

Chapter 507

With a soft snort, Zou was always there.

“I really don’t understand why you believe in that liar so much, did he perform some kind of miracle in front of you?”

Seeing his unconvinced look, Zhang Chu Ling became curious instead.

“Anything unusual in this world can be explained by science, and for some people who don’t know anything about medicine, some small medical effect can be considered a miracle!”

Shrugging her shoulders, Chang Chuling was like a teacher who lectured people.

Zou Dahua left his mouth open and was about to speak when a voice suddenly sounded.

“Huh? That kid is back!”

It was someone from his own company who spoke, and from the tone of his voice, he knew it was Haoden Ye who had returned.

Zou Dahua hurriedly turned around and saw Haoden Ye holding a box in his hand and quickly walked over.

“How dare this liar come back!”

“Doesn’t he think the scam money is enough?”

There was a whisper of voices.

And then Zhang Chuling also looked over curiously, but saw that Haoden Ye was holding a box in his hand, which seemed to contain some kind of medicine.

“Dr. Yeh, you’re back!”

Zou Dahua and Simen Holander stood up together and greeted him.

Nodding to the two men, Haoden Ye smiled slightly.

Seeing his confident smile, Zhang Chu Ling frowned.

She didn’t understand why there was such a confident smile on Haoden Ye’s face at this time.

Now that the patient was in critical condition and even she was helpless, did Haoden Ye even have the least bit of worry?

Wasn't he worried that if he couldn't cure General Zhao later, Simen Holander and the others would be angry with him?

With this doubt, Zhang Chuling didn't leave, but instead followed Haoden Ye to the ward.

Stepping into the hospital room, Haoden Ye quickly arrived in front of Zhao.

After checking on Zhao, Haoden Ye was relieved.

Zhao's condition wasn't because the shrapnel had injured his internal organs, but because several of them had pierced his acupuncture points.

Several of the acupuncture points that were stabbed were used to unblock the meridians.

And in the case of internal bleeding, the worst fear is that the meridians usually, will keep the blood flowing.

And Zhao was wounded a bit by shrapnel in his gut.

They were all modest wounds, a dozen in all.

In normal times, these wounds would have slowly healed themselves, and the shrapnel left in the body would have been dissolved by the blood.

But his acupuncture point was spotted and the wound would not heal.

Of course, there is still salvation in closing the meridians at this time.

But Zhao had lost too much blood, and he needed to concoct a pill that would quickly replenish and heal the blood.

The pill in Haoden Ye's hand was called the Blood Return Pill.

The method of refining is common, except that the speed of replenishing blood depends on the rarity of the herbs.

And this pill was enough to replenish Zhao's blood for a short time.

Gently breaking open Zhao's mouth, Haoden Ye put the pills into Zhao's mouth.

"It's nonsense!"

Following behind the crowd, Chang Chuling shook her head.

The patient was unconscious and could not take the pills at all.

Even if you do eat it, you have to feed it in a special way so that putting it in your mouth is no different than not eating it.

Everyone else apparently thought so, too, and frowned, some with disdainful sneers.

However, soon, the look on each of the faces slowly solidified.

It was seen that Zhao's body began to slowly change after he ate Haoden Ye's pills.

The lips that were purple just a moment ago were gradually taking on a red color.

The gray is getting a little bloodier too!

Everyone stared when they saw the change.

And Zhang Chuling, who was on the side, even widened her eyes in surprise.

“What’s going on?The patient has obviously lost too much blood and is now barely kept alive through a blood transfusion, so how can he recover!”

Surprised, she quickly walked up to Zhao to test his pulse.

As she came over, all eyes focused on his face.

“Dean Zhang, how’s old Zhao?”

Simen Holander frowned and looked nervous.

On this side, the look on Zhang Chu Ling’s face changed from one of inconspicuous surprise to one of dismay.

“How did this happen...the patient’s pulse is, getting steady!”

She lowered her head and broke open Jo’s mouth.

But the pills were gone!

What’s going on, he didn’t swallow at all just now, how did he take this pills!

At this time, Zhang Chuling felt like she was dreaming right now.

And the others in the room, one by one, stared in surprise.

Soon, a voice rang out.

“Holander...Big Brother Holander!”

Zhao, who was on the bed, slowly opened his eyes and looked around with confused eyes.

“Where am I?”

He was all but frail, rather like a man who had just woken up.

Seeing this scene, every one of them looked incredulous.

“Cho!”

Simen Holander’s eyes reddened as he took a step forward and snatched Zhao’s hand from Zhang Chuling’s.

“Big Brother Holander, why are you crying?Old Cho is fine!”

Zhao laughed and quickly got up to comfort Simen Holander.

