/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Although she only looked at him twice at the time, his appearance was deeply imprinted on her memory.

She remembered someone called him "Mr. Jaden." His last name was Jaden.

Alice had a vague feeling that this man looked familiar and that she had seen him somewhere, but she could not remember where she had seen him.

Too bad she did not have any contact information or she could have thanked others.

Bill wanted to sleep in again, but for business reasons. He could only come to the company for a meeting.

Wat Berlin came over and gathered around Bill. "Mr. Jaden, were the girls pleased yesterday?"

If Wat Berlin had not talked about it, Bill had almost forgotten. "You mean the girl yesterday? What happened yesterday? Where did the girl come from?" asked Bill casually.

"Hey... that's the student from the Imperial College of Art. It's a drama orchestrated by the company. These students want to take shortcuts." Wat Berlin said lightly.

This was common in the entertainment industry, and Bill also thought it was normal and understandable because it's everything she loves and desires.

"It seems like I ruined her affair."

Bill grinned. He thought he was a hero for saving the girl, but the result was that he ruined the girl's future.

What a sin!

"Your name is Wat Berlin, right?"

"Yes, yes!" Wat Berlin immediately lowered his head.

"You are fired!"

"Ah? Mr. Jaden, Mr. Jaden ..."

Bill entered the president's office and slammed the office door.

As the president of Shiry Entertainment Group, he could not allow his subordinates to do such a thing. Although he knew about such things and often gave repeated instructions during meetings, he would not be soft when caught the culprit.

Ceres went home and cooked food for Johnny, and she went straight to school with an insulated lunchbox. When she first came to the ward VIP, she saw Jack talking to the doctor.

This doctor was not Bob because yesterday Bob was on duty, and he happened to be the surgeon in charge of this area, so he was temporarily in charge of Johnny's first-aid work. Johnny had always had his attending physician since he became a vegetable.

Jack chatted with the attending physician.

"How is Johnny's injured leg?"

"That's what I wanted to tell you. It's been less than a month since he came out of the waking coma. The body functions are not yet back to optimal in all areas. And it did not hurt the heart, but so close to the heart, and he needs a lot of time to do recovery training. The recovery time will be longer. During this time, Johnny has to be completely in bed, which is very harmful to the recovery of his legs. If the muscles in his legs are to recover from the atrophy and return to normal, he must take advantage of the time now. However, because of the gunshot wound, he has to be in bed, so I am afraid he'll miss the best recovery time."

Ceres stepped aside and listened to the doctor's words.

Jack nodded his head. "I just need you to tell me if his leg will recover?"

"I cannot give you an exact answer right now. It all depends on the recovery situation, and the best recovery time must not be missed. It is possible that Mr. Winsor's legs will not be able to return to the past."

Jack gritted his teeth. "Try to heal!"

After saying that, Jack strode away.

Ceres felt more and more guilty as she hid in the corner, thinking it was all her fault. If she did not have to see the music fountain, something like this would not have happened.

At the station.

Johnny and Bob had solemn faces.

"Have the bullets been collected?"

“Shaw took them. He helped put them away and thought you should use them.”

“We need to find out who did this, and they even used them with the high precision MSR.”

“Hmm.”

After saying that, they saw Ceres came in with a worried look. Bob saw that Ceres was coming, and he did not want to be a third wheel, so he just Ceres said hello and left.

Ceres mechanically placed the lunchbox on the table.

Johny seemed to see that Ceres something was bothering him. “How did you get here? I am hungry.”

“Oh...” Ceres opened the lunchbox and took the spoon to Johny. “Today I made wonton, the doctor said you should eat light food, and you can taste it as you like.”

Ceres held out a spoon to her, but Johny did not take it. “The arm is not very comfortable.”

Johny was hurt in the back, for the wound was deep, and a slight strain on the arm would involve the wound.

“Then I will feed you.” Ceres scooped up a wonton with a spoon and handed it to Johny to his mouth.

When Johny opened his mouth to eat, he found that Ceres’s eyes were full of tears and her attention was not on feeding him, and he could not reach Ceres’s spoon at all.

“What the hell is going on?”

Ceres was coming to her senses, looking down at the spoon in her hand and sniffing. “I am sorry, I...”

“Put the spoon down and eat it later.”

Ceres obediently put the spoon away and covered the lid of the isolation box. And watched Johny’s legs as the tears fell uncontrollably.

“I am sorry, it’s all my fault. I should not have taken you to lunch outside of school. I should have come back after lunch. I should not have gone out to see any fountains. If I had not, those people would not have had a chance to start, and you would not have been shot.”

As Ceres said this, tears ran down her face.

She did not like crying, but she did not know what had happened lately. She just wanted to cry!

"It's my fault, Johny, I am sorry! The doctor said your legs, your legs missed the best recovery time and may not be able to get back up."

Johny patted Ceres's little brain. "If I really cannot get up for the rest of my life, what are you supposed to do?"

Ceres looked at Johny with tears in her eyes. She suddenly pursed her lower lip and wiped the tears from her face with her arm. "Then I'll make you a crutch for life! If you can only stand a wheelchair, I'll push you for life!"

"That's what you said."

"Said !! I have always been uncompromising!" vowed Ceres to say.

Seeing his little wife cry made Johny angry and funny. What bothers him the most is that women call, but seeing his little wife cry makes him a little sad.

"Do not cry. It will not do any good!"

Ceres immediately wiped away her tears.

"Do not cry. I'll tell you a secret."

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 82

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

"What is the secret?" Ceres looked at Johny in amazement.

Johny winked at him, and Ceres immediately leaned over. Hearing Johny, Ceres stared up in amazement and looked at Johny in disbelief!

Johny placed his index finger on the center of his lips, "Hush."

Ceres was still thought it a little unacceptable even though she had suspected it for a long time, but if this thing was real, she still could not face it.

Johny saw that Ceres was in surprise and reached out his hand and shook his head.

"You are so smart. Did you suspect?"

Johny could hide it from anyone, but if he and Ceres slept in the same bed every day, he did not think she'd ever doubted since she was massaging him every day.

After all, the leg muscles that are often exercised were different from muscle atrophy!

"I suspected." Ceres made no secret of it, either.

Johny knew she must have suspected him for a long time, but luckily, he had told her beforehand, or the little girl might have done something wrong if she had explored the mystery on her own.

"Okay, then you tell me. Why would I do that?"

Ceres rolled her eyes, "A person can only do something when they see hope. Someone knows your legs are disabled, so he sees hope in taking the presidency. He'll work hard for it, and he'll get angrier and more reckless.

The more he sees hope, the more he wants to deal with you and get rid of you right away, so there will inevitably be failures in his work, so you can take the opportunity to take the initiative! "

Johny twitched the corners of his mouth and shook his head again.

"As expected, my wife is smart, but you missed one of the most direct reasons."

