

Chapter 495

“Honey, don’t you need to explain this to me?”

Dangerous sounds came out of Maya Shen’s mouth.

“Er... it’s better to go down and take a look,” Haoden Ye’s face was also a bit embarrassed.

What neon women, he didn’t even know.

In order to prove his innocence, he specifically pulled on Maya Shen.

The three of them went downstairs together.

At the entrance to the building, a kimono-clad Nakaten Lily knelt on the floor, a suitcase beside her.

She was surrounded by a crowd of people watching the show and pointing at her.

However, Midian Lily turned a deaf ear and just quietly ambled to the ground.

“Miss Midian!”

Seeing her at the door, Haoden Ye looked very surprised.

Maya Shen's gaze also fell on the Midheaven Lily, frowning slightly.

This girl was pretty, but looking at her like this, she shouldn't be Haoden Ye's love debt outside.

What kind of man comes to a lover, in this way?

The people around them saw the couple come out and pointed.

Without exception, Haoden Ye became the scum of the earth in everyone's eyes!

"Mr. Ye, please take me as your disciple!"

Seeing Haoden Ye come out, Midian Lily raised her head and shouted in a respectful tone.

"Huh?Apprentice?"

Hearing her words, the people on the left and right of the room were dumbfounded.

“Are they Neon Nation people so polite when they worship their master, and they have to kneel!”

“Tsk, if you don’t want to say that people take etiquette very seriously, what era is this, kneeling so politely!”

For a time, the voices of discussion resounded.

Haoden Ye was also very surprised at the behavior of the Midheaven Lily.

“Miss Midian, get up now!”

Haoden Ye hurried forward, trying to pull the Midian Lily up.

“No, if Master Ye won’t promise me, I’ll just keep kneeling!”

Midian Lily looked determined, kneeling on the ground and just not getting up.

Seeing this scene, Maya Shen also smiled bitterly.

But she was also very happy that her own husband was so respected.

“Haoden Ye, if she is so sincere, just take her as your disciple, don’t you always say that you want to promote our Chinese culture, this is considered cultural export!”

With a heated smile, Maya Shen also stepped forward to persuade.

Upon hearing this, Haoden Ye also smiled bitterly.

How could he take on a disciple if he didn’t know what the Midian Lily was like?

“Teaching you kung fu is fine, but paying homage is not!”

Haoden Ye could only half promise.

Hearing his words, a smug smirk appeared on the corner of Midian Lily’s mouth.

“Well, follow him, I can outmatch his wife if I use a little tact!”

Looking up at Maya Shen, Midian Lily was even more proud.

“In our neon country, wives are not allowed to order their husbands in business or they will be ridiculed, but how can this woman fight me if she orders her own husband?”

Standing up from the ground, Haoden Ye was about to walk inside with Zhong Tian Lily.

An angry voice rang out.

“Haoden Ye, what’s going on, who is this woman!”

When Haoden Ye turned his head, he saw Milda Hao angrily walking over.

Upon seeing her, both Maya Shen and Haoden Ye looked bitter.

“Mom, you misunderstood, this Miss Midian Lily is here to pay homage to Haoden Ye as her master!”

Maya Shen hurried forward to clarify the misunderstanding.

“Worshipping a teacher, what does a girl like her worship, I think there’s something going on here!”

Milda Hao’s look was suspicious and stared at Haoden Ye closely.

Haoden Ye couldn't help but laugh bitterly and quickly said, "Mom, this Miss Lily and I only met yesterday, and I competed with her father yesterday!"

After saying that, he turned his head to look at Midian Lily.

Midian Lily was now proud of herself.

A bad-tempered wife and a bad-tempered mother-in-law... looks like there's no pressure on her this time.

"This granny, you've really misunderstood, I'm a martial arts enthusiast who truly loves Master Ye...!"

She purposely pulled a long tune, obviously trying to create a misunderstanding.

Unfortunately, her Chinese was really bad, and Milda Hao spoke with an accent herself, so it was impossible to hear the meaning of her words.

With a suspicious glance up and down at her, Milda Hao snorted.

"Okay, let me believe you can too, hurry up and have the baby with Haoden Ye, are there any of you who are such children? Your mother has to rush your own important matters..."

Milda Hao tugged at her voice and started preaching mode again.

Maya Shen blushed pretty red and pulled her mother, “Mom, let’s go in and talk!”

“Go in there and say, “Don’t you dare do it afraid people will listen.”