“God, what’s going on here!”

“Zhao is really awake, I’m not dreaming!”

A surprised voice rang out.

Zhang Chuling came back to her senses, and her eyes drew back to search for Haoden Ye.

But then Haoden Ye, who had already arrived at the door of the ward, seemed to have the intention of leaving.

Everyone was so amazed at Zhao’s recovery that they had forgotten that Haoden Ye was a doctor!

“You wait a minute!”

Zhang Chu Ling hurriedly turned around to catch up with Haoden Ye’s pace.

Just outside the hospital room, Haoden Ye was blocked by Zhang Chuling.

“Dean Zhang, you’re not here to ask if I have a medical license, I have one here!”

Haoden Ye pulled out a license to practice medicine.

Zhang Chuling didn't even look at the proof, but grabbed Haoden Ye's arm and said, "Tell me, how exactly did you heal General Zhao, what exactly did you give him to eat!"

This medical genius has finally come across an answer that he can't unravel.

"Of course it's Chinese medicine, that cocoa pill is called the Blood Returning Pill, it's very expensive to refine, but it's also very effective!"

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye made an explanation.

"No way!"

However, his words were immediately dismissed by Zhang Chu Ling.

"Chinese medicine doesn't work like that! You gave him hormones, didn't you, or some drug you developed yourself? And then again...you injected him with biochemicals?"

She has also seen many medical schools abroad using genetic drugs to cure diseases.

Some of them can heal wounds quickly, but they have a lot of side effects, the most obvious of which is carcinogenic.

With a bitter smile, Haoden Ye quickly pulled out a pill.

“I have a few leftover ones here, but they’re nowhere near as effective as the one I just gave to Zhao, so you can try them!”

Haoden Ye still had seven or eight pills in his hand, all of which were concocted together with the Naco Rejuvenation Pill that Zhao took.

Looking at the pills in Haoden Ye’s hand, Zhang Chuling was once again stunned.

Chapter 508 Final

The pills in front of us are important yes, it’s Chinese medicine yes.

But how could Chinese medicine have such an effect?

With doubts, Zhang Chu Ling took the pills and put them into her mouth.

Just into the mouth, the pills actually melted.

It's bitter and full of herbal flavor, but it's not unpleasant.

Soon, Zhang Chuling felt a warm current spread through her body from her mouth, and her body heated up healthily.

Looking at her hand, Zhang Chu Ling's face changed dramatically.

The hand that was white and lacking blood itself became red now.

"No way, how could it be!"

When she was dazed, Holander always came out of it.

He still had tears in the corners of his eyes from earlier.

"Dr. Yeh, thank you this time!"

Walking up to Haoden Ye, Mr. Holander shook Haoden Ye's hand.

"There's no need for Holander to be polite, I told you, this time it's to help Zyden!"

With a slight smile, Haoden Ye quickly explained.

“No! You’re not helping Zyden this time, you’re helping me, Simen Holander!”

Simen Holander shook his head vigorously and sighed, “Old Zhao is my right hand man, and by saving him, you are the benefactor of our Holander Clan!”

Saying that, he looked inside the hospital room, “This time, you didn’t just save me, you saved the Holander Clan, from now on, you’re a part of the Holander Clan!”

Hearing this, Haoden Ye’s heart moved slightly.

If anyone else had heard this, they would have gone crazy with joy.

Holander is treating him like one of his own!

“Thank you, Mr. Holander, for your appreciation!”

Haha laughing, Simen Holander patted Haoden Ye’s shoulder and said, “Well, my company still has things to do, so I won’t bother you, and I’ll thank you properly some other day when old Zhao recovers!”

Nodding, Simen Holander stepped away.

Haoden Ye also took a step and prepared to leave.

“Don’t you go!”

Just after taking a step, Haoden Ye was pulled by Zhang Chuling.

“Dr. Yap, come to work at Central Hospital!”

Zhang Chuling’s face was sincere, “You can set your own working hours, and you can choose your own patients, I only have one request, to give our hospital doctors a TCM training once a week, what do you think?”

I’m afraid this is the highest offer any hospital can make.

However, when Haoden Ye heard this, he quickly shook his head and said, “Of course not this, I have my own clinic!”

Zhang Chuling had thought that her conditions were already favorable enough, but to her surprise, Haoden Ye still refused.

You know, being a doctor in a central hospital is already considered a medical position.

Also, many of the patients here are not wealthy or rich, and the sturdy ones are very strong.

However, Zhang Chuling wasn't too surprised, instead she smiled slightly.

The more powerful you are, the more capital you have to refuse.