"What?"

"Because I am a disabled person, he would think that dealing with me is easy. When he deals with me, he often overlooks some details and leaves some clues. I want to find those clues and finally defeat him."

Ceres stuck her tongue out for missing the simplest reason.

"Well, only Bob and Bill know about this. You guys have to keep it a secret."

Ceres nodded eagerly.

"I told you a secret, do you have to tell me a secret too?" Johny tapped Ceres's head again.

He always felt like there were a lot of things on Ceres that had not been revealed yet.

"What's my secret?" Ceres's eyes were a little evasive.

"Everyone has a secret, and there's more than one."

Ceres bit her lip, "Okay, but you cannot be mad!"

Johny nodded.

"During my last menstruation, I accidentally smeared you with blood. You were leaving too fast at the time, maybe you did not even notice. I secretly threw your pajamas!"

Ceres looked at Johny suspiciously as she spoke.

Johny frowned and looked at the girl in front of him. He could not get angry at all, "I wondered the traces of my pajamas for a long time!"

"Hey-hey!"

As he spoke, Bill pushed open the door and walked in, "Oh, it seems I am not here at the right time! You two are PDA again!"

Bill's nose sniffed, "That smells good!"

Then he found the insulated lunch box on the nightstand. When he opened it, he saw wontons. The beautiful little wontons immediately arouse Bill's appetite, "Wontons, I have not eaten it for a long time!"

Ceres immediately took them back, "Johny has not eaten yet!"

"Ceres, do not be so stingy, I want to eat too!" Bill was about to reach for it, but Ceres immediately took the lunchbox in his arms.

"Oh, look at my Johny, he lies on the bed every day and does not move much. It's okay for him to eat a few bites less. Unlike me, I work so hard every day. I have to eat more if I move around a lot!"

Ceres glanced at Bill. "You have been taking food away from sick people, can you have a conscience?"

"Ceres, you are my sister-in-law! Johny, help me!"

Johny also looked at Bill, "Well, I cannot eat that much, so give him a little."

Ceres found a bowl and gave some to Bill. Bill ate it with great pleasure.

Ceres hurriedly took a spoon and started stuffing his mouth, "Hurry up or he'll snap again."

Bill watched as Johny calmly accepted the feeding from Ceres and he was so astonished that his chin almost dropped to the floor.

Johny was dependent since he was a kid, and now he's being fed like a baby!

He's going to go blind yet!

"I cannot stand it, sister-in-law, make more delicious food tonight, I will come!" Bill finished his speech and went home with Wontons.

Since there were still classes in the afternoon, Ceres went back to school after dinner. When she returned to the dormitory, she met Alice.

"Alice, I have only recently become interested in Johny, I have not asked you yet, how was the audition yesterday?"

When she talked about yesterday's audition, Alice could only sigh. She told Ceres in detail, and Ceres furiously slapped her thigh.

"Is there such a thing?!"

"Yeah, I did not expect it to be so dark. I heard about it from my classmates, but I did not expect to see it for the first time." Alice was also a little frustrated.

She was not originally a student in the drama department. She had no professional background, and she had fewer opportunities than others.

"It's alright Alice, I do not think it's that dark. Gold will shine everywhere. There has to be a chance."

Alice nodded vigorously, subconsciously remembering the man from last night.

Since classes were still in session, they did not talk much and went to class separately.

Ceres did not notice, and someone had been glancing at her snakingly lately.

Mary had not done anything in the last few days. She watched her every move from Ceres. In the past, she did not pay much attention to Ceres at school. In the past few days, she had gathered a lot of Ceres information.

"Ugly, wait for me, sooner or later I will trample you!"

At this moment, Mary received a call from Henry. In the past few days, she had not contacted Henry often. Henry had called her several times, but she only pretended that something was going on at school.

Since Johny did not have a chance, Mary did not dare to offend Henry lightly, so she had no choice but to go to Henry's.

As soon as she entered the school, Henry held her in his arms like a hungry wolf, gnawing and kissing her.

Mary did not want to be like that. Ever since she had seen Johny, she began to resist Henry.

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 83

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

"My dear cutie, I missed you so much. What have you been up to these few days? Hurry up!" As Henry spoke, he tore off Mary's clothes and carried her upstairs.

Mary had nothing to do but only palter with him. However, Henry was very experienced in this aspect. She would not refuse even if she wanted to.

Satiated, Henry sat on the bed smoking.

Mary was unhappy, but when she saw Henry smiling, she couldn't help but ask, "Did something good happen?"

"Good news."

"What is it?"

"Johny has been assassinated."

"What?" Mary looked at Henry in shock. "Is Johny alright?"

Henry suddenly looked at Mary. "What? It seems that you don't want him to die."

Mary immediately put away her surprised expression and punched Henry in the chest with her fist.

"I can't wait for him to die. If he dies, you will be the president."

Henry pinched Mary's chin. "That's more like it."

"And ... is he dead?"

"No!" Henry was a little angry when he mentioned this. "How can he be so lucky? He survived the car accident and even woke up in a vegetative state. He was assassinated and didn't die after being shot!"

Mary finally felt relieved.

One must have good fortune after surviving a great disaster.

"However, although he is not dead, his injury is not light. I heard that his doctor said that because the bullet was very close to the heart, he managed to save Johny's life with great difficulty. Johny must lie on the bed and rest, so that he would miss the best time for his legs to recover. Johny's legs would be probably disabled."

Henry smirked. "I'm so happy. He has so many enemies. Someone hates him more than I do. They are even more ruthless than me!"

"You did not do it?"

Henry shook his head. "No. I am curious about who did it."

Since she knew about Johnny's injury, Mary lied that she had something to do in the school. Henry had to go back to the company, so he didn't stop Mary. Mary quickly went back to school to change into a beautiful dress and went to the hospital.

She had just arrived at the VIP ward area and was stopped by the bodyguards.

"What are you doing? This is the ward of the Winsor family. Strangers are not allowed in."

"My name is Mary." Mary said, acting like Mrs. Winsor.

The bodyguards all knew that the bride of Johnny was called Mary, but they had all seen 'Mary'. The woman in front of them also called herself Mary. What was going on?

"Mrs. Winsor is called Mary. Go away!"

"The one you see is fake. I am the real Mary. If it wasn't for me, she wouldn't have had the chance to marry Johnny. If you annoy me, you will be in trouble!"

The bodyguards were stunned. They did not know what was going on.

Just as they were hesitating, Mary took the opportunity to break in. The bodyguards hurried to chase after her. Mary was very lucky. The first door she opened was Johnny's room.

"Johnny."

The bodyguards chased in and grabbed Mary. "Mr. Johnny, this woman calls herself Mary."

Johnny closed the lid of the laptop and winked at the bodyguards. The bodyguards immediately let go of Mary.

