

Half an hour later, Lin Fan arrived at the agreed place, which was a VIP room of a hotel.

Inside the room, an old man and a young man were enjoying tea. When they noticed Lin Fan's arrival, they acted as if they had not noticed his presence, looking extremely arrogant.

Upon seeing this, Long Jiu suddenly became angry and glared at the old man. "Dong Qianqiu, I have already brought him here. What do you mean by acting like this now?"

At this, the old man nonchalantly raised his head and looked at Lin Fan. A condescending smile hung on his lips as he asked, "Are you Divine Doctor Lin?"

A corner of Lin Fan's mouth quirked up, revealing a faint smile. "Yes, I am. Why do you want to see me?"

Before Dong Qianqiu could answer, the young man beside him demanded, "We've been practicing medicine for eight generations, but we don't even dare to call ourselves 'Divine Doctors'. Who do you think you are to bear this title? Hold a press conference tomorrow and declare to the public that you are not a so-called 'Divine Doctor' at all, or else you will land yourself in serious trouble."

That was an outright threat from him.

At this, Dong Qianqiu also snorted coldly and looked at Lin Fan condescendingly as he said, "Why aren't you bowing to me, your elder? Didn't your parents teach you the basic manners?"

At this, Lin Fan chuckled. "Elder? Are you sure your seniority is higher than mine?"

He was the Divine Physician of Bones; even if Elder Yao were to meet him, they would be conversing on the same level. Yet, Dong Qianqiu actually flaunted his seniority in front of him.

What?! Lin Fan's words instantly shocked Dong Qianqiu and his eldest grandson, Dong Huayu. They wondered if they had heard him wrongly. What did Lin Fan mean by this? Does he think that his seniority is higher than mine, Dong Qianqiu? He's nuts!

Dong Qianqiu and his grandson were furious, as their expressions had darkened to the extreme.

"You there with the surname Lin, what nonsense are you talking about? Our family is a prominent medical family in China. We have a pivotal status in the entire medical industry of China. My grandpa is the eighth-generation master of the Dong Family, whom all famous doctors respectfully address as Elder Dong." Dong Huayu flew into a rage and glared at Lin Fan coldly. "And you? You're just a quack doctor with a stroke of luck, who doesn't even deserve to be mentioned in the same sentence with my grandpa."

Meanwhile, Dong Qianqiu also looked at Lin Fan with a disgusted face while saying, "Forget it. I won't bother talking nonsense with you. I want to see you today because I have something to talk about with you. I want to buy your formula for the new pneumonia vaccine. Name your price."

Upon hearing that, Lin Fan smiled. So this is their true motive.

As medical practitioners, the Dong Family members naturally knew the value of the formula. If the formula could be successfully developed and marketed directly, the Dong Family would make a lot of money and also create influence on a global scale.

Dong Huayu sneered at the side and said, "Trash like you are unable to give full play to such a formula at all. Instead of being wasted by you, it is better to sell it to our family."

However, Lin Fan smiled contemptuously as he replied, "Sorry, but I'm not short of money."

Then, he directly got up, ready to leave.

What? At this, the expressions on Dong Qianqiu and Dong Huayu's faces had turned sullen. They were both extremely angry.

"Hey, don't force me to get tough with you. We want to buy the formula from you because we're showing you some respect. If you fail to appreciate our kindness, we won't hesitate to launch a hostile takeover against New Bai Family Group."

Lin Fan suddenly stopped in his tracks, and then turned around with a murderous look as he asked, "Are you threatening me?"

Threatening you? Dong Qianqiu suddenly smiled viciously and said contemptuously, "So what if I am? Do you think that you alone can go against us, a prominent medical family? Killing you is as simple as stepping on an ant for us. As for the New Bai Family Group, its president is just a b*tch who sleeps around with men, so we don't even take her seriously."

That statement had touched a nerve; Lin Fan's eyes were full of murderous intent now.

