

What?!

The moment he finished talking, the crowd was stunned at first before a disdainful smile emerged on their faces.

Was Li Xian blind to see Lin Fan for who he was just because she did not fall for him?

The person who would fall for a loser like him was the blind one, right?

Li Xian was angry too; she did not know what had come over her father. He had always adored Lin Fan since young, and even treated Lin Fan better than his own daughter at times.

Even though she had found herself a fiancé, Li Xiuyun always put on a sullen look whenever he saw him.

However, as soon as Lin Fan appeared, he became so joyful as though he had met his own son—even if Lin Fan was leading a miserable life now.

At that moment, Lin Fan explained himself to Zhou Peize to calm down the tension in the air, "There must have been a misunderstanding. I've treated Li Xian like my own sister since young, and I never had any inappropriate thoughts about her."

However, his explanation made him seem inferior in Zhou Peize's eyes.

Hence, the complacency on Zhou Peize's face grew even more intense; he secretly scolded Lin Fan a gutless bandit for being scared so easily.

Then, he snorted. "Brother? The foul smell permeating from your body is suffocating me. How can a loser like you deserve to be Li Xian's brother? Don't think I don't know that you stayed at Li Xian's house for only three years. How dare you call yourself her brother just like that? I've met plenty of poor scums like you. You found out that Li Xian is about to marry to a wealthy family, so you've planned to cotton up to her family and pose as her relative."

Lin Fan knitted his brows when he heard this.

He had decided to resolve things in a peaceful manner, yet Zhou Peize kept on provoking him.

Had he become too pleased with himself?

"Enough! Peize, do you think you're so remarkable just because you've accumulated some wealth?"

Li Xiuyun flew into a rage and shouted at Zhou Peize furiously, "Since you look down on my family's child, you may leave. The Li Family doesn't welcome you!"

Everyone at the scene was astounded.

All the guests at the venue were completely dumbfounded; there was a look of disbelief in their eyes as they couldn't believe what they were witnessing.

Had Li Xiuyun kicked Zhou Peize, his wealthy son-in-law, out of the house because of Lin Fan?

This was madness.

At that moment, Zhou Peize's face turned absolutely sullen.

Useless old man!

He was the young master of a company, yet he was still more inferior than a useless scum like Lin Fan in Li Xiuyun's eyes?

"That's enough. Today is Li Xian and Peize's auspicious day. What are you doing, Xiuyun?"

Wang Yanli was afraid that Zhou Peize would get angry, so she quickly stepped forward to speak up. At the same time, she threw a threatening stare toward Li Xiuyun.

After letting out a scoff, Li Xiuyun put on a discontented look before he stopped talking and continued drinking his wine by himself.

At that moment, Wang Yanli glanced over at Zhou Peize. "Peize, don't you have some good news for Uncle Li?"

Hearing this, Zhou Peize came back to his senses and there was an intense look of complacency on his face. "Uncle Li, I managed to get into Lin Zuo's wedding."

The crowd gasped in awe when they heard this.

Everyone gazed at Zhou Peizhe with a look of shock as they couldn't believe their ears.

Did they hear him wrongly?

Zhou Peizhe managed to enter Lin Zuo's wedding to meet the man himself?

Oh my God!

What an honor this was—it was simply unbelievable!

From what they heard, all the people whom Lin Zuo had invited were influential figures in China; all his guests were as powerful as hegemons.

Influential figures in China had racked their brains and put their lives at stake to snatch an invitation from Lin Zuo.

It was rumored that even high-ranking officials in the district were not able to enter the dinner. Consequently, they did not have the chance to get into Lin Zuo's good graces.

However, Zhou Peize was claiming that he had obtained an invitation to the dinner.

The probability of this happening was like striking a jackpot to them; it was unbelievable!

They did not even dare to dream about this.

At this moment, Li Xian gazed at Zhou Peize with a look of admiration on her face. "Honey, you're so amazing. Compared to some useless scum, you're so much better. I'm afraid other people might not even have the chance to meet Lin Zuo in their lifetime, right?"

As she said that, she glanced at Lin Fan with a look of disgrace.

She was deliberately warning Lin Fan that she had found a rich second-generation fiancé, and would never fall for a dirt-poor man like him.

Lin Fan did not have to waste his efforts anymore; regardless of how highly her father thought of Lin Fan, Lin Fan was nothing compared to Zhou Peize in her eyes.

