

Chapter 504

It's very rare to see a beautiful woman in a small village like this.

And a beautiful woman like Maya Shen is even more extreme. The best of the best. Product.

How could this lustful man not be a glutton for punishment?

"Hehe, I never thought there would be such a beautiful woman, it seems like we should take more of this Ye, maybe... hehe!"

Thinking about it, he looked arrogant.

"Let me tell you plainly, my brother is the chairman of the County Business Association, and the county committee has a whole lot of connections, so if you want to pick on you, there are plenty of ways to do it!"

The tone was full of pride.

"This is Ma Village Chief, I never thought you'd be more than a mouse's eye, you're also a deer!"

Seeing this person, Maya Shen felt a wave of nausea.

Especially the way he was looking at himself lustfully just now, although well concealed, he couldn't hide from Maya Shen's keen eyes.

Ma Village Chief had thought that by revealing his backstage, even if Haoden Ye wasn't afraid of him, he should at least have some respect for himself.

Although not a national unit, the BPU is a committee of prominent local entrepreneurs who have banded together.

If you go against them, you're going against all the big businessmen in the area. How can you survive?

Who would dare to offend themselves so openly?

I didn't want Maya Shen to not only be offended, but to not take him seriously in her tone.

"Hey, you've got balls!"

Ma Village Chief's eyes were chilly and he sneered, "I was hoping to cooperate with you, but now even if you kneel down and beg me, I won't let you off this herbal base!"

Hearing this, Cheng Feng frowned slightly.

As a local, he also knew how beneficial this herbal base would be to Little Rock.

If this base is built, it might even boost the development of a few surrounding villages.

Economic development in this area has been a challenge.

The local people living in the area have a strong sense of localism and many are reluctant to move out and develop in the big city.

The county commission is sending millions of dollars to the area every year to help the poor, yet there are still many poor households.

The area is a total burden for the county commission.

So he also wanted things to be resolved satisfactorily, and it would be best if Haoden Ye and the Ma Village Chief side apologized and both sides reconciled.

“Ma Village Chief, although Boss Ye is at fault, you are also the village chief for the development of the area, you have an obligation to drive the local economy!”

Cheng Feng hurried over to be the lobbyist.

“Hehe, it’s up to Boss Ye, I don’t want much, eighty percent of the shares, and also, the people who come to work in our village must account for eighty percent!”

Hehehe, the Ma Village Chief looked arrogant.

Hearing this, even Cheng Feng’s face couldn’t help but show anger.

The medicinal herb base was built by people Haoden Ye with money and effort, and now that it’s on a scale, you want to walk away from so much with one sentence, you might as well go and rob it!

“Mayor Ma, aren’t you asking for a little too much!”

Haoden Ye had an angry look on his face.

“No give? That’s fine, reporting me won’t remove it, this herbal base of yours will stop working for now, in a few days... hehe, in a few days when you can start working, I’ll continue to report you!”

A smirk flashed across his face, and Ma Village Chief’s eyes went cold.

“If you want to screw you, I’ve got a way to do it!”

Ma Village Chief said, his face arrogant again.

“How about you’re from town? Here, I’m the old man and you’re the son, I’ll let you know today, what true strength is!”

“Oh? I didn’t think there were such powerful people in this place!”

At this time, a voice suddenly sounded.

The crowd turned their heads, but they saw a few people walking in the distance, and one of the leaders was Zyden.

He was followed by Zou and a few other people that Haoden Ye didn’t know.

Ma Village Chief turned his head in displeasure at the sound of someone interrupting him.

“Who are you?”

“You don’t care who I am!”

Shrugging his shoulders, Zyden faintly left him a glance and walked up to Haoden Ye.

Seeing him come, Haoden Ye was also very happy.

“This Ma Village Chief’s brother is the president of the local business association, and he’s trying to find a way to make my herb base dry right now!”

Hearing his words, Zyden’s eyes shone with a cold light.

“Your brother is the president of the Chamber of Commerce?”

With a sneer, Zyden said to the horse village chief.

Even though he saw that he was dressed in unusual clothes, Ma Village Chief didn’t take Zyden Holander seriously, thinking that he was just a dude.

