse it to him, as a good deed."

"Huh, yeah." Omi smiled.

"Then who would it be good to give it to?"

"Whatever, but Laobo's infant has a life span of less than a hundred years, so if someone else fuses it, won't that be a long life span too?"