At the very least, Zhou Peize could easily get himself an invitation to Lin Zuo's dinner.

As for Lin Fan, it was likely that he didn't even know who Lin Zuo was.

That was the difference between them! Lin Fan and her were destined to be in different worlds.

"Uncle Li, your son-in-law is so capable that he managed to get himself an invitation from Lin Zuo; I heard that it's a big deal to be invited."

"I also heard that those who managed to get Lin Zuo's invitation are influential and distinguished figures; your son-in-law is not a commoner!"

"I'm so jealous of you; the Li Family does not need to worry about climbing the ranks with a son-in-law like him around."

All the neighbors, relatives and friends who were at the scene had a look of admiration on their faces.

It was apparent that they had been completely baffled at this moment.

However, Li Xiuyun let out a discontented scoff instead. "Lin Zuo's invitation? What's so great about that? Lin Fan arranged one for me earlier."

In an instant, the scene plunged into a deafening silence.

The smile on everyone's face froze after hearing what Li Xiuyun had said.

Lin Fan had arranged an invitation for him?

This scum managed to obtain an invitation from Lin Zuo?

Was he joking?

That invitation was not something that was simply given out at random.

If it had been Zhou Peize, they might still believe the possibility of that happening.

As for Lin Fan...

Everyone swept a look of disdain at him. With his disheveled look, it would be too much to say that he collected trash on the streets. How could a person like him have the qualifications to enter Lin Zuo's dinner, let alone helping Li Xiuyun and the others get an invitation?

This was simply ridiculous!

Thus, there was an intense look of disdain on Li Xian's face when she heard what Li Xiuyun had said. "Dad, did you say that he can arrange for an invitation to Lin Zuo's dinner? Stop pulling my leg."

At the same time, a look of mockery filled Zhou

Peize's face. "She's right, Uncle Li. I spent so much effort to get my hands on the invitation letter. Why would Lin Zuo even invite him? One thing you must know—you can never judge a book by its cover. Don't get yourself fooled by other people."

At that moment, everyone threw a mocking glance at Lin Fan, staring at him like he was a joke.

Evidently, they felt that Lin Fan was lying as well!

Wang Yanli couldn't help but shake her head; she had seen through his lie with one glance. Why would her husband even fall for the lie?

He was really too naive.

Then, she shifted her gaze toward Lin Fan with hostility in her eyes.

In her opinion, Lin Fan was scheming against their family—that was exactly why he had fabricated such a lie.

After all, they had parted ways with Lin Fan for so many years; they had no idea what kind of a person Lin Fan had become.

"Nonsense!"

Li Xiuyun was so furious that his face had reddened. He then shouted out, "My son will never lie to me. Lin Fan, tell them who you are."

He didn't believe that Lin Fan would lie to him.

In other words, he believed that Lin Fan was surely not some commoner.

He must have some extraordinary background for him to get his hands on Lin Zuo's wedding invitation.

However, Lin Fan only forced out a laugh and replied, "Actually, I just stay at home."

There was a huge uproar among the crowd.

Stay at home?

Didn't it mean that he was jobless?

Hahaha!

The crowd instantly guffawed upon hearing this. They were bending over with laughter as they were truly amused.

An unemployed youth?

Lin Fan was doing worse than they had imagined—he didn't even have a job!

He was really a good-for-nothing, wasn't he?

Yet, how could a useless scum like him get an invitation from Lin Zuo to the wedding dinner?

This was hilarious!

Meanwhile, Li Xian shook her head with a look of mockery as the disdain and disgust in her eyes grew deeper.

Especially when she recalled the times when her own father kept setting her up with Lin Fan, she felt even more disgusted by it.

At this moment, she did not even want to look at Lin Fan anymore; it was as if she would stain her eyes if she took another glance at him.

At the same time, Zhou Peize was also obviously stunned, but he swiftly burst into laughter. "You don't even have a job, yet you have an invitation to the dinner? Do you think Lin Zuo is blind? You are indeed a liar!"

A con man?

Everyone raised their guard against Lin Fan right away; they all looked at Lin Fan, their gazes filled with animosity.

It was evident that all of them believed Lin Fan had bad intentions for approaching them.

Even Li Xiuyun himself was doubtful about Lin Fan at that moment.

He knew that Lin Fan was not a con man, but he had never expected Lin Fan to be a tramp.

