

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Boom!

The young man's explanation was like a bolt of thunder, making Elder Gao tremble violently.

Putting a stent could indeed stabilize the heartbeat.

However, if the patient did not take the initiative to reveal this matter, it would be difficult even for Elder Gao, who had superb medical skills, to notice it.

But now...

"Y-You really have myocardial infarction? You've inserted a stent before?" Elder Gao looked at the patient with a ghastly face.

At this moment, the patient also had a panicked look as he quickly replied, "T-That's right! I went through a small heart surgery some time ago! However, I fell ill today and came in a hurry without informing you guys about this!”

What?!

The patient’s explanation only made the elderly feel dizzy.

He had lost!

He lost by such a minor detail.

When the young man noticed this, he did not put Herba Ephedrae into his prescription. Although the healing effect was slower, it could still cure the patient.

On the other hand, Elder Gao did not notice this matter and added Herba Ephedrae into his prescription. Hence, there could only be two possible outcomes: either the medicine would have no effect whatsoever, or it would turn into poison and pose a lethal effect to the patient.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Elder Gao's face turned pale at the thought of this, making him look a few years older.

"I-I've lost!"

There was instantly a huge uproar among the passers-by surrounding them when they heard this.

Nine consecutive losses!

Everyone could not imagine that Elder Gao, the number one Traditional Chinese Medicine doctor in Jiang City, was defeated by this young man.

This young man's medical skills were simply remarkable, leaving people in disbelief.

There was an immense displeasure and rage on their faces, especially the doctors of Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Success was at his fingertips; if this patient had the initiative to inform him of this matter, Elder Gao would not have lost to this young man with the capabilities that he had. He might have even prescribed a medicine that was more efficient.

But now, a miss was as good as a mile.

Elder Gao's loss meant that their hospital had been embarrassed by this young man.

"Hmph! How about that? Are you guys convinced now?"

"I've told you before that your hospital merely has an unwarranted reputation! By the way, I heard that your hospital has another fraud who goes by the name of Divine Doctor Lin! Ask that big fraud to show himself—I want to expose that fraud!"

The young man was talking so boastfully.

However, the moment he said that, all of the surrounding doctors immediately became infuriated and had completely blown their tops.

“Brat! How dare you humiliate our Chairman Lin!”

“Who do you think you are? What gives you the right to challenge the boss of our hospital!”

“You’ve crossed the line. Your medical ethics are terrible and you look down on everyone. You don’t deserve to be a doctor!”

“ ... ”

There was a moment of silence.

At this moment, all of the doctors at the scene voiced out their anger.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

In their eyes, Divine Doctor Lin was the pillar of the medical world in Jiang City. From the moment he defeated Dr. Maniac's team, that was enough to make him the pride of the medical world of Jiang City.

But now, how could they bear with the humiliation and disgrace which the young man had directed at Divine Doctor Lin, especially Elder Gao.

He had always treated Lin Fan like his idol; he also knew that Lin Fan was a master in the eyes of every medical personnel in the world—the Divine Physician of Bones.

How could he let a junior simply disrespect a figure like him?

“Brat! You better watch your mouth! Divine Doctor Lin is not someone you can simply comment about!” Elder Gao stared straight into the young man's eyes with an extremely sullen gaze.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

However, the young man did not back down at all when he heard this. Instead, he became even more full of himself.

“Divine Doctor? Hahaha... What a joke!”

“Let me tell all of you something; there is only one person in the entire Jiangnan Province who can be called a Divine Doctor, which is my teacher—Zhang Tianyi!”

Zhang Tianyi!

The moment the crowd heard this claim, the surrounding atmosphere immediately dampened a little.

Be it Elder Gao, the doctors, or the passers-by at the scene, everyone’s eyes had widened in shock.

“Brat, are y-you talking about Zhang Tianyi, the one who has been staying at Mount Tianyi? The living Hua Tuo who has not shown himself for a decade—Divine Doctor Zhang?” asked Elder Gao in disbelief. He could only feel his heart beating violently.

The living Hua Tuo—Zhang Tianyi!

Nobody in Jiangnan Province was unfamiliar with this name.

For the past few decades, there had been dozens of serious and contagious outbreaks in Jiangnan. Every time it occurred, countless lives would be sacrificed and people's lives would plunge into misery.

However, Zhang Tianyi was like the guardian angel of Jiangnan Province.

Every time there was a serious outbreak, Zhang Tianyi would bring a cure out from the mountains and save the lives of tens of thousands of people who were suffering.

It could be said that Zhang Tianyi was certainly the top in Jiangnan's medical world. He was also called as the living Hua Tuo for saving countless lives!

Other than that, China had even named the mountain which he was living in after him—Mount Tianyi—as a commendation to thank Zhang Tianyi.

It had almost become his own private land.

Every year, there were countless high-ranking officials who headed to Mount Tianyi.

However, Elder Gao and the rest of the people present did not expect that this young man was the disciple of a Divine Doctor.

“That’s right! I am Zhang Tianyi’s disciple—Ye Tian!” The young man was filled with a look of arrogance.

Elder Gao seemed even more defeated when he heard this. “No wonder I lost!

No wonder...”

Anguish!

Desolation!

At this moment, Elder Gao was in a greater shock than the previous encounter with Dr. Maniac.

After all, Ye Tian—who was standing in front of him—was only in his 20s, which was quite similar to Lin Fan.

Losing to such a young man triggered complex emotions in him.

“That’s enough! Since you know my identity, ask the guy by the surname of Lin to come out!” Ye Tian demanded with an arrogant look, “This guy has received quite the glory recently! My master has not shown up, so people are starting to call him a Divine Doctor? Hmph, I’ll teach this fraud a lesson on behalf of my master!”

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Wow!

Based on Ye Tian's tone, he had no respect for Lin Fan at all.

Upon hearing this, the crowd was instantly enraged even though he was Zhang Tianyi's disciple.

However, before the crowd could refute him, someone stepped out from the crowd. "You don't deserve to ask Divine Doctor Lin to come out! After this, I shall accept your challenge!"

Huh?

Most of the people were stunned when they heard this; then, they saw a foreigner walking out from the group of doctors.

He was Dr. Maniac, Mike!

Wow!

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Seeing Mike step forward, the group of doctors immediately cheered for him.

“Awesome, President! Teach this brat the meaning of brilliance!”

“That’s right! So what if he’s the disciple of a Divine Doctor? He humiliated our Chairman Lin, and that is not tolerable!”

“Brat, our President Mike will give you a lesson on how to be a good man today!”

“ ... ”

The doctors from the hospital were shouting non-stop; it was as if they had seen the hope of regaining their dignity.

Even Elder Gao heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Mike coming out.

“We’ll let you handle the rest!” Elder Gao patted Mike on his shoulders before walking back to the group of doctors, getting ready to watch the battle.

At this moment, only Ye Tian and Mike were left in the middle of the scene.

“A foreigner?”

Looking at Mike who had golden hair and blue eyes, a scornful look appeared at the corners of Ye Tian’s lips. “I’ve said this earlier—this hospital is trash. They had even appointed a foreigner to be their President; this really is a disgrace to us Chinese people! If my memory serves me right, you’re Dr. Maniac who dominated the Western medicine scene in Jiangnan some time ago, right?”

Of course, he had heard of Mike before.

During that period of time, Mike had dominated the medical world in Jiangnan; he was no match for anyone. He had 13 consecutive wins and had rolled Traditional Chinese Medicine into the ground.

“However, I’m curious about something.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

With a talent like yours, why are you willing to stay at a hospital located in a third tier city?”

Mike couldn't help but chuckle. “Brat, you're still so young. You have no idea of the power of idols! Divine Doctor Lin is my idol, so that's why I'm willing to stay here and work for Divine Doctor Lin!”

What?!

Ye Tian's expressions slightly changed when he heard this.

Idol?

He did not expect Dr. Maniac to be completely fooled by that fraud; he had even put his well-being aside for this fraud, which was simply unbelievable.

“Fine! Very well then!”

The teasing looks on the corners of Ye

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Tian's lips became more and more intense. "If that's the case, show me what you and the guy by the surname of Lin are capable of!"

With that, he waved his hand. "Ask the next patient to enter!"

Wow!

Hearing this, the onlookers who had surrounded the scene cleared a path.

Then, they saw two medical staff carrying a man while walking at a rather fast pace.

This man was totally unconscious, and his breathing was extremely shallow.

That was not all; the colors had drained off his face, and it looked like he was going to die at the scene anytime soon. Not only that, this man was clearly having a fever as there were pearls of sweat rolling down from his forehead continuously; there were even drops of blood at his pores.

Huh?

Ye Tian and Mike did not waste any time at the sight of this. They walked up to the patient and used their own respective Western and Chinese medicine techniques to conduct their diagnosis, helping the patient to do a thorough check-up.

However, as time slowly passed, the looks on Ye Tian and Mike's faces slowly became troubled, as if the both of them were clueless about this patient's illness.

This...

The surrounding crowd also became nervous at this moment.

They did not expect this patient's symptoms to be this complicated, leaving both the young man, Ye Tian, and President Mike at a loss.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

“The patient is having a fever. I suspect that he has symptoms of toxemia. His pores are bleeding and his lymph is swollen. Perhaps he has lung cancer!”

While he was talking, everyone could see a huge change in Ye Tian’s expression as he yelled toward the crowd as if he had suddenly thought of something, “Stay away everyone! T-This could be the Black Death!”

What?!

A remark from him caused a huge uproar among the crowd.

The Black Death was also called the plague!

This was a highly contagious disease; countless people had been dead in Europe back then. It was like a disease that took people's lives away, striking terror in people's hearts.

Chapter 341 This Could Be Black Death!

Everyone did not expect that Ye Tian would immediately conclude that it could be the Black Death.

Chapter 342 Are You Kidding Me?

Most of the passers-by and the doctors from the surroundings had shun away in an instant; seemingly trying to avoid the epidemic.

In the blink of an eye, there were only three people left in the scene—Ye Tian, Mike, and the patient.

“Damn it! This certainly is the Black Death! I’ve just recently heard about the rise of Black Death cases in the Southern Province, but I never thought it would spread to Jiang City!”

Ye Tian’s appearance turned ghastly pale. He spoke rhetorically, almost certain that it was the Black Death.

Dense beads of cold sweat were streaming down from Ye Tian’s forehead.

However, what surprised him was that Mike, who was beside him, was shaking his head. “You’re wrong! This is not Black Death!”

Huh?

Ye Tian was slightly startled by his words. He then asked as he put on a frown, “How do you know that this isn’t the Black Death? The symptoms that this patient is showing completely abides with the symptoms of Black Death! If you’re saying that it isn’t the Black Death, what else can it be?”

“This... I have no idea!”

He subconsciously spoke in a sluggish manner, “I’ve consulted Divine Doctor Lin about the history of infectious diseases in European countries within the past few years before! According to Divine Doctor Lin, with every generation of infectious diseases, there will be a certain period of time for it to die out!”

“As for the Black Death, its death period has passed. Therefore, the possibility of this kind of disease appearing in China is extremely low! Moreover, there are various other diseases that are similar to the Black Death. We can't determine that this patient is suffering from the Black Death judging by these symptoms only!"

Mike seemed determined when he spoke.

However, was it only according to what Divine Doctor Lin had said?

Ye Tian could not retain his furiousness after hearing the name 'Divine Doctor Lin'. He then yelled in an angry manner, "Diving Doctor Lin is rubbish! He's just a quack!"

Before he continued, he swept a look at Mike, Elder Gao and the other doctors with a sarcastic gaze. He then said with irony, "Are you seeing this? Your President Mike simply could not determine this patient's state of illness!"

Chapter 342 Are You Kidding Me?

“Therefore, all of you have failed once again! Your tenth failure!”

Wow!

Ye Tian’s words had made Elder Gao and the others look sullen.

Their tenth failure!

No one had thought that President Mike would only state that it was not the Black Death without determining the type of disease.

Within a short period of time, every doctor around them was feeling a sense of burning flame on their faces; all of them were extremely embarrassed.

As for the passers-by, their gazes toward Ye Tian at that moment were as if they were looking at God. The expression in their eyes was filled with strong admiration and fanaticism.

One person had overwhelmed the entire hospital!

Ye Tian must be the next generation's divine doctor—there was no doubt to that.

“Enough! Immediately seal off the scene and isolate this patient! Then, report the current situation here!”

“Otherwise, once the Black Death really starts to spread, none of you from the Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine will be able to bear the responsibility!” Ye Tian ordered Mike and the others arrogantly.

There was instantly a number of medical personnel who were about to walk ahead in order to seal off the scene after listening to Ye Tian.

However, it was at this moment when a clear voice came from the back of the crowd.

“Wait a minute!”

Then, everyone could see a doctor along with a youth passing through the crowd as they headed toward the scene.

Huh?

“Who said to wait? Who will be responsible if something goes wrong?” At this moment, Ye Tian was very mad.

Little did he think that someone from the hospital he had overwhelmed for ten times would dare to stop him.

“I said it!”

The crisp voice was heard again before a young man appeared in front of the crowd.

Looking at this young man, Ye Tian—who was already mad—had gotten even more furious. He never would have imagined someone his age to actually step up and stop him.

“Little brat, who do you think you are? Do you even qualify to speak here?”

Ye Tian was extremely arrogant.

However, just as he finished talking, he was stunned when he noticed Dr. Maniac, Elder Gao and the other doctors from Yifan Hospital bowing down to Lin Fan.

“Divine Doctor Lin!”

“Chairman Lin!”

Silence reigned in.

Voices of fanaticism and admiration were heard before the entrance of the hospital had turned completely silent.

Most of the passers-by and the arrogant Ye Tian were all seemingly stunned.

H-He was Divine Doctor Lin?

How was this possible?

He looks so young and immature!

How could he be the one who had defeated Dr. Maniac? How could he be the hero of Jiang City who had raised many sick people from death in an instant?

Not only were the patients and passers-by dumbfounded, Ye Tian was the most astonished of them all.

As Zhang Tianyi's disciple, he had always thought that he was definitely the youngest master of healing art.

However, he had never thought that Divine Doctor Lin, who was described as god-like, would actually be almost the same age as himself; it was absolutely incredible.

Chapter 342 Are You Kidding Me?

After a brief moment of silence, Ye Tian came back to his senses.

“Hahaha... Divine Doctor Lin? The so-called Divine Doctor Lin is just a babe in arms after all! Ha-ha...”

It was as if Ye Tian had seen the greatest joke of all time as he burst into laughter, rocking his body back and forth.

The way he looked at Lin Fan was in such a way that he would look at a cheat; the way he looked at Mike and the others surrounding him was like he was looking at a bunch of idiots.

“You’re a bunch of idiots. This fellow is only in his early 20s, and you are actually calling him Divine Doctor Lin? This is ridiculous! Oh my God, a cheat and a bunch of idiots. Hahaha...”

Ye Tian burst into laughter.

Chapter 342 Are You Kidding Me?

After hearing what he had said, Mike, Elder Gao and the others from the surroundings looked at him as if they were looking at a clown instead.

“F-Fine! Kid, since you’re Divine Doctor Lin, you’ve shown up just in time!”

Ye Tian finally suppressed his laughter before he ironically said to Lin Fan, “I’ve beaten your subordinates ten times now!”

“As their boss, the so-called divine doctor, can you please tell me your opinion about this patient who’s currently plagued with the Black Death?”

Ye Tian wrapped both of his arms around his chest as soon as he finished speaking. It was as if Ye Tian was waiting to watch a clown’s act the way he looked at Lin Fan.

However, it was just as though Lin Fan

did not see this young man at all.

He had completely ignored him as he made his way past him.

Lin Fan then squatted down to check on the patient's symptoms. He straightforwardly told Mike and the others, saying, "This patient has been poisoned!"

"Bring me some filiform needles!"

What?!

Just a word from Lin Fan had made not only Ye Tian, but every passer-by around them dumbfounded.

It's not the Black Death?

The patient had been poisoned?

How is that even possible?

Everyone should know that Ye Tian's performance moments ago had earned people's admiration for him. President Mike had also mentioned that the symptoms the patient was showing were exactly the same as those of the Black Death.

Chapter 342 Are You Kidding Me?

Instead, how could Lin Fan determine that the patient was poisoned by only taking a look at him? How could he subvert the Black Death without doing a detailed examination?

