

Chapter 441

“I can’t believe that my Ma family’s benefactor is acquainted with Prefect Shen!”

Ma Wei Cheng smiled enthusiastically.

Seeing Ma Weicheng become even more enthusiastic about himself because of Haoden Ye’s relationship, Second Uncle Shen was also happy.

“Come, I’ll take you to meet Little Leaf’s father-in-law, my own brother!”

Second Uncle Shen raised his eyebrows and pulled Ma Weicheng to follow Robert Shen.

He said, “Haoden Ye’s father passed away when he was young, and my brother’s family brought him up, so it can be said that Haoden Ye’s success today is all because of my brother’s cultivation!”

Hearing this, Robert Shen and the others subconsciously looked at each other, looking a little embarrassed.

Thinking of the indifference they had treated Haoden Ye in the past, they felt somewhat guilty.

But Haoden Ye was very moved when he heard this.

The Shen family used to be really indifferent to themselves, but they could tell that Robert was the one who hated the iron.

Despite looking down on themselves, they were never too desperate for themselves.

Although he didn't know Ma Weicheng's identity, but when Uncle Shen was so enthusiastic about him, Robert Shen guessed that this identity must not be simple.

"Is this the old man who trained such a noble man as Mr. Ye?"

Once over, Ma Wei Cheng gripped Robert Shen's hands vigorously.

His eyes were filled with gratitude.

Seeing this, Robert Shen was a little flattered.

This person who even respected Second Uncle Shen so much was showing gratitude to himself.

"Oh, Mr. Ma is over-praised, it's all thanks to Little Leaf's own down-to-earth hard work!"

Robert Shen was only hastily polite for a couple of sentences.

“Haha, old man is so humble!”

Ma Weicheng responded, which was why he said to Haoden Ye, “Mr. Ye, don’t mind if you don’t invite yourself today!”

“Mr. Ma where are your words, it’s my honor that you’re here, you should sit inside!”

Mavis nodded and took his wife and daughter inside.

When he reached Haoden Ye’s side, Alma Su turned his head to glare at Haoden Ye.

That means, “Even though I’m here, it doesn’t change the fact that you’re a rogue!”

It was a pity that Haoden Ye had averted his gaze at this point, not even comprehending the little beauty’s murderous gaze.

Three feet had just entered the building when three cars pulled up in front of the door.

When they saw the three cars, the crowd was not stunned.

Because three cars, all police cars!

“And the owner here knows someone from the police department?”

Haoden Ye was also a little surprised to see the three police cars, mentally wondering which party's guests were actually coming in an office car.

Soon, the police car door opened and several men got out of the car.

“Are you the owner of Hao Tian Pharmaceuticals?”

A tall policeman at the head of the group came over, his face serious.

Hearing him say that, everyone in the room's face changed.

By the sound of this man, it doesn't sound like he's here to congratulate you.

“I am, can I help you?”

Haoden Ye stepped forward and spoke politely.

“Someone reported that there’s a problem with your medicine from Hao Tian Pharmaceutical!”

The cop grunted and commanded the two men, “Cuff him.”

At that, everyone’s face changed.

First day of business and a problem with the herbs is reported?

It’s just opened, it’s not even on sale yet.

“Comrade police officer, this must be a misunderstanding, my son-in-law’s pharmacy just opened, how can there be a problem?”

On hearing this, Robert Shen also stepped forward.

“We’re not sure about that, it was notified from above!”

The policeman gave a look of helplessness.

“Notice from above?”

Only then did Haoden Ye and Robert frown.

“You guys are so unreasonable, how do you arrest people without a reason!”

Milda Hao came over, looking unhappy.

“That’s right, when you arrest someone for a crime, you always have to say what’s clear, right?”

Maya Shen also came over and grabbed Haoden Ye’s hand, looking worried.

“Someone will be coming over later to explain to you that this pharmacy may need to be inspected all over again!”

Haoden Ye’s heart was shocked at the news!

He was an apothecary, and there was only one Shen Nong Ding underneath.

If you check this down, you won’t be able to check any production tools at all.

