

Chapter 462

“Did you do this physical therapy yourself, old man?”

Patting Li Daniu on the shoulder, Haoden Ye stepped forward.

“Yes, it’s just that the old man made it himself, is the little brother interested as well?”

The old man smiled and looked mild.

Hearing him say that, Haoden Ye’s face darkened.

People had a love of beauty, and using this to sacrifice their health for beauty, this kind of person Haoden Ye really loathed.

“Do you know, old man, that your methods of physical therapy come at the expense of a woman’s health?”

With an icy tone, Haoden Ye spoke to the old man.

At his words, the girls all looked surprised.

When they saw Haoden Ye coming to trouble, they thought there was something wrong with the physiotherapy process.

Who would have thought that afterwards in that physiotherapy it would be at the expense of their own health.

For a moment, all the girls' eyes turned to the old man.

“Oh, little friend is also in the physical therapy business, right?”

The old man didn't reply to Haoden Ye's words, but he smiled and politely arched his hand at Haoden Ye.

“Old man Long Bo Xi, his ancestor was a palace doctor, specializing in the beauty of the emperor's concubines, and these formulas are also flowing from inside the palace!”

Saying that, Long Bo Xi's eyes narrowed and his tone became unkind.

“The old recipe was used in the ancient court, so if it was harmful to the human body, I'm afraid those queen consorts wouldn't have used it!”

Hearing this, the originally worried girls nodded along.

Can the method used by other queen consorts be harmful?

Many other girls were skeptical, wondering if what Lombosi said was true.

“Hmph, the ancient method used by the Empress, why are you just now bringing it out and using it, not even finding a better reason to lie!”

Li Daniu listened with a sneer.

“I don’t want to explain that, but if this gentleman doesn’t believe me, there’s nothing I can do about it!”

Shrugging, Longbottom snorted.

“You said your wife had a problem with her physiotherapy with me, so we’ll take your wife to the hospital and have her checked out, and if there really is a problem, our physiotherapy store is willing to pay for it and close its doors from now on!”

Longpoche was righteous.

Hearing his words, all the girls’ gazes turned to Haoden Ye and Li Daniu.

And then Haoden Ye’s face also showed a look of embarrassment.

The physical damage to the girl is staged and there are no medical symptoms at all until a critical point is reached.

Seeing Haoden Ye's look, the old man revealed a few smug looks.

“Hehe, I'm afraid you're aware that the lady you're talking about, even if you go to the hospital, you won't be able to detect the problem!”

With a faint smile, Long Bo Xi's tone became indifferent.

“If I'm right, you're in the physical therapy business too, I know there's a lot of competition and my prices are a little lower here!”

Said Longbush, sighing with a look of sadness and pity.

“But I can't rest easy thinking about how many girls have to be ugly for the rest of their lives because they can't afford expensive physical therapy.”

Hearing his words, the girls looked touched.

People are lowering the price to give ordinary girls the right to be beautiful, it's not a business at all, it's like giving away welfare!

“What a shameless way to use it when you can't compete with others!”

“Old Mr. Long is old enough to cheat us girls out of money?”

“Get the hell out of here, you two, or we’ll call the police and arrest you!”

Seeing this display, Li Daniu’s face turned red.

It’s clear that you’ve been pitied as the bad guy.

And these girls, what kind of reasoning is it that they’ve come to be pitied?

Seeing that Haoden Ye and the others were speechless, Long Bo Xi’s eyes flashed with contempt.

“If you two don’t have anything else, I’m about to go give the next lady a physio!”

After saying that, Longpoix turned around and walked inside.

“Slow down!”

At this time, Haoden Ye’s voice suddenly came to mind.

Long Bo Xi slowly turned around and looked at Haoden Ye smilingly.

“Do you still have business, little friend? If you still want to cause trouble, then I’m calling the police!”

With a snort, Longbush faded.

“Boss, this old brat looks treacherous, let’s not get along with him, let’s just suffer a loss!”

When Li Daniu looked at Long Bo Xi’s frame, he had a worried look on his face.

People say that people become shrewd when they are old, and Long Poho is a shrewd man at first glance.

He’s using this method to hurt people and he’s afraid someone will investigate?

Laughing, Haoden Ye waved his hand at Li Daniu.

“Old man, you say I’m bothering you because I’m not as skilled as you, so why don’t we have a contest and we’ll pick any one of the girls from the group and each use our own beauty treatment on them.”

Long Poho’s eyes glowed!

“Who told you to groom, don’t you touch us!”

“That’s right, we want Master Long to give us a facial!”

“Well, I guess you’re just trying to take advantage of it.”

A bunch of girls have spoken out against it.

