Chapter 336 The Bai Family Which Peed in Fright

Wasn't this a huge joke?

Even Old Master Bai's expression had darkened. He then roared at Bai Yifan, "Yifan, do you know exactly what you are saying?"

"I... I do know, Grandpa!"

A bitter smile appeared on Bai Yifan's face as he swept a glance over everyone present.

However, this gaze was filled with lamentation and helplessness. "I really have not gone mad, and I certainly haven't become senile! We are... finished!"

The moment they heard Bai Yifan reiterate himself, the entire porch went absolutely silent.

It was only then everyone realized that something was wrong, especially when they saw the heavy despair and desolation in Bai Yifan's smile; it was as though something terrifying was about to happen.

"Y-Yifan! What happened there? Speak! Come on, speak up!" Old Master Bai could feel his heart pick up its pace, feeling as though he was on the brink of a heart attack; a bone-chilling sense of impending doom rose within him.

Everyone could also feel their breaths quicken as a sense of foreboding welled up within them as well.

As he looked at the Bai Family, Bai Yifan smiled bitterly and explained, "Grandpa, do you know what happened at the end of the ceremony? The Tiansheng Group simply announced their bankruptcy. The chairman, Gao Zhilong, and eight people on the board of directors have been arrested and sent to prison for suspected misappropriation of funds, while Gao Shengyuan has also been arrested under the suspicion of attempted manslaughter!”

W-what?

Every member of the Bai Family jumped in fright at those words.

Tiansheng Group is finished?

How could this possibly be?

Wasn't there news of Gao Zhilong rallying all the suppliers to dissolve their contracts with the New Bai Family Group earlier that day?

How could the entire Tiansheng Group completely collapse in such a short time?

That wasn't the end of it; Bai Yifan's next words made everyone's jaws drop to the floor.

“Both of Lin Guangyao's legs have been broken, and he has been exiled from Jiang City! He can never step foot here again, or he will be sentenced to death! Eight of Leng Bufan's ribs have been broken by Leng Aotian, and he nearly lost his life in this beating; he has been sent to the hospital for emergency treatment! As for He Jiaojiao, He Lanshan broke five of her bones and she fainted on the spot. She has also been sent to the hospital to be treated immediately!"

The moment Bai Yifan's words left him, every member of the Bai Family felt as if their heads were about to burst.

Lin Guangyao, Leng Bufan, and He Jiaojiao were Lin Fan's enemies.

Still, hadn't they gone to seek revenge on him?

How were they beaten within an inch of their lives? Moreover, how could their own grandfathers be the ones responsible for the beating?

This was utterly unthinkable.

At that moment, one could hear a pin drop on the Bai Residence's porch; everyone could practically hear their own heartbeats, and this sense of foreboding made every member's scalp crawl.

Even Old Master Bai had to gulp a wad of spit down before asking with a trembling voice, "What about Lin Fan then? Was he not punished?"

At the mention of Lin Fan's name, everyone's hearts shuddered violently, especially when they saw how Bai Yifan appeared as though he had seen a ghost as he spoke.

"No! Leng Aotian, He Lanshan, and even President Leng Kang... they had all personally apologized to Lin Fan!"

What?

They apologized?

Upon hearing those words, everyone from Old Master Bai to the very last Bai Family member were dumbfounded.

“How could this be? Leng Aotian and He Lanshan are both grandmasters, and Leng Kang is the chairman of the Golden Age Group! How could these people possibly apologize to that useless lump called Lin Fan!”

“Yeah! Yifan, were your eyes playing tricks on you? It would’ve already been considered a positive outcome if Leng Aotian and the others had let Lin Fan live! How could they apologize to that waste of space!”

“My god, what’s going on? H-How could this be!”

“ ... ”

The entire Bai Family exploded upon hearing Bai Yifan's words.

Expressions of intense disbelief rose on everyone's faces; none of them could believe what they had just heard.

Even Old Master Bai was beside himself as he asked hastily, "Y-Yifan! Why is that so? What on Earth did Lin Fan do? Why would Leng Aotian and the others apologize to him?"

Old Master Bai currently felt as if he was about to suffocate from fear.

Upon seeing this, Bai Yifan furrowed his brows and replied in as much disbelief as the old man was in, "Grandpa, I... I don't know the reason why as well! However, judging from what Leng Aotian and the others had said, it seemed to be because of Bai Yi!"

Bai Yi?

The mention of Bai Yi had everyone

Bai Yi was acknowledged as a very capable woman, but no matter how capable she was, she was still only the chairwoman of a newly-established company and nothing more.

What powers did she possess to make two grandmasters bow to her while the chairman of the Golden Age Group folded himself before her?

