

Chapter 444

“My patience is limited, are you still thinking about it?”

Zhao Chengyu’s eyes narrowed.

As long as Maya Shen nodded, this breath of his would be out.

But he still wouldn’t let Haoden Ye go, and when Maya Shen knew what was in it for her, would she still be loyal to Haoden Ye?

With Maya Shen’s tough personality, she didn’t even dare to get angry at this point.

“Hey, now do you understand what real power is?”

What Zhao Chengyu enjoyed the most was not the moment when Maya Shen nodded her head, but when Maya Shen was now painfully hesitant.

“Now you finally understand the difference between an ordinary person like me and you!”

With a cold snort, Zhao Chengyu.

His words trailed off, and suddenly a booming voice rang out.

“Who’s Haoden Ye!”

The voice was so loud that it was surprisingly horrifying to hear.

Everyone looked over in that direction together.

But I saw a red flag car parked in front of the police car at an unknown time.

A man came down from the top of the sedan, nearly two meters tall, his entire body as long as a mountain.

The man was dark-skinned and everywhere there was a masculine air about him.

“Speak up, who’s Haoden Ye!”

The man saw everyone staring at him, none of them uttering a word, and got impatient.

“Hello, I’m Zhang Hao from Phoenix Street Police Station, Haoden Ye is now our suspect!”

At this point, the officer stepped forward and was very polite.

“Suspect?”

At that, the man’s brow furrowed.

Then, he saw him raise his hand and push Zhang Hao, saying impatiently, “Get out of here!”

Zhang Hao was also very strong, and when he pushed him so gently, his entire body stumbled and almost fell to the ground.

“You...you dare to attack the police!”

Zhang Hao became furious and grabbed at the man.

Not wanting him to say it all, the man still looked like he didn’t care and threw his arm around in anger, “I don’t have time for your bullshit!”

After saying that he yelled at the police car, “Where’s Haoden Ye? Come out to me!”

At the sight of this, everyone in the room was dumbfounded.

Is this Haoden Ye's enemy or friend, why is he so bossy?

Besides, this guy's not very bright!

"You... you... are simply lawless!"

Zhang Hao's face was red with anger, no one had dared to ask the police for someone like that since he had been a cop.

He was just about to get angry when another man got out of the car.

The man was fair-skinned, looked a little crepey, and wore a pair of gold-rimmed glasses.

As soon as the man got out of the car, he ran up to Zhang Hao and pulled out an ID to show him.

Once he saw the man's ID, Zhang Hao stayed still.

"You public security..."

He shut his mouth immediately in mid-sentence.

The visitor's ID had "Secret Service Office of the Ministry of Public Security" written on it in big red letters.

This is a special branch of the Ministry of Public Security that specializes in major cases and, of course, protecting some people.

The gang does dare to be so demanding with themselves, as all local police must cooperate when they carry out their duties.

In the middle of the conversation, the big tall man had already reached Haoden Ye's car and followed him.

Seeing him coming over, Haoden Ye also hurriedly got out of the car.

"I'm Haoden Ye, what do you want with me?"

When he said this, Haoden Ye mentioned with great care.

Just by looking at the size of this man, he could slap himself into a meat pie.

"Are you Haoden Ye?"

The man swept Haoden Ye up and down and said in a gruff voice, "Did you treat Teacher Liang's illness?"

As soon as Haoden Ye heard that it was related to Master Liang, his brows furrowed slightly and he immediately nodded his head.

“That’s good, you come with me!”

The man pulled Haoden Ye away without saying a word.

Stepping out two steps, seeing that Haoden Ye still had handcuffs on his hands, the man gripped the chain of the handcuffs with both hands and yanked.

Ka-chow! The handcuffs are broken!

Everyone in the room looked straight up stupid!

Those handcuffs are iron. It takes a lot of force to rip them off!

“What are you doing!”

Seeing that Haoden Ye was going to be taken away, Zhao Chengyu was anxious.

You know, he had wasted nine bulls and two tigers before he laid out the layout for Haoden Ye to plant today.

People were afraid of the big man, he wasn't.

He was one of the heirs of the Zhao family, who would dare to fight him?