A faint smile flashed across the corners of his mouth as Long Bo Xi spread out his hands and said, “This young friend, it’s not that I’m not willing to say yes to you, it’s the girl present who’s not willing to say yes to you ah!”

With a heated smile, Haoden Ye turned his gaze to the girls.

“I have a bank card here with my five million dollars in it, and if my beauty treatment doesn’t work, or it’s dangerous to your health, the five million dollars will be yours!”

A lot of the girls were dumbfounded by this.

Who would want to come to a place like this for a beauty treatment if they had the money, these girls are average office workers, blue collar at best.

Five million, that’s enough to last them a lifetime!

“Oh, you’re so generous, you have to use money to get someone to agree to try!”

Seeing the girls hesitate, Longbottom couldn’t help but let out an absurd laugh.

Haoden Ye, of course, ignored him and made a gesture of invitation, “Please, old man!”

With a heated smile, Long Bo Xi swept his eyes over all the girls.

Quickly, he picked a girl with darker skin.

You know, the purpose of his physical therapy was to make the girl’s skin fair.

And the fact that he chose this girl shows how difficult it was.

The girls looked indignant when they saw that he had picked the girl.

“How does the old man pick this girl, it’s obviously making it more difficult for himself?”

“If this girl can turn white, this old man will be my idol from now on!”

“Well, if she can turn white, let me sleep with him!”

The girls didn't dare to speak up considering the dark-skinned girl's face, but they both heard them clearly.

“Little friend, you choose, I won't make it difficult for you, even if the choice is prettier than the one I chose, as long as it can be physiotherapy better than I can, I admit defeat!”

Hearing this, many of the girls were up in arms for the old man.

Ignoring him, Haoden Ye picked a girl at random.

Chapter 463

This girl is actually nice, but her hormones are bad, her face is full of pimples, and she doesn't take good care of them, making puddles all over her face.

The crowd looked surprised at the people he picked.

Of all the girls, he'd picked the one that was the hardest to physio.

“What a fool, the old man has told us to follow the uniform standards, and he chose this girl!”

“Hey, I think it’s because I’m afraid I’ll lose too badly, so I’m looking for a step for myself.”

“Well, what a bummer, I was supposed to be in line for me, but here comes a spoiler!”

Apparently, all the girls had no confidence in Haoden Ye.

“Oh, since my little friend is so determined, let’s set a time, just ten minutes, after ten minutes, you and I will split the victory!”

Long Bo Xi laughed, his eyes sweeping a contemptuous glance at Haoden Ye.

He disguises himself as a health care provider and uses yin and yang harvesting methods to give the girl a temporary appearance.

This method caused very serious damage to the girl’s future body, and he knew that Haoden Ye would not sit idly by.

As long as Haoden Ye made his move, he would be able to find out how good he really was.

It might even draw out Haoden Ye's master!

The body damaged by his magic door was almost irreversible, and he was confident that Haoden Ye didn't have the skills to heal it.

I didn't expect Haoden Ye to directly kill the door and use this kind of contest to expose himself, it was ridiculous.

The method of harvesting yin and tonifying yang is really damaging to the human body, but the benefits are also numerous.

By practicing to his level, the damage is negligible and the benefits are greatly manifested.

And for the average person, the results are remarkable.

No matter what method is used, you can't achieve what you can achieve now.

"No, three minutes will be enough!"

With a faint smile, Haoden Ye told Long Bo Xi.

Hearing his words, everyone present showed a stunned look.

Countless pairs of eyes looked at Haoden Ye like madmen.

“That’s a lot of bragging, three minutes to put on her makeup isn’t enough!”

“People are aware that they’re going to lose, so how do they show they’re good if they don’t blow up bigger?”

“Well, big liar, you’re too young to learn!”

A group of girls with seven mouths were angry at Haoden Ye.

“Haha!Three minutes, just three minutes!”

Long Bo Xi laughed, thinking that Haoden Ye’s stupidity was a bit cute.

Time didn’t matter to him at all, three minutes was enough time for him to finish picking yin and mending yang.

“Yes!Please, old man!”

Making a gesture of invitation, Haoden Ye brought the girl inside the store.

And on this side, Lombosi also went in with the girl.

Inside a separate single room, Haoden Ye closed the door.

“Don’t you touch me, or I’ll sue you for molestation!”

As soon as she saw Haoden Ye close the door, the girl immediately subconsciously protected her body.

Upon hearing that, Haoden Ye just laughed bitterly.

“Come on big sister, I have such a beautiful girlfriend in my own family and I have to take advantage of you?”

Of course, Haoden Ye wouldn’t say these words.

“Don’t worry, I won’t touch you, just stick a few stitches in you!”

The girl decided to quit when she heard that she wanted acupuncture.