Had Li Xiuyun really barked at the wrong tree?

Just then, Li Xian stared straight at Lin Fan, looking as though she was about to swallow somebody up.

“Speak up, Lin Fan! Why did you lie? Are you trying to swindle money from my father?”

She knew that Li Xiuyun was very fond of Lin Fan; Lin Fan might have taken advantage of this in order to swindle her father's fortune.

But before Lin Fan could even speak up, Li Xiuyun responded in an impatient manner.

“Stop with all this nonsense! What's wrong if he's unemployed? He's my son!”

“Lin Fan, you can always ask me for money if you don’t have any. We’re family!”

What?!

Li Xian’s expression changed abruptly. She then stared at Li Xiuyun in utter disbelief.

“Father, how could you?!”

Lin Fan was clearly a liar!

How could Li Xiuyun be partial to him even after knowing that? What was more, did he just offer to give Lin Fan money?

This was absolutely insane!

Lin Fan, who was standing at the side, was sincerely touched by him. He could clearly feel the love that was coming from the bottom of Li Xiuyun’s heart.

Some stood in awe of him, while others were afraid of him.

As for Li Xiuyun, he was really fond of him and treated Lin Fan like his own son.

Upon seeing this, hatred began to emerge in Zhou Peize’ eyes. He then let out a sneer right away.

“You’re only after our money, aren’t you? You piece of crap. It just so happens that we need a security guard at the entrance of our company! How about this—I'll pay you 30,000 a month to watch the company's entrance for the sake of being the Li Family's acquaintance. Hahaha!"

30,000?

All the neighbors that were at the scene felt envious of him immediately!

A monthly salary worth 30,000 just to look after the company's main entrance?

Oh my God!

Isn't he being too generous?

"Lin Fan, hurry up and thank Zhou Peize. You shouldn't miss such a great opportunity!"

Wang Yanli immediately urged him from the side.

However, Lin Fan simply shook his head while hanging a smile on his face.

"It's alright, Aunty Yanli. I'm doing just fine right now."

The crowd burst into laughter after hearing what Lin Fan had said. In fact, they were laughing out loud without even hiding their disdainfulness.

He's doing fine?

He's doing fine as an unemployed piece of crap and living a beggar's life?

These sort of people are really useless!

Wang Yanli's face instantly stiffened with displeasure.

Lin Fan would rather sit around and wait for his death than earn 30,000 a month by doing nothing? He really was resting on his laurels.

If Li Xian really stuck with someone like him, she would definitely end up in misery.

Nonetheless, Li Xiuyun had lost himself in verbiage.

"My son wants to be a great person who's successful in life. Are you looking down on him by asking him to become a security guard?" Li Xiuyun scolded.

No one on the scene agreed to his point of view, and they became more disdainful toward Lin Fan instead.

They thought that Li Xiuyun had gone mad for believing that Lin Fan, a useless person who's resting on his laurels, would succeed in life one day.

Hahaha!

Zhou Peize could not stop himself from laughing. In fact, he was laughing fanatically while giving a thumbs up to Lin Fan at the same time.

“Exceptional! How can you be so confident in yourself for living such a miserable life? I really admire your shamelessness!”

“Darling, you’ve seen it for yourself. It’s not that I’m not trying to help him, he is the one who has given up on himself!”

Li Xian let out a cold snort after listening to his words.

“Nonsense, he’s not my brother! Why do you even bother about what he does? He’d rather live a life as a useless man and that has nothing to do with me,” said Li Xian in anger.

“Lin Fan, you can leave now! Don’t ever come to my house again to disgust me!”

Li Xiuyun flew into a rage instantly after he had heard Li Xian’s words. He abruptly slammed the table as his eyes nearly popped out of its sockets.

“I dare you to repeat that once more,” he said while pointing his finger at Li Xian.

Li Xian was overcome by shock at first, but she quickly pushed Zhou Peize forward at once.

On the other hand, Zhou Peize let out a snort. "Li Xian is right. This useless man disgusts me, and I want him to leave immediately! Otherwise, I'll let my bodyguards break his legs!"

What?!

Li Xiuyun's face instantly twisted malevolently.

"Well done, Li Xian. You're fully fledged now, aren't you? Do you really think that you can disrespect me after getting married? You even let your husband challenge me?"

As for Li Xian, she was seemingly calm; it was as if she had shown her attitude.