*A b*tch who sleeps around with men? How dare they insult my wife?*

In the next instant, a cruel look flashed across Lin Fan's face as he stared at the two of them fixedly, saying, "Since you have a death wish, I shall very well fulfill that for you. Don't you want to acquire our New Bai Family Group? Then I will take the lead in acquiring your Dong Pharmaceutical."

Lin Fan's words directly left the pair of grandfather and grandson dumbfounded.

Did this guy actually say he wants to acquire Dong Pharmaceutical? We're not dreaming, are we?

The Dong Family had been medical practitioners for eight generations, and had accumulated eight generations of connections and wealth, which was now on a terrifying scale. But Lin Fan actually said he wants to acquire Dong Pharmaceutical? Who does he think he's joking with?!

At that moment, Dong Qianqiu and his grandson laughed wildly, as if they had heard a big joke.

"You're worse than an idiot. Now, Dong Pharmaceutical has a market value of 200 billion. Do you think you can just acquire it if you want to? You are simply shooting for the moon!"

However, Lin Fan just smiled faintly at their ridicule, and then took out his phone to dial a number. "I'm acquiring Dong Pharmaceutical from now on."

This sentence stunned both Dong Qianqiu and his grandson.

He's crazy. This man is absolutely crazy. He even pretended to make a call? Does he think he can fool us?

"Stop acting. It's absolutely impossible for a piece of trash like you to buy Dong Pharmaceutical." With a disdainful look, Dong Qianqiu glared at Lin Fan. "Now you'd better think about the price at which you will sell me the formula."

There was a great confidence in his words, as if he was sure that Lin Fan would definitely sell him the formula. In his opinion, Lin Fan had no choice at all; he could only yield to colossus like them.

However, at this moment, a man walked in under everyone's attention.

The moment they saw him, both Dong Qianqiu and his grandson were delighted, as they flashed him a flattering smile. They walked toward him while saying, "Dr. Mike, you're finally here. We have been waiting for you for a while now. Please, have a seat."

The man who had come was none other than Mike.

Compared with Lin Fan, their attitude toward Mike was totally different.

Although Mike had lost to Lin Fan before this, in their opinion, a doctor should possess enough influence other than good medical skills. If they wanted to venture into the overseas markets, they needed to rely on Mike's influence.

So, their motive on this day was very simple—to make Mike resign from New Bai Family Group and join their company instead.

From their point of view, the New Bai Family Group would soon be doomed without Mike.

Therefore, Dong Qianqiu and his grandson walked toward Mike like toadies.

However, what happened next left both Dong Qianqiu and his grandson completely dumbfounded.

Mike had completely ignored them, as if he had not seen them as he walked past them and headed toward Lin Fan.

Then, under the horrified gazes of Dong Qianqiu and his grandson, he actually knelt before Lin Fan with a look of panic and said, "Mr. Lin, I have no intentions of betraying you. I came here today just to see what they are up to. Please forgive me, Mr. Lin."

At this moment, his whole body was trembling violently. He had nearly wet his pants the moment he saw Lin Fan.

Mike was truly afraid that Lin Fan would think that he wanted to betray him. If he really thought so, then he would surely be done for.

Dong Qianqiu and his grandson were dumbfounded at the sight; their eyes were as wide as dinner plates now due to their astonishment.

They felt like they were hallucinating. The looks of complacency and arrogance on their faces that were present moments ago had frozen completely.

Originally, they thought that Mike and Lin Fan were at best in a partnership, but now, judging from Mike's fearful look, that was obviously not the case.

An ominous feeling was brewing in their hearts.

Dong Qianqiu said in horror, "Dr. Mike, what are you doing? Isn't he just a somewhat famous doctor? Why are you kneeling before him?"

In their opinion, Lin Fan might have been slightly famous in China, but Mike was an internationally renowned doctor.

For some unfathomable reason, Dong Qianqiu began to feel that something bad was about to happen.

Even Dong Huayu was completely dumbfounded as he said in disbelief, "What's so scary about this piece of trash? Without that formula, he is nothing! Dr. Mike, get up quickly!"

However, as soon as Dong Huayu finished talking, he was slapped hard across the face.

Chapter 618 How Amazing the Dong Family Is!