Acupuncture is Chinese medicine, and no one who studies Chinese medicine is 40 or 50 years old, no matter if they are out of school at all.

The disciples of the Spiritual Medicine Hall must be over thirty before they can practice medicine on their own, and unless they are geniuses, the old doctors wouldn't dare release them to see patients.

Because Chinese medicine is just too obscure and there's too much to remember.

Even if one is a genius, it would take years for one to not eat or drink and memorize these things.

Seeing her face flinch, Haoden Ye just smiled.

"You must have really liked spicy food when you were little!"

Without making further moves, Haoden Ye revealed a peaceful smile.

Not sure if she was impressed by his smile or not, the girl relaxed her guard a little.

"Of course, that man doesn't like spicy food!"

With a soft snort, the girl's tone wasn't very friendly.

"No, I'd say you like spicy food more than your peers, but after thirteen your eating habits changed, after your first period to be exact!"

Hearing this, the girl's face reddened a little with anger.

A lonely man asking girls such things.

“So what if it is!”

With a soft snort, the girl looked on guard again.

“I don't want to talk to you about that!”

The girl thought to herself that if she survived the three minutes, she'd have five million dollars in hand, so she put on an expression that she didn't want to say much.

However, Haoden Ye's next words directly stunned the girl.

“You should have had a physical recently and been found to be infertile!”

Hearing this, the girl's delicate body shook slightly!

“You...how did you know!”

The girl didn't dare to tell anyone about this.

It was her boyfriend, who had no idea he had this hidden disease.

It was also a matter of concern to her, fearing that her boyfriend would not want her because she was infertile.

So in life, she tries her best to be nice to her boyfriend, but she has a very hard time.

“Oh, don't you want to know what's wrong with you?”

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye told the girl.

The girl stayed at his words.

Infertility is infertility, how can there be other causes of infertility?

“What do you...what do you mean, is there something else wrong with me?”

The girl's voice was a little nervous, if Haoden Ye could treat her infertility, it would be a great fortune for her.

“You were more of a spicy eater when you were young and had no restraint, causing you to have a hot heart, but when you’re young, there’s not much difference between boys’ and girls’ physiques, and even girls are stronger than boys!”

Saying that, Haoden Ye had pulled out the silver needle.

The girl gulped subconsciously at the sight of the shining silver needle.

Yet Haoden Ye’s words were full of seductive power, causing her fear of silver needles to be suppressed.

“But your first period is a turning point in the changes you make as a woman, when your heart is on fire, your yin and yang start to get out of balance, and your body automatically responds by restraining your eating habits!”

Shaking his head and sighing, Haoden Ye continued to speak.

“This would have been a good thing, but your body didn’t know the cause of your overactive heart and could only react passively, resulting in a drastic change in your diet and even your temperament, your personality becoming more and more boyish, your dark skin and acne, which is an apparent infertility.”

The human body has an autonomous set of regulatory systems.

For example, a person who is particularly fond of meat, but when he is adequately supplemented with meat, his body automatically reacts by making you ask for a special taste in the meat, thus creating a feeling of nausea.

And if this reaction is too strong, it can permanently restrain a person's physical development.

Chapter 464

Hearing Haoden Ye say so much, the girl revealed a pensive look.

“So the fact that you have dark skin and even pimples all over your face is actually a natural reaction of your body, and frankly, a disease!”

Hearing Haoden Ye's words, the girl subconsciously covered her cheeks.

“Are you telling me that this isn't what I was meant to be, that this is just a symptom of an illness?”

The girl's voice was strained as she said this.

“Yes, this infertility symptom of yours is really just your body's reaction to your overactive heart fire, and once you restrain it, your body will quickly adjust to it!”

Saying that, Haoden Ye had already taken the silver needle to the girl's side.

"You...you lighten up!"

The girl's tone was tense, but she no longer refused Haoden Ye's acupuncture.

Smiling slightly, Haoden Ye's hands shook.

This time, he was going to pierce over 120 acupuncture points on the girl's body in one go, completing the toughest acupuncture he had ever done.

Each acupuncture point must be located correctly and the depth of force must be carefully applied.

For an ordinary person, this is almost impossible to accomplish.

However, for Haoden Ye, this could only be considered slightly more difficult.

But even if the difficulty factor wasn't high, it was still very physically demanding on Haoden Ye.

At first, the girl was nervous, but when she felt no pain, she opened her eyes subconsciously.

Right now, Haoden Ye was constantly changing his position in front of himself, and the silver needles in his hands were constantly stabbing himself.

Strike like lightning, figure like flying, like a martial arts master in a movie.

In less than a minute, Haoden Ye completed over a hundred acupuncture points.

