

Chapter 1043

But his biological father could only sigh while watching all this.

The biological father even had no affection for the two children born to his ex-wife.

Then the stepmother not only asked Jarod's sister to work and make money, she also cooked and washed clothes when she came back. She couldn't sleep at midnight. She was really tired and fell asleep in the wood shed. She was beaten by the stepmother by pulling her hair.

Until one day, the twelve-year-old sister heard that her stepmother was going to marry her.

My sister finally couldn't handle this inhuman life, and chose to throw herself into the well and die.

Jarod is the only one left in the family.

There is a reason why the stepmother did not start with Jarod.

Jarod's half-sister had anemia and had to give her a blood transfusion almost every month. What's more coincidental is that Jarod happened to have the same blood type as the older sister.

Just like that, every month, a part of the blood is drawn from him and sent to the elder sister.

After a long time, the sick older sister is living well, can go to school, can be alive and kicking, and can also play rubber bands with others.

What about Jarod?

Like a half-dead dog, nestled in a stack of firewood, skinny and unable to stand up.

Jarod has been mindful since he was a child.

Seeing that he would definitely not be able to survive in this home, Jarod stole the eggs and buns from the home, and escaped from that home overnight.

When he was about to escape, he also learned of the illusion, causing the villagers to mistakenly think that he also fell into the well and died.

Since then, the whole village has scolded the stepmother for being cruel.

At that time, Jarod had already hid in the deep mountains and forests.

He ate a lot of eggs and white flour, and within a few days, he was able to walk.

Jarod went down the mountain alone and walked to beg for food. He didn't know how long he walked to Nancheng and was taken in by an orphanage.

Since then, although his life is difficult, he can go to school, have food and shelter.

No one draws his blood anymore.

In the summer vacation of the third year of junior high school Jarod, when he went out to do summer work for others, he secretly went to the village to take a look.

It was discovered that the older sister who had sucked her own blood had died of illness.

The stepmother also became a lunatic because she was beaten and abused by the villagers.

As for the youngest brother, naturally he will not survive.

When the villagers saw Jarod coming back, they said to him: "Your stepmother is going to be condemned by the heavens. You were originally a good and healthy child, but your stepmother wants to draw blood from you alive to save a person. A sick child who won't last long, isn't this a crime?"

The villagers also said to Jarod: "My child, since you have escaped, don't come back again. You will study abroad later, get a good family, and be a good person for the rest of your life."

When Jarod set off from the village, the village gave him a lot of money and gave him eggs.

However, Jarod, after studying at university, never returned to the village.

Because there are full of his fearful childhood memories.

There are elder brothers who have been exhausted, and sisters who have been thrown into the well.

Therefore, he will never go back in his life.

However, there was one sentence that he suddenly remembered at this moment.

That's what the villagers said to him: "To trade healthy human lives in exchange for unhealthy human lives, this is going to be struck by lightning."

Will he be struck by lightning?

Suzi... is also his daughter!

Chapter 1044

“Jarod!” Moira yelled suddenly and pulled Jarod back from the meeting.

Jarod immediately looked at Moira, Lanita, and Elder Shu.

“Dad is talking to you!” Moira had already taken the initiative to change her mouth to call Elder Shu a father.

Jarod said immediately: “Master, do you think?”

“Do you still have the criminal information from Suzi’s early years? For example, how she killed someone by mistake, and the man who was killed by mistake. Does he have family members?”

Jarod was suddenly horrified when he heard Mr. Shu mention the time when Suzi was in jail.

His nerves seemed to be torn apart.

Extreme pain.

Back then!

Suzi was still in her sophomore year. At that time, Suzi didn't go home very much and didn't ask her family for living expenses. She was basically in school, but that time happened to coincide with Suzi's birthday.

Jarod personally took Suzi home and said it was for her birthday party.

How flattered Suzi was at that time?

A child who had never received love, suddenly received love, panicked.

It was in that panic that Suzi put on the clothes of Lanita's accidental murder, was drunk by the Lin family, and then was identified at the scene. The murderer's clothes were identified. All kinds of evidence were conclusive and scared. Suzi even had a chance to appeal. No, he was sentenced.

Originally thought Suzi would sit through the prison.

But never thought that she was outstanding and well behaved inside.

She will be put to prison soon.

At that time, when Arron and his elder brother Fu Shaocong were fighting for me, Jarod once again used Suzi to save himself.

Thinking about it now, Jarod doesn't even call to recall the past.

In particular, I heard that Old Man Shu also specifically mentioned that year and asked him to find evidence again.

Jarod suddenly roared: "What to look for! What evidence is there! Don't you know what happened back then? Your granddaughter, don't you know! Lanita, don't you know!"

Lanita: "...Dad?"

Moira raised her hand and hit Jarod: "Jarod! The child can't live anymore, are you still scolding him like this? Jarod, are you an individual!"

Jarod: "..."

Moira cried and angrily said: "You are the child's father, and I am the child's stepmother! Don't forget, in the Lin family, Lanita is always the only one calling your father, Suzi, she has never I will call you Dad, you have raised her for so many years, what have you changed! What has been changed is her hostility towards you!"

"You forgot that year, she almost didn't smash you to death with a stone."

“Also, in Mr. Fu’s house, the things she said to you, either she died, or you died, where is she like your daughter? She was born your enemy!”

Jarod: “...”

Moira’s words reminded Jarod a little bit.

My mind is full of disgust for Suzi.

At this moment, Jarod’s cell phone rang, and he picked it up to connect, and Suzi’s voice came from the other end.

Suzi gritted his teeth and roared: “Jarod! You beast! I ask you, what did you give birth to me! What did you give birth to me! You are a beast! A livestock, you should have died long ago! I cursed you for being driven out of the house. Hit to death!”

Jarod: “...”

Five minutes ago, he was full of guilt for this daughter. What did he get for being so kind?

In exchange for Suzi’s bloody curse on him!

D*mn it!