“Good! Afraid?”

“Oh, I’m really scared!”

With a sneer, Zyden said to Zou, “Speak to the local business association, and tell them to change the chairman immediately, and also, find out which company this chairman company is, tomorrow morning, I don't want this company to still be in our Dan City!"

Zou nodded busily at the news.

Ma Village Chief's entire body was dumbfounded at Zyden Holander's words.

"Who...who the hell are you!"

Mayor Ma asked giddily.

"Oh, I'm nobody, just a social youth, but my dad is the president of the Hongs!"

Zyden smiled and pointed at himself.

Upon hearing this, Ma Village Chief's face went white then.

On the side, Cheng Feng saw this scene and had a smirk on his face.

"Well, if you're not happy about the fact that you're so narrow-minded, and you're asking for 80% of the shares, who's going to die if you don't? If it's only half a percent, they'll see that you're local and consider it as making friends, and they'll give it to you for free!"

“Mr. Holander, I’m from the Bureau of Land Management, the building here is illegal and we have to remove it!”

With a cough, Cheng Feng stepped forward.

He wasn’t originally obligated to tell Zyden, so this was just a reminder to him.

Upon hearing this, Zyden smiled, “Keep it for now, I’ll have my father go to the Bureau of Land Management tomorrow to say hello!”

Demolition of such things, today is demolition, tomorrow is also demolition, anyway, the house can not run.

Usually this kind of thing takes several warnings before the Authority comes along to tear it down if it hasn’t already been done.

It was because Haoden Ye was reported by the Business Federation that they had to come over and tear it down.

Now that Zyden is in charge, who would dare to cause trouble again?

So leave it to Haoden Ye to demolish it himself, or change the nature of land use again, and it’s just a day or two of formalities before and after.

It's the middle of nowhere, and there are no trees, so the formalities are even faster.

"Well then, since Simen said so, I'll take my people with me!"

Waving, Cheng Feng left with his men.

Incidentally, he also had the pale horse village chief dragged along with him.

With all the idle people gone, Zyden immediately had a smile on his face.

"Sister-in-law! Yeh, hey, how's this going?"

It was then that his smile truly looked like that of a young man in his early twenties.

"Thank you, Hon!"

Maya Shen hurried forward, very politely.

The relationship between her husband and Hongzhi is pretty much what she knows now.

Although this young master was a bit odd tempered and didn't have much real power on his hands, but being friends really didn't speak for itself.

Chapter 505

“Why is Simen free to come to our place today!”

With a few pleasantries, Haoden Ye was confused to Zyden Holander.

Upon hearing him say that, Zyden looked embarrassed.

“Yeh, my dad sent me here, he has something for you to do!”

Upon hearing that, Haoden Ye was slightly stunned.

A glance at Zou, but he also looked a little embarrassed.

He sort of understood why Simen Holander wanted Zyden to come.

If you come on your own, you can't really open the door.

It's really hard for him to talk when people are in trouble and you don't help, and now something is wrong and he comes back to them.

“Oh, since it’s Simen who has something to do, honey, you’d better go for a while, I’ll take care of the herb base side!”

Just as Haoden Ye was stunned, Maya Shen pushed him.

The woman was attentive, knew the awkwardness between Haoden Ye and Simen Holander, and very cleverly avoided mentioning Simen Holander.

“Ah!Yes, yes, Zyden wants my help, of course I’ll help!”

Haoden Ye woke up and quickly nodded.

Zyden was delighted and hurriedly pulled Haoden Ye down the mountain.

This side of Zou saw that Haoden Ye agreed and was relieved, his heart secretly gave a thumbs up to Maya Shen.

“Hey, it’s all about finding a wife, why do people have such good taste?”

Thinking of the girlfriend Zyden had found, Zou’s brow furrowed.

He had checked and learned about Zhou Xiaojun's background from where Wu Zongjian had learned about Zhou Juzhen.

For these, Zou is very sad.

The background of a woman who is a big mobster is just too complicated.

If this matter is exposed by the media, it will have a great impact on the Hongs.

Moreover, Zhou Xiaojun's character temperament was not at all the virtuous type.