"See that?" Mary glared at the bodyguard.

"Why are you here?"

Mary smiled gracefully. "I heard that you were injured, so I came to visit you. Are you seriously injured?"

"I heard you brought the household register to your school." Johny did not answer Mary's question.

"Yeah. Our school asked me to go abroad for a competition. I play the piano very well. I hear that you also play the piano..."

"I will send someone to go back to school with you to get the household register." Johny interrupted Mary.

If it wasn't to get the household register, Johny wouldn't talk with this woman.

Johny ordered a bodyguard to follow Mary back to school.

Mary was speechless. Johny opened his laptop and continued working. It seemed that Mary wasn't in the room. Mary was unwilling to accept Johny's attitude towards her.

Johny always saw that ugly woman, Ceres. Didn't he want to take a few more glances at a beauty like Mary? Why did he not want to look at her?

"And ... I..."

"Pass down the order! Mrs. Winsor is called Ceres, not Mary. Tell everyone to remember." Johny said to the bodyguard as he worked.

"Yes!"

"I haven't finished yet."

The bodyguards dragged Mary out. Mary was brought to the area outside the VIP ward. The bodyguard, who was ordered, said, "Miss Mary, please hurry up. I have to finish the task."

Mary had no choice but to let this bodyguard follow her.

What to do?

The bodyguard followed Mary all the way to the school.

"Wait here! I'll go to get it." Mary shouted at the bodyguard.

"Hurry up. Don't play any tricks! There is nothing that Mr. Winsor can't get!"

Mary glared at the bodyguards. Once she became Johny's wife, she would teach them a lesson.

However, she did not want to hand over the household register at all. Once she handed it over, Johny and Ceres would go to register for marriage. After they registered, they would be protected by the law. It would be more difficult for Mary to enter in the Winsor family.

I have to think of a way.

Speak of the devil, and here he appeared.

Ceres was about to leave the school after class when Mary blocked her way.

“Good dogs don’t get underfoot.”

Ceres didn’t want to waste any time with Mary. She had to hurry home and cook dinner for Johnny. She couldn’t afford to waste time. Johnny only ate a few wontons at noon. Dinner would be had a little earlier.

“I just went to the hospital to see Johnny.”

Ceres stopped.

Mary knew that Ceres would definitely mind. Ceres, an ugly woman, had accumulated eight lifetimes of good fortune and was able to serve Johnny. She was definitely afraid of losing her position. She heard that Mary had gone to see Johnny, she must be scared.

“Are you afraid? You don’t know how much Johnny worried about me. Did you see that? He even sent a bodyguard to take care of my safety.” Mary pointed at the bodyguard.

Ceres naturally recognized this bodyguard.

“If I were you, I should obediently give up the position of Mrs. Winsor. No, you are not Mrs. Winsor. You did not register your marriage, nor did you hold a wedding. If you were sensible, you should leave Johnny quickly and get some money. Don’t wait until he dislikes you. In the end, you will get nothing.”

Mary circled around Ceres. “Will any man want you in the world if he is with me?”

Ceres suddenly laughed out loud, exaggeratedly.

She was even convulsed with laughter.

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 84

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President
Ceres’s smile confused Mary.

“What are you laughing at? What’s so funny?”

Ceres continued to laugh loudly.

“Don’t laugh anymore! Ceres, I order you not to laugh anymore!” Mary felt that she was greatly insulted.

Ceres’s smile sounded like to mock her.

Ceres was shaking with laughter.

“Ceres, don’t be complacent. Do you think that you can rest easy just because Johnny dotes on you now? I’m telling you. Look at your own ugly appearance!”

Mary saw that no matter what she said, Ceres just kept laughing. She was so angry.

She stomped her foot fiercely, “Just you wait!” She quickly left. “She is a madman. Madman!”

When Mary left, Ceres stopped laughing. The best way to deal with Mary was to ignore her.

When Ceres passed the bodyguard, the bodyguard respectfully called out, “Mrs. Winsor.”

“What are you doing here?”

“Mr. Winsor asked me to come back with Miss Mary to get the household register. Miss Mary asked me to wait here.”

Ceres suddenly felt sad. Mary’s lie was really interesting. “Go back. She won’t give you it.”

“Why? That was Mr. Winsor’s order.” The bodyguard was confused.

“Listen to me. Go back. If Mr. Winsor asks, just say that I ask you to go back.”

When the bodyguard heard this, he immediately left the school.

Ceres cooked more dishes when she returned home, and then came to the hospital.

They ate dinner together. Johnny looked at Ceres from time to time. When the bodyguard returned, he had told him that Ceres met Mary in the school. However, Ceres did not say anything.

He wondered what this little girl was thinking.

"The household register is in Mary's hand. If she doesn't give it to me, I will figure out a way to get it."

In the end, Johnny couldn't help but bring up this topic.

"Oh." Ceres only answered a word and continued to eat, as if she did not care about this matter at all.

Johnny seemed displeased. Did she not want to marry him?

"Why didn't you ask me why she came to visit me?"

"What did she do? She thinks that you are the president of the Winsor Group now, and Henry is not. She knows that you are so excellent."

Ceres said as she gestured. She was not stingy with her praise for Johnny. "Mary regretted it and wanted to change our positions. It is normal for her to do this. She is a vain rich young lady. She always thinks that she is the most beautiful woman in the world. She is the best. She wishes that all men in the world would be infatuated with her."

"She especially hates me. In order to anger me, she has to take you back."

Ceres and Mary had grown up together and knew Mary well.

Johnny saw that Ceres was indifferent and seemed not to care.

"Aren't you afraid?"

"What am I afraid of?" Ceres stuffed a mouthful of rice into her mouth. "Am I afraid that she will snatch you away from me? I would take things as they came. If it is mine, and no one can snatch it away. If it is not mine, I can't keep it either."

Johnny picked up his chopsticks and knocked on Ceres's head. He had thought that she was very confident in their love, but it turned out that this was what she thought.

But it was good. He wouldn't have to explain it all over again and again.

"I don't think you will love such a vulgar woman."

Ceres looked at Johnny full of love, "If you like such a vulgar woman, then you're not the one I like."

Suddenly realizing that she had accidentally confessed her love, Ceres immediately lowered her head to eat.

Johnny smiled.

Bill's voice suddenly came from the door, "I'm late. What delicious food did you cook today?"

Ceres rolled her eyes and took a bowl for Bill. "I knew you would come, so I cooked more today."

"Ceres, I love you so much!" Bill immediately sat down and began eating. "I'm so busy today. Look at these celebrities. Do they have nothing to do? Why is there so much news? I have to deal with the rumors one by one."

Seeing Ceres's puzzled expression, Johny explained, "Bill is the president of Shiry Entertainment Group."

