The Vengeful Son-in-law

As the hunting competition came to a close, Ryan came out of the forest followed by a group of people.

They were about to leave the forest when the Manchurian tiger ran out. Its huge body scared many people, who took out their weapons and prepared to shoot.

Ryan shouted, "Don't even hurt it!" Now that Ryan's words were unbreakable rules, no one dared to disobey his will and they stopped reflexively.

Ryan smiled and walked towards the tiger. It roared and trotted to Ryan, then bent down, as if kneeling down for Ryan.

Ryan walked up to the tiger and gently stroked its head. Such a ferocious northeast tiger was extremely obedient in front of him. It seemed that it was not a tiger, but a kitten, which shocked people around!

Amelia looked at him with admiration and affection. The man was so perfect that he actually subdued the wild Manchurian tiger! In the zoo, there were indeed a lot of tigers which looked very docile and wouldn't bite people when fed by caretakers.

The Manchurian tiger, however, had been living in the wild since it was a cub and kept its wild nature. Anyone would be torn apart in front of it, but now it was under Ryan's feet.

Ryan's eyes were gentle. These days, he spent his time with the tiger and they felt a deep involvement with each other. Besides, the tiger was very smart and intelligent, which was very rare. Now the tiger was saying that he hoped that Ryan could take him away. It kept rubbing Tom's hand with its huge head, acting like a child and pleading with him.

"You belong here. It's not good for you to come with me. I'll come to see you often when I have the chance. Just go," said Ryan gently as if speaking to his own child, stroking the tiger's head.

The tiger seemed to understand what he meant, and there was even a sad and reluctant look in his eyes, which was amazing!

"Go. Be good," Ryan scolded with seriousness.

The Manchurian tiger let out a low roar. It stood up from the ground and started to leave. It looked back from time to time, and finally looked back at Ryan again and let out a loud roar when it walked a few meters away. Finally, it jumped up and disappeared into the forest.

Ryan shook his head helplessly and continued to walk away.

After what happened just now, his image in the eyes of everyone was even more tall and unfathomable. Some people even suspected that he was reincarnated as a god. Otherwise, how could he have the ability to communicate with the tiger?

When they came out of the forest, everyone was already waiting there. Seeing that Ryan came out first, they were all stunned as what they saw was different from what they expected.

"What's going on? Why did Ryan come out first? Where's Peter?"

"Yeah, where's Peter? Didn't Peter meet Ryan?"

"That's possible. Look, Ryan's clothes are clean. Obviously, he didn't fight. He definitely didn't meet Peter." "Damn it, Ryan is really lucky. He even missed Peter. Lucky for him!"

As there were more than 500 participants, not everyone witnessed the battle between Ryan and Peter with. Now that they saw Ryan come out unharmed, they all agreed that he was lucky not to meet Peter.

The three bookmakers were frowning with gloomy faces. They could have made a lot of money from Ryan, which was as much as two billion dollars. But it turned out he didn't have a chance to fight Peter. This was ridiculous!

Advertisement

It meant that Ryan's two billion dollars was going to be returned to him. It was so hard for them to return what they were about to get.

The organizers also frowned, but they still followed the rules and said, "The hunting competition is officially over. You are the last batch to come out. Show your nameplates."

However, no one showed it. The organizer said, "Please show us your nameplate and let us register. The person with the highest nameplate is the winner of this hunting competition."

Nobody made a move. At this time, Ryan walked up with a bag in his hand and said, "Don't ask them. I have their nameplates."

The organizers immediately frowned, feeling that Ryan was bluffing. There were more than 300 people here. How could he have had all the nameplates? If he was the winner, would Peter agree?

But he still followed the rules and said coldly, "Show me the nameplates you have."

Ryan opened the bag and dropped a lot of nameplates. It was so spectacular that many people opened their eyes wide. God, there were at least 400 nameplates here!

In total, there were only 500 participants, and 400 of them were in Ryan's hands, which meant...

Wait, what about Peter?

Soon, someone asked, "Something's wrong. How could Ryan have so many nameplates? Where's Peter?!"

Many people also realized this and quickly looked at the crowd behind Ryan.

Something dawned on Ryan and he took out a golden nameplate from his trouser pocket, handed it to the organizer's staff and said, "I forgot this one."

The staff took it over and saw two words engraved on it: Peter! This meant that this was Peter's nameplate. What! In an instant, the staff felt a little numb and said, "Is this Peter's nameplate? Where is he?!"

When many people heard the staff's words, their eyes widened in disbelief and they quickly came over to see. Sure enough, Peter's name was written on it.

Ryan smiled faintly and said, "Peter is behind. You will see him soon."

As he finished speaking, two people carried a stretcher with a ' person' lying on it, pale and as white as a sheet. It was the dead Peter.

When the others saw this, they were shivering with cold hands and feet!

They were not stupid. They had already realized that Peter was dead! And he was killed by Ryan!

The next moment, all of them looked at Ryan in horror.

Some people even suspected that they were dreaming that arrogant Peter was actually killed by Ryan? Well...

The organizer's staffs figured out what was going on reacted, and their expressions were complicated. Someone withdrew and left in a hurry. He ran to a remote place and called, "President, something big happened. The vice president was defeated and killed by Ryan!"

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 362 -

The title "The Vengeful Son-in-law" is centered on the page. The words "The Vengeful" are on the top line and "Son-in-law" is on the bottom line. The text is in a bold, black, sans-serif font. Behind the text is a large, irregular, yellow-orange brushstroke graphic that serves as a background for the title.

The whole venue was quiet for five seconds before a heated discussion broke out. Everyone's blood boiled! Peter died! He was killed by Ryan. The news was a bombshell for anyone.

However, for Ryan himself, he did not take it seriously as this was already within his expectations. Peter was just a small stepping stone on his way forward.

Instead, he cared more about the influence of Peter's death. What was in front of him now was the reward for becoming the champion.

Mr. Murphy came over and said, "According to the rules of the Hunting Competition, Ryan received the most nameplates. He is the champion of the competition. You can give him a reward."

A few staff members looked at each other and said, "Wait a minute. We need to ask for instructions from our leader." After a while, the staff came over and said to Ryan, "Our leader wants to see you." After that, he turned around and left without waiting for Ryan to agree. His was very cold and arrogant.

Amelia was unhappy and frowned, "What do the organizers mean this time? Ryan is the champion of the Hunting Competition. Is that their attitude?"

Advertisement

Mr. Murphy also frowned and said, "It's a little weird. The organizers used to be very enthusiastic to the champion. How come this time..."

Suddenly, he had a bad feeling and a worried look appeared on his face.

"Mr. Howard, something's wrong. You have to be psychologically prepared. Maybe the leader of organizers is Peter's friend." Mr. Murphy whispered in Ryan's ear.

In fact, Ryan also thought about it. He also frowned slightly and thought about it. He said, "The purpose of my coming to the Hunting Competition this time is just to kill Peter. I don't care much about being the champion."

Advertisement

Amelia said, "That's not the case. You're clearly the champion this time, so you deserve the reward."

Ryan smiled and said, "It's not clear yet. Maybe their leader just wants to see me."

Amelia held Ryan's hand and said worriedly, "Ryan, you have to be careful."

