

Chapter 1201

However, she was scared to the bone.

She has not returned to China in recent years, but she has indeed heard of Arron.

Arron is not only the king of Nancheng, he is also a very important presence in the world.

Arron and Kraig are basically complementary to each other.

If anyone is stronger, it is Arron.

At least Kraig only grasped the power, but Arron not only has real power, his business kingdom is also the rich one.

Not only that, Arron is more ruthless than Kraig in terms of sofa decisiveness.

Arron doesn't care about his face, he does what he says.

Saying that you will die without a place to bury your body is definitely not a joke.

Because Arron never joked with outsiders.

Elma was stunned, and he didn't even dare to speak again, but Arron spoke again: "Kraig can't do anything to you, but I can! Kraig and I were born into dead brothers. We will solve the personal conflict for him. For me, it's a matter of minutes!"

Elma: "..."

After a few seconds, her voice was full of fear and said: "Don't...don't take my life, I...I'll get out of here!"

Yu must, Elma rolled away rolling away.

When she came, she was in Darius's car, and when she returned, she had to walk back with her feet. Not to mention that she could walk to her residence in the year of the monkey, she was still stinky.

Elma had all the desire to die.

She didn't expect that she would be the result of such a brutal Waterloo when she came here with Darius.

It really made her very annoyed.

But there is nothing he can do.

Elma could only drag her body and mouth with the smell, and she drifted away.

And here, Suzi and his party also walked towards their mother's pastoral house.

As he walked, Suzi suddenly thought of the two young people working in the field.

"What's the situation with you two?" Suzi asked.

One of the young people immediately said to Suzi with a grin: "Sister, we are students of Agricultural University, just come down to experience life, the aunt inside is so enthusiastic."

Suzi smiled: "It's rare for you to work so hard, but it's not right for you to dig holes like this."

Another young man: "Sister, will you dig holes?"

Suzi nodded: "When I was very young, I would work in the farmland."

The young man immediately said enthusiastically: "Ask sister, teach us?"

Suzi looked at our mother at the door, and then at the things in her hands. She said, "I will come again when I return the gift to my mother's room."

"Okay, thank you sister." The young man's mouth was very sweet.

Suzi pursed his lips and smiled, and then walked with Arron to his mother's yard.

There are organic vegetables everywhere in this yard, as well as bean sprouts, and there is a cool and refreshing atmosphere in the whole yard.

A group of people came in one after another, and Alyce was smiling.

She doesn't come here often.

It was just the last time I mentioned to Suzi that the house of his adoptive parents, that is, Suzi's grandfather and grandmother, had fallen into disrepair for a long time. Wanting to take a look, Suzi ordered someone to buy it and repair it.

"Come in and do it, come in," Alyce greeted with a smile on his face.

This small group, one after another, carried gifts into the house.

No one noticed, even Darius didn't know. At this moment, there was a car standing on a small road far outside the courtyard.

The old man in the car was holding a binoculars and kept looking around.

The bodyguard behind him asked with a heartache, "Master, you...why is this?"

Elder Shu said very sadly: "In this house, my biological daughter lives."

Chapter 1202

The bodyguard behind him: "..."

The old man has been accustomed to all his life. Although he abandoned the army and went to business in the past 20 years after he was 60 years old, he still has a vigorous and vigorous style.

However, these bodyguards who have been with the old man for more than ten years did not expect that when the old man was young, he would be so cruel to his own flesh and blood.

This is an approach that these thirty-something bodyguards behind them can't realize.

There are four bodyguards who often follow the old man.

Because they have followed the old man for more than ten years, they have inherited part of the old man's style and his upright character. Among them, one of the bodyguards is very fond of playing.

Often go to some clubs to find women.

However, he also said very clearly to those women: "Don't want to be pregnant with my child, even if you are pregnant with my child, I don't recognize it! If you don't recognize it, you won't recognize it! Resolutely deny it! If you die, you don't recognize it!"

In the past, the bodyguard thought this trick was very useful.

