

Chapter 429

Haoden Ye would agree, for a very simple reason of course.

That's what the ghost official who gave him the bell said, his name is no longer in the merit book!

Besides, all his merits were in the koi fish, so what good would it do even if there were more in the netherworld's merit book?

Figmen Lin said that as long as he tried to accumulate merit, his lifespan could be extended.

"Thank you, officer!"

Feather Fang was pleasantly surprised and hurried.

"What next? How are we going to get out?"

Thinking that he was still in the police station, Haoden Ye just laughed bitterly.

"This is easy!"

Smiling slightly, Yu Fang said, “That grudge spirit has been hovering inside the hotel, and the possessed person is still alive, he’s still willing to stay in the human body, if the person is dead, he naturally won’t stay!”

“So the Grudge is not at the police station now!”

Haoden Ye implicitly understood something.

“Later, the little one will go and possess the man and make him swindle his corpse...”

Hearing him say that, Haoden Ye couldn’t help but hook the corner of his mouth.

He could remember that he had just heard the police say that the person guarding the body tonight was Alma Su....

Granted that it was now hot summer, the air inside the underground morgue was still a different kind of cold.

Wrapped in a blanket, Su Bei looked at the darkened morgue, a pretty face elongated.

She wasn’t afraid of bodies, but hated the smell inside the morgue.

Many of the corpses decomposed long before they were brought in, and the smell was not mentioned when they were not treated promptly.

Rubbing his nose, Alma pulled out his phone and opened the video software, quickly finding a Korean drama he liked.

“Oprah’s updated again!”

A surprised smile flashed across her pretty face, and Alma Su hurriedly pressed the play button.

The plot of the movie is so cliché that a man would probably fall asleep watching it.

But Alma watched with great interest, especially when the heroine was about to die, and her eyes actually condensed a mist in her eyes.

“Oooh, damn villains are so good at lying!”

Su gritted her teeth, the way she looked like she wanted to jump into the screen and squeeze the villainess.

“This protagonist is too stupid to believe such a simple measurement!”

At this time, a cold voice sounded.

Immersed in the plot of the drama, Alma almost forgot that he was inside the morgue, nodding his head in instant approval at the news.

“That’s right, we Opal are too nice!”

“That’s just plain stupid!How to call it kindness, there’s something wrong with this kind of drama plot, making men sound so clueless!”

That voice was immediately unpleasant.

“Don’t you dare call me Opal!”

Once Alma Su heard the other party scold the male protagonist, he became furious and turned his head in a petulant manner.

However, the moment her gaze fell on the person behind her, her entire body seemed to be instantly frozen.

Right now, the patient who had been pronounced dead during the day was standing straight up behind him.

A pair of dull eyes are looking at the phone screen.

As if sensing Alma's gaze, the man slowly turned his head, his face muscles pulling together, revealing a strange "smile"!

"I'll be shy if you look at me like that, pretty girl!"

Whoosh!

A cold breeze blew past and flew into the inside of Alma's neck.

The little beauty jumped up out of her chair with a jolt.

"You...you...you're dead, aren't you?"

Alma's delicate body trembled, his face giving a frightening pallor.

"Yeah, I'm dead! Don't believe me!"

The man nodded approvingly and pointed to the ground.

On the ground, his feet were actually a foot away from the ground!

"You...you dare to scare me, I'm a police officer, I don't believe I'll arrest you!"

Even though he was already scared and weak in the knees, Su still didn't want to believe this matter-of-fact ghost in front of him!

“Beauty, you can't control us now!”

The man's neck snapped, his head drooped, and he smiled wryly.

“I...we?”

Alma was startled and subconsciously looked behind him.

It didn't matter what she saw, her eyes widened instantly.

The entire morgue, all the bodies, stood up....

“Ghost!”

Sharp voices rang out from inside the morgue, followed by a silhouette running out.

“Stinky girl, who caused her superior to be caught, deserved to be teased by me!”

The man smiled smugly as he watched her run out.