Ryan felt embarrassed to be held by her in front of so many people. He smiled awkwardly and said, "Don't worry. It's okay."

Now that Amelia was completely convinced that she was his woman, making him nervous. The point was that he and she had a clean relationship. There had never been anything more than friendship.

If word got out, everyone would think him as a playboy.

Ryan shook his head to throw this thought out of his mind. He wanted to see if the organizers would give him a reward for being the champion this time.

The staff headed to another part of the forest, followed by six men with guns. They put Ryan in the middle, as if they were escorting a prisoner.

After about twenty minutes of walking, the road became wide and they arrived at a large place. It was heavily guarded with electrified iron fences surrounding it.

Advertisement

Once inside, it would not so easy to get out.

Ryan suddenly stopped and said meaningfully, "Is your leader and Peter good friends?"

When the people around heard Ryan's words, their expression changed and they said, "He is waiting for you inside. Please come with us."

"I think it's better to ask your leader to come out. At least I am the champion. I am very dissatisfied with being treated like a criminal." Ryan said unhappily.

The staff in front of him narrowed his eyes and said, "Ryan, I advise you to go in to see our leader, or we won't be able to reward you for being the champion."

Ryan shrugged and said, "It doesn't matter. I don't care about being the champion. I just want to kill Peter." As he spoke, he was about to turn around to leave.

But as soon as he turned around, the six guards with guns refused to let him go and blocked his way. They were looking at him with evil intentions!

Ryan narrowed his eyes and said, "As organizers, are you going to attack a champion? Do you want to seek your own profit in public affairs just because of Peter?"

The staff member's expression was cold and he did not answer. Instead, he said coldly, "Torn, don't talk nonsense. Organizers have always been fair. What you said just now has caused a loss of reputation to us. Now please come with us to see our leader immediately, or don't blame us for getting tough with you!"

Ryan laughed directly. "Haha, really? Then you should try it."

As Ryan said this, the atmosphere became tense.

Their eyes were even colder. The veneer of mutual respect was about to be torn off and they were about to attack Ryan.

Just then, a voice came from the staff's headset. He listened for a while, and said to

Ryan coldly, "Our leader doesn't want to bother himself arguing with the likes of you. However, you are disqualified from being the champion. Now you can go."

He was disqualified from being the champion like this!

No matter how magnanimous Ryan was, he could not help but feel angry at being treated differently.

His eyes were also cold, but he did not choose to act rashly. Instead, he looked carefully at a building in the iron fence and turned to leave.

After he left, the staff and six guards relaxed. They felt a great pressure just now. Ryan was a top expert who could kill Peter intact. There was no way they, ordinary people, could defeat him. Even if they had guns in their hands, it was no use.

Not long after, a man came out of the building and looked in the direction of Ryan's departure. His expression was sinister. He snorted heavily and muttered, "You want to be the champion? You overestimate your abilities!"

Today, the Hunting Competition was over, and anyone who came to participate could choose to leave tonight.

But more people would stay one more night. They wanted to enjoy the prey they had hunted, and to see what the champions reward was.

When they knew that Ryan had been directly disqualified from being the champion and had no reward, the heated discussion began again.

They were not stupid, so of course they sensed something was wrong. Ryan was being targeted! Therefore, those who had originally wanted to curry favor with Ryan hesitated.

Amelia was angry but there was nothing she could do.

Ryan chose to leave that night and fly back to H City.

When Ryan arrived at the airport of H City, the news that he had defeated Peter was also sent back. The first to know the news was the Paynes.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 363 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“Father! Did you hear that Ryan won? He won!”

At the family banquet of the Paynes, hundreds of people from the Paynes gathered together to eat. Suddenly, Myles pushed the door open and strode in, shouting loudly and excitedly.

His appearance startled everyone in the Paynes. In their minds, Myles had always been very calm and reserved. No matter how big a thing he encountered, he was very calm. How came he lose his composure like now?

However, when Hawthorne, who was eating, heard this, his reaction was also very strong. He stood up immediately, “What?! Ryan actually won? Really? Tell me what happened!”

Myles had already walked in, and he was so excited that his face turned red. “It’s true. I’ve confirmed from many people that Ryan has really defeated Peter without getting injured! And he has also won the head of this hunting competition. His future is so promising! Dad, we haven’t invested in the wrong person this time!”

“Hahaha...” After hearing that, Myles burst into laughter. His face was red with excitement. “I really didn’t see the wrong person. He’s trustworthy! This Ryan is amazing!”

Many people in the Paynes were stunned. They had never heard of the name Ryan. They couldn't figure out why Hawthorne respected a person so much.

At the other table, Isabella was eating there. When she heard this conversation, she was stunned on the spot. Then, Ryan appeared in her mind. Combining Hawthorne and Myles's words, her mood changed subtly.

At the same time, many people also learned the news one after another, including Elliot and Malcolm. They were going to run away, but now they were extremely excited as they would all have a bright future.

Ryan came out of the airport on his own with a schoolbag on his back. He looked like an ordinary working class. No one would have thought that he was a supreme master of the Innate Realm and a pioneer of the new future human race.

Advertisement

When he returned to H City, he relaxed a lot. He was going to see Phoebe soon. He was very happy to think about it.

When he came out of the airport, he was just about to call Phoebe and tell Phoebe that he was back.

Suddenly, a tentative voice sounded from behind him. "Chairman, is that you?"

It was a woman's voice, and it sounded a little familiar...

Ryan looked back and saw a woman wrapped tightly in sunglasses and a mask. She greeted him and walked quickly towards him when she saw him.

"Chairman, it's really you!"

The woman walked up to Ryan and said with surprise.

Beside her, there were a few people following her.

Ryan was confused. He searched his mind but could not figure out who the person was. "Who are you?"

Advertisement

When the woman saw that Ryan didn't recognize her, she couldn't help but feel disappointed. "Chairman, you have forgotten me...

Ryan smiled bitterly and said, "I'm sorry. You wear sunglasses and a mask. I really can't see you clearly."

The woman was stunned and then came back to her senses. That was true. She covered her whole face. How could Ryan recognize her?

So she thought about it and decided to take off her mask and sunglasses to reveal her face.

But this action of hers startled the others who quickly said, "Clarissa, you can't remove..."

It was too late to stop Clarissa. She had already taken off her sunglasses and mask, revealing a delicate and beautiful face, which instantly amazed everyone passing by.

Ryan remembered when he saw her face. Wasn't she the big star he had met twice before? What was her name? He forgot for a moment.

"Chairman, do you remember me?" Clarissa asked expectantly and nervously. Ryan looked embarrassed. He did remember her, but he forgot her name. "Haha, I remember. Big star. I didn't expect to see you here. It's a pleasure to meet you."

Clarissa was not stupid at all. From Ryan's reaction, she knew that he didn't remember her name, which disappointed her. At least she was a famous star with more than ten million fans in the country. She had been recognized in less than ten seconds and was excitedly pointed at.

But Ryan forgot her name.

On second thought, this was not an unusual thing. He was the chairman of ZQ Media, and there were a lot of popular stars in his company. It was normal not to remember her.

She put on her mask and sunglasses again, covering her beautiful face and saying, "Chairman, my name is Clarissa. We've met before."

Ryan nodded and said, "I know. We had dinner together last time."

