Chapter 1486-1488

Chapter 1486

“Young Master Jack, keep on fighting! We can’t hold on any longer. It truly depends on your side now, see if you can create an opening to survive. Even if all of us can’t escape alive, you can!”

At this moment, Kenneth turned and shouted at Jack; he was drenched in sweat.

Jack was fighting two elite fighters alone. He just broke through to the peak stage of the true god realm not long ago, while his two opponents who were veterans of the Skies Pavilion were already at the peak of the true god realm. It had not been easy for Jack to hold out that long.

“Jack, don’t mind us! If you can create an opening to escape, please do so! Use that flying sword to escape quickly! I’m glad that you’re my son. Avenge us in the future when you have the opportunity!”

Nash was overwhelmed by the enemy. Before the real battle took off, the other party attacked him only to test out his prowess, and he could barely deal with it. But now, the other party seemed to have known the real deal on their side, so they began to show their true strength by using more terrifying martial skills and techniques!

Jack’s face immediately sank to the deepest upon hearing Nash and Kenneth’s words. If this went on, it would truly be troublesome. He could hold on longer, but his father and Kenneth obviously could not hold on much longer. If they had succumbed, Jack would have to face six of those fighters all alone.

The only hope was for Jack to kill the two in front of him, then only he could free up his hands and help his father and Kenneth and win the tough battle.

The two opponents also began to join forces and were constantly mobilizing their Chi energy in their bodies, preparing to give Jack a fatal blow.

“Let’s end this now!”

Jack tightened his grip around the longsword and injected his Chi energy into the sword continuously. A thick layer of black-colored aura enclosed the sword, making the sword appear domineering yet mysterious.

“Haha, brat, do you think you could beat both of us? What’s the matter? Seeing your father and the others dying makes you anxious? So you decided to give us the final blow? Dream on!”

The middle-aged man laughed out loud sarcastically.

“That’s right. Let’s not talk about killing you, even if we can’t kill, your father and the First Elder can’t hold out any longer if we drag on slightly longer. After that, what’s waiting for you is only death!”

The old man laughed sinisterly. In his opinion, they had already won for sure, there was no longer any suspense nor plot twist to it.

“Is that so? If I don’t try, how do I know if I could kill you two?”

Jack laughed icily. At that moment, the sword vibrated aggressively, and the aura enclosed around it shined bright like a diamond, fluctuating vigorously.

Bang!

However, Kenneth did not manage to hold on; he was blasted and flew more than ten feet away, a mouthful of blood gushed out from his mouth. His face instantly blanched.

“Motherf*cker!”

The First Elder’s face was as pale as a white paper, but he still gritted his teeth and once again stomped his feet, and continued to control his Chi energy to fight with the other party.

“Hahaha! Old man, you’re injured! I’ll see how long you can hold on!”

Kenneth’s opponent—an old man—laughed out loud with a smug look.

“First Elder, please hold on!”

Jack’s face sank deeper, and killing intent surged in his eyes. He swung his arm and shouted out, “Blade Wave!”

Swoosh! Swoosh!

In the blink of an eye, hundreds of terrifying Chi attacks in the form of blade waves shot out and charged forward. Behind the first wave of the blade wave was another wave, forming a series of blade waves. The attack flew toward the other party with unrelenting momentum.

“Be careful! His attack is strong!”

The two opponents—who were the veterans in the peak of the true god realm—already knew that Jack’s attack was strong with just one glance. They changed their demeanors, clenching their fists tightly and cast out a Chi attack. In front of them, two huge Chi attacks in the form of fierce tigers appeared.

Chapter 1487

The two humongous tigers were both powerful and terrifying. They were more than ten feet tall and possessed the mighty aura of strong creatures—tigers. A thick layer of Chi energy was leaping on them.

Roar!

The fierce tigers let out a roar and charged straight ahead toward Jack.

“Go!”

A huge amount of Jack’s Chi energy was injected into his attack so that he could control the flying sword, and thus the attack power was naturally more extraordinary than before.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Waves of flying swords went forward and soon separated into two groups; each wave blasted head-on against the giant tigers respectively.

The loud and horrifying sound pierced through the air, and the ground was shaking incessantly. Waves of Chi aura dispersed and radiated out in all directions when the blade waves collided with the tigers.

The two huge tigers were beating and destroying the blade attacks ceaselessly; the flying sword Chi attack cast by Jack was smashed without mercy.

However, Jack’s flying swords were too many, and soon the gigantic tigers could not hold on any longer. The flying swords under Jack’s control kept targeting the tigers and were attacking the same spot, trying to create an opening and annihilate them completely.

“This brat is quite experienced in battle!”

After only a few moments, the middle-aged man and the old man—who were on the opposite side—had bean-sized beads of sweat dripping from their forehead. Obviously, pressured by the situation.

“Dammit! It seems like our attack can’t hold out against the flying swords anymore!”

After a few more seconds, the old man’s face turned unsightly.

Sure enough, just as his words fell, the two gigantic and almighty tigers could not hold on anymore and were blasted away into pieces. Meanwhile, the remaining dozens of flying swords charged straight to the two of them.

“No!”

Although there were not many left, both of them knew the strength and power of the flying swords. Even worse, the remaining flying swords—that had not been fended off by the tigers—charged toward them in full speed and power.

Terror stabbed their hearts to the point that they could feel nothing but blind terror. The flying swords were flying toward them at lightning speed; the attack was too fast for them to dodge. Thus the two could only shout and immediately condensed their Chi energy to create aura shields.

Boom boom!

The first flying sword landed on their bodies just as the aura shield finished coalescing.

“Boom!”

Almost in the same instant, the aura shields were crushed and the remaining flying swords bombarded their bodies, one by one.

They were elite fighters of the peak stage of the true god realm; the build of their body was robust. However, when the first two flying swords collided with their bodies, they were blasted away. Blood splattered from the wounds on their bodies, and mouthfuls of blood spurted out of their mouths.