Before the crowd could ask any more questions, Bai Yifan continued to speak with his forehead still tightly creased. "However, I think that this matter is much more complicated than it seems! I realized that while Leng Aotian, He Lanshan and the chairman of the Golden Age Group apologized to Bai Yi, they seemed to be even more afraid of... Lin Fan! It was as if Lin Fan had some terrifying backstory to him!"

Bam! Bai Yifan's words were like a bomb, setting off even more confusion among the Bai Family.

Both grandmasters and the chairman of the Golden Age Group were even more afraid of Lin Fan?

How could such people be so frightened of a live-in husband?

How could this be?

All everyone could feel was the furious and endless beating of their hearts; it felt as though their hearts would leap out of their throats at any moment.

Even cold sweat dripped from Old Master Bai's brow.

“Yifan, what about the situation now?”

That was right; everyone was most concerned about the New Bai Family Group's situation.

Bai Yifan's following words, however, nearly made the members of the Bai Family faint.

"He Lanshan and the Lanshan Group announced that the New Bai Family Group will be their first partner! Likewise, the Golden Age Group also announced the New Bai Family Group as their first partner! Jiangnan's Tian Group declared the same thing as well!"

Bai Yifan recited conglomerate after conglomerate; there were over ten names listed.

What was more, each name was among the most powerful of Jiangnan's tycoons.

Right then, the Bai Family felt as though a bomb had detonated upon hearing the list of powerful groups, rendering them dumbstruck; it was as though everyone could see the mad rise of a terrifying new elite in Jiangnan City.

At last, Old Master Bai fell butt-first to the ground. It was only then that everyone snapped out of their shocked stupor.

“Grandpa!”

Everyone leaped up in shock upon seeing the old man fall, and they all hastily scrambled over. Some of them helped to rub his back while others rushed to fetch some water. After a long while of fussing, the old man finally let out a breath; he had regained some of his wits.

“Our Bai Family is doomed!” At this moment, Old Master Bai looked miserable; it seemed like he had suddenly grown older by ten years, surrounded by an aging aura which appeared weak and fragile.

As for the others including Bai Hai and Bai Chuan—Old Master Bai’s two eldest sons—all of them turned as white as a sheet.It’s all over!

The rise of New Bai Family Group marked the destruction of their Old Bai Family Group, especially when there were so many business conglomerates supporting the New Bai Family Group. It would be a piece of cake for them to destroy the Old Bai Family Group if they really wished to do so.

What should we do now? Everyone looked grim and desperate.

Noticing that all of them were looking at him, a bitter smile crossed Old Master Bai's face. "It seems like expelling Bai Yi and Lin Fan from the Bai Family was the stupidest mistake I've ever made in my entire life! Now, there's only one thing we can do!"

Eh? Old Master Bai's words puzzled all members of the Bai Family surrounding him. There's still... hope? Hope flickered in every Bai Family member's eyes once again as they gazed at Old Master Bai attentively.

"Father, hurry, tell us quickly! What other ways do we still have now?" The faces of Bai Hai and the rest turned red due to extreme excitement.

Old Master Bai turned around and glanced across at the younger members of the Bai Family. Then, he announced reluctantly, "Contact the Bai Clan from Jiangnan Province! We can only be saved if they agree to help us!”

The Bai Clan from Jiangnan Province!

The expressions of the surrounding members of the Bai Family changed abruptly after hearing what Old Master Bai had said; extreme fear and terror crossed their faces immediately. The looks on their faces were so petrifying that it seemed as though they had heard some horrible things.

The Golden Age Group, Lanshan Group, the Tian Group and others were definitely among the top most influential business conglomerates in Jiangnan Province.

However, unbeknownst to most people, there were another four greatest, most mysterious and terrifying families, who were way more powerful than these business conglomerates—the Bai Family, the Huangfu Family, the Sima Family and the Ye Family!

These four greatest families had been established around the Jiangnan Province for over a hundred years; they were known as the Ancient Families of the Century.

Almost all members and apprentices from the four greatest terrifying families involved themselves in various sectors in the society, including military and political worlds as well as the fashion industry.

Old Master Bai used to be one of the members of the Bai Clan from Jiangnan Province back then, but he was expelled from the family due to his defeat in a family power struggle. He then escaped to Jiang City and established another branch of the Bai Family in the city.

Despite that, Old Master Bai didn't have the courage to meet members of the Bai Clan from Jiangnan Province even after several decades. Now, he had no choice but to ask for the help of

Jiangnan's Bai Clan.