You can kill a hundred.

This trick, the bodyguard also learned from Old Man Shu.

But now, the old man Kandushu regretted his life, so that he almost did not die of illness. If he was a little better, he would come here, hoping that when he could take a look at his own daughters and daughters, the bodyguard suddenly realized something.

To deny one's own child is to commit evil!

If you don't want to play!

Now that it is played, there may be a next generation.

Don't you recognize?

Heaven does not strike you!

However, your own situation is enough to punish your heart!

The bodyguard felt that the current old man Shu was more painful to live than to die. But he was reluctant to die.

Because he wanted to look at his daughter more.

At this moment, Mr. Shu's cell phone rang, he touched a cloud of tears, and then connected: "Hello?"

At the other end, what came out was a very long-lasting voice.

"Uncle, this is Jianing, and I will be back from abroad in a few days."

Elder Shu didn't have too many surprises, he just said, "Uh...".

At that end, the niece who was in her early fifties immediately noticed something wrong with the old man. The niece asked with concern: “Uncle, are you...are you sick? Or what? I haven’t been abroad for so many years. I’ve been back, I don’t know you...”

The last time Gu Jianing came back was ten years ago.

At that time, the enthusiasm of the old man’s family for Gu Jianing made Gu Jianing feel like she was like the eldest lady of the Shu family.

Later, when returning to the foreign country, she never came back because of the long distance.

But, even after ten years, the old man shouldn’t have such an attitude?

Unless the old man is sick.

In this version, the tone of the old man Shu even showed impatience: “Jianing, when you come back, let your cousin pick you up, and hang up when it’s okay.”

If the words were necessary, Mr. Shu closed the line.

He didn’t want to put his experience on Gu Jianing.

After all, it was the daughter of someone else's family. She came back once when she was happy, but she didn't come back once when she was upset for ten years.

But if it were his own daughter, it would be completely different!

He didn't understand this truth until Elder Shu was eighty years old.

Therefore, at this moment, all of the thoughts of Mr. Shu are on Alyce, Suzi, Darius, and Lilly.

These four are the descendants of his old man.

He looked from a distance.

Chapter 1203

The violent jump behind him reminded him: "Master, why don't you go in, anyway, Darius is..."

Elder Shu shook his head: "Don't bother them anymore, Alyce is not happy, and Suzi Suzi is not happy."

Speaking of this, the old man Shu smiled again: “That little one, even though he is only six years old, is also fierce like a little queen.”

Seeing Mr. Shu laugh, the bodyguards all laughed.

However, there is also unspeakable sadness in my heart.

But, again, who is to blame?

The bodyguards could only follow Mr. Shu silently, enjoying the family happiness from a distance. What’s different from the depressed scene here is that there are laughter and laughter in the countryside at that end.

At this moment, in this farmyard fence of Alyce, a few people were talking about Darius.

“A Zhen, it’s not that I said you! Even I know the plague god who hides Elma, how can you not know...”

At this moment, Darius was extremely innocent: “I...I don’t have much contact with Mr. Jun, I really don’t know...”

Darius looked at Galia again: “Galia didn’t tell me either.”

Galia coldly snorted: “I want to break up with you!”

Darius coaxed warmly: “Galia, when you beat Elma just now, you didn’t mean to break up with me, you were jealous of fighting against Elma.”

Galia pouted, unreasonably: “Humph! I’m sorry now, how can you drop it!”

Darius smiled patiently and said: “Allow you to regret it. Before I marry you, you can regret it countless times, but in the end I will do everything possible to get you back.”

Hearing what Darius said, it was impossible for Galia not to move.

Her tone also slowed down a lot: “Darius, you don’t know how vicious Elma is when you take care of your grandpa at home these days.”

Darius looked at everyone present.

Finally, his eyes fell on Lenny’s face, and Lenny looked at each other.

Lenny said: “My second uncle and Elma are childhood sweethearts. It’s not wrong. My second uncle almost watched Elma grow up. However, after Elma and my second uncle had been in love for a few years, they said they wanted to Go to the outside world to see the world.”