“Comrade police, who reported us and what was the reason for the report, we didn’t sell herbs at all!”

Haoden Ye revealed an aggrieved look.

“The...” the cop was about to explain when a car pulled up, and it turned out to be the DEA.

To Haoden Ye’s surprise, it was Zhang Peng who came down from the car!

“Chang?”

Haoden Ye was stunned and wanted to greet Zhang Peng, but he saw Zhang Peng hurriedly waving his hand at him.

That means, don’t greet yourself.

Just then, a few more people got out of the car.

All good friends of the FDA!

“Look, here comes the FDA, something’s up, explain it to him!”

The policeman pointed in the direction of Zhang Peng, which said, “We’re not taking you away for now, so you should talk to the FDA about it, it might be a misunderstanding.”

The police apparently thought there was something strange about it, but the top guys said they were going to investigate, and they were just following orders.

“You’re Haoden Ye!”

Zhang Peng’s face was serious, and he asked loudly as soon as he took a picture.

It was like he didn’t even know Haoden Ye.

“Yes, I am!”

Haoden Ye quickly nodded, then hurriedly asked, “A few comrades, what’s going on!”

“We got a report and we need to investigate your place, so come with me, I want to ask you about the specifics of your place!”

Zhang Peng beckoned to Haoden Ye and motioned for him to take a seat on the side.

Hearing Zhang Peng say that, Haoden Ye understood, Zhang Peng was secretly explaining the situation to himself ah!

He was obedient and followed Zhang Peng over.

The Shen family here and many people at the door showed a puzzled look.

Some of the onlookers have begun to whisper.

On the first day of business, the FDA came by to check it out.

Even if it was fine, who would dare to buy their herbs in the future.

When the two of them reached the corner of the door, Haoden Ye immediately couldn't wait, "Brother Zhang, what's going on!"

At this time, Zhang Peng's face was gloomy and his eyes carried a touch of hatred.

"Hey, I'm sorry to you brother Zhang Peng for this, someone asked me for a drink some time ago..."

It turned out that a few days ago, Zhang Peng ran into a rich second generation who was generous with his money.

The two of them became friends as Zhang Peng found the man very opportunistic.

The man has been buying dinner every day for the past few days and has helped connect his daughter with a better preschool to attend.

Zhang Peng was very satisfied with this friend and naturally had nothing to talk about.

As a result, without realizing it, they talked about the herbs that Haoden Ye sold to his wife.

The last time he treated his wife, Haoden Ye naturally remembered it very clearly, not knowing what was wrong here.

You're helping people, not hurting them.

So listening to him, Haoden Ye couldn't help but wonder.

Chapter 442

What didn't come to mind was that the man recorded his words and used the recording to report Haoden Ye.

It is important to know that the sale of herbs is regulated by the FDA.

Every medicinal herb had to be inspected, and the one Haoden Ye sold was just a temporary concoction he had made, not registered with the FDA at all.

Zhang Peng trusted Haoden Ye and felt no need to register, so he forgot about it.

Now that he's being reported, he has no choice but to bring someone in to investigate.

“Hey, even if we check you're okay here, your pharmacy won't be open properly!”

Looking at Haoden Ye with a guilty face, Zhang Peng spoke gloomily.

After hearing his words, Haoden Ye's mind also sank.

He was not a person with a weak sense of the law, but simply felt that the herbs he casually concocted for Zhang Peng did not need to be registered at all.

It's not like he wants to go around selling this kind of medicine.

“I understand,” nodding gently, Haoden Ye patted Zhang Peng's shoulder and said, “Brother Zhang, don't take this matter to heart, if you don't open it, you don't open it!”

“No!” Shaking his head lightly, Zhang Peng once again smiled bitterly.

He pulled out a document and handed it to Haoden Ye, “For some reason, the upper side suddenly wants to rectify the medicinal herbs market and catch those who sell herbs indiscriminately, they all need to be dealt with, you might...”

At this point, Zhang Peng could no longer lift his head.

“You could go to jail, and in the best case scenario, you won’t be able to sell herbs anymore, let alone treat people!”