“Half a million a month, and if you cure the patient, the medical bills are all yours, and you don't have to train the doctor, just give me individual training for two hours a week!”

She said with a shallow smile, “You decide the time and place of the training, I'm single anyway, I have plenty of personal time, and if you don't like it, you can stop taking patients!”

Half a million dollars a month, no doctoring if you don't like it, and the money for the doctoring is your own, and you can also still give her training alone as a beautiful genius dean.

Such an offer, if a man is a man, he should agree to it, right?

That's like, half a million dollars for her personal training!

However, facing such conditions, Haoden Ye actually shook his head!

Now Chang Chu Ling was dumbfounded!

“Dr. Yap, are you having a problem with me? If you like, you can pick any doctor in the hospital, or nurse!”

Zhang Chuling’s heart pride was aroused, fiercely determined to make Haoden Ye nod.

But Haoden Ye’s side was smiling bitterly.

“Doctor Zhang, it’s not that I don’t agree, I really can’t agree, you can’t learn this method of mine!”

Shrugging his shoulders, Haoden Ye helplessly said, “Unless you’re eight years old now, you might be able to reach my level by studying with me for more than ten years!”

Hearing this, Zhang Chu Ling mentally became unhappy.

I’m a genius. I’ve been studying with him for more than ten years and only got to his level?

“How will you know if you don’t try?And I can advertise your clinic for free!”

Zhang Chuling once again put forward a condition: “The doctors in the province are more or less giving me face, so if you need an assistant, I can arrange it for you too!”

This is sort of handing over your connections as well.

Seeing her sincere look, Haoden Ye smiled bitterly in his heart and could only nod helplessly.

Two hours of training a week is not long enough, so think of it as a getaway to the province.

Seeing his promise, Chang Chu Ling was overjoyed.

Back home at night, Haoden Ye told Maya Shen about what happened during the day.

Maya Shen was overjoyed to hear it.

“Great, it’s much easier for our company to grow with the support of Mr. Holander!”

Maya Shen said, her eyes brightening slightly, “Do you want our company to merge into the Holander Group?”

Hearing this, Haoden Ye quickly shook his head.

He opened the company just to make Maya Shen happy, and the Holander’s Group is a mixed bag, he does not want to throw his wife there.

“It’s better not to, our company is too small to throw a wave inside Holander’s group, and in the end we have to rely on Holander’s group, I don’t want to be a drag on Holander’s head!”

Hearing this, Maya Shen also nodded her head.

The two men conferred all night and made arrangements for the company.

In the past, Maya Shen didn’t know about the medical base, but this time, she simply merged the medical company into Shengwen International.

Haoden Ye spoke out again, and Sister Jiuzi’s investment in the countryside.

These companies are all in Haoden Ye’s name.

Hearing this, Maya Shen was surprised again.

I never thought that Haoden Ye had done so much to hide this from himself.

Looking at her husband, Maya Shen suddenly had a feeling.

Her own husband, now that he was finally the head of the family, perhaps she would have to be his good man from now on.

Of course, this sage is not the sage at home, but the sage at work.

Things like medicinal materials and alchemy and so on, Haoden Ye took care of it, and Maya Shen took care of everything else all by herself.

With the company's side of things taken care of, Haoden Ye went to meet with Sister Jiura the next day to discuss other matters.

He wanted to incorporate the base of the herbs into one of Sister Jiura's investments, and then give her a share according to the profits.

At the same time, the Ninth Sister Gang needs to protect the herb base.

Without the background of the underground world, it was inconvenient for Haoden Ye to do anything.

And to get to shore, Sister Nine must have some industrial base.

The two men immediately signed a contract.

Only after everything was taken care of did Haoden Ye go to see Figmen Lin.

“Kid, you’re afraid that the Heavenly Tribulation is coming, so come find me a way to defuse it!”

Seeing Haoden Ye coming, Figmen Lin hehely laughed.

“It’s true that I can’t hide it from you, I have less than two years left in my three-year lifespan, so I hope you can help me dissolve it!”

“That’s not hard!”

Figmen Lin nodded gently and brought Haoden Ye to the back of the mountain.

“If you refine this treasure, you can refine the Heavenly Tribulation!”

From inside a cave, Figmen Lin took out a red gemstone.

With doubts, Haoden Ye received the gemstone.

In the back of my mind, I immediately heard the koi fish voice.

“Dragonballs!”

This Dragon Pearl was exactly the treasure needed for the current Golden Koi Fish to enter the next stage, but it turned out that Lin hadn't prepared it himself.

The rest of the day, Haoden Ye began to refine the gems.

With the help of the gems, Haoden Ye finally survived the Heavenly Tribulation!

Since then, a new star has risen in Dan!