Ceres forcefully swallowed the rice in her mouth. "Shiry Entertainment Group? The biggest company of the entertainment industry, which is rich in countless stars?"

Bill immediately cleared his throat proudly, "Yes, that's right! Ceres, if you like a star, I can give you his signature, photos, the tickets of concert and premiere, and anything. Leave it to me."

"Wow ... so awesome!"

Ceres said as she ate, "But I don't like a star."

"Are you a college student? My God. Ceres, don't talk about college students. Are you come from ancient times? Who doesn't have an idol nowadays?"

"I have an idol. But he is not a star."

"Please tell me. Who is your idol? Is your idol Einstein or Napoleon?"

In that case, Bill would suspect that she had transmigrated from the ancient times.

Ceres shrugged. "My idol is Arno."

Bill widened his eyes and looked at Johny.

"You don't know him, do you? Arno is the leader of artificial intelligence in our Country. It is not an exaggeration to say that he is the founder of the new era. The C system he developed is leading in the world, but unfortunately, he is too mysterious. He never accepts any interviews and has never appeared in public."

"Our school is going to hold a robot competition soon. When I win the championship, I can enter Eagle Group for my internship. Then, I will see my idol."

Ceres felt excited just thinking about it. That was something she dreamed of.

She wanted to go abroad to be an exchange student. The professor was very famous. When she came back from abroad, she could send resumes to Eagle Group. She did not expect that the robot competition in her school was sponsored by Eagle Group and also provided an internship.

This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

"Isn't that simple? Isn't that..."

It would be so easy if Johnny agreed.

Just as Bill was about to say it, Johnny coughed lightly. Bill immediately shut up. Johnny was unwilling to say it out, so he shouldn't say it.

"Isn't that what?" Ceres asked.

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 85

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

"Isn't that a piece of cake for Ceres? She will definitely win the championship!"

"Although I know that you are flattering me, I am still very pleased. It is not so easy to win a championship. There are many capable people in our school. I should work hard!"

"Work hard and be composed. Don't give yourself too much pressure." Johnny said as he touched Ceres's forehead.

"Yes!" Ceres smiled at Johnny.

Bill felt that they were showing off again. It seemed that they were fated to fall in love with each other.

"You are so sweet. By the way, you two won't eat anymore, right? Then the rest is all mine!" Bill said and poured all the dishes into his bowl.

"I have a friend who studies dancing, but she has been studying performance. The teacher also said that she is very good. Can she go to your company?"

Such a good opportunity, Ceres naturally couldn't forget Alice.

"Isn't that just a matter of my words?" Bill said as he chewed.

Ceres pursed her lips and smiled. That was great.

However, Alice was a girl with strong self-esteem. She hoped that she would sign a company based on her ability and not on the strings, so she had to think about how to help Alice and how to make it natural.

During his days in the hospital, Johnny lived a very comfortable life. Other than breakfast, Ceres prepared lunch and dinner for him. But Johnny didn't idle his time. He had been handling the company's matters.

His injury recovered very quickly. There was no infection, no inflammation, no sequelae, and soon there was only a scar over. Then he was discharged from the hospital.

After that, Johnny immediately resumed his work and began to work normally.

Ceres had to prepare for the robot competition, so she also began to get busy. Usually, she could not go home. The two then contacted each other through WeChat.

On this day, when Ceres was studying robots in the dormitory, she encountered a bottleneck. She wanted to go to the library to check the information.

"Ceres!" A familiar voice came.

Ceres turned around and saw Kris.

"Kris?"

When she first came back, she looked for Kris once, but she did not find him. During this time, because of Johnny's injury, she almost forgot Kris.

Kris ran over and grabbed Ceres's hand. "You're back, Ceres!"

Ceres subconsciously pulled her hand out. "Yes, I'm back."

Kris also realized that he was a little too excited. He smiled awkwardly and they strolled together in the school garden.

"Ceres, did you know? I've been missing you all this time..." Kris looked a little uneasy. God knew how he had spent the time when Ceres was not around.

He had looked almost all the places he could find, but he still could not find Ceres. He was about to go crazy!

"I miss you too!" Ceres immediately interrupted Kris. She seemed to realize what Kris wanted to say, "I have something to tell you. I am married."

Kris was about to smile at this, but suddenly he heard the latter part of the sentence. His smile instantly froze on his face, "What did you say? Ceres, I didn't hear wrong, did I? You said you..."

"I'm married... It's a long story." Ceres pretended to be the same as usual.

Therefore, Ceres told Kris all about her marriage. She did not want to wrong Kris. It was better to make it clear in one go.

Kris also understood what Ceres meant. Originally, she married over on others' behalf, but in the end, she found true love.

"Is he good to you?" The light in Kris's eyes dimmed.

"Yes, he is very good to me. He said that I am his lucky star. Kris, you will definitely bless me, right?"

Kris tried his best to smile, "Yes, of course."

"I knew you're the best. You're the best brother in this world!"

Kris was not stupid. Of course, he could understand what Ceres meant. She deliberately spoke before him because she was worried that it would be embarrassing after he confessed. She made everything clear and even told him that he was just her brother.

He understood. He understood everything, just very sad.

"Alright, Kris, you're not young anymore. Hurry up and find a wife. I won't talk to you anymore. My robot is halfway done. I have to go to the library to check the information."

"Alright, you go ahead. Good luck in the competition!"

Ceres waved at Kris and ran to the library.

Looking at the back of Ceres as she left, Kris recalled the time they went through together. His heart ached.

If he confessed to her earlier, would the ending be different? If he was also a rich and powerful person, would Ceres's choice be different?

A car stopped by Kris's side. Kris walked forward quickly the moment he saw the car.

A man in a black suit hurried out of the car, "Mr. Shaw, please wait!"

Kris finally stopped, "I've said it many times, don't call me like this. I'm not your young master either. Don't come to me again!"

"But the old master is seriously ill. He really wants to see you!"

When Ceres entered the library, she also felt very sad.

In fact, she even had a glimmer of hope, hoping that what Alice said was false. Kris just saw her as a sister. But just now, Kris's frozen smile had already told her that he had indeed fallen for her.

But there was no other way. She had never had that kind of thought about him, and now she had already fallen in love with Johny.

Hope time would heal.

After checking the information, Ceres returned to the dormitory. Alice had just returned from her training. She immediately pulled Ceres to the side mysteriously, "Ceres, I just saw Mary."

Ceres stuffed a bean into her mouth, "What's so strange about it? She's from our school. Of course, we will see her."

Alice, however, had a different feeling, "The dormitory she lives is far from here. Our dormitory is so remote. Why is she here? I think you should be careful."

Ceres nodded. She picked up a bean and stuffed it into Alice's mouth, "Oh right, I'm going to the bar today. Please help me deal with the dorm keeper..."