Hearing this, Haoden Ye’s face finally changed.

Zhang Peng carefully watched Haoden Ye’s appearance change, and his heart wanted Haoden Ye to get angry on the spot and hit himself hard.

Someone else gives a bit of a catch.

And the person you’re trying to harm is your own benefactor!

“I get it!”

Nodding lightly, Haoden Ye's lips revealed a smile.

He wasn't angry, and even less enraged, but instead, he comforted Zhang Peng, "Brother Zhang, just follow the rules and regulations."

"Ye old man!"

Zhang Peng's eyes moistened when he saw his amiable appearance.

"I deserve to die and get you into trouble!"

Lowering his head, Zhang Peng was heartbroken.

Shaking his head, Haoden Ye smiled broadly.

All his life, he's just looked wide and couldn't cure the disease.

It wouldn't hurt him if the refining company didn't open.

You can also sell your own medicine to the Spiritual Medicine Hall and sell it in the name of the Spiritual Medicine Hall.

"It doesn't really matter to me if I open a pharmacy or not, I have ways to help people just fine!"

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye was frank.

Hearing this, Zhang Peng was moved to tears.

“Brother Ye, with your words, I, Zhang Peng, have not misjudged anyone, don’t worry, even if it means opening up my job, I’ll let you open up this pharmacy!”

Biting his teeth, Zhang Peng spoke firmly.

Hearing this, Haoden Ye was somewhat ashamed.

He wants to help people, not just to help them, but to heal them.

The two men returned to the entrance of the building before Robert came over anxiously.

“Yeh, what’s going on and why are the police arresting you!”

Seeing the concern in his eyes, Haoden Ye’s heart was touched.

When I was a kid, I climbed a tree and fell, and Robert Shen had the same look.

“Don’t worry, Dad, it’s just that one of the herbs I used the last time I treated someone wasn’t cleared by the FDA.”

Sighing, Haoden Ye explained.

Hearing this, realization dawned on the people around them.

“Is something wrong with the patient?”

Robert Shen got nervous, if Haoden Ye healed someone, things would be big.

“No!”

Upon hearing this, Zhang Peng quickly shook his head and said, “That patient is not only better now, his body is also better than before except...”

He looked away from the policeman and smiled bitterly, “But legally, this doesn’t make sense!”

When they heard this, the people around them all looked indignant.

It would be normal for the police to arrest people if they were cured of death, but Haoden Ye didn't cure death.

"It's so outrageous that people don't even treat people who die, Dr. Ye!"

"That's right, why are you still arresting people when you're well!"

The policeman smiled bitterly at the indignant look of the crowd of onlookers.

"Gentlemen, it's true that Dr. Yap did the right thing, but just because he broke the law doesn't mean that he wasn't morally wrong to do so!"

The officer was still trying to explain.

"The police comrade is right, Haoden Ye is the one who cured the man, what if he cured the man to death?"

At this time, a voice suddenly sounded.

Everyone turned their heads, but they saw a man coming down from a luxurious Ferrari in the distance.

The man was handsome facing and luxuriously dressed, so he was no ordinary person at first glance.

“That’s the kid!”

Seeing this person, Zhang Peng couldn’t help but bite the pressure root.

“Isn’t that person Zhao Chengyu?”

“No way, I heard that Zhao Chengyu has already gone abroad, why would she appear in Dan City!”

A whisper went up in the crowd.

A few of the girls even screamed in excitement.

“It’s Seiyu, it’s Seiyu!! love you, Seiyu!”

The crowd suddenly began to stir!

And then when the Shen family and the police saw Zhang Chengyu arrive, they all frowned.

“Everyone, I’m also very touched by Dr. Yeh’s actions!”

Seeing that everyone was looking at him, Zhang Chengyu revealed a frank smile.

“But I still feel very worried after hearing about this!”

“If every doctor treats patients according to his or her own customary preferences, why do we need the FDA?”

Hearing this, many of the angry people looked calm.

“Chengyu is right, aren’t people’s drug administrations just ensuring everyone’s safety?”