All of a sudden, Li Xiuyun had lost his temper. His face immediately turned ghastly pale before he fell back onto the chair after losing his strength.

"Li Xiuyun!"

Everyone on the scene was petrified as they started yelling.

Little did they know that Li Xiuyun had high blood pressure; he was not supposed to be triggered at all!

Li Xiuyun pointed his finger at Li Xian, but he was unable to utter a single word.

He had brought her up this far, but she ended up marrying a man who would oppose her father. Which father in the entire world would not be depressed after seeing this?

Moreover, Li Xian seemed indifferent at that moment; she did not even bother to take another look at Li Xiuyun. It was as if the old man—who was currently having a medical episode—was not her biological father.

“As you can see, Uncle Li is not feeling well, Lin Fan. You should leave for now and stop causing trouble.”

Wang Yanli tried to chase Lin Fan out in a displeasing manner as well.

“That’s right, Lin Fan. This is their own family affair; as an outsider, you shouldn’t rub your nose into it. Do you really think you are part of the Li Family?”

“Haha, I’ve always known that this brat would be good-for-nothing since I was young. Indeed! He has been living a life as a liar after he has grown up!”

“Leave quickly, troublemaker. Just look at what you’ve done to Uncle Li.”

The neighbors rambled on in a rude manner just to flatter Zhou Peize; the look on their faces were as though they were about to grind him beneath their heels.

Nonetheless, Lin Fan unexpectedly put on a smile instead of bursting into anger. He then calmly took a glance at the crowd around him.

“Are you sure you want me to leave?”

Zhou Peize, Li Xian and the others on the scene burst into laughter after hearing his words; it was as though they had heard the world's greatest joke.

Their faces were covered in spite!

“If you are going to leave, please do so. Stop acting like you're someone with a great background,” said Li Xian in a disgusted manner.

The disdainful look she had on her face was accompanied by mockery.

Lin Fan sounded like everyone would definitely regret asking him to leave. That was really ridiculous!

What a joke!

At this point in time, Lin Fan only appeared to be a joke to Li Xian and the others.

He was just useless crap. He should just leave –what was so special about him?

How dare he pretend to be someone great?

Did he really think that the people would ask him to stay?

Lin Fan did not say anything further. Instead, he only nodded with a smile on his face.

“Alright, I shall leave then.”

Since they were being ignorant, it was useless for him to stay there.

At this moment, Lin Fan did not even bother to reveal his true identity; to him, these people were not qualified to know his true self.

Lin Fan stood up as he spoke, preparing to turn around and leave.

The people around him still gave Lin Fan looks of despise, being totally ignorant toward him.

It was then when the crowd heard a sound coming from outside the door; they were immensely shocked by what greeted their eyes!

“General Bai Hu has arrived!”

What?!

There was immediately a huge uproar among the crowd.

Everyone had turned around to look at the entrance with utter disbelief.

It was General Bai Hu; wasn't he the Three-Starred General of the Bai Hu Legion?

Everyone knew that Bai Hu was the beloved apprentice of the Gods of War. They were all subordinates of Lin Zuo!

Why would such a great existence show up at the Li Family's residence?

Everyone was flattered and completely startled at this point in time!

The look on their faces was full of disbelief.

At this moment, Li Xian looked at Zhou Peize in a dumbfounded manner as well.

"Peize, has the valiant general who's under Lin Zuo's command come to see you?" asked Li Xian excitedly.

Everyone looked toward Zhou Peize with looks of astonishment. General Bai Hu had come looking for Zhou Peize?

Not only was Zhou Peize invited to Lin Zuo's wedding ceremony, he was even personally invited by General Bai Hu?

This was incredible.

The entire atmosphere was filled with silence right at that moment!

Everyone present stared at Zhou Peize in astonishment; some of them were even standing in awe of him.

Even Wang Yanli and Li Xiuyun had their hearts at their mouths after listening to what was being said; they were so surprised they were unable to utter a word.

It was General Bai Hu!

Apparently, he was Lin Zuo's bodyguard. It would only be a matter of time before one could meet Lin Zuo after getting to know General Bai Hu.

Zhou Peize was much-anticipated at that point in time, and everyone was staring at him in awe.

Even Zhou Peize himself was dumbfounded.

Could Bai Hu General really be here in search of him?

However, he did not know him at all.