It was simply a joke, especially to Ye Tian.

Lin Fan's ignorance had made him mad; Lin Fan's diagnosis had made him go crazy.

At this moment, he turned his head over to look Lin Fan dead in the eyes. “You’re talking nonsense! I’ve carried out a diagnosis and I’m 100 percent sure that this patient’s condition is the Black Death, based on the symptoms he exhibits! You’re a liar. You can deceive them, but you can never deceive me!” Ye Tian sounded flustered and exasperated.

However, what shocked him more was the reactions from the people around him after listening to Lin Fan’s instructions. Be it Dr. Maniac or Elder Gao, none of them had any doubts toward Lin Fan. Instead, they had rapidly taken out a box of filiform needles before walking forward to help him out.

“I need three of the seven-inch filiform needles, five of the six-inched ones and two of the four-inched ones,” said Lin Fan in a calm manner.

Elder Gao immediately took out the needles one by one after listening to his orders. Before handing them over to Lin Fan, he had heated the needles for sterilization.

During that time, Lin Fan did not even reply a word to Ye Tian. He was only putting his head into saving the person's life with the filiform needles.

"Hmph! Alright then! Continue to act on!" A ridiculing expression was all over Ye Tian's face. He was watching Lin Fan solemnly rescuing the person's life at this moment like he was watching a monkey performing an act. "Wait and see how I'll expose you later on when you can't continue to act on it!"

Ye Tian could already imagine the scene where he had exposed Lin Fan, the con man. He was smiling from ear to ear at that moment.

Soon, under everyone's gaze, Lin Fan took off the patient's shirt. He then took the needles and inserted them precisely onto each of the required acupoints.

His needles went in one after another, and in the blink of an eye, the patient was prodded with over ten filiform needles; the densely packed needles on the patient made him look like a porcupine.

As time passed, silence reigned across the whole of the hospital entrance. Everyone was waiting for Lin Fan's medical treatment.

One minute had passed, then five minutes went by as well. After more than ten minutes had passed, the surrounding crowd was surprised to find that the patient's fever had been brought down. Nevertheless, his face had gradually turned blue; it was now on the edge of turning purple.

The surrounding crowd could almost hear the tick-tocking of time passing by as they watched on. The droplets of blood that oozed from the patient's body had gradually changed color as well; it was pitch-black.

What is this...

Everyone who was witnessing the scene, including passersby and the other patients, had all put on a sullen look.

“Could Divine Doctor Lin really do it? Why does it seem like the man is about to be screwed?”

“I know, right? Is this Divine Doctor Lin a con man? I still think that I agree with Mr. Ye Tian!”

“Indeed! If it really was the Black Death, then the problem would be really serious!”

The surrounding passersby were all worried about this matter as they discussed among themselves.

At that point of time, nearly everyone had started leaning over to Ye Tian's side. To them, they felt Lin Fan to be less and less trustworthy after seeing the changes in looks of the patient. The look on the patient was gradually becoming more frightening.

They weren't the only ones looking on with anticipation; Ye Tian was the happiest among them all at that moment. Happiness blossomed in him especially after seeing that the complexion of the patient had turned completely black.

His glee peaked especially when he saw Lin Fan that had started taking out the needles one after another. Along every filiform needle that was being taken out, thin threads of black blood spurted out of the patient's body.

anymore! It's hopeless!" Ye Tian could not help but shake his head. He could conclude that the moment Lin Fan took out all the needles, the patient would take his last breath.

"We'll just wait and see! Now that this fellow had become a murderer, it seems like his mask as a quack has been completely exposed!" A sly grin quickly emerged on Ye Tian's appearance.

Then, when Ye Tian saw another splatter of black blood that spurted out from the patient's body, he was already opening his mouth to put the blame on Lin Fan. However, the moment his mouth opened, an unbelievable scene appeared.

The patient who had been in a coma instantly sat up straight right after Lin Fan had drawn out the last filiform needle from his body. Afterward, the patient was spitting out blood non-stop onto the floor. A few mouthfuls of fresh black blood gushed out of his mouth.

With every mouthful of blood that was spat out, the dark shade on the patient's face gradually diminished. Toward the end, the dark shade on his face had completely vanished and his appearance had turned deathly pale.

What seemed more unbelievable to Ye Tian was the action of the patient raising his hand to wipe the edge of his lips after spitting out all the dark blood from his body. Then, he turned his head to look at the crowd around him. There was a sense of confusion on his ghastly pale face. "W-Where am I?"

Did he just talk? H-How is this possible?

As if he had been struck by lightning, Ye Tian glanced at the patient who had regained his consciousness, as if he was looking at a ghost. "Y-You're feeling better now? This is impossible!" Ye Tian immediately ran up to him while he was saying that. He then carried out another diagnosis for the patient.

While the diagnosis was taking place, Ye Tian's face grew paler by the second.

"His fever was brought down, while his lymph nodes seem to have shrunk! His pores have stopped bleeding as well! No... How could this happen?! Unless, it really wasn't the Black Death?" A thick layer of cold sweat was fiercely streaming down from the top of Ye Tian's forehead.

When he had finally confirmed that all the symptoms of the patient in front of him had returned to a normal state, he fell on his backside onto the floor with a thud, as if he had suddenly been sapped of all his energy; he was completely dumbfounded.

Silence ensued. At that point in time, the passersby who had witnessed this scene had realized what had actually Did it succeed? Little did the crowd expect that the patient, who was about to die seconds ago, had actually recovered right after the last needle was pulled out! Lin Fan's skills were absolutely out of this world, leaving the crowd of people in disbelief.

"Are you convinced now?" Dr. Maniac then stood in front of Ye Tian as he said that to him in an ironic manner. "I've told you before that Divine Doctor Lin is my idol. You don't even qualify to tie his shoelaces for him!"

What? The words from Mike were as if his tail was being stomped on, which made him leap up instantly.

"You... You're actually saying that I'm not even qualified to tie his shoelaces for him?" Ye Tian glared at Mike angrily, all the while with his teeth clenched.

He himself was none other than Zhang Tianyi's closed-door disciple. Even though he was only in his early twenties, he had become the keeper of Zhang Tianyi's true teaching. He had possessed superb skills in the art of healing.

Even if he were to be compared with the rest of the medical world of Jiangnan, only a few of them would be able to surpass him. But now, he was being utterly humiliated!

Ye Tian found himself in extreme embarrassment; the anger of shame within him was burning intensely. He stared dead toward Lin Fan while gritting his teeth. "Brat, I admit that you've won this round. At this moment, everyone turned their heads to fix their eyes on Lin Fan.

All of them were eager to find out if this Divine Doctor Lin, who had just created a miracle, would accept his challenge.

“Sure!” Lin Fan merely nodded calmly, as if he was agreeing to do something insignificant.

Seeing this, Ye Tian nodded in a satisfied manner.

“I have only one thing to say—you sure have the guts!”

As soon as he finished talking, Ye Tian immediately said to the medical personnel, “Bring in the next patient!”

The crowd knew something great was about to happen after hearing that. Everyone had instantly become exhilarated and was all looking forward to the next patient being brought in.

They really wanted to know if Ye Tian would be able to redeem himself in the coming challenge, or would Lin Fan be able to create more miracles.

However, when the medical personnel was about to call in the next patient, Lin Fan shouted out, "Wait a minute!"

Huh?

Ye Tian and the crowd were startled; they simultaneously shifted their gaze toward Lin Fan.

"What's the matter? You've regretted it now?" A hint of fury flashed past Ye Tian's face.

He had praised him for at least being courageous enough to accept his challenge. However, if Lin Fan really took back his words, he would absolutely despise him to the bone.

Nevertheless, what surprised him was what Lin Fan said next.

“One patient is too few! I’m in a hurry. Just call in ten patients at once!”

What?!

Ten patients... at once?

The instant Lin Fan finished talking, the clamor at the hospital entrance suddenly came to a stop.

Whether it was Ye Tian, or the patients that happened to pass by, they were all in utter disbelief after hearing what Lin Fan had said.

“D-Dude, what did you say? You want to treat ten patients at one go?” The way Ye Tian looked at Lin Fan at this moment was simply the way someone would look at a lunatic.

He was not the only one.

Most of the patients and passersby by the side began to excitedly discuss among themselves after coming back to their senses.

Their gaze toward Lin Fan was filled with strong doubts and confusion.

“Oh my God! Is this Divine Doctor Lin legitimate? Consulting ten patients all at once? Has he gone mad?!”

“The four methods of diagnosis used in Traditional Chinese Medicine includes inspection, listening and smelling, inquiring, and also palpation, which requires attention to extreme details. Moreover, the process can be exhausting. But now he’s saying that he wants to diagnose ten patients all at once? What a joke!”

Another uproar ensued among the crowd.

Nearly everyone was having doubts and being sarcastic toward Lin Fan after what he had said.

It was an exceptionally serious task for a doctor of traditional Chinese medicine to carry out a diagnosis after all.

The four methods of diagnosis that include inspection, listening and smelling, inquiring, and palpation; every single method consists of countless details within it.

That was why most of the senior doctors in traditional Chinese medicine had set the rules, stating that a doctor could only consult one to ten patients per day.

It was because the process was mentally exhausting.

But now, he's trying to diagnose ten patients at once?

Even Ye Tian's master, Divine Doctor Zhang Tianyi himself could not accomplish that, let alone Lin Fan.

At this moment, Ye Tian was looking at Lin Fan as if he was looking at a fool.

"You quack! Hahaha... Dude, you still said that you're not a fake. How could you say something this idiotic!"

A strong touch of sarcasm and ridicule was shown on Ye Tian's face.

He then said to medical personnel behind him, "You all heard him, right? He wants ten patients. He's about to put on a show. Quickly find him those patients he wanted!"

The few medical personnel were hesitant as they heard what Ye Tian had said.

Their eyes were now shifted toward Lin Fan one after another until Lin Fan had nodded.

At that point, the few medical personnel subsequently left the scene. Soon, they had brought in ten patients into the scene.

All of these patients had non-identical cases of illnesses.

Some of the patients had sallow faces and haggard figures, while some of the others were coughing non-stop, as if they were about to cough out their lungs.

Moreover, there were also patients with disheveled hair and pale appearances; some even had eyes that were red with broken veins.

Chapter 344 Ten Patients at Once

The patients were all there due to different types of conditions.

Ye Tian was smiling from ear to ear after seeing these patients. He immediately opened up his mouth to mock Lin Fan.

However, before he could even utter a word, he was stunned to see that Lin Fan had already taken his seat by the table. He then picked up the prescription sheets and a ball pen before he started sweeping his eyes over one of the patients. After that, Lin Fan started writing on the prescription sheet with the ball pen in his hand.

Huh?

Not only was Ye Tian startled when he witnessed this scene, even the patients and passersby around him were astonished to see that.

“D-Dude, aren’t you supposed to ask about their symptoms or take a look at their medical cases beforehand?" Ye Tian was astounded as he looked toward Lin Fan.

He had never seen someone who went straight away to prescribing right after glancing at the patient for only once.

Surely he isn't... fooling around, is he?

Lin Fan merely shook his head slightly after hearing Ye Tian's words.

"It's unnecessary!"

He completely ignored Ye Tian immediately after he had replied to him. Instead, he had continued working on the prescriptions as he wrote away on the sheets.

Wow!

The discussion among the crowd of passersby and patients was getting louder and more excited when they saw this.

Everyone's gaze toward Lin Fan was just like they were looking at an idiot.

“He is Divine Doctor Lin? What a joke. He doesn't even obey the basic processes of diagnosis in traditional Chinese medicine!”

“Indeed. All the traditional Chinese medicine hospitals go through the four diagnostic methods, but he's telling us that he only needs to take a look, then he can immediately write the prescriptions? This is absolutely a joke!”

“Hmph! What nonsense is it with this Divine Doctor Lin? Mr. Ye Tian was right—he's just a cheat!”

At this point of time, the look in the eyes of multiple passersby and patients around toward Lin Fan was getting more and more distrusting.

They were not the only ones; even Elder Gao, Dr. Maniac and the others were also putting on a wry smile as they had no idea what Divine Doctor Lin had in mind.

He's going to diagnose the patients with a single glance? This is completely unimaginable!

As for Lin Fan, he had turned a deaf ear to the arguments and questionings around him.

His hand holding the ball pen in his hand continued to move swiftly on the sheets as he wrote down one prescription after another.

Lin Fan went on and on, one sheet after another. In the blink of an eye, Lin Fan had completed all ten of the prescriptions the moment he let go of the ball pen.

He was done... just like that?

When Lin Fan began to stretch himself before standing up from his chair, everyone around him was astounded.

“Here you go! These are your prescriptions. Everything about your illness has all been listed! You only have to get the Chinese herbal medicines accordingly and you’ll find yourself completely cured in three days!”

Lin Fan carried the stack of prescriptions in his hand before handing them to the ten patients one by one.

As for the patients, they were all in utter disbelief and filled with doubts the moment they took their respective prescriptions.

The doctor in front of them was acting too weirdly after all.

He had never asked them about their conditions, nor had he inquired about their medical history, but he had instructed them to go get the medicines on their own? He must have been pranking them.

Considering the looks on the patients' faces, Ye Tian could not help but let out a snort.

“Hold on to your prescriptions! After I've diagnosed every one of you, we shall compare my prescriptions with his! We shall see if he really is a liar!”

Chapter 345 Everyone Gets Lucky Sometimes

With that, Ye Tian immediately pointed at the first patient. "You, come over!"

The patient put on a jolly look after hearing that. He walked over right away before taking a seat in front of Ye Tian.

After a round of observation and inquiries by Ye Tian, a confident smile appeared on his face.

"I've confirmed your case of illness. You have a recurrent headache, also known as cluster headache! As long as you follow my prescription and take the medicines accordingly, I assure you that your illness will be cured within half a month!"

Ye Tian seemed self-satisfied from his tone of speech. He was obviously extremely confident in his diagnosis.

However, he was astounded when he noticed the peculiar expression on the patient's face after he had finished talking.

Huh?

Ye Tian was not the only who had noticed it; even the crowd around them had witnessed it.

All of them had caught sight of the scene.

After listening to Ye Tian's diagnosis, the patient who had cluster headache put Ye Tian's prescription and Lin Fan's side by side to compare both of them.

As he observed the prescriptions, the strange look on his face had gradually become more intense.

"What's the matter? Is there any problem with my prescription?" asked Ye Tian, looking somewhat unsatisfied.

How could the patient even compare his prescription side by side with the fraud, Lin Fan's prescription after all?

This was simply an insult to him.

Nonetheless, what the patient had said next had shocked Ye Tian as if he was struck by lightning.

"Mr. Ye Tian, Divine Doctor Lin's prescription is nearly exactly the same as yours! He stated the same illness—cluster headache. He had also given the same medication. However, the only difference is the ratio of the medications. He even wrote on my prescription that I will be healed in only three days!"

What?

Silence ensued right after the patient was done speaking; the whole area seemed to be completely devoid of sound at this moment.

Everyone's eyes were filled with utter shock and disbelief as they shifted their gaze toward the patient.

The diagnosis and the prescriptions were the same, but the only difference was the ratio of the medications. The prescription from Ye Tian stated that the patient would need half a month to heal, but as for Lin Fan's... It was stated there that the patient only needed three days?

H-How could this even be possible?

After everyone had come back to their senses, there was a huge uproar in the area.

The passersby and the patients were putting on looks of shock one after another.

After all, Lin Fan had only taken a glance at the patients before writing down the prescriptions. On the other hand, Ye Tian had cautiously examined the patient over and over; he had taken up 20 to 30 minutes before he managed to write down a prescription that is nearly identical.

This was absolutely unbelievable.

“I-Impossible!”

Ye Tian was so terrified to the extent that he leapt up from his chair after listening to what the patient had said.

His eyes looked toward the prescription in the patient’s hand, as if he had seen a ghostly presence.

“I don’t believe it! I’ve cautiously examined your body before prescribing the medications! How can it be the same as the fraud who only took a glance to make the diagnosis? T-This is impossible!”

Big droplets of sweat began to stream down from Ye Tian’s forehead.

The patient forced out a laugh after seeing Ye Tian's expression. He then handed both of the prescriptions in his hands to Ye Tian.

Ye Tian instantly grabbed the prescriptions before fixing his gaze on the two sheets of paper, as if he was trying to find out something fishy about it.

