

The moment they caught sight of Lin Fan, Leng Aotian and He Lanshan both violently stiffened. All they could feel was a chill shooting up from their feet to their head, bombarding their brains.

“He’s... He’s Lin Fan?” Leng Aotian stared at his grandson Leng Bufan, shock all over his face.

Leng Bufan froze. He could vaguely sense that something wasn’t quite right with the look on his grandfather’s face, but he did not think much about it. He immediately nodded furiously and smiled wickedly. “That’s right! Grandpa, this twerp humiliated you by calling you an old fart who doesn’t dare to touch him! Please, Grandpa, take revenge on him for me! Skin this little pig alive! Restore the Leng Family’s name!”

Savagery dripped from Leng Bufan’s tone.

However, those words nearly made

Leng Aotian pee his pants in fear.

Skin him alive? Who do you think I'm going to skin alive?

Instantly, everyone watched as Leng Aotian and He Lanshan's face turned pale, then purple, then red. Finally, red crept all over the two grandmasters' faces; even the veins in their foreheads were showing.

Were they angry?

To the crowd present, they assumed that Leng Aotian and He Lanshan were livid upon seeing their expressions.

This made Leng Bufan, Lin Guangyao and company even more thrilled.

Leng Aotian and He Lanshan exchanged glances under their gazes of anticipation. All they could do was steel themselves and approach Lin Fan.

Chapter 333 | Ask for Your Forgiveness

“Hahaha... Lin Fan, weren't you being all audacious earlier? Continue with your shtick if you have the guts to do so!”

“Grandpa, this bastard broke my leg. Help me to cripple all his limbs!”

Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao's words became even more extreme and obnoxious now that they had this pillar of support backing them.

However, Leng Aotian and He Lanshan's legs weakened upon hearing their words; they nearly fell to the floor. Cold sweat dripped from their foreheads freely when they sensed Lin Fan's ambiguous gaze burning into them.

Someone I cannot afford to cross?

Leng Aotian finally understood his son's words.

Lin Fan was the King of Blood Prison!

Chapter 333 | Ask for Your Forgiveness

How could they afford to get on the bad side of the king of the Blood Buddha?

As the two grandmasters Leng Aotian and He Lanshan got closer and closer, the members of the New Bai Family Group immediately fell utterly silent. Every one of the high-ranking members could feel their hearts fighting to tear away from their chests. It was as though the grandmasters' feet were not stepping on the ground, but on their hearts instead, making each high-ranking member pale more and more.

When the two grandmasters finally reached Lin Fan, many of them could no longer withstand the pressure on their hearts and fell to the ground on their behinds, gasping heavily. Bai Yi and Bai Shan were also trembling from fear.

“Grandmasters, you’ll have to kill me first if you want to get to my husband!” Bai Yi pulled Lin Fan behind her and fixed the two grandmasters with a heavy stare with her pretty eyes as she spoke solemnly.

However, she didn't know that Leng Aotian and He Lanshan nearly cried from fear as the corner of their mouths twitched after hearing her words.

Kill her?

Did she think they even had the guts to do so?

Her husband was the King Of Blood Prison, the one who felled the Blood Wolf in one hit and bested the Blood Buddha in ten strikes. Even if they were pumped full of courage, they wouldn't so much as dare to touch a hair on her head.

After they felt Lin Fan's warning gaze, the corners of the two grandmasters' mouth twitched and then they bowed in unison to Bai Yi under everyone's gazes of disbelief.

Chapter 333 | Ask for Your Forgiveness

“Miss Bai Yi, I, Leng Aotian have come to apologize!”

“Miss Bai Yi, I, He Lanshan, had been ignorant. I hereby ask for your forgiveness!”

The chatter from the crowd immediately screeched to a stop the moment those words left the grandmasters’ lips.

Gazes of shock and astonishment were shot their way. No one dared to believe what they had just seen or heard.

“What... What’s going on?”

Lin Guangyao was taken aback. He seemed to have seen the two grandmasters bow to Bai Yi and even apologize to her.

He was not the only one who was confused. Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao’s savage smiles had completely frozen over too. Their eyes were as wide as dinner plates as they watched their grandfathers bow to Bai Yi.