Dong Huayu was completely taken aback then. He put a hand to his face as he stared at Mike, dumbfounded. It was as though he hadn't expected Mike to strike him for Lin Fan's sake.

“Shut up! Do you think that Mr. Lin's skills and background are things that you can speculate, you fools?”

Had Lin Fan been a mere doctor from China, that wouldn't have been enough to strike fear in him. However, Lin Fan had another terrifying identity as someone whose name shook the entire world, the Divine Physician of Bones.

He would never be able to forget the terror he felt from being dominated by this man, how a single phone call nearly ruined his reputation beyond repair.

Under the disbelieving eyes of both grandfather and grandson, Mike prostrated himself to Lin Fan again and began to plead fervently, “Mr. Lin, please, you have to believe me. My loyalty to you is absolute. It is unwavering!”

Heavy fear tinged his voice, as though Lin Fan was a man-eating demon.

This scene scared the living daylights out of Dong Qianqiu and Dong Huayu as unbelievable amounts of fear showed in their eyes.

“Impossible! This is impossible! Why is Dr.

Mike so afraid of him?"

"What on earth did this guy do? Who is he actually?"

Both grandfather and grandson were completely baffled, the scene before them suffocating. To them, Lin Fan was now practically like a monster.

However, the true nightmare had only just begun.

A series of urgent ringing sounds suddenly blared. Dong Qianqiu pulled out his phone in confusion before activating hands-free mode.

"Sir, there's huge trouble here! A titanic foreign investor is maliciously buying out the companies under Dong Pharmaceutical! Three companies have already been snatched up! If this keeps up, Dong Pharmaceutical will belong to someone else within a week at most!"

What?!

Dong Qianqiu was completely startled by those words. Disbelief and shock was on his wrinkled face. Is there someone who actually dared to buy out Dong Pharmaceutical? This is impossible. Who would have the funds for that? And who would make themselves enemies of Dong Pharmaceutical? Could it be...

Immediately, his eyes swiveled to Lin Fan in disbelief. He looked like he had just seen a ghost.

Was this guy really buying out Dong Qianqiu's own pharmaceutical group?

Wasn't he just a doctor?

How could he be this wealthy?

The place sank into a deathly silence as Dong Qianqiu and Dong Huayu stared at Lin Fan with frightened eyes.

"It's you. You're the one doing this, right?"

Right then, Lin Fan smirked and said, "I've said it before, but I'm not lacking when it comes to money!"

He then ignored the two men and looked at Mike. "Get up. I know that this matter has nothing to do with you. You don't have the courage to do that either!"

Mike was so moved that he was on the verge of tears. He kowtowed to Lin Fan a few times out of delight. "Many thanks for your forgiveness, Mr. Lin! Thank you so much!"

Lin Fan couldn't be bothered to spare another glance for Dong Qianqiu and Dong Huayu then. With Long Jiu escorting him, he walked toward the exit and left.

Once Lin Fan had left, Dong Qianqiu sank to the ground bonelessly as though all his energy had left him, bitterness on his face. "Dr. Mike, can you tell me just exactly who he is?"

Mike instantly looked at him like he was gazing at an idiot and said frostily, "Dong Qianqiu, you're done for! For offending a man like him, the Dong Family is certain to fall painfully!"

Upon hearing those words, Dong Qianqiu and Dong Huayu nearly wet themselves from fright. They could clearly sense the contempt coming from Mike's eyes. He looked as though he was looking at a pair of dead men, as though the two of them already had one foot in the grave.

"What's going on? Please, tell me!" Tears were gathering in Dong Qianqiu's eyes. Right now, he just wanted to understand the truth of the matter.

Mike chuckled coldly as he said mockingly, "Ask your secretary where the money that is snapping up Dong Pharmaceutical is coming from. Wouldn't you know then?"

Dong Qianqiu froze at once, then he hastily questioned his secretary. That secretary then delivered the most insanity-inducing statement to Dong Qianqiu, "Sir, the money that's buying out Dong Pharmaceutical? It's from the Global Group!"