However, the remaining flying swords did not cease at all; they continued to attack the two of them incessantly, and finally penetrated their chest, forming a bloody hole. The two of them hit the ground hard, lifelessly.

The two elite fighters of the peak of the true god realm—elders of the Skies Pavilion—were killed by Jack just like that.

Bang bang!

However, just at this time, Nash and Kenneth, on the other side, could not hold on anymore. They flew backward simultaneously and hit the ground harshly. Although they were still alive, mouthfuls of fresh red blood spat out from their mouths, and they could not even stand up.

“Father! First Elder!”

Jack looked over there and cried out.

Chapter 1488

“Jack, go! Just go!”

Nash and Kenneth were not dead, but both of them were grievously injured and had no fighting power left.

However, the two shouted at Jack, pleading him to go. Jack had killed two opponents by himself, and now there was an opening in his direction; it was a golden opportunity to escape, even better if he used that flying sword to escape.

“Father, there’s no way I’m leaving you and First Elder behind!”

Jack, however, refused the proposal, his face stern. He wheeled around and, in a flash, appeared in front of Nash and Kenneth, stopping the other four from killing Nash and Kenneth.

“This brat is powerful. He actually killed both Elder Shaw and Elder Lake!”

When the four men glanced at the two corpses on the ground, the corners of their mouth twitched involuntarily. That ending was something they did not anticipate at all.

“This brat is only at his late stage of the true god realm, if he breaks through to the peak of the true god realm, that’d be troublesome! By that time, I’m afraid that even our pavilion master is no match for him!”

One of the four said as he flew to the other side of Jack. Four of them surrounded Jack, who was now in the middle of the circle.

Nash and Kenneth exchanged looks, and both could not help but sigh out loud in their hearts. Jack had the best opportunity and golden time to escape from this battle but he gave it up!

“We can’t let this brat live! If the four of us join forces, it’ll definitely not be a problem to kill him!”

One of them was an old lady. She suggested it to the other three with a cold smile on her face.

However, little did everyone expect, Jack sneered in return. “If six of you joined forces, I’m truly not confident that I could survive. But I killed two just now, my chance of surviving and beating all of you is still there!”

“Motherf*cker, you’re truly a big talker, aren’t you?”

“Ya. Who do you think you are? Elder Shaw and Elder Lake have already made you use up a lot of Chi energy, and I think you’re pretty much exhausted by now. It’d be easy to kill you with only the four of us!”

When the other two elders heard Jack’s shameless statement, they responded in a huff. They felt that they were despised and being underestimated by Jack. They were four strong elite fighters at the peak of the true god realm! How could that brat think that four of them were not even his opponents!

What they did not expect was that Jack waved and gestured the flying sword to fly straight toward Nash and Kenneth. The flying sword stopped right in front of them.

“Get onto the sword!”

Jack commanded in a deep voice, his face turned expressionless.

Nash and Kenneth looked at each other, and they used all their strength to get up and hop onto the flying sword. Then, with the slightest movement of Jack’s hand, the flying sword flew upward and further away from him. The flying sword finally stopped after it was a considerable distance away from the battle scene.

“Oh, brat, you’re sending them far away so that we can’t attack them while fighting with you, right? Heh! You’re quite filial, aren’t you?” The old crone said in an icy tone. She studied Jack’s action and immediately understood his intentions. “But, even if you send them far away, it’d be pointless. The flying sword recognizes you as its master and not the other two; they can’t control the flying sword. So if you die, they can’t escape either! Moreover, you have now lost a premium spiritual weapon, your combat prowess will be weakened. In that case, I don’t see how you can beat the four of us!” she added coldly.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1489

Another old man, on the other hand, laughed at the situation. "Hahaha! His action is tantamount to committing suicide, right? Initially, he had a chance to escape, but now there is no chance anymore! Let's join hands to kill him! By the time he dies, Nash and Kenneth won't be able to Escape as well!"

In the distance, Nash, and Kenneth, who was standing on the flying sword, each took a healing pill. Then they sat on the sword and rested. Their expression turned solemn as they looked in the direction where Jack and the other four

Were at.

"Master Nash, why did Young Master Jack do this? Isn't this seeking death? In that case, there's not even the slightest chance of victory!"

Kenneth's face turned unsightly as he sighed again," Young Master Jack, he's too reckless this time!"

A gloomy face was on Nash as well. After giving the matter some thought, he then expressed his analysis," Although I don't know why Jack wants to guarantee our safety first but I believe in him. Perhaps, he has some tricks up his sleeve that...."

When Nash was expressing his point of view, his voice got softer and softer; apparently, he was not too convinced of his own words either, even he felt that there was absolutely no chance for Jack to win. Other than flying swords, what else did Jack have?

"You're forcing me to the corner, I have no other choice but to fight!"

Jack clenched his fists, soon his body shook violently, a powerful force swept the space. "I train True Dragon technique hard, and after breaking through to the true god realm, I can actually transform into a real dragon. However, I have not tried it yet. Today, I'll let you see what I truly am capable of!"

Just as his last word dropped, he roared, emitting a terrifying sound of a dragon's roar.

A ray of green light flashed before everyone, and Jack who initially was human turned into a huge real dragon, a green dragon that was hundreds of feet long.

"Mas-master! My eyes are functioning well, right? Am I seeing wrongly? What kind of technique did Young Master Jack use to train? Does it actually transform Young Master Jack into a dragon? That is a real dragon!"

Far from the battle, in the distance, Kenneth shouted in a trembling yet excited voice. He could not help but keep rubbing his eyes, just to make sure he was not hallucinating.

"Hmmm. I think he...he mentioned the True Dragon technique just now!"

Similar to Kenneth, Nash was shocked down to the soles of his shoes. That was his first time seeing a dragon, and the most incredible part was that the dragon was Jack! Jack transformed into a real dragon!