Zhao Chengyu immediately ran in front of that man and said in an angry voice, "This man has broken the law, and you guys are just going to take him away?"

After saying that, he turned his head to Zhang Hao and said angrily, "Officer Zhang, how did you do this to An!"

Zhang Hao looked aggrieved as he listened, and he was about to explain when the body of Zhao Chengyu in front of him suddenly flew across the room.

It turned out that the big man was impatient to see him in the way and slapped him straight in the face.

When Zhao Chengyu gave a black eye, he heard the wind in his ears.

By the time he regained consciousness, the man was already three meters away.

A hot feeling came over half of his face, and Zhao Chengyu was directly blinded.

“You...you dare to hit me, do you know who I am?”

Zhao Chengyu became furious and jumped up from the ground, looking at the big man in anger, “I’m Zhao family Zhao Chengyu, you dare to touch me!”

He was in an unfortunate position, just in the way of the big man again.

The big man this thing was really angry, grabbing him by the shoulders with a raised hand and shaking him hard.

Like a weightless sandbag, Zhao Chengyu was lifted up and then slammed down to the ground.

“I don’t care who you are!Delay Master Liang’s condition, I’ll kill you!”

The big man said with a sullen grunt.

Then, he grabbed Haoden Ye’s arm and shook it.

Like a feather, Haoden Ye was also like a feather, and he still got into the car.

“That who, arrest this man, he’s obstructing the police to enforce the law, I’ll find him later!”

Getting into the car, the big man bellowed at Zhang Hao.

Then the car started up and left in the dust.

It all happened so fast that everyone in the room didn’t have time to react.

By the time they regained consciousness, the car was far away.

“What is this, someone daring to hit someone in front of the police!”

“Makoto!Are you okay, Seiyu?”

“Did they get Dr. Yap to treat them?There are so many doctors in the city, why do you prefer Dr. Ye?”

There was a question mark on everyone’s mind for a while.

However, it is clear that the big man did not give them the opportunity to relate to this matter.

“Officer Zhang, who is this man, you saw him hit me just now, I’m going to sue him, I’m going to sue you, you...”

Zhao Chengyu had never suffered this kind of loss since he was a child, and was so angry that a Buddha rose to the heavens, standing up and cursing.

“Arrest him!”

Zhang Hao, as if he hadn’t heard him, commanded the two policemen to arrest Zhao Chengyu.

Zhao Chengyu was directly dumbfounded, he had been beaten and he was still arresting himself!

“You guys...you’ve gone too far, do you know who I am?”

His psyche finally began to fear.

For the first time since he was a child, he realized that his identity didn’t seem to work!

“Does this dude not have a brain? I took a beating and admitted it. How dare you mess with these guys?”

Leaving his mouth open, Zhang Hao looked at the direction the car was leaving and slowly puffed his chest.

Chapter 445

“What’s going on?”

At this time, inside, Zyden and Fang Weicheng and the others finally came out.

In fact, just now they heard some noise outside, and thought some VIP guests had come, and waited for half a day without seeing anyone before coming out to take a look.

If Zyden was there, Zhao Chengyu would never dare to be so arrogant.

Mi Yu’s sharp eyesight, immediately bar to say things, Zyden listened when the face immediately changed.

“Don’t worry guys, I’m familiar with the city police, I’m going to ask!”

Presently, Zyden didn’t hesitate and went quickly.

As the car sped down the road, Haoden Ye looked at the big man in front of him and quietly swallowed his saliva.

It wasn't that he was afraid of the big man, but the man was inherently oppressive.

"Drive faster and turn the alarm on!"

The big man seemed to think the car was too slow and yelled at the driver.

"Calm down a bit, you'll be disciplined for going back to your medicine after that mess!"

The refined man in front of him turned his head and looked at him with no good grace.

"It's just beating up a dude who's blocking my way!"

The big man left his mouth and whirled around to snort, "I'll tell him later that he's delaying my case, it's light to beat him!"

The refined man shook his head for a moment and laughed bitterly, looking over at Haoden Ye and seeing his worried face, he immediately smiled gently.

“Hello, I’m Xu Fei, his name is Roque Enemy, we’re from the Secret Service!”

The refined man smiled gently.