“I know that all of you are scared! I’m scared as well!” Old Master Bai knew everyone would have such an expression on their faces. There was a hesitant and intense complicated look on his face. “Indeed, the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province is too terrifying to be mentioned—even the Golden Age Group would appear insignificant before the great and powerful Bai Clan! In the military world, there’s Bai Hu, a three-star General who leads over ten thousands of soldiers guarding the Eastern Sea of the country. All of them are brave and strong, unrivaled to any soldier in the world! In the world of politics, they have four-star political leaders, who are so influential that they can do anything as they please and no one will dare to disobey their orders! Then, in the underworld, they have an organization—the White Angels! The assassins and mercenaries in the organization are so powerful and cruel that even Leng Aotian and the others can't do anything except die if they encounter them!" As he said that, his own words sent shivers down his spine. He then continued in a trembling voice, "But now, if we don't ask for their help, I can only watch the family business—which I've established after going through so many hardships—being destroyed just like that! I can't let that happen! I'm not going to be defeated like that! It's not fair!"

All surrounding members of the Bai Family became completely silent when they heard Old Master Bai's words. He's right! According to the current situation, their Bai Family was doomed and there was nothing else they could do; the only way they could save themselves was to ask for help from the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province.

As they thought about this, Bai Hai and all members of the Bai Family gave Old Master Bai a bow simultaneously. "Old Master Bai, all of us shall listen to your command!"

At this moment, the Bai Family weren't the only ones who were panicking. When news about the establishment of New Bai Family Group was out, everyone in Jiang City was so surprised that their jaws dropped to the floor.

Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao were being rescued in hospital after getting heavily beaten up; Tiansheng Group announced their bankruptcy, having all their property seized and re-evaluated; and Gao Zhilong had been imprisoned along with several others. All these news, like bombs, caused a huge stir in the entire Jiang City.

Besides, especially after the Golden Age Group, Lanshan Group and other business conglomerates in Jiangnan Province announced their cooperation with the New Bai Family Group, the company became the new elite; it was the most talked about company by the people in Jiang City. Almost everyone in the city was certain that the New Bai Family Group would become successful, rich and famous one day.

However, Lin Fan wasn't interested in any of these. For the following days after that, he stayed at home as usual. He did the laundry, mopped the floor and cooked.

“This dish is called Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Lotus Seeds Soup! It has been prepared using eight types of herbs, all of which are good for strengthening bones and tendons. With the addition of lotus seeds, the soup tastes more delicious and fragrant. It's also very nutritious too, and has the ability to strengthen bones and improve longevity!”

In the kitchen, Lin Fan opened the pot lid as a delicious and savory smell wafted from the pot. The soup was a dish he developed himself; it was prepared according to a secret and unique formula using eight different types of herbs before being boiled together with lotus seeds.

Back in the days when Lin Fan was in the Blood Prison, he developed different types of herbal cuisines to improve their strength and health apart from teaching various combat techniques to the soldiers. Under a combination of such unique combat techniques and consumption of herbal cuisines, each soldier of Blood Prison improved greatly in their combat capabilities; this made them the most terrifying troop feared by all parties in the world.

Right now, Lin Fan planned to use these herbal cuisines to help Bai Yi, Bai Shan and Shen Yumei improve their health besides strengthening their bones and tendons. Not only could it help to improve longevity, it could help them stay young and healthy too.

At that moment, there were other different mouth-watering dishes served on the dining table besides the Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Lotus Seeds Soup. All the dishes smelled really good.

“Vegetables sautéed with nine spices!”

“Pork stir-fried with four herbs!”

All the different types of dishes were prepared using a combination of herbs and vegetables in a precise proportion. It wasn't an exaggeration to say that the healing effect of each dish was better than a prescription.

“Lunch is ready!” A faint smile crossed Lin Fan's face as he walked out of the kitchen, serving each of the dishes on the table.

At that moment, Bai Yi and Bai Shan, who had finished cleaning themselves, already remained seated at the dining table, ready to have lunch. Meanwhile, Shen Yumei was discharged yesterday. Although she had trouble walking around with one of her legs plastered now, she could walk around freely after resting for another month.

“It smells really great!” Bai Yi’s beautiful eyes flickered with excitement immediately the moment when all the delicious-looking dishes were served. Fixing her gaze on Lin Fan with a curious look on her face, Bai Yi exclaimed, “Lin Fan, these herbal cuisines that you’ve been making recently are so delicious and good for my health! I feel much more energized recently after having them every day—I don’t feel tired at all even after working for one whole day! Besides, I noticed that my skin is getting fairer now!” An intense look of happiness crossed Bai Yi’s attractive face.

Shen Yumei, who was sitting beside her daughter, complimented Lin Fan with a grin on her face too. “Fan, I feel that the bones in my leg have been recovering really fast recently. It feels absolutely different each day. The healing effect of your herbal cuisines is truly amazing!”