After he thought about it, he could not help but become worried. "Jack has transformed into a dragon, but I don't know what strength and combat power it has.

What's more concerning is, his transformation is not some kind of horrible voodoo art, right? I don't know if there'll be any backlash from this transformation!"

Kenneth's heart immediately got worried upon hearing Nash's words. He was afraid that Jack had to pay a price to perform this transformation technique.

“What-what the heck? This is not real, right?”

Looking at the green dragon that emitted mighty dragon aura and power in front of them, the four elders who surrounded Jack earlier on, flew backward unconsciously to distance themselves from the dragon. They were in a complete state of shock and surprise; was it their first time witnessing such a thing.

“Playing the devil? Guys, don’t be afraid! This brat is just playing some dirty tricks in hopes of scaring us away! I don’t believe that he can increase his combat power this much after the battle with Elder Lake and Elder Shaw!”

One of the four-an old man clutched the sword in his grip as he shouted. “No matter what you are, God, Buddha, Jesus, or even a dragon, I will end your life! If we join forces, we can behead it!” the old man pointed his sword toward Jack.

Another man chimed in and concurred with the old man, at the same time, cheering for himself. After all, the dragon emitted a humongous dragon aura as though it was the mightiest creature on the earth, not allowing the mere mortal to desecrate it, gave the four of them a strong sense of oppression.

Chapter 1490

“Roar!”

Jack-who had now transformed into a green dragon-performed the moves of the technique for the first time. After the transformation, he could instantly feel the increase of power and strength inside his body; both the thickness and richness of his overall strength were enhanced tremendously.

On top of that, his body was way more powerful and robust than before; he believed that his attack resistance had improved immensely as well.

Nonetheless, the only thing that worried him was that his body was indeed bigger and stronger now, but his speed and agility would be compromised-he would not be as fast as before.

“Kill him!”

The old lady shouted huffily, and she, who had already injected her Chi energy into her sword, swung her arm, sending out two consecutive sword attacks toward Jack.

Roar!

The green dragon once again let out a deafening roar after seeing the old lady’s attack and directly charged at the old crone.

“Kill him now!”

The other three immediately waved their swords to join the battle, casting out several sword auras toward the gigantic green dragon-Jack.

Jack did not care about those sword auras at all; he continued to storm toward the old lady.

Boom! Boom!

The two sword auras that the old lady cast out were destroyed by Jack in a blink of an eye, leaving only two teeny tiny cut marks on top of Jack’s head.

“What the hell? My attacks only cause two small cuts?”

The old woman stared at the damage she had done on Jack, her face blanched as though all colors leached from her face. Her attacks were of high quality and full power; she truly did not expect that her attacks did not leave any serious injuries on Jack's body. The skin of the green dragon was thick and impenetrable, the overall strength and build were way too remarkable.

Jack did not flinch in the slightest, he continued storming toward the old woman.

Boom! Bang! Boom!

The attacks from the other three had finally landed on Jack's body, however, the attacks caused only a few small gouges; the wounds seemed to be nothing at all for the green dragon who had a huge body.

"No!"

When the old woman saw that the green dragon did not flinch in the slightest, and received the three's attacks head-on, she shrieked hysterically, and white color crept up her face. Terror twisted in her gut. She was then blasted away by the impact of the green dragon's head.

"Pfft!"

A mouthful of fresh and bright red blood spurted out from the old crone; she flew backward intensely for several meters like a kite with a broken string before she was able to stabilize herself.

"Pfft!"

Another mouthful of blood gushed out of her mouth, her face became even more unsightly and pale. The blow from Jack just now did cause her some serious injuries.

“What a powerful physique!”

One of the other three—the old man—tried his best to fight a rising panic in him after seeing the scene before him. This, all of this, was way beyond their imagination!

“This is too scary! This brat truly has the power of a dragon after transforming into one!”

Another one of the other three – the middle-aged man—who stood next to the old man gasped at the situation. He then sent out a few more sword auras, hoping to hurt the dragon, but the attacks only left several shallow slashes on the green dragon’s body.

Roar!

Although Jack’s body had become strong, the attacks still caused him pain. Jack immediately changed his strategy by swinging his big dragon tail, swiping side to side.

“Dodge it!”

The old man and the middle-aged man exchanged glances and both of them were frightened to the bottom of their hearts. The impact of the swiping tail would not be less powerful than the impact just now.

The two men immediately stomped and hopped upward, preparing to fly further away. However, the speed of the green dragon was too fast, the tail came straight over and smacked the two men, sending them backward far away.

Bang! Bang!

Chapter 1491

Two dull thuds rang out; the two men were jerked a few meters away, each of them spurting out a mouthful of blood and sustaining injuries.

Roar!

The green dragon, however, did not cease his attack for a moment. Jack swung his body, and he flew up to the sky, going for another dive. He then bolted downward in the direction of the other man who was still casting Chi attacks at him.

After knowing that the other three were injured, this man here performed a few more random attacks but not much effect and damage were left on Jack's body.

The green dragon sprinted straight toward him at full speed and strength, blanching his face white, and he quickly ran in the direction of the old crone and the other two men." Everyone, quick! Attack it! Quickly..." He ran as he spoke.

Roar!

Although at the peak stage of the true god realm, were so vulnerable under the tremendous power of that dragon claw.

"This is too much! All three of us are severely injured, we're not his opponent! Run while we can! This beast is overwhelmingly powerful!"

"You're right. The four of us were not even his opponent, not to mention there's only three of us left and injured at that. We certainly can't beat him!"

The old lady and old man yelled. They underwent a lot of work and challenges to reach who they are today, naturally, they did not want to die. It was the first time they felt the threat of death. Fear pulsed through them, and all colors drained from their faces.

“What angers me is that his body is too hard and impenetrable. Although our attacks could hurt him, he can completely resist them!”