The people next to Clarissa found it incredible that Clarissa would take the initiative to greet a man humbly. After all, Clarissa was a famous star. She could sing and act. She was talented in various arts. How perfect she was! Many people are eager to fawn on her.

The man looked so ordinary and there was nothing special about him.

Wait a minute. What did Clarissa call this man? Chairman?

As Clarissa's new agent, Flora asked, "Clarissa, who is this?"

Clarissa said, "Sister, let me introduce you. This is the chairman of the ZQ Media, Ryan."

In an instant, Flora's eyes widened and she looked at Ryan differently.

The rest of them did the same, becoming very flattering and fawning. How ironic! "Ah, so you are the chairman of ZQ Media. Nice to meet you. My name is Flora, and I'm Clarissa's new agent!" Flora flattered.

Ryan nodded faintly as a greeting, then said to Clarissa, "Miss Brown, I still have something to do. I'm leaving. We'll talk when we have time."

Clarissa looked disappointed again. She squeezed out a smile and said, "Are you alone? Do you want us to send you off?"

Ryan thought for a while. He was indeed alone. Whether he was calling Phoebe or Elliot now, it would take a while for them to come over and wait in line for a taxi. It would be great if Clarissa could take him out of the airport.

"Okay. Thank you, Miss Brown." Ryan said with a smile.

Clarissa was overjoyed. Then Flora whispered in her ear, "Clarissa, we're here to pick Smith up. They have already landed and are coming out soon."

Although their voices were very low, Ryan immediately heard what they were talking. He didn't want Clarissa to be difficult. He said, "I suddenly remembered that I have called a friend to pick me up, so I don't have to trouble Miss Brown."

Clarissa bit her lips. Although she was quite disappointed, she could only nod and say, "Okay, then take your time, chairman. Let's talk next time."

Ryan nodded and was about to leave when five tall foreigners walked over from the opposite side. Among them, the thirty-year-old man was rather handsome. Ryan had some impression of him. He was a famous foreign movie star.

It seemed that Clarissa's team was going to pick up this group of foreigners.

They strutted over overbearingly. Anyone who stood in front of them was pushed away by two bodyguards.

They saw Ryan walking in the middle, and two white bodyguards pushed him away violently.

Ryan immediately frowned. How dare those foreigners to be so overbearing in H Country!

He stood there motionless in the face of the pushing and shoving of two white bodyguards as if he had been frightened out of his wits.

Many people who passed by saw this scene and got nervous. They thought that Ryan would definitely suffer. He was so thin that he would be pushed by two white people and hurt badly!

However, what happened next made them dumbfounded.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 364 -

One of the white bodyguards pushed Ryan, but he couldn't move him at all, as if Ryan was like a pillar fixed to the ground.

"Hmm?" The white bodyguard frowned and his face darkened for this yellow monkey dared to block their way.

So he increased his strength and pushed Ryan hard on the chest, and a grim smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. With his 1.9 meter figure and over 100 kilograms of weight, it should be easy for the bodyguard to push away such a thin yellow man.

But it turned out to be the exact opposite of what he had imagined. He tried his best to push him, but Ryan remained motionless and was really like a wall getting in the way. The bodyguard was really shocked! What was going on? Did he hallucinate and hit the wall?

He quickly rubbed his eyes and stared at Ryan again. He realized that it was real, that the yellow man in front of him was looking at him with a half-smile.

Another white bodyguard beside him saw this and said with a sneer, "Ryan, did you get sucked dry by that H Country woman last night? You can't even push a skinny yellow monkey away. Haha."

The bodyguard said it in English, and Ryan could hear it clearly. His face darkened even more. As a H Country man, he hated foreigners calling him a yellow monkey. This was not just an insult to him, but an insult to the whole of H Country!

Advertisement

He sneered in his heart. Although this white bodyguard named Ryan was tall and powerful, he was just a foreign ant in front of him. To say the least, he was a master of the Innate Realm, and his true cultivation had reached the upper level of the Innate Realm. Even a fierce man like Peter would not stand a chance against him. Some foreigner like the bodyguard was even more like an ant to him.

His shoulders trembled very easily. Suddenly, Ryan seemed to have suffered a huge counterattack. His huge body actually flew out and fell heavily on the ground. With a plop, he fell quite heavily.

Everyone was shocked to see this. There were at least a thousand people in and out of the airport. They were all stunned. They had never thought that Ryan, who was so thin, could easily throw such a tall and strong white man out.

It was generally believed that the yellow man's physique was far from as strong as the white man's, let alone the difference between their physiques, which was several levels apart.

Advertisement

Including Clarissa and the others, their eyes widened and they were extremely shocked.

They were just worried that Ryan would be pushed down and hurt by the white bodyguard, but it turned out they were worrying about the wrong person.

Only Clarissa was the least surprised because she had seen Ryan's skills and knew that Ryan was very good at fighting. Now her eyes were even brighter when she looked at Ryan.

The foreigners immediately became angry, especially the white man named Smith, who was furious. He pointed at Ryan and cursed, "Damn H Country man, you have the guts to attack my people. George, Dombey, you go ahead and teach this damn H Country man a painful lesson!"

George was also a white man, and Dombey was a black man. They were exceptionally strong and muscular. It was obvious that they were not to be trifled with. When ordinary people saw their physique, not to mention fighting them, they did not have the courage to look at them.

Now that they had received Smith's order, both of them showed ferocious expressions and began to stride over to teach Ryan a lesson.

Many people around them became worried, thinking that Ryan was definitely not an opponent and would be hurt badly. Now, these foreigners were especially arrogant in the country. Many people were quite humble and careful around them and dared not to offend them easily.

Ryan narrowed his eyes and sneered. He was ready. As long as these two foreigners touched him, he would not be merciful.

Although he usually looked very friendly and harmless, in fact, he had a very strong national pride, and he especially didn't like these foreigners to be tyrannical in H Country territory!

It was fine if he had not met them before. Now that he had met them, he would not have let these foreigners go easily.

Otherwise, they would really think that H Country men were easy to be pushed around.

Advertisement

However, just as George and Dombey were about to touch Ryan, Clarissa's team came back to their senses and hurriedly stepped forward to protect Ryan and loudly explained, "Mr. Smith! Please stop your bodyguards. This is a misunderstanding!"

Flora said in English. Their two bodyguards also got in George and Dombey's way. However, George and Dombey did not intend to back down at all. They pushed the two bodyguards back staggeringly. If Ryan hadn't supported them from behind in time, they would have fallen down by now!

Moreover, George and Dombey were particularly arrogant, pointing at Ryan's nose and cursing incessantly.

This was Ryan we were talking about. How could he stand such insults? His eyes turned cold and he was already angry. He was ready to attack and teach these arrogant foreigners a lesson!

At this moment, Clarissa quickly grabbed his arm. "Chairman, calm down. These two are bodyguards of international movie star Smith. They are notorious for their arrogance in this circle. You'd better not let them get to you. It would be bad influence if this get to the media."

When Ryan heard Clarissa, he thought for a moment and decided to follow Clarissa's advice as a favour to her.

Not that he was afraid of this Smith, but at the airport, there were people and cameras everywhere. If he taught these foreigners a lesson, it would surely satisfy him, but the consequence afterwards would be hard to ignore.