Roark’s enemy heard him introduce himself and shrugged, “What’s the point of talking to him, he’s just a healer!”

Haoden Ye nodded at Xu Fei and whirled around, “Are you guys going to take me to treat Master Liang?What the hell happened, Master Liang was already well when I left, ah!”

At his words, Roark’s enemy blushed.

“It’s not those two bastards yet!”

He got angrier and angrier, pounding the car harder.

The body of the car shook violently, scaring Haoden Ye.

Xu Fei turned his head to stare at Luo Ke Enemy, then smiled bitterly at Haoden Ye, “Master Liang’s condition has worsened!”

With a sigh, Xu Fei told the story.

It turned out that after Dean Sima and Sima Yunxuan wronged Haoden Ye, they planned to disguise the illusion that Liang Sanquan was seriously ill once.

Of course, Liang Sanquan's body was still in a period of weakness, and they didn't dare to do anything.

So the two men plan to tamper with the equipment to make the illusion that Liang Sanquan is critically ill.

Naturally, things went very well, and the two men created a false appearance of being seriously ill and then pretended to have surgery.

The so-called surgery is just for others to see, a slight movement of the knife to cut a little skin.

However, after the operation, the situation came to a head and Liang Sanquan remained unconscious.

Not only that, but the EKG and so on also showed that Liang Sanquan was in critical condition.

The two men tried their best to revive Liang Sanquan, but were unable to do so.

Luo Ke Enemy and Xu Fei were specializing in protecting Liang Sanquan, and had come to the hospital at this time when they heard the news.

Dean Sima knew that two people were not easy to deal with, so he pushed the matter onto Haoden Ye.

After hearing the two men's words, Luo Ke Enemy became furious and was about to come looking for Haoden Ye.

And Xu Feng was very smart and immediately asked a key question.

“Since it was Haoden Ye's treatment error, why did Master Liang's condition stabilize after Haoden Ye's treatment and Master Liang's condition became critical after your treatment?”

Afterwards, he asked President Sima for the video of the operation, planning to take it back and ask the doctors in the capital to judge Liang Sanquan's condition.

The two men panicked, they hadn't done anything at all during the operation, and if a professional had come to take a look, they would have known what was going on.

This time operating a doctor was afraid, something happened Sima Dean can not protect themselves.

In shock, he told the story.

The two men were just furious at the sound of it, and Roark's enemy beat the two men up without saying a word.

“Outrageous, it's a doctor's duty to heal the sick and save lives, and you two are trying to harm patients for the sake of your reputation!”

The two men didn't dare to hesitate and immediately video chatted to get a diagnosis from Tito's doctor.

As a result, Tito's doctors couldn't diagnose a single thing.

In the end, Xu Feng made a suggestion that they invite Haoden Ye over again.

The good news is that the Secret Service has access to personal information, and they investigated the information and immediately knew that Yeho Pharmaceuticals was open today.

After talking about the situation, Luo Ke Enemy gritted his teeth and said, “I will definitely punish these two people!”

Saying that, he turned his head to Haoden Ye, “Master Liang's illness, you must cure him, he suddenly disappeared in the past two days, we are anxious enough, in case something happens...”

At this point, Rocky Enemy had an apologetic look on his face.

Xu Feng also turned his head to Haoden Ye at this time, “You don’t need to be stressed, just treat with a normal mind, even if something goes wrong, it’s our responsibility, we two are specially assigned from above to protect Master Liang!”

The atmosphere inside the car was dull, and Xu Feng and Luo Ke Enemy didn’t look good.

Haoden Ye could see that the two people weren’t sad because they were afraid of taking responsibility.

Obviously, the other reason they were sad was that the patient was Liang Sanquan.

“I never expected this Master Liang to be so trusted by them!”

Silently chanting, Haoden Ye said to himself, “We must try our best today!”

The car sped off and was soon inside the hospital.

The three men got out of the car and hurried to the ward.

Inside the ward at this time, Liang San Quan was lying quietly, with seven or eight doctors around him in a whispered discussion.

“Doctor Ye, you should quickly take a look at Master Liang!”

Once inside, Xu Feng pulled Haoden Ye to Liang Sanquan’s front.