The middle-aged man dispatched another sword chop toward the dragon, and finally, the attack left a nice sword scar on the dragon’s body where blood flowed out.

Roar!

However, the attack did not cause any severe nor substantial damage to Jack – who had transformed into a green dragon, but instead it angered him.

With a deafening roar, he made a fierce acceleration and headed straight for the middle-aged man.

“Run, run!”

The middle-aged man shouted in terror. He looked up to the sky, the dragon claw was right above him; he panicked and quickly flashed to the side, barely dodging the dragon claw.

Nonetheless, the green dragon charged again and aimed at the middle-aged man, attempting to grab the man.

“No!”

This time, the middle-aged man was not so lucky anymore. He was caught by the sharp dragon claws, and just like the guy before, he was squeezed into meat paste.

In the distance, Nash and Kenneth, who were resting on the flying sword, had been completely dumbfounded at the situation. Jack, who had transformed into a green dragon, his attack and strength were too dominating and overpowering. Although Jack was fighting for his life, he managed to kill two powerhouses who were at the peak stage of the true god realm in such a short time, That was something they did not even dare to dream about before.

Together with Elder Shaw and Elder Lake, there were four who had been killed by Jack!

The old woman and the old man, who were fast, both fled separately in different directions.

Roar!

Nevertheless, what they did not expect was for the green dragon to spit out two enormous fireballs from its mouth, directed toward the two, burning them to death.

“Oh, my freaking goodness! Master, he is too strong! This technique of Young Master Jack was insanely strong!”

The First Elder swallowed hard at the scene. He thought he was dead, but to his surprise, after Jack performed the True Dragon technique, he actually turned the tide of battle so quickly. And by himself, he killed six of the elite fighters whose martial art levels were at the peak of the true god realm!

Roar!

The green dragon flew and ceased in front of Nash and Kenneth. In a flash of green light, the green dragon disappeared, and Jack appeared, his face was a little pale and his forehead was covered with cold sweat.

“Pfft!”

A mouthful of blood gushed out from Jack and he almost fainted.

Nonetheless, he immediately controlled the flying sword, flew to the woods, only then sat down to rest. He flipped his palm and a healing pill appeared, he then put it into his mouth and swallowed it down. No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1492-1494

Chapter 1492

“Young Master Jack, are you alright? How are your injuries? Is it serious?”

Seeing Jack in such a state, Kenneth was a little worried in his heart, fearing that Jack had sustained severe injuries.

“I’m all right. The humandragon transformation technique could only be performed when I reach the true god realm, and I am barely able to do it. The good side of this technique is that the overall combat power and strength can be increased a lot, but the downside is that it consumes too much Chi energy!”

Jack showed a small bitter smile before explaining, “I need to replenish my Chi energy now. Let’s rest for an hour or two!”

Nash and Kenneth immediately breathed out a huge sigh of relief upon hearing that Jack was all well. The heavy boulder in their hearts was finally lifted away.

After resting for a while, everyone’s injuries had gotten better, and Jack’s Chi energy had gradually recovered over time. Hence, he returned to the battlefield and collected the martial rings and weapons of the six dead people.

After all, these six people were all strong martial artists at the peak of the true god realm, since they were elders from the Skies Pavilion, thus their martial rings must be kept with a lot of treasures and even their swords were of top-notch quality.

“Look, Father, we have four swords here and all of them are upper-grade spiritual weapons! Haha! This time you get to use upper-grade spiritual weapons too! That’s amazing!”

Jack handed the swords over to Nash and then continued, “There are a lot of spirited grasses and stones inside their martial rings, and even some pills! What a great earning!”

Jack’s happiness had cheered the others up; Nash, who had just gone through a hellish near-death experience, patted Jack’s shoulder with a relieved expression. “Silly boy, it doesn’t matter if it’s an upper grade sword or what, the most important thing is that you’re fine.” Nash then added in a worried tone, “When you transformed into a dragon, I thought you would be like the young master from the Hunt family who took the pill and pursued after you; I afraid that you’d get devoured by the technique! But it looks like you didn’t suffer from any side effects, that’s great!”

Jack harnessed the flying sword, slowly flying in the direction of the White family. “Father, I have several of the pills that Cloud had taken last time. This pill has a strong side effect, devouring the Chi energy of the consumer after its effect is over, but overall, the combat power will be greatly enhanced with the pill. So, in this case as a last resort, perhaps these pills can save lives! So it’s still quite useful!”

Nash nodded in approval, “Yes, if the opponent has a higher martial level and combat prowess, in facing death, it’s always better to regress the martial level rather than dying!”

“Young Master Jack, why do I still feel like the battle just now was a dream? You actually transformed into a dragon! How cool was that! That’s too amazing! And those six fighters of the peak stage of the true god realm were killed just like that, not to mention they were killed by you, alone! My goodness! Your fighting power is overwhelmingly strong, isn’t it?”

Kenneth was still recalling the after effects of the battle just now. It was a total shock and surprise to him.

“Hehe, I did not expect that I could actually have such strong combat power in this form as well. This is also why I acquired and trained hard for this technique, just that I haven’t been using it.”

Jack laughed warmly then continued, “Unfortunately, my current martial level is still too low. If I were to break through to the ultimate god realm, I believe that I would be able to maintain this form for a longer time. Because by that time, I would have more Chi energy in my body to perform this technique!” Jack paused before continuing, “If the four of them had held on for a little longer, I’m afraid that the Chi energy in my body would be completely used up. In other words, the current Jack is still not ready to use that kind of technique to fight for a long period of time!”

“Haha! The transformation just now was already powerful enough to kill all those four elite fighters in such a short time. If you truly maintained this form for a longer time, then the earth would be destroyed!”

Kenneth burst out in laughter after hearing it.