Moreover, it would not be good for the image of H Country at that time, and it would make Clarissa look bad too. He simply weighed it out and decided to endure it. The next time there were fewer people, it would not be too late to teach these arrogant foreigners a good lesson.

So he nodded and said, "Well, for your sake, I won't get angry with them."

His words fell into the ears of Flora and the others, and it also became an expression of overconfidence. You, Ryan, were very rich, but could you be able to take down these two strong foreigners with your thin figure?

Even if Ryan had shaken the bodyguard named Ryan out just now, in their opinion, the main reason was that Ryan underestimated Ryan and got unsteady, so Ryan found the opportunity.

After all, Ryan was a thin physique. He couldn't go against science, could he?

Smith was very angry. He was especially arrogant at present. He pointed at Flora's nose and scolded, "Ms. Flora, I came to H Country to film this time because of your chairman. If it weren't for your chairman begging me for so long, I wouldn't have bothered to come to this land!"

When Flora heard this, she was really embarrassed, but she did not dare to refute it. After all, Smith was a superstar.

She had no choice but to be nice and explain, "Dear Mr. Smith, he is the chairman of the ZQ Media, worth more than ten billion dollars. I suggest you make peace with him."

"The chairman of the ZQ Media?" When Smith heard this, his expression changed a little. But when he looked at Ryan carefully, he saw that Ryan was dressed plainly and had an ordinary temperament. He was completely different from the big shots Smith had met, so Smith immediately returned to his disdainful and arrogant posture. "Ms. Flora, is that how you H Country man lie? If he is the chairman worth ten billion, then I am the president of this country!"

The other foreigners laughed heartlessly when they heard it.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 365 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

No one would believe that Ryan would be the chairman of the ZQ Media according to Ryan's way of dressing up and his young age.

Smith was a famous international movie star. He had an outstanding appearance and good acting skills. He had also heard of ZQ Media, a big promising company.

In fact, when he came to H Country to develop, the first media company he had chosen was ZQ Media. His agent also tried to contact ZQ Media, but the company was not interested in him. He had no choice but to choose HY Media as an alternative.

Now Flora actually told him that the skinny yellow man in front of him was the chairman of the ZQ Media. Would he believe that? Flora was completely looking down on his intelligence. His impression of the HY Media was getting worse.

After Flora finished speaking, she subconsciously looked back and saw that Ryan was indeed dressed plainly. In terms of temperament, he did not have the aura of a big shot. Seeing that he appeared like an ordinary person, she could not help but wonder. Could it be that Ryan was really not the chairman of the ZQ Media, but an imposter?

Ryan was used to that sort of misunderstanding. He was not surprised at all. No one would believe that he was the chairman of ZQ Media the first time they saw him.

Advertisement

This was influenced by his temperament. After he broke through to the Innate Realm, he became more introverted. All his spirits were condensed into one point to be hidden in the Dantian. He would return to his original nature and appear more ordinary.

Flora quickly winked at Clarissa and asked if Clarissa had mistaken her for someone else. Only when Clarissa gave her a positive response would she be more convinced.

“Mr. Smith, the chairman of the ZQ Media is low-pitched. It was a misunderstanding today. Why don’t we just let it go for the sake of HY Media?” Flora continued to put down her stance.

She was a famous agent in the entertainment circle. Many famous stars would show due respect to her. It was rare for her to be so humble now.

There was no way. Smith’s international reputation was great and the main character of the next film invested by the HY Media was Smith. In order to use Smith’s fame to open up the international market, they had to put down their attitude and fawn on Smith.

For any magnanimous people, they would not make a fuss. However, Smith was different. He was an extremely arrogant person.

Over the past two years, he had made two movies that won a lot of box office. It was when he became famous that he became more arrogant. He did not show respect for Flora at all, saying: “I came to H Country to film with you for the sake of your chairman, not to suffer wrong! Now that I am offended in your country, you must give me an explanation, or I will call the police.”

When Flora heard this, her face darkened. She kept scolding Smith in her heart for being too arrogant and inhumane! She couldn’t persuade Smith, so she had to ask Clarissa to come over and talk to him.

Clarissa nodded, walked up, took off her sunglasses and mask, and said to Smith, “Hello, Mr. Smith. I’m Clarissa, and I’m the leading actress in this play with you.”

When Smith saw her, he was shocked by her beauty. He was burning with passion. He stared straight at Clarissa and said, “Oh, so you are the beautiful Miss Clarissa. You look more beautiful and elegant in person than in the photo.”

As he spoke, he reached out to shake hands with Clarissa.

Clarissa also reached out her hand. However, after Smith shook her hands, he did not let go immediately. Instead, he scratched the back of Clarissa’s hand with his thumb, which looked particularly obscene. Clarissa immediately frowned and felt disgusted!

Before that, she could be said as a fan of Smith. She had watched several movies of Smith. She didn't expect that Smith to be such a lewd person. She had no good impression of him anymore. She felt especially disgusted when she thought that she would cooperate with such a person for a few months in the future.

Clarissa quickly withdrew her hands, took a deep breath, suppressed her anger, put on a smile, and said to Smith: "Mr. Smith, Mr. Howard is my good friend and the chairman of the ZQ Media. What happened just now was caused by your bodyguard. I hope you let your bodyguard apologize to him."

When he heard that, Smith's face immediately darkened!

Flora and the others were also shocked. As an agent, Flora hurriedly winked at Clarissa and told her not to be rude! Even Ryan was a little surprised to hear that. He didn't expect Clarissa to protect him like that.

Smith said unhappily, "Miss Clarissa, are you kidding me?"

Clarissa ignored Flora and the others beside her. She was calm and said seriously, "Mr. Smith, I'm not joking with you. Please ask your bodyguard to apologize to Mr. Howard immediately."

Smith burst out laughing. "Hahaha... You despicable yellow monkeys actually asked me to apologize. It's as ridiculous as a lion apologizes to a rabbit! Miss Clarissa, I am willing to come to H Country because the chairman of HY Media offered me a lot of money. Otherwise, I will never come to such a low and backward place in my life!"

What he said was too much. Not only did Clarissa and Ryan and the others got angry when they heard it, but even many of their compatriots at the airport who could understand English were furious. They all started to criticize Smith.

Some people took out their phones to take pictures. Generally, if Smith's words were posted on the Internet, it would definitely affect his reputation. However, he was not worried at all and was still arrogant!

Clarissa's face darkened and she said, "Smith, you've gone too far. I want you to apologize to H Country immediately!"

Smith said disdainfully, "You are the ones who should apologize. You offended me. If you don't apologize, I will immediately call the police and let the embassy intervene. Things will not be so easy to solve then."

Smith was not afraid at all. He decided to put Clarissa in a pickle.

Clarissa was also in a difficult position after hearing this. Although she was a big star, she was still far from powerful. In this situation, she could do nothing.

Was she really going to apologize? She really couldn't swallow it!

Just then, a powerful and righteous voice sounded, "How dare you, a white-skinned pig, act wild on my H Country territory? I think you are tired of living."

As the words fell, Ryan stood up from behind Clarissa and looked at Smith disdainfully.

For some reason, Smith was scared when he saw Ryan's eyes.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 366 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Not only Smith but many of the people present were also shocked.