Nonetheless, he did not think about it too much. After all, he was the only person in the entire household who would actually deserve a personal visit from General Bai Hu.

“Calm down, everyone! It’s just General Bai Hu —there’s nothing to fuss about. I suppose he’s here to invite me to Lin Zuo’s wedding ceremony,” said Zhou Peize in a pleasing manner.

“Don’t speak of any nonsense afterward, for it may ruin my reputation.”

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

There was immediately a huge rustle among the crowd after they heard Zhou Peize's words.

Li Xian leaped into his arms right away before giving him a smooch on the lips.

"Darling, you're wonderful! I feel blessed to marry someone like you!"

"Oh my God! Li Xiuyun, General Bai Hu has personally come to invite your son-in-law to Lin Zuo's wedding ceremony. That is just exceptional! Even the greatest moguls in the province don't deserve such honor."

"Indeed, your son-in-law isn't an ordinary person."

Everyone was fawning all over him at this point in time; they all had flattering looks on their faces.

Not only them, even Li Xiuyun was shocked. His gaze was filled with astonishment at that moment.

Did this brat really have such capabilities?

He initially thought that Zhou Peize was just a young man who was good-for-nothing, acting all cocky just because he had come from a wealthy family.

He had never expected him to be someone capable of getting Lin Zuo's bodyguard to send him an invitation personally. Had he really looked down upon him previously?

It did not end there.

Zhou Peize stuck his tail up after hearing that General Bai Hu had come in search of him.

He gave Lin Fan a disdainful gaze right away.

"Better get moving right now, you piece of crap."

Wang Yanli, who was standing at the side, had made a response as well.

"Why don't you leave first, Lin Fan? You won't end up well if you accidentally offend General Bai Hu. Ordinary people like us should not simply offend an existence like him."

Everyone set their gaze at Lin Fan all at once after hearing what Wang Yanli had said. They were all looking at him as if they were watching a clown performing his acts.

However, Lin Fan only kept calm as he glanced toward Zhou Peize while putting on an eloquent smile.

"Are you sure that General Bai Hu is here to look for you?"

What?!

The crowd was stunned. What was that supposed to mean?

Other than Zhou Peize himself, who else in the room was worthy of a personal visit from General Bai Hu?

“Forget it, Lin Fan! Just leave,” said Li Xiuyun while frowning.

He had underestimated Zhou Peize’s capabilities. If the latter wanted to bear grudges against Lin Fan, he would definitely live his future life in misery.

At this moment, he could only urge Lin Fan to leave.

On the other hand, Zhou Peize burst into laughter after listening to what Lin Fan had said.

“If he isn’t looking for me, is he looking for you?”

To him, it seemed like he was the one who had invited General Bai Hu over.

Everything would definitely go well!

The crowd was giving Lin Fan looks of disdain. How could the General possibly be looking for this piece of crap?

Lin Fan was an unpromising man who was also unemployed. How could a good-for-nothing man like him qualify to be personally visited by General Bai Hu?

Unless, General Bai Hu was out of his mind!

However, it was as if Lin Fan did not hear the laughter coming from the crowd at all. He then replied with a faint smile on his face, "What if he really is looking for me?"

Huh?

The crowd was astounded when they heard him at first.

Afterward, they began laughing fanatically.

Hahaha!

"Did you guys hear that? This useless crap right here actually said that General Bai Hu is looking for him."

"How can you be so shameless, Lin Fan? Just take a better look at yourself. Will General Bai Hu look for someone as useless as you are?"

Li Xian's eyes were covered in hatred as she felt disgusted by Lin Fan.

The disdainful looks among the crowd had turned sullen right away.

“How can you be such a boast, young man? Do you treat us as fools by speaking such nonsense?”

“Such a man is completely unreliable. It was fortunate that Li Xian hadn't picked him in the first place. Li Xiuyun must've been blind for treating him like his own son.”

Li Xiuyun's appearance flushed red out of anger after hearing these sarcastic comments; how he wished there was a hole in the ground for him to bury himself in.

It was absolutely embarrassing.

Little did he think that Lin Fan would say something this unrealistic.

It was at this moment when the crowd heard footsteps coming from outside the door.

Then, a burly man strode in with a majestic gait; he carried a prestigious manner of a superior figure.

“General Bai Hu!”

Zhou Peize was radiant with joy when he saw General Bai Hu. He had a flattering look as he approached him.