Among the two pieces of prescriptions, he could clearly see that one of them was written by him.

As for the other piece, it was written with great detail. Not only were the descriptions of the patient's symptoms identical, even the types of medication were exactly the same.

The only difference was the ratio of the suggested dosage of the two prescriptions, which were completely different from each other.

Chapter 345 Everyone Gets Lucky Sometimes

“How can this be?! This liar only took a glance! How could he be sure of the type of illness and the prescription?”

Ye Tian was dumbfounded.

He felt like thunder had struck right onto his head. He could barely believe what he was seeing with his own eyes.

The matter did not end there.

“Three days? What kind of joke is that? Even if my master were here, he wouldn’t be able to achieve that. This fellow must be...”

With that, Ye Tian’s gaze shifted toward Lin Fan’s prescription where the dosage ratios were stated.

However, Ye Tian knitted his brows right after reading it.

“These ratios seemed... perfect! The usage of every type of medicinal herb seems to be designed to help achieve balance between the Yin and Yang in the patient's body. If the patient really were to follow these proportions, maybe he would truly be able to recover in three days..."

Ye Tian was shivering after he realized that. As though he was being electrified, he immediately tossed Lin Fan's prescription onto the floor.

Amazement and fear were the expressions written on Ye Tian's face at this moment. He looked like he had seen something that was truly unimaginable.

"Mr. Ye Tian, is Divine Doctor Lin's prescription... true?"

The patient at the side hastily picked up Lin Fan's prescription from the floor before asking Ye Tian that question with a doubtful manner.

Chapter 345 Everyone Gets Lucky Sometimes

He was not the only one who was waiting for Ye Tian's answer; Elder Gao, Mike, the other doctors around them and the passersby had focused their eyes onto Ye Tian.

Now, Ye Tian could only feel his face burning, as if someone had fiercely given him a slap in the face.

Even though he had his doubts and reluctance, he could only soak it in and nodded in the end.

"T-That's right! There isn't any mistake in Lin Fan's diagnosis. Moreover, it may be possible for you to recover in three days if you follow his prescription!"

Astoundment hit the crowd as they heard what Lin Fan had said.

The way the patients and the crowd looked at Lin Fan had completely changed.

All the previous doubts and anger had completely vanished to be replaced with the look of astonishment and admiration instead.

“Oh my god, he really is a divine doctor! He managed to write a prescription right after taking a single glance to diagnose the patient. Moreover, even if his prescription was casually written, it still works better than Mr. Ye’s!”

“Indeed! He is the real Divine Doctor! He doesn't need to apply the four methods of diagnosis in traditional Chinese medicine. He only needs to take a glance at the patient to determine the type of illness. His skills are truly out of this world!”

The discussion among the crowd grew more and more heated and excited.

Nearly every voice was filled with astonishment and amazement on how Lin Fan was able to diagnose a patient with a mere glance.

Even Elder Gao, Dr. Maniac and the other doctors of the hospital were astounded, let alone the ordinary people in the crowd.

“I must say, Divine Doctor Lin’s skills had become an eye-opener for me once again!”

“Hahaha... He sure is my idol. Excellent!”

Elder Gao and Dr. Maniac exchanged glances with each other as the admiration and fanaticism on their faces grew stronger.

“No!”

It was at this moment when a shrill yell was being heard coming from someone.

Everyone looked toward the direction where the voice had come from, only to find out that the man who had yelled was actually Ye Tian.

At this moment, Ye Tian's eyes had completely reddened. Intense envy and dissatisfaction was written all over his face as he glared straight at Lin Fan and said, "He just got lucky this time! I don't believe that he still can get the rest of the prescriptions right!"

Huh?

Upon hearing Ye Tian's words, everyone understood at once that he refused to concede defeat; he still wanted to continue the memory contest.

Ye Tian then sat back on his chair before saying to the second patient, "You—come over!"

He started diagnosing the second patient soon after the latter came in and sat down.

He took another 20 minutes to write out another prescription with deadly seriousness. "You're suffering from chronic diarrhea, which is also called chronic enteritis. Just follow my prescription for a week and it will work effectively."

His face resumed his confident expression as he had made full use of his talent in the prescription this time.

Chapter 346 This Prescription Is Different

After all, he had beaten his brains out to think up a prescription that would take effect in seven days.

He did not believe that the prescription Lin Fan made at a glance could compare favorably with his own prescription.

As Ye Tian spoke, he gave Lin Fan a provoking look before saying to the second patient, "Alright. You may take out the prescription that the man with the surname Lin gave you and show it to us right now!"

Upon hearing his words, almost everyone's nerves were on edge again.

As they looked on expectantly, the second patient took out the prescription that Lin Fan gave him.

However, as the patient compared the two prescriptions, his expression turned more and more strange.

Huh?

Ye Tian's heart skipped a beat when he noticed the second patient's awkward expression at the moment. His expression changed instantly as he asked, "What... What's wrong? Why do you have such a look in your eyes? Don't tell me that the guy's prescription is still the same as mine!"

Ye Tian could only feel his heart thumping wildly as though it would jump out of his throat anytime.

No way! That will never be the case! he screamed frantically in his mind.

He had beaten his brains out to think up that prescription. Lin Fan could never match him at making diagnoses with a mere glance at the patient!

Besides Ye Tian, the surrounding crowd also got nervous at the moment. They were eager to know if Divine Doctor Lin had the edge over Ye Tian again by diagnosing illnesses at a glance.

Right when everyone was all on edge, the second patient said with an awkward expression, "You're wrong this time, Mr. Ye. The illnesses and symptoms diagnosed by Mr. Lin is the same as yours, but the treatment regimen that he prescribed is entirely different from yours."

Phew...

Upon hearing his words, Ye Tian let out a long sigh of relief and his mind was completely at rest once again.

Luckily, only their diagnoses were the same, whereas their treatment regimens were different.

In Ye Tian's opinion, he needed to beat his brains out to think up a treatment regimen that could treat the patient in merely seven days even with his talent, so how could Lin Fan possibly have achieved such a feat with a mere glance at the patient?

In other words, he had won this round for sure!

As the thought occurred to Ye Tian, the corners of his lips couldn't help but curl upward into a smug smile.

However, before the smile could form on his face, the corners of his lips froze as he heard the second patient saying, "Mr. Lin has prescribed 5 grams of common perilla seeds, 10 grams of Cynanchum otophyllum Schneid. and 20 grams of Chinese coriaria roots... Take the herbs together three times a day... and the illness will be cured in a day!"

Ye Tian was stunned after the second patient had read Lin Fan's prescription out loud. "C-Cured in a day? How could that be possible?"

His eyelids twitched violently as he involuntarily murmured the herbs prescribed by Lin Fan and their dosages, “5 grams of common perilla seeds, 10 grams of Cynanchum otophyllum Schneid. and 20 grams of Chinese coriaria roots...”

However, as he recited the herbs one after another, his eyes popped open in an instant as though he had thought of something. Then, a glimmer of astonishment flickered in his eyes as he said in disbelief, “S-Such a prescription seems to be used to stimulate the patient’s condition by gradually increasing the herbs’ dosages. In other words, by using this prescription, the patient will be lethargic in the morning, but he might be completely cured in the afternoon with such a radical way of stimulation!”

All Ye Tian could see was darkness when he came upon the realization. He slumped onto the floor with a loud thud as though all his strength was drained away from him.

Upon witnessing the scene, even the dumbest of the onlooking crowd realized at once that something had happened.

The second patient, in particular, trembled with fear as he asked Ye Tian, "Mr. Ye, may I ask if this prescription from Divine Doctor Lin really works?"

Does the prescription work?

The corners of Ye Tian's mouth couldn't help but twitch violently when he heard the patient's question. He wanted to go against his conscience by saying that the prescription wouldn't work, but he gave up on that idea when he saw Elder Gao and the other old Chinese physicians who were watching him from the side.

Even if he refused to acknowledge the effectiveness of Lin Fan's prescription, Elder Gao and the others could also tell what was remarkable about the prescription since they were no loafers. He would lose face by making a fool out of himself if he were to retract what he had said himself.

Ye Tian could only clench his fists tightly at the thought. Then, he braced himself and nodded before saying through clenched teeth, "I-It works!"

What?

The surrounding patients and onlookers were bubbling over with excitement when Ye Tian acknowledged the effectiveness of Lin Fan's prescriptions for the second time.

Never in their wildest dreams did they expect that Lin Fan would be able to write out the two patients' diagnoses and prescriptions after simply giving them a glance. As if that was not astonishing enough, the prescriptions he wrote were even better than that of Ye Tian, the little miracle-working doctor, who had spent 20 to 30 minutes in writing each prescription with intense earnestness.

He's a miracle-working doctor!

At that very moment, the admiration in everyone's eyes grew much more intense as they looked at Lin Fan.

To them, Lin Fan was undoubtedly a real miracle-working doctor who even surpassed Ye Tian and Zhang Tianyi, Ye Tian's master!

"I... want to continue the match! I don't believe it!" Ye Tian still refused to give up. He glared at Lin Fan and said icily, "There are still eight prescriptions to go. I don't believe that each of your prescriptions will beat mine! Just wait and see, you brat!"

With that, he sat back in his seat and called the third patient over before starting to diagnose the patient.

Seconds passed by quickly as Ye Tian diagnosed the patients.

However, the results only made everyone surrounding him feel unbelievable.

Ye Tian compared his prescriptions with Lin Fan’s every time after he finished making a diagnosis. Much to his horror, however, both their prescriptions for each kind of disease were totally correct.

Furthermore, the treatment regimen that Lin Fan prescribed for each disease could cure the patients even faster and more completely than his prescriptions.

Beads of cold sweat dripped down Ye Tian's forehead; his face looked as white as a sheet as if he had seen a ghost.

He trembled with fear while wiping his cold sweat away. "How could that be possible? Could... he have attained my Master's healing prowess at such a young age?"

He then wrote out the prescription for the tenth patient. However, after he compared his prescription with Lin Fan's, he was startled.

Huh?

Ye Tian's eyes instantly lit up as he said, "This prescription is different!"

Chapter 347 Divine Doctor Zhang Has Arrived

A blush of excitement instantly crept over Ye Tian's initially pallid face.

He read through the prescription he had made for the tenth patient and found at the moment that he had written that the patient was suffering from gastric bezoar, which was another name for gastric calculi.

He had even made the most effective prescription for treating gastric bezoar, which would ensure the patient's full recovery by the complete removal of the patient's bezoar within a month of recuperation.

However, Lin Fan wrote in his diagnosis that the patient was suffering from advanced stomach cancer; the patient would die no sooner than an hour and no longer than a day.

Moreover, he wrote in the prescription that the patient was beyond cure!

What?

Ye Tian was wild with joy when he saw Lin Fan's prescription. He waved it at everyone, saying, "Have you seen it, everyone? This guy has given himself away in the last prescription!"

Then, he turned to look at the last patient, asking, "How are you feeling recently, sir?"

Huh?

The last patient did not even know what was written on Lin Fan's prescription for him since Ye Tian had taken the prescription away from him before he could read it. Upon hearing Ye Tian's question, he immediately answered, "I have been in good health. I have stomach aches sometimes, but that's all; I'm not suffering from any severe diseases."

The smile on Ye Tian's face broadened

Chapter 347 Divine Doctor Zhang Has Arrived

when he heard the patient's answer. He asked, "Let me ask you then. Are you feeling recently that your stomach is always full? You can't eat or drink, and you feel a dull ache in your bladder. Is that right?"

Ye Tian's description of the patient's symptoms was so accurate that the patient nodded vigorously at once while agreeing to every word Ye Tian had said.

After confirming the patient's symptoms, Ye Tian waved Lin Fan's prescription while bawling with a sarcastic expression, "Has everyone heard what the patient said? According to his description, he is obviously suffering from gastric calculi, and his gastric bezoar will be removed in less than a month if he prepares and drinks herbal decoctions according to my prescription. But do you know what this guy with the surname Lin wrote in his prescription?"

What?

All eyes were directed toward the prescription in Ye Tian's hand when everyone heard what Ye Tian had said and saw how arrogant he looked.

Everyone was incredibly curious as to what Lin Fan had written to make Ye Tian so excited.

Then, Ye Tian continued, "That's because this guy wrote that this sir is suffering from advanced stomach cancer!"

What?

Ye Tian's words instantly silenced all the voices in the area surrounding him.

Advanced stomach cancer? How could that be possible?

All the patients and onlookers began looking at each other in bewilderment.

Almost everyone knew that cancer was extremely difficult to diagnose. Many cancer patients had never found out about their illnesses despite them having gone through frequent medical checkups with the help of countless high-precision medical instruments. When they found out about their diseases, they were already in the late stage of cancers.

Yet, Lin Fan directly diagnosed the patient's illness as terminal cancer by merely darting a glance at the latter, which sounded like a ridiculous joke.

Upon hearing Ye Tian's words, the patient instantly blew his top. He immediately jumped up from his chair and shouted at Lin Fan, "You with the surname Lin, what did you mean with this? How could I have terminal cancer? I'm telling you, I used to be able to eat a horse for a meal and jog 20 kilometers every morning. I'm so healthy; all I have is some stones in my stomach! How could you say that I have advanced stomach cancer? What a quack you are! You're nothing but a liar and a quack!"

The patient was so furious that he almost pointed his finger at Lin Fan's nose as he scolded the latter.

However, that was not the end of the story.

Ye Tian glanced mockingly at Lin Fan before he continued with a laugh, "Everyone, do you know what Lin Fan wrote as well? He wrote that the patient would die no sooner than an hour and no longer than a day, and he wrote that the patient is beyond cure!"

What?!

The onlooking crowd was in a complete uproar when they heard what Ye Tian had said.

None of them had expected that Lin Fan would even specify the time of the last patient's death!

An hour? A day?

Everyone instantly looked at the tenth patient.

Upon seeing how energetic the patient looked as well as his tall, sturdy, and muscular body, almost none of them could believe that such a strong man would die right within this day.

This was simply the biggest joke in the world!

In an instant, the surrounding onlookers and patients were in a complete uproar.

“Oh my god! What's wrong with that Divine Doctor Lin? He has diagnosed the nine previous patients accurately, but isn't his diagnosis of the last patient going too far?”

“That’s right! Stomach cancer is one of the most incurable diseases that needed to be diagnosed through a precise medical checkup at a hospital. How could he make the diagnosis merely by glancing at the patient? That’s too thoughtless!”

“Hmph! He’s cursing the patient with an early death! How could such a young and strong patient possibly be someone nearing his death?”

The others’ criticisms followed.

At that moment, the surrounding onlookers and patients were skeptical about Lin Fan once again. After all, Lin Fan’s diagnosis of the last patient had gone too far.

Seeing the noisy crowd surrounding him, Ye Tian wanted to mock Lin Fan when a worn out voice was heard shouting from among the crowd, “Tian!”

Chapter 347 Divine Doctor Zhang Has Arrived

Then, everyone saw an elder in hemp clothes walking slowly toward them.

Tian?

Everyone was startled; they knew that Ye Tian was the last disciple of Divine Doctor Zhang Tianyi. Nobody had expected the elder in hemp clothes to be so audacious as to call Ye Tian directly by the latter's first name.

However, right when some people were about to slap the elder down, Ye Tian was ravished as though he had seen his savior. "You have come at last, Master!"

What? Did he call the elder 'Master'?

Upon hearing Ye Tian's words, everyone looked at the elder in hemp clothes—who looked over 80 years old—and the name 'Divine Doctor Zhang Tianyi' crossed almost everyone's mind.

Everyone was shocked. Never did they expect Zhang Tianyi, the divine doctor whose fame resounded throughout Jiangnan Province for decades, to turn up here unexpectedly.

Everyone was wild with excitement in an instant.

“Have you seen that? Zhang Tianyi has the air of a miracle-working doctor. Look at his hemp clothes—doesn’t it give one the impression of a grandmaster who lives in seclusion?”

“That’s right! Zhang Tianyi hasn’t appeared in public over many years. Now that his disciple has dared Divine Doctor Lin to a match, it is obvious that Divine Doctor Zhang has reappeared in public for Divine Doctor Lin as well!”

“It’s over! The guy with the surname Lin has given himself away to the last patient just now. Now that he has also come across Divine Doctor Zhang, I’m afraid that he’s doomed!”