Dong Qianqiu was completely destroyed. His eyes were as wide as dinner plates as every hair on his skin stood on end.

The Global Group was a global top three super conglomerate. It was said that the financial power of the Global Group could affect a whole nation's economy. It was even said that they were capable of buying a small country. The size of their wealth was terrifying beyond belief. Buying out a dozen or even a hundred companies was not out of the question for them, never mind a mere Dong Pharmaceutical.

"I-Impossible!" Dong Qianqiu immediately shuddered, looking as though his parents had just died. A single phone call was enough to let this wealthy conglomerate strike at Dong Pharmaceutical. Then, that meant Lin Fan's identity was...

"Your guess is right!" Mike grinned condescendingly before leveling a toying stare at Dong Qianqiu. "The one you called a 'piece of garbage', the one man that you looked down on, is the boss of the Global Group!"

Upon hearing those words, Dong Qianqiu nearly fainted right there and then. Divine Doctor Lin is actually the head honcho of the Global Group? And he intended to buy out my company?

At that thought, he wanted to die. He had been trying to get himself killed then. Right now, he felt his world flip on its head. Fear flashed in his eyes.

“Dr. Mike, are you sure this isn’t a joke? He... really is the boss of the Global Group?”

A spring chicken in his twenties was actually the man behind a super wealthy conglomerate? How could he possibly believe that?

“As your people like to say, you truly are a stupid old donkey!” Seeing how the other man still refused to believe his words, Mike coldly scoffed at him. “Let me tell you this—he is the man behind the scenes at the Global Group! Apart from that, he also has another identity, one that is even more worthy of respect than mine by a hundred times!”

He still has another identity?

Dong Qianqiu and Dong Huayu were practically wishing to die now. Did Mike think that they weren’t scared enough? Did he still intend on telling them Lin Fan’s other identity?

But Mike didn’t care. He wanted to let these two shameless, uppity fellows fall into complete despair. A grin split his face as he said, “Have you heard of the Divine Physician of Bones?"

The power behind those words nearly ripped both grandfather and grandson to shreds alive. They felt their minds go blank as though they had temporarily turned into vegetables.

If there was anyone in this world who was worthy of being called a divine doctor, it had to be him without a doubt—the Divine Physician of Bones.

Divine Doctor Lin is the Divine Physician of Bones? And he is also the one that we threatened?

They were now fearful, despaired, and in the depths of madness.

"Dong Pharmaceutical sure is a remarkable company for having the courage to steal a formula created by the Divine Physician of Bones himself, and for also having the courage to brag about being wealthier than the boss of Global Group! How amazing!" Mike stuck his thumb up before leaving for the door while laughing loudly. From his perspective, the grandfather and grandson duo were literally knocking on death's door by now.

"Grandpa, we're doomed! We're done for!" Dong Huayu had already cried himself senseless as he howled miserably.

“Hahaha, I was too smart for my own good! To the point that I sealed my own doom!” Dong Qianqiu, however, burst out into mad laughter, as though he had gone insane. “I actually challenged the world’s most renowned doctor. People can’t even curry favor with him even if they want to. I truly am too amazing! If such a fool like me doesn’t die, then that means that the heavens are blind!”

Right now, even Dong Qianqiu himself thought that he should die.

Suddenly, the sound of incoming text messages beeped endlessly as news article after news article popped up on his phone.

‘Dong Pharmaceutical’s Dragon City Branch Temporarily Closed for Tax Evasion, Investigation Is Being Carried Out!’

‘Huaxing Medicine’s Certifications Not up to Standard, Has Illegal Labor Practices. Top Brass Being Investigated! Rumored, Huaxing Medicine Is Under Dong Pharmaceutical!’

‘Dong Pharmaceutical’s Stocks Experiences Sharp Drop by 10% in Half an Hour for No Reason!’

Article after article streamed in, making both men wishing to die.

In half an hour, news of Dong Pharmaceutical's imminent bankruptcy shook the country. All of Dong Pharmaceutical's higher-ups and investors were nearly mad as they flew into Jiang City in their own private jets, all of them looking for Dong Qianqiu in order to ask what was going on.