Moreover, he had taken the initiative to reach out his hand.

Nevertheless, Bai Hu only put on a frown.

“Who the hell are you?” he asked with a look of disgust.

The atmosphere had immediately gotten tense.

Who are you?

The moment everyone heard these words, they felt like they were being struck by lightning; they were quite startled by it.

Their eyes were filled with astonishment!

Did General Bai Hu not know who Zhou Peize was?

Was General Bai Hu not here in search of Zhou Peize?

Everyone was instantly dumbfounded. They could not believe what they had just heard.

“General Bai Hu, are you not looking for me?”

Zhou Peize was dumbfounded, staring at the General in utter disbelief.

General Bai Hu's face twisted malevolently after hearing his words.

"Looking for you? Who do you think you are? Are you even worthy of getting a personal visit from me?" said General Bai Hu ragingly.

How embarrassing! It was really embarrassing!

Zhou Peize had misunderstood the entire situation!

His cheeks were flashing red right at this moment as he felt very ashamed. He wanted to dig a hole for himself!

It was truly humiliating!

He was still tyranting over Li Xian and the others just moments ago and had ended up being humiliated by General Bai Hu right away.

He could sense the doubtful glances from the crowd; he did not know how to act after humiliating himself.

However, the crowd still could not figure it out. Who else would deserve General Bai Hu's personal visit if it was not Zhou Peize?

Then, Bai Hu ignored Zhou Peize before he paced toward Li Xiuyun and the others.

What?!

The crowd was stunned as they watched on!

Could General Bai Hu be looking for Li Xiuyun?

When did Li Xiuyun know a heavy hitter like General Bai Hu?

This was simply exceptional!

Everyone shifted their gazes and looked at Li Xiuyun in astonishment. They still could not believe it, but it did seem like General Bai Hu was looking for him; after all, Li Xiuyun was the master of the Li Family.

Li Xiuyun immediately got up due to excitement. He then reached out his hands before he spoke up anxiously.

“General Bai Hu, you’re much welcome...”

But before he could even finish his words, Bai Hu yelled in his low toned voice. He was obviously getting displeased.

“Get lost!”

Where did all these flies come from?!

The crowd was stunned once again.

He was not looking for Li Xiuyun either.

How was that possible?!

If it was neither Zhou Peize or Li Xiuyun, who else could it be?

Could it be possible that he had gone the wrong way?

Li Xiuyun's face stiffened instantly; his appearance was covered in awkwardness as he stood still right on the spot.

The atmosphere then became extremely tense in the room.

No one from the crowd dared to speak as they knew that they would offend General Bai Hu.

Nonetheless, it was then when the crowd heard an unexpected voice.

"Don't be rude, Bai Hu!"

The words that came from Lin Fan made the crowd mad!

Who had actually dared to scold General Bai Hu?

Was he out of his mind?

However, they were startled when they realized who had just spoken up—it was Lin Fan!

"Lin Fan, how dare you reprimand General Bai Hu like this? Stop causing trouble!"

Li Xian was weeping out of worriedness; this piece of crap had thought too highly of himself. Was he qualified to reprimand General Bai Hu?

Right at that moment, she looked at Bai Hu in a tense manner before she abruptly disassociated herself from Lin Fan.

"General Bai Hu, our family doesn't know him at all. If you're going to punish us, punish him instead. You shouldn't vent your anger on us."

She was petrified at that moment.

The only thought she had was to sacrifice Lin Fan for the sake of her family's safety.

"Lin Fan, stop talking nonsense. We shouldn't offend General Bai Hu."

Li Xiuyun reprimanded him in a tense manner as well. He was worried that Lin Fan might have offended Bai Hu.

"How dare you reprimand General Bai Hu, you little brat. You're only in search of your own death!"

Zhou Peize let out a sly grin as he glanced at Lin Fan; the way he looked at him was as if Lin Fan was a dead man.

"Idiot! This person is an idiot! How dare he act so rudely against General Bai Hu? He's dead meat!"

“This made me laugh. He was talking to General Bai Hu as if he was his superior. Has he gotten used to boasting?”

The neighbors along the street were all mocking him; the look on their faces were as though they were going to drown Lin Fan in their dreadful remarks.

Lin Fan was startled, but he forced out a bitter smile while shaking his head.

However, Bai Hu had burst into rage after hearing the dreadful and sarcastic comments from everyone else.

