

Chapter 447

Who knew that Liang Sanquan would immediately laugh after hearing his words.

“What else was I supposed to do, it was so simple!”

After Liang Sanquan finished speaking, he directly addressed Luo Ke Enemy: “You go make a phone call to the Provincial Drug Administration!”

Saying that, he then said to Xu Feng, “You contact the authorities and tell them that you want a license to practice medicine!”

Upon hearing this, the two men immediately went about their business.

Haoden Ye listened strangely for a while, not knowing what this Licensed Row Qualification Certificate was.

Seeing the confusion on his face, Liang Sanquan smiled, “Mr. Ye has never been in contact with secret service matters and doesn’t understand this, in fact, the country is not brain dead and has special protection for many folk oddballs!”

“You are promoting Chinese medicine and making contributions, not harming people, of course the state is happy to give you a license, with this qualification, you are an external doctor for the secret service, the practice of medicine can be free from the general legal restrictions!”

His explanation was still too simple, in fact with this qualification, Haoden Ye was basically half a foot in the secret service.

Hearing that the matter was resolved, Haoden Ye was in a very good mood and hurriedly thanked him.

“You saved my life, of course I have to help with that little thing, and...”

At this point, Liang Sanquan hehely smiled.

“We martial arts practitioners often have health problems, and I’ll be counting on you in the future.”

This Haoden Ye naturally also saw that people who practiced martial arts were more or less physically damaged.

Some people say that martial arts practice prolongs life, but that’s just the average martial arts practitioner.

Any martial art practiced to the extreme will cause damage to the body.

Pushing the limits of the body is in itself an ungodly act.

“Since Master Liang is well, we’ll leave you alone!”

Seeing that Liang Sanquan looked a bit tired, Haoden Ye quickly took his leave.

Nodding lightly, Liang Sanquan smiled, “I’m not feeling well today, so I won’t thank you properly, I’ll definitely pay a visit personally some other day!”

After being polite, Haoden Ye and the other doctors only left the room.

Just after leaving the house, Haoden Ye was pulled.

Subconsciously turning around, Haoden Ye saw a silhouette dwarfing in front of him.

Three muffled thumps, but it was the doctor who had just kowtowed three times to himself.

“What are you doing!”

Haoden Ye hurriedly pulled that man up.

“I owe this to you!”

The man stood up with a sincere face and said, "Truth be told, what happened today has refreshed my knowledge of medicine!"

A few doctors next to him listened and nodded along.

"Yes, I never thought that the warrior novels that talk about closed meridians are real!"

"Yeah, I didn't expect the human body to be magical to such a degree, but Chinese medicine is magical to such a degree!"

"Doctor Ye, why don't you stay and teach us a little Chinese medicine, from today onwards, I won't be learning Western medicine!"

A few of the doctors became more and more eager the more they talked, that looked like they had the intention of kidnapping Haoden Ye if he left today.

Seeing the excited looks of these doctors, Haoden Ye couldn't help but smile bitterly.

"If people's feelings for Chinese medicine go, they can go to Spirit Medicine Hall to learn, I've already passed on my acupuncture skills to them, and of course, if anyone wants to learn alchemy, they can come to my company!"

Waving his hand at them, Haoden Ye hurriedly said.

After hearing Haoden Ye's words, several doctors were somewhat disappointed, but thinking that they would have the opportunity to learn such exquisite medical skills from Haoden Ye in the future, they became excited once again.

Thinking that there was still something going on at home, Haoden Ye said to that doctor, "Later when Mr. Luo and the others come back, you help say I'm going back!"

That doctor responded and a few doctors sent Haoden Ye out.

Leaving the hospital, Haoden Ye rushed to his own company.

Meanwhile, it was the same villa and the same two old men.

"Hey, I do remember, today is the opening of Kid Ye's company, and you, a strong supporter of Kid Ye, aren't going?"

Lin, who was chatting, suddenly remembered something and smiled at Zheng.

"Well, you can calculate, you old man, don't you know what I'm thinking?"