“Thank you, brothers, I’ll go back and invite you all to the Naihe Bridge Restaurant for drinks on his return!”

At his words, the corpses waved at him and whirled around to fall to the ground.

Officer Lee was kicked out of bed by his wife.

Receiving a call in the middle of the night that the police station was haunted made Officer Lee so angry that he immediately yelled into the phone.

“Sobie, are you crazy?The police station is haunted?If you don’t want to be on duty, just say so!”

His wife is an office worker, still have to work in the middle of the day, was woken up by him of course, not happy, lift the leg is a kick.

“I’ve been working all day, I’m as tired as a grandson, and I have to wait on you when I come back at night, so it’s easy to rest for a while, you can’t let people stop!Get the hell out of here!”

Officer Lee, who had been yelled at, was certainly in a bad mood and arrived at the police station with a heavy face.

“Sobei, what the hell is going on!”

Once inside, Officer Lee yelled.

With a quick glance, I saw Alma curled up in a chair, his nose sniffing, obviously crying.

This was the first time Captain Li had seen Alma Su cry, and it really overwhelmed him as well.

“This... Kitten, what the hell is going on, why are you crying!”

Captain Li is not a womanizer, or he wouldn't have kicked his wife out of bed.

“Captain, you'd better stop asking Kitten and go to the morgue and take a look.”

At this time, a small police officer stood up and walked awkwardly up to Captain Lee.

Captain Lee, full of suspicion, followed him to the morgue.

This is a great look, the bodies inside the morgue, very neatly lined up in a row, with a big dead letter written on them!

Spare Captain Li's iron-blooded manhood, he was also scared out of a cold sweat.

You know, it's almost impossible to line up so many bodies so neatly.

To top it all off, the morgue has only one exit, and the windows are still drafty, so no one can get in.

Besides, this is a police station, who can just walk in.

"Whose prank is this?"

Captain Lee was instantly furious and glared at the young constable.

"Captain, don't you know the guts of the brothers? Who would dare do that?"

The young constable showed a look of aggravation.

Saying that, the little police officer whispered, "Captain, do you remember what the two men we arrested today said?"

Captain Li drew a breath of cold air, the words of Master Bo Yi floating in his mind.

“No way, there’s going to be a body swindle tonight!”

The word “fraudulent” obviously doesn’t scare anyone.

If you said a word about a fraudulent corpse in ancient times, you would have scared a whole bunch of people to death.

But now that people believe in science, even if it’s an ordinary person, it doesn’t work at all for you to scare people with a fraudulent corpse, and you’ll be made fun of instead.

Chapter 430

Ka-ching, the cell door opened, and Haoden Ye sat cross-legged on the bed, looking like an old monk settling in.

Captain Li stepped in, his face gloomy.

The captain of the crime squad, let him come and invite a prodigy to do his job, he will be disciplined for speaking out.

“Ahem, Haoden Ye!”

With a cough, Captain Lee looked dignified.

It was as if Haoden Ye and Master Bo Yi didn't hear him, ignoring him at all.

"Ahem!" Captain Lee coughed anew, his throat hurting.

Only at this time did Haoden Ye slowly open his eyes.

"Oh, Captain Lee, are you here to arraign us this late?"

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye said.

"Well...we have a situation inside the morgue, let me show you!"

Captain Li looked embarrassed, and it was impossible to say the word please.

"Fraudulent corpse?" The tip of his eyebrows flicked up, and Haoden Ye smiled.

Hearing the word fraudulent corpse, Captain Li shuddered slightly mentally.

The bizarre scene inside the morgue, the now still crying Alma Su, all made him mentally chill.

“Nonsense, it’s just that there’s something special about the body!”

With a muffled snort, Captain Lee looked stern.

Shaking his head and laughing, Haoden Ye got off the bed.

It wasn’t that he was intentionally taking a stand, but what Master Boi had just said was that he must create an atmosphere of superiority.

Taking Haoden Ye out of the cell door, Captain Li turned his head to see that Master Bo Yi was still sitting calmly.