A few other doctors looked over at Haoden Ye.

They had also heard of what Dean Sima had done, and were naturally disdainful of his actions.

However, some of these doctors still didn’t believe that Haoden Ye could really cure Liang Sanquan’s illness.

So when they saw Haoden Ye coming, someone immediately whispered.

Of course Haoden Ye didn’t know what they were talking about, and his attention was always on Liang San’s entire body.

One hand pressed on the pulse, and Haoden Ye focused on beginning his diagnosis.

“Surprisingly, he wants a Chinese medicine treatment?”

“With all the advanced testing methods in our hospital failing to detect the problem, he can tell what’s going on by taking a pulse?”

At the sight of this, many doctors could not help but make unhappy noises.

Hearing these people speak, Roque Enemy stared at them with both eyes, and these people immediately shut their mouths.

It took less than two minutes before Haoden Ye slowly opened his eyes.

“Master Liang is losing blood and is in compassionate shock!”

At that, several doctors looked at each other.

“How is this possible!”

After all, it was a medical issue at stake, and some people still showed displeasure when they heard Haoden Ye’s.

“We’ve already tested the white and red blood cells, and Master Liang’s blood levels are now below normal, but they won’t put the patient in a coma!”

As he spoke, a few others nodded their heads.

“You guys make so much sense, can it be cured?”

Roque’s enemy got upset and reached out to hit him.

Xu Feng pulled him down and said with no good feelings, “A few more people Tian Lun, naturally can know Master Liang’s condition more clearly, what are you so impulsive for!”

Chapter 446

Haoden Ye didn’t get angry at the suspicions of the few doctors, instead he smiled slightly.

“Master Liang’s blood levels are naturally normal now, but have you tested the oxygen molecules in his blood yet?”

Gently shaking his head, he smiled lightly and said, “Master Liang’s Yang vein is now closed and the Yin vein is running, although the circulation is normal, the blood will not pass through the organs!”

To put it plainly, the blood runs automatically, without passing through the organs of the body.

Without these organs, the blood becomes increasingly cloudy and eventually becomes dead.

The tests certainly don't see anything wrong with it.

“Warp closure?”

“Air and blood blockage?”

Hearing these terms that were only found in martial arts novels, a gang almost laughed out loud.

“This man is obviously a liar!”

The doctor who had just accused Haoden Ye immediately stood out and pointed at Haoden Ye, “He is simply insulting medicine, insulting Chinese medicine, what meridian closure, do you think this is a martial arts novel?”

The other doctors snickered as well.

“Listen to you, you can cure Master Liang's illness!”

Roque Enemy couldn't understand what they were saying, and his face stiffened.

“I told you not to be impulsive!”

Xu Feng was a little more cautious and frowned, “Doctor Ye is saying that if you do an oxygen concentration test now, Master Liang’s must be abnormal?”

Of course all of this had been done, and the doctor immediately stepped forward and said, “We’ve done the oxygen concentration test, everything is normal, this man is a liar, and if what he says is true, I’ll kneel down and kowtow three times to him!”

The tone was full of contempt.

Shaking his head for a bitter laugh, Haoden Ye revealed a helpless look.

“When you tested it, was it when Master Liang was just sick, at that time his body was in a state of false death, consumption was certainly not serious, as time increased, Master Liang’s body was gradually suffocating!”

Haoden Ye hurriedly began to explain.

“That’s not right either, if that’s the case, Master Liang is suffocating to death by now, why is it just shock?”

With a bitter smile, Haoden Ye helplessly said, "That's because he's in a fake death state, if you guys don't believe me, do an oxygen concentration test right now!"

Several of the doctors snickered at that.

Xu Feng thought to himself, "If this is saved?"

His question was so critical that everyone's attention was drawn to it.

"Well, he must have said it couldn't be saved, because he wasn't even talking about the cause of the disease!"

The doctor snorted, acting as if he had foresight.

"Of course the treatment works, it takes less than a minute!"

With a faint smile, Haoden Ye said.

Everyone was dumbfounded at the words.

A minute to treat a disease that so many of their doctors are helpless to treat?

Immediately, that doctor laughed in anger.