Other comments soon followed.

All the surrounding onlookers looked at Lin Fan with sarcasm and sympathy as though they were already certain of Divine Doctor Zhang's purpose in coming.

Even the faces of Elder Gao, Dr. Maniac, and the others' expressions turned grave in an instant.

They immediately came to Lin Fan's side to stand by him.

As expected, as soon as Ye Tian trotted to Zhang Tianyi's side, he said excitedly, "Master, I was diagnosing the last patient just now, but someone said that he has advanced stomach cancer that is beyond cure, and he would die very soon. Would you like to diagnose the patient as well, Master?"

What?

Ye Tian's words startled the elder in hemp clothes for a moment.

He has diagnosed the patient with cancer?

It was the first time Zhang Tianyi heard of someone possessing such excellent skills in traditional Chinese medicine. To him, no one in the entire Jiangnan Province could easily conclude that a patient had advanced cancer; even he couldn't easily do so himself no matter how careful he was while examining the patient.

As the thought occurred to Zhang Tianyi, he asked curiously, "Where is the patient?"

Upon hearing that Zhang Tianyi was about to diagnose the patient himself, Ye Tian and the surrounding crowd got excited at once.

They were dying to know what would be Zhang Tianyi's diagnosis of the patient.

"I-It's me, Divine Doctor Zhang!" Upon hearing Zhang Tianyi's words, the last patient immediately trotted up to him in a fluster. He said warily, "Divine Doctor Zhang, I am only 31 years old this year. I can normally eat several bowls of rice per meal as well as jog 20 kilometers every morning. Over the last few days, though, I have no appetite since my stomach feels full sometimes, which was why I came to see a doctor. However, little did I expect that..."

Zhang Tianyi, the elder in hemp clothes, nodded immediately when he heard the patient's words.

He then asked the patient about the latter's symptoms. After he finished listening to the patient's description, he shook his head and said with a laugh, "That person was talking nonsense. Your Qi and blood are circulating well, which is by no means a symptom of early death. My diagnosis is the same as my disciple's. All you have is just gastric bezoar, which will be cured as long as you take the medicine as prescribed by Ye Tian for a month. Don't worry!"

Phew! Upon hearing Zhang Tianyi's diagnosis, both the patient and the surrounding onlookers let out long sighs of relief.

"I just knew it. How could Mr. Ye's medical skills be inferior to that of the man with the surname Lin?"

The last patient instantly burned with anger when he recalled how he had nearly wetted himself just now because of Lin Fan. He glared at Lin Fan, growling angrily, "You with the surname Lin, have you seen it? You're nothing but a liar and a quack! Even Divine Doctor Zhang has said that I'm fine! Who do you think you are?"

The patient's lips were quirked in a smirk of intense contempt. Upon hearing the words 'you with the surname Lin', however, Divine Doctor Zhang, the elder in hemp clothes, shuddered slightly; his wrinkled face immediately took on a dumbfounded expression. He asked, "Tian, could the man with the surname Lin that you guys talk about... be Divine Doctor Lin from Jiang City?"

Huh? Divine Doctor Lin?

Never did Ye Tian expect that his master would also know Lin Fan's title. He curled the corners of his mouth into a sneer and said with a nod, "That's right, Master. The person who is competing against me is the owner of this hospital. He is called Divine Doctor Lin, but now, it seems that the title is just a name, nothing more. He doesn't deserve to be regarded as your equal and to be called a miracle-working doctor!"

What?! Ye Tian's words were like thunder striking upon Zhang Tianyi; the elder in hemp clothes broke out in a bout of cold sweat. "Oh no!" he exclaimed.

With that, he immediately turned to look at the last patient, who was about to continue showering abuse on Lin Fan. However, before he could speak, he fell to the floor with a loud thud and trembled all over as his body jerked around. "Urghh...!!"

What?

Everyone was shocked at the sight of the scene, especially when they saw trickles of jet-black blood constantly streaming out of the corner of the last patient's mouth as his body convulsed.

His eyes rolled over as his face contorted in spasms. After several breaths, his body stiffened. Then, he went completely limp on the floor and was no longer breathing.

Everyone was dead silent as they were stunned at the sight of the scene.

It took just a minute from the moment Zhang Tianyi made his diagnosis to the moment the patient died, yet the patient really did meet his death!

“It... It can’t be possible! How could this happen?” Ye Tian’s face turned as pale as a sheet as though he was struck by a thunderbolt. He slumped onto the floor as if all his strength was drawn out of him.

The surrounding onlookers and patients directed their gazes toward Lin Fan simultaneously as though they were looking at a demon.

He was right! thought everyone to themselves as they gulped in fear.

“Did... Did he really diagnose it right?”

“Did the patient really suffer from advanced gastric cancer instead of gastric bezoar? But how could he die so quickly?”

“That’s so unbelievable! Oh my god, had I not seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn’t dare believe such a truth!”

The discussion went on among the crowd.

All the surrounding patients and onlookers felt chills running down their spines as though the angel of death had just moved past them, making all of them tremble with fear.

Right at the moment when they were the most frightened, someone suddenly spoke. It was Lin Fan saying, “This man looked healthy on the outside, but his body kept giving off a slightly stinky smell. Also, there were too many whites in his eyes, which showed that his heart, liver, spleen, lungs and kidneys had lesions. This was one of the reasons why I diagnosed him with advanced cancer. Besides that, there were a few other inflammatory lesions in his body, yet he only came to see a doctor today when he could no longer delay treating his symptoms. Therefore, I concluded that he was sure to die today.”

Lin Fan’s voice sounded extremely apathetic as his words hit the ears of everyone around him like a thunderbolt.

The case was especially true for Zhang Tianyi and Ye Tian, his disciple; the two of them were dripping with cold sweat.

Details matter, they thought to themselves.

They had made the diagnosis of gastric bezoar purely based on the patient’s appearance on the surface, whereas Lin Fan deduced that the patient was nearing his death by starting with one tiny detail after another. Such powers of observation and judgment gave Zhang

Tianyi and Ye Tian the shudders.

“You... You’re Divine Doctor Lin? May I ask if Mr. Bai Shan is your father-in-law?” At the moment, Zhang Tianyi, the elder in hemp clothes, fixed his weary eyes on Lin Fan as if he was looking at a god.

Huh? Ye Tian was startled upon hearing Zhang Tianyi’s words. What does my master want to do? Does he want to dare Lin Fan to a challenge?

The thought elevated Ye Tian’s spirits at once. After all, how could his master reconcile to the fact that he had lost face just now? Ye Tian thought that his master must be confirming Lin Fan’s identity right now because his master wanted to go on with the challenge.

Besides Ye Tian, Elder Gao and the others, who were watching at the side, also looked grave.

Chapter 348 Bai Shan Is My Father-in-Law

After all, one's reputation followed him or her like a shadow wherever he or she went. Even though Zhang Tianyi had had a slip-up and lost his dignity, he would certainly be unwilling to concede defeat and would continue the challenge.

When the thought occurred to Elder Gao and others, they looked at Zhang Tianyi with more watchful eyes.

Lin Fan, however, was startled for a moment when he heard that Zhang Tianyi knew Bai Shan, his father-in-law. Despite that, he nodded indifferently, saying, "That's right. Bai Shan is my father-in-law."

What? He has confirmed his own identity!

Upon hearing Lin Fan acknowledging his relationship with Bai Shan, Zhang Tianyi deduced almost at once that Lin Fan was the globally-renowned Divine

Physician of Bones, the master who concocted the out-of-this-world herbal cuisines and was deified by all physicians! “I... I have never thought that you would be so young!”

After Zhang Tianyi finished his sentence excitedly, he fell to his knees with a thud and bowed down to Lin Fan, saying, "I, Zhang Tianyi, a junior in the field of medicine, am honored to meet you!"

Huh?

His words instantly reduced the surrounding crowd to a dead silence.

Everyone had a dumbfounded and puzzled look on their faces. What did they hear just now? Zhang Tianyi, a junior, is honored to meet him? W-What the heck is happening?

No one dared to believe what they had heard at the moment. After all, Zhang Tianyi's reputation as a miracle-working doctor had resounded throughout Jiangnan Province for decades. He was regarded as the real miracle-working doctor because he had saved countless lives.

On the other hand, Lin Fan looked to be just over 20 years old. He didn't even look much older than Ye Tian, Zhang Tianyi's last disciple.

But now, not only did Divine Doctor Zhang Tianyi kneel down to Lin Fan, but he also addressed the latter as a senior. How could that be possible?

Not only was the surrounding crowd stunned, but the grin of excitement on Ye Tian's face had frozen completely as well. Seeing his master kneeling to Lin Fan, he felt like he was dreaming as he dared not believe his own eyes.

"M-Master, get up quickly! Are you out of your mind? You are Divine Doctor Zhang! How could you kneel down to this guy with the surname Lin at such an old age?"

Panic-stricken, Ye Tian immediately stepped forward and tried to help Zhang Tianyi to his feet.

However, the next scene was even more unbelievable to him.

Zhang Tianyi immediately waved Ye Tian off to stop what the latter was doing. Then, his old body groveled at Lin Fan's feet as he said in a trembling voice, "Sir, your great name has long resounded in my ears. I, Zhang Tianyi, just followed Mr. Bai Shan before I came here just now, and I was awed when I saw the herbal cuisines you have made. Please teach me, Mr. Lin. I, Zhang Tianyi, am willing to be your disciple!"

After that, Zhang Tianyi kowtowed to Lin Fan repeatedly and resoundingly as if he would never get up and be satisfied for the rest of his life if Lin Fan did not agree to his plea.

At that very moment, everyone could feel their hearts thumping heavily since the scene in front of their eyes was too shocking to them.

A miracle-working doctor whose fame resounded throughout Jiangnan Province for decades was kneeling to Divine Doctor Lin from Jiang City and begging the latter to take him as a disciple as though he was worshipping his idol. How could the scene not be shocking to everyone?

Is Master begging this guy to take him as a disciple?

At that moment, Ye Tian was thunderstruck at the sight of Zhang Tianyi, who was kneeling on the floor while begging Lin Fan to take him as a disciple.

He was stupefied. The man before him was his master, Zhang Tianyi, whose fame resounded throughout Jiangnan Province for decades, yet he was now begging the man with the surname Lin to take him as a disciple. How could this be possible?

The other patients and onlookers were all dumbfounded as well. They were utterly shocked, for they could never imagine that a miracle-working doctor whose fame had resounded throughout Jiangnan Province for decades to be kneeling to someone else and begging him to take him as a disciple right now. Such a scene would undoubtedly cause a great stir throughout the entire Jiangnan Province if word got out about it!

All eyes were drawn to Lin Fan at the moment. Many of the onlookers seemed to be unable to figure out how much power this guy had to make Divine Doctor Zhang Tianyi worship him to such a degree.

Lin Fan, on the other hand, couldn't care less about the looks of shock in everyone's eyes. He fixed his eyes steadily on Zhang Tianyi, who was kneeling in front of him, as a look of amusement crept into his eyes. He asked, "I would like to know how you found out about my herbal cuisines."

He had made the herbal cuisines for Bai Yi and her family lately. It was normally impossible for other people to find out about that, but Zhang Tianyi, who was in front of him, hit the nail on the head when recognized the herbal cuisines that Lin Fan had created. Such sharp eyes astonished Lin Fan a little.

Upon hearing Lin Fan's question, the look of admiration on Zhang Tianyi's face grew. He bowed his head, saying, "I met Mr. Bai Shan at the park this morning and found that his Qi and blood is circulating well despite him being over 50 years old. Moreover, both his bones and tendons are strengthened, and he even showed signs of recovering his youthful vigor. I asked him afterward and learned that these are all thanks to Divine Doctor Lin's herbal cuisines!"

What? Upon hearing Zhang Tianyi's words, everyone around them dared not believe their ears. Bones and tendons are strengthened? Recovering his youthful vigor? How... could that be possible?

Ye Tian and the onlookers were all completely dumbstruck. They couldn't fathom what herbal cuisine in this world could have such an amazing healing effect at all.

These all sounded utterly inconceivable to them.

They weren't the only ones in disbelief, for the look of admiration on Zhang Tianyi's face also grew at the moment when he recalled the flavors of the herbal cuisines.

“Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Formula! The usage of four herbs to balance the Yang energy within the body! The usage of nine spices to balance the Yin energy within the body! The usage of six ingredients to seal the pain-sensitive acupuncture points! Sir, perhaps only you in this world are capable of concocting such incredible herbal cuisines! Please take me as your disciple!”

Then, under everyone’s astonished gazes, Zhang Tianyi lay prostrate before Lin Fan humbly and fervently once again.

The surrounding area was so quiet at that moment that one could almost hear a pin drop. Everyone’s eyes fell upon the kneeling Zhang Tianyi and the upright standing Lin Fan as they alternated their gazes between the two of them.

The elder and the youth were both miracle-working doctors, but it was simply fantastic that Lin Fan could make a miracle-working doctor like Zhang Tianyi worship him as though he was a god.

“Very well.” The look of astonishment in Lin Fan’s eyes grew as he looked at Zhang Tianyi. Then, he said with a faint smile, “Your powers of observation are unusual. In that case, I can take you as my disciple, but with one condition.”

What?

Zhang Tianyi trembled all over when he heard Lin Fan’s words. Then, his wrinkled face immediately took on a delightful expression as he said, “Please tell me, sir. I will fulfill whatever your request is even if I have to risk my life!”

Zhang Tianyi was so thrilled that his body trembled out of excitement. The man before him was the Divine Physician of Bones! This god in the field of medicine had really agreed to take him as a disciple. How could he not be thrilled and excited about it?

Lin Fan smiled upon sensing Zhang Tianyi’s passionate gaze. Then, pointing at the crowded group of dozens of patients who were watching from the side, he said, "I can take you as my disciple after you cure all of them of their illnesses next."

Huh? Zhang Tianyi was startled. After darting his gaze over the surrounding patients, he instantly replied with a smile, "Don't worry, Master. I will do it today even if I have to go without eating, drinking, or sleep!"

Lin Fan nodded in satisfaction upon hearing Zhang Tianyi's guarantee. He then waved at Elder Gao and others before stepping toward the crowd, intending to leave the scene.

At the sight of the scene, Elder Gao, Dr. Maniac, Zhang Tianyi and the others bowed to Lin Fan simultaneously to show him their respect.

"I bid you farewell, Master!"

Chapter 349 I Would Like to Be Your Disciple

“I bid you farewell, Divine Doctor Lin!”

“I bid you farewell, Chairman Lin!”

Numerous fervid and reverent voices echoed resoundingly throughout the area.

In everyone’s eyes, Lin Fan’s skinny figure looked like a god walking among the mortals that filled people with admiration and awe.

Chapter 350 He Is the Divine Physician of Bones

Only until Lin Fan had left did Zhang Tianyi immediately sit at the examination table and call the patients over to diagnose their illnesses.

Elder Gao and Dr. Maniac couldn't help but smile wryly at the sight of the scene. Their eyes were filled with intense admiration as they stared at Zhang Tianyi, for only the two of them were aware of Lin Fan's real identity.

It must have been Zhang Tianyi's greatest fortune to be able to become Lin Fan's disciple.

The surrounding onlookers gradually left, whereas the hospital's doctors also returned to their hospitals.

It did not take long before only the patients, Ye Tian, and Zhang Tianyi, who was examining the patients, were left at the scene.

Ye Tian's feelings were mixed as he looked at his master, who wiped the sweat from his forehead while examining one patient after another with a look of excitement on his face.

After hesitating for a long time, he finally asked Zhang Tianyi, "Master, why on earth are you doing this? The guy with the surname Lin is almost at the same age as me. Even if he is skillful in medicine, how could he be comparable to you? After all, you are a miracle-working doctor whose fame resounded throughout Jiangnan Province!"

He couldn't understand his master's actions since he found it hard to swallow the fact that his master behaved so humbly toward Lin Fan.

Zhang Tianyi, however, smiled when he heard Ye Tian's question. He said to Ye Tian with a meaningful expression, "Tian, do you know which doctor is the most excellent in the field of medicine in the whole world?"

Huh? Ye Tian was startled before he answered straight away without a second thought, “Of course I know who is that. The top miracle-working doctor in the world is none other than the Divine Physician of Bones. He is the real god of the field of medicine.”

