

Chapter 486

“Kin, don’t be rude in front of your Uncle Liang!”

The old man sulked and glared at the young man.

“That’s what I’m talking about, your illness can’t be cured, and you don’t take painkillers!”

The young man named Kin left his mouth open, unfazed by the old man’s rebuke.

“Haha, in the blink of an eye, Kin is also a famous doctor, I remember when we were fighting in Taiwan, he was just a three-year-old kid!”

Liang Sanquan was not angry at the young man’s rudeness, but instead smiled.

“Old Liang, let’s not even talk about the past, haven’t we been co-opted now?”

Sighing, the old man’s eyes became darker.

“After so much time has passed, your reputation as the Three Eyes Shade Pass is still strong, I went to Taiwan last year and asked about you on the road, many old people remember you!”

With a smile, Liang Sanquan's face also had a hint of nostalgia.

“Oh, I've been in seclusion for years, I don't care about these vain names, if it wasn't for what you Liang Sanquan asked for, I wouldn't have come out!”

Rubbing his arm, Shade sighed.

“Hmph, that's because you didn't do anything, if you did, Uncle Liang's matter would have been resolved already!”

A look of pride appeared on Ken's face.

It was at this moment that a cry of pain came.

When the three of them turned their heads at the same time, they saw Xu Feng running over holding onto Roark's enemy.

At this time, Luo Ke Enemy's face was blue-purple and filled with pain.

All three of them were very surprised who could beat him up with Roark's kung fu.

Are they going to attack first?

Liang Sanquan hurriedly stood up and quickly walked over to Roque Enemy.

“What happened, didn’t I tell you to go get Dr. Yap?Why are you fighting people!”

Liang Sanquan spoke in a reprimanding tone as he examined his injuries.

After just two glances, Liang Sanquan’s face changed slightly.

This injury...was clearly not the hand of an ordinary person.

It really was the gang that had struck first, but they had beaten up Roark Enemy like this.

Furious in his heart at the same time, Liang Sanquan hurriedly pressed on Luo Ke Enemy’s arm.

“Master, I went to invite Dr. Ye, but I never thought he wouldn’t come, so I fought him in anger, and as a result...”

Luo Ke Enemy endured the pain and let Liang San Quan catch his bones, explaining with his mouth full.

“Well?”

Hearing this, Liang Sanquan’s hands moved.

Shade, who had followed, also looked surprised.

“You say that Dr. Yeh inflicted this injury on you?”

Liang Sanquan did not continue to heal his wounds, but looked surprised.

“Master, hurry up and heal Old Luo’s wounds, look at his pain!”

Xu Feng’s face was anxious.

Although he was mentally surprised at how Haoden Ye had beaten Liang Sanquan like this, but Luo Ke Enemy’s injuries were important.

“Why did Dr. Yap fight you?”

Liang Sanquan frowned, still in no hurry to heal Luo Ke Enemy’s wounds.

Enduring the excruciating pain, Roch’s enemy spoke of the passing.

Hearing him finish, Liang Sanquan's face darkened.

"You brat, how many times have I taught you that you should have the most basic courtesy towards others, how can you be so abrupt, who is Dr. Ye? It's your master's savior, people are willing to come, it's to give us face, who told you to invite them like that?"

Liang Sanquan angrily rebuked Luo Ke Enemy in a tone that was surprisingly harsher than ever before.

He's getting really angry this time.

He had already seen that Haoden Ye was not an ordinary person, so he never dared to treat Haoden Ye as an ordinary person.

And this time, I'm afraid that no one but Haoden Ye could cure his own good friend's illness.

He was still counting on Haoden Ye to help him, and Luo Ke Enemy had even offended someone with a few words.

"Old Liang, let's treat Little Luo first!"

At this point, Shade came over and spoke up to advise.

When his old friend spoke up, Liang Sanquan could only temporarily suppress his anger, and his arms pushed hard, clicking his bones together.

Slowly panting, Liang Sanquan wiped the sweat from his forehead, "Hmph, do you know the lesson this time? That's me, another person to splice your bones, and you'll lose this arm!"

Hearing his words, Xu Feng and Luo Ke Enemy both turned pale.