At this moment, Ryan made people feel differently. He was the same person but still, anyone could tell he was different from himself one second before. The crowd around could get a strong vibe from Ryan, affecting everyone invisibly, causing them to look at Ryan as if they had met their own leader, instinctively afraid and nervous.

It could not be more natural. This was Ryan in the flesh. Once he lost his temper, no one would be able to face his wrath.

However, Ryan's aura did not last long. He was always a low-key person and did not want to attract too much attention.

Smith shook his head and felt that he was hallucinating. How could he be frightened by the thin and dry H Country man in front of him? This was literally an insult to him!

So he became even angrier from embarrassment. He snorted and cursed. Then he waved his hand and said to George and Dombey, "You guys go together and teach this yellow monkey a lesson!"

George and Dombey got Smith's order, nodded hard, and then made a boxing gesture. They began to walk towards Ryan with a grim smile, as if Ryan had already been beaten down by them.

Advertisement

Everyone around them got nervous and thought that Ryan would be doomed this time. The two bodyguards looked too strong and their fists were as big as ordinary people's knees. How could Ryan be able to fight them?

Flora and the others were also anxious and worried about Ryan. This time, Ryan was going to suffer. Then he would definitely blame them!

Clarissa was not worried. She had already seen Ryan's strength and had absolute confidence in Ryan. She even hoped that Ryan would teach these arrogant foreigners a lesson.

Flora was anxious. She quickly grabbed Clarissa's hand and said, "Oh, Clarissa, this is not good. Mr. Howard is going to be beaten up. We will have to take the blame by then!"

Advertisement

She immediately saw that Clarissa was not worried at all. Instead, she was very excited. Her eyes were wide open and there was a smile on her lips. Flora was very puzzled and complained, "Clarissa, it's already this time. How can you still smile? In a short while when Mr. Howard was beaten up, we will also have to suffer. Oh, how could this happen? If I had known that I shouldn't have greeted Mr. Howard just now, as long as they didn't meet, there wouldn't be a conflict. If there wouldn't be a conflict, it wouldn't have implicated us, ah..."

Flora was complaining endlessly, her face full of worry and panic. Clarissa rolled her eyes and comforted her, "Sister, don't worry.

Mr. Howard is a martial arts master. He will be fine. You'll see later. The two bodyguards must be the ones to suffer."

When Flora heard this, her eyes widened and she scolded angrily, "Clarissa, you're crazy. Mr. Howard is so thin. How can he..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, she saw an unbelievable scene. The two bodyguards arrived in front of Ryan. Just as they were about to punch, they were kicked out by Ryan. It happened in an instant and they flew out and fell to the ground, unable to get up.

Not only her but so many people present were also dumbfounded at the same time. They couldn't believe what was happening in front of them. It was like watching a movie. The two bodyguards were so tall but they were kicked out by Ryan?

This...

Smith was also dumbfounded. By the time he realized it, Ryan had already walked up to him, stared at him coldly, and said, "Who did you just say was a yellow monkey?"

..” Smith looked at the smiling Ryan in front of him and suddenly felt his scalp numb. He was also half a combat star. He had practiced Sanda, jujitsu, wrestling, and other skills. He knew how much strength it took to kick two hundred-kilogram strong men off.

Gulped!

Advertisement

He swallowed heavily and began to fear. How could he not realize that he had kicked the iron plate?

However, he was still very stubborn. At least he was an international movie star and had a huge international influence. Even if the H Country man could fight, he would not dare to do anything to him!

Thinking of this, he regained his composure and complained, "You H Country man, how dare you hurt my bodyguard! It threatens my safety. Now I suspect you are a terrorist who is about to kidnap me. I will have to call the police!"

As he spoke, his agent took out the phone and threatened Ryan by calling the police. When Ryan saw his reaction, he immediately laughed. This guy was too bold to threaten him even when he was doomed.

"Call the police?" Ryan smiled meaningfully. The smile fell into Smith's eyes but became a sign of fear to him. He was even more proud and said, "Yes, I'm an international movie star. If I call the police, you'll be in jail for at least three years! Unless you kneel down and apologize to us now and compensate us for our loss, then I can choose not to call the police."

He was sure that Ryan would not dare to do anything to him. At least he was an internationally famous star. Ryan must have seen his movie. Once he called the police, Ryan would be in trouble.

As for Flora saying that this yellow monkey was the chairman of the ZQ Media? That was obviously bullshit. Only a fool would believe it.

Ryan turned to Clarissa and asked, "How much did Nash invest in the movie that you and he have worked on?"

It came out of nowhere that Clarissa and the others were stunned. Clarissa came to her senses and said, "200 million." Ryan nodded and said, "It's only two hundred million. Not much. I'll take it."

He said this in mandarin, and many people around him heard it. It was really absurd hearing such words coming out from his mouth. He was dressed in such plain clothes. He looked no different from many salaried workers. He actually said two hundred million was not much?

Ryan didn't care what others thought of him. After he finished speaking, he turned around and grinned at Smith, "Smith, since you want me to compensate for the loss, I might as well compensate more."

After saying that, Ryan made a move and slapped him, and a crisp sound sounded. It could be heard throughout half of the airport. Smith, a tall man, was hit turning 360 degrees by Ryan's slap, and fell heavily to the ground. Half of his face was swollen, and blood flowed from the corner of his mouth.

The agent was pissed immediately and was about to punch Ryan in the face. However, in Ryan's eyes, his movement was as slow as a snail.

Ryan didn't even dodge. Another slap sent the agent flying, spinning in the air and landing heavily on the ground.

There were still two white people left standing there. They were all stunned. They didn't expect Ryan to really dare to hit them for they had never encountered such a situation before!

To be honest, it was not the first time they had come to H Country. When the last two movies were about to be released in H Country, they had also come to H Country for promotion. All the people with who they came into contact were polite and respectful to them.

They were nothing like this violent young man.

Now that Ryan was about to walk towards them, they got scared.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 367 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Ryan didn't give them the chance to beg for mercy. He just raised his hand and slapped them across the face. The two fell to the ground, their cheeks swollen.

For a moment, the way everyone looked at Ryan changed. He was too damn powerful and violent. These two tall strong foreigners were taught a lesson by him. The scene seemed so unreal!

Smith and the others were so shocked and scared. It was not the first time they had come to H Country, but they had never met such a thing before. None of the people from H Country they had met in the past was disrespectful to them.

"You, you..." Smith covered his face with his hand and felt a burning pain. He stared at Ryan in horror and couldn't articulate properly.

Not to mention them, Flora and the others were also shocked. They never expected that the chairman of ZQ Media was so good at fighting and so violent!

Ryan looked down at Smith and said, "This is a little punishment for you. The next time I hear you insulting we H Country people, you will get more than a slap!"

Advertisement

Smith was very angry, irritated, and humiliated. He clenched his teeth, but didn't dare to talk back to Ryan, because he was genuinely terrified of him.

Ryan quit while he was ahead and didn't create difficulties for them again. Instead, he turned to Clarissa and said, "Miss Brown, I'm sorry. I put you in an awkward position by slapping these foreigners, but I will call Nash and clarify the whole situation to him."

Somehow, Clarissa felt warm inside. Was Ryan caring about her feelings?

She shook her head and said, "Mr. Howard, it's so kind of you, and you are not to blame for this. Smith and the others are too overbearing to begin with, and I'm on your side."