The two of them were practically about to leap out of their wheelchairs and fall to the floor.

“T-This can’t be! Grandpa, aren’t you supposed to get vengeance for me? Why are you bowing to that woman!”

“Grandpa! What are you doing? Don’t you know that that woman there is Lin Fan’s wife? Why are you bowing to the enemy?”

They were baffled. Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao were well utterly confused by the shock of this scene.

The rest of the crowd were whipped into a furor.

“Dear god, w-what did I just see? Did those two grandmasters actually bow to Bai Yi?”

“Just who is this woman Bai Yi? Why are the New Bai Family Group bowing to her? Even those two grandmasters completely reined themselves in when they saw her even though they had stormed here in search of revenge.”

“That’s right! President Bai Yi’s practically unbelievable!”

Silence ensued. To the spectators, Bai Yi had completely conquered the two grandmasters. After all, the two grandmasters had been yelling for Lin Fan’s head when they first stepped inside, but now they were bowing to Bai Yi and apologizing to her after they caught sight of her. Everyone did not dare to believe this.

They were not the only ones. Even Bai Yi and the other higher-ranking members of the New Bai Family Group were astounded.

Everyone stared dumbly at the two old men standing at a perfect 90-degree bow in front of them. They felt as though they were in a dream.

“G-Grandmasters, what are you...” Bai Yi’s voice trembled.

Leng Aotian and He Lanshan still maintained their bows, lacking even the courage to look up at Lin Fan. Upon hearing Bai Yi’s inquiry, they hastily gave a forced smile.

“President Bai Yi, I apologize. We... We were blind to not recognize things for what they are. Please forgive us!”

“That is right, President Bai Yi. We had wished your husband harm, but that is a lapse in our judgement. I ask for your forgiveness!”

The two grandmasters’ words were beyond sincere, but the more sincerity they poured in, the more tumultuous Bai Yi’s feelings became.

What was going on?

Bai Yi could confirm that she had never met these grandmasters before; she was merely the president of a newly-established company. Those two, however, were grandmasters who had shaken up Jiangnan, so why would they bow to her?

“Could it be because of... Lin Fan?” Bai Yi’s mind was currently going through a storm, but she still couldn’t help herself from thinking of Lin Fan because she remembered that Lin Fan had repeatedly said that Leng Aotian and He Lanshan wouldn’t dare to do anything to him.

Bai Yi hadn’t believed him then, but now, however....

“M-Miss Bai Yi!”

Leng Aotian and He Lanshan were on the verge of peeing their pants when they saw Bai Yi's hesitant expression. For a moment, they thought that Bai Yi and Lin Fan weren't going to accept their apologies, so they quickly spoke up again.

Chapter 333 | Ask for Your Forgiveness

"In order to express my sincere apologies, I, Leng Aotian, declare that I shall give my full support to the New Bai Family Group in the future!"

"That is right! I, He Lanshan, also declare that the New Bai Family Group shall be the first to partner with the Lanshan Group!"

The few mere sentences were enough to send the entire crowd into shock.

Chapter 334 The New Elite of Jiangnan—the New Bai Family...

Leng Aotian declared that he would give the New Bai Family Group his full support, while He Lanshan announced that the New Bai Family Group would be their first partnership.

Upon hearing these two grandmasters' words, the entire hall once again broke into another furor.

Gao Zhilong, Gao Shengyuan and the other suppliers felt their skins crawl.

Leng Bufan, He Jiaojiao, Lin Guangyao and the others, however, felt as if they had been struck by lightning.

Everyone could not bring themselves to believe these recent happenings.

Dear lord, what had just happened?

Everyone's gazes immediately swiveled toward Bai Yi's astonished face. They couldn't fathom just what this woman had done to browbeat the Golden Age Group and to make these two grandmasters to bow to her. Not only would the New Bai Family Group have the Golden Age Group to lean on, they also had the Lanshan Group's support backing them along with the Tianlong Group, Fei Family Group, and other financial groups. The New Bai Family Group now appeared as a new enterprise that would skyrocket to huge success in Jiangnan to the crowd at present.