“Now, even if it’s the Hunt family, we don’t have to be afraid anymore. But, the fact that Jack has acquired this technique must be kept only between the three of us now. It’s better not to spread the news or even use the technique unless the situation is critical!”

Chapter 1493

After giving the matter some thoughts, Nash then expressed with a smile.

“Tsk, I bet this time the people of the Skies Pavilion would cry to death. Six of their fighters of the peak stage of true god status had all died at once. This is a big loss for them! Initially, the four ancient clans could be said to have equivalent power and strength, but now Skies Pavilion could only be the youngest brother’ in front of the other three ancient clans!”

Kenneth was somewhat excited at the thought of what kind of reaction and expression the master of Skies Pavilion – Joel Collins-would have when he found out that six of his elite fighters had died.

"I'm not interested in how Joel would react, instead, I'm more keen to know how Lily would react after she finds out about this!"

Nash smiled along. "Perhaps, they wouldn't even think of us as the killers, and they might even think that it was done by people from the other three ancient clans!"

"Right. They definitely wouldn't have expected that the three of us could kill six of their elite fighters!"

Kenneth nodded in agreement.

Although he had not recovered from his injuries, he was happy that he was avenged.

After flying for less than an hour, the White residence finally appeared in the sight of Jack and the others.

Selena knew that Jack and others would return on that day, so she intentionally skipped her training. She waited patiently at the entrance of the courtyard early in the morning and from time to time she peeked at the distance, worrying about Jack and the others.

After all, she has heard of the four ancient clans and how none of the reclusive families had the power to fight them.

Soon, Jack and the others appeared in her sight.

"Jack! You guys are back! I'm so happy that you are back!"

After the three figures entered Selena's range of sight, she left out a huge sigh of relief.

The flying sword soon halted a little above the ground of the courtyard, and the three hopped down. Jack then flipped his palm to put the flying sword away, keeping it in his martial ring.

“Are you injured? Is everything okay? Is it serious?”

Selena noticed the bloodstains on their clothes and sleeves, and she was worried. It looked like they had undergone a tough fight and were probably ambushed on the way back.

They probably had to use Jack’s flying sword to escape from the attack and flee the scene.

“Dear, don’t worry. It’s not serious at all. We have taken the healing pills, just need to rest for a little while, then we’ll be fine!”

Jack smiled faintly and said to Selena, trying to comfort her.

“Mistress Selena, you know what? Young Master Jack was so hell of amazing that he killed six strong people who were at the peak of the true god realm! Alone! Oh my goodness, this is my first time seeing such a domineering and powerful strength!”

Kenneth was still excited from what he witnessed from the fight. He admired Jack to the bottom of his heart. Jack was so young, yet he had such exceptional fighting power. If he could really break through to the ultimate god realm, would not he be the best in the world then?

Chapter 1494

“What? You killed six elite fighters of the peak stage of the true god realm alone?”

Selena gasped at the newly learned news, wondering if she had heard wrongly. Her husband Jack, did he not just break through to the late stage of the true god realm recently? How could he be able to kill six elite fighters by himself?

“Don’t listen to the First Elder, he’s spewing nonsense! If it wasn’t for him and father helping to hold up the other four, how could I have killed six by myself?”

Jack replied with tears and laughter. How could he have imagined that this First Elder exaggerated the situation to such an extent?

“That’s also very powerful!”

Selena stood frozen and finally smiled at Jack. “Well, get some rest first. Take a bath and change your clothes. Look at your body, it’s covered with blood!”

“Alright then, we shall not disturb the two of them, let’s leave! Have a good rest for the coming days and we’ll have to leave again in another ten days!”

Nash smiled and left with Kenneth.

Jack then quickly went into the house, took a warm bath, changed his clothes, laid on the bed, and had a good nap.

The morning incident made him physically exhausted and worn out, the kind of exhaustion he had not experienced for a long time.

When he woke up, the sky outside had already turned dark, while Selena was sitting by his side, looking at him with a gentle smile on her face.

“What? It’s already dark outside? I took such a long nap!”

Jack chortled and sat upon the bed, feeling that the wounds his body had completely healed.

He gazed around the house before asking, "By the way, Dear, where's Kylie?"

"Kylie? She's playing in the courtyard! Little Kylie knows that you're back, her spirits are flying high that she could barely conceal her happiness! She wants you to take her around!"

Selena beamed in return. "But you're resting, so I told her to play in the courtyard and don't disturb you."

"Hahaha! My silly little Kylie. Alright! Let's go stroling around the town below the mountain and have a wonderful meal together!"

Jack giggled, got off the bed, and held Selena's hand before the two left the house.

"Dear, your fighting prowess is so amazing! If you breakthrough to the peak of the true god realm, then you truly don't have to be afraid of those four ancient clans anymore!"

Selena could not hold back but praise Jack when the two of them walked out of the house to the courtyard.

"That won't work. There are too many of them, if they join forces together and surround me, I won't be able to defeat them!"

Jack laughed as the two arrived at the courtyard.

"Daddy!"

As soon as Jack entered Kylie's range of sight, she darted over, jumped up, and wrapped her arms around Jack's neck. "Daddy, you woke up from your nap!"

Jack hugged and held Kylie. "Kylie, I heard your mommy said that you want me to take you to town to have some fun? Let's go now and we'll have nice food!" he smiled at his cute daughter.

"Yay! We can go down and have fun! I'm happy!"

Kylie's big eyes twinkled and shined bright like a diamond upon hearing Jack's proposal. Her excitement and joy unfolded like flowers in spring.

"Daddy, can you use the flying sword to carry me and mommy down to the town? Mommy and I haven't ridden on your flying sword before."

Suddenly, Kylie spewed such a request. She looked at Jack with expectant eyes and a pleading expression.

"Hahaha! Alright! Sure!"

Jack chortled aloud. He then took his flying sword out and threw it in front of them. The flying sword grew in size in an instant; Jack then held both Kylie and Selena in his arms and hopped onto the sword together.