Ye Tian had heard countless legends about the Divine Physician of Bones. Every legend about him filled Ye Tian with deep longing and utmost respect.

Zhang Tianyi nodded upon hearing Ye Tian’s answer. Then, he asked, “Do the Eight Treasures for Tendon Strengthening Formula, the usage of four herbs to balance the Yang energy within one’s body, the usage of nine spices to balance the Yin energy within one’s body, and the usage of six ingredients to seal the pain-sensitive acupuncture points still sound familiar to you?”

Huh? Ye Tian was startled. Of course he reme mbered these names which his master had mentioned just a while ago. These seemed to be the herbal cuisines that Lin Fan created...

Wait a minute.

For some reason, after hearing these names for the second time, Ye Tian suddenly found them familiar to the ears, as if he had heard them somewhere else.

Then, as he recalled the source of these names, Ye Tian's eyes instantly popped open. His eyes flickered with intense disbelief as he asked, "M-Master, could these names be coming from the Bible of Bones?"

The Bible of Bones, written by the Divine Physician of Bones, was the top classic literature in the global field of medicine. Therefore, Lin Fan must have been... the Divine Physician of Bones!

Chapter 350 He Is the Divine Physician of Bones

Ye Tian was totally dumbstruck at the moment.

The Divine Physician of Bones was a god in the hearts of medical practitioners across the globe. Lin Fan, on the other hand, was merely over 20 years old. How could he be the Divine Physician of Bones?

“T-That can’t be possible, Master! Divine Doctor Lin is only about the same age as me! H-How could he be the Divine Physician of Bones at such a young age? Have you made a mistake?”

Ye Tian could only feel that his mind had gone blank, but he subconsciously changed the way he addressed Lin Fan from ‘the guy with the surname Lin’ to ‘Divine Doctor Lin’.

Zhang Tianyi couldn’t help but smile bitterly when he saw the astounded look on Ye Tian’s face. With a long sigh, he said, “Let me tell you, Tian. One’s standing in this world isn't decided by his or her age, but by his or her natural gift, as well as the legacy he or she has left behind. Mr. Lin is an enigma. If you don't believe it to be the case, think back carefully about why you lost to him so miserably."

Huh? Zhang Tianyi's words immediately reminded Ye Tian of their match. He did not think much about the reason behind his defeat because he was previously consumed with envy and resentment. At that very moment, he couldn't help but recall the previous scenes where he competed against Lin Fan.

Lin Fan had diagnosed ten patients' illnesses in one go! Lin Fan only had to cast his eyes over the ten patients before instantly writing out ten prescriptions with perfect accuracy. On the contrary, he had spent a few hours of painstaking effort to write out the prescriptions, yet his last prescription was a total failure.

Chapter 350 He Is the Divine Physician of Bones

The more Ye Tian thought about it, the more he was afraid at the moment.

Beads of cold sweat dripped continuously down his forehead. Only then did he truly understand how horrifying the gap between him and Lin Fan was.

Ye Tian was almost convinced deep down inside that Lin Fan was the Divine Physician of Bones.

As if that wasn't shocking enough, Zhang Tianyi continued, "Tian, do you know why I came to Jiang City?"

Huh? Ye Tian was startled before he asked curiously, "Master, didn't you come to Jiang City to test whether Divine Doctor Lin truly lives up to his name and to prove that you are the top miracle-working doctor in Jiangnan Province?"

Ye Tian had previously thought that his master was angered by Divine Doctor Lin's rise to fame, but now, it seemed that the truth wasn't that simple.

"Hahaha... Divine Doctor? That's nothing but an undeserved reputation!" Zhang Tianyi shook his head and smiled. Then, he continued, "Do you think that a person my age would care about such reputation? To be honest, I came to Jiang City because I got word that someone here had developed the Revitalizing Pill, a pill made by the Divine Physician of Bones! From what I have investigated, the person who developed the Revitalizing Pill was none other than Divine Doctor Lin!"

What? Ye Tian shuddered all over at Zhang Tianyi's words.

The Revitalizing Pill was a miraculous pill made by the Divine Physician of Bones that shocked the world as it had cured countless pneumonia patients.

Chapter 350 He Is the Divine Physician of Bones

Now that he had heard the news from Zhang Tianyi, Ye Tian was fully convinced that Lin Fan was the Divine Physician of Bones.

Recalling how he had matched his medical skills against Lin Fan's, Ye Tian could only feel a burning sensation in his face as though he was given a loud, hard slap. He was so overwhelmed with embarrassment that he wished he could hide himself away. "H-How could I have the audacity to want to have a competition against the Divine Physician of Bones? What an idiot I am!"

Ye Tian felt both bitter and complicated emotions in his heart.

Upon seeing Ye Tian's expression, Zhang Tianyi smiled. He said, "Tian, since Divine Doctor Lin is my master, he will be your grandmaster too! Don't worry; he won't make a fuss with a junior like you."

Grandmaster? Ye Tian was startled upon hearing this word. That's right! Now that my master has become Divine Doctor Lin's disciple, have I become Lin Fan's grand-disciple as well?

The cloud of gloom in Ye Tian's heart was instantly overtaken by extreme excitement and happiness when he recalled that he had become the grand-disciple of the Divine Physician of Bones. "Master, I have understood your efforts at last! Don't worry, Master. I will certainly be respectful and dutiful to Grandmaster so that you and Grandmaster won't be worried about me."

Ye Tian was in high spirits at the moment. After all, it was a great blessing to him to be able to become the grand-disciple of his own idol.

Zhang Tianyi nodded in satisfaction at the sight of the scene before he continued to help examine the patients.

Chapter 350 He Is the Divine Physician of Bones

Just then, Ye Tian seemed to have recalled something. He hesitated for a moment before saying, "Oh, right! Master, somebody from the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province has come."

The Bai Clan was one of the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families of Jiangnan Province.

“What has brought them here?” asked Zhang Tianyi nonchalantly as he seemed to be uninterested in the Bai Clan.

“A lineal descendant of Jiangnan Province’s Bai Clan has come this time. His name is Bai Chen. It is said that he came to Jiang City to look for you, Master. He probably came to seek your help to treat the matriarch of the Bai Clan for her illnesses,” replied Ye Tian reverently. Then, he continued, “Also, Bai Chen has invited you to a banquet at the Bai Family residence in Jiang City, which will be held in three days. Master, will you attend the banquet by then?”

As Ye Tian spoke, he couldn’t help but shoot a cautious glance at his master’s expression. He knew that his master couldn’t care less about the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families of Jiangnan Province with the latter's prideful disposition.

Zhang Tianyi couldn't help but frown after he listened to Ye Tian's explanation. Then, he said with a sigh, "The matriarch of the Bai Clan is no ordinary person. Although we're not afraid of her, we'd better not offend her if possible. Tell Bai Chen that I will attend the banquet after three days."

Meanwhile, as soon as Lin Fan stepped into the Bai Family home, he met the intense gazes of Bai Shan, Bai Yi and Shen Yumei. The family of three looked steadily at Lin Fan with looks of scrutiny and questioning in their eyes.

Lin Fan couldn't help but twitch the corners of his mouth slightly at the sight of the scene. Then, he rubbed his head and said with a forced laugh, "Hi Darling! Hi Dad and Mom! W-Why are you all looking at me like that?"

He couldn't help but feel a little guilty at the moment upon meeting their gazes.

Upon hearing Lin Fan's words, Bai Shan looked at his stiff expression before saying at once, "Tell us the truth, Fan. Are the herbal cuisines you created really worth a million each?"

Bai Yi and her parents' hearts clenched violently when they heard that the herbal cuisines were worth a million each.

They had been eating three meals per day with five herbal cuisines per meal. If the cuisines were really worth a million each, wouldn't it mean that their family had been spending 15 million daily?

This was so ridiculous... Even the top-class big shot in the world couldn't possibly be so extravagant.

In an instant, the bitterness in their eyes grew as they stared at Lin Fan.

Upon hearing Bai Shan's question, Lin Fan figured out at once that it must have been Zhang Tianyi, the old disciple of his, who had told them the value of the herbal cuisines. He couldn't help but smile awkwardly while saying, "What are you talking about, Dad? Are you saying that the herbal cuisines are worth a million each? How could that be possible? Look, all these are the most ordinary herbs!"

The most ordinary herbs? Bai Yi and her parents couldn't help but frown when they heard Lin Fan's explanation.

In reality, Lin Fan did not lie about that. The herbs used in these herbal cuisines were mostly bought outside by either Bai Yi or Bai Shan, so they did not cost much.

To be honest, Bai Yi and her parents still found it quite unbelievable even now that the herbal cuisines were worth a million each.

Still, Bai Shan scrutinized Lin Fan while asking, "Fan, these herbs are common, but your prescriptions don't seem to be ordinary, aren't they?"

He still remembered what the elder in hemp clothes had said about the ingeniousness of these prescriptions being so unrivaled that only a handful of people could achieve it.

Upon hearing Bai Shan's words, Lin Fan couldn't help but shrug his shoulders. Then, he said with a bright smile, "Dad, even if my prescriptions are great, do you think that they could be worth a million each? That's enough; let's not overthink about it. If the cuisines really are worth a million each, why would I still be doing household chores every day? I would have become a boss a long time ago!"

Lin Fan spoke so naturally that Bai Shan couldn't help but nod at his words. That's right! If this son-in-law of mine is really an earth-shattering rare talent, why would he lower himself to staying in my family as a little live-in son-in-law?

As the thought occurred to Bai Yi and her parents, they shook their heads and put the idea of Lin Fan being a rare medical talent out of their minds.

“Alright, hurry up and get ready! We...” Bai Shan was about to say something when the four of them suddenly heard a loud bang outside as the door was being forced open.

The sound was so rough that it was as if someone had fiercely kicked the door of their house open.

Lin Fan and his family knitted their brows in an instant. Then, three figures—two men and one woman—strutted in under the steady gazes of the family of four.

The three of them were led by the woman, who was Bai Yan, Bai Yi’s younger cousin, as well as the daughter of Bai Chuan, the second eldest son of the Bai Clan.

Bai Yan had deep arrogance and pleasure written all over her exquisitely beautiful face; especially after she entered the house, she acted all high and mighty with her nose in the air.

She was followed by two burly men behind her.

Lin Fan's pupils constricted slightly when he saw the two burly men, for he could distinctly sense the terrifying aura that was continuously emanating from the two of them.

The two of them were obviously martial artists with capabilities that were by no means inferior to Elder Kong Sheng, the greatest of the top ten masters in Jiangnan Province. In other words, the two burly men were both experts who had achieved the Grandmaster's level.

“Bai Yan, what brings you here?” Bai Yi’s face darkened slightly. Little did she expect Bai Yan to barge directly into her home with the latter’s underlings without notifying her. Furthermore, judging from the looks of the three of them, it was apparent that they did not come in with friendly intentions.

Upon being questioned by Bai Yi, Bai Yan couldn’t help but sneer at the moment. She said, “Yo! Bai Yi, is this your attitude toward the Bai Family after you have just set up a new company? Hmph! It seems that Grandpa is right; you are an ingrate!”

Ingrate?!

Bai Yi’s pretty face turned darker when she heard Bai Yan’s mockery.

It was the Bai Family who had bullied and banished her and her parents. She and her parents had contributed so much to the Bai Family, only to end up being banished from the family. Yet, she had now become an ingrate in the eyes of the Bai Family. How could she not be furious about that?

“You—” Bai Yi was about to retort when Bai Yan waved her hand dismissively. “That’s enough. I’m too lazy to talk rubbish with you and your family. I have come this time to collect debts under the orders of the Bai Family in Jiangnan Province.”

What? Upon hearing Bai Yan mentioning the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province, both Bai Shan and Bai Yi’s faces turned pale at once. Even though they were banished from the Bai Family, they were familiar with the name of the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province.

The Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province was the main home of the Bai Family, which was one of the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families of Jiangnan Province and a terrifyingly gigantic existence. Even though the Bai Family in Jiang City had expanded to a certain scale over so many years, they weren't even qualified to be associated with the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province.

But now...

"Bai Yan, I... I don't understand what you meant." Bai Yi's face looked as black as thunder as an ominous feeling gradually surged up within her.

She wasn't the only one who had a bad feeling; Bai Shan and Shen Yumei's foreheads also instantly covered with cold sweat as if the words 'the Bai Clan in the Jiangnan Province' alone had scared them to death.

“Let me tell you the truth, Bai Yi. The Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province sent someone over yesterday. He is Bai Chen, a male lineal descendant of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province.” Bai Yi pointed to the two burly men in black next to her and continued, “And these two are Bai Wen and Bai Wu, the two bodyguards of Young Master Bai Chen.”

Bai Chen's bodyguards!

Upon hearing Bai Yan's words, Bai Yi and her parents couldn't help but turn to look at the two burly men in black.

They could distinctly sense a kind of horrifying aura emanating from the two burly men in black that struck terror in their heart. It was as if the two of them were not humans, but two malevolent beasts that made people shudder at the sight of them.

“Hmph!” Both Bai Wen and Bai Wu snorted as though they sensed the gazes of Bai Yi and her parents. The horrifying murderous aura that emanated from the two of them engulfed the living room instantly, dropping the surrounding temperature at once to the freezing point.

“W-What an intimidating aura!” Bai Shan and his family shuddered at the same time. They could only feel their hair standing on end out of fright. Even though they couldn’t tell the cultivation bases of the two burly men, they could still sense an imposing death threat coming from them. The two burly men were no less intimidating than Elder Kong Sheng, whom the family had met before.

Beads of cold sweat dripped down the foreheads of the family of three.

At that very moment, they could tell how horrifying a gigantic existence like the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province was merely by looking at the two bodyguards.

Bai Chen, a male lineal descendant of the family, was escorted by two martial arts experts at the Grandmaster's level whose capabilities were no less than that of Elder Kong Sheng. Such a fact virtually horrified them to death!

Lin Fan couldn't help but frown at the sight of the scene. With a shake of his body, an equally horrifying aura instantly emanated from him and filled the living room, suppressing Bai Wen and Bai Wu's aura immediately.

"Huh?" exclaimed Bai Wen and Bai Wu instantly in surprise at the sight of the scene. Obviously, they had never expected that someone here could neutralize their murderous aura, which was a little unbelievable to them.

"Uncle Bai Shan and Bai Yi, this letter is the order from Young Master Bai Chen," said Bai Yan as she took out a letter from her pocket. As soon as she opened the letter, she couldn't help but dart her gaze at Bai Yi and her parents. Her smile was full of disdain and mockery as she smiled even more brightly and menacingly.

She continued, "Then, let me read the letter to you. Here is the order from the main house in Jiangnan Province: Bai Yi, the President of the New Bai Family Group, is ordered to attend the Bai Family's banquet at Jiang City in three days with the group's official seal and all the property contracts under it. The official seal and the property contracts will belong to the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province. From now onward, the New Bai Family Group will be brought under the main house of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province. Written by Bai Chen, a member of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province."

What?!

As soon as Bai Yan finished reading the letter, the atmosphere in the living room turned depressive in an instant.

Both Bai Yi and her parents' faces instantly looked as black as thunder.

Bai Yi was ordered to go to the Bai Family with the New Bai Family Group's official seal and property contracts. Moreover, the New Bai Family Group would be brought under the control of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province. In other words, the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province was blatantly trying to gobble up the New Bai Family Group.

Furthermore, they had to resort to such a rough and unreasonable method, which Bai Yi and her family found to be unacceptable.

"Hehe... I have finished reading the letter, Bai Yi. Have you heard me loud and clear? This is the order from Young Master Bai Chen, or in other words, the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province.” The smile on Bai Yan’s face at the moment was as bright as a blossoming flower. She continued, “What now? Bai Yi, do you dare disobey the order from the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province?”

Bai Yan’s words were equivalent to putting a death sentence on Bai Yi.

They all were fully aware of how terrifying the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province was. Disobeying the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province would practically be equal to courting death.

Bai Yi and her parents’ faces clouded over as soon as the thought occurred to them.

“Bai Yan, it must be your family who has done all this, isn’t it?” Bai Yi flushed angrily with a look of profound anger in her eyes. “Why would your family do this? My New Bai Family Group has never interfered with your family’s affairs. Why must you and your family drive us into a dead end?"