Milda Hao grabbed her and pointed at Maya Shen and Haoden Ye to the crowd of onlookers, “Look at what this young couple did, I just persuaded them to have a child, who knew they moved out of the house and left our old couple at home!”

“We worked hard to feed them growing up, and now that we’re old, what’s the point of thinking that we want to see our grandchildren, and this one as children won’t even agree to it, so tell us if they’re doing the right thing.”

Usually Milda Hao was also a dignified and good-looking person, but today she suddenly transformed into a fierce woman, and Haoden Ye was dumbfounded.

Now look, Milda Hao is also open-minded and doesn’t want to lose face for the sake of her grandson.

The crowd around her nodded their heads at her words.

“How do you do your children without a queen!”

“My son was in his early twenties and I told him to give me grandchildren and he had them right away, so parents must be attentive to their children’s education...”

Watching the fun wasn’t afraid of anything, and soon Haoden Ye and Maya Shen became the most evil people in the eyes of the crowd.

“Mom!”

Maya Shen was so angry and anxious that tears came out of her eyes.

“Don’t you dare call me mother, if you promise today, I’ll recognize you as my daughter, if not, I’m not your mother!”

Having said that, both Haoden Ye and Maya Shen’s faces stiffened.

If the old man is serious, his perseverance and perseverance are no joke.

At this time, Haoden Ye’s cell phone suddenly rang.

Haoden Ye, as if he had been pardoned, hurried to answer the phone under the guise of being busy.

On the other end of the phone, it was actually Sun Qian's voice.

"Hey, Big Boss, something's happened at the herb base!"

Haoden Ye's face changed as soon as he heard it.

The main herb for his Jade Dew Pill was Rock Flower, and if something happened to the herb base, it would mean that he would have to stop producing his herbs.

Of course, Haoden Ye wasn't short of money, except that the Jade Dew Pill was discontinued, and there was no telling how many people were going to suffer.

"What is it, take your time!"

After sniffing his mind, Haoden Ye spoke in a low tone.

"I can't tell you right now, so hurry to our house, and I'll be right back!"

Sun Qian hung up the phone after saying that.

"What's going on?"

Maya Shen saw that Haoden Ye looked grave and hurriedly said.

“Something’s happened at the herb base, I have to go there quickly!”

Haoden Ye looked pale.

“Something happened at the base?I’m coming with you!”

Maya Shen looked solemn and also hurried.

Chapter 496

“Honey, don’t you need to explain this to me?”

Chapter 497

“Haoden Ye, Maya, you two come back here!”

Not waiting for his mother-in-law to continue, Haoden Ye and Maya Shen escaped and got into the car.

The road sped up to the medicinal herb production base in the village of Little Stone.

The herb base had been built on a very large scale by this time.

The center of the road leading to the herb base was refurbished, some railings were built around it, and small mobile buildings were thickened.

This was Haoden Ye’s suggestion, a cold storage could be put in the small building to store the herbs.

At this time, there was a group of people blocking the entrance to the herbal base.

“Xiao Qian, it’s not that Third Brother doesn’t give you face, you used our family’s land, you can’t refuse to pay a bit of money, can you!”

At this moment, a man with a two-pointed moustache was laughing at Sun Qian.

He was followed by a group of red...Men with naked arms, each with a rogue's face.

“Sango, our way through your land, it's okay for you to ask for money, but five million is a bit much when you ask!”

Sun Qian was now furious, but tried to suppress her anger and spoke calmly.

“Lao San, you're clearly blackmailing people, are you looking at us Sun family members as easy to bully!”

At this time Sun Wei came out from behind Sun Qian, his face angry.

“Hey, Sun Wei, don't think you're great just because you have two sticks of strength, but if you're not happy, you'll hit me, huh?”

Third Brother, however, was not afraid at all, then pinched his chin and he smiled, “Xiao Qian, you're a big star now, surely you don't lack for money, we little people want this amount of money, you surely don't care, right!”

Sun Qian looked embarrassed, she was famous now, but Director Wu didn't pay much for her performance.

Director Wu's film is good, but it's not very popular in the acting world and uses newcomers.

Who's watching these days without a big star to back it up!

"Third Brother, you're clearly being unreasonable, this is a barren mountain, is your piece of land worth anything? Also, it seems like the herb base wasn't built worth anything, and that land wasn't contracted by you either!"

At this time, a villager came out, looking angry.

"Hehe, if you say so, I'll tell you plainly, I'm here to ask for money today!"

Sango saw that he had made things so clear, so he didn't hide it.