Everyone believed that over time, the Bai Family Group would become a titan to be reckoned with in Jiangnan.

The suppliers—with Gao Zhilong at their helm—could no longer withstand such a blow. One after another, they stumbled to the ground.

“How could this be! How did the Tiansheng Group miss out on the New Bai Family Group!”

Chapter 334 The New Elite of Jiangnan—the New Bai Family...

Gao Zhilong was completely baffled. The other suppliers behind him wished nothing more than to flay the Gao father and son duo. Had it not been for these two inciting a fight, they would still have continued to be partners with the New Bai Family Group. They would have been able to enjoy a beautiful future partnership.

Now, however, leaving the Bai Family Group would mean crossing the latest member of Jiangnan's elites; one could easily imagine the consequences for this.

They weren't the only ones.

Bai Yifan and Shen Jie were experiencing a myriad of emotions. They may be Bai Yi and Lin Fan's relatives, but they had kept homing in on the couple. They had wished that the New Bai Family Group would fail and go bankrupt.

Now, however...

“My Bai Family Group is completely done for!” Bitterness hung on Bai Yifan’s lips.

Shen Jie’s face was the color of ash.
“What would my family say if they were to catch wind of this?”

The two of them couldn’t help but exchange glances, regret and bitterness rising within them.

That wasn’t the end, however, as Lin Fan’s amused voice rang out once again.

“Do you think that this is enough?”

What?!

Upon hearing those words, everyone in the hall was once again struck dumb and they looked at Lin Fan in disbelief.

Hadn't these two grandmasters already bowed to them?

Was this still not enough?

That was why everyone in the hall had looked at Lin Fan as though they were looking at a madman. After all, to them, these two grandmasters' apologies had been directed to Bai Yi only. Who did Lin Fan think he was by taking credit for his wife's achievements?

Right then, everyone thought that the two grandmasters would certainly be beside themselves with fury after Lin Fan spoke up. However, another shocking thing happened right after that.

Leng Aotian and He Lanshan's faces were drained of color from their fear. Dense droplets of sweat rolled fast and freely down their foreheads as though a tap had been turned on.

“M-Mr. Lin, please bring up any requests you have!”

“Y-Yes! Mr. Lin, please speak up!”

Everyone was utterly struck.

Everyone took notice of the thick cloud of fear hanging around the two grandmasters, making them distrust their eyes.

Just what was going on?

Why did the two grandmasters seem to be even more fearful of Lin Fan than they were of Bai Yi?

This was unthinkable.

At that moment, Lin Fan did not care at all about what the crowd thought. He glanced at Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao with an ambiguous smile, the corners of his lips quirking up even more.

Just that single glance immediately scared the living daylights out of Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao when they caught sight of it.

It was then that they realized that they had stepped onto a landmine. Those two certainly had a terrifying background to them, be it Lin Fan or Bai Yi. Otherwise, why would Leng Kang be this frightened? Why would their grandfathers be this fearful?

As that thought, Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao fell over themselves to hastily wheel themselves over before calling out in fright.

“M-Mr. Lin, it is my fault for not recognizing Miss Bai’s status. P-Please forgive me!”

“Mr. Lin, I... I made a mistake. I was genuinely at fault! I shouldn’t have thought of seeking revenge! P-Please give me another chance... a-as a favor for my grandfather!”

Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao were currently close to peeing themselves from fear.

Then, the voice that struck even more fear into those two boomed.

“You made a mistake? One of you wanted to snatch my wife away, and the other broke my mother-in-law’s leg! And only now you admit your mistakes?”

What?!

Upon hearing Lin Fan’s words, Leng Aotian and He Lanshan’s courage fled from their bodies. Prior to this, they only knew that Lin Fan had crippled their grandson and broken their granddaughter’s leg. However, they didn’t know he did it because of this.

Instantly, the two grandmasters blew up.

“You s-swine! Didn’t you tell me that Mr. Lin broke your leg for no reason? Who would have thought that your ego is monstrous enough to make you think of spiriting someone else’s wife away? You b*stard!”

“Jiaojiao, how could you be arrogant enough to break an elderly woman’s leg! Y-You vile creature!”