“Yeah, who knows if this doctor’s drug has any side effects, and without FDA oversight, what if someone else gets something?”

Those who didn’t know Haoden Ye’s level of medical care would hear this and couldn’t help but agree.

Besides, there are still many people who don’t know what’s going on and follow the nonsense.

Especially those girls, once they heard Zhao Chengyu speak, they agreed even if what they said was incorrect.

Seeing the crowd being changed one by one by Zhao Chengyu, Maya Shen's pretty face became cold.

It's too much for Zhao Chengyu to provoke the relationship between herself and her husband and to make a big deal out of it here.

"Mr. Zhao, I don't have a problem with you doing that, but it's because I believe in Dr. Ye's medical skills that I agreed to my wife taking his medicine!"

At this time, Zhang Peng finally couldn't listen anymore and stepped forward to speak righteously.

"Mr. Ye's medical skills are recognized by Spirit Medicine Hall and many others, if you are not satisfied with his behavior, you can talk to him directly, I'm sure Dr. Ye will change!"

Hearing his words, some people nodded in agreement, but the number was not as large as those who opposed Haoden Ye.

"Do you believe Haoden Ye, do the others? Patients don't know how to do medicine, they all listen to the doctor, are you sure Haoden Ye didn't misdiagnose and give your wife medicine haphazardly?"

With a cold snort, Zhao Chengyu became unhappy.

Chapter 443

“What the hell are you, I’m a whole man and you dare to interfere!”

Zhao Chengyu was very upset at this point, Zhang Peng was such a sesame green bean character, but he dared to contradict himself.

“What if I’m the one who believes Dr. Yap?”

At this time, an old voice sounded.

With that voice, a silhouette slowly approached.

“Professor Wahl!”

Seeing this person, many people revealed a look of surprise.

Zhang Chengyu’s eyes flashed with cold!

He was already in control of the situation, but it was unexpected that Professor Hua would show up.

As one of the heirs of the Zhao family, he was used to being obeyed, and it irked him every time he was rebuffed like that!

Not only would he make Haoden Ye unable to practice medicine today, he would also use his own means to make Haoden Ye a completely reckless doctor.

And the presence of Professor Wahl diminished the effect of his plan.

“Professor Hua, you and Dr. Ye are good friends, I know that, but you can’t help but be responsible for your patient’s health!”

At this point, Zhang Chengyu’s eyes narrowed, and the threatening light inside his eyes flickered.

“Spiritual Medicine Hall specializes in the herbal business in Warsaw, don’t ruin the reputation of Spiritual Medicine Hall just because of a reckless doctor!”

Hearing this, Professor Hua’s eyes flashed with anger.

“That’s not right Mr. Zhao, doctors treating people entirely by means of their personal experience, especially in Chinese medicine, it all depends on improvisation!”

At this time, a figure walked out from behind Professor Hua, it was Jiao Yuchun.

“Does that mean we have to wait for the FDA’s approval to administer the drug if the patient’s condition is imminent? In Chinese medicine, the effect of each herb varies greatly depending on the dosage, do we have to apply for each one?”

Hearing this, many people nodded their heads.

Zhao Chengyu’s heart was furious!

On the face, he could barely maintain a smile.

“It’s important to ask those of you in the room, if you’re in a critical situation, would you want the doctor to be more cautious with your medication, or would you want the doctor to use a completely new drug without thinking about it?”

Shrugging his shoulders, Zhang Chengyu showed a searching look.

Many in the audience lowered their heads in thought.

Is your own situation critical, do you want the doctor to be cautious, or do you want the doctor to mess up?

It's not hard to think of this answer, but of course it's better to be cautious and safe.

“Besides, who all has actually been treated by this Dr. Yeh when you say he's a great doctor? How many patients did he actually treat?”

Seeing that everyone was on his side, Zhao Chengyu smiled slightly.

“He must be very inexperienced at such a young age, and is it responsible for a doctor of this experience to treat people and still let him treat them however he wants?”

At that, everyone nodded along.

Professor Hua and Jiao Yuchun were very uncomfortable being blocked by him.