“Haha! Me too! I’ve always been feeling some sort of pain in my back and waist before this, but ever since having the herbal cuisine prepared by Fan, I noticed that all the pain has subsided—I feel healthy and energetic again.” Bai Shan couldn’t help but tell everyone about his condition as well.

Noticing his family was so happy, Lin Fan touched his nose and grinned. “If you guys like it so much, from now on, I can prepare an exclusive dish for each one of you every day based on your health condition!”

Lin Fan managed to cheer Bai Yi and her family up with just a simple sentence.

Soon, when all dishes were ready, Bai Yi, Bai Shan and his wife started to dig in happily.

All the dishes were so delicious that they just couldn’t have enough of it.

Within seconds, they engulfed almost all of the dishes on the table. They ate so fast that it seemed as though they directly swallowed all dishes without chewing.

After lunch, Bai Yi rushed to the office and continued with her busy work. On the other hand, Bai Shan took Shen Yumei—who was still wheelchair-bound—out for a stroll.

Just as Lin Fan was about to clean up all the dishes and leftovers, the doorbell rang suddenly.

Eh? Lin Fan froze for a moment before walking forward immediately and opened the door.

As he opened the door, Lin Fan saw a doctor standing outside who was sweating profusely. The doctor was ecstatic when he saw Lin Fan and exclaimed immediately, “Chairman Lin, something has happened at Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine!”

What? The expression on Lin Fan’s face changed abruptly when he heard that.

He recognized the doctor who was standing in front of him; he was the emergency doctor who rescued Shen Yumei when she was hit by a car previously.

Almost immediately, Lin Fan asked anxiously, “What happened?”

“Chairman Lin, a young man showed up in front of the entrance of our hospital today and said that he came to look for Divine Doctor Lin. However, he was blocked by our security guards, who stopped him from entering the hospital. After that, the young man bragged about challenging the doctors from our hospital. He even claimed that our hospital is a fraud! Getting upset with his rude and baseless accusations, some of the doctors went out to accept his challenge.” As he said that, the doctor looked really shocked as if he’d seen a ghost. He continued immediately, “Surprisingly, the young man’s Traditional Chinese Medicine skill is so incredible that even Dr. Xu from the Surgical Department, Director Zhang, Director Liu and several others were defeated by him after they accepted his challenge. Our Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine has become a laughing stock now!”

What? The expression on Lin Fan’s face changed abruptly when he heard that; he knew that every doctor from Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine were experienced physicians who possessed extraordinary medical knowledge. Apparently, the young man was exceptionally skilled in medicine since he could defeat so many doctors consecutively.

“How about Elder Gao and Mike?” Lin Fan asked seriously with a grim look on his face.

“Currently, it’s Elder Gao’s turn to personally accept the young man’s challenge,” the doctor replied with a really awful look on his face. “However, the young man is a very skilled physician; he’s way more talented and skilled than what we had expected. Things don’t look very good for Elder Gao, and I think he can’t hold on any longer!”

Elder Gao can't hold on any longer? Lin Fan felt the young man wasn’t an ordinary person when he heard the doctor’s words. He then said immediately, “Come on, let’s go and have a look!”

As he finished speaking, Lin Fan went out and locked the door before rushing to Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine with the doctor immediately.

At the same time, Bai Shan and Shen Yumei were stopped in their tracks too while they were out on a stroll.

“Old Mister, why do you keep stopping us?” Bai Shan stared at the elderly man in hemp clothing standing in front of him with an intense helpless look across his face.

They bumped into the elderly man in hemp clothing not long after they went out today. What made Bai Shan feel helpless was after the elderly man saw them, he kept following closely behind them like they were some kind of precious treasures; the old man refused to leave even after following them for some distance. Now, he just stopped in front of them, directly blocking their way.

The elderly man in hemp clothing looked like he was over eighty years old; his hair was silver and his face was wrinkled. However, his eyes appeared energetic and intelligent, looking like they were able to see through everything clearly.

Right now, he was studying Bai Shan and Shen Yumei carefully from head to toe. Finally, he said, "Mister, do you mind me asking what medication you're on most of the time? I can tell that you're already in your fifties, yet you look healthy and energetic like a young man in his thirties. Why is that so?"

What? Bai Shan was dazed as soon as he heard the elderly man in hemp clothing. I look healthy and energetic like a young man in his thirties?

Bai Shan frowned and asked curiously, "Old Mister, I don't get you clearly. I'm fifty-five years old now, and I'm not on any medication most of the time. Why do you say that I look young and energetic like a thirty-year-old young man?"

Not on any medication? Upon hearing this, excitement flickered in the elderly man's eyes as his interest for Bai Shan grew. "That's impossible! Mister, do you know that once a person reaches his fifties, all mechanisms and functions of organs in his body will start to deteriorate at a horribly rapid speed! I was observing you when we were strolling just now, and I noticed that your body functions did not deteriorate. On the contrary, there are signs of rejuvenation in your body! Thus, I absolutely won't believe it if you say you aren't on any sort of medication!"