Seeing Haoden Ye stand his ground and exhale for breath, the girl mentally muttered.

“After all that, he wouldn’t be lying to me at all, acupuncture doesn’t work at all!”

The girl frowned and looked at herself, nothing seemed to have changed!

“You, man, are you lying to me, you just said so much, there was acupuncture for half a day, there wasn’t any...ugh!”

The girl was just in the middle of her sentence when a very strong vomiting sensation developed.

She hurried to the corner and threw up in a huff.

Luckily there was a sink in the room, otherwise throwing up on the floor would have been a joke.

After a bout of vomiting, the girl felt weak all over.

“Now you go wash your face!”

Seeing that the girl had finished vomiting, Haoden Ye was busy.

“Wash your face and look in the mirror by the way!”

Despite her physical weakness, the girl clearly felt a change in her body.

Turning on the faucet, the girl began to wash her face.

Looking at her back, the corner of Haoden Ye’s mouth revealed a smile.

It wasn’t going to be a contest, but when he saw the girl, he suddenly got the idea.

This girl's condition was so hidden that even if a famous doctor like Professor Hua came, he would only be able to determine an endocrine disorder.

By addressing her overactive heart and then performing a simple repair on her body, the balance in her body would adjust.

Of course, to achieve such a quick and effective result, it is also necessary to have the coke pill in hand.

Just now, Haoden Ye had dipped the silver needle on the rejuvenation pill for a while, allowing the medicine to penetrate into the girl's body.

The rejuvenation pills will act as a repair to the body, just in time to increase the effect.

Of course, the girl couldn't fix those potholes on her own in a short time.

But he still understands the truth of a white girl covering a hundred uglies, and as long as he makes the girl white, it's those potholes that no one will notice.

After all, the girl had a good bottom.

Washing her face, the girl lifted her head.

For a moment, the girl stayed still.

The girl in the mirror had fair skin, though not exactly smooth, but looked very red and shiny.

The features that she used to hate herself were starting to look beautiful.

“Is this...is this me?”

The girl couldn't believe her eyes a little and pinched her face band hard.

A red mark appeared and the girl felt the pain.

Before it was too late to get excited, Haoden Ye's voice rang out.

“Okay, three minutes are up, let's show you the results!”

Laughing, Haoden Ye took the girl out.

“No...I...I want to get ready!”

I don't know why, but with such a pretty face out in public, the girl was actually a little nervous.

With a helpless smile, Haoden Ye could only go out by himself.

And by this time, Lombosi had finished his physical therapy.

Looking at the girl unconscious and disheveled on the bed, Long Bo Xi smiled at the corner of his mouth.

“Or such a young girl, it's just a pity she's not a virgin!”

Shaking his head and sighing, Longbottom stubbed out the burning smoke and began to work on the girl's clothes.

Quickly, the girl on the bed opened her eyes.

“I'm sorry I fell asleep, but your physiotherapy was so comfortable!”

The girl didn't feel anything unusual, and the first thing she did when she woke up was to try to see how she had changed.

Hurriedly sitting up in bed, the girl ran over to the mirror.

“It’s amazing, I’m... I’m turning white!And it’s white!”

The girl was darker-skinned, but now she’s very fair!

“Master Long, you’re amazing!”

The girl looked at Long Bo Xi with gratitude, as if she was willing to die the next second Long Bo Xi asked her to.

What about the girl who doesn’t want to see her prettiest moments?

When the two of them left the room, Haoden Ye just happened to be out of the room as well.

Seeing Haoden Ye come out, Long Bo Xi revealed a look of surprise.

He didn’t expect that Haoden Ye would also physiotherapy so quickly.

But when he saw that there was no one behind Haoden Ye, Long Bo Xi revealed a look of contempt.

The girl behind him had already been unable to resist a sneer.

“Well, you can’t do anything and you’re still pretending, it didn’t work and people girls don’t want to come out, right?”

Ignoring them, Haoden Ye walked straight out.

Longbottom had an absurd smile on his face.

I never thought this young man would dare to call himself out on this.

He thought that although Haoden Ye couldn’t achieve the same effect as himself, at least relying on his pointing skills, he could make the girl change slightly.

When the three of them left the physiotherapy clinic, all the girls looked surprised to see the faces of the girls who were being physio’d by Long Pahi.

“I can’t believe the effect is so obvious, her skin has really gotten better eh!”

“I can’t believe it only took three minutes to reach this effect, but what if we spent a year here in physical therapy?”

“Master Long, you haven’t given anyone physical therapy yet!”

At one point, all the girls surrounded Longbush.

They were afraid that Long Pahi would become famous later and their faces would not have a chance to line up.

They were willing to become beautiful even if they offered their bodies if they could win the favor of Longpoix now.