"It's just a regular dislocated joint, give me the device and I can connect it!"

At this time, the young man, Ken, came over, his face full of unconcern.

The two old gentlemen turned their heads to look at him at the same time and shook their heads.

"Kin, this isn't a simple dislocation of a joint, but the other party used a very clever force to entangle Ro's joints and tendons right there together!"

Shugan walked up to Roque Enemy and pointed at a bruise on his arm, "Look, this force not only hurt Roque's joints, but also damaged his muscles, although it's not known, but the wrong force was used when splicing the bones, and it will pull the tendon!"

Hearing his words, Xu Feng and Luo Ke Enemy both turned pale.

But Ken still had an unconcerned look on his face.

Liang Sanquan was no longer concerned about Luo Ke Enemy's injuries, but frowned, "I never thought that Doctor Ye is not only a skilled doctor, but also a skilled escapist!"

Saying that, he turned his head to Roark's enemy, "He used a few tricks to defeat you!"

Luo Ke Enemy's face reddened at the news and lowered his head, "He... just used one move, and I was just overpowered by him!"

The crowd was dumbfounded at his return.

Luo Ke En, however, had learned boxing from Liang Sanquan since he was a child, and the difference between his boxing skills and Liang Sanquan's was not too great, not to mention that he was green and blue.

It was Liang Sanquan himself, trying to subdue him wouldn't work without three to two minutes, and Haoden Ye actually defeated Luo Ke Enemy in just an instant.

If it wasn't for the fact that it was his apprentice who was speaking, Liang Sanquan wouldn't have wanted to believe it!

“You...you’re telling the truth, he defeated you with just one move?”

It’s Shade, and he doesn’t quite believe the words of the Roche enemy anymore.

“Yes!It only took one move, although I wasn’t prepared, but even if I was, I’m afraid I wouldn’t be a match for him, he was very quick to strike, and just touching me, I lost all my strength!”

Roche Enemy hurried.

“Grappling Hand, Pointing Point, Wing Chun!”

Shade Guan’s eyes narrowed just listening to the description of Roche Enemy.

“I can’t believe it, just knowing one of the hands, attention is awe-inspiring, this young man is proficient in all three, especially the pointing, which has long been lost in my Huaxia!”

Shade talked a little, and did not fail to marvel at it.

“Yes, since Qianlong destroyed martial arts, many of the secrets of the Chinese treasures have disappeared, and I can’t believe that these kung fu techniques are still being learned now!”

Liang Sanquan also sighed.

The two old men looked at each other and said at the same time, "Let's go meet him!"

"Uncle Liang, Uncle Hu, even if he learns martial arts well, he won't need the two old gentlemen to go personally, you are both the pillars of our Chinese martial arts, invite him a junior and I'll go!"

Chapter 487

The two old men looked at each other and laughed bitterly at the same time.

If you go, you'll make things even more complicated.

Without hesitation, the two old men got into the car and quickly headed to Haoden Ye's company.

Unfortunately, Haoden Ye wasn't in the company right now.

"Master, your method of refining poison is a wonderful secret!"

Looking inside the fireplace, a pill was immediately formed, and Ma Rulai smiled excitedly.

“Oh, you’re a quick learner too, I originally thought it would take you a month to learn this kind of poison!”

Haoden Ye listened and smiled.

Through these days, Haoden Ye gradually realized that Ma Rulai’s obsession with poisons completely outweighed his love for money.

The person himself is not bad, or there is no such personal term as good or bad within him.

The only thing he likes is refining poison, and the most poisonous obsessions are as obsessive as some people’s obsession with money.

This obsession requires a lot of money to buy rare herbs and some lost formulas.

Once he got it from his own hands, Ma Ruoxi didn’t care about the outside world.

This recipe, Haoden Ye originally thought that it would take him a month to refine it, but unexpectedly it took him two weeks to learn it.

“Master is overpraised, if I didn’t have Master’s guidance, I’m afraid I might not be able to refine this rare poison even after giving me ten years!”

Turning on the furnace, Ma Rulai took out the poison and held it in his hand, lovingly looking at it like an old man looking at his precious grandson.