“She has been away for ten years.”

“Ten years!”

“My second uncle is almost waiting to be a middle-aged person.”

“In the first three years, my second uncle looked for Elma all over the world.”

“I found it later, but Elma still didn’t come back. She said that she just wanted to follow her heart. Her heart doesn’t want to come back. She won’t come back to be with my second uncle.”

“At that time, my second uncle was also decadent. If he hadn’t ruled thousands of soldiers and horses, it is estimated that the second uncle would have been abandoned.”

“Until three years later, Dalia appeared.”

“She is like a little white pigeon. She needs second uncle to take care of her, and she needs second uncle to love her so that she can live.”

“Furthermore, Dalia was very obedient and never bothered my second uncle. At that time, both of them were hurt, so they went together.”

“My second uncle has always been very clear that he is only lonely at this stage and needs someone to accompany him. He doesn’t like Dalia. He still has Elma in his heart.”

“But day after day, year after year, between people, even if you sleep, you can sleep together, okay!”

“What a ruthless man that can drive away a woman who has been with him for seven years?”

What Lenny said was all towards Dalia.

However, Suzi could also hear that Lenny was very towards the second uncle.

Suzi couldn’t help but sneered: “Your second uncle is such a cruel man! I hope he can’t find Sister Shan for the rest of his life. As long as Sister Shan has a good time outside, why bother to come back with him?”

When Suzi’s words fell, Galia and Rayna also nodded.

Coincidentally at this time, Kraig’s call came, and it was Arron’s cell phone.

Upon seeing this, Suzi was the first to snatch Kraig’s call: “Hey! Kraig, have you found my sister Shan?”

Chapter 1204

At that end, Kraig's voice was extremely tired: "No."

Since yesterday afternoon, after Suzi received a phone call from Dalia to borrow money, Kraig began to search for Dalia's location. After locking the location, he didn't even eat any food, so he drove all the way to the local school. County seat.

It is a remote, mountain town.

Kraig drove all night.

When he arrived at the place, the people he had expelled were almost impenetrable in the small city.

Especially the locked hospital was surrounded by three floors inside and three floors outside.

Due to Kraig's order, no one dared to disturb the hospital, but his subordinates also reported to Kraig: "Master, since we surrounded yesterday, no ant has been released here."

Kraig smiled relievedly on her face: "Good job, I have worked hard."

If the words were necessary, he went to the hospital and checked them one by one.

After investigating for two full hours, Kraig searched all the corners in the hospital, but no trace of Dalia was found.

Later, there was no other way, so he started to check the medical records again.

Only then did I find out that Dalia came here yesterday to see the gastroenterology department.

Then he moved from the gastroenterology department to the obstetrics and gynecology department.

Obstetrics and Gynecology!

Kraig's forehead was hot.

Dalia came to the obstetrics and gynecology department, he must have something to do with the child.

Kraig quietly asked the doctor who went to the obstetrics and gynecology department for Dalia.

The doctor said in a pity: “Eh, it’s also a poor woman. She’s a little older, she’s thirty-four-five years old, she’s been pregnant with several, but she didn’t sit still.”

Kraig: “What do you mean?”

The doctor changed the layman’s words: “She has had several pregnancies before, so her body is no longer good. This pregnancy is again the time between the last abortion, and there is barely a month and a half.”

Kraig couldn’t wait to ask: “What then?”

The doctor looked up at Kraig: “Who are you?”

Kraig said in a low voice: “Her husband!”

His tone is still He Huan, and his expression is not ferocious, so the doctor doesn’t know what Kraig’s background is.

However, when the doctor heard Kraig say that it was Dalia’s husband, the doctor suddenly became angry.

“Are you her husband? Why are you so sc*mbag? You ruined her bad health! Since you don’t want children, you let her have abortions again and again?”

Kraig: "..."

Seeing Kraig not speaking, the doctor said: "But fortunately, she didn't get rid of it. If she gets rid of this time, she won't want to have children anymore in the future!"