Zheng Lao rolled his eyes and said in a bad mood, "I've already made my attitude clear to this kid, that's enough, he knows I'm still on his side, does it matter if I go or not?"

After saying that, Zheng Lao left his mouth and said, "Besides, after staying with you, this Daxian for a long time, I don't like places with a lot of people, and that kid from the Holander family is also going to be there, and the king won't see the king, how embarrassing for me to see him!"

After hearing his words, Figmen Lin's eyes narrowed.

"I'm afraid those aren't the reasons why you won't show up."

A pot of tea boiled and Lin poured himself a cup.

"Well, if you know, why are you asking!"

Zheng Lao snatched the teapot and poured himself a cup.

"What a non-stop, non-stop!The one surnamed Liang is here!"

After saying that, Zheng Lao looked gloomy.

"What are you afraid of?Are you afraid he'll come to investigate what happened back then?"

Figmen Lin trailed off, “That incident back then, the Lin family has already wiped you clean, what can he find out?”

“Don’t underestimate Liang Sanquan, he looks straightforward and blunt, and still has a lot of playfulness in his bones, how else could he have spent so many years entering the Public Security Department’s Special Duty and come running to Dan City with his prized disciple?”

Zheng Lao became more and more depressed as he grunted, “The Zhang boy is not resting in Dan City every day, and the one surnamed Liang is here again, so it seems we must do something and drive one away!”

Lin’s old eyes narrowed, and his mouth curved in a weird way.

“Do you remember what I told you?”

Figmen Lin slowly lay down on the rocking chair, Xu.

“You’ve said a lot of things every day God says!”

Rolling a white eye, Zheng didn’t have a good time.

“Destiny is like a flood; when he wants to push a man to the top, he first gathers different little rivers to the man’s feet!”

Saying that, Figmen Lin's tone became despondent.

"Once it's done, you'll be flying high!"

The teacup in Zheng's hand rattled to the ground!

"You said Ye boy!Liang Sanquan will come because of him too?"

Zheng Lao looked tense, if that was the case, he would have to do something to get rid of Haoden Ye, an unstable factor.

Because Dan City is still trapped by a man who once flew to the skies!

"Oh, I don't know about that, this man's destiny is mysterious, I can't participate!"

Figmen Lin shrugged his shoulders, revealing a helpless look.

Zheng looked grave and grabbed Lin's arm.

"Old Lin, why are you still so restless when you're so old?Tell me honestly, have you been using me to train Kid Ye?You think you can use him to get out of trouble?"

The voice was a little shaky and a little sad.

“As fate would have it, so would I be trapped here if I had the ability to cultivate a man sufficient to turn the world upside down!”

Sighing, Lin pushed Zheng’s arm away.

Chapter 448

Hearing him say that, Zheng nodded slowly and gently exhaled a cloudy breath.

“That’s good, as long as you don’t mess up, I’m relieved!”

Standing up, Zheng Lao stretched a lazy waist and said, “By the way, the one surnamed Zhang has done it to Kid Ye again, counting the time, he should be behind bars now, it’s time for me, an old senior, to help!”

After saying that, Zheng Lao stepped forward and walked out.

As he watched his back as he left, Lin’s eyes narrowed.

“Get out of the way?How dare you say that I am now trapped or truly free?”

Shaking his head, Lin sighed and raised his head to the sky.

“Counting the time, I should go order that boy around!”

From the hospital, Haoden Ye immediately got into a cab.

As soon as the car drove on the road, Haoden Ye suddenly experienced a sharp pain in his abdomen.

An incredibly swollen sensation that made his abdomen almost explode.

Suddenly, Haoden Ye's forehead was filled with cold sweat.

The pain was so intense that he almost passed out, unable to make any sounds for help.

“What the hell is going on!”

Haoden Ye felt that the severe pain in his abdomen was clearly related to the koi fish.

Without hesitation, Haoden Ye looked inside his dantian.

But then I saw five red bubbles occupying different locations inside my dantian.

Last time he still had two red bubbles, and in the past two days he had done two more good deeds and had three more red bubbles inside his dantian.