"Are you going to resume your old business again? Your husband is so rich. Why do you have to work to make money?" Alice flicked Ceres's forehead with her finger.

"His money is his money. I can't ask him for money, In that case, won't I become his lover?"

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 86

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Alice felt that what Ceres said made sense. Women should be independent.

“Don’t worry about dorm keeper. As long as you give me a bag of broad beans, I will hide your absence.” Alice pointed at the broad bean beside Ceres.

They smiled at each other.

At this time, Johnny sent a message to Ceres, and she immediately picked up her phone. Alice glared at her, “You’re lovey-dovey!”

Ceres pushed Alice away and climbed into her bed to reply to Johnny.

“What are you doing?”

Johnny rarely took the initiative to send messages. Even if he did, he only asked what were you doing? Ceres immediately replied.

“I’m preparing for the robotics contest. Are you busy today?”

“I’m not busy. Do you want to go home tonight?”

Ceres curled her lips. She wanted to go home, but she had made a deal with the bar that she was going to perform today, so she couldn’t go back home.

“I won’t go back tonight. I’ll go home another day.”

Johnny, sitting in the office, put his phone aside after seeing Ceres’s reply.

‘It is difficult for me to see my wife. I could meet her twice a day in the hospital, but now, we had not met for three days.’

But even if they met, they couldn’t enjoy the night.

No, he must register their marriage immediately!

Therefore, he asked Ben to call Mike.

When Mary received her father’s call, she was going to class. Mike complained over the phone, coaxing her and scolding Ceres. Mary echoed but hung up immediately.

It seemed that Johny was anxious and he couldn't wait to register his marriage with Ceres, so she must take quick action to stop him.

Fortunately, she had finished her investigation and got Ceres's secrets.

Therefore, Mary went back to the dormitory to change her clothes and put on her delicate makeup again. She drove her sports car to the Winsor Group.

Because she had been to the Winsor Group with Henry a few times, the receptionist recognized her and did not stop her. She had unhindered access to the president's office.

She knocked on the door of the president's office and entered when she heard "Come in".

"Put the coffee on the table and get out."

Mary walked to the table and Johny felt that someone was beside him. When he looked up, he saw Mary with a bright smile.

"Who said you could come in?" Johny frowned. He hated someone entering his office without permission.

"You asked me to come in!"

Johny immediately pressed the button on the table. "Let the security personnel come to my office."

"Don't, don't! I have something important to tell you!" Mary hurriedly waved her hand. 'Johny hates me so much, as soon as he sees me, he was about to ask the security to kick me out.'

"Something important? I have an important matter. Are you going to give me Ceres's certificate or not?"

Apart from Ceres's certificate, Johny was unwilling to talk with Mary.

"I didn't give Ceres's certificate for your good. It was impulsive for you to marry Ceres because you don't understand her at all."

"Oh? Is that so?" Johny smiled sarcastically.

"Yes!"

Mary nodded her head vigorously, "She was at my house when she was twelve years old. I knew her very well. She is a vain woman! She married you just for your money, because she was too poor and wanted to change her fate."

Johny only found this excuse ridiculous. He knew who was for his money.

"Is there anything else you can say?"

"Yes, not just that! She has cuckolded you!" Mary said seriously, "When you were still in a vegetative state, she cheated on you with your bodyguard. I saw them go shopping and hug each other in public and go to the hotel."

Johny squinted.

She told him half-truths. It seemed that she was a master at lying.

Because the best liar would tell half-truths.

"If you didn't wake up, she would have eloped with the bodyguard!"

Mary had been trying to investigate the bodyguard. As long as she found the bodyguard and gave him a sum of money, Ceres would be blamed for the affair. However, she could not find the bodyguard at all. The bodyguard disappeared, so she could only delate Ceres without any evidence.

The security guards came and asked, "Mr. Johny, what can I do for you?"

"She barged into my office. Take her to the police station and ask what she wanted to do." After saying that, Johny lowered his head and continued to work.

"Don't touch me!" Mary was frightened.

She went behind Johny and said, "What I said is true! She had an affair with that bodyguard and someone else! She liked money and even performed singing in the bar. She was performing singing as well as being a whore. She had sex with countless rich men! She had always wanted to marry a rich man!"

Johny remained calm as if he didn't hear Mary's words.

"What I said is true! You must believe me! That bar is called Jazz Bar, and she is wearing a mask in her performance. Many people know her. You can pry!"

The security guards had walked to Mary and grabbed her arm.

Johny stopped and thought that Bill had the Jazz Bar.

He and his friends were often there.

"Let me go! Do you know who I am? You idiots!" Mary struggled.

However, the security guards didn't listen to her. This was an order from the president, so they had to obey. They dragged Mary out.

"Johny, you must believe me. Everything I said is true! You can go to verify. Johny, Ceres is not a good woman. You can't marry her!"

Mary shouted, "And Kirs! She has a lover at the school and he is called Kirs. They always have meals and went to class together. It is said that they grew up together! Johny, you will know when you go to school!"

Mary struggled hard, but the security guards did not be tender. They dragged her out of the president's office.

Mary was so angry. She had said so much, but Johny didn't believe her.

Because the noise was too loud and Mary's voice was familiar to him, Henry came from downstairs and saw the security guards dragging Mary away.

"Let her go!" Henry shouted.

When the security guards saw Henry, they immediately let Mary go.

Mary immediately threw herself into Henry's arms, "Henry, they bullied me!"

The security personnel greeted Henry and said, "Mr. Henry, I'm sorry. This woman broke into the president's office, so Mr. Johny asked us to take her to the police station for interrogation."

"He asked you to take her to the police station, did you must obey? Open your eyes and see, this is my girl!"

Henry took Mary to his office.

The security guards looked at each other and had to report this to Johny.

As soon as Henry brought Mary into the office, Mary hugged him, "Henry, don't misunderstand. I was originally looking for you, but I forgot that you were no longer in that office. I just went to the wrong place, but he, he..."

As she spoke, Mary began to cry.

Henry flustered, "What did he do to you? Tell me! Don't cry!"

"He ... he... I can't say it. He said that I should have been his wife, but my father let Ceres be my substitute, and he..."

Henry slammed his fist on the table, "He is a bastard! He already has that ugly woman. He could have various women, but he just wants mine!"

Mary squeezed out tears and hugged Henry, "Henry, I only love you. You won't return me to him, will you?"

"Return? Since I have you, I can't return you to him!" Henry was very angry!

Mary knew that Johnny and Henry couldn't be harmonious and only one person would be left standing. It was true that she wanted to marry Johnny, but if Johnny, a disabled person, died at Henry's hands, she had to find a way to save herself.

"You go back first. Don't worry, I will protect you and never let him succeed!"

Mary nodded vigorously and kissed Henry's lips slightly.

"Don't come to the company anymore. If you want to find me, go to the villa. You have the key."