Swoosh!

The flying sword flew slowly, gliding across the sky. "Let's fly a little longer and farther and then we'll come back later!"

Jack put Kylie down and sat her on the top of the flying sword as well.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1495-1497

Chapter 1495

“Wow! This is so cool! I finally rode on a flying sword!”

Kylie, who was now sitting on the flying sword, gazing at the ten thousand lights below; she could not help but exclaim aloud, her tone full of excitement.

The next morning, Lily was impatient in her adobe, wondering why all six elders had not returned yet.

“Honey, why haven’t the six of them returned yet? Based on the plan, they should have been back this morning, right? But it’s already noon now, yet no one is back!”

Lily approached Joel and doubted, frowning.

“Heh, what’s the hurry? It’s not a problem at all for the six of them to kill those three maggots! They must have found a place to drink and celebrate after winning the battle. Don’t worry! They’ll definitely be back by afternoon!”

Joel shrugged and grinned nonchalantly, not the least bit worried about what would happen to the six elders he sent.

However, in the afternoon, Joel had grown a little worried when none of the six elders had yet to return

Joel then immediately dispatched a group of men to look for the six of them in all possible locations, including the area and the route toward the direction of the White residence. He believed that as long as there was a fight, there must be signs of it.

It was not until the next day at noon when those scouts, who had been sent out, returned to Skies Pavilion.

“Master, Master! We have bad news!”

Just as they arrived at the entrance of the pavilion, one of the old men exclaimed aloud.

Joel and Lily—who were sitting inside the main hall—had their brows puckered together when they heard of the noise.

The old man, together with his men, quickly rushed into the hall and kneeled before Joel. “Master, something bad has happened!”

“What’s the matter?”

Joel immediately responded; he was worried sick.

“They...they’re all dead!”

The old man held his breath, and after a while only did he spew these few words.

“All dead? That’s great news! All three White are all dead? Hahaha! That’s amazing!”

When Lily heard this, she laughed uncontrollably as though she was on a certain stimulant drug.

Nonetheless, just as she finished her words, she reacted again. “No, wait! What’s so bad about it? You can't possibly say that it's all our people who are dead, right?"

Another middle-aged man then nodded gloomily. "Yes, Madam. All six elders are dead, and we couldn't find the bodies of those three White family members!"

"No way! It's impossible! How is this possible? Absolutely ridiculous!"

Lily simply did not want to true god realm!"

Joel, on the other hand, was unable to register the fact as well. To him, it felt like it was not the truth.

"Master, it's indeed the case. All six of them are dead!"

The old man sighed, "Sigh! And some of them died in a very tragic and miserable..."

"Tragic and miserable?"

Joel frowned and looked at the old man.

"Yes, Master. The bodies seem to have been crushed by some intense beast claws. They seem to be sharp, incredibly sharp claws!"

The old man then continued, "We too feel strange about that. The injuries on their bodies do not seem like they were caused by a human!"

"Why is there nobody from the White family at all? How is that possible? Or could it be that the six elders did not even have the chance to meet the White before they got killed by some demonic beast?"

Joel thought for a while before guessing uncertainly.

Chapter 1496

“Master, we’re not sure about this. After all, we did not witness it. The area is surrounded by nothing but forests, and there’s hardly anyone around, that’s why there’s no way to investigate what actually happened!”

The old man gave a bitter smile, his expression hapless.” This means that the place that the six of them chose was truly suitable to trap and kill Nash White and the others. But as to why ferocious beasts suddenly appeared and killed the six of them, there is no clue!”

Here, the old man paused for a while before continuing, “Oh, right. We can’t tell much from the damage at the scene since most of the battle probably took place in the sky.”

“What kind of beasts could it be, to be able to kill the six of them? Even if these beasts are at the peak of their true god status, surely they would also have difficulty killing all six of them. Even if my men couldn’t defeat the beasts, some of them could have escaped if one or two held the beasts off, right? This means that the beasts are far more powerful than them!”

Joel’s face had taken on a deathly pallor. His six fighters had died just like that. With that, the Pavilion of Skies would be weakest among the Four Ancient Clans.

“The White family definitely did not kill them. They do not have the ability. It’s not them!”

Lily’s face had also turned pale. She sat to the side disappointed, and she seemed to be slightly stupefied. “We can only admit that they were lucky today. Before the six Elders could reach the ambush point, they must have run into the ferocious beasts and were killed!”

The more Joel thought about it, the angrier he got. He looked at Lily impatiently. “It’s all your fault. If you weren't in such a rush to kill them, our six Elders wouldn't have died," he said." I wanted to take them down in the danger zones. Now we've suffered a great loss!"

Lily was angry as well. "How can you pin all the blame on me? You agreed to this too. Besides, this was an accident. Who knows where such ferocious beasts came from?" she told Joel, huffing. "Besides, if we only act when they're in the Seven Dangers, how would you know which section of the Seven Dangers they're in? The place is huge. It would be difficult to find them!"

Joel clenched his fists. After a while, he looked at the old man with confusion. "There's something wrong. If there were beasts, why are all the bodies still around? Don't tell me that these beasts don't like eating humans?"

Lily also came to her senses. If beasts had truly killed the Elders, they would not have just left the corpses there. Logically speaking, even if not all the bodies were consumed, at least a few would have been eaten.

She suddenly thought of something, and asked the old man, "Right. Where are their martial rings? And their weapons? Are they there?"

The old man shook his head." We tried searching for them, but found nothing!"

"It must have been taken by humans. It's likely that they were not killed by beasts!"

Lily was shocked. "But if it was not the beasts that did it, why are there claw marks and signs of maiming? If it was humans, why would they attack like that? But if it wasn't done by humans, why are their martial rings gone?"

