

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 1679

The Second Elder laughed and glanced at the dozen masters around him before he spoke loudly, "Also, beautiful girls are a gentleman's desire. Once I break through into the Second-grade or Third-grade ultimate god-level, your eldest and youngest sister will join you in being my women. The Three Golden Flowers will serve me nicely!"

He balled his fist tightly as he pompously remarked, "Everyone in the Cabello family will then obey me. Let those who complied with me thrive, while those who resisted me will die. There will only be one ending for those who refuse to obey me-death!"

"That's right! Master Cabello should've changed since a long time ago, and my master should be the one to rule!" declared a fawning man as he stood next to the Second Elder. "In the past, the Cabello family treated my master nicely, but whenever something good happens, the first person that comes to their mind is the First Elder, Kevin Cabello. Haha...! As for the reason? Isn't it simply because my master doesn't carry the family name Cabello and is an outsider with another family name?"

"That's right. They always say that they treat me well, but what happened in the end? They always think of the First Elder whenever something good comes up." The Second Elder laughed coldly and said to the youths of the Cabello family before him, "I hope that you guys know how to handle this delicate situation and stop resisting, or death will be the only thing left for you! If you guys capture the second mistress for me, I might let you go and let you live!"

"Osca Lange, there are many beautiful and young women out there if you like them so much. On top of that, how hard is it for you to get a beautiful woman with your current status? Why do you insist on getting your hands on our second mistress? This is outrageous!" barked a young man from the Cabello family. While the Cabellos were surrounded and more than a dozen of them were killed, none of them planned to surrender, even in such a dire situation.

"Haha... That's true!" Osca laughed loudly before glancing at Venus with a sleazy expression, saying, "However, not many of them are as beautiful as the three young mistresses from your Cabello family. It is saddening that your eldest young mistress had been in a relationship with that young man from the White family previously. Although they've already broken up, she must've slept with him. No matter what, it's still nice that the second and third young mistresses are still innocent virgins waiting for me!"

Enraged with his words, the young man hatefully roared, "B*stard!"

"You're suicidal!" Angered, Osca rushed forward in a flash and had his hand around the man's neck. With a strong squeeze, the man was killed with an audible snap.

"Cousin Brother!" Venus was rattled to the core when she watched as her cousin died. Balling her fist tightly, she rushed to attack Osca.

"Haha... You plan to defeat me when you've just broken through into the peak stage of the true god level?" Osca smiled aloofly as he faced Venus' attack.

He balled his hands into fists and met Venus' attack without even using his chi.

Thoom!

A slightly numbed sound could be heard as Venus was. Seen flying backward the next second. Blood spurted through her lips, and her originally pale face turned increasingly pale.