Kraig breathed a sigh of relief.

The doctor immediately arranged for Kraig to say: "Whether her fetus can sit still, it depends on your later care of her. After taking good care of her, she will not only be able to sit the fetus, but she will be able to give birth in the future. If she can't sit still, This life is over."

After taking a look at Kraig, the doctor continued: "You men, you must protect women's bodies!"

Kraig was criticized by the doctor and apologized again and again.

Repeatedly said yes.

"Okay, go home and take care of your daughter-in-law!" The doctor still has to sit for a consultation, and he has no time to spend with Kraig here.

Kraig had been driven out by the doctor.

But Kraig, who came out of the hospital, was even more worried.

I didn't know that Dalia was pregnant before. At least she was alone. He was not so worried. Now that he knew that Dalia was pregnant, Kraig's heart seemed to be roasted in a fire.

Moreover, he checked the surveillance of the hospital.

Dalia saw an illness here, and hurried away.

There was a man by her side.

The man's appearance is a bit vague, and it's really difficult to find it.

Especially, the more you go to the northern mountains, the more

Chapter 1205

There is no monitoring in the mountain area. Where can I find it?

How can a pregnant woman live her life?

Kraig's heart seemed to be torn in half.

However, no matter how uncomfortable, he will not help.

A group of subordinates asked him what to do?

Kraig said: "From here, all the way to the north, northeast, and northwest, as long as it is north, you can find me from one county to one town, one town to one town."

Subordinates should say: "Yes!"

After finishing the order, Kraig called Arron as quickly as possible.

Here, Arron is here with his mother-in-law, complaining with Suzi, and Darius, and Lenny, Rayna and Christopher, and the only one, this group of people is all about Darius's.

Kraig was calling Arron's cell phone, but he didn't expect it was Suzi.

Suzi's tone was very anxious. After she connected, she asked Dalia if she had found it.

Kraig didn't even know how to speak.

He was very emotional. It is a blessing for Dalia to make friends like Suzi.

Although she would disappoint Suzi, Kraig still bit her head and said:
“No...no, I’m out, she has left this county.”

Suzi didn’t blame Kraig, she only asked eagerly: “Kraig, you don’t need to call me at this time, some of you can call me now, she can run far, far. .”

Kraig knew that Suzi was anxious.

At this moment, she instead persuaded Suzi: “Suzi, listen to me, I can’t catch up with her. I can only do a little carpet search slowly. I called Arron just to get Arron Qin tells you, I... If she calls you and asks you to borrow money, you... make a one-million-dollar call to her card.”

Suzi: “...”

“No, no, 10 million!”

Suzi: “...”

She had to ask doubtfully: “What happened?”

Kraig said with difficulty: "Ashan, she...she...she is pregnant again."

Suzi: "..."

She took a step back subconsciously.

Arron immediately hugged Suzi: "What's the matter?"

Suzi desperately said: "Sister Shan...she is pregnant again."

Arron was startled.

Rayna and Galia were also shocked.

Suzi's face was extremely worried: "Sister Shan, her health was originally bad, but now she is pregnant and fleeing again, she...she is almost the same as me back then."

"But how young was I back then? I was only in my early twenties, and I could eat all the hardships, but sister Shan was different. She had just been in the palace for more than a month, and she was pregnant again. She didn't have any money with her. What can she do without Sanford?"

Suzi knows how hard it is for a pregnant woman to escape.

She calmed down, and suddenly shouted into the receiver: "Kraig! Why don't you die! Why don't you die! What the hell are you doing alive! How are you going to die! Okay!"

Kraig: "..."

After a long while, Suzi bit his lip and said with tears: "Yes... I'm sorry."

Then he said: "I know, if Sister Shan calls me, I will send her 10 million yuan."

Yes, Suzi hung up the phone without waiting for Kraig to say anything.

After closing the thread, she pursed her lips and looked at the other people laughing: "I'm sorry, I made you laugh, I...I just confiscated my emotions."