Bai Shan and Shen Yumei were baffled when they heard this. Signs of rejuvenation?

*Are you f*cking kidding me?* At that moment, Bai Shan stared at the elderly man in hemp clothing like h e was looking at a fraudster.

However, before he could refute the elderly man in hemp clothing, the latter continued, "Mister, you are able to fall asleep easily every night now, am I right? Furthermore, you can wake up on time almost every morning. Besides, you have this feeling like your energy keeps on increasing and your skin seems to grow firmer as time passes, do you? Not to mention that you have morning erections every day now."

*Whoa... holy sh*t!* Bai Shan was completely dazed after he heard the elderly man's words.

Even though he felt slightly embarrassed, what the elderly man said was completely true.

Before this, Bai Shan had always felt pain in his waist and back; he always had problems sleeping at night and suffered from insomnia all the time. But now, he fell asleep quite easily every night and woke up at a fixed time every morning—he even has morning erections every day. Moreover, Bai Shan noticed he was stronger than before; he could walk faster than usual, and he didn't feel tired no matter how far he walked.

About this...

“Old Mister... how did you know about this?” Bai Shan was very shocked indeed. He was sure that it was his first time meeting the elderly man. He couldn't believe the old man was right on everything he said about his body condition. This was absolutely unbelievable!

“I was right then!” The elderly man in hemp clothing was ecstatic as soon as he heard Bai Shan's confirmation.

“Mister, what I said just now are signs of rejuvenation, which has happened to you for the past few days. According to what martial artists say, this is known as Bones and Tendons Reformation Technique. If this continues on, your body functions can be revitalized until it resembles that of a young man in his twenties!”

*Gasp!*The elderly man’s words shocked Bai Shan. Naturally, he had heard some information about the martial artists’ Bones and Tendons Reformation Technique. He knew it took martial artists years of hard work and all-day-long harsh practices to achieve this. Yet, how was it possible for him to achieve the effect of bones and tendons reformation without undergoing any sort of harsh practices?

Besides, the elderly man in hemp clothing turned to look at Shen Yumei closely, particularly at her plastered leg. He couldn't help but ask, "Madam, based on the degree of recovery of your leg, was your leg broken two months ago?"

Two months ago? Shen Yumei was confused. She then shook her head and said, "No, I broke my leg a week ago."

What? A week? This time, the elderly man in hemp clothing was shocked. He observed Shen Yumei's leg carefully as a look of shock and disbelief crossed his face, as if he had seen a ghost.

"Madam, you can no longer feel pain in your leg anymore now, right? Most of the time, you just feel a tingly sensation on your leg as if there are ants moving around over it, am I correct?"

"Yes... yes! Old Mister, how did you know that?" Shen Yumei was surprised as she nodded.

Hearing her reply, the elderly man in hemp clothing continued, “I was right then! Normally, a person with a broken leg would experience excruciating pain when the broken bones are aligning themselves and healing back together during the first week of recovery. The pain won’t just disappear! A tingly sensation would only appear after two months when the broken bones have finally healed. According to your current recovery progress, you should be able to walk freely after a few days!”

As he finished, the elderly man in hemp clothing looked at Bai Shan and Shen Yumei again excitedly. “Hence, I’m one hundred percent sure that both of you are taking some kind of unbelievably incredible medicine with extraordinary healing effects! Otherwise, it’s impossible to achieve such amazing healing effects within a short period of time!

Whoa! Incredible medicine with extraordinary healing effects? Shen Yumei. For some inexplicable reason, the first thing they could think of in their minds was the herbal cuisines prepared by Lin Fan.

“Perhaps this has something to do with Lin Fan’s herbal cuisines?” Bai Shan wondered in disbelief.

On the other hand, Shen Yumei just felt like everything was a dream. She couldn’t believe that some simple herbal cuisines would possibly have such an extraordinary healing effect on her. How can this be possible?

“Herbal cuisines?” the elderly man in hemp clothing asked anxiously as he squinted his eyes. “Could both of you take me to your house? I can help you guys check whether it’s the effect of the herbal cuisines.”

Take you to our house? Bai Shan and Shen Yumei frowned. They studied the elderly man in hemp cl othing closely to make sure he wasn't a bad guy before they nodded in agreement to take the old man with them.

"We can take you to our house, but my son-in-law would probably have thrown away all the leftovers of the herbal cuisines by now," Bai Shan explained hesitantly.

The elderly man in hemp clothing smiled while shaking his head when he heard this. "Don't worry, even if there are no leftovers, I'll know once I check what kinds of herbs there are in the herbal cuisines!"