Advertisement

After that, she blinked wittily. Ryan gave a faint smile and said nothing else but, "In that case, I won't disturb you. I'm going back now."

Clarissa had intended to ask Ryan to stay, but Ryan had already turned around and left. Her lips moved and she wanted to say something to make him stay, but she didn't at last. Clarissa was a little disappointed. But immediately, she got excited again. Could it be that her relationship with Ryan had become closer?

But to be honest, Mr. Howard was really handsome and mighty just now. Such a man was the perfect being!

When Ryan left, Smith breathed a sigh of relief and began to swear angrily, "This damn yellow...man. He's so outrageous! I must call the police!"

Then, he gave Clarissa and Flora a ferocious stare and said, "I will tell your chairman what happened just now. I am very dissatisfied with your performance just now! This cooperation has been canceled!"

After that, he left no chance for Clarissa and Flora to speak, turned around and strode away, but his back looked very embarrassed.

When Ryan returned from the airport, he took a taxi and went straight back to Dragon Bay.

Ryan didn't put what happened just now in mind at all. To him, it was just a thing that could not be any smaller.

An hour later, Ryan returned to Dragon Bay and happened to see Phoebe watering the flowers there. She was in her casual wear and looked exceptionally virtuous. When Ryan saw this scene, his heart softened immediately.

He worked hard outside home to provide Phoebe with a stable environment.

Advertisement

He walked over and gestured to the hidden bodyguards around. They saluted Ryan at once to show their respect for him and then disappeared silently.

With Ryan around, Phoebe was the safest. No one could hurt Phoebe.

The bodyguards could just take some days off.

“Hey, pretty girl, could you have dinner with me?” Ryan walked behind Phoebe quietly, patted Phoebe gently on the shoulder and said with a smile.

Phoebe refused subconsciously, “No, I’m already…”

Phoebe didn’t say the last word, “married”. She stiffened suddenly, and the sprinkling can in her hand also fell to the ground with a clang. The next second, she turned around abruptly and saw Ryan. She opened her arms and threw herself into Ryan’s arms, her eyes turning red all of a sudden!

It didn’t occur to Ryan either that Phoebe would react so violently, while he was stunned instead. With that, he was already tightly held by Phoebe, and could feel her curvy figure, which ignited the desire in his underbelly.

It was said that absence made the heart grow fonder, and it was absolutely true.

In addition, his current physique was dozens of times that of an ordinary man, and he was so vigorous. It had been almost ten days since they had last seen each other, so naturally, Ryan got very excited!

“Ryan, you’re finally back. I’ve missed you so much!” Phoebe held Ryan tight and said affectionately.

Ryan’s heart was filled up instantly. It felt so good to have a woman waiting at home.

He took Phoebe in his arms and said lovingly, “Phoebe, I’ve also missed you very much these days, so so much.”

Phoebe’s eyes turned red and she said, “Where have you been these days? Your phone was off when I called you, and I was so worried about you.”

Ryan could hear the choking in Phoebe’s voice, and he felt ashamed. During the hunting competition, he had left his phone in the hotel, so Phoebe had failed to reach him.

With Phoebe’s character, she must have been worried.

Fortunately, he had defeated Peter. If he had lost, the consequences would be too ghastly to imagine.

“Phoebe, I’m sorry. I wasn’t being considerate and made you worry. But rest assured, this won’t happen again in the future. I’ll take my phone with me and report to you wherever I go as soon as possible.” Ryan said seriously.

However, Phoebe shook her head and said, "Ryan, you misunderstood me. I don't want to monitor you. What I want is you being safe. In the future, no matter what you do or where you go, you have to put your own safety first."

Ryan could feel Phoebe's affection through her eyes. He nodded solemnly and said, "Yes! I promise you that I will put my safety first in the future, and that I won't do anything dangerous randomly."

Phoebe nodded, "That's good... Damn it, don't run your hands over me!"

Phoebe could feel that Ryan was groping her, and her affectionate face turned red all of a sudden. She got extremely shy. Ryan had used to be quite a gentleman, but when had he become so lascivious? It was still daytime.

Ryan chuckled and said, "Honey, I didn't sleep well last night, and I'm a little sleepy. Why don't we go back to our room and rest?"

Phoebe blushed violently and her heart beat faster. She was no longer an ignorant girl, so how could she not know what Ryan meant? In an instant, she became extremely shy.

She wanted to nod in agreement subconsciously, but suddenly, something popped into her mind. She took Ryan's hands away at once and said in a low voice, "Stop that. Megan is here too!"

"What?" Ryan was stunned. Then he looked in one direction and did see Megan standing there, staring at them with envy.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 368 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Ryan was shocked. Damn it. Why was Megan here? She must see them bill and coo. This was a little awkward.

Fortunately, Ryan was thick-skinned enough. He pretended to cough, let go of Phoebe and said, "Megan is here. Why didn't you tell me?"

Phoebe rolled her eyes at Ryan, showing speechlessness. She found that Ryan not only turned more lecherous, but more thick-skinned than before.

"How can you blame me? You didn't even tell me you were back. How can I find time to inform you?" Phoebe complained slightly, but now she did feel very embarrassed. Just now, Ryan's hands reached into her clothes, and Megan just saw this. It was really awkward.

Speaking of which, she and Megan hadn't seen each other for a long time. Just in the past few days, Megan came to chat with her every day, and several times she mentioned Ryan actively. Now Megan saw them doing something intimate. How awkward!

It had to be said that Phoebe was really beautiful, especially after she got married. Her every move and smile looked more feminine, especially attractive.

Advertisement

At this moment, Megan came over, and her eyes landed on Ryan's face, flashing an obvious resentment. She had witnessed all along, and she was so envious and jealous!

She wished she could become Phoebe and Ryan came on to her. "Phoebe, I really envy you. You and Ryan are so close." Megan said half-jokingly as she walked over.

Phoebe did not know that her good friend Megan had already been interested in Ryan. She blushed and said, "Megan, don't laugh at me, please."

Megan said, "I didn't laugh at you. I really envy you for having such a great husband as Ryan!" As she said this, she deliberately licked her lips and made a flirtatious gesture to Ryan. Ryan immediately shivered. He quickly moved his eyes away. Megan was also a seductive woman!

Advertisement

Why were there so many of this kind of women around him now? It was as if he had become hot cake, he would be tricked by those women in an unguarded moment.

Phoebe was a little stupid now. She didn't hear Megan's insinuation, and didn't expect Megan to have designs on Ryan. She went over to hold Megan's hand and said with a smile, "Megan, it's easy for you to find a good man. I think that Young Master before was a very good match. He was handsome and owned a company, quite rich."

When Megan heard this, her face immediately flashed with panic, and she quickly explained, "Phoebe, what nonsense are you talking about? I have nothing to do with Young Master. We are not seeing each other at all! Don't slander me. I'm single now. I've always been single. I'm a virgin."

Megan's words were clearly spoken to Ryan.

In front of his wife, how dare Ryan show any intimacy with Megan? He quickly moved his eyes to the other side and pretended not to hear.

Phoebe found Megan's strange eyes. When she said this, she didn't say it to her, but looked at Ryan. She felt very strange and asked, "Megan, why are you looking at Ryan when you speak?"