The old man gave a bitter smile. "There's an explanation for that. I think the Elders must have run into the fearsome monsters first, and they were killed. Later, the three men from the White family saw them while they were passing by, and took their martial rings and other items! It must have happened like that. Only this can explain everything!"

“F*ck. If that’s the case, not only have our men failed to kill those three, they even gave them plenty of treasures!”

Joel was so angry that he clenched his fists. His expression was a deathly sight.

Chapter 1497

“More importantly, if the three men from the White family saw their bodies, they would probably have guessed that I sent people to ambush them. If that’s the case, they will definitely be on their guard from now on!”

The old man added after thinking about it.

“All right. It must have been difficult for all of you. Head off to rest first!”

Joel waved his hand, signaling for everyone to go down.

“Ah, this loss is too great. With this, we will not be able to lift our chins before the other three Ancient Clans!”

Joel heaved a sigh only after all the people had left. He looked at Lily, and regret tinged his heart. She was beautiful, but it was a pity that his pavilion had suffered great losses because of her.

At last, Joel sat to the side. “Thank goodness there are still plenty of people at the advanced stage of the true god realm in our pavilion,” he said.

“They’ve been training hard lately. It’ll be good if one or two of them are able to make a breakthrough.”

Time passed by quickly. The days trickled past.

Eight days before they were to head out for the Cabello family, a man suddenly rushed out and stood in the air, laughing." Haha. This is great. I broke through. I finally made a breakthrough!"

This voice caused excitement among many who were familiar with him. They all ran out immediately.

After Jack heard this, he was excited as well. He instantly flew out of the garden. "Not bad, Third Elder. Haha. You're finally at the peak of the true god realm," he said. "In a short span of time, the White family has gained another powerful fighter!"

Lancelot's expression was brimming with exhilaration. He immediately smiled at Jack." Ah. Thank goodness you gave me two pills. I actually didn't have much confidence, so I didn't expect to actually succeed. Although I took some time to make a breakthrough, I did it anyway. I spent so much time on this small breakthrough. Ah. It's fine as long as I succeed!"

"Haha. Congratulations!"

Plenty of Elders and Patronums also flew over, admiration written over their faces.

"This is great. We now have at least three fighters who are at the peak of the true god status. Haha. With Young Master Jack's fighting power, we don't have to fear the Hunt family at all!"

Titus also laughed. Although news of how Jack had killed six fighters in the true god realm by himself had not spread, everyone of the high ranked members of the White family and their elders knew. This gave the White family's Elders confidence. They all felt that the White family was actually as strong as the Four Ancient Clans.

If they did not take their entire population into account, with the fact that they had fewer fighters in the true god realm, and that their lineage did not extend that far into history, they could probably contend with the Four Ancient Clans.

“Haha. This is great. I broke through. I broke through!”

No one expected to have another old man rush out from the house at this moment, crying out.No. 1

Chapter 1498-1500

Chapter 1498

“No way. The Second Elder also broke through?”

Everyone took a sharp intake of breath when they recognized the person who rushed out. What on earth was going on that very day? Two Elders at the late stage of the true god status suddenly broke into the peak in rapid succession. Now, as there was still no way to break into the ultimate god status, the peak of the true god status was the highest cultivation level.

“Amazing!”

Some people at the intermediate stage of the true god status admired them. Those who had reached the peak of the true god realm were god-like figures to them.

“You broke through as well?”

The Second Elder saw Lancelot and was stunned for a moment. He suddenly came to his senses.

“Haha. I was faster by one or two minutes. You came out right after I did!”

Lancelot said, laughing.

“This is great. Haha. This is fantastic! I didn’t think that the two of us would make a breakthrough. If this is the case, why should we be afraid of anyone? We don’t need to fear the Hunt family anymore. Haha!”

The Second Elder, Weston, laughed in elation. In a flash, they had two more fighters at the peak of the true god’s status. The White family’s overall fighting power was now increased by a significant chunk!

“Haha. There’s still some good news I haven’t told you yet. I’ll tell you personally later!”

The First Elder, Kenneth, burst into laughter, speaking with a mysterious expression.

“What news? My goodness, what happened while we were holding ourselves up? This is great!”

Lancelot grew even more excited when he heard this.

“Hehe. I will tell you two later. There are too many people here. We are trying to keep this information a secret for now. After all, we might attract unwanted attention!”

Kenneth chuckled, and his words made the Second Elder and the Third Elder even more curious.

“Oh, right. I have good news to tell everyone!”

No one expected that at this moment that Jack would look at the crowd, smiling as he made an announcement.

“Young Master, you have good news as well? This is great!”

Kenneth and the others were stunned. They all stared at Jack.

“That’s right. I’ve been trying t o make second-grade intermediate pills these few days, and I finally succeeded two days before!”

Jack gave a wan smile before speaking slowly.

“My God. Really? This is great. Young Master Jack, if that’s the case, you’re now a secondgrade intermediate alchemist!”

Titus was excited. He took two steps forward and spoke to Jack, “Young Master Jack, do you know what this means?”

“What does it mean?”

Jack frowned. He thought that everybody was celebrating a little too much.

He knew that everyone would b e happy once he announced this. But judging from their gazes, they seemed to be far more excited than he had predicted.

Chapter 1499

“Haha. You still don’t know what this means, young man? I t means that you are the top alchemist now!”

Titus laughed and said.

The First Elder saw that Jack

Did not seem to comprehend the situation and explained,” Before, the only people capable of alchemy were Second Young Master Hunt and the First Elder of the Cabello people. We had admired them for a long time, and when we heard that you practiced alchemy as well, we were already overjoyed. After the Second Young Master Hunt died, only you and the First Elder of the Cabello family are the only practicing alchemists left!”

Here, the First Elder paused for a while before continuing,” The First Elder of the Cabello family is a second-grade elementary alchemist. That is impressive enough, but you’re now a second-grade intermediate alchemist. Tell me, aren’t you the greatest alchemist now?”