"Your herb base makes millions of dollars a year! Let's not ask you to give us a piece of meat, but a bite of soup is always fine."

He spoke matter of factly, as if he was at a disadvantage for not eating a piece of meat.

"Surnamed Ma, this base is the lifeblood of our village. You're cutting off our village's way of life. If you keep making trouble, I'll spell it out for you!"

One villager, unable to watch, came out angry and raised a shovel in his hand.

Sango saw his anger and a look of dread on his face, and even retreated inside the crowd.

“Well, want to hit someone, do you? It turns out that you people of Little Stone Village are all quite unreasonable, occupying people’s land and beating them up, I’m going to tell the media and expose you!”

Saying that, he pointed at Sun Qian, “And her, bullying people just because she’s an actress!”

Upon hearing this, everyone from Little Stone Village revealed a look of anger.

There’s really nothing they can do about such a scoundrel.

At this time, Haoden Ye and Maya Shen had already gotten out of the car, and when they heard this conversation, Haoden Ye revealed a look of anger.

“What are you doing!”

Walking behind the gang, Haoden Ye shouted angrily.

A group of people turned around, and Sun Qian and the others looked over, surprise on their faces.

When Haoden Ye came, it seemed that their main heartbeat was here.

“Yeh!”

“Ye old man!”

Sun Qian and Sun Wei Shuang came through the crowd, their faces surprised.

And that third brother came over.

“Oh my, this is the big boss in town, isn’t it!”

Sango’s face was full of flattering smiles, not at all sardonic just now.

After greeting Sun Qian and Sun Wei, Haoden Ye frowned and said, “What are you guys doing, we rented the land for this medicinal herb base from Factory Director Zhang, if you have a land dispute, you should go to Factory Director Zhang!”

“Ouch, why is Big Boss so mean!”

As soon as he saw that Haoden Ye didn't have any intention of paying, Third Brother's face turned sour again.

“Hey, hey, we don't want money for this land, the way your herbal base went down the mountain and through my land, you tell me if I should ask for money or not!”

Hearing his words, Haoden Ye was slightly stunned.

Sun Qian just now wanted to explain the situation first, but helplessly Haoden Ye opened his mouth first.

Seeing Haoden Ye's confusion at this point, she quickly explained.

It turns out that although the herbal base is affiliated with Little Stone Village, the location of the land is too remote.

It was already a wilderness area and there was no contract at all.

So the road down the mountain from the herbal base was also built by the villagers themselves.

One piece of the road goes through the next village.

And this third brother, who was from the next village, saw that there was money to be made at the herb base, so he contracted the land through which the road passed, and then set up a barrier and went down the mountain and asked for money.

Upon hearing this situation, Haoden Ye's mouth immediately revealed a cold smile.

Such people are not uncommon.

It's just that there will be a lot of it on the web.

After some netizens become famous, some people will register his nickname before others and then send legal letters to people stating that the nickname should not be used.

Netflix has no choice but to pay in order to ensure their popularity.

This is the kind of empty-handed trick I never thought I'd run into.

"Oh, so that's how it is, in that case, we won't walk on your land, that's always okay!"

Hearing his words, Sun Wei looked tense.

Pulling Haoden Ye, Sun Wei whispered, “Brother Ye, the road down the mountain must pass through that land, otherwise there’s no other spacious place, our medicinal herbs transportation process needs to be refrigerated, so we have to use big trucks to transport them down!”

Usually carts don’t have freezers, or the freezer isn’t cold enough and can easily spoil the herbs.

Smiling slightly, Haoden Ye shook his head at him, indicating that he could handle it.

And Third Brother didn’t expect Haoden Ye to say that, and his face darkened.

The land was barren, and he contracted it for five or six thousand a year.

If Haoden Ye didn’t pay, his five or six thousand would be wasted.

“Boss Ye, you’ve got guts!”

With a cold snort, San glanced viciously at Haoden Ye and beckoned, “Let’s go, I don’t see how he can open this herb base without a way down the mountain!”

Saying that, Sango led the men down the mountain in a mighty manner.

“Boss Ye, you’re too impulsive, we can’t get down the mountain without that road!”

“That’s right, Boss Ye isn’t trying to shut down this base, it’s the lifeblood of our village!”

As soon as Sango left, a group of villagers surrounded him.

And then Sun Qian and Sun Wei were also looking at Haoden Ye with sad faces, feeling that he was saying this too abruptly.

In that case, wouldn’t that be the end of your own path!