“Shut up, all of you!” Bai Hu yelled immediately.

His voice sounded like a tiger's roar, which was absolutely deafening.

This made the crowd tremble in fear.

General Bai Hu had gotten mad!

They were all looking at Lin Fan with delightedness over his misfortune.

To them, Lin Fan had acted recklessly and pissed General Bai Hu off.

If that was the case, Lin Fan would not be far off from his death.

Zhou Peize instantly let out a sly grin. The way he looked at Lin Fan was as though Lin Fan was a clown performing his act.

He should not have shown off knowing that he did not have the capabilities—he was absolutely in search of his own death.

Li Xiuyun immediately dropped his knees to the ground as he shivered out of terror.

“General Bai Hu, my son is still young and immature, so that’s why he has contradicted you. Please be broad-minded and let him off this time,” said Li Xiuyun while weeping in tears.

“If you have any dissatisfaction toward him, please make it between us two! Please don't hurt my son!"

Lin Fan's heart sank abruptly because he was touched after witnessing the scene.

Li Xiuyun had actually kneeled down right in front of the crowd just for his sake—he was even taking the blame for Lin Fan.

Right when the crowd was too nervous to utter a single word, Bai Hu kneeled down in front of Lin Fan. He then said in awe, "God of War Lin, I've taken care of the matter that you've assigned me to."

Bai Hu had initially wanted to address him as Lin Zuo, but he was worried that it would frighten the crowd. Thus, he simply addressed Lin Fan as God of War.

Even so, it was thunderous to their ears.

In the hall, there was a huge uproar among the crowd.

Those simple words from Bai Hu had made the crowd tremble; it was as though they had been hit by lightning.

What?!

God of War?

Li Xian, Zhou Peize and the others nearly popped their eyes in shock. In such a short time, they had nearly wet their pants out of fear.

Lin Fan is a God of War?

At this point in time, they finally realized who Bai Hu was actually looking for personally!

“H-He’s one of the eight Gods of War in China? Impossible, this is impossible!”

Li Xian’s eyes had nearly popped out. Since when did the poor fellow she used to look down on when she was younger become a prestigious God of War of China?

At that moment, her outlook of the world was almost overturned; she even felt a sense of regret after knowing Lin Fan’s true identity.

The man that he used to look down upon had now become a man who was out of her league.

Even though Zhou Peize was extraordinary, he was just an ant when compared to a God of War. He was worthless!

Even now, she had no idea on how she should face Lin Fan; Li Xian was completely dumbfounded.

She looked at Lin Fan like she was looking at a ghost!

Her face was ghastly pale as she watched over the man who was dressed shabbily; she felt completely unfamiliar with him.

Not just her, even the neighbors were covering their mouths after they had heard the words that came from Bai Hu. They all stared straight at him with their big, round eyes.

This poor brat who went missing for over ten years had already reached the pinnacle of power when he finally returned; how dare they even insult him?

Everyone was feeling horrified at that moment.

They clearly knew that there was a legislation in China stating that whoever insulted a general or any superior figure would be sentenced to death.

Moreover, Lin Fan was not an ordinary general. In fact, he was a commanding general—a God of War!

In particular, Zhou Peize had nearly wet his pants out of fear at this point.

After all, he was the one who had insulted Lin Fan the most among the crowd.

If Lin Fan were to fly into anger, it would possible that Lin Fan would take his life right at the scene.

His legs gave way after having these thoughts, and cold sweat dripped down his forehead as his face twisted malevolently.

On the other hand, Lin Fan was being ignorant toward the crowd's astonishment.

He immediately stood up and walked toward Li Xiuyun.

Everyone was fearful as they took a few steps back while Lin Fan stood up. They were all looking at him in shock.

As for Lin Fan, he immediately helped Li Xiuyun to his feet.

"Uncle Li, you're the only one who doesn't need to kneel down," said Lin Fan smilingly.

A simple sentence from him had nearly caused everyone to wet their pants!

The crowd hastily kneeled down upon him; all of them gazed at him nervously with terror and fear.

Didn't he mean that he wanted all of them to kneel down?

At this point in time, everyone felt like they were humble ants when they were in front of Lin Fan; they did not even dare to gasp for air.

It was petrifying!

Li Xiuyun felt like he was in a dream.

“Lin Fan, y-you’re a God of War?” Li Xiuyun asked while staring at Lin Fan in utter disbelief.