Feeling helpless with the elderly man's confidence and persistence, Bai Shan and Shen Yumei had no choice but to agree. The couple took the elderly man in hemp clothing to their house immediately.

However, as they opened the door, they realized Lin Fan wasn't at home. They noticed that he didn't even have the time to clean up the leftovers on the dining table.

"Old Mister, the herbal cuisines we mentioned just now are those dishes on the dining table," Bai Shan said directly while pointing at several dishes on the table.

As he finished, Bai Shan saw the elderly man sniffing around the room. Then, a look of utter shock and surprise appeared on his aging and wrinkled face. "The intense and fragrant smell of the cuisines is still lingering around the room! Even though it's just a remaining smell in the room, I can actually feel its effects on me; it feels as if my blood and veins are throbbing, being affected by the smell! This is unbelievable! Oh my god, what... kind of herbal cuisines are these?"

The elderly man in hemp clothing was overwhelmed with disbelief and surprise. He had dedicated his entire life to treating patients and saving countless lives. He came across and knew almost all kinds of prescriptions available from his extensive experiences. Besides that, he knew many different kinds of herbal cuisines too. But now, just the remaining smell of these herbal cuisines exceeded every knowledge he learned throughout his entire life, making him feel unbelievable.

Tap! Tap! Tap!

Now, the elderly man in hemp clothing ran anxiously toward the dining table. He then studied all the leftovers in the plates carefully. "The soup is boiled using eight different types of herbs and lotus seeds. The eight herbs are Fritillaria thunbergii, Pinellia ternata, Radix Paeoniae..."

At that moment, the elderly man was completely lost in his study and research on those leftovers.

As the elderly man identified each of the herbs in the herbal cuisines while murmuring them in his analysis, Bai Shan and his wife noticed that his forehead was drenched in sweat, which then started to flow down his face continuously. Looks of excitement and bewilderment alternated across his old and wrinkled face from time to time; his face even turned red as he got excited from his discovery.

“My god! Among the eight types of herbs, three of them are Yin, whereas three of them are Yang. Two of them are used to balance the effects between Yin and Yang! One must be able to determine the precise dosage for each type of herb, and to ensure these herbs are in harmony with each other. It’s impossible to achieve all these without an unbelievable degree of precision.”

The elderly man in hemp clothing goggled at the soup with his bulging eyes; it seemed as if he was looking at an unbelievably precious item.

“If I’m not mistaken, the prescription for this herbal cuisine is the legendary Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Formula! It uses three Yin herbs, three Yang herbs and two herbs to balance the Yin and Yang energy in order to achieve the effect of Bones and Tendons Reformation Technique.” As the elderly man finished, he gasped in disbelief.

Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Formula! The words sounded plain and ordinary for normal people, but they gave such a shock and surprise to the top physicians in the world. This was because the formula belonged to the most incredible and legendary physician in the world—the Divine Physician of Bones.

The formula was rumored to be extremely difficult to concoct; it required extreme precision in its herbs dosage to enable harmonization between the herbs in order to achieve the desired healing effect. Normal physicians wouldn't be able to concoct it precisely even if they were given the formula; even for an experienced physician like the elderly man, he had only heard about legends and rumors of the formula without actually seeing one with his own eyes before.

But now...

“Could it be him? My god! I'm afraid the only person who truly knows about the Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Formula is him! If it's really him, then...”

Drip! Drip! The elderly man in hemp clothing was sweating profusely as beads of sweat rolled down from his forehead.

Bai Shan and his wife exchanged glances with each other as they saw this. They had no idea how incredible Lin Fan's herbal cuisines were which caused the elderly man in hemp clothing to behave in such an irrational manner.

However, this was just the beginning.

“The usage of four herbs to balance the Yang energy within the body and to improve blood circulation to both arms and legs!”

“The usage of nine spices to balance the Yin energy within the body!”

“The usage of six herbs to block the pain-sensitive acupuncture points!”

The elderly man continued to analyze the herbal cuisines and utter a series of related medical terms excitedly. He was trembling violently in excitement when he looked at the leftovers again; it was

Chapter 340 Completely Suppressed!

“It must be him! If there’s anyone in this world who has mastered these prescriptions, it can only be the Divine Physician of Bones!”

“Furthermore, a miracle regarding Divine Doctor Lin has been circulating around Jiang City recently! Could it possibly be that...”

The old man in hemp clothing quickly turned his head at the thought of this and asked, “May I know who this person is to you? Is his surname Lin?”

Was his surname Lin?

At this moment, Bai Shan and his wife were stunned when they heard the old man’s question.

“That’s right! This medicine was brewed by my son-in-law. His name is Lin Fan,” answered Bai Shan truthfully, not hiding the fact from him at all.