With another glance at Maya Shen, Zou shook his head and sighed.

Along the way, Haoden Ye also had a basic understanding of the patient's condition.

A few people arrived at the hospital, and Zyden hurried to the ward with Haoden Ye.

At the door of the ward, Simen Holander is waiting while attending to business.

Seeing Haoden Ye coming, Simen Holander hurriedly stood up and came over.

Seeing that CEO Holander had personally moved, the assistant secretary on the side and the rest of Holander's group also stood up with him and ran to Haoden Ye in a grand manner.

"Dr. Yeh, you've finally come!"

When Simen Holander came over, he held Haoden Ye's hand.

The others also sized up Haoden Ye.

Looking to the left and right, Haoden Ye was given a clear view of the crowd, but no one felt that there was anything special about this young man.

Dressing style, a look is the kind of thing you can find on the street.

Without much pleasantries, Haoden Ye entered the hospital room.

On the hospital bed, Zhao Yu was already dying, clearly having out and in breath, almost the equivalent of a dead man.

But Haoden Ye didn't dare to give up and carefully diagnosed carefully.

“Mr. Holander, is this man okay or not!”

Mrs. Zhao was excited at first when she heard that Haoden Ye was coming, but now when she saw Haoden Ye, her face fell.

Naturally, Simen Holander believed in Haoden Ye’s ability, but at this time Zhao Yu was already half-dead, and Simen Holander hesitated.

And then there was a slight commotion in the crowd.

When Holander turned his head, he saw Zhang Chuling walking over.

Zhang Chuling had been having people keep an eye on the ward here, and when she heard that Haoden Ye was here, she rushed over to take a look.

She also wanted to see what kind of person this Haoden Ye, whom Simen Holander had high hopes for, was.

But now seeing Haoden Ye, Zhang Chuling was disappointed.

This is obviously just a private citizen, where does he look like a doctor?

“Mr. Holander, is this man the divine doctor you were talking about?”

Zhang Chu Ling frowned and looked worried.

She now felt that Simen Holander had simply been deceived.

I don't know what method Haoden Ye used to fool Simen Holander, I guess he'll be out asking for money later.

Simen Holander smiled bitterly in his heart and could only manage a nod on his face.

And then Haoden Ye had already made a basic diagnosis, pulling out a silver needle and sticking it in Zhao Yu's heart.

Then he walked quickly to the door.

Once they saw him come out, the crowd looked different.

Some looked tense with anticipation, others frowned with a wary look in their eyes.

He's a miracle doctor who only gave a shot to a patient in emergency?

What kind of therapy is that?

“How’s the situation with Zhao?”

Holander asked nervously.

“It’s pretty much under control, and I’ll make sure he’s fine within three days, but I need to make a pill for him as soon as possible, otherwise he still won’t get better!”

“Alchemy?”

“In three days?”

The crowd whispered at his words.

“You doctor, what nonsense are you talking about, just this one injection made Zhao fine for three days?”

“More alchemy? You were reading a novel, I think you’re sick in the head!”

The speakers were all under Zhao’s command, the business elite that Zhao personally led out.

They have minimum degrees and are all graduate students, and they are very high-minded.

And now Mrs. Zhao's face was gloomy.

"Mr. Holander, this is the divine doctor you're talking about, you're really taking our old Zhao's life for granted!"

Mrs. Jo cried again.

Simen Holander's face darkened when he heard the opposition of so many people.

"All of you, shut up!"

The others are shutting up, but Mrs. Jo is still making a scene.

Simen Holander had a big headache and suddenly skimmed over Zhang Chu Ling who was beside him.

Haoden Ye and Zhang Chuling were both doctors, and both were at the level of divine physicians, so Haoden Ye's words were definitely understandable to Zhang Chuling.

In terms of credibility, Zhang Chuling was clearly more trustworthy than Haoden Ye.

“Dr. Zhang, what do you think of what Dr. Ye said?”

Simen Holander quickly asked Zhang Chu Ling.

For a moment, all eyes turned to Zhang Chu Ling.

He doesn't ask Zhang Chuling, Zhang Chuling all want to expose Haoden Ye, of course he won't help at this point.