"OK, I'll leave first!" Mary walked out of the Winsor Group and was relieved.

'It was so thrilling.'

She had done what she wanted to do.

Ceres left the class and prepared for the Robotics Contest for a while. She rushed to the Jazz Bar around eight o'clock and entered through the back door. As soon as she entered, she felt that there were a lot of people today!

Entering the lounge at the bar, Ceres greeted the band members one by one. Because they had been performing together before, they were very familiar with each other.

"Ceres, you haven't been here for a long time, so the business in the bar has decreased by half!"

"That's right. Ceres, why have you disappeared for so long? Did you have a rich boyfriend and go on a date with him?"

Everyone bantered Ceres.

Ceres had always been wearing a mask in the bar, and no one saw her face.

"Alright, alright. I haven't practiced for a long time. Let's rehearse first." Ceres urged.

Indeed, she didn't play the drum for a long time and felt a little verdant, so she had to make the best use of the time to rehearse.

In a VIP room upstairs of the bar, Bill was singing and dancing. Bob was drinking glass after glass and seemed to have something in his mind. Johnny looked up at Bill after sending a message.

"Bob, are you thinking about your fiancée?" Bill asked as he sat down next to Bob.

"Don't mention her." Bob frowned.

Bob was annoyed by his marriage. As a son of a wealthy family, although he knew that his marriage was not up to him and it would become the sacrifice of the business one day, he still felt a little upset when the day was coming.

Especially when he saw the relationship between Johny and Ceres, he began to look forward to illusory love though he had no regard for it.

"Alright, Let's stop talking about it. Carly will be performing today. Let's go and support her later!"

Bill changed the topic.

"Carly?" Johny raised his head to look at Bill.

"I have told you that she was the drummer of the band in the bar, a girl wearing a mask. She is the treasure of our bar. I don't know what happened to her before, she didn't work, and caused the turnover of our bar to drop by half!"

Bill took a big gulp of wine, "This girl is very popular, but it is said that she has a bad temper. She refuses to see me even when I am her boss."

At the mention of this, Bill felt a little angry. No person dared to refuse him.

Bob snorted, "It's amazing. There is a girl who doesn't like you, the playboy in the bar nowadays."

"Bob, don't provoke me. I'll get her tonight! It was because I hadn't seen what she looked like before, I was afraid that she would be too ugly. So I didn't dare to take her."

After ten o'clock, the bar became lively. Because it announced that Carly would perform today in advance, the bar was more lively than usual.

When the band came out, the cheers of the audience erupted.

Carly, wearing a mask, was the most eye-catching girl.

There weren't many girls who play the drum in the band, because drummers needed strong wrist strength. Therefore, few female drummers were good at drumming, but Carly was an exception.

She played the drum passionately, sang well and was very good at making the audience vibrant, and her mask added a hint of mystery, so she was popular at once.

Previously, there were a lot of her drumming videos on the Internet, and there was a large number of views.

After finished a song, Carly greeted everyone happily. When she performed, she was the main character, and even the lead singer would let her be the major.

“Hello everyone, I am Carly! Long time no see! I have seen many familiar people. Thank you for coming to support me! Let’s have a good night!”

The passionate music started again.

Mary was sitting at the corner and looked at Ceres on the stage with evil sight. She had heard that Ceres would perform today.

These audiences admired her so much. If they knew that she wore a mask because she was ugly, will they still like her?

She would invite everyone to watch a good show.

Mary walked straight to the stage, “Stop! Stop!”

Because she stood on the stage and bothered performance, the band stopped.

“You always support this woman. Do you know why she’s wearing a mask?” Mary snatched the microphone from the lead singer.

The audience was confused and didn’t know what happened.

“You must be very curious about what Carly looks like. Let me uncover her mask for you.”

Then Mary turned around to remove Ceres’s mask!

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 88

On the second floor of the bar, Bill and Bob came out, but Johny was still drinking in the private room.

At that instant, everyone held their breaths!

After all, this drummer named Carly was very famous. However, no one had seen her face, which aroused their curiosity!

Mary held the mask and prepared to see that the audience despised Ceres after seeing Ceres’s face!

"It's impossible!" Mary stared at Ceres in front of her.

Everyone saw a delicate and pretty face without makeup.

And they were stunned by her beauty.

Although Carly was not extremely beautiful, she was still pretty. She had a thin face with sharp features, and her eyes were as bright as stars with long eyelashes. She had an aura of heroine.

Carly was very attractive.

The audience broke out thunderous applause, mixed with whistling sounds.

"I didn't expect Miss Carly to be so beautiful!"

"A rare beauty!"

"What a feast to the eyes!"

Mary also felt that it was inconceivable. She carefully looked at Cere's face. It seemed that her face wasn't different from before, but the large patch of red spots on her face was disappeared. What was going on?

'The doctor had said that the red spots were caused by chemical drugs, and it was impossible to recover in her life.'

"No. You must use cosmetics to cover your red spots." Mary said and went to touch Ceres's face.

"Miss, please don't disturb the performance. If you continue to do like this, we will kick you out!" The security personnel came up and grabbed Mary.

"Let go of me. She doesn't look like this. She is ugly with a large patch of red spots on her face!" Mary struggled.

Her voice was drowned in the voices of the crowd, and no one paid any attention to her.

The security guards dragged Mary away. There were also security guards watching her. If she dared to go up again, she would be dragged out of the bar!

"I'm sorry, there was a small accident just now. Everyone, let's continue to have fun!" Ceres apologized politely and put on her mask again.

Mary was at a loss, sitting in her position.

'It is impossible. Ceres had red spots on her face for many years. If her face could be cured, she would have recovered a long time ago. She must have used something to cover her red spots. However, it was a large patch of red spots with deep color, how could she cover it?

Upstairs, Bill and Bob were also dumbfounded!

They recognized that Carly was Ceres.

Bill ran into the private room, "Johny, Johny! Go and take a look. Is the girl downstairs Ceres? Or am I mistaken?"

Bob walked in, "It shouldn't be wrong, just her face is..."

Johny had guessed that she was Ceres when Bill said that the girl was called Carly. He didn't need to look because he know that she was Ceres.

"Yes, that's her."

"Is she Ceres? Heavens! What happened to her face?" Bill was still in a daze.

He was used to seeing a large patch of red spots on Ceres's face and Ceres was a good cook, so he had accepted her, an ugly woman, as Johny's wife. However, he never expected that she was as beautiful as a fairy!

"What you see is her real face."

Johny was calm.

Mary could only look at Ceres resentfully in the corner. The security guards saw that she was quiet, so they didn't take charge of her.

She drank a cup of wine and was very angry.

Although she didn't know why did Ceres's face recover, she had to seize this good opportunity right now. Just at this moment, she saw many people sending flowers and wine to Ceres. Suddenly, she had an idea.