When Ryan heard this, he immediately panicked and glared at Megan.

Megan was also a little flustered and explained, "No, I'm not. I haven't seen your husband for a long time. I heard that he is a big boss now."

Phoebe was innocent enough. She did not doubt that there was any secret between Megan and Ryan. She immediately believed Megan's words and said proudly, "Yes, Ryan is now the chairman of the ZQ Media. Is he excellent?"

Advertisement

Speaking of this, Phoebe could not hide her pride. Ryan used to be a disgrace that she did not want to mention, but now Ryan was her pride.

Ryan was a little helpless, thinking that Megan knew this earlier than you did.

Megan was also very unhappy. Speaking of which, she found out Ryan's identity first. From that time on, she found a new life goal, which was to do her best to get Ryan, this rich man!

Originally, this was a sure thing for her. She thought she could hook up with Ryan in minutes. After all, there was no such man who didn't like new girl.

However, Ryan was really different. After so long, her seductive means didn't work at all. She had doubts about her charm many times!

Now that Phoebe recalled this, words couldn't describe how depressed she was.

And what was even more depressing was that she had to make a surprised expression. "Really? ZQ Media, that's a big company. Ryan is the chairman. That's amazing."

Phoebe smiled brightly and said, "Well, I don't know how he could turn to be the chairman of the ZQ Media."

Then, Phoebe just bragged, which made Ryan a little embarrassed and said, "The sun is setting. Let's go inside to talk."

Phoebe said after a while, "Look at me. I totally forgot about this. Megan, my mother is about to make dinner, so you can stay to have dinner with us."

Megan had intended to do so, but she didn't know how to ask. Now that Phoebe invited her, it was exactly what she wanted.

But on the surface, she said shyly, "Yes? Will it disturb you?"

When Ryan heard that Phoebe was going to invite Megan for dinner, he felt bad. It was not that he was stingy, but that he knew Megan. If Megan was staying for dinner, then she would stay here tonight.

And once Megan stayed over for the night, it would affect his plan to make a baby? This was not gonna happen.

So he quickly said, "Well, I don't think it's a good idea. There must be numerous handsome men asking Megan to dinner. Let's not disturb her."

Phoebe asked, "Megan, are you going to dinner with some handsome man? If that's the case, then I won't keep you."

Megan said quickly, “No! I told you I’m single now and I don’t want to be in a relationship for the time being. It’s so late to go back and cook. I don’t want to eat takeout either. Phoebe, thank you so much for keeping me for dinner.”

As she spoke, Megan hugged Phoebe and deliberately stuck out her tongue at Ryan while Phoebe couldn’t see, which made Ryan so angry that he gritted his teeth.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 369 -

In the end, Megan stayed for dinner. Since it was Phoebe invited Megan, who was thick-skinned, there was nothing he could do. He couldn’t stop Phoebe.

He was really depressed by Megan’s stay. A little separation made the heart grow fonder. He hadn’t been intimate with Phoebe for a long time. He thought that he could have fun this time, but Megan came out and ruined his plan.

When she came in, Megan saw Phoebe holding Ryan’s hand intimately. She was a timid and lovable little woman. Megan was especially envious. Ironically, she used to laugh at Phoebe who married Ryan, a useless live-in son-in-law. It turned out that Ryan was not a waste, but a real big shot. Phoebe also flew up the branch and became a phoenix.

Instead, she had never been able to find a suitable husband and was still alone. One thing she didn’t lie about was that she was indeed single now, and she had been single for a long time.

It wasn't that she didn't have anyone to chase after her. However, after she met Ryan, her taste improved a lot. Now, she looked down on the so-called rich second generation, who could not compare to Ryan at all.

That was why she thought that she would be willing to pursue Ryan, even if she was just Ryan's secret lover.

Advertisement

Originally, she felt guilty for such an idea. After all, Phoebe was so good to her and treated her like a sister, but she wanted to seduce Phoebe's husband. It was immoral.

Later on, she knew that there were several vixens pestering Ryan. One was prettier than the other. They were all vixens, who regarded Ryan as their target. How could she sit watching? Hurry up. Anyway, Ryan would be seduced by the vixens outside sooner or later, which would threaten Phoebe.

It was better for her to be the vixen. First, she found her own happiness. Second, she and Phoebe were close friends, and she would never threaten Phoebe. And she could also use tricks to make out with Ryan, depriving Ryan of the energy to find other women. She was killing three birds with one stone.

Sometimes women's mindset was really weird and unbelievable.

Advertisement

Ryan chatted with Phoebe in the living room for a while, and then he went to take a bath. He had been on a plane all day. Now he was even dressed in someone else's clothes. He was not very comfortable, so he had to take a bath.

It was quite cold now, but Ryan still used cold water. The habit was good to his body.

After a war with Peter, he didn't seem to be hurt on the surface. In fact, he was hurt a little. He just couldn't see it with clothes on.

Now that he took off his clothes and washed them with the sprinkler, he could see many bruises and broken capillaries on his body.

Even if Peter was killed by him, Peter was also a mid-level master of the Innate Realm. His cultivation was shocking, and his every punch and kick brought unlimited power. Otherwise, the fight between the two of them would not have brought so much damage to the forest.

Even if Ryan was a master of Innate Realm, every fight with Peter would bring harm and burden to his body.

But those were minor injuries. He just needed to adjust to get back to normal.

To him, what was really more serious was Peter's last shot, even if he took a deep breath and shrank his chest an inch, just in time to avoid Peter's explosive punch. Peter still hit him in the chest, but the power was reduced by 90%.

But the remaining ten percent was destructive enough. After all, it was his chest.

Now that he had taken off his clothes, he could see that there was a clear fist print on his chest. Moreover, there was tiny blood oozing from all around him, which looked particularly frightening.

Advertisement

Ryan had been standing under the sprinkler. The cold water kept washing his body and he was about to fall asleep.

In fact, he used his own consciousness to enter his body, control his Qi, and slowly recover from these injuries.

That was a skill that he had mastered after he had reached the Innate Realm. In a sense, it was a little like what the Taoists called "Internal Vision."

The human body was the most sophisticated machine. Any movement of the human body would bring more or less damage to the human body. When they were young, the cells were very healthy and active, and they could be actively repaired.

But as soon as they get older, the cells become old and lose their activity, and it was hard to repair them. Over time, people became older and older, their bodies became weaker and weaker, their immune systems became weaker, and they were prone to illness and even death.

After breaking through to the Innate Realm, the cell viability was greatly increased, which could quickly repair the damage and enable people not to grow old easily. After learning Internal vision, this ability would improve even more.

It was no exaggeration to say that now Ryan could at least maintain his peak to 60 years old, or even longer! And his life expectancy would also increase significantly, which was the true charm of Innate Realm.

After all, no matter how rich and capable a person was, he could not stop the passing of time. When he was old, he would still turn into a cup of dust. Now, through cultivation, Ryan was not only improving his strength and intelligence but was fighting with heaven.

He believed that in the legendary realm of immortality, life expectancy would increase even more. Perhaps he could live up to 200 years old!

Two hundred years old. What a long time it was!

Ryan felt that after he reached this stage, he was not only a very good martial arts master but a scientist and biologist. He was exploring the limits of the human body through his own experiments.