“This man should be a liar, I'm afraid the patient will last another three hours at most, given the rate of internal bleeding he's experiencing!”

Hearing his words, everyone revealed an angry look and looked at Haoden Ye together.

But Mrs. Chiu's trouble got worse!

Simen Holander laughed bitterly mentally, thinking that this Dean Zhang is too inept to do anything, even if he said a good word, first stabilize Mrs. Zhao.

Facing the questioning gazes of the crowd, Haoden Ye didn't have any explanation.

He turned his head to Mrs. Zhao and said, "This is the patient's family, isn't it?"

No one paid any attention to his words, only Holander nodded his head.

Haoden Ye smiled slightly and stretched out his hand to quickly point it at Sweetie Zhao's body.

Mrs. Chiu, who was making a scene just now, suddenly rolled her eyes and fell to the ground!

This one change startled everyone.

"What...what did you do to Mrs. Zhao!"

Immediately someone was furious and wanted to take action against Haoden Ye.

And Zhang Chuling was also shocked and rushed over to check on Mrs. Zhao's condition.

With a hasty inspection, Zhang Chu Ling was directly stunned.

Mrs. Chiu was just fainting, nothing happened.

But how exactly did Haoden Ye make her pass out?

You know, just now, Haoden Ye just banged Mrs. Zhao, and she could see clearly that Haoden Ye had nothing in his hands at all.

Even now, Haoden Ye's hand was still empty.

"I just tapped her acupuncture points to get some sleep!"

After explaining to everyone, Haoden Ye quickly said to Simen Holander, "I want a room, a copper furnace, and several medicinal herbs..."

Chapter 506

"It's ridiculous, this is a hospital, not a place for you to engage in feudal superstitions!"

Although I don't know how Haoden Ye made Mrs. Zhao unconscious, Zhang Chuling revealed anger when she heard Haoden Ye's words.

"I don't have time to explain to you!"

Without even looking at Zhang Chuling, Haoden Ye said to Simen Holander, "Can Holander give me ten million immediately? I need to buy a very important herb!"

Upon hearing this, the person who had been surprised because of Haoden Ye's hand just now immediately had a look of anger on his face.

What's that if it's not a scam?

"What kind of doctor are you, and what kind of herbs cost ten million!"

"Hurry up and call the police and arrest this man, he's a liar!"

There was a lot of anger.

Since childhood, Zhang Chuling had never been so ignored by anyone.

And when Haoden Ye said he wanted money, Zhang Chuling's heart was even angrier.

"Outrageous, this is a hospital, a sacred place to heal the sick and save lives, not a place for you to cheat!"

Standing up, Zhang Chuling pointed at the hospital door and raged at Haoden Ye, "Get out of here immediately, or I'll call the police immediately!"

Simen Holander here was also very surprised to hear Haoden Ye's words.

But he didn't think Haoden Ye was scamming money.

He didn't even take a billion dollars he gave him, let alone 10 million?

"Old Zou, call money to Mr. Ye immediately!"

Holander said it as a matter of course, without a hint of hesitation at all.

Everyone was dumbfounded at the words.

What's wrong with Simen Holander, he gave Haoden Ye money when he asked for it?

And then, Zou's words were even more shocking to them.

"The price of herbs has risen recently, I'll give Dr. Ye twenty million!"

He said pulling out his bank card and handing it to Haoden Ye, "There's twenty-five million in here, look at it and use it, it's not enough to make up for it!"

Hearing this, the people around him almost fell head over heels.

Zou was a detective from the past, so even if Holander was confused, he couldn't be confused.

In fact, Zou's insight is well known in the company.

Don't look at his usual hip-hop, no proper line, but his eyes are even more ruthless than Zhanzhao's.

And while his memory is bad, he can never forget the face of a criminal who has seen it once in his life.

Even he believed Haoden Ye!

After receiving the bank card, Haoden Ye didn't say anything more and stepped out.

Watching him leave, Zhang Chuling looked ugly.

No patient's family had ignored her words so much since she had become president.

Haoden Ye is obviously a liar, why would Zou prefer to believe him rather than himself?

“Mr. Holander, why do you trust that liar, if something happens to a patient, our hospital won’t be responsible!”