When the old man heard this name, his eyes constricted immediately.

“Then, there shouldn’t be any mistakes! It seems like Lin Fan is indeed Divine Doctor Lin, whose name has become quite popular in Jiang City! Furthermore, it is evident that this couple is unaware of his true identity!”

“That is because he is the Divine Physician of Bones!”

The old man was overwhelmed with shock.

He did not reveal Lin Fan’s identity to the couple; after all, the Divine Physician of Bones was a God in the eyes of every physician in the world.

If a man of his stature had concealed his identity and lived in a small, third-tier city like Jiang City, he would surely have his reasons.

Therefore, the old man did not dare to expose him.

“Old mister, is there any value to these medicines my son-in-law has brewed?” asked Bai Shan out of curiosity.

He also wanted to know if there was really any correlation between the betterment of his health and Lin Fan’s medicine.

Value?

The old man’s lips twitched when he heard this. Then, he forced out a smile and replied, “Your family must have done some good deeds in your previous lives! This prescription isn’t merely valuable; it’s priceless!”

What?!

The couple was completely baffled by the old man's answer.

Priceless?

W-Weren't these merely a few simple prescriptions? Even if they were valuable, how could they be priceless?

Before the couple could ask anymore questions, they saw the old man pointing at the lotus soup. There was a great deal of respect on his face as he said, "Do you know that this lotus soup has used eight types of Chinese medicine? These eight types of Chinese medicine are very precise, mixing three segments of Yang and three segments of Yin! During its concoction, the ingredients and ratio have to be accurate to the milligram; only then will its medicinal effect work!"

With that, the old man looked at the couple; his gaze was filled with immense envy and jealousy.

“This lotus soup is worth a million!”

What?

A million?

Upon hearing the old man’s remark, Bai Shan and Shen Yumei were completely appalled by this figure.

The couple looked at the old man in a dumbfounded manner, even believing that this old man had lost his mind.

It was only a medicinal soup.

Even the ingredients that were used in the soup were not expensive. Why would it be worth a million? Wasn’t this the joke of the century?

Looking at the couple who had a look of disbelief on their faces, the old man’s smile became more and more anguished. “You guys don’t get it, do you? This is because this prescription can only be concocted by one person in the whole world, which is your son-in-law! If the top leaders of the world get wind of this, there would surely be masses of buyers willing to pay a million, if not ten million for it!”

The old man’s revelation had instantly changed the couple’s outlook on the world; they could see that the old man was being rather serious about it.

Was this prescription prepared by Lin Fan really this precious?

A prescription that was worth a million.

Meanwhile, their whole family was having three meals daily—four dishes and a soup per meal.

In other words, had they been consuming 15 million worth of food daily?

O-Oh my God!

At this moment, the couple exchanged glances. If this old man was telling the truth, his family would really be consuming 15 million worth of food daily; the thought of this made their heads feel numb.

However, that was not all; the couple then saw a look of excitement and respect on the old man's face who asked, "May I ask where your son-in-law is at the moment?"

The couple also noticed that the old man's attitude became more respectful too. Curious, he asked, "Old mister, may I know why you are looking for my son-in-law?"

There was an obvious hint of hesitation on the old man's face when he heard the question; it was as if he was being put in a tough spot.

Nevertheless, he still answered straightforwardly, "I won't lie to you! To be able to meet such a remarkable figure, I'd like to be his apprentice!"

His apprentice?

Bai Shan and his wife were completely stunned.

Lin Fan was only a young guy in his 20s. Meanwhile, this old man who was standing in front of them was already in his 80s at the very least.

An old man in his 80s was asking Lin Fan—who was in his 20s—to make him his apprentice?

W-What kind of joke was this?

"I'm sorry, old mister. Something came up all of a sudden, so my son-in-law left. We are also not sure where he has gone to," answered Bai Shan while looking at the old man as if he was a maniac.

You don't know?

A rich look of disappointment appeared on the old man's face when he heard this.

However, just when he thought of staying at Bai Residence to wait for Lin Fan's return, he immediately heard some footsteps at the door.

Their next door neighbour, Auntie Zhang, was at the door. She then said, "Bai Shan! Yumei! When Lin Fan went out just now, he told me that he was going to Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine to handle some affairs! He'll be home late! He wanted me to pass on the message to you guys!"

Huh?

Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine!

Chapter 340 Completely Suppressed!

The old man instantly looked excited when he heard Auntie Zhang's message.

Meanwhile, it was bustling at the entrance of Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine at this moment; passers-by who were watching the fun had thronged the entrance. Every one of them was pointing at the inside of the complex while chattering among themselves.

"Hey! That young man is remarkable—he managed to cure eight patients in less than an hour!"

