

No. 1 Supreme Warrior chapter 1718

Skye was infuriated. With her high fighting prowess, she wanted to head into the forest on her own out of anger. After all, she was in the Third-grade ultimate god-level, and her fighting prowess was higher than Ella. Since Ella dared to enter the forest alone, she dared to do it, too.

She then recalled how the foxy Ella would seduce Arthur if she were to truly enter the forest. Arthur was head over heels for Ella when Skye was present, what more if she was not?

She tightened her fists and said, "Alright, let's go back with Ella!"

However, what Arthur and the others did not expect was that Ella asked three young people from her family to follow them into the forest after handing over the items she obtained from the forest, much to Arthur's chagrin.

It was slightly inconvenient for him to do anything to Ella if other members of the Lavinge family were present. Moreover, Ella's eldest brother had joined them, and Hendrick Lavinge was in the Fourth-grade ultimate god-level. Although he had just broken through, his combat power was nearly on par with Arthur's.

Arthur and the others walked in the front while Ella, Hendrick, and the others lagged slightly behind them.

Hendrick looked at the frown on Ella's face, and he knew his sister had something in her mind. He asked softly out of curiosity, "Ella, what's going on with you? Why did you ask us to go with you since it's already in the afternoon? I just thought of raising my fighting prowess and entering the forest a couple of days later. After all, I just came out of the forest several days ago!"

Hendrick paused before he added, "Also, didn't you just return? Why do you want to go into the forest again?"

Ella glanced at the people in front of her, and after she studied the distance between them and Arthur's company, so that they would not overhear her, she softly spoke, "Hendrick, please don't tell anyone : what I'm going to tell you next. I almost died in the forest when I tried to take a spirited grass. Luckily, somebody rescued me!"

Hendrick inhaled deeply when he heard that, and he felt a wave of fright filled his heart. He thought about it and guessed, "Was Arthur your rescuer?"

Ella had an embarrassed look on her face. "It... It's not him... The people from the abandoned world had entered this area."

"The abandoned world?" Hendrick's mouth hung wide open as his jaw almost fell to the ground. After so many years, the world was like a legend to them.

As for the members of the Alliance Guard, they seemed to have felt that it was difficult for the people over there to find the entrance into this area. Hence, they only symbolically sent two disciples who made mistakes to guard the area for a period of time. Basically, the sects took turns in sending people over, who then would stand guard for a year.

In the beginning, everyone sent disciples with higher fighting prowess as they felt that this was an important task, but they eventually grew to care less.

Not only did the Alliance Guard act in such a way, but they even nearly forgot about that world.

Unexpectedly, Ella suddenly told him that people had come barging in from the abandoned world.