Bai Yi's heart sank at that moment since she was bitterly disappointed. She used to devote herself to the Bai Family, only to end up being humiliated and banished. Now that she had founded the New Bai Family Group, she had never thought of setting herself and her family against the Bai Family. However, never in her wildest dreams did she expect that the Bai Family would be the first to launch an attack by luring the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province into gobbling up her New Bai Family Group.

This was simply pushing her and her family too hard.

"Hmph! So what if it was my family who did that? It's your fault for posing a threat to the Bai Family Group by obtaining the support of the Golden Age Group and those tycoons of Jiangnan Province!" Bai Yan said icily with profound envy and fury in her eyes.

She used to be envious of Bai Yi because the latter was the President of the Bai Family Group, but now, Bai Yi had driven her mad with jealousy. Never in her wildest dreams did she expect that Bai Yi would have such a meteoric rise after being expelled from the Bai Family. Not only did Bai Yi set up the New Bai Family Group, but she also became an emerging figure in the business field of Jiangnan Province, which made Bai Yan both envious and resentful.

But now...

“Hehe... It’s too bad. So what if the Golden Age Group supports you? Jiangnan Province is ruled by the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families of Jiangnan Province. Even the Golden Age Group won’t be able to do anything if the Bai Clan of the Jiangnan Province wants to gobble up your company!” The smile on Bai Yan's face grew more sinister as she spoke. "Therefore, you should be resigned to your fate, my dear cousin! Hahaha..."

Bai Yan laughed wildly and triumphantly, but Bai Shan and Shen Yumei's faces turned ghastly pale when they heard her words.

"No way! The New Bai Family Group is founded single-handedly by Bai Yi and Lin Fan. Why must we surrender it to the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province like this? I disagree with the order!"

"I disagree with the order as well. The Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province has nothing to do with us. So they want to gobble up our New Bai Family Group? Dream on!"

Bai Shan and Shen Yumei looked determined at the moment. The way they saw it, the New Bai Family Group was like Bai Yi and Lin Fan's child whom the couple had built and raised together. How could they surrender the company to somebody else for no reason?

However, the bodyguards, Bai Wen and Bai Wu's faces fell as soon as they heard Bai Shan and Shen Yumei's words. "Huh? How dare you two old people be so disrespectful to the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province? Well, very well! In that case, we shall teach you two a lesson to let you know that the Bai Clan of the Jiangnan Province is your real master!"

Following that, Bai Wen and Bai Wu moved in a flash and lunged at Bai Shan and Shen Yumei without hesitation.

The two bodyguards at the Grandmaster's level moved incredibly fast as they dashed toward Bai Shan and Shen Yumei in the blink of an eye. Then, they immediately raised their large hands to slap Bai Shan and Shen Yumei hard in their faces.

Chapter 353 Is He Truly... a Grandmaster?

Swoosh! The sound of the wind howling as Bai Wen and Bai Wu raised their hands would have struck terror into one's heart.

The scene was beyond everyone's expectation. Never did they expect that the bodyguards of the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province would be so reckless as to come to blows directly over a single jarring note in their conversation.

"Dad! Mom!" Bai Yi's expression changed drastically as soon as she came to her senses. She stepped forward to try to defend her parents against the attack, but she could only let out a mournful scream as she couldn't defend them in time at the moment.

Bai Yi wasn't the only stunned person. Bai Yan was also taken aback by what was happening, but the mockery on her face deepened when she came to her senses. "Hahahaha... You all are truly a family of idiots. This is what you all get for having the audacity to offend the Bai Family in Jiangnan Province!”

The smile on Bai Yan’s face at that moment looked unusually offensive to the eyes. She felt as if she could already see the miserable scene where Bai Shan and Shen Yumei were sent flying after being slapped by Bai Wen and Bai Wu.

“We’re finished!” At that very moment, Bai Shan and Shen Yumei felt like they were being targeted by two malevolent beasts.

The horrifying wind that came with the two bodyguards’ palms blew in their faces, sending chills down their spines. The couple could feel the formidable strength contained in Bai Wen and Bai Wu’s palms. If they really got hit, even the bones in their faces would perhaps be smashed into pieces.

Bai Shan and Shen Yumei could only watch helplessly as Bai Wen and Bai Wu's slaps were about to land on their cheeks in the blink of an eye.

They could already feel the forceful wind that came with their palms beating against their cheeks, stinging their skin. The corners of the couple's mouths curled upward into bitter smiles of despair.

Slap!

Slap!

Two loud and clear slaps suddenly resounded throughout the living room.

Bai Yi almost fainted from fright when she heard the slaps, while the smile on Bai Yan's face had widened to a broad grin.

However, right at the moment when she was most delightful and excited, she was astounded to find that two figures in black were being sent flying backward with the two resounding slaps like two kites with their threads broken.

Then, the two figures fell onto the floor with two resounding thuds. The living room was dead silent at the moment as everyone was stunned at the sight of the scene before them.

Only then did they see that the two figures who fell onto the floor after being sent flying were... Bai Wen and Bai Wu!

"W-What is going on?" Bai Shan and Shen Yumei were stunned as well.

They did not feel any pain in their cheeks. When they opened their eyes, they immediately saw Bai Wen and Bai Wu being sent flying before falling onto the floor with two burning red slap marks on their cheeks.

At that very moment, Bai Wen and Bai Wu were the most dumbfounded out of everyone else. They felt a burning sensation and excruciating pain in their cheeks as if the bones in their faces had been smashed to bits. As a result, they instantly lost their temper as though they were animals whose tails were stepped on as they questioned, "You, brat! D-Did you hit us?"

The two men looked at Lin Fan with utter shock and disbelief in their eyes.

They had almost slapped Bai Shan and Shen Yumei in their faces just a moment ago when they saw a black figure appearing in front of them with lightning speed.

Chapter 353 Is He Truly... a Grandmaster?

The two palms of the black figure were so incredibly fast that they were sent flying without being able to resist the attack.

“L-Lin Fan!” At that moment, Bai Yi also saw that Lin Fan had appeared in front of her parents without her realizing it. She felt warmth in her heart while having a look of amazement in her eyes.

“Did you just try to hit my in-laws?” Lin Fan cared nothing about everyone’s astonished gazes at the moment as he fixed his chilling gaze on Bai Wen and Bai Wu.

Bai Wen and Bai Wu were taken aback upon meeting Lin Fan’s glare. They felt a tingling sensation on their scalp as his gaze fell upon them like the eyes of a demon, making them want to turn around and flee the scene at once.

“No... This must be an illusion!” Bai Wen and Bai Wu couldn’t help but exchange glances with each other, only to see the terrified looks in each other's eyes. They tried their best to recollect themselves before getting to their feet.

Chapter 353 Is He Truly... a Grandmaster?

"We brothers have underestimated you, brat!"

"Little did we expect you to be an expert!"

Bai Wen and Bai Wu's eyes were full of rage and viciousness as they looked at Lin Fan again.

As the bodyguards of the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province, it was an absolute disgrace for them to be slapped in the face. If the clan got word about this, the two of them would even be punished and expelled from the clan!

"It's too bad that you shouldn't have laid your hand on us. Laying your hands on us is equal to laying your hands on the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province, so we want you to... die!”

The moment they finished speaking, Bai Wen and Bai Wu unleashed their threatening auras again, which instantly filled the room.

The two of them moved in a flash like two cannonballs as they waved their fists and threw their punches forcefully at Lin Fan.

“Die!” Their voices were as cold as ice; their iron fists seemed to contain all the strength they had as martial arts experts at the Grandmaster’s level.

Swoosh! Their punches came with the sound of howling wind and seemed to contain horrifyingly violent forces; they looked like two fierce tigers pouncing on a lamb.

“Kill him! Kill this little b*stard!” Bai Yan was thrilled deep down inside.

Chapter 353 Is He Truly... a Grandmaster?

To her, it was true that Lin Fan had some skills in the martial arts, but he had only managed to make a surprise attack on Bai Wen and Bai Wu because the two of them were careless. Now that the two bodyguards were combining their strength to attack Lin Fan together, Lin Fan would be sure to die!

However, as soon as the thought emerged in her mind, another two loud and clear slaps instantly resounded throughout the room.

Then, as everyone watched in stupefaction and disbelief, Bai Wen and Bai Wu's bodies were once again sent flying as if they were struck by thunder before they fell hard onto the floor with two loud thuds.

The dull sound of them crashing onto the floor made everyone's hearts thump heavily as though their hearts were being smashed into by two heavy hammers.

They looked at Bai Wen and Bai Wu again, only to see another two slap marks on the two bodyguards' faces. Moreover, the two slaps seemed to contain such a terrifying strength that both Bai Wen and Bai Wu's faces were wounded at once; trickles of scarlet blood flowed down their cheeks.

"T-That's impossible!" Bai Wen and Bai Wu were stunned as well. They covered their faces while feeling an excruciating pain, as if the bones in their faces were about to break into pieces. They looked at Lin Fan again as if they had seen a ghost, asking, "How can you possibly be so fast? C-Could you be a Grandmaster?"

They were stunned. They had thought that they could finish Lin Fan with their two punches just a moment ago, but never in their wildest dreams did they expect that they would be sent flying backward without even catching a glimpse of how Lin Fan had delivered his blow.

A Grandmaster? Bai Yi and the rest were also shocked when they heard Bai Wen and Bai Wu's fearful voices.

Everyone's eyes were focused on Lin Fan.

"I-Is Lin Fan truly a Grandmaster?"

Bai Yi felt like she was dreaming.

Bai Yan, on the other hand, nearly slumped onto the floor out of fright.

“That... That’s impossible! All he has is some skills in martial arts. How could he be a Grandmaster? Why would a martial arts expert at the Grandmaster’s level live in seclusion in the small Bai Family as a live-in son-in-law? Wouldn’t that be a joke?”

At that very moment, Bai Yan could only feel her heart thumping wildly; she almost passed out from fright.

Lin Fan, however, couldn’t care less about what everyone else was thinking at that moment.

Tap! Tap! Tap!

He took his steps toward Bai Wen and Bai Wu, saying, “Do you know that Bai Shan is my father-in-law and that Shen Yumei is my mother-in-law? Since you both wanted to slap my father and mother-in-law in their faces... I can only tear your faces open by slapping you back!"

What?

Lin Fan's words sounded so chilling that Bai Wen and Bai Wu felt chills running down their spines upon hearing them.

Furthermore, they felt their scalps tingling when they noticed that Lin Fan looked more and more frightening with each step he took toward them.

"Oh no! Run!" Horrified, the two bodyguards jumped to their feet without hesitation and tried to flee the scene.

However, what happened next plunged them into the depths of despair.

"Your faces haven't been torn open yet. Where are you running to?" Lin Fan's chilling voice came with the wind and reached their ears.

Just when Bai Wen and Bai Wu had barely risen to their feet, Lin Fan's figure appeared in front of them like a phantom.

Then, two loud slaps landed forcefully each on their faces again.

Slap! Slap!

The two slaps were extremely loud and clear.

Bai Wen and Bai Wu were once again sent flying three meters through the air like two stink bugs that were being flicked off one's clothes.

Then, the next scene made everyone's scalp crawl.

Slap! Slap!

Slap! Slap!

One loud slap after another reverberated through the air.

Everyone watched in shock as Bai Wen and Bai Wu were sent flying by Lin Fan every time they were about to get up.

They were being sent flying from the living room to the courtyard. Then, they were being directly sent flying out of the house!

The two of them looked utterly miserable. Everyone watched in shock as the faces of Bai Wen and Bai Wu—the two martial arts experts at the Grandmaster's level—swelled up before they started dripping blood; their faces were literally being reduced to pulp!

Finally, as Lin Fan delivered the last two brutal slaps, the sound of bones breaking instantly resounded across the room.

Bai Wen and Bai Wu were sent flying nearly five meters away before they fell heavily onto the ground as two bloody piles.

“Aaaaah! The bones in my face are broken to pieces!”

“B-Brat, how dare you smash the bones in my face to pieces?”

Two sad and shrill voices were heard screaming. When Bai Wen and Bai Wu raised their heads, everyone saw that their faces were totally contorted as their cheeks had caved in.

The bloody scene was so shocking that Bai Yi and her parents were stupefied at the sight of it. Bai Yan, on the other hand, was so frightened that she shivered in fear.

“L-Lin Fan, how dare you hit the men sent by the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province? You’re doomed!”

Bai Yan had witnessed with her own eyes as Lin Fan sent Bai Wen and Bai Wu flying from the living room to outside the door by slapping them along the way until he smashed the bones in their faces into pieces.

Such a scene horrified her to no end.

She then turned her head and growled at Bai Yi and the latter's parents as she said, "Uncle Bai Shan! Bai Yi! Look at what Lin Fan, the good-for-nothing, has done! Do you know that the Bai Clan of the Jiangnan Province cannot be humiliated? Even two bodyguards from the clan are not to be messed with! Lin Fan is sure to meet his doom, and so are your whole family!"

Bai Yan's words sounded deeply chilling.

Apparently, what scared her the most was that what Lin Fan had done would bring her and the Bai Family into trouble. She couldn't care less about the fate of Lin Fan and Bai Yi as well as Bai Yi's parents.

"Just wait and see, Bai Yi! I'll report everything to Young Master Bai Chen when I go back! I'll tell him that you and your family disobeyed his order and even set yourselves against the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province. You and your family..."

Bai Yan got more and more agitated as she spoke, but before she could finish her sentence, a chilling voice suddenly rang in her ear. "You're too noisy!" Then, a large hand slapped Bai Yan brutally in her face.

Slap!

The slap landed on Bai Yan's face like a steel plate, making her continuously stagger backward.

When she finally steadied herself, she immediately felt her cheek swelling up at a visible rate. The burning sensation in her face made her mind go completely blank.

“Lin Fan... D-Did you hit me?” Bai Yan was in disbelief. After all, even though she had humiliated Lin Fan repeatedly, the latter had never laid a hand on her. But now...

“Hit you?” Lin Fan glared at Bai Yan with a murderous gaze. “If you are not Bai Yi’s younger cousin, I would have killed you!”

Lin Fan’s chilling words and steely glare hit Bai Yan like a thunderbolt. Her heart was filled with deep terror as she could clearly sense Lin Fan’s murderous impulse. He... He would really dare to kill me!

“Go back and tell Bai Chen that my family and I will go to the Bai Family personally in three days. However, we will go there not to submit ourselves and be gobbled up, but to gobble up the Bai Family instead!”

What?

Upon hearing Lin Fan’s words, Bai Yan, Bai Yi, and her parents were all stunned.

Did he just say that he will be there not to submit themselves and be gobbled up, but to gobble up the Bai Family instead? How could that be possible?

At that moment, everyone thought that Lin Fan must have gone insane.

Disobeying Bai Chen’s orders would be equal to offending the Bai Clan in Jiangnan Province, whereas hitting Bai Wen and Bai Wu would be equal to setting oneself against the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province. Under such circumstances, not only was Lin Fan not worried about the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province seeking revenge on him, but he even had the nerve to think of gobbling up the Bai Family in Jiang City. He was simply talking pure nonsense!

“Alright! Lin Fan, you’re ruthless indeed!” Bai Yan laughed out of anger over Lin Fan’s arrogance. With her hair in disarray, she covered her swollen cheek while glaring at Lin Fan and Bai Yi’s family resentfully. “In that case, I will go back and report it to Young Master Bai Chen right away. We will be waiting for you all after three days and see who will be the ones to live or die by then!”

Then, Bai Yan fled the scene in panic like a rabbit that had wetted itself out of fright.

Bai Wen and Bai Wu also cast a terrified-yet-bitter glance at Lin Fan before quickly getting up and following Bai Yan until they disappeared together.

Bai Yi and her parents hadn’t snapped out of their earlier shock even after the three of them had left.

“F-Fan, are we really going to set ourselves against the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province? The Bai Clan is one of the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families of Jiangnan Province. Their influence is so terrifying that it is beyond our imagination!” Bai Shan asked Lin Fan with a horrified expression while dripping with cold sweat.

Bai Yi and Shen Yumei, who were standing aside, also snapped out of their earlier shock.

They could only feel their scalp tingling when they thought of the earth-shattering rage that they would be facing from the hidden prominent family of Jiangnan Province.

It's over, they thought to themselves.