“Master Boi?” Captain Li looked slightly worried.

He still trusts Master Boi in ghost hunting, after all, he is old and quite profoundly oriented.

“Just let my apprentice go for this kind of thing, there’s no need for me to do anything!”

Master Boi didn’t even open his eyes for a moment, faintly.

Haoden Ye couldn't help but laugh bitterly as he listened, this old man was interesting.

He's been under pressure since he met with himself, is this an opportunity to get back in the game?

"This...you'd better come along for the ride!"

Master Bo Yi held this frame very securely, and Captain Rao Li couldn't help but show some respect.

You know, it's not easy to get this iron-blooded man to be so polite to a prodigy.

"If I say it's not necessary, it's not necessary, just let him go!"

Master Boi showed an impatient look.

Haoden Ye really wanted to pull this old man out of bed, but helplessly now the atmosphere he was trying to create was that both of them were superior people.

After all, he still needed the help of Captain Lee and the others to get off the hook.

Following Captain Li out of the cell, Haoden Ye went to the hall where he came in during the day.

With a sweep of his eyes, Haoden Ye saw Alma squatting in the corner.

There was still a smear of tears on her pretty face, but her face was a look of disgust towards Haoden Ye.

“Captain, what did you bring him here for, he’s a prisoner!”

As soon as she saw Haoden Ye come out, Alma immediately jumped up from the bed, pointing at Haoden Ye and yelling at him.

Captain Li’s face darkened as he listened, feelings just now it wasn’t you who was crying!

“Alma, you tell him to check it out, after all, we... don’t know what’s going on!”

Coughing dryly, Captain Lee tried to suppress his anger.

“No! This man is simply a rogue, let the old man come!”

Alma was still not happy.

“Captain Li, forget about it, it’s not uncommon for such things to be fraudulent, a three or five times would be just about right!”

With a dry cough, Haoden Ye smiled.

The police station was dumbfounded at the sound of this.

That’s scary enough, three or five more times!

Who knows what will happen one day when the corpse swindle accidentally kills someone?

Who’s gonna go to the morgue after this?

“Kitten, just stop it!”

“Alma is emotionally unstable right now, the captain doesn’t need to worry about her!”

The people are talking in seven different ways, and they still feel fear about what they don’t understand.

Alma was persuaded by so many people, and his face became even angrier, but he didn't dare to get angry again.

“Okay, but I'm going to follow him and save him from running away!”

Alma looked at Haoden Ye viciously and pulled out the handcuffs from his waist.

Seeing her appearance, Haoden Ye also laughed bitterly, but in order to solve this matter in time, he could only allow Alma Su to cuff him.

Captain Lee followed them both, to the morgue.

Inside the bodies were still neatly arranged, sober and spooky.

A cold breeze blew, and Alma Su's neck shrank, subconsciously leaning behind Captain Li.

Captain Lee was somewhat calm, though he was nervous, he didn't want to show it.

“We're here, so hurry...hurry up and cast your spell!”

Seeing the morgue, Alma Su immediately glared at Haoden Ye.

“Mr. Yeh, please!”

Captain Lee also hurriedly urged.

With a sweep of his eyes over the two people, Haoden Ye smiled faintly.

The Grudge wasn't at the police station, he just needed to save people now.

Under the two eyes, Haoden Ye began to pretend to chant a spell.

As the sound of Haoden Ye chanting the incantation sounded, Alma Su and Captain Li looked nervous, sweeping their eyes around for fear of seeing something scary.

There was a thud and a noise from somewhere that made both men nearly jump in fright.

Eyes turned and cast towards the direction of the sound, but a body on the ground moved quickly.

The corpse, Captain Lee remembered, had dived to his death a few days before.

He thought he was mistaken and his eyes widened.

In sight, the corpse shuddered again, then slowly stood up.

This sight made Captain Li directly scared silly.

Alma was monitoring Haoden Ye with a questioning gaze, and when he saw the corpse move, a pair of eyes straightened.