Mother called her distressedly: "Suzi."

Suzi shook his head and chuckles: "It's okay mom, it's okay, that I...I'll go out to get some air."

If the language was necessary, she went out from the room.

As soon as he left the house, Suzi was stunned when he saw the people in the vegetable garden.

Chapter 1206

Outside

In the little fenced garden of mother, the two young people who were digging holes in the dirt are still there.

Both of these children were under the age of twenty. When Elma was driven away just now, the two children also contributed a lot. Why didn't these two children come in and drink a glass of water when they entered the door just now?

Suzi apologized to the two hip-hop boys.

"Hi, kid." She felt a little more relaxed than before.

One of the two boys smiled heartily: "Sister, how old are you older than us, at most three or four years old?"

Hearing the little boy boasting about himself like this, Suzi felt better again.

She scolded herself in her heart.

Being a woman can't stand the praise of others.

It really couldn't stand Xiao Xianrou's smile.

But Suzi still said: "Although I am not very old. But I have given birth to children. My children are almost six years old, and my children are called your brothers. Moreover, I am more skilled than you in farm work. Now, what did you just say come here, let me help you dig the holes?"

The two small meats immediately looked at Suzi in admiration.

The other immediately said: "Sister, you really know how to dig holes."

Suzi nodded: "First, let me talk about how you came to work in my mother's vegetable garden. My mother invited you?"

The young man smiled just now: "No, sister, we are really from an agricultural university. We just want to contract a few hundred acres of land and grow organic food after graduating from college."

Another young man enthusiastically added: "We have to make our own brand, an organic food brand."

The guy just finished speaking, the guy just said: "When our organic food manor is successfully built in the future, we will build our own dancing room in the manor. We specialize in hot dance."

“Well, so it won’t affect others’ rest.”

The two young men were very excited.

Very yearning.

Suzi could see from their faces that they were full of energy and happiness.

These are two children who have no knowledge of the world and have not experienced any hardships.

They are not worldly, not gloomy, and do not know the big role of power.

If not, they wouldn’t be so handsome and beautiful when they teased Elma just now.

Such a life is really worth looking forward to.

Suzi looked at the two boys and said with envy: “I really envy your lives.”

“Sister, your life is pretty good too, how handsome your husband is.”

Suzi said, "Yes, my life is not bad."

After a pause, she said, "I just said that I want to teach you how to dig holes. Since you come here once today, I can't let you learn no skills at all, right?"

She came to the two boys, took one of the boys' head, and while raising the head, she explained: "Look at me, with this type of head, first your feet have to stand one after the other. Steady, so that you can gain strength."

The two little boys were stunned.

Although Suzi told them just now, she will dig pits.

But that's just talking.

But now, looking at the handle style of Suzi holding the head, you can see that he is an old farmer who is rolling in the soil.

But Suzi's clothes, Suzi's delicate skin and tender flesh, Suzi's tall figure, and Suzi's beauty all told these two boys that the young woman in front of her is an elegant and clear urban lady. .

Where does she have the slightest temperament of an old farmer?

This contrast stunned the two little boys.

Suzi raised his head. As soon as he went down, the pit thrown out was deep and wide.

All of a sudden, she slapped the two young men a few times.

The young man's chin almost fell.

After digging the hole, Suzi bent down to see the dirt in the hole. And gravel.

“Crush all these hard things and throw them out of stones so that the dealer can sprout faster. If you encounter a dry day, you must bring some water when you plant seeds.”

Chapter 1207

“However, you should also pay attention. Don't water the thirsty seedlings when you are exposed to the sun on a hot day. You can pour the seedlings to death all at once.”

Suzi was digging holes for a hundred years, while explaining to two young people.

Her expression was calm and serious.

It's not like showing off at all, but cherishes this piece of land very much, and is very serious about explaining it to the juniors.

The two little boys were once again convinced by Suzi.

If you just saw Suzi's appearance and temperament, working in this farmland is a kind of contrast, now these two young people admire Suzi deeply.

