Chapter 1881

"Mmhm." Little Fire immediately carried Omi on his back and flew away in the distance with a swoosh, flying away in the direction of the Sea of Death.

This was what Omi and the others had planned, that place in the Sea of Death was now a forbidden place, and the ancestor of the Y Clan might not dare to go to the Sea of Death, so Omi went to the Sea of Death to hide.

That ancestor of the I Clan who held a pseudo-immortal artifact, Omi currently didn't even want to try it, he would rather just choose to hide, after all, it was a pseudo-immortal artifact that could topple the ocean.

At Tang Ji Gate, the countless onlookers who had been watching for a long time remained, everyone had not only worship, but also a hint of worry in their hearts. Although Omi had killed the Yi Clan's patriarch, the reason why their Yi Clan had dominated the Seven Seas was not because of Yi Weisheng, but because their family ancestor held the pseudo-immortal artifact, the Black Water Pearl.

Soon, Omi and Little Fire reached the waters of the Sea of Death, but they still continued to fly deeper into the Sea of Death.

"Brother Chen, are we going to that place where the Behemoth appeared?"

"Yes, we must go to that place, otherwise, I'm afraid the ancestor of the I Clan will still be desperate enough to come after us."

"But that sealed Behemoth, he warned us last time, if we run there again, will he?"

"Either we get killed by the ancestors of the I Clan, or we continue on to the Sea of Death, we have no choice."

"Good."

At this moment, in the Seven Seas, the Light of Life Shrine. One second to remember to read the book

That servant who was in charge of guarding the ancestral hall, fell to the ground, his eyes dazed as he looked at the second position in the row of Life Lights above the ancestral hall.

What it meant to be in the second position of the Light of Life was clear to him, it was the position of the family patriarch, the strongest existence in the family besides the ancestor.

However, the Light of Life that represented this strongest existence at the moment, suddenly went out.

"Clan, the clan head is dead."

"The clan leader is even dead."

“Heavens, it must be blurred eyes, it must be.”

That servant was busy rubbing his eyes, because it was too hard to believe.

However, after rubbing his eyes and looking again, the lamp, was still out.

“Oh my god, the patriarch is really dead.” That servant, who was suddenly frightened, was sweating profusely.

In a situation like this, the family’s death bell must be rung at the first opportunity, and it was the family’s highest ranking death bell.

That servant, immediately climbed to the topmost level of the shrine, picked up the top level mallet and struck it on top of that bell and drum.

“Dang, dang, dang.” The sound of the bell that represented the highest funeral bell resounded in the air above the I Clan.

“What’s going on? Is the ancestor dead, or is the patriarch?” The entire Yi Clan was alarmed, and there were only two people who could match this death knell, the family ancestor and the clan leader.

At this moment, in the other cultivation room of the Yi Clan, an old man heard this death knell and opened his eyes wide.

“Ah.” That old man didn’t even think about it and immediately rushed out of his cultivation room.

This old man was none other than a strong man who possessed one of the five pseudo-immortal artifacts, the ancestor of the Yi Clan, named Yi Dingkang.

The pseudo-immortal artifact that Yi Dingkang possessed was the Black Water Pearl, but since Yi Dingkang had only stepped into the eighth stage of the Tribulation in the last few hundred years, he was the weakest among the five strongest people who possessed pseudo-immortal artifacts. However, despite being five

The weakest among those who possessed a pseudo-immortal weapon, but it was not something that ordinary people could deal with.

Yi Dingkang came to the ancestral hall, not only him, the entire Yi Clan came to the ancestral hall as if ants were on the move, and in no time at all, the Yi Clan’s ancestral hall was already crowded with people.

When everyone entered the ancestral hall and saw the patriarch’s life light extinguished, they immediately knelt down and cried.

For a moment, the sound of the Yi Clan crying shook the heavens.

“What’s going on?” At that moment, I Dincon came and heard everyone’s cries and had to shout.

“Ancestor, the patriarch is dead.”

“What.” Although they had already guessed it, hearing it with their own ears was another matter.

Soon, the servant who was guarding the ancestral hall, who was on the scene of what had happened before, reported to Yidingkang, and the entire Yi Clan to know.

"Come, immediately follow me to the Six Seas and exterminate the clan." Yi Dingkang hissed, no matter which dynasty in the Six Heavy Sea, he would exterminate his clan today.

Yi Dingkang brought all the Half Immortals on the spot and headed to the Six Heavy Seas.

What had happened to the Yi Clan naturally couldn't be hidden from the other families of the Seven Seas, and within half a day, the other four great families of the Seven Seas, the Fu Clan, the Nuo Clan, the Universal Clan, and the Yong Clan, all knew that the head of the Yi Clan had been killed by someone from the Six Seas.

At this moment, Omi and Little Fire were at the bottom of the Sea of Death.

Omi and Little Fire were lying in what was once the Shura Clan's headquarters.

The Shura Clan was now all dead, the last time the Behemoth Beast had an attack, it had implicated the entire Shura Clan, and now, the place had become a ruin. Omi and Little Fire were lying in a small blister in the ruins.

"Brother Chen, you take care of your injuries, this place should be safe for now, I bet that the ancestor of the I Clan would not dare to come here." ..

Omi said, "You also take good care of your injuries, you've been hurt a lot this time too."

"That Seventh Stage of Tribulation is really powerful, thanks to my previous thought that I could compete with the Seventh Stage of Tribulation by practicing a Flame of Void Fire, but now it seems that it's not even close." Little Fire sighed.

"That's normal, it's only now that the combined strength of the two of us can kill a Seventh Stage of Tribulation." Omi said.

"Brother Chen, I'm guessing that the ancestor of the Yi Clan must know by now that their clan leader is dead."

"That's for sure, as soon as we find out that Yi Weisheng's life light is out, we'll know that he's dead. If I'm not mistaken, the ancestor of the Yi Clan should have come to the Six Seas by now, and perhaps, have found out who killed their clan leader." Omi laughed.

"Hahaha." Little Flame laughed, but Little Flame was still quite worried inside, after all, that was a strong man with a pseudo-immortal weapon, and right now this Sea of Death was sealed with a Bimbo Beast, if the Bimbo Beast went mad, it would be the end, and they wouldn't even know where to hide.

At this moment, the ancestor of the I Clan, with a group of clansmen, had arrived at the Sea of Sixfold.

Regarding who had killed their clan leader, this matter would be known with a casual inquiry in the Six Heavy Sea.

When the people of the Yi Clan learned that it was a man named Omi from the Six Heavy Sea who had killed their clan leader as well as their clan members, everyone was furious.

Every member of the Yi Clan, with red eyes, shouted, "Kill Omi, tear Omi by hand."

"Tang Dog, kill Tang Dog."

“Old Ancestor, you must kill Tang Dog, take revenge for the clan leader, for the Yi table side, and for the Yi Shi Cai.”