“Ghosts...ghosts!”

Girls have a lot of negative energy, but they're afraid of ghosts.

At this time, Sobei didn't want anything more, and subconsciously grabbed someone who still had heat on him and held on tight!

“Officer Su, I can't cast a spell if you're holding me like that!”

A voice sounded in his ears, Alma Su came back to his senses and looked up, he was merely holding Haoden Ye.

Cheek pressed against his chest, feeling his powerful heartbeat.

Warmth came over her, and she didn't even want to leave.

For some reason, she was actually a little shy.

“You...don’t get me wrong, I’m trying to protect you!”

I don’t know if it’s a brain fart, but she’s got such a lame excuse.

Seeing this, Haoden Ye also smiled bitterly.

He laughed bitterly, not because Alma Su’s reason was lame, but because a beautiful woman with such a hot body was hugging him, making Haoden Ye a bit unsteady on his feet.

It was a man who would have been unfazed by those bouncy, Q-tip-like breasts pressing against his chest.

“Ahem, return to your position without delay!”

Haoden Ye recited the recipe again, implying that Yu Fang should stop and quickly abate.

If we keep this up, we won’t be able to do our own show. What if someone finds out what’s going on?

You know, they're all cops, they're all supposed to be thoughtful people.

It would be difficult for people to notice that the ghost wouldn't hurt anyone at all.

Chapter 431

However, it was clear that Yu Fang was still unwilling to let Alma go.

“Officer Su!”

There was a click, a noise, and the body had reached the bed, but suddenly turned its head.

The whole head just turned 180 degrees and was facing Haoden Ye and the others.

This sobriety, Rao Haoden Ye knew it was a fake and felt creeped out.

Captain Li was even more pale, but he came from a line of soldiers and had the hardest guts, so he didn't have any intention of running away.

But it was hard for Su Bei, hearing the corpse call itself and screaming in fear.

Both feet slammed on the ground, their delicate bodies pressed up against Haoden Ye one by one.

Especially since the collar of her police uniform was already open, revealing two smears of white.

This kind of uniform temptation, it's the first time Haoden Ye feels it, it's really banded!

“Ahem, speedy return to the fold!”

Haoden Ye spoke harshly and stared at the corpse.

A wry smile flashed across the corners of his mouth, and the corpse emitted a clattering laugh, clearly mocking Alma Su.

“Officer Su, I'll be back for more!”

The body fell on the bed with a poof.

Then came the second, the third....

“He...he said he'd come back for more!”

Alma gave a fright is out of temper, petite body trembling, hugging Haoden Ye tightly.

“You kill him quickly and don’t let him get to me!”

Seeing the petite policewoman so fearful, Haoden Ye was more or less happy.

This girl shouted and screamed at the sight of herself, but now there are more rules.

“I can’t do anything about that, did he break any laws, just to scare you a little, there are laws in the dungeon, just killing him is going to hell!”

Shrugging his shoulders, Haoden Ye endured a mental chuckle.

“It’s not even illegal for him to scare the police!”

Alma was immediately upset.

He’s a police officer. To threaten me is a violation of the law.

“That doesn’t work either, people are ghosts of the earth, and belong to the police of the earth, which means we are in charge of the ghosts!”

Hehehe, Haoden Ye smiled proudly.

“Huh?You’re a cop too...or a cop of the earth!”

Alma raised his head to look dumbly at Haoden Ye.

Hearing Haoden Ye say that, the fear in her heart went a bit.

Ever since she was a little girl, she’s believed that the police are the best way to give safety.

That pair of shining eyes clearly gave Haoden Ye a signal: “They’re all peers, give him face and don’t let him come to me!”

Seeing her cute and dumb look, Haoden Ye almost laughed out loud.

“Ahem, collect!”

By the time this was said, all the bodies had been returned to.

Seeing this scene, Captain Li was completely impressed with Haoden Ye.

“I can’t believe how strange this actually is, if I hadn’t seen it with my own eyes!”