As they finished their sentences, Leng Aotian and He Lanshan could no longer contain the anger burning in them. With smooth, swooping motions, they lashed out and struck Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao brutally.

Crack!

Crack!

Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao fell out of their wheelchairs from the blows, the sound of bones breaking and terrified screaming ringing out in the air.

In an instant, the crowd could see that Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao were drenched in blood, an unknown number of their bones broken; they had been beaten into unconsciousness.

This scene stoked even more fear within the crowd. None of them had imagined that the two grandmasters would be this vicious toward their own grandchildren because of Lin Fan and Bai Yi.

“M-Mr. Lin, I have disciplined this whelp. Please have mercy and forgive him!”

“That is right, Mr. Lin. I, He Lanshan, shall hereon follow your orders as well as Miss Bai’s in exchange for my granddaughter’s life!”

Everyone in the hall nearly peed their pants upon hearing these grandmasters’ sincere pleas.

Lin Fan, however, merely nodded nonchalantly upon seeing this. They were just two maggots after all. He wasn't at all bothered whether they lived or died.

He could even kill those grandmasters at any moment if he wished to.

Right then, Lin Fan's gaze shifted to land on Lin Guangyao, Gao Zhilong and Gao Shengyuan.

"If my ears hadn't been tricking me, I heard that you three were the ones who barked the loudest. I think I heard you say that you wished that I would... die?"

What?!

Two simple sentences, and yet they were enough to make Lin Guangyao and the Gaos lose control of their bladders.

The three of them knew that disaster was about to strike.

Chapter 335 The Bai Family Group... Is Finished

The opening of the New Bai Family Group drew plenty of eyes; simply speaking, these spectators had been waiting to see the New Bai Family Group make a fool out of themselves. After all, everyone knew that Lin Fan had crippled Leng Bufan and broken He Jiaojiao's leg; they all assumed that the grandmasters Leng Aotian and He Lanshan would be sure to tear this useless son-in-law into pieces.

What was more, another rumor had been spreading all over Jiang City; apparently, the maiming of Gao Shengyuan—the young master of Tiansheng Group—as well as thirty of his subordinates were also related to Lin Fan.

Whoa! As soon as news of it broke out, all forces in Jiang City went into a frenzy.

Tiansheng Group had been the New Bai Family Group's largest partner. Since Lin

Chapter 335 The Bai Family Group... Is Finished

Fan had broken Gao Shengyuan's leg, the New Bai Family Group would surely lose their biggest partnership because of this grudge; they were about to drown and die under water.

Old Master Bai, Master Bai Hai, Master Bai Chuan, Bai Yan and the others gathered together to talk and laugh among themselves at the Bai Residence.

"Hahaha... Grandpa, I really didn't think that Lin Fan would be such an idiot! Not only did he get on the two grandmasters' bad side, he has now offended the New Bai Family Group's largest partner. I think that the opening ceremony today will be quite the show!" Bai Yan's smile was practically splitting her face apart.

Meanwhile, the others also shared her schadenfreude.

Master Bai Hai's eyes crinkled as he announced, "I just received the news that Gao Zhilong has contacted all the suppliers to go to the Blue Ocean Building just to dissolve their contracts with the New Bai Family Group!"

All of the suppliers?

As soon as the high-ranking members of the Bai Family Group heard this, the smile on their faces grew even wider.

"They're done for! Bai Yi sure is an unlucky one for meeting Lin Fan, that useless lump of a husband! Now, he's just dragging her company to its death!"

"Hahaha, that's right! Lin Fan is practically a violent freak for breaking people's legs every other day! Let's just see how he's going to die now!"

That was how their discussion went; in the eyes of the Bai family, the death of the New Bai Family Group was seemingly a certain thing.

Right then, a series of frantic footsteps clattered from outside, and an informant hastily dashed in.

“I just got some news in!” This informant’s face was filled with intense excitement. The moment he entered, he immediately announced to the people in the room, “The grandmasters Leng Aotian and He Lanshan have been angered by Lin Fan, and they have subsequently left the hospital! They are headed for the Blue Ocean Building!”

The two grandmasters were personally making their way over.

As soon as this piece of news broke out, all members of the Bai Family nearly jumped for joy.