“Alright, I’ll teach you the next poison right away, the potency is different from this medicine, a little more neutral, but the cost is very low, the herbs needed are...”

Haoden Ye was about to teach him a poison when a voice suddenly sounded outside.

“Is Master Ye here?”

Haoden Ye frowned when he heard it was Liang Sanquan’s voice.

Truth be told, he didn’t hate Liang Sanquan.

He’s also not a nuisance to Rocky’s enemies.

But Rocky’s enemy’s temper, he really didn’t like it.

Such a temper, even if he could tolerate it, he would be offended by it in the future.

This time he had indulged himself, who would he offend next time?

Moreover, barging into his bedroom early in the morning did not respect his privacy in the slightest, which also made Haoden Ye very upset.

And he was so rude to Maya Shen....

Thinking of this, Haoden Ye's heart was annoyed.

"Master, someone is calling you!"

Seeing Haoden Ye stunned, Ma Ruorai cautiously reminded him.

"Ah...oh...you go out and get rid of it!"

Without looking up, Haoden Ye turned to go to the pharmacy to prepare herbs.

Ma Rulai was accustomed to observing people's words, and knew at a glance that Haoden Ye didn't like these people very much.

What the Master didn't like, Ma Ruora cared even less about.

Stepping away from the fireplace, Ma Ru arrived inside the pharmacy.

Eye sweeping the few people who came, Ma Rulai's heart was slightly shocked, within the five people who came, three young ones not to mention, these two old people were all practitioners ah.

As he sized up the three men, all three were looking at him as well.

It was seen that this old man was dressed in ordinary clothes, but there was an overbearing pride in his brows.

With years of experience in running the world, both old men could see that the old man in front of them was not simple!

Not only is it uncomplicated, but it is very uncomplicated!

“Hello, is Mr. Yeh there?”

Liang Sanquan hurriedly took a step forward and spoke in a very respectful manner.

Seeing him whispering to an old man, Ken frowned.

“Where's your store manager? Let him out!”

Ken was mentally unhappy and took a step forward.

“Ken, you back off!”

Shade gave Kin a hard stare.

“I told you my master is no more, are you deaf?”

Ma Rulai was already impatient, but seeing Jian speak rudely, his face darkened even more.

“Stinky old man, who are you talking to, my Uncle Liang personally came to invite you, how much face your boss has, not even coming out to see you!”

Kin immediately stepped forward, his face angry.

He would be angry, there were reasons for being slighted by Ma Rulai, and even more so because of Li Daniu.

Li Daniu was straightforward and only recognized Haoden Ye.

The rude arrival of Roque’s enemy this morning had already made him feel unhappy.

When Liang Sanquan and the others went, Li Daniu saw that Liang Sanquan and Shuguan were magnanimous, and didn't dare to speak too rudely, but words of sarcasm were still inevitable.

Don't think he's straightforward, but he's a good talker.

Kin is another smart guy, and Lee Da Niu gave a hairy speech in two words!

But he didn't care to be angry with a rough man like Li Daniu, and now that he saw Ma Rulai, he finally couldn't help it.

"Kid, keep your mouth shut, you said the same thing about my master!"

The cold light in Ma Rulai's eyes flashed and his tone was icy.

"What? I'll just be rude to him and what can..."

Ken smirked as he listened.

But he hadn't finished his sentence, and his figure was retreating.

Shugan and Liang Sanquan had wanted to stop him, but when they saw him retreating they hurriedly held on.

One more look at his face and the look on his face was all over the place!

Luo Ke Enemy and Xu Feng, who followed, saw Jian and their faces changed.

At this time, Kin was yellow and blue, his lips were purple and he was trembling.

“Jiangbei Ma Clan... you’re a member of the Ma Clan!”

Liang Sanquan has traveled all over the world, and although he doesn’t know this poison, he knows that who else but the Ma family in Jiangbei would be able to do it so unnoticed?

“Oh, I can’t believe you know about the Jiangbei Ma family, it seems like you’re also a brother running on the road!”

Maru was a bit surprised though.

“Brother, we don’t mean any harm this time, we just want to ask Master Ye for a favor, if Master Ye doesn’t want to see us we can come next time, I hope brother will forgive us!”