This bath took Ryan an hour to finish. By the time he finished, his injuries had healed a lot and he had recovered 80% of his strength.

After a good night's rest tonight, he would be able to recover to 90% tomorrow, and 100% the day after tomorrow.

Moreover, after this battle with Peter, it was of great help to his cultivation. Although his realm had not improved, his fighting ability had improved by at least one level. He had a deeper understanding of combat. He was confident that if there was another master like Peter, he could easily defeat the guy and without being hurt.

When he came out, his mother-in-law Elizabeth had just finished cooking dinner. He came out at the right time.

Ever since his father-in-law and mother-in-law knew his identity, he had become the head of the family. Even James had to act on his behalf.

However, Ryan didn't care about that at all.

After dinner, what Ryan was most worried about happened. Phoebe and Megan had a good chat. Phoebe really asked Megan to spend the night...

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 370 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“This is not good, is it?”

Ryan immediately said and kept winking at Phoebe, telling Phoebe not to keep Megan over for the night. It was not a joke. He hadn't had s*x for a long time. If Megan stayed over for the night, he would lose control in minutes.

However, Phoebe couldn't help but blush and glare shyly at Ryan, pretending not to see it.

Megan's eyes had been fixed on Ryan, and she naturally saw Ryan's expression. She was even more determined to stay here tonight.

She retreated in order to advance. She sighed deeply and looked very disappointed. She said to Phoebe, “Phoebe, since Ryan said so, I'd better go back. I'll play with you next time.”

At this point, she sighed again and said, “But we really haven't had a long talk for a long time. I remember the last time we had a long talk was when we were in college, right? Alas...”

Advertisement

Phoebe was a very soft-hearted person. She couldn't bear to see Megan's resentful look now. Besides, Megan was right. They had not had a long talk for a long time.

So she took Megan's hand and said, "Ignore him. You can stay and sleep here tonight. We haven't slept together for a long time." "What? You still want to sleep with her? Then what should I do?" Ryan was shocked.

Ryan immediately widened his eyes and said in a hurry as he was dumbfounded, "Hey, have you forgotten me? You two can sleep together. What about me?"

Phoebe rolled her eyes at him and said, "Sleep by yourself. What's wrong? Do you still want to sleep with us?"

Advertisement

"I would like to..." Ryan said in his heart.

Of course, Ryan would never say it out.

"That's not what I meant, but you two have plenty of opportunities to talk in the future. Why do you have to talk with each other tonight?" Ryan felt that his thoughts were obvious enough that Phoebe could understand it no matter what.

Of course, Phoebe understood. Her face flushed a little. In fact, she really wanted to sleep with Ryan, but Megan was already here, and she was such a good friend to her. She couldn't chase Megan away, so she could only temporarily wronged Ryan for tonight.

"That's settled. I'll sleep in the guest room with Megan tonight. You can sleep in the master bedroom yourself." Phoebe said firmly.

Megan's eyes flashed with cunning. She held Phoebe's hand and said happily, "That's great. We can finally have a good chat. Haha."

At the angle that Phoebe couldn't see, Megan blinked at Ryan again, showing a smug expression. This made Ryan extremely angry. He gritted his teeth. When he got back, he had to deduct Megan's salary!

Ryan knew that this matter had been settled, and he had no choice but to sigh in his heart. He had better sleep by himself tonight.

When Megan, the third wheel, left tomorrow, he would teach Phoebe a good lesson.

Phoebe and Megan slept in the guest room tonight, while Ryan slept in the master bedroom alone.

He was indeed a little tired. After entering the room, he simply meditated for a while and then went to bed to rest.

Advertisement

Sleep was a necessity for everyone. Even if Ryan had reached the Innate Realm, he was no exception. It was just that the time he needed now was not as long as that of an ordinary person.

Soon, he fell asleep. In his sleep, his injuries were gradually recovering. When he woke up tomorrow, he would be much better.

He was in his sleep. While all of a sudden, he vaguely heard the sound of someone opening the door and coming in!

The other party's movements were very gentle and careful. While although Ryan was already asleep, he still heard it. But he was too sleepy, so he still slept soundly.

It was already three o'clock in the night. After waiting for a long time, Megan finally found that Phoebe fell asleep and she created this opportunity to "attack" Ryan at night.

Fortunately, the door of Ryan's room was not locked. It was great that she had such a good opportunity!

She had been thinking about Ryan for so long, and now it was the first time she had the chance to get so close to Ryan, which made her extremely excited.

Tonight, she could tell that Ryan was holding back his desire all the time. This was a good opportunity for her.

If she could take Ryan down, she wouldn't have to worry about anything for the rest of her life.

After locking the door, Megan walked towards Ryan step by step with the help of the light from the screen of her phone. The feeling of being a thief was too exciting.

Finally, Megan quietly walked to Ryan's bed and saw Ryan sleeping soundly. He was especially quiet and handsome.

It was strange. At first glance, Ryan's appearance was not a handsome type. It could only be considered as being mediocre. But after looking at it carefully, one would find that he was much more charming and would make people fall in love with him.

In the past, Megan would never have liked Ryan. He was just an ordinary man. But now, Megan felt that Ryan was handsome from the bottom of her heart. She also thought that Ryan was especially masculine and charming. It was the first time she had ever seen such a man ever since she had grown up, so she envied Phoebe so much as Phoebe could marry Ryan.

The point was that Ryan was also a great man. He didn't cheat on his wife. This was more precious than a panda, okay? For those men outside now, once they had money, they would look for affairs.

Megan looked at Ryan now. Her heart was beating fast. She reached out her hand and she waved it in front of Ryan's eyes. Ryan didn't wake up. He should have fallen asleep.

This was even better. It was convenient for her to "attack" Ryan.

She secretly kissed Ryan on the face gently, then quickly squatted down and hid by the bed, afraid that Ryan would wake up.

In the end, Ryan just wiped his face and continued to sleep without waking up.

In this way, she was more relaxed. According to the situation, Ryan was really asleep.

Then she began to try to get up. Her movements were especially gentle, afraid that she would make a sound and wake Ryan up.

Fortunately, Ryan still didn't wake up and slept soundly.

In fact, if Ryan was in his normal condition, he could wake up once he noticed something. He would notice what was happening immediately once Megan entered the room.

However, because of his life-and-death struggle with Peter yesterday, his body had suffered a lot of injuries. Now he was in a state of dormancy and recuperation. In addition, he felt very safe in his own home. He was in a relaxed mood and went into a deep sleep, so he did not find Megan's existence.

Finally, Megan got into the quilt. She was only ten centimeters away from Ryan. Her heart was beating fast. She hadn't been so nervous for a long time.

In fact, she made a lot of effort to make up her mind to run into Ryan's room in the middle of the night. It was because once Phoebe found out, she would be finished. Their friendship would come to an end in minutes.

But she still did it because she liked Ryan more and more. In the past, she made up her mind to take Ryan down mainly because Ryan was the Chairman of ZQ Inc and had a lot of money. However, after her contact with Ryan and as she knew more about Ryan, she had a deeper understanding of Ryan. Knowing that Ryan was a very attractive man, she slowly fell in love with him and couldn't get away with her love to Ryan.

In other words, even if Ryan was not the Chairman now, she would still like Ryan.