“They’re finished! Lin Fan is truly in deep trouble now; those two grandmasters are sure to flay him alive!”

“Hahaha, that’s right! That twerp should have died a long time ago. Let’s see how he’s going to survive this!”

“ ... ”

Everyone was beside themselves with excitement, but as soon as the first informant finished, another informant came charging in.

“There’s a new update! The president of Golden Age Group, Leng Kang, has gone to the Blue Ocean Building with all of the higher-ups at his company!”

Even Old Master Bai was taken aback when those words were said; the Golden Age Group was a titan in the business world.

No one had imagined that the New Bai Family Group’s opening ceremony would have attracted such a behemoth as well.

Bai Yan's face was red with excitement as she said to Old Master Bai, "Grandpa! Leng Kang is Leng Bufan's father. He definitely is here to seek revenge for his son!"

"Yes! Not only will the New Bai Family Group have to weather through the dissolution of their suppliers' contracts, they will have to face the behemoth that is the Golden Age Group. I'm afraid that they're absolutely finished!" Bai Hai nodded furiously.

As he listened to them, Old Master Bai kept shaking his head and sighed. "Oh, Bai Yi is such a capable lady! Unfortunately, that useless husband of hers ended up being her downfall!" With that, Old Master Bai turned around and said to the rest of the family, "Everyone, please wait patiently! I am certain that Yifan will soon be back with news of the New Bai Family Group's end!"

Chapter 335 The Bai Family Group... Is Finished

Upon hearing this, everyone nodded and began to wait patiently; many of the higher-ranking members were already thinking about how to divide the New Bai Family Group's remaining assets once the company officially dissolved.

Time ticked by.

After an hour had gone by, an extremely excited voice rang from outside.

"Master Yifan is back!"

That single sentence shook the entire Bai Family, and Old Master Bai led the rest of the members to greet him with excitement on their faces.

As the crowd stepped out of the room, they saw that Bai Yifan had already passed the residence's door.

However, no one noticed that Bai Yifan's soul had seemingly left his body; despair and disbelief glinted faintly in his eyes.

“Yifan! How did it go? I heard that Leng Aotian, He Lanshan, and even the higher-ups from the Golden Age Group had gone over!” Old Master Bai was all smiles as he looked at his grandson.

“Is the New Bai Family Group dead in the water?”

Everyone held their breaths upon hearing the old man’s words. However, the corners of Bai Yifan’s mouth twitched up into a bitter smile. “That’s it! That’s the end!”

Upon hearing Bai Yifan’s words, everyone was whipped into a complete frenzy.

“Hahaha... Success! The traitors of the Bai Family Group are no more!”

“D*mmit! I wonder if Lin Fan got his limbs broken. I’ve been looking forward to seeing that!”

“If the New Bai Family has gone bankrupt, we can purchase the Blue Ocean Building and all of Bai Yi’s businesses!”

“ ... ”

Almost every Bai Family member was jumping for joy; it was like they could already see themselves swallowing all of Bai Yi’s businesses and witness the Bai Family Group soar to new heights. Even Old Master Bai stroked his beard while chuckling, a gratified smile appearing on his face.

However, at the height of their excitement, Bai Yifan’s next words froze their expressions in place.

“What I mean is... the Bai Family Group... is finished!”

As soon as those words left him, the cheers in the porch petered out at once. Glances of shock aimed themselves at Bai Yifan as everyone wondered if their ears were playing tricks on them.

“Yifan! What nonsense are you saying!” Old Master Bai’s expression darkened as he barked at Bai Yifan angrily. “Have you lost your mind from fear? The New Bai Family Group should be the ones who are finished. How can it possibly be us instead?”

Old Master Bai was not the only one; everyone looked at Bai Yifan as though they were gazing at a moron. After all, the one who earned the grandmasters’ ire was the New Bai Family Group!

The New Bai Family Group was also the one to stir the titan that was the Golden Age Group.

Even more so, who had offended their own suppliers? It was the New Bai Family Group too!

Chapter 335 The Bai Family Group... Is Finished

This had nothing to do with the Bai Family's finances at all. How could they be in trouble instead?