Liang Sanquan hurried forward and cupped his fists in respect.

“Huh?If you disrespect me, it’s fine, but if you dare to disrespect my master, it’s not too much to kill you!”

Snorting, the horse’s eyes tried to shine with contempt.

In his eyes, a few human lives were like a few roots of grass.

Upon hearing his words, Liang Sanquan and Shugan were both shocked.

The expert that Ma Rulai used poison so much was actually Haoden Ye’s disciple.

Not to mention the fact that there was such a big difference in age between the two, let’s just say that Ma Rulai’s skill in using poison, even if they ran into it, they would be afraid, and such a character was actually Haoden Ye’s disciple!

Adding his chilling name of the Jiangbei Ma Family made the two men almost forget about the poisoned Kin even more.

“Doctor Ye, Little Luo was disrespectful to you this morning, I, Liang Sanquan, apologize here, and I hope you will be merciful and spare my disciple’s life!”

Knowing that Ma Rulai was Haoden Ye’s disciple, Liang Sanquan was relieved.

Haoden Ye was a person he knew, definitely not someone who treated human life with straw.

Sure enough, with such a shout, a silhouette rushed out from inside!

Chapter 488

Coming out of the prescription, Haoden Ye was anxious.

He thought that Ma Ruorai had followed him for so long that he would no longer have such contempt for life, but he still struck out so impulsively.

Just before he reached Jian, Haoden Ye pulled out a silver needle and stuck it without saying a word.

“Who are you and what are you doing to me!”

Jian’s face changed when he saw that Haoden Ye was going to give him a needle.

He thought that Haoden Ye was here to harm him too!

“I’m suffering from heavy metal poisoning, get me to the hospital!”

Jian desperately pushed Haoden Ye away, pulling Liang Sanquan’s clothes.

Ignoring him, Haoden Ye stabbed down with a silver needle.

In a few moments, Ken’s face looked a little more restored.

After detoxifying Jian, Haoden Ye turned his head, his face gloomy as he said to Ma Rulai, “Didn’t I tell you that you’re not allowed to poison others at will?”

Ma Rulai was reprimanded by him, but regardless of getting angry, he quickly lowered his head and looked reverent, “They were disrespectful to you, Master, I just gave him a little lesson, I have the antidote here!”

But now it seems that his antidote won’t be needed.

Seeing how Ma Rulai was so tame to Haoden Ye, Liang Sanquan and Shade Guan both had incredulous looks on their faces.

The Jiangbei Ma family has always been the king of hell on the road, and whoever they want to kill usually doesn't live past the next day.

Such a person had such respect for Haoden Ye!

“Doctor Yeh, I'm so sorry, but Ro was so rude to you this morning!”

Seeing that Kin was much better, Liang Sanquan handed him over to Xu Feng and Luo Ke Enemy.

As soon as his eyes swept over Luo Ke Enemy, Haoden Ye's face went cold again.

“No need, who am I Haoden Ye, I don't need the two of you to be so respectful!”

With a faint word, Haoden Ye walked inside.

Having been taught a lesson by Haoden Ye, and having seen Ma Rulai's strange poisoning techniques, Luo Ke Enemy's arrogance had gone halfway.

At this point, seeing Haoden Ye leaving, he hurried forward with a respectful face and said, “Doctor Ye, I'm sorry for this morning, and I promise you that I won't be so abrupt again!”

His tone was sincere, but it made Haoden Ye pace.

Slowly turning around, Haoden Ye looked much better.

Liang Sanquan hurried forward and smiled, "Doctor Ye is generous, don't get along with him, we have come to invite Mr. Ye to our humble abode today, we hope that Mr. Ye will appreciate us!"

People were so invited, so Haoden Ye naturally didn't take a stand.

Nodding lightly, Haoden Ye's face was respectful.

"Fine, I'll explain a few things to my apprentice and then I'll go with you!"

Haoden Ye turned around to look for Ma Rulai, but Liang Sanquan held him back.

"Mr. Ye, let this Mr. Ma come along, we can't afford not to get acquainted with the Jiangbei Ma family now that we've met them!"

