

King of kings

Chapter 1761

"We've crossed the Strait of the Dead." Lu Yuxi shouted, very excited.

Omi gave her a blank look, "It's as if we went through nine lives through the Straits of the Dead."

"Hehehe, if it wasn't for you Tang Shao, if we wanted to cross the Straits of the Dead, of course we would have to die for nine lives. It's all because Tang Shao is so powerful that we were able to cross the Straits of the Dead so easily." Lu Yuxi flattered, Omi laughed loudly, a thousand penetrations and no horse's ass.

"Alright, let's continue on and try to reach the Sea of Death within a day." Omi said.

"Mhmm, we can drive our flying swords, we can definitely reach it in a day."

Omi's flying sword accelerated and shot away with a blazing "swoosh". On the surface of the sea, a mercenary group's ship, which was slowly moving forward, they saw the flying swords passing by in the sky, and the entire mercenary group on board was stupid.

"What is this? Didn't I say you can't fly with a flying sword? Why can they? I'm not convinced." The group of mercenaries on the ship felt doubtful of life, really wondering if anyone could hang in this world.

"Maybe it's blinkered." The mercenaries on that boat wiped their eyes to comfort themselves, after all, no one could drive a flying sword over this Sea of Death since ancient times, no one could be an exception.

A day later, Omi arrived at the Sea of Death.

"Here it is, this is the Sea of Death."

Omi said as he looked at the boundless sea. One Second Remember to Read the Book

"How do you know this is the Sea of Death?" Tang Huan asked because the feeling was no different from before.

Omi said, "The dead air in the air is much stronger than it has been all this way, haven't you felt it?"

"No." Several people shook their heads.

"Well, it's probably because you guys are standing on a flying sword that I am, and my flying sword has immortal energy on it, dispelling all the dead qi." Saying that, Omi immediately withdrew the dead qi from his flying sword.

Suddenly, overwhelming deadly qi spread over.

"Ah." Mu Qianji and the others felt it all at once.

At the same time, Omi and the others immediately fell from their flying swords, and the flying swords lost their drive as well, unable to gain a foothold in midair.

"Wow!" Everyone fell into the sea.

It seems that the reason for not being able to drive the flying swords is related to the deadly air in this sea.

Light Water asked, "Tang Shao, since we've reached the Sea of Death, where are we going to find the treasure?"

Don chuckled, "At the bottom of the ocean, obviously."

"Uh."

Mu Qianji also said, "If I'm not mistaken, this sea, in the ancient times, wasn't an ocean, but land, only now it's turned into an ocean. I'm sure the treasures of the Sea of Death are buried under the ocean."

"That's right, let's enter the sea now." After saying that, Omi once again offered up his flying sword and used his Immortal Qi to disperse the dead air in the air, then brought five beautiful women with him and rushed straight into the sea floor.

Sure enough, once they reached the seafloor figure, the first thing they saw was the ruins of a city buried by seawater, and they could also see broken wells, the carved pillars, and grand boulders that seemed to speak of the past prosperity.

"Where is the treasure? Don't see it?" Tang Huan said.

Omi gave her a blank look, "If you're allowed to see the treasure so easily, it's not treasure, it's trash."

Omi closed

Up eyes.

"What are you doing?"

"Shh, don't bother me, I'm feeling it, see if I can find some intuition," Don Omi said.

A few minutes later, Omi opened his eyes.

"How about it, did you feel where the Nine Daoist Demon King's spirit stone treasure is?" Mu Qianji asked.

"No, but it must be somewhere in this Sea of Death, but it's just that this place is supposed to be very secretive, so it's hard to find. We I'm going to spend a lifetime looking for it here." Omi said.

"Speechless, let's start looking then."

Omi took out the map, which was drawn by a certain mercenary group that Omi had exchanged for it using a flying sword before he had even set out.

Omi pointed at the broken well in front of him and said, "This place should be the Bai Ziyang ruins."

Mu Qianji said, "In the Sea of Death, the two most famous places that almost everyone who has ever been to the Sea of Death has visited are the Bai Ziyang Ruins, and the Lu Gong Gong Cave."

"Yes, according to the map, this should be the White Ziyang Ruins."

Lv Yu Xi asked, "That, who is Bai Ziyang?"

"Bai Ziyang was an ancient era, a super strong man who finally ascended to the Immortal Realm, and I heard that before he ascended, he killed everyone in the place he once ruled, and from then on, no one knew where the place he once ruled was. Until millions of years later, it was inadvertently discovered, and from then on, more and more people came to this place, and then, it became what it is now. In the past, the Bai Ziyang ruins should have been well-preserved, but now, they've all been torn apart." Omi said looking at the ruins in front of him.

"Then let's go up there and rummage through it too, see if we can find some treasures. I've heard that even if the ruins like Bai Ziyang and Lu Gong were tumbled over, there are often still people who can turn over some valuable things." Light Water said, of course, what Light Water knew was from the Blue Fox Lily's memories.

However, Omi shook his head and said, "There's no need to waste time, this kind of ruins that almost everyone knows about, no matter how much they are turned over, they won't be able to turn over anything precious. So, it would be better to go find the ruins that no one has ever found. We came here with only one purpose, to find the cave where the Nine Dao Demon King used to live."

"Also."

Omi and the others continued onward, passing through Bai Ziyang's ruins.

A few days later, Omi and the others came to another cave that was deep under the sea.

"Here, it should be the cave of Lu Gong Gong, as indicated on the map."

"Us?" Yan Xinyi inquired.

Omi thought for a moment, since they were here, let's see, although their goal was to find the ruins of the Nine Daoist Demon King, it was questionable whether they could find them, so there was no need to miss the other ruins.

"Let's go in and have a look."

Omi entered the Lugong Cave Palace.

However, when Omi entered the Lu Gong Gong Cave Palace, he found that several groups of people were also inside, rummaging around.

When they saw someone coming, the people who were tossing around inside all looked at Omi and saw that there were two Mahayana stages among them, so they didn't say anything.

Omi and the others also began to look around inside Lu Gong's cave.

Just then, they suddenly heard someone in front of them shouting, "Uncle Purple, come over here and cut open this boulder to see if there's anything inside."

A man with purple hair immediately walked up.