Meanwhile, inside the hotel, once everyone found out that Divine Doctor Lin was also the Divine Physician of Bones, as well as the boss behind the scenes of the Global Group, they felt a sheen of cold sweat beading their forehead. They were now in complete and utter despair. They hadn't dreamed that the Divine Physician of Bones would be hiding within Jiang City, or that Dong Pharmaceutical had been intending on forcefully buying out his company. Now, they had well and truly offended him. Not only had their attempts to buy him out failed, he was now buying them out instead.

How the tables have turned. This time, they had truly brought disaster upon themselves.

Immediately, everyone looked at Dong Qianqiu in fear.

"Chairman, what should we do?"

"At this rate, Dong Pharmaceutical will only be able to hang in there for one more week!"

Right now, Dong Qianqiu's face was completely stormy. He was irritated, and he was also currently worried because he knew that if he couldn't get Divine Doctor Lin to calm his temper, then Dong Pharmaceutical would find itself difficult to escape from this catastrophe.

A good while later, Dong Qianqiu sighed and said, "Everyone, you already know what had happened. Our decision-making had been utterly wrong, earning the ire of the Divine Physician of Bones. Dong Pharmaceutical is now on the brink of danger!"

Everyone present here all had stark white faces, unease and fear clearly written on them. Forcefully buying up the formula for the medicine to treat the new pneumonia had been a decision that they all agreed to. They couldn't very well blame Dong Qianqiu now. If they had to blame something, then they only had their boundless greed to blame!

"To the Global Group, even though we are a powerful group, we are just mere ants. We have no power to resist at all," Dong Qianqiu said with a pained smile.

The moment those words left him, the higher-ups nearly collapsed. They knew very well that the Global Group was as powerful as a dragon in the business world. To the Global Group, Dong Pharmaceutical was a piece of garbage that could be easily flicked away with a finger, utterly not worth mentioning.

“Chairman, if you’re saying this, then that must mean you have a plan?”

“Chairman, we should just apologize to the Divine Physician of Bones and beg for his mercy! Otherwise, we should just give in. We’ll at least be able to hang onto our business then!”

All of the higher-ups were now panicked. They hadn’t thought that the Dong Family, which had been involved in the medical industry for generations, would one day fall into such despair and trouble. In just half an hour, they were already in such a predicament.

At those words, Dong Qianqiu took in a deep breath and nodded. “Then I shall do as you said. Now, the only way we might escape this dilemma is to apologize to Divine Doctor Lin!”

He too was scared right now. He had seen how much trouble the Dong Family was in. If he did not ask for forgiveness now, then it might really be too late for them.

He then stood up to face the crowd. “Follow me to see Divine Doctor Lin. No matter what, we have to obtain his forgiveness, even if we have to give up all of the Dong Family’s businesses!”

Immediately, joy flitted onto the higher-ups’ faces as they nodded in agreement.

Dong Qianqiu then awkwardly looked at Long Jiu. "Long, I'm sorry to trouble you, but please take us to him! I know that the incident last time must have brought you trouble as well! However, please save us as a favor to me! As long as you agree to help me, you will be the savior of the Dong Family from today onward. We, the Dong Family, will follow your orders from then on!"

At that, Long Jiu sighed as well. He said, "Let's not talk about how I will be your savior and all that. As long as you truly repent, I believe that Divine Doctor Lin will forgive you all! I simply hope that the Dong Family will not disappoint me again!"

"Yes, certainly..."

Dong Qianqiu and the others were beyond themselves with joy as they nodded fervently.

Long Jiu nodded and then asked, "That's right, Divine Doctor Lin's family does not know of his actual identity, so I'm sure I don't have to spell out what you should do later, do I?"

The Dong Family nodded madly once again.

"We will keep it a secret! We absolutely won't let a word slip!"

The group then set out for Lin Fan's home with Dong Qianqiu at the helm.

