Omi said, "Locally in the Immortal Realm, there are also endless immortal cultivators, these cultivators, it's not very difficult to cultivate to a quasi-immortal, instead it's a heavenly leap from quasi-immortal to immortal."

"Damn, I thought that those who ascended could enjoy themselves when they reached the Immortal Realm."

"Oh, you all should cultivate to a quasi-immortal as soon as possible, there's often immortal energy here, cultivating to a quasi-immortal should be quick. Once you reach quasi-immortal, I'll recite another mantra every day, if you comprehend it, you'll become immortal, if you can't, then I'll recite it every day, one day I'll be able to comprehend it. Having a mantra to help is better than those who have nothing and wait for the heavens to drape over them every day."

"Thank you, Minister."

"Silly words, what's our relationship anymore, alright, you guys go practice."

Everyone went to practice, except for Omi.

Omi sat down in the living room.

"Senior Demon King, are you there?"

"Seniors?"

"Coming." Not long after, Omi's voice rang out in his mind from the Nine Daoist Demon Kings.

"Senior Demon King, how am I going to cultivate now? It feels clueless, and it's far from what it used to be when I was cultivating immortality." First published at m.kanshu8.net

"It's hard for immortals to upgrade, without a few hundred years, they don't feel it in the slightest, so the average person who becomes an immortal enjoys life, and in the Earth Immortal Realm, any immortal can live in style."

"That's true, after all, there are still endless immortal cultivators underfoot. But I can't go enjoy life, I'm not going to have to help you, I'm definitely going to continue to rise ah." Omi said.

"Right, I'm referring to someone else, not you, I'm now teaching you a breathing and spitting method, this spitting method will allow you to breathe in immortal Qi while leaving more immortal machines in your body, the more immortal machines you accumulate in your body, your flesh will sense it, then naturally, you'll keep on becoming a higher level immortal."

"Good, thank you, Senior Demon King." Omi said from the bottom of his heart, if not for the Devil King's guidance, Omi would have been truly foggy, although Omi was also an Immortal in his previous life, he had no experience at all, and to become an Immortal in his previous life, he had eaten countless genius treasures.

"Omi, listen carefully, this spitting method of mine is called the Seer Spitting Method, in the future, no matter who asks you, you are not allowed to spread it out, otherwise, there will be killing."

"Ah, there's the danger of killing myself again, then wouldn't I be in danger." Omi felt like he was hiding thunder.

The Nine Dao Demon King said, "Omi, it's not too late for you to choose to quit. If you choose to quit, you are forgetting me and everything."

"Why would I want to quit, I still have to save you."

"Omi, it seems I need to tell you something about me. You may not know that I also ascended up from the spirit world." The Nine Dao Demon King said.

"Senior Demon King, I know this, when I was in the Spiritual World, I read an ancient book that said that in the legendary distant era, a man named the Nine Daoist Demon King left behind an ethereal treasure, of course, this is a mythical story in the Spiritual World, with no verification. Everyone else thought it was a fabrication, but I knew it was true, and then I went searching and searching, and perhaps because of your immortal energy in my body, I actually found your treasure."

"Treasure? Hehe, I'm just some spirit stones and scrolls I left behind before my ascension. I'd forgotten about it if you didn't mention it. Alright, let's get down to business, Omi, guess how old I am now?"

"How much?"

"You guess."

Omi remembered that those who could become Earth Immortals in the Immortal Realm were hundreds of millions of years old monsters, Omi immediately said, "You must be tens of billions of years old."

"Wrong, I've only lived for millions of years."

"Ah, how is that possible, an Earth Immortal would need hundreds of millions of years of cultivation to achieve, and you're stronger than an Earth Immortal in a few million years? By the way, what realm are you in now?"

"I'm not hiding anything from you, I'm a Dao Immortal now."

"How strong is a Dao Immortal?"

"Human Immortals, Mortal Immortals, Earth Immortals, Upper Immortals, Celestial Immortals, Dao Immortals, you name it."

"Ah." Omi was surprised, Dao Immortals were really too strong because Earth Immortals were so difficult to achieve, let alone Dao Immortals.

"Omi, the reason why I was able to become a Dao Immortal so quickly is because of a method, the Immortal Qi Spitting Method."

"Senior, you actually passed on such a powerful method to me." Omi said excitedly.

“Don’t get excited yet, let me finish, I’m bound to attract attention for becoming a Dao Immortal so soon, and even though I did a lot of hiding, like, making myself look older and such, I was still noticed. The result of this is that I’m trapped. The reason why I’m trapped is because of the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, Omi, can you still get excited right now? If you learn my Immortal Machine Spitting Method, sooner or later in the future you’ll take the same path as me, and you’ve already seen how I ended up now.”

“This.”

The Nine Dao Demon King smiled bitterly, “Omi, you should think about the future, the future may be, success or failure because of me.”

“Senior Demon King, who are you imprisoned by?”

“There’s no point in telling you now, you’re too far away from our level, in a word, very powerful, very influential.”

“Okay, I understand.”

“You think about it, I’ll give you three days, I’ll contact you again after three days.”

After saying that, the Nine Daoist Demons didn’t release any more Immortal Thoughts.

Omi really needed to think about it, this was no joke.

Once he learned the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, Omi would also definitely grow faster than others, then, he would definitely be noticed, after all, everyone would want to know the reason why, and then help their loved ones, that way, they would be able to control the world forever.

The Nine Daoist Demon King, was the reason why he fell into trouble, and was still being held, definitely wanting to force him to ask the reason, but the Nine Daoist Demon King would rather die than say anything, instead preferring to cultivate a new person to try to turn the situation around in the future, perhaps, the Nine Daoist Demon King had great desires within him, great ambitions in the future, even Omi could be a pawn in his ambitions, who could know these.

Omi now was the one who had to choose, whether to learn his Seer Spitting Method or not, if he wasn’t wrong, the Nine Dao Demon King definitely wouldn’t pass it all to him at once, just like that Silence Technique, one layer at a time, in that case, Omi would be under his control forever.

Omi also didn’t know if the Nine Dao Demon King, was a good person or a bad person, or someone who wanted to use him.

“Ahhhh, so annoying, who can show me a clear path.” Omi shouted.

If he didn’t follow this path, Omi could only honestly be like the other immortals, it would be difficult to rise for millions of years, he could only enjoy life, and cultivation could only be longing and eager to see if the heavens would drape over him.