As to why it was three, he didn't know.

In the past, when there were many bubbles in the dantian, Haoden Ye had discovered that although the red stone bubbles were small, they occupied a very large position.

The other color bubbles occupy different sizes, but they are not as big as the red ones.

And at this time five red bubbles each occupy a position in the dantian, however their own dantian inside the space is obviously not enough, five bubbles squeeze each other.

A strong pressure came from inside the dantian, and this side was the cause of Haoden Ye's pain relief.

"What...what the hell is going on!"

Haoden Ye hurriedly asked the koi fish a question, yet at this time the koi fish didn't respond at all.

Five red bubbles squeeze each other, all vying for each other's survival.

Haoden Ye noticed that the struggle between the red bubbles was becoming increasingly violent.

And now the pain inside his dantian was intensifying!

"Dead old man, for fuck's sake!"

At this time the car suddenly a violent shaking heard down, accompanied by the driver's brother's roar: "want to blackmail people?I have a tachograph in my car!"

"Oh, Mr. Driver, look at your passenger, something doesn't seem right!"

At that moment, a familiar voice sounded, followed by the driver's frightened voice.

"What...what's wrong with you?Don't die in my car!"

The next thing you know, it's the driver ahhs and appears to have passed out.

Haoden Ye reluctantly opened his eyes and saw that a figure had arrived in front of him.

He felt his collar being grabbed and then the wind in his ears.

“Old Lin, where are you taking me!”

Seeing that the visitor was Figmen Lin, Haoden Ye’s heart was relieved, Figmen Lin was knowledgeable and must have known what was going on.

Soon, Haoden Ye had a feeling of falling down, then fell to the ground.

“Oh, you’re pretty fast, you’ve completed the first stage of accumulation so quickly!”

Old Lin’s laughter came.

“Old man, I’m in so much pain!”

Tightly furrowing his brows, Haoden Ye uttered a few words from inside his teeth.

“Take in your mind, breathe in my voice, and feel the foreign treasures in your body!”

Figmen Lin’s voice reached inside Haoden Ye’s ears.

Hearing this, Haoden Ye hurriedly breathed along with his voice while looking within his dantian and trying to sense the presence of the koi fish.

Soon, he had a strange feeling in his mind, as if a voice in his head was speaking.

The voice was unfamiliar and familiar, and the words spoken were definitely not an ordinary language.

“Although exotic treasures are infinitely powerful, their spirituality is very limited!”

At this time, Figmen Lin’s voice suddenly rang out.

“Like a puddle of stagnant water, if no one provokes it, there will never be a ripple!”

Figmen Lin’s voice grew louder and louder, echoing in Haoden Ye’s mind.

Soon, Haoden Ye's pain gradually decreased, and there was only Figmen Lin's voice in his mind.

"Treasures are always objects and need their owners to connect with their spirits in order to operate freely!"

Hearing this, Haoden Ye's heart was shaken.

He began to give up on understanding the chaotic sounds made by the koi fish and comprehended their presence with his mind.

Soon, Haoden Ye gradually had a strange feeling, as if he had become the fish wandering in the dantian.

And then there was a desire in him, a desire to swallow the red bubble.

"Then absorb them all!"

Haoden Ye couldn't help but have this thought.

As soon as this thought arose, the koi fish in the dantian moved.

But I saw it open its mouth and spit out a colorless bubble.

The bubble slowly rose, and then, surprisingly, began to absorb the light from inside the other red bubbles.

Soon, this bubble absorbed the remaining five bubbles and then tapered off.

And the koi fish now opened its mouth and slowly the bubbles returned to its mouth.

Immediately after, a comfortable feeling arose in Haoden Ye's heart.

"But I can't transform these virtues, I have to make them into something substantial!"

For some reason, Haoden Ye suddenly had strange thoughts.

The koi fish can turn his virtue into bubbles and then use the bubbles to make a wish.

But the koi fish transformed bubbles that it couldn't directly use on its own.

"Then let it be a power I can absorb!"