After Lin Fan had left the hotel, he went straight home, but he had only just opened the door when he caught sight of a middle-aged man sitting in his living room. He had an arrogant attitude, looking like he was the center of the world with one eyebrow cocked up, his aura overbearing to no end.

“Miss Bai, you’re practically an imbecile! Since you already have the formula for the new strain of pneumonia in your hands, you should be spreading the word like mad before stocking up on huge quantities. Starve all of them before jacking up the prices! When the time comes, you can sell a single vaccine for even ten thousand, and every country will still be forced to buy it. Just think how much you can rake in then!” As he spoke, he gazed at Bai Yi with a toying gaze. “I think that it shouldn’t be difficult for you to contact all major suppliers with your abilities, right, Miss Bai?”

Who in Jiangnan did not know that Bai Yi was a woman with tricks up her sleeve, who had climbed into bed with numerous powerful men?

At that, rage blazed up within Bai Yi. “Mr. Dong Mingfeng, the vaccine that the New Bai Family Group manufactured is meant to save lives, not for us to profit off of it!”

The nation was now in a crisis and needed the vaccine. However, all Dong Mingfeng thought of was profiting off this crisis. He was less than a swine.

Dong Mingfeng was Dong Qianqiu's own son, as well as the master of the Dong Family. He had come to work with Bai Yi, but it was more apt to say that he had come to set up a sinister plot, rather than to work with her. Dong Qianqiu at least wanted to buy the vaccine formula, but Dong Mingfeng just intended to be a leech.

Dong Mingfeng immediately smiled condescendingly. "Save lives? Save me that nonsense! Isn't the point of selling medicine to make money? Enough, I won't waste my breath anymore. I'll cut to the chase then; Dong Pharmaceutical has their eyes on your formula! I'm sure you know that Dong Pharmaceutical is a reputed company that has been in the business for generations and has occupied at least half of the market in the whole of China. If we manufacture it together, I guarantee you that you will be able to sweep China off its knees and aim for the international market!"

Arrogance was on Dong Mingfeng's face, as though Dong Pharmaceutical was an almighty entity.

However, Bai Yi simply looked annoyed. "And?"

She could already see that Dong Mingfeng was a scummy businessman just from his words and actions, so she was unwilling to work with

What?

Dong Mingfeng's expression immediately shifted, as though he hadn't expected Bai Yi to reject him. She wouldn't need to do anything to rake in the dough. Who could possibly resist a free lunch? It seemed like he had underestimated this girl.

He immediately changed his tune. "Miss Bai Yi, do you feel that your share is too low? How about this then? Four to six? This is the last concession I can give you. After all, we'll be doing all the manufacturing, selling, advertising, and so on when the time comes. This is no small sum!"

He then put on an absolutely pained expression. "If so, if you don't wish to agree, then all I can do is take my leave!"

Making some concessions in order to get what he wanted—he had played this trick many times before and was very acquainted with it. He believed that Bai Yi would have no reason to refuse this time. Bai Yi was about to decline, but before she could open her mouth, a cold voice suddenly reverberated.

"I don't think you're worth anything!"

The two people inside the house immediately looked in unison at the source of the voice. Upon seeing Lin Fan, Dong Mingfeng stiffened before a look of condescension came over his face. He could tell with one glance that the man there was Bai Yi's useless husband.

"Bai Yi, this man is that worthless husband of yours, am I right? The Bai Family sure is lacking in etiquette to allow a dog to simply butt into conversations!" He was utterly condescending. Clearly, he did not think much of Lin Fan at all.

At those words, Bai Yi's temper flared and she roared at him, "Dong Mingfeng, watch your mouth! Lin Fan is my husband. If you dare to disrespect him, then get out of my sight immediately!"

Lin Fan gave a smile of contempt just then. "Do you think that Dong Pharmaceutical is some remarkable company?"

At that, Dong Mingfeng visibly froze, before he said with a look of arrogance, "Do you not even know of Dong Pharmaceutical, you piece of garbage? Dong Pharmaceutical has been the top pharmaceutical company in terms of sales for thirty years straight in this nation. We have over a hundred medications under our name, and we also control several companies which are also listed on the board. When it comes to the medicine scene in China, no one will dare to claim that they are better than us!"