Even with the generous support of the Golden Age Group and the tycoons of Jiangnan Province, the New Bai Family Group could never be compared with a terrifyingly influential family that was established in Jiangnan Province for over a hundred years.

This was simply a hopeless battle!

Bai Yi felt as if she had witnessed her New Bai Family Group being destroyed before her eyes.

“The Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province?”
Seeing the horrified expressions on Bai Yi and her parents’ faces, Lin Fan simply said with a smile, “No worries, Dad, Mom, and darling. The so-called Bai Clan of the Jiangnan Province is nothing but a slightly bigger ant. It’s fine if they don’t go too far, but if they do, I’ll make this century-old family vanish into thin air!”

Chapter 355 It Is a Total Defeat!

Bai Yi and her parents were startled upon hearing Lin Fan's words, which sounded overbearing and arrogant.

For some unknown reason, they sensed an intimidating aura emanating from Lin Fan at the moment, as if he was treating the world with disdain.

They had a feeling that everything in this world was as transient as a floating cloud in Lin Fan's eyes and he could easily smash everything to bits with a wave of his hand.

This was certainly the first time Bai Yi and her family sensed such an imposing manner from Lin Fan.

"L-Lin Fan, are you really a Grandmaster?" Bai Yi stared at Lin Fan in disbelief.

She had seen Lin Fan's martial arts skills before, but she had thought that all he learned was some martial arts skills that were far more superior than ordinary people. Yet, with a few simple waves of his hand, he had beaten up Bai Wen and Bai Wu—two martial arts experts at the Grandmaster's level—so severely that day that they were unable to fight back, which was virtually unimaginable.

Besides Bai Yi, Bai Shan and Shen Yumei also looked at Lin Fan with profound shock in their eyes.

Who would have imagined that their son-in-law, who stayed at home every day and never fought or argued back, would be an outstanding martial arts expert? This was so unbelievable!

However, to Bai Yi and her parents' astonishment, Lin Fan shook his head and said, "Darling, I'm not a Grandmaster."

You're not a Grandmaster? Bai Yi then asked doubtfully with a frown, "In that case, why would Bai Wen a nd Bai Wu, the two bodyguards, say that you're a Grandmaster?"

"That's because they have made a mistake." Lin Fan shrugged his shoulders without explaining much.

Grandmaster? That's but an ant to me. As the King of Blood Prison, how could I simply be an insignificant existence like a petty Grandmaster?

"Did they really make a mistake?" Bai Yi was a little doubtful. She could tell that Lin Fan did not seem to be lying, but if he was telling the truth when he said that he wasn't a Grandmaster, why would Bai Wen and Bai Wu suffer such a miserable defeat at his hands? That was simply incredible!

"Alright, let's not think too much about it." Bai Shan furrowed his brows with anguish written all over his face. "We'd better think about how to deal with Young Master Bai Chen's wrath three days later.”

Besides Bai Shan, Shen Yumei and Bai Yi also had looks of worry on their faces as soon as Bai Shan finished his sentence.

It was apparent that they didn't take to heart what Lin Fan had previously said about the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province being an insignificant ant. They thought that Lin Fan had said so simply to comfort them.

At the same time, the Bai Family mansion was brightly lit.

A sumptuous banquet was being held in the hall of the Bai Family mansion. Cheers and laughters reverberated through the air as the guests drank toast after toast to each other.

Almost every higher-ranking member of the Bai Family looked intentionally at a young man seated at the main table with looks of profound awe and reverence in their eyes.

That was because the young man was none other than Bai Chen, the lineal descendant of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province.

“Hahaha... Young Master Bai Chen, I would like to welcome you on behalf of the Bai Family in Jiang City,” said Old Master Bai to Bai Chen with a cordial smile on his face.

Besides being much older than Bai Chen, he was also the latter’s senior in the family hierarchy. However, Bai Chen was of the direct line of descent from the Bai Clan, whereas he belonged to a branch of the clan. He could never be compared with Bai Chen in terms of their standings.

Besides Old Master Bai, Bai Hai, Bai Chuan, Bai Yifan and the rest who were around him also held up their glasses while showering Bai Chen with flatteries.

Chapter 355 It Is a Total Defeat!

“Hahaha... I feel greatly honored to have you as a guest to the Bai Family, Young Master Bai Chen!”

“That’s right! An outstanding young talent like you, Young Master Bai Chen, will surely lead the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province to greater prosperity in the future!”

“Come, Young Master Bai Chen. Here’s to you!”

Almost every member of the Bai Family showed their utmost reverence to Bai Chen.

As Bai Chen sensed everyone’s enthusiasm, he couldn’t help but slightly curl the corners of his mouth upward while feeling unusually proud deep down inside.

This was the standing of a hidden prominent family. Even with the mere status of him being of lineal descent, he was greatly glorified in the eyes of others and he could surely suppress the existence of any big shot in Jiangnan Province.

“Let’s toast, everyone!” Bai Chen showed no desire to stand up. He held up his wine glass and gestured to everyone before finishing his wine with one gulp.

Everyone looked slightly awkward at the sight of the scene, but they also downed their glasses with one gulp.

Only when everyone sat back down did Old Master Bai ask, “Young Master Bai Chen, may I ask how is the matriarch?”

The Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province was headed by its matriarch, who was also one of the most prominent figures throughout Jiangnan Province.

Upon hearing Old Master Bai's question, Bai Chen shook his head and replied, "The matriarch has been unwell recently. Integrating the Bai Family and the New Bai Family Group into the properties of the Bai Family in Jiangnan Province is only one of the reasons I came to Jiang City this time. The second reason that I came here is to look for Divine Doctor Zhang to ask for his help in treating the matriarch's illness."

Divine Doctor Zhang? Everyone's eyes instantly lit up when they heard Bai Chen mentioning that name.

"Young Master Bai Chen, could the Divine Doctor Zhang that you mentioned be Zhang Tianyi?" asked Bai Yifan curiously. Then, seeing that Bai Chen nodded, he immediately said excitedly, “Young Master Bai Chen, I have heard some news about Divine Doctor Zhang lately!”

Huh?

Bai Chen was startled upon hearing Bai Yifan’s words. Then, he instantly got interested and asked curiously, “What news is it?”

Besides Bai Chen, everyone else also pricked up their ears and began listening carefully.

After all, Zhang Tianyi was greatly renowned as the present-day Hua Tuo, the legendary Chinese physician of the ancient times. His fame resounded throughout Jiangnan Province for decades as he had saved countless lives.

Seeing everyone’s curious expressions at the moment, Bai Yifan couldn’t help but clear his throat. He continued excitedly, “Young Master Bai Chen, have you heard that a miracle-working doctor called Divine Doctor Lin has emerged in Jiang City recently? He even saved my Grandpa’s life!”

Divine Doctor Lin?

Bai Chen frowned; he had no idea what Divine Doctor Lin had to do with Divine Doctor Zhang, but he still replied, “I have heard a little about him, but the matriarch thinks that he can’t be trusted because he’s unworthy of the title.”

Much to Bai Chen’s surprise, Bai Yifan shook his head upon hearing his reply. Then, with a cryptic smile, Bai Yifan said, “You’ve got it all wrong, Young Master Bai Chen. The news that I want to talk about is of Divine Doctor Zhang and Divine Doctor Lin. A young man came to the entrance of the Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine today and challenged the physicians there. He was Ye Tian, Divine Doctor Zhang's last disciple."

He then continued, "This guy won ten matches and defeated all the other physicians of the hospital down to the last match. In the end, though, he lost to Divine Doctor Lin. Moreover... he had suffered a total defeat!"

What?!

This news brought Bai Chen into a shock.

As the man was Divine Doctor Zhang's last closed-door disciple, he undoubtedly owned extraordinary medical skills. Hence, his total defeat to Divine Doctor Lin was somewhat unbelievable.

However, this did not end here.

Bai Yifan's face reddened as though something had popped into his mind.

“Moreover, the most bewildering moment was that Divine Doctor Zhang had actually showed up when Divine Doctor Lin had just gained victory! Although everyone thought that a fight must be inevitable between these two Divine Doctors, it was surprising that Divine Doctor Zhang was not there for a match!”

He was not there for a match?

Bai Yifan's words piqued Bai Chen and everyone else's interests at once.

A lot of the Bai Clan members voiced out their doubts.

“Since Divine Doctor Lin had gained victory over Divine Doctor Zhang's last disciple, shouldn't Divine Doctor Zhang help his disciple earn some dignity back?”

“That's true! What else would Divine Doctor Zhang have done with Divine Doctor Lin if they hadn't had a match?”

At this moment, everyone looked confused.

Nonetheless, Bai Yifan's next words made everyone dumbfounded.

“Divine Doctor Zhang wasn't there for a match; he was there to ask Divine Doctor Lin to become his master!”

What?!

A murmur went through the crowd after Bai Yifan had finished speaking.

Everyone around, including Bai Chen and the Bai Clan senior members, were in utter disbelief, as could be seen from the expressions on their face.

“Y-Yifan, did you mistake something? Did you just say that Divine Doctor Zhang asked Divine Doctor Lin to become his master?”

Old Master Bai was so stunned that he could hardly believe his ears.

Everyone else had similar reactions too; they were feeling as if they were listening to some legendary tales now.

The more Bai Yifan spoke, the more he became agitated. It was as though Divine Doctor Lin had already become his idol.

“According to Divine Doctor Zhang, Divine Doctor Lin’s medical skills have reached an unbelievable stage! He said that even Divine Doctor Lin’s herbal cuisines can help with the reformation of one’s bones and tendons, and also restore youth!”

As though he had just dropped a bomb, his words stunned everyone around.

Herbal cuisines? Reformation of bones and tendons? Restoring one’s youth? H-How the hell is this possible?

Even Bai Chen stood up, looking aghast as he asked Bai Yifan in a trembling voice, “Are your words true? Is that Divine Doctor Lin really that superb?”

“They’re true!” Bai Yifan was confident.

“I’ve just received this news in the evening. It was said that many people in the Jiang City had witnessed Divine Doctor Zhang asking Divine Doctor Lin to become his master! This can’t be wrong!”

Upon hearing this, Bai Chen became excited and a huge smile formed on his mouth.

“Hahaha... Great! That’s great! This time, I’m not only going to invite Divine Doctor Zhang to the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province, but I will also invite his master, Divine Doctor Lin! If what you’ve said is true and Divine Doctor Lin’s herbal cuisines can really help with the reformation of one’s bones and tendons as well as restore youth, then the White Angels of our Bai Clan will definitely become stronger under the help of his herbal cuisines!”

Bai Chen’s face had reddened with excitement now.

This was going to be a huge contribution!

He knew that he would definitely make a huge contribution to the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province if Divine Doctor Lin were really that incredible.

By that time, he could even use this achievement to make himself qualified to compete for the next clan patriarch.

Upon thinking about this, Bai Chen turned his gaze to Old Master Bai and the others, then said excitedly, "Hahaha... If I really can invite Divine Doctor Lin over, I will never forget everyone here. I will definitely repay your kindness!"

He made a promise.

Many Bai Clan members were delighted and they all started thanking Bai Chen.

Old Master Bai even stood up from his chair—all the while trembling—as he said to Bai Chen, “Young Master Bai Chen, please don’t worry. When Divine Doctor Zhang comes to the banquet three days later, I’ll use all my means to help you invite Divine Doctor Lin! Besides, Divine Doctor Lin is also my savior and I’ve been feeling guilty for not having the chance to thank him yet.”

After hearing Old Master Bai’s words, everyone respected Divine Doctor Lin even more.

In their eyes, Divine Doctor Lin was like a saint, because he did not ask for anything in return for his service with his extraordinary medical skills and strong medical ethics.

A murmur went through the crowd as they were discussing this.

However, the conversation topic was changed suddenly.

Master Bai Hai said after taking a look at his watch, "An hour has passed! Bai Yan, that girl should be back soon!"

Bai Yan!

Upon hearing this, the crowd finally recalled that Bai Yan had gone to deliver a letter to Bai Yi and her family along with two of Bai Chen's bodyguards.

When the members of the Bai Family at present thought about Bai Yi and her family, they could not help but think about Lin Fan as well.

"Hmph! Lin Fan, that arrogant rascal! I wonder whether he'll cause trouble this time?"

"Him causing trouble? He's seeking his own doom if he really does it! Both Mr. Bai Wen and Mr. Bai Wu are Grandmasters! How can Lin Fan that underdog fight against them!"

Most of the Bai Clan members talked of Lin Fan with tones of disdain and disgust.

Upon seeing this scene, Bai Chen grinned and said, "Everyone, don't worry! Although Bai Wen and Bai Wu aren't members of the White Angels, their abilities are equivalent to Grandmasters! Even if they're to compare with everyone in the Jiangnan Province, their levels are on par with the top ten masters in Jiangnan Province! Moreover, I don't believe that Lin Fan and Bai Yi would have the nerve to reject the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province's merger!"

Bai Chen sounded utterly confident.

Everyone else nodded in agreement after hearing his words too.

Them rejecting the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province? If they really did so, they would be overconfident and seeking their own death!

Just when the people in the crowd were going to talk more about this, they heard a commotion outside the door.

Hmm? Old Master Bai frowned and looked displeased upon hearing the noise.

“What’s happening? What’s with the commotion outside?”

The moment he finished speaking, a butler walked in briskly and informed humbly, “Old Master Bai, B-Bai Yan, Mr. Bai Wen and Mr. Bai Wu has come back!”

They’re back? The butler’s words made Bai Chen smile wider.

“Hahaha... They must have settled everything! Let them come in quickly!”

Just when Bai Chen finished speaking, the commotion outside died down at once. Then, three figures staggered into the house.

When Bai Chen and the others found out who they were, they were shocked; Bai Chen in particular.

He stood up from his chair at once as though he had seen a ghost. Widening his eyes in shock, he asked in disbelief, "Bai Wen? Bai Wu? How did you get yourselves into this state?"

He was stunned!

Bai Chen, Old Master Bai, Master Bai Hai, and the others around simply could not believe their eyes.

In addition to her hair that was in a completely disheveled state, Bai Yan had a slap mark on her cheek and there were blood stains on the corner of her lips.

Chapter 356 How Did You Get Yourself Into This State?

Meanwhile, Bai Wen and Bai Wu's cheeks were badly bruised and their jaws were sunken; their disfigured faces made them look extremely miserable.

Everyone around could not imagine how the trio who had departed in high spirits would return in such a miserable state.

Chapter 357 The White Trio Comes

Thump! When everyone around was stunned, Bai Wen and Bai Wu kneeled down before Bai Chen.

“Young Master Bai Chen, we’re at fault! Bai Yi and her family went against the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province’s orders and refused to hand over their properties and company!”

“Moreover, Lin Fan, that b*stard even hurt us! We hope that you will help us take revenge, Young Master Bai Chen!”

The hall was in an uproar when Bai Wen and Bai Wu finished speaking.

“How dare they go against the orders of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province!”

“Lin Fan injured them?”

“T-This is crazy.”

Astonishment and terror flashed across the face of every Bai Clan member. In their perspective, Bai Yi and her family had gotten themselves into serious trouble, whereas Lin Fan was just looking for his own death!

“Crap!”

Bai Chen felt his blood boiling with fury now.

His nice-looking face had been contorted in rage, making him look ferocious and vicious.

“Are you two trash? Since they didn’t appreciate our kindness, you all should have shown your Grandmaster’s abilities and given them a lesson! Besides, how could Lin Fan that useless son-in-law beat you two? Both of you have really disgraced the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province!”

Bai Chen was enraged.

However, a wry smile appeared on Bai

Wen and Bai Wu's disfigured faces after hearing Bai Chen's words.

"Young Master Bai Chen, we have all been lied to! Lin Fan is... a Grandmaster!"

What?! Lin Fan, a Grandmaster?

Bai Chen was stunned upon hearing this.

Meanwhile, Old Master Bai, Master Bai Hai and all the Bai Clan senior members felt as though they had an auditory hallucination and they could hardly believe their ears.

"W-Who's a Grandmaster? You mean Lin Fan?"

Old Master Bai was trembling all over and his murky eyes were full of disbelief.

Meanwhile, the remaining Bai Clan members turned their gazes to Bai Wen and Bai Wu in shock.

“That’s right! Lin Fan is the one!”

While grinding his teeth, Bai Wen still looked terrified when he said, “That guy had been pretending to be weak all along! When my brother and I fought with him, we didn’t even have the chance to retaliate! We can be certain that Lin Fan is a Grandmaster!”