They unanimously felt that such beauties are so beautiful.

The little boy admired him and asked: "Sister, how do you understand the land so much, as if you are..."

The little boy was not embarrassed to say it.

Suzi smiled and asked, "Old farmer?"

Another little boy smiled awkwardly: "How could my sister be an old farmer?"

Suzi said: "I am."

Little boy: "..."

Suzi smiled slightly and said: "I was born in the mountains. My father was a lame man and his health was not very good. Only my mother worked at home. I would follow my mother when I was five or six years old. Seed, then bury the soil."

"When I am seven or eight years old, I will dig out the holes by myself."

"I also use a sickle, the most primitive sickle to cut wheat."

"I also make yeast buns. When I'm very young, I will do it."

The two little boys were stunned when they heard it again.

Not only two little boys.

Not far away, Elder Shu in the car hiding under a big tree.

Although Suzi's voice is not loud, the countryside is empty and silent, so Suzi's voice can spread far away.

Elder Shu sitting in the car burst into tears when he saw this scene.

After so many years, what is in my mind?

Why do you always feel that this child is a malignant tumor of upper class society?

She is so duty-bound.

So neither humble nor overbearing.

So down-to-earth and hardworking.

From a little bit, four or five years old, I must help my mother dare to work in farming.

When he was a teenager, he would cut wheat by himself and make buns.

Such a child, is it pissing and pissing to get him in his eyes? He has been screaming and disgusting towards her all these years. Have to give her a bad woman who pollutes the upper-class society?

At this moment, when watching Suzi seriously teach two young urban youths who are studying agriculture to serve the land, Old Man Shu's heart seemed to be planed by the head of Suzi's hands.

It hurts as much as he wants.

Suzi didn't realize it.

She still patiently teaches these two young people.

She thinks it is a good thing to have dreams when people are in their teens and 20s.

It was her age, but she was in jail, pregnant, and fleeing.

“Sister, you are so beautiful!”

“Sister, you are the most beautiful girl I have seen so far. You are more beautiful than the school flowers of our Agricultural University!”

“Hey, the school bachelor of our Agricultural University is too hypocritical. How can she compare with her sister.”

“Sister, shall we leave each other's WeChat?”

Suzi: “...”

“No! You two should go back!” said an extremely cold voice behind him.

Chapter 1208

Suzi suddenly covered his lips and smiled.

She didn't need to look back, she knew it was her own man who followed.

My own man is getting jealous on dates now.

He even eats the jealousy of two children.

The two young men immediately shouted: “Brother...”

Arron: “It's time for you to go back to school!”

Young youth: “The aunt inside, she...also said to leave us to eat here at noon.”

Arron: “I repeat, you should go back to school!”

Another young man: “Um, brother, we...we said yes to the aunt inside. She invited us to dinner at noon today. She said that her family will have a lot of guests today, and I promised the aunt for dinner. Time, we perform street dance.”

“I like street dancing!” Shen Only smiled.

Lilly looked at Arron again: “Dad, let the two older brothers stay. I want to learn street dancing from my older brother.”

Arron: “...”

He can be cold to the two young people, and now slowly, he is also making a small temper to Suzi.

But for his own daughter, Arron couldn't do anything about it.

“Dad...” Lilly shook Arron's hand.

The two little kids also winked at Lilly only unscrupulously.

Arron's majesty was nothing in the eyes of the two kids.

Christopher behind him wanted to laugh.

What a fearless young man.

In such two Xiaosao years, the Fourth Master really couldn't help them.

Arron eased his tone and looked at the two young men with disgust:
“Remember! You can only play with the only one! Because today in this yard, there are only you two and the only one, children under the age of twenty!”

The two young men immediately said in unison: “I know! Uncle!”

Arron came again: “Don't be in the field! You are in the field, really ruining this land!”

The two young men looked at Arron slightly aggrieved.

But when they saw the extremely cold look in his eyes, they were immediately shocked, and then quickly rolled out of the field and went to play with the only one.

