

No. 1 Supreme Warrior chapter 2411 - 2412

Chapter 2411

That was even the lowest possible standard.

No one knew what the final price of the ninth-grade spirit crystals would be, whether or not it would be worth ninety million.

Jackie had to be as prepared as possible.

Nash knew that everything Jackie was doing was in preparation for getting into Wild Gorge Pass.

He frowned and said, "It's not just hard to enter that place, it's dangerous as well. Do we really need to get the key?"

Jackie nodded without any hesitation. "We have to. The Scarlet Case is something even all those elders were fighting over. Even though I'm considered pretty decent on Hestia Continent, this isn't my final destination. It's just a relatively low starting point. We need to constantly look upward, and not settle for less. We can't give up on any opportunity to keep climbing upward. The Scarlet Case and what's inside the Scarlet Case. I want it all. There's even that secret that has been bothering me."

Since Jackie had said that much, Nash would not stop him.

All he could do was sigh quietly as he walked over and pat Jackie on the shoulder.

"I know you have a heroic heart, but I feel like the path forward will be very hard. You'll definitely meet many obstacles in the future. You have to take care of yourself."

Jackie nodded, changing the topic to his future plans, he said, "I've already thought about it. I have to quickly level myself up and leave Heavenly Pills. There are too many flies here, it's so annoying."

The next afternoon, Jackie went to the Selena Cloud Room like the day before.

Raphael was the one standing guard that day as well. When Jackie entered, Raphael had been leaning against a table as he whistled a little tune.

When Jackie entered, he turned around with an irritated look.

When he saw that it was Jackie, the irritation deepened.

“What?! Why is it you again? What did you come here for today? Don’t tell me you still want to enter the pill aura room?” Jackie nodded.

That was obviously the reason he was there. He needed to synchronize his body and mind. Seeing Jackie, Raphael was rendered completely speechless.

He jumped up and put his hands on the table and said, “You’re really amazing. You went in there and did nothing for four hours, and you’re trying to do the same again today. Do you think that doing this will prove that you’re condensing pill runes?”

Jackie said helplessly, “You can think whatever you want.”

After that, he did not hesitate to enter the pill aura room. After all, everyone was either busy or resting at that time. There was only one other student in Heavenly Pills who had already learned the Way of the Pill, which was that eldest student that he had never seen before.

The others had never learned the Way of the Pill before, so the pill aura room was usually empty. Therefore, Jackie never needed to queue.

Raphael looked at Jackie with a conflicted look and said, “Are you really as crazy as I think you are? Even if you waste a few days there, no one will think that you’re condensing pill runes.

‘You’ve never even looked at the Way of the Pill before. You don’t even know what the pill runes look like. How could you condense any pill runes? Do you think everyone else is stupid?’ Raphael really did not know what to say anymore.

He had seen crazy people before, and he had met idiots.

However, it was the first time he had met someone with Jackie’s particular combination.

He felt like Jackie’s actions had already exceeded the level of being dumb.

Jackie raised an eyebrow, not saying anything in response.

Raphael could think whatever he wanted to.

After all, Jackie was the only one who understood the situation.

No one else would be able to understand, so he might as well not bother explaining.

Chapter 2412

Jackie did not answer him, and instead calmly pushed open the door to the pill aura room.

Raphael could not remain calm anymore after looking at his actions.

He could not help but rush forward to Jackie.

He reached out, pulled Jackie back, and said, "Jackie, I heard that you haven't earned a single merit point since you came into Heavenly Pills. Is that correct?"

Jackie took a deep breath.

He really wanted to slap Raphael away at that moment, but if he did so, it would really cause a scene.

Instead, he held in his frustration and anger as he nodded earnestly.

Of course, he did not care about any of those merit points.

To Jackie, those points meant absolutely nothing.

The Vermillion Fire Pill was a priceless treasure to all these people here, but Jackie already had the Divine Void Pill.

The Vermillion Fire Pill was something incredibly useless to Jackie.

It was something Jackie would not want even if they handed it to him.

"No one is using the pill aura room right now anyway. I won't be affecting anyone by going in. Just ignore it, alright? After all, I have the right to use it as well." Jackie said.

Raphael looked at Jackie, his lips twitching. Jackie was looking more and more like a crazy person. He took a deep breath, "You really are insane!"

Jackie ignored Raphael as he pulled away Raphael's hand that was on him.

He calmly walked into the room and closed the door shut behind him.

Raphael continued twitching as he looked at the shut door. After a long time, he said, "I give up. I've completely given up. I Really want to see what you're going to pull off!"

The next few days, Jackie practically arrived at the same time at noon every day.

Raphael had been speechless initially, but he slowly became ignorant after that.

Raphael no longer had a change of expression when he saw Jackie in the afternoon.

He was already used to that crazy guy spending four hours every day staring at nothing inside.

He did not know if Jackie really was trying to absorb the pill aura or just staring into space. Did he really think that the pill aura room would help him in his training?

One day, after Jackie entered the Selena Cloud room, he greeted Raphael.

He then headed for the pill aura room as usual. He did not waste any time.

Jackie was stopped by Raphael before he could enter the pill aura room. "Where are you going in such a hurry? No one enters this place other than you and the eldest student anyway. Come drink some tea with me, I have something to ask you."

Jackie frowned, not turning his head around.

He did not feel like wasting any time on Raphael, nor did he feel like chatting.

In Raphael's eyes, Jackie might be in Heavenly Pills for his whole life.

Yet, Jackie was incredibly clear that Heavenly Pills was somewhere he was stopping by temporarily.

Jackie was already prepared.

The pill runes he condensed no longer produced any explosions.

Even the hardest pill runes were formed by Jackie effortlessly.

He was only one step away, and as long as he made one sixth-grade pill, he would be able to leave Heavenly Pills to do what he wanted to.

Jackie calmly said, "I'm very busy lately, Let's talk another time." Hearing Jackie's words, Raphael was furious.

He stood up with his tea in hand and replied, "Busy? What are you busy with? Are you busy staring into space in the pill aura room?"

"I've really given up on you. You waste so much time in the pill room every day. Those who don't know might actually think that you're forming pill runes in the room. I've never seen anyone who's able to pretend as well as you."

Jackie took a deep breath as he walked into the pill aura room.

Seeing Jackie's reaction, Raphael panicked a little. "I actually have something to ask you, that's why I wanted to have some tea with you."