"That's right! I really pity the doctors at this hospital! Their medical skills are decent, but compared to this young man right here, their skills are far more inferior than his!"

Chapter 340 Completely Suppressed!

“They’re on a losing streak! I wonder if the hospital can regain their dignity after Elder Gao has shown his skills?”

“Look at Elder Gao’s forehead; he’s already starting to sweat, whereas the young man is so relaxed and has set the tone!”

The passers-by were chattering among themselves while shifting their gazes toward the center of the crowd.

At that moment, there were two chairs placed at the center of the crowd; an elderly doctor and a younger doctor were attending to a patient.

Both of these doctors were Traditional Chinese Medicine doctors!

See, smell, ask, touch!

Using the four steps of diagnosis of Traditional Chinese Medicine, the two of them were showing off their skills.

After diagnosing the patient, Elder Gao and the young doctor wrote the patient's illness on his medical record.

There were two prescriptions!

Elder Gao had written down: 'Patient's face looked dull, tongue was yellowish purple, both hands were numb with twitches during intervals. Illness—transient ischemic attack.

Prescriptions: 50g of Astragalus, 40g of Herba Ephedrae, 60g of Wolfberry, 30g of Ligustrum lucidum, 100g of Polygonatum sibiricum, and 100g of raw Cornus officinalis. Three cups daily!

On the other hand, the young man wrote down: 'Patient is suffering from serious hair loss, weak gazes, left hand is numb, right hand is in pain, slight swelling under the armpit, twitching of the muscles. Illness—transient ischemic attack. Prescriptions: 50g of Astragalus, 40g of Herba Ephedrae, 60g of Wolfberry, 30g of Ligustrum lucidum, 100g of Polygonatum sibiricum, and 100g of raw Cornus officinalis. Three cups daily!’

At this moment, Elder Gao and the young man displayed their respective diagnosis and prescriptions in front of the crowd.

The crowd was in awe.

Their diagnosis of the illness was the same—they both had written down a transient ischemic attack.

However, the only difference in the duo’s prescriptions was that Elder Gao had prescribed 40g of Herba Ephedrae, while there was no Herba Ephedrae in the younger doctor’s prescription at all.

After looking at Elder Gao’s prescription, the young man seemed like he saw a joke as a smile immediately appeared on his face. “Herba Ephedrae? Hahaha, this is humorous. Old man, you still dare to claim that you’re not a fraud!”

What?!

Upon hearing the youth’s remark, Elder Gao and the crowd had a change in their expressions.

Their diagnosis was the same; the only difference was a single type of medicine in their prescriptions.

How did this make Elder Gao a fraud?

Looking at the fanatic smile on the youth’s face, the surrounding passers-by and doctors were perplexed.

“Brat! Don’t you dare simply throw out accusations! Both of our prescriptions can cure the transient ischemic attack! I added Herba Ephedrae because its medicinal effect is faster!”

“Compared to my prescriptions, your prescription will take a longer time!”

The doctors around them nodded.

Elder Gao was right. Adding Herba Ephedrae into his prescription could indeed induce blood supply to the heart and enhance the patient’s healing effect by twice.

On the other hand, the young man’s prescriptions were only following the traditional rules to the tee.

Comparing the two prescriptions, it was obvious that Elder Gao’s prescription had an upper hand.

However, the crowd did not understand why the young man had the audacity to mock Elder Gao.

At that moment, the young man seemed to have noticed the crowd’s doubts as he let out a snort. The corners of his lips were filled with an immense ridicule. “Hmph! The number one Traditional Chinese Medicine doctor in Jiang City? Old man, your reputation is undeserved!”

With that, the young man took his own prescriptions and scribbled another sentence behind his explanation of the diagnosis.

‘At the same time, the patient has myocardial infarction! Therefore, it is inappropriate to use an inducer on him!’

What?!

When Elder Gao and the rest of the doctors saw the sentence which the young man had added on, all of them changed their expressions abruptly.

Myocardial infarction?

If what this young man wrote was true and that this patient really had myocardial infarction, the Herba Ephedrae which Elder Gao had prescribed would not be a cure. Instead, it would turn into poison.

Even in the best-case scenario, it'll cause the entire prescription to completely lose its healing value!

"I-Impossible!"

"I've done a thorough check-up on the patient just now; this patient has a stable heartbeat. Why would he have myocardial infarction?"

Elder Gao's face instantly turned pale at this moment.

The young man at the side immediately chuckled at the sight of this. "Hmph! Your diagnosis is only based on this patient's medical case! However, you don't know that his illness was from one month ago!"

Chapter 340 Completely Suppressed!

“Although his heartbeat is stable now, that is because he had a stent inserted in him some time ago!”