Sighing, Captain Li told Haoden Ye.

“This... it’s not over yet, I still have to revive the patient I just brought in!”

Touching his nose, Haoden Ye hurriedly said.

“Huh?Hasn’t he become a ghost?”

Upon hearing him say that, Alma became frightened.

“He’s just a soul leaving his body, not turning into a ghost, and needs a ghost to detain him in the underworld before he’s considered completely dead!”

Haoden Ye quickly explained to the two people.

He’s done really much and is just trying to save that patient.

Hearing this, both men were shocked at the same time.

Pushing Alma Su, Haoden Ye instructed her to release herself.

A blush appeared on Alma's pretty face, shyly releasing Haoden Ye, a pair of eyes fiercely staring at Haoden Ye.

That's like saying, "I just held you as a stopgap measure, don't treat me like a bully!"

Without any nonsense, Haoden Ye walked up to that patient and pulled out the silver needle.

At this time Alma and Captain Li even forgot to be afraid and curiously came over to look.

The two of them sort of showed how curious people can be.

Alma, who just now was frightened and hugged Haoden Ye and didn't let go, wasn't even afraid at this point near the corpse.

With a whoosh, the silver light in Haoden Ye's hand flashed, then his hand quickly clicked on the patient.

"My God, are you healing?"

Seeing Haoden Ye move, Alma was directly stunned.

She had seen a lot of people heal people, but this was the first time she had seen such a bizarre technique.

Captain Li also stared at it, he could see the needle in Haoden Ye's hand.

Take a silver needle and stick it in a patient without even looking, are you sure you're treating someone?

"Ahem, Mr. Ye won't stab him to death!"

After saying this, Captain Lee couldn't help but feel amused.

This one is delivered as dead!

While the two men were confused, the patient on the bed suddenly trembled all over.

Both men were simultaneously startled and took a step backwards at a neat pace.

Two pairs of eyes, however, wouldn't leave the patient for a moment.

But the patient's body trembled for a moment, and then the sound of a violent breathing sounded.

“It hurts... it hurts!”

The patient, who had just been lying like a dead man, spoke, and not in a small voice.

Hearing this voice, Haoden Ye slowly relaxed.

The patient he just treated with the most dangerous and powerful of all the Xuanjiu needles, the “Hui Tian Zhen”.

This kind of stitching was very dangerous, and Rao was only 70% sure of saving the patient’s life.

If it were an ordinary person, even with high attainments, the success rate wouldn’t even be one percent!

But even if they are saved, the patient will still feel severe pain and it will hurt for three to five minutes.

“Don’t you move yet, lie down and breathe, let your blood run smoothly before you get up!”

With one hand holding the patient, Haoden Ye slowly spoke.

The patient immediately nodded slowly at the news.

Enduring severe pain, the patient looked at Haoden Ye and said, "Where is this place, how did I end up here!"

"This is the police morgue, you were diagnosed as dead earlier and I just saved your life!"

On hearing this, Haoden Ye quickly explained.

"The morgue!"

The patient stared at him and whirled around with a bitter smile, "I, Liang Sanquan, also have today, haha!"

After saying that, he pulled Haoden Ye's hand and said, "Brother, thank you for saving your life, surnamed Liang remember!"

Finished closing his eyes, his brow furrowed as if he was recuperating.

"Liang Sanquan?"

At this time, Alma and Captain Li had come together and were stunned at the name of the man.

“That name is so familiar, I wish I’d heard it somewhere!”

Alma Su tilted his head to look at the patient on the bed, as if he was trying to think of something.

“Stinky girl, you can’t even remember Mr. Liang?The Hung Fist you learned was founded by him!”

Captain Li was now surprised and stared hard at Alma Su, then looked at the patient on the bed in awe.

If he hadn’t seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn’t have believed that he was so lucky to be inside a room with Master Liang.

This man was his idol and his benefactor.

I don’t know how many times when he was in a critical situation, he used his flood fist to defuse it.