His words rendered the whole Bai Clan speechless.

Old Master Bai and the other Bai Clan members felt as though they were dreaming.

Lin Fan?

In their eyes, he was just a piece of useless trash.

How could that wimp whom they had been humiliating and mocking about being a Grandmaster?

Chapter 357 The White Trio Comes

It was a grandmaster that they were talking about now!

Nearly all the Grandmasters in Jiangnan City belonged to the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families.

It was out of Bai Clan's expectation that they would have one in their clan.

This news was overwhelming.

"Fine! How dared he pretend to be weak and take advantage of us! No wonder Bai Yi and her family had the nerve to defy the orders of the Bai Clan of Jiangnan Province!"

At this moment, Bai Chen turned livid with rage.

There was a murderous and piercingly cold look in his eyes.

Chapter 357 The White Trio Comes

“However, does he think that we’ll just let this off? Bai Wen, Bai Wu, inform our clan and let them send a team of White Angels to Jiang City now!”

The White Angels!

A shiver ran through Old Master Bai and the others’ bodies after they had heard this name.

It was as though they had heard a monster’s name.

If someone asked what the most terrifying thing in Jiang City was, it would be the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families’ strength in the martial arts.

From normal people’s perspectives, Grandmaster Leng Aotian and Grandmaster He Lanshan would be the strongest men in Jiangnan.

However, it was not widely known that the underground organizations of the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families were actually the strongest!

Through a century of development and recruitment, almost all the top masters in Jiangnan Province had become part of the underground organizations of the Four Greatest Hidden Prominent Families!

For instance, there was the White Angels of the Bai Clan!

Not only were there numerous Grandmasters in it, they were even under an ultimate Grandmaster's command.

Having killed countless people and won every fight, they were the pillars of this centennial clan.

Hence, the Bai Clan members felt complicated upon hearing that a team of White Angels was necessary to fight against Lin Fan.

“Old Master Bai, do you know who has the closest relationship to Bai Yi and her family?” Bai Chen asked Old Master Bai while putting on a piercingly cold gaze.

The one closest with Bai Yi?

Old Master Bai was startled; he did not know how to answer that question for a moment.

In contrast, Master Bai Hai, who was beside him, said excitedly, “Young Master Bai Chen, I know! In Jiang City, four people support Bai Yi and Lin Fan the most! They are namely President Xu Tianlong of Tianlong Group, Young Mistress Xue Meigui of the Golden Age Clubhouse, South City’s Master Hu and North City’s Master Dao! From what I know, these four are practically the most faithful servants of his!”

Xu Tianlong, Xue Meigui, Master Hu and

Chapter 357 The White Trio Comes

Master Dao!

When Bai Chen heard these four names, he curled his lips into a vicious smile.

“Okay! Were Bai Yi and her family not willing to give in? Then, I’ll just let my men catch their closest friends! If Bai Yi and her family don’t submit to us, I kill one of them each day. They’ll all be killed if Bai Yi and her family still don’t give in on the fourth day!”

Bai Chen’s words signaled that something shockingly cruel was going to happen.

All the Bai Clan members who had heard this felt a shiver run down their spines.

Almost the entire Bai Clan knew that Lin Fan and the others would face their doom once the White Angels arrived!

Vroom vroom! Four Land Rovers were speeding down the road to Jiang City.

They looked wild and aggressive!

As though those vehicles were four fierce beasts, the roaring sound of the engines of these Land Rovers gave people a scary feeling.

Moreover, their car plates started with 'Jiang A', signifying that they were from Jiangnan City.

In addition, the identities of the passengers in these cars would surely scare people to death.

This was because the cars were now carrying the White Angels, a secretive organization of one of the Greatest Hidden Prominent Families, the Bai Clan.

Although there were only thirteen of them in these four cars, they were the fearsome Third Team of the White Angels in Jiangnan Province!

The Third Team was the most active team in the White Angels.

All thirteen members of it were Grandmasters.

On behalf of the Bai Clan, they had executed 36 assassinations and slaughters, killing more than hundreds of enemies and eliminating more than ten hostile forces in China!

They had never been defeated!

At this moment, it was probably out of everyone's expectation that the Bai Clan would send such an elite team for a mission in the small Jiang City.

In the black Land Rover at front, a muscular man with knife scars on his body was sitting on the backseat, dozing off.

Chapter 357 The White Trio Comes

He was Bai San, the leader of the Third Team!

He was also a formidable Grandmaster.

“San, why has the family sent us to the small Jiang City? Our mission this time is too boring!” the driver said. He sounded somewhat upset at the moment.

Undoubtedly, he felt that nobody could be regarded as his opponent in such a small city as small Jiang City.

Upon hearing this, Bai San could not help but open his eyes slowly. There was a glint in them.

“Don’t underestimate Jiang City! From the information that I got from the clan, there’s an ultimate Grandmaster there recently!”

An ultimate Grandmaster?

Bai San’s words made the driver frown without realizing it as he said doubtfully, “San, there must be a misunderstanding! If our opponent is an ultimate Grandmaster, I’m afraid that the Third Team will lose! After all, all of our thirteen members are just normal Grandmasters!”

There was a great disparity in strength between a normal Grandmaster and an ultimate Grandmaster.

They might have a chance to defeat an ultimate Grandmaster if thirteen of them worked together. However, if they were to assassinate him, it would be impossible.

Bai San grinned and then shook his head.

“You all don’t need to worry. Our target this time isn’t that ultimate Grandmaster but a... Grandmaster!”

While speaking, Bai San’s smile gradually turned cold.

“The last name of that Grandmaster is Lin and he’s called Lin Fan! He’s the live-in son-in-law of the Bai Family in Jiang City. Moreover, he has secretly controlled both Jiang City’s businesses and underground powers, making him the city’s uncrowned king! Tsk tsk... This sounds unbelievable!”

The uncrowned king?

Upon hearing this title, both the driver and the man on the passenger seat laughed.

Their laughs were full of disdain and contempt.

Obviously, they turned their noses up at the uncrowned king of the small Jiang City. This was because the Third Team was capable of eliminating all kinds of powers in that small city.

When the driver thought about this, he snorted and said, "Hahaha... San, it seems like our mission this time is too easy! It's just a fight between him, a normal Grandmaster and us, thirteen Grandmasters! We can kill him at any minute! As for his subordinates, I'm sure they're just a bunch of small fry; we can get rid of them easily!"

The driver's tone was arrogant.

However, just when he had finished speaking, he suddenly saw an elderly and a youth appear on the road ahead. These two figures made his face turn pale at once!

“D*mn it, there are people in front!”

What?!

Upon hearing this, the man in the passenger seat and Bai San were startled and they quickly turned their gazes to that direction.

Under the Land Rover’s bright headlights, they could see the figures of an elderly and a youth on the road ahead, slowly walking toward them from the direction of Jiang City.

As they were driving on the short cut to the Jiang City now, the road was so narrow that it could only allow one car to pass at a time.

Moreover, the Land Rover was so broad that it almost filled the whole width of the road.

Nonetheless, the two persons who were walking to them now still remained in the middle of the road as though they did not see the cars coming fast at them. Being unhurried, they were walking slowly as though they were strolling idly in the park.

“F*ck! Are these two people trying to get themselves killed?” the driver yelled and then honked at them non-stop.

However, he was surprised to find that the two persons in front of them were still walking slowly as though they did not hear him honking non-stop.

“Idiots! Since you aren’t giving way, then don’t blame me when you get yourselves killed!”

The driver did not step on the brakes but on the gas pedal instead after he was finished speaking.

Vroom!

The Land Rover was being driven straight at the elderly and the youth at an unimaginable speed now.

Being accelerated at once, the Land Rover looked as though it was a beast that had gone loose as it dashed toward the elderly and the youth.

The Land Rover almost reached the elderly and the youth in the blink of an eye.

However, the driver was shocked to find that the two persons were still walking slowly and did not flinch at all despite him going to hit them.

“Hmph! You still don’t see us? You’ve chosen your end then!”

The driver curled his lips into a malicious smile.

Within seconds, he drove the Land Rover to the elderly and the youth; he was going to hit their bodies.

However, the driver saw something just when he was going to hit the elderly. Under the Land Rover’s bright headlights, the elderly slowly raised his head and showed his extremely ugly face.

He looked so very hideous and ferocious; his face was nothing short of horrifying!

However, this did not end here.

Even though the elderly had seen the Land Rover coming at him, he did not look panicked at all, but he raised his fist instead, waving it fiercely at the Land Rover.

What?!

This scene stunned the driver.

*Is he going to wreck the car with a punch? This is f*cking crazy!*

The next second, something that practically scared the soul out of him happened.

The elder's fist crashed into the approaching Land Rover's hood in the twinkling of an eye.

Bang!!

A deafening sound filled the air at once.

In the car, Bai San and the men in the driver and passenger seats blanched together.

They felt like their Land Rover had collided with a concrete pillar because it was abruptly stopped, making the car almost turn over due to the inertia.

Screeeeech!

With the sound of the tires screeching, the Land Rover's hood was wrecked and instantly turned into scrap metal.

The car came into a full stop.

*The car was being stopped by a punch!
H-How could this happen?*

At this moment, the remaining Land Rovers were also forced to slam their brakes as the first had been forced into a stop.

The atmosphere in the first Land Rover was oppressive. Beads of cold sweat were trickling down from Bai San and the other two men's foreheads.

At this moment, the trio fixed their gazes at the front of their car and realized that the Land Rover's hood had been badly dented and wrecked.

The parts of its engine were scattered around the road and there was a deep dent on the car hood.

Meanwhile, the elderly who stood before the Land Rover still remained firmly rooted to the spot and had not moved an inch.

This was astounding!

While looking at the ugly old man before them, Bai San and the other White Angels gasped in horror.

"H-How is this possible?! H-How could he really stop our car?"

The driver widened his eyes in shock as though he had seen a ghost.

Bai San, who was behind him, felt his scalp tingling.

“He’s an ultimate Grandmaster! Only a top-tier ultimate Grandmaster can be left unharmed and even stop a car with such a huge force! So, the man before us must be an ultimate Grandmaster!”

What?!

Both men on the driver and passenger seats felt a shiver running down their spines at once when they heard that.

Moreover, Bai San kept looking up and down at the ugly old man until a name popped into his head. The name scared him so much that he nearly peed in his pants.

“B-Blood Buddha! He’s the Blood Buddha!”

Chapter 359 The Terrifying Ultimate Killer

As though a bomb had been dropped, the two men in the car were dumbfounded after listening to his words.

The Blood Buddha?

The killer whom nobody dared to provoke and had been shaking the northwest for five years?

H-How was this possible!

“Hurry up! Get out of the car now!”

After giving out the orders, Bai San had no time to explain and quickly got out of the car.

He was not the only one!

After this series of sudden incidents, ten White Angels got out from the other three cars too.

As though they were facing great enemies, they fixed their gazes on the elderly and the youth while moving their hands to their waist, preparing to take out their weapons and fight at any moment.

“Stop! Stop right now, everyone!” Bai San shouted at his men just when he got out of the car.

After he finished speaking, he hurriedly ran to the front of the Land Rover and bowed deeply to the elderly.

“O-Old Mister, I’m so sorry for driving too fast! I-I sincerely hope that you can forgive us!”

Bai San’s forehead almost reached the road while bowing, looking extremely humble.

Behind him, the men at the driver and passenger seat bowed to the elderly too.

Chapter 359 The Terrifying Ultimate Killer

Despite looking at the trio trembling with fear, there were no emotional fluctuations on Blood Buddha's ugly face and he only said indifferently, "Young man, it's bad to drive fast!"

He sounded utterly calm and casual as though nothing had happened. This made him look totally different from the man who had just wrecked a car hood with a punch.

"Yes... Old Mister is right! It's our fault! We'll be aware of this in the future!" Bai San replied while wiping the cold sweat off his forehead.

At this moment, he felt his heart almost jump out of his chest.

After all, the man before him was the ultimate killer.

How could he not be afraid when other ultimate Grandmasters in the White Angels were probably not a match for the Blood Buddha too?

“Enough! You all can just leave!”

Obviously, the Blood Buddha was too lazy to waste his time with them, so he just waved his hand dismissively.

However, his words made Bai San and the others feel relieved with joy at once.

“T-Thank you, Old Mister! Thank you so much for your generosity!” Bai San thanked him and was about to turn around and leave.

However, he heard the Blood Wolf’s clear voice just when he turned around.
“Wait a minute!”

“Y-Young Mister, is there anything else?” Bai San was startled, but he could not do anything else other than to turn his gaze toward the Blood Wolf.

Nevertheless, he was not really afraid when he saw the Blood Wolf's young face.

"You all can leave!" the Blood Wolf said calmly before pointing at the driver with his finger.

"But he cannot leave!"

What?!

Upon hearing his words, the faces of Bai San and the other White Angels hardened.

Tap!

The Blood Wolf took a step forward before they could say anything. Then, he stared at the driver and said coldly, "It was you who was going to hit my Master just now, am I right?"

Master!

Bai San and the others immediately figured out the Blood Wolf's identity after hearing this.

It made their expressions hardened as well.

As the Blood Wolf was one of the top ten assassins in East Asia, they dreaded of him too.

"I-It was me!"

The driver wiped off his cold sweat and then said, "I-I didn't do it on purpose just now! I just didn't have the time to..."

"I only care whether it's you or not!" The Blood Wolf curled his lips into a malicious smile while the driver tried to explain further.

"You can seek forgiveness with your death!" the Blood Wolf said arrogantly yet furiously. Then, he moved and suddenly disappeared before everyone's sight.

“Oh no! Be careful!”

This scene made Bai San and the others blanch. Upon noticing the Blood Wolf’s terrifying speed and realizing that he was dashing toward them, they stepped out to block him subconsciously.

However, their quick reactions were not as fast as the Blood Wolf’s speed.

Bai San felt a gust of strong wind blow across him; when he turned around to look, the Blood Wolf had already reached the driver and was raising his palm as though it was a sword. Then, he dropped it fiercely at the driver’s neck!

Whoosh!

Thud!

The sound was dull and depressing.

Everyone was shocked at this moment.

Chapter 359 The Terrifying Ultimate Killer

They noticed that the driver had stiffened up, and his stunned expression was frozen on his face at once.

A bleeding wound began to appear on his neck.

Drip! Drip!

Beads of blood trickled down from the wound.

Moreover, the wound was becoming bigger.

In the blink of an eye, the driver's head had actually separated from his neck and fell onto the road.

When Bai San and the others saw the headless body with blood still flowing out from the neck, they felt their scalps tingling.

W-Was he dead?

Bai San and the other White Angels could hardly believe their eyes.

He was killed within seconds?

They could never expect that their brother, a Grandmaster, would be killed by the Blood Wolf within seconds.

H-How was this possible?

“U-Ultimate Grandmaster. A-Are you an ultimate Grandmaster too?”

Bai San was dumbfounded, and the remaining White Angels stood aghast too.

Previously, they heard that the Blood Wolf had been defeated in Jiang City. However, they had no idea that the Blood Wolf went on to become an ultimate Grandmaster.

A shiver ran through everyone's bodies now, making Bai San and the others feel as though their heads were about to explode.

Both the master and his disciple were ultimate Grandmasters!

This was so terrifying that it was already out of their league.

Thud. When the headless body slumped onto the road, Bai San and the others finally came back to senses.

“What? Are you all going to help him take revenge?”

The Blood Wolf looked at Bai San and his men while curling his lips into a vicious smile.

Since he had already killed one man, he did not mind killing the rest too.

Upon feeling that the Blood Wolf’s murderous intent was growing stronger, Bai San was drenched in cold sweat and quickly braced himself to say, "Mr. Blood Wolf, please simmer down! Since he was only paying the price for his own mistake, we... most certainly do not blame you!"

Bai San did not even have the nerve to glance at the Blood Wolf now.

After finished speaking, he hurriedly turned around and waved his hand at his men.

"Everyone, get in your cars now. Let's continue our journey!"

Bai San and the remaining White Angels got into their cars in panic after Bai San led them to bow deeply at the Blood Buddha and the Blood Wolf.

Vroom!

Four Land Rovers continued their journey, leaving the Blood Buddha, his disciple, and a headless body behind.