Ma Ruorai raised his head slightly at the news, a few smug looks on his face.

In the midst of the four of them laughing, Kin had recovered a lot of his color.

Seeing Liang Sanquan and the others treating Haoden Ye with such respect, he immediately had a look of displeasure on his face.

“Well, what kind of doctor is he, he only uses poison to harm people!”

With a glance at Jian, Haoden Ye smiled slightly.

Whirling around, he pointed at Shade Pass and smiled, “This old man should have had a sore shoulder for a long time!”

Rao already knew Haoden Ye’s medical skills, and at this time Liang Sanquan and Shuguan were still exceptionally surprised after hearing his words.

With just a glance, Haoden Ye had even seen the condition!

Shade seemed to see hope for a cure and quickly said, “Good, I went to the hospital and the doctor said it’s a muscle strain in the shoulder and it’s never going to get better!”

“Well, what’s wrong with seeing it? I can see that too!”

Ken was still unconvinced.

“Good, it’s impossible to treat it!”

Ignoring Jian, Haoden Ye nodded lightly to Shade.

At the news, Liang Sanquan and Shade Guan both had disappointed looks on their faces.

“Well, I told you, what kind of doctor is he, he can’t even cure it, I would have told you to take painkillers!”

Jian sneered, his words filled with disdain for Haoden Ye.

“This gentleman please wait for me to finish, I say it’s impossible to recover, after all Shade is getting old, but it’s possible to stop the pain if you want to!”

Hearing him say that, Liang Sanquan and Shade Guan had a look of surprise on their faces.

But Jian sneered, his face disdainful, “Bragging who can’t, I’ve been studying this disease for months and there’s no cure, you can treat it? If you can cure it, I’ll give you three barking lessons on the spot!”

Hearing this, Shade Guan and Liang Sanquan had unpleasant looks on their faces.

Kin liked to be competitive since childhood, they were clear about that, they just didn't expect that he would dare to provoke Haoden Ye on this occasion.

Smiling slightly, Haoden Ye didn't argue with him, but pulled out a silver needle and quickly stabbed the Three Gods on Shugan's shoulder.

It was a quick intake and release, and Shade didn't even react.

When he came back to his senses, he only felt a warm surge in his shoulders.

He soon realized that his arm didn't seem to hurt anymore.

"My arm, it doesn't hurt anymore!"

Surprise showed on his face, and Shade shook his arm vigorously.

Watching the scene, Ken was stunned as well.

But soon he thought of something.

“Did you... did you cut off Master Shade’s pain nerves!”

So fast that it could only cut off Shade’s nerves of pain.

And the silver needle that Haoden Ye used had just the same effect.

Hearing his words, Shade Guan and Liang San all tightened in deep color.

If Haoden Ye’s method was damaging to Shade’s body then the treatment would be better than no treatment at all.

Shaking his head and smiling bitterly, Haoden Ye also had a headache for this competitive young man.

“Did your hospital examination earlier see a lump in the blood vessels of Master Shade’s arm, so it was concluded that he was suffering from localized muscle necrosis!”

Hearing Haoden Ye’s words, Shade Guan and the others nodded their heads in a row.

The doctor had given himself a diagnosis that Shade was still very aware of.

Ken smiled disdainfully and nodded lightly, “So what if it is? Localized muscle necrosis will not affect mobility, but the pain will always be there and will not go away due to damage to the nerve endings!”

“Oh, that’s the error of your inspection, people who practice martial arts, their arm acupoints expand very strongly, especially the elderly, their acupoints expand, and they are easily attacked by external air currents!”

Saying that, Haoden Ye pointed at Shade’s shoulder.

“And Master Shade’s arm is the one that received the cold invasion, while his body’s blood is strong, the cold current condensed on his arm, unable to disperse, it formed a lump, and the muscle partially died in the morning!”

After hearing Haoden Ye’s theory, everyone revealed a look of astonishment.

Ken, on the other hand, was smirking.

He doesn’t move Chinese medicine, but it is clear that it is acupuncture, meridian science, but merely the interaction of blood vessels and the nervous system.

To be clear, among the medical effects of acupuncture, most of them are psychological suggestion effects.