Haoden Ye was indeed young, but his medical skills were also really powerful.

“Well, comrade police officer, it's better to take Dr. Ye away now, I hope you'll follow the law in everything!”

Seeing that the two of them didn't speak, Zhao Chengyu feared that the night would be long and immediately told the police.

The cop nodded and pulled Haoden Ye.

"You take care of Mom and Dad at home, and I'll go over there with my police comrade!"

Sighing in his heart, Haoden Ye turned to Maya Shen.

Hearing Haoden Ye's words, Maya Shen's eyes reddened slightly!

She couldn't feel anything when Haoden Ye was following her, and now that he was about to be taken away by the police, her heart immediately swelled with infinite worry.

But Maya Shen was a strong girl, unwilling to show the slightest weakness in front of others.

"Well, I'll see you right after I take care of the guests!"

Nodding lightly, Maya Shen spoke softly.

Seeing the two people apart, Zhao Chengyu's lips revealed a faint smile.

After saying goodbye to his wife and Robert Shen and the others, this turned around and walked over to the police car.

“Miss Shen, you don’t have to worry, I’ll speak to the police and take good care of Dr. Ye!”

Walking up to Maya Shen, Zhao Chengyu smiled slightly.

His voice was very low, and his face looked like it was comforting, so I didn’t know that I thought he was comforting Maya Shen.

“Thank you, Mr. Zhang!”

Maya Shen’s face was hard, and her tone sounded like a return sentence.

Smiling slightly, Zhao Chengyu continued, “Actually, Dr. Ye may not be alright, it depends on whether Miss Shen can right the wrongs for Mr. Ye!”

Hearing his words, Maya Shen’s delicate body trembled slightly and turned her head openly.

“What does this mean, Mr. Zhang!”

Maya Shen's pretty face faintly blanched.

"Oh, doesn't Shen understand what I mean? Your husband upsets me so much, I'll just have to find a way to be happy!"

Zhao Chengyu's smile was gentle and kind, but the words she spoke made Maya Shen's blood soar.

"What I want is simple: if you make me happy, I'll find a way to free your husband!"

At this point, a cold light shone inside his eyes.

"If you don't agree, you can't expect to see Haoden Ye in your life, I can tell you clearly that I've got a team of specialized lawyers and the Provincial Drug Administration still has my friends!"

Upon hearing this, Maya Shen's petite body trembled with anger.

"You're... shameless!"

Maya Shen was furious and had to curse out.

"Maya, what's wrong?"

Robert Shen was witnessing Haoden Ye leave and turned his head when he heard this.

Maya Shen was just about to expose Zhao Chengyu's mouth when she suddenly felt a cold gaze shoot over.

But seeing that Zhao Chengyu was looking at himself coldly, Maya Shen's delicate body trembled slightly.

"I'm...fine!"

Maya Shen's pretty face went white!

With a star as big as Zhao Chengyu daring to threaten himself so openly, there were naturally ways to reduce the impact.

Maybe he was saying that to provoke himself!

"Hmph, it's so good to be good and obedient, it's actually a cheap turn for you to accompany me, no matter that aspect, I seem to be better than Haoden Ye right, and I'm much better in bed than him!"

A smug smile flashed, and Zhao Chengyu slowly spoke.

“I can’t believe you’re such a shameless person, I was so blind to work with you!”

Thinking that she had fought with Haoden Ye because she was working with this person, Maya Shen’s heart was just infinitely remorseful.

“Bitch!Do you think I care about you?”

Zhao Chengyu heard her scold herself again and finally became angry.

“It’s just because you’re Haoden Ye’s wife and playing with you makes me feel good, you think I’m really attracted to you!”

A cold smile flashed across her face, and Zhao Chengyu’s tone was icy cold.

“Blame your husband, who has offended me?I want him to know what true strength is!”

Maya Shen’s petite body shook once again!

Of course, she also knew how helpless Haoden Ye was under Zhao Chengyu’s power.

By allowing himself to accompany him, Haoden Ye could be safely released.

Otherwise, Haoden Ye might be killed by Zhao Chengyu!