“No way. I thought that the Cabello family’s First Elder was at a very high level!”

After Jack heard this, he did not know whether to laugh or cry. If he went by the First Elder’s words, it was as though he was truly the strongest alchemist out there.

“How high can you go? All the previous alchemists never had masters to teach them. They all practiced and researched the techniques themselves. And after they master an alchemy method, they test it repeatedly. Besides, only those who have Chi and are born with the fire element can be an alchemist. Any other individual would have zero chance of doing so!”

“Oh, right. And I think your spirit and focus must far exceed those of a similar cultivation level only then can you perform alchemy!”

Titus also added a sentence, smiling mirthlessly.

“Oh, right. Who are those who managed to train until they’re at the intermediate stage of the true god status? Come forth!”

Jack asked after thinking about it.

“I’ve been at the intermediate stage of true god status for a while now!”

After Yolanda pondered for a while, she stepped forward. She could not bear to carry out the assassination task that Lily had assigned her before, so she launched a surprise attack on Dean to help Jack.

Now she thought that she had made the correct choice. With the White family’s progress now, the Hunt family and the others were all left in the dust. Besides, the White family had great potential. Now they are beginning to pay attention to the branch families’ progress. The branch family members all obeyed and revered Jack, and their young geniuses had been training even harder lately. Since then, there were quite a few exceptional talents who had sprouted.

A few other White family members at the intermediate stage of the true god status also stood up.

“Seven people? Good!”

Jack waved his hand, and seven second-grade intermediate pills flew over and floated before them. “Now we lack people at the advanced stage of true god status. This status is very important, so I’ll give each of you a secondgrade intermediate pill. I hope that all of you will be able to make a breakthrough in due time, and I hope that you do not disappoint me!”

After Jack thought about it, he reminded them, “Oh, right. For those of you who have just broken into the intermediate stage, no need to rush. We aren’t in a hurry for now. Once your power has stabilized and you can make a breakthrough, you can use this pill to aid you!”

Yolanda’s eyes reddened. She took the pill before her, looking at Jack excitedly. “Young Master Jack, my surname is Lagorio. Are you sure you want to give such a precious thing to me?”

Jack looked at her and replied, smiling, "Hehe. For those of you who stayed behind and voluntarily remained with the White family, I trust all of you. I believe that you stand with us."

"Thank you. Thank you, Young Master Jack!"

Yolanda carefully kept the pill, preparing herself to try and make a breakthrough in two days.

Jack suddenly saw another old man in the crowd. He clearly recalled that his name was Xavier Lagorio. He had been the one to send Lily back to the Lagorio family after she lost her power.

After sending Lily back, he still chose to return to the White family. This was enough to discern his loyalty "Xavier. Come over here!"

After Jack thought about it, he waved his hand at the old man.

"Me?"

Xavier was stunned for a moment before he flew over." Young Master, what is the matter?"

Chapter 1500

Frankly speaking, Xavier was worried.

After all, when Lily's power had been stripped away, he was worried that she would be killed by someone on the road, or she would have an accident. That was why he sent her off.

Along the way, he occasionally tried to talk some sense into Lily, hoping that she would not harbor a grudge against the White family. He told her that she had done wrong, and hoped that the two families would leave it at that.

However, Lily did not say a single word. She soaked in her sorrow, and he did not know if his words had any effect on. Lily.

Now though, it seemed that not only had Lily not taken his words into heart, she hated the White family so much that she wanted to kill them all.

He felt helpless. He knew that Nash was a good man, but he was afraid that the White family members would not be happy with him. After all, he had accompanied Lily back home.

However, after he returned, he realized something, that the White family members did not seem to hold a grudge against him because of this. They gave the martial resources he needed, and he was now a Patronum. He also broke into the beginning stage of the true god status a month ago.

Jack looked at him and said, "Right. Patronum Xavier. What cultivation level are you at now?"

"Oh. I'm at the beginning stage of true god status now. It is because of the White family's generosity and blessings that I was able to make the breakthrough a month ago!"

Xavier nodded his head and spoke earnestly.

Jack flipped his palm and took out a second-grade elementary pill, thrusting it toward the old man. "I'll give you a secondgrade elementary pill. I hope this will help you to make more breakthroughs. I heard that you made great contributionst o the White family before. This is your reward!"

When Xavier heard this, his nose reddened, and his eyes burned.

He had been afraid that because he was a Lagorio, and that he had sent Lily back, Jack and the others would treat him differently. He did not think that Jack would actually give him a pill.

“It was only right of me to do so. In the White family, your father treated me kindly. He even saved my life before. I do not know how I could ever repay you!”

Xavier did not take the pill that Jack thrust toward him. Instead, he tried to decline the gift politely.

“Just take it. If you break into the peak of true god status, that’s the best possible repayment toward the White family!”

Jack smiled and stuffed the pill into the old man’s grip.

“Ah. I do want to break into the peak of the true god’s status, but I’m afraid that I will not have a chance in this lifetime. I am getting older, and I do not know how long I have left to live. I do not have great talent. If you give me this pill, I’m afraid that I will waste it if I fail to make a breakthrough!”

Xavier heaved a sigh. He was now over seventy years old. He was already satisfied that he managed to break into the beginning stage of the true god status. He did not think that Jack would actually waste such a precious pill on an old geezer like him.

“Don’t worry. It won’t be a problem so long as you’re willing to work hard. If you truly fail to make a breakthrough with this pill, I’ll give you another, and another. Until you break into the intermediate stage of the true god status. Then, the peak of the true god’s status. I believe in you!”

Jack patted his shoulder and smiled. “I believe that we’ll be able to find a way to break into the ultimate god status. Then, the elderly like you will have something to look forward to. If you can break into the ultimate god status, what are you afraid of if you have two hundred years to live?”

“Hehe. I don’t dare to hope for too much!”