Zhang Chuling righteously spoke to Simen Holander.

Nodding lightly, Simen Holander quickly apologized to her, “Dean Zhang, I have a good relationship with Dr. Ye and I trust him!”

“Well, whether you believe him or not is your business, the patient’s safety is our hospital’s business, and if you choose not to trust the hospital, the hospital will not be responsible for you!”

Zhang Chuling grumbled in exasperation and turned to a doctor, “Tell the medical team over there that all of Mr. Zhao’s current health conditions are on file for me!”

The tone was harsh and cold.

Here Haoden Ye left the hospital and went straight to the Spiritual Medicine Hall.

“You want to buy a thousand years of ginseng?”

Hearing Haoden Ye’s words, Jiao Yuchun was dumbfounded.

“With the current price of herbs, it’s estimated that this herb will sell for at least twenty million!”

“I know the price is high, otherwise I wouldn’t have come to you to buy it, don’t worry about the money, I have twenty million here!”

Haoden Ye hurriedly said.

“Twenty million...”

Jiao Yuchun was relieved and nodded, “Well, I’ll have someone go get it right away, if you want it 1,500 is fine, I won’t do it if the others don’t have 2,000!”

Hastily ordering someone to go get it, Jiao Yuchun said to Haoden Ye, “What do you need this for, are you going to make some kind of elixir?”

Saying that, he smiled with a treacherous look.

“It’s for healing, but if the patient needs less medicine, I can save some for you!”

Haoden Ye could only helplessly.

Hearing his words, Jiao Yuchun was delighted.

In a short while, the herbs Haoden Ye wanted were ready, and after hurriedly tidying up, Haoden Ye headed to the office.

The ride was so fast that I was lucky not to hit a red light.

Inside the company, Haoden Ye went inside the basement to refine the pills.

And then inside the hospital, Zou looked at his watch and frowned.

“Mr. Holander, that man is a liar, it’s been a whole afternoon and he hasn’t even seen a single person!”

On the side, a group manager looked outraged to Simen Holander.

“Just shut up, can’t you see that Holander is annoyed right now!”

Zou stared at the man with a fierce stare, but his face looked unsure.

He wasn’t worried about Haoden Ye walking away with the money, but what if Haoden Ye really had no choice?

Dang, dang, a sound of high heels.

But then I saw Zhang Chu Ling come over.

At this point she dragged on her lab coat and put on a gorgeous outfit.

Looking up at her, Zou's eyes lit up slightly.

During the day, she was wearing a white lab coat, and her style was naturally fascinating.

But in a casual outfit, she added a bit more of a mature woman's charm.

"Mr. Holander, you haven't come yet, have you? I told you he was a liar, but you didn't believe me!"

Zhang Chuling wasn't surprised that Haoden Ye hadn't returned yet, her face was a reproachful look.

"Dean Zhang, in my opinion, his medical skills are definitely not beneath you!"

At the news, Zou was a bit uncomfortable.

This cheating mouthful of Zhang Chuling made him very upset.

Deep down, he still wanted to treat Haoden Ye as a friend.

Hearing his words, Zhang Chu Ling's face unconsciously revealed a contemptuous sneer.

An amateur doctor, or a herbalist, who heals better than he does?

I'm afraid that if my own former classmates heard this, they would die laughing.

She is one of the youngest deans in Warsaw, and even many medical experts in China are learning from her.

Shaking her head lightly, Zhang Chuling felt that she was simply not of the same world as someone like Zou.

"Hey, it's really hard to talk to these people who don't know anything about medicine."

Seeing that it was getting dark, Zhang Chuling didn't bother talking to them.

"The patient has been in this state for almost two hours, I suggest you contact the morgue side first, it's summer and bodies decompose fast!"

Zhang Chuling didn't bother to take care of these people's emotions and gave advice directly from an academic perspective.

This is a hospital, and bodies without refrigeration tend to breed bacteria.

Upon hearing this, Holander's group's faces were unhappy.

But no one dared to get angry, after all, their own CEO had offended someone first.

"Don't worry, Dr. Ye will be right back, and when he gets here, we won't have to contact the morgue!"