“Brother, you teach me street dance.”

“Sister, you dance hip-hop, the hip-hop style you wore first, the dress you wore today. It doesn't fit.”

Shen Only: “What should I do?”

“Today I will teach you some essentials first, and then we will dance to show you, okay?”

Lilly immediately clapped his hands: “Great. Great! I have my brother playing with you.”

The three children quickly became one.

Here Suzi is still standing in the field, holding a head in his hand, looking at Arron angrily and amusingly: “Arron, why are you jealous of anyone? The Arron I know, Mr. Fu. But never Not jealous, he has always been a daunting man with high coldness.”

Even when she first met Arron, Suzi was attracted by Arron’s cold morning and domineering?

Arron calmly looked at the woman holding the pickaxe in front of him.

What the young man said was right.

She is really beautiful.

When wearing noble fashion, beauty.

When I was busy at work, I forgot to eat, Mei.

When she is hungry, beautiful when she is holding her pregnant belly and dragging a worn-out snakeskin bag, but still has incomparably strong vitality and survivability.

At this moment, she spared no effort. Very serious, it is really beautiful when an authentic farmer teaches a young man to hoe the ground.

It is the kind of beauty that is neither humble nor overbearing, and is really kind at all times.

Arron suddenly smiled helplessly in his heart.

No wonder, she really attracts men.

All kinds of men.

Including the two little fresh meats under twenty years old, they were all attracted and moved by her.

At this moment, the man said to Suzi unreasonably: "In the future, you are not allowed to take the initiative to talk to a man!"

Suzi: "I'm just a teenager..."

“Nor!”

“From then on, your son, should I talk to him, should I feed him, should I bathe him, and hug him to sleep!” Suzi asked, rolling his eyes.

Arron: “Of course you can!”

Chapter 1209

Suzi: “...”

He can really distinguish between relatives and distances.

Ha!

For a while, Suzi was amused by his man’s appearance again.

Just now because of Kraig’s phone call, my heart became extremely gloomy, and finally he got a lot better.

She felt that she was very lucky.

At least her own man is not Kraig. If she had been with Arron for six or seven years at the beginning, Arron would definitely not let her abort the fetus, let alone push her away personally.

“Arron.” Suzi shouted.

“Huh?” the man replied.

“I love you!” she said to him playfully without warning.

Arron: “...”

He also remembered that six years ago, when she lived at home to take care of her mother, she was able to create some sweetness in the painful situation.

The man’s face changed, and he said uncomfortably: “Go in and make dumplings! Otherwise, when can I have lunch!”

As long as the words must be said, the man walked directly into the room.

Suzi: “...”

She was surprised to discover that her man blushed just now?

Arron!

He even blushes uncomfortably sometimes?

Ha!

Suzi shook his head, followed Arron with a chuckle, and entered the room.

Far away, at the end of the ridge, under the big tree, the car still didn't drive away.

Elder Shu in the car kept wiping his tears.

The laughter in the small courtyard of the Tianyuan farmhouse reverberated continuously.

The old man could clearly hear the noise inside.

“Rayna, you little shrew, you claim to have been able to cook since you were a kid, can you make dumplings a little bit uglier!”

“I have been cooking since I was a child, and I can cook everything, but those are some crude meals, okay? When our family makes dumplings, how can we be so particular about our dumplings! Our dumplings are all made with vegetable buns. The same size!”

“I finally know why you are a shrew.”

“Why?”

“Because you eat a lot!”

“Haha!”

There was constant laughter indoors, as did the laughter outside.

Two little boys accompany a little milk dumpling, and the three children dance in the small yard of the farmhouse, which seems to be out of order, laughing and joking, but actually requires a lot of effort.

The only kid Shen who made trouble in the middle always swayed the two elder brothers.

At this time, the little girl leaned forward and backward with a smile.

From a distance, the old man Shu, who looked at all of this, wanted to yearn for as much as he wanted.