Even though he previously knew that Lin Fan must have skyrocketed on his road to success, he never imagined Lin Fan to have such an identity—it was simply outrageous!

Was he actually one of the top eight martial artists in China?

This was incredible!

Lin Fan nodded with a smile.

“Yes, that’s why I’ve invited all of you to Lin Zuo’s wedding ceremony.”

There was an immediate uproar among the crowd as soon as they heard him; Lin Fan was not bluffing at all.

He really had the capability to invite the entire Li Family to Lin Zuo’s wedding ceremony because he was a God of War.

If a God of War was not qualified to enter the wedding ceremony, who else would be able to make it in?

They finally understood everything; being a God of War, Lin Fan said that he was unemployed simply because there was no need for him to do so.

“Great! That’s great! I knew my son wasn’t ordinary!”

Li Xiuyun was agitated to the extent that his eyes had reddened. He could not express his feelings except for commending Lin Fan.

Lin Fan had not disappointed him.

In fact, he had gone way beyond his expectations.

Wang Yanli and Li Xian would always say that he was a blind as a bat for barking up the wrong tree. What about now?

Who else dared to say that now?

In fact, he had eyes of wisdom!

Li Xiuyun could only feel the glory that Lin Fan’s aspirations had brought him. He then wept tears of joy.

God of War?

He was Lin Zuo's subordinate!

As an acquaintance of Lin Fan, it would only be a matter of time before Lin Fan would introduce the Li Family to Lin Zuo.

All the neighbors who were at the scene were all feeling regretful.

After all, they had known Lin Fan for such a long time. Even if they were to shamelessly ask for a referral, he would be ill at ease to refuse.

However, everything was too late now!

They had insulted Lin Fan and ruined their final opportunity, for they had essentially insulted a God of War!

If they were to say that they were related to a God of War, who would dare to insult them?

The look on those relatives' and neighbor's faces were full of regrets at that point in time.

It was then when Lin Fan left an invitation on the table.

"Uncle Li, this is the invitation to Lin Zuo's wedding. With this invitation, you and your family will be able to head straight into the restricted part of the ceremony. You will be able to meet Lin Zuo in person there," Lin Fan said with a smile.

"I can see that you're rather busy today. We shall have a drink another day."

Under the regretful gazes of the crowd, Lin Fan left the Li Family's place together with Bai Hu.

At that moment, it was as if Li Xian had just woken up from a dream. She then stumbled across the hall, making her way to the table like a mad woman. Afterward, she opened up the invitation that was left right there.

"A golden wedding invitation!"

Li Xian was in total despair; she could easily recognize the invitation with just one glance.

She then took a few tottering steps before she fell to the ground after her body gave way, seemingly as though she had lost her soul.

"It really is a golden invitation—an invitation to the restricted area of the ceremony!"

Clearly, she knew that even Zhou Peize would only be able to get the regular invitation, but Lin Fan...

There was nothing much to say. As a matter of fact, Lin Fan really was a God of War.

She was afraid that the man she used to look down upon would not even spare her another glance right now. How did she have the nerve to insult him?

It was absolutely ridiculous!

As for now, Li Xian was so embarrassed she wanted to dig a hole for herself to hide in; she assumed that Lin Fan might have even treated her like a clown back then.

Had she missed the chance to be with a God of War?

Not just her, even Wang Yanli was feeling regretful—after all, Lin Fan was a rich and powerful God of War!

The Li Family would definitely make it to one of the wealthiest families if Li Xian were to marry Lin Fan.

However, she had been looking down on him since she was young. Moreover, she wouldn't have agreed to Li Xiuyun betrothing Li Xian to Lin Fan; it seemed like she was the one who was as blind as a bat now.

The mother and daughter duo were about to cry at that moment. The expressions on their faces were as if they were terminally ill, and they seemed like they were in total despair.

On the other hand, Li Xiuyun snorted as he looked at Li Xian in a stone-cold manner.

“Are you feeling regretful right now? It’s too late! If you had treated Lin Fan better, he would’ve still been your brother nominally even if the both of you were not a match. Being the sister of a God of War, no one would dare to treat you ungenerously.”

“By then, will our Li Family rely on alms from a pampered rich man?”

Li Xiuyun was disappointed at Li Xian as he shook his head.

“Everything is too late now! From today onwards... You will no longer have anything to do with him!”