Mary asked the waiter for a glass of orange juice. Then she went to the bathroom and took out a small pill from her bag. The small pill melted in the orange juice in an instant.

"You must be in great trouble!" Mary handed the orange juice to a man and he took the orange juice to the stage.

Because there were often customers who would buy Ceres drinks and flowers. However, she never drank wine here, but occasionally drank a few juices. When Ceres saw the orange juice handed over, she felt a little thirsty.

Therefore, she took it and took a few sips.

Mary saw Ceres drink the glass of orange juice and waited to watch the show she designed.

After a break in the middle, the band's performance continued.

When it was almost midnight, Ceres's performance was over. Originally, she only stayed here for more than an hour each time. But this time, the audience was enthusiastic and she was encored, so she performed for a while longer.

Ceres changed her clothes backstage. After saying goodbye to the band members, she was about to leave. Just as she reached the door, a man suddenly grabbed her!

"Hey, Miss Carly, don't go!"

"Let go!" Ceres forcefully flung him away, but she did not shake him off.

The man was fat with stubble all over his face, which make him look greasy. Ceres felt deeply disgusted.

"Hey, what's with your attitude? I've already paid the price for your night. You must come with me today! I've booked the room next to the bar!" The greasy man pulled Ceres to go out.

Ceres raised her arm and suddenly felt a little dazed. "Let go! Let go of me! What are you talking about? What did you pay for?"

The greasy man shouted, "Everyone, come and judge! Miss Carly got the money and agreed to sleep with me today. I even booked a room in the hotel next to the bar. But she doesn't recognize the deal after getting the money!"

The greasy man's shout attracted a lot of people, especially the people in the bar. They looked at Ceres.

"I didn't expect that Carly would do like that."

"Carly could sleep with us as long as we paid money? If I knew that, I would spend money on her early!"

"Since you worked as a prostitute, you should obey professional ethics!"

Everyone discussed.

Ceres wanted to retort, but she couldn't take a little extra effort to say something.

The greasy man looked at Ceres triumphantly, "Did you hear that? You should have professional ethics. Since you take my money, you have to sleep with me today!"

Then the greasy man pulled Ceres and walked out.

Ceres only felt groggy and could be pulled by the greasy man. The scenery in front of her even began to blur. She felt the heat spread from inside which swallowed her up and made her uncomfortable!

The greasy man carried Ceres on his shoulder to the room in the hotel and threw her on the bed.

He rubbed his hands and laughed, "I got a beauty for free."

Ceres rubbed her eyes and seemed to see Johny.

The greasy man reached out to untie Ceres's clothes. Her snow-white skin aroused the greasy man and he was lusting.

"Don't be afraid, I'll be gentle to you."

Ceres pushed him hard and said, "You said you wouldn't touch me before we got married, didn't you? Stop! Stop, Johny!"

"Johny? Little girl, you are so funny. You are still thinking about the young master of the Winsor family. He is lame and he can't sleep with you. I can sleep with you!"

With a loud bang, the greasy man felt his head was hit and he smelled blood. He reached out and touched his head and then his hand was full of blood!

The greasy man turned around and saw a few bodyguards standing behind him.

Johny looked at Ceres on the bed. Her clothes had been unbuttoned and exposed some skin.

"Drag him out!"

The bodyguards immediately dragged the greasy man out.

Johny immediately put Ceres's clothes on her and went out in a wheelchair. The greasy man probably knew that he had caused trouble.

He knelt on the ground and begged for mercy.

Johnny came out and looked at this man. The coldness in his eyes could kill people!

"Did you unbutton her clothes?" His tone didn't sound like he was questioning, but more like he was making a statement!

"Yes, I deserve to die! I shouldn't have taken off her clothes! Please spare me! I was misguided by someone. A girl asked me to do this. I just wanted to take advantage of her! I'm begging you. Let me go, please!"

"Cut off his hand." Johnny's face was as calm as a pool of stagnant water.

"No! No! Please don't!"

"Castrate him." Johnny gave another order.

The bodyguards went out with the greasy man. Two cries came from outside, and then it was silent.

Johnny sat in a wheelchair and carried Ceres out of the hotel.

Ceres woke up a little from the jolt and open her eyes. She seemed to see Johnny. "Johnny, we're not married yet. You can't touch me. You promised me."

When she wanted to say something, she could barely keep her eyes open and fell asleep.

Johnny really wanted to pull her up and beat her up.

The car drove Johnny and Ceres back to their home in Villa Amio.

After entering the bedroom, Johnny stood up from the wheelchair and carried Ceres directly into the bathroom. With a splash, he directly threw her into the bathtub.

"Wake up!"

Ceres hit her head. In the water, she was half awake.

She had only drunk a few mouthfuls of orange juice and didn't take much medicine. Now the effects wore off. She wiped the water off her face. Before she knew it, Johnny began to bathe her!

"Get yourself clean up!" Johnny angrily rubbed Ceres's body.

Ceres knew that she had caused trouble. She did not say a word. When Johnny saw her like this, he was furious. He angrily threw the bath towel into the bathtub. "Wash yourself!"

With that, he walked out of the bathroom.

Ceres obediently finished her bath, put on her bathrobe, and walked out.

Johny sat on the bed, sulking. Ceres timidly walked over.

"I was in the wrong." Ceres's voice was low. She lowered her head and peeked at Johny's expression. His face was so gloomy. Ceres realized that she had caused a huge disaster this time.

"What did you do wrong?" Johny was indifferent and calm as usual.

"I shouldn't have lied to you that I was going to make a robot tonight. I shouldn't have gone to a bar. I shouldn't have been so stupid to get someone to drug me. I almost..."

Ceres was frightened. Fortunately, Johny saved her. Otherwise, she would have lost her virginity today!

She was actually on guard because today Alice told her that Mary had been sneaking around, so today she deliberately used medicine to remove the red spots on her face and avoided a disaster.

She thought that the security guards had already taken Mary away. Unexpectedly, Mary did not leave and even drugged her. However, Ceres had no idea how she was drugged. After all, there were so many people in the bar.

"Wrong!" Johny roared, causing Ceres to tremble in fear.

"Why do you work part-time in a bar? Do you lack money?"

"Yes." Of course, Ceres was short of money. She had no income during her time in Winsors' house. She had spent almost all the money she had before. She had to buy food when she was at school, right?

"Then why didn't you ask me for it?"

She still treated him as an outsider!

"I..." Ceres didn't know how to answer. "It feels real to spend my own money," she said.

Ever since she went to university, the Morrises had stopped giving her money. She started to work on her own to earn money. Although it was very hard, she was willing to endure it. She finally did not need to live on charity bread.

"I'm your boyfriend. Isn't it natural for you to spend my money?" Johny was incensed.