As Haoden Ye made his wish, he could feel the red bubbles in the koi fish's body disappear while a power was generated!

And inside his dantian, the koi fish's body suddenly blossomed with ten thousand sheets of golden light!

“Oh, good, you've learned how to refine treasures!”

In my ears, I heard Lin's old voice.

Inside the dantian, golden light flashed, and the koi fish also underwent essential changes.

In less than a minute, the light fully dissipated, and the originally colorful koi fish was now glowing even brighter, and Haoden Ye noticed that it had also grown larger.

Not only that, but he felt that his sense of connection with the koi fish was growing stronger.

“There is still so much knowledge that I cannot comprehend!”

Haoden Ye realized that there seemed to be a lot of mysterious things hidden in the body of the koi fish.

He could feel them clearly, but by the time he tried to get a clear look, they were suddenly gone.

It's like a memory that you can recall, but you can't always remember.

“Don't be in a hurry, your first time refining treasures, there's still a long way to go!”

With a slight smile, Lin's old voice rang out.

Haoden Ye slowly opened his eyes and found himself inside a villa.

Chapter 449

Seeing the kindly old man in front of him, Haoden Ye hurriedly expressed gratitude.

He almost thought he was going to die from the pain he had just felt.

“Oh, you don't have to thank me, you saved little cheerfulness, and this is my way of repaying you!”

Lin slowly stood up and walked over to a rocking chair and sat down.

“Lin, where are we, are we in Dan City?”

Haoden Ye looked around in bewilderment, then said, “What just happened, and what is this refining you speak of?”

“This is where I live, and as for what I said about refining...”

Figmen Lin looked at Haoden Ye and smiled, “It’s easy to say, this foreign treasure of yours can transform his own merit into divine power, but he has limitations of his own!”

“There’s a limit to the blessed embrace your destiny can carry, and a limit to what it can transform!”

Saying that, Haoden Ye pointed at the teacup, “It’s like this teacup, the amount of tea that can be put in it is limited!”

“So refining means increasing the capacity of the teacup?”

Haoden Ye lifted one immediately.

“It’s also fair to say that refining doesn’t just increase the capacity of the exotic treasure, it also increases some other abilities!”

Haoden Ye was energized by this and quickly said, “What ability?”

“This... It’s better for you to discover it slowly, I’m not the owner of the Exotic Treasure, so naturally I don’t know to what extent the Exotic Treasure has been refined, but its efficiency in transforming virtue has definitely increased!”

Hearing his words, Haoden Ye was somewhat disappointed that Lin always spoke half and hid half, making him feel very awkward.

“Oh, boy, that’s impatient, you’ve got a long way to go!”

Figmen Lin arrived with two cups of tea and said to Haoden Ye, “Come over and have some tea with me, I’m pretty bored after all these years!”

At the news, Haoden Ye hurried to his seat and swept his eyes over the surrounding scenery, curiously saying, “The scenery here is nice... Hey, it’s kind of like the Lin family’s feng shui on that mountain in Lancang County!”

Hearing this, Figmen Lin was slightly stunned.

“Oh, you don’t know, but that mountain was supposed to be for me!”

Figmen Lin chuckled.

Hearing this, Haoden Ye was suddenly enlightened.

The mountain that was deposited in Lin Yumo's name was originally intended for Figmen Lin, but then it became haunted, so of course Figmen Lin couldn't live there.

"By the way, Lin, how's little cheerfulness? Haven't seen her in a while!"

Thinking of Lin Yu Mo, Haoden Ye thought of Lin cheng.

"Little cheer?"

Hearing his words, Figmen Lin's eyes glowed.

"You miss her?"

Figmen Lin's eyes were strange.

As long as one wasn't an idiot, one could understand the meaning in Lin's words.

"You misunderstand!" Haoden Ye's face flushed as he quickly explained, "I'm just curious."

"Oh, that girl is out of the country right now, but you should be able to meet soon!"

With a slight smile, Lin still said half and hid half.

“Well, it’s getting late, you should hurry back too, if you’re late, your family is going to be worried!”