“If you can heal Master Liang, I’ll kowtow three times to you now!”

The doctor snorted, cutting off his tongue.

He had studied the medical arts for so many years and naturally had a shallow understanding of the art of healing, with his personal knowledge and experience, this was simply impossible!

Seeing how he swore, Haoden Ye just laughed bitterly.

In the midst of everyone’s eyes, Haoden Ye pulled out a silver needle and slowly stabbed down at Master Liang’s chest.

He moved very slowly, keeping his eyes on that doctor, not looking at Master Liang at all.

As the silver needles fell, Xu Feng and Luo Ke Enemy tensed up.

Quickly, the silver needles fell into Master Liang’s body.

Then I saw Master Liang on the bed shake, his eyes opened, and he coughed violently.

All the doctors were dumbfounded, even Xu Feng and Luo Ke Enemy.

So many doctors at their wits' end, and those specialists and scholars in the capital with headaches, just one stitch in time?

Actually Liang Sanquan's disease is not difficult to treat, it's just a bad diagnosis.

Once the cause of the disease is known, as long as this injection unblocks the blood vessels in the chest, by virtue of the blood running, it can naturally flush out the other closed blood vessels.

"Master!"

As soon as Master Liang woke up, Luo Ke'e Enemy slammed down in front of the bed, tears coming out of his eyes.

On the hospital bed, Master Liang swept his eyes around in confusion, consciousness just returning.

Sweeping his eyes over Luo Ke Enemy, Master Liang smiled and said, "When did Luo come? I'm fine, I just had surgery!"

He said, seeing Haoden Ye in front of the hospital bed, his brows furrowed.

“When did Dr. Yap get here!”

Liang Sanquan’s tone was very unpleasant and a bit hostile.

“Master, you don’t know that it was Dr. Ye who saved you!”

Roque Enemy is a tall man, and shedding tears is really not a good look.

But no one there had the desire to make fun of his hair, but instead followed with moistened eyes.

What could break such a strong man’s will and make him cry?

“Huh?”

Liang Sanquan looked confused, he remembered that before this it was Haoden Ye who had caused him to almost be unable to practice martial arts.

“Master, previously, two doctors from this hospital pretended to operate on you in order to take credit for saving you from Mr. Ye, causing you to go into shock, we specifically went to find Dr. Ye and brought him here to treat you!”

Xu Feng's eyes were moist now, but he didn't cry.

He walked over and slowly explained to Liang Sanquan.

After hearing what had happened, Liang Sanquan became furious.

“Outrageous, practicing medicine and saving lives is a vocation, harming people for one's own selfish desires is simply unforgivable!”

In great anger, the breath was drawn and messed up, and Liang Sanquan coughed.

“Master Liang, don't worry, now that you're fine, just take care of your rest and don't get angry at all! You are a martial arts practitioner, the less you can get angry!”

Seeing him angry, Haoden Ye hurried forward to persuade him.

“Doctor Ye, I, Liang Sanquan, apologize to you!”

Liang Sanquan nodded and looked apologetic to Haoden Ye.

Haoden Ye was stunned at the words, surprised, “Did Master Liang do something wrong to me?”

“Of course not, I misunderstood you as a bad person before!”

Liang Sanquan’s explanation was very simple and looked reasonable.

Haoden Ye couldn’t help but laugh bitterly, he hadn’t done anything, simply misunderstanding himself and feeling so guilty.

“Since Master Liang has recovered, it’s time for me to go back, it’s my opening ceremony today and I still have a bunch of things to deal with at home!”

Seeing that Liang Sanquan was well, Haoden Ye offered his farewell.

“Oh?Is Dr. Yip in trouble?You saved my life, so I’ll naturally try to help you as much as I can!”

Seeing a few worries between his brows, Liang Sanquan immediately said.

Thinking of Luo Ke Enemy’s actions just now, Haoden Ye mentally moved, this matter might be something they could help with.

The Zyden family is rich and can only try to help when it comes to legal matters, after all, it is really illegal for them to use unapproved drugs.

After thinking about it, Haoden Ye told the story.

As far as he was concerned, the matter was sitting on something illegal, and Liang Sanquan must have had a headache hearing about it.