Johnny had lost his temper because of Ceres. When he saw that her exposed skin was about to break, he thought that he had been too rude just now.

He waved at her and said, "Come here!"

Ceres just stood there without moving.

"I told you to come!"

"I'm afraid."

"Why?"

"I'm afraid you would hit me!" Ceres's voice could not be any lower. Johnny looked furious as if he was about to hit someone at any time. She did not dare to go over.

"I'm not going to hit you."

Only then did Ceres slowly walk to the bedside. Johnny took a piece of clothing and draped it over her shoulders. "Don't catch a cold."

"You're not angry with me, are you?" Ceres smiled.

Johnny immediately put on a straight face. Ceres immediately stopped smiling.

"You are not allowed to go to the bar from now on. I will ask Bill to make things clear at the bar. And you are not allowed to lie to me anymore! Otherwise ... we'll see how I will deal with you!"

"Yes, My Majesty!"

Ceres had a mischievous smile on her face that Johnny was unable to get angry.

"Just smile and don't be angry." Ceres mustered her courage and touched Johnny's face.

Ceres's face was red because of the medicine. Johnny looked at her charming face and was aroused.

"I promise to listen to you from now on. Don't be angry. We should go to sleep now. I have classes tomorrow." Ceres pulled Johnny's arm.

Johnny turned over and pressed Ceres under him, his lips pressing against hers.

Ceres was startled at first, but it was not the first time they had kissed. She was a veteran and slowly got used to it. She began to try to kiss Johnny back.

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President Chapter 90

/ One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President
The temperature in the room seemed to be rising.

Johny found that his body was slowly getting hot!

He was lust for her. He might be stimulated by that greasy man, and he wanted to take down Ceres right now.

He uncovered her bathrobe.

Suddenly, he thought of Ceres's words.

"Johny, we are not married. You can't touch me. You promised me."

"Damn it!" Johny suddenly punched the pillow beside Ceres's ear!

Ceres was so frightened that she immediately opened her eyes.

"I'll go ... take a shower!" Johny quickly got up and went to the bathroom.

Ceres grabbed her bathrobe and sat up. Ever since Johny had taken a bullet for her, she had decided to be with him. Although she had no sexual experience and she feared it, she believed that she was right.

However, she couldn't take the initiative to talk about it.

Johny only returned after a long time, and when he returned, he brought a chill to the quilt.

Ceres did not dare to provoke Johny, so she said goodnight and went to sleep.

Johny could not fall asleep for a long time. Ceres quickly fell asleep, and he felt unhappy!

He hadn't vented his carnal desires, but she slept soundly!

No, he had to think of a way to get Mike to get the household register immediately. He couldn't wait any longer.

The next day, after they had breakfast together, Johny sent Ceres to school and went to the company.

Not long after Johny sat down, Mary arrived. Johny usually came early, and many employees had not yet arrived. Mary sneaked into the president's office.

“Johnny, you don’t believe what I said? Then I will show you something shocking!”

Mary immediately showed her phone to Johnny.

Johnny looked down and saw the video of Ceres being dragged by the greasy man to the hotel.

Mary was so happy that she didn’t fall asleep for the whole night. Originally, she had kept the contact information of the greasy man and she asked the greasy man to take a video of their intimacy and send it to her, but she couldn’t contact the greasy man this morning.

But she really couldn’t wait any longer, so she directly came to find Johnny. The greasy man dragged Ceres into the hotel. Everyone could guess what would happen between them.

“If you want to see it, there is something more exciting later. I will show it to you immediately when I get it, but I believe that this is enough to prove what I said.”

Mary had a look of victory on her face.

Johnny pressed the alarm on the table.

“Johnny, why are you called security again? Don’t you believe me? Ceres is promiscuous. She has cheated on you many times!”

Mary stomped her feet anxiously. Why was Johnny so stubborn?

Soon, security guards came over.

“Frisk her!”

The security guards immediately grabbed Mary, who screamed, “How dare you to touch me! You bastards!”

Soon, the security guards found a small bottle of medicine from Mary’s bag and gave it to Johnny.

Johnny found some small white pills from the bottle. This should be the medicine she gave Ceres, right?

“Pump her full of drugs. Do not spare a pill.”

Johnny handed the bottle of medicine to the security guards. Mary was so scared that she fell to the ground. “No! If I take all the pills, I will die!”

She shook her head desperately, but the security guards still held her chin and poured all the pills into her mouth.

Mary coughed violently.

“Throw her into the hall.” Johny lowered his head and picked up a document. After some thought, he continued, “By the way, get someone to clean this place.”

This woman had polluted his floor, so of course, he had to clean it up.

Mary was directly dragged into the hall by the security guards.

Because she was suddenly fed so many pills, the medicinal effects flared up very quickly. As soon as she arrived in the hall, she grabbed a male employee and went to touch his face. This was a public occasion, so the male employee naturally did not dare to do anything. He directly threw her away and ran away.

Mary felt as if she had been caught in a fire. She pounced on and touched anyone she saw. She could no longer control herself. She only hope someone would splash cold water on her face so that she could cool down.

Someone recognized Mary and immediately told Henry about it. When Henry came down, Mary was only left with her underwear and she was continuing to take off!

“Mary! What are you doing?”

Mary heard someone call her name. When she saw Henry, she immediately rushed over. “Henry, I miss you, I want you! Hurry up! Hurry up!”

Henry was so angry that he slapped Mary, but Mary didn’t care and rushed over again.

Henry knew that Mary had been drugged. He was worried that Mary would cause even more trouble here, so he carried Mary to his office.

The employees discussed.

After entering the office, Henry placed Mary on the ground. Mary was like a snake that she wrapped around Henry. She said, “Henry, I miss you so much. I can’t stand it anymore!”

Henry was not in the mood to find a woman because he had been busy with work recently. He had been celibate for several days, so he could not stand this and directly carried Mary to the office.

Many people passed by Henry’s office, and when they heard the voices in the office, they snickered and quickly left.

Since she took so many pills, Mary was very dissatisfied. Round after round, Henry was exhausted and he kicked Mary down!

“Do you want to kill me by sex?”

When he found that there was no sound, he looked at Mary, who was lying motionless on the ground!

“Hey! Wake up! Mary! Stop playing tricks! Wake up!”

Henry reached out to check for Mary’s breath. She was actually out of breath!

“Fuck!” Henry didn’t even bother to put on his clothes and immediately called the ambulance.

To the Winsor Group, this day was a day that could be recorded in history!

Mr. Henry’s girlfriend was stripping in the company and having sex with Henry in the office. In the end, she was carried into the ambulance with a naked body due to excessive indulgence!

This matter had even been put in the papers.

Henry stood in the chairman’s office and drooped his head, looking dejected.

Jack had already seen the news in the newspaper, and he even heard the employees talking about it.

“Dad, I’m sorry. I...”