Several times he couldn't help getting out of the car, and couldn't help but want to rush in and blend in.

All his relatives inside!

His biological daughter, his grandson, his grandson, his great grandson.

They are all his relatives.

However, he went in with one foot of the old man Shu, but he was timid.

He dared not go.

He was afraid of seeing the cold face of his own daughter.

He was afraid of the politeness and calmness of his true granddaughter who refused to be thousands of miles away.

Elder Shu said dimly to the bodyguard and driver: "Go back."

The driver also nodded sadly: "Okay, old man."

The car gradually drove away, and the laughter in the room continued.

Due to the large number of people, the dumplings were made very quickly, and it didn't take long to make a lot of dumplings, enough for a pot.

Alyce was carrying the dumplings and planned to go to the outdoor kitchen to cook the dumplings.

As soon as she left the house, she was stunned: "You... why are you here!"

Chapter 1210

Elder Shu smiled humbly and looked at Alyce who was carrying a large dish of dumplings: "Alyce, Alyce..."

Alyce: "..."

At this moment, she even thought that the dumplings on the plate fell!

She tried hard to restrain her emotions, and asked coldly: "How did you get in!"

The old man wiped the sweat from his head and said: "I...Dad, Dad has been watching outside for a long time. There is laughter in the room, and Dad is very intoxicated by it."

“Daddy didn’t come to disturb you at the beginning, so I just sat in the car and watched. I don’t want to disturb you. I’m afraid you will be angry. I...actually, I have already driven a long way...”

“Then why are you back again!”

Elder Shu: “...”

He was robbed by his daughter, so he didn’t dare to speak anymore.

“Say! Why are you coming back!” Alyce roared!

Her roar alarmed several jokers in the room, and they came out one after another.

Suzi suddenly became angry when he saw Elder Shu standing at the door.

“Lilly!” Suzi shouted.

Lilly came in cautiously immediately: “Mom...Mom.”

“How did you let him in! Didn’t you play in the yard!” Suzi angrily scolded Lilly.

Lilly rolled his eyes and looked at Old Man Shu: “You old man, you are so true. Why do you sneak in while me and two brothers are turning around? Are you not so shy?”

Elder Shu: “...”

Indeed, he sneaked in while the only one was flipping in.

Lilly was playing with his two brothers in the yard. He hid behind the fence for several minutes. When he saw the only very uncoordinated dance posture and clamoring about her best dance, the old man couldn't help but smile. .

That's great!

Why didn't you feel such family happiness before?

At that moment, Elder Shu didn't want the consequences anymore, he didn't hesitate to take advantage of the only somersault, and quickly came to the door.

It's also a coincidence.

The first thing he saw was his own daughter, Alyce.

Alyce smiled helplessly and said to Suzi: “Suzi, don’t blame the only one, she is only six years old and a child, where are the complicated minds of adults?”

With such a sentence, Mr. Shu said that he was a little embarrassed.

He was about to say something with a blushing face, but Alyce still said in a calm and helpless tone: “I want to ask you, you are so lingering, from my mother’s small courtyard to my adoptive parents. In the rural courtyard in the suburbs, do you want to ask me for alimony?”

Father Shu: “Alyce, Dad...no shortage...”

Alyce didn’t listen to Old Man Shu’s words, she only sneered: “There is a saying that is very good, even if you abandon me since I was born, you have never brought me up, don’t hurry up and don’t bring me up. Knowing me, but even so, we are still related by blood, right?”

Yes!

What did Mr. Shu want to say.

However, she didn’t know what her daughter meant by saying this.

Immediately afterwards, the daughter said very sadly: “There are no rules in the support law. You don’t support me, so I can not support you. There are no rules in the law, so you came to me very confidently and condescendingly said to me,” Whether I recognize you or not, you have an obligation to support me, right?”

Father Shu: “No...no Alyce, Alyce, Dad... Dad’s property can be used for the elderly, Dad doesn’t need you...”

“Since it doesn’t mean that, please leave!”

“Leave now!”
