

Chapter 167

If it is the latter, then Suzi not only looks like little aunt, her personality is exactly the same as the little aunt.

Hearing Darius's story about the little aunt of the Shu family, Suzi felt an unspeakable sadness in his heart.

In this world, everyone really has the ups and downs.

Aunt Shanna is a hard man.

Darius's little aunt is also a hard man.

Suzi's tone eased a lot: "I'm sorry Young Master Shu, your sister-in-law is very pitiful, but that has nothing to do with me. I am only 20 years old this year, and it cannot be your sister-in-law. You might say, I It's your sister-in-law's daughter.

But I tell you, that is impossible!

My mother is an authentic farmer, very earthy.

Moreover, my mother was dead a while ago.

Even if my mother is your little aunt, she is no longer alive.

Even if I'm the granddaughter of your Shu family, I'm sorry Young Master Shu, Suzi will never be able to recognize someone like your grandfather.

So Master Shu, don't come to me anymore. I will leave Cloud City soon. "

"I know, I know you are leaving, but where can you go? You have no money, nothing, and you have a child in your stomach, where can you go?" Darius blocked Suzi and asked.

"How do you know so much?" Suzi asked suspiciously. "It's Sanford." Darius answered truthfully: "Sanford originally planned to bring a sum of money, and then take you away, but before leaving the house, all his credit card co-branded cards were taken back by his parents, and he didn't have any money on him. In a hurry, Sanford found me and asked me to borrow five million.

He said he wants to take you far and high, he can't watch you being bullied in Cloud City anymore.

Suzi, Sanford is a good man compared to Joan.

If you are really my little cousin, as a cousin, the first thing I have to consider is the man you follow, who is reliable or unreliable.

Sanford treats you sincerely.

Suzi, if you want to leave, I won't stop you. Leave me your contact information. If you have any difficulties in the future, please tell me and I will help you.

I will give Sanford a check for ten million and let him take you away. "

Suzi never expected that this would be the result. She didn't expect Sanford to be so sincere to her. She bit her lip: "I don't have any contact information, my phone was broken by me. Could you please tell Sanford, I understand his kindness, and I won't rely on Suzi in the future. Anyone's. You go."

Darius: "Suzi..."

"You don't need to go, I'll close the door!" Suzi suddenly took a step back, then closed the door of her small bungalow, and closed the curtains, letting Darius shout whatever she wanted outside the door, she didn't open the door.

Darius stayed outdoors for a full two hours, and Suzi didn't move. Later, he left alone.

Hearing there was no movement outside, I opened the curtains to see that there was indeed no one outside. Suzi sat quietly in the rental house for two or three hours. It was not until the evening was getting dark that she reopened the door.

The door opened, and she saw Lanita who was standing at the door and smiling.

"Hey, are you leaving? Before I leave, I must tell you a great secret." Lanita said.

Chapter 168

Face to face is a woman who was pregnant like her, Suzi looked at Lanita incredible: "Lanita! Are you not tired? Are you not afraid of the child in your stomach suffering? You were at Fu's house in the morning. At that time, I said that my lower abdomen hurts, why are you better now?"

At this moment, Lanita had a good temper.

Very good.

What Suzi said to her, she was not angry.

When she was at Fu's house in the morning, she saw Suzi dumping the phone, saw Suzi decisively against Arron, and also saw Arron's irritation towards Suzi with her own eyes.

Although the irritation was too much because of Suzi's unfeeling and decisiveness.

But, as long as Arron is angry with Suzi.

"Suzi, I was uncomfortable at first, but I felt comfortable when I saw you, but I really admire your hooking skills for this girl. You are really capable of hooking in Joan. Huo Jianshan can consume enough energy, and he can also abduct Sanford away. Well, three hours ago, if I read correctly, it should be Darius, the youngest son of the Shu family, who stood at your door?

Gee!

Even the first generation of books like the Shu family, the descendants of a generation of Confucian merchants, have been hooked by you.

You are really capable.

Let me guess, you must have been taught by that bad old man Huo Jianshan, right? "

Things are all up to this moment. Suzi will be able to leave Nancheng in one day or so. She really doesn't want to have any conflicts and unhappiness with the people here anymore.

Because Suzi's energy is limited.

In order to avoid Darius, she did not eat lunch. She is now hungry, tired and sleepy. She just wants to walk out of this rental house with her snakeskin bag, find a quick hotel, take a good bath, and eat. Have a full meal and sleep.

Then it will be refurbished tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow, you can go back to your hometown. "Lanita!" Suzi yelled calmly: "Today I have made things very clear at Fu's house. You came to me to make a fuss. I only treat you as a lunatic and go crazy. Are you done?"

Please go after sending it. "

"You!" Lanita felt like hitting a ball of cotton: "The big secret I want to tell you, I haven't said yet!"

"I don't want to listen!" Suzi quickly refused.

"It's about you."

"I don't want to know!"

"Don't you want to know about your child's father?" Lanita sold the child.

This is the second time Lanita has used the father of the child in her stomach to talk about it. Suzi didn't want to be fooled, and she knew very well in her heart that the man had died that night three months ago.

He cannot live in this world.

Is he beautiful or ugly, tall or short, an old man in his sixties or seventies, or even older?

Suzi didn't even know.

She also didn't want to know.

Because I don't want to make myself worse.

"I don't want to!" Suzi flatly refused.

"Suzi, your child's father is really not dead, and he is also very young. He is in this city. Don't you want to recognize your child's father so that your child will live in a complete family in the future? Mid?" Lanita said temptingly.

Suzi: "..."

She thought of herself, sending samples in Lin's family since she was a child, and living a life without love and charity. She thought of Arron and Aunt Xia, and she also thought of the story of his little aunt Darius told her at noon.