Seeing that Lin was going to see off his guests, Haoden Ye had to suppress the urge to ask more things.

Along a small path, Haoden Ye reached the bottom of the mountain.

Turning his head to look at the mountain again, Haoden Ye was mentally confused.

The only person who could be seen on the entire mountain was Figmen Lin.

But Haoden Ye sensed that there were an unknown number of people lurking in the open and in the dark.

And inside the villa, it was spotlessly cleaned, and while Lin was clearly not the one to do the cleaning, there was not a single person to be seen cleaning it.

Of course Haoden Ye didn’t take it to heart and stepped back.

While at the hospital, Haoden Ye called back to report his safety.

By the time they returned to the office again, the guests had dispersed.

Li Daniu commanded people to clean up the feast while Robert Shen and the others waited anxiously in the hall.

Seeing Haoden Ye return, they immediately got up and ran over.

“Haoden Ye, are you okay, those guys didn’t give you a hard time!”

Haoden Ye didn’t dare to say anything to his family about the secret service, just that someone had asked him to help cure the disease.

Hearing Robert Shen’s words, Haoden Ye smiled broadly and said, “It’s fine, they didn’t make things difficult for me!”

Saying that, he smiled slightly, “And they gave me a license to practice medicine, and the matter of treating Zhang Peng’s wife has been resolved!”

This was something Haoden Ye didn’t say on the phone, ready to come back and surprise them.

Hearing this, the crowd really did look surprised.

“Great, haha, I told you that our Haoden Ye is capable, Lao Er even said that this time Haoden Ye is finished!”

Laughing hahaha, Robert Shen looked smug.

Haoden Ye had already discovered that Uncle Shen’s family was missing.

It made sense for Zyden and the others to leave, and Haoden Ye called them specifically to say that he had solved the matter.

The fact that Uncle Shen, a relative, did not hesitate to leave without knowing that he was fine shows that they did not want to be involved in their own troubles.

“Well, since everything’s fine, let’s all go home and get some rest.”

Maya Shen looked a bit haggard, and stepped forward to hug Haoden Ye’s arm, “Mom and Dad, you guys should also go back and rest, just leave this place to me and Haoden Ye!”

Since everything was fine, Robert Shen and the others were relieved and immediately nodded and left on the news.

Li Daniu is very discerning, and at the sight of this, he immediately said, “Boss, sister-in-law, a rest room has been arranged upstairs, you can go up and rest!”

The two of them arrived upstairs, and as soon as they closed the door, Maya Shen immediately hugged Haoden Ye tightly, tears flowing from inside her eyes.

Seeing his wife crying, Haoden Ye’s heart was sad.

“It’s all my fault for aggravating you today, I’m useless!” Haoden Ye’s voice carried heartache.

Maya Shen didn’t say anything, just hugged him quietly.

“By the looks of Dad today, he just had a fight with Uncle Ernie.”

Seeing his wife sad, Haoden Ye thought of diverting her attention.

“Well, Uncle Er speaks badly!”

Maya Shen’s attention was indeed diverted and her face showed anger.

“You’ve just been taken away, and he said that you’ve offended the Zhao family, that the company will definitely not be able to open, and that you’re not a saver, and that you left without even entering the door!”

The more Maya Shen spoke, the angrier she became, gritting her teeth, “He was subtle with his words, but Xiao Mei and the others went too far, directly saying that they came today because they were in the way of relatives, and that their bones simply despised you!”

Seeing her pretty face blush from anger, Haoden Ye felt cute.

Haoden Ye wasn’t sad about the performance of Uncle Shen’s family.

In the past, he had seen their faces clearly and often used himself to humiliate Robert Shen and Maya Shen in public intentionally.

“Let’s pretend we don’t have this relative from now on!”

Haoden Ye sighed.

Nodding lightly, Maya Shen’s pretty face blushed slightly and bit her lips, “There’s one more thing!”

Haoden Ye was slightly stunned, but he heard Maya Shen say, “When the police left today, Zhao Chengyu mentioned a condition to me!”