He immediately thought that Lin Fan didn't know about Dong Pharmaceutical. That was why he went on that spiel. However, he didn't know that Lin Fan was being sarcastic.

Lin Fan wore an expression of indifference as he smiled and asked, "Then, what about Elder Yao?"

Dong Mingfeng's expression immediately turned unbelievably dark. No matter how amazing Dong Pharmaceutical was, even they didn't dare to be mentioned in the same sentence as Elder Yao.

Was Lin Fan looking down on him deliberately?

"As a top doctor in China, Elder Yao is a celebrated doctor with many pupils under his tutelage! Other than the Divine Physician of Bones, who else in China is worthy of being mentioned together with him? Your question is laughable!"

Elder Yao was in a completely different league from the Dong Family. Lin Fan's comparison of them both was practically disrespecting the Dong Family.

"Fine then! I won't bring up Elder Yao. Let us talk about your family instead!" Lin Fan gave a small smile before he asked, "What is your rank within the Dong Family?"

Dong Mingfeng immediately replied proudly, "I am the eldest son of the Dong Family, the son of the Dong Family's head of house. Other than him, I am the highest-ranking member of the family!"

However, Lin Fan simply said in displeasure upon hearing that, "I see, so you're just number two then! But I'm afraid that the head honcho of your family will need to kneel to greet me when he sees me. Who do you think you are for thinking that you are worthy of asking for a three-seven split?"

The moment those words left him, the atmosphere blew up. Bai Yi and Dong Mingfeng were completely taken aback.

The head of the Dong Family would have to kneel to him? What kind of madness is this guy saying?

Even Bai Yi thought that Lin Fan's bragging had gone overboard. He was a house husband. What right did he have to get an esteemed man from the Dong Family to kneel to him? What an incredulous notion!

At that, Dong Mingfeng completely exploded. He stared at Lin Fan with a poisonous gaze. "Miss Bai, I came to ask to work with you out of the goodness of my heart. I would have let your disregard for my goodwill slide, but how dare you humiliate Dong Pharmaceutical? You are simply too maniacal! Since you are intent on your own doom, then don't blame me for my cruel actions! The Dong Family will buy out the New Bai Family Group tomorrow! Prepare to be run out of your house and home!”

Bai Yi's face was drained of color when she heard those words. She glared at Lin Fan in fury and rebuffed him angrily, “Lin Fan, why did you say such nonsense? Don't you know what trouble you've brought now?”

Although she also loathed Dong Mingfeng, she still wouldn't dare to stir up such trouble and disrespect the head of the Dong Family. He was the head of the Dong Family after all, and was their senior in the pharmaceutical industry. Would the New Bai Family Group still be able to continue in the pharmaceutical business after they had offended such an esteemed pharmaceutical group? Lin Fan's fit of anger had completely hurt the New Bai Family Group!

“Darling, do you think that they will stay their hand if you submit to them? You're too naive!” Lin Fan chuckled as he added, “The Dong Family came to look for me earlier, and they even threatened me. If I don't sell the formula to them, they'll forcefully buy us out!”

Bai Yi's expression turned incredibly stormy. After all this hubbub, the Dong Family never once thought about letting the New Bai Family Group go.

“Then you're right for chewing them out!” Bai Yi

"Fine, fine, Bai Yi. How dare you two remain so blind! Let me tell you two—you are completely finished!" Dong Mingfeng threatened them through clenched teeth. He had never met people who would dare to disrespect the Dong Family as much as them.

They are mere ants, and they dared to be this audacious? They should die!

"Today, I will bankrupt the New Bai Family Group. The name will be struck from Jiang City!" He then pulled out his phone and furiously dialed Dong Qianqiu's number. "Grandpa, I am at the Bais right now! Hurry over now!"

Instantly, Bai Yi was frightened by Dong Mingfeng's cruel words. If the Dong Family were to actually make a stand against the New Bai Family Group, they wouldn't be able to stop them.

What should they do?

While Bai Yi's mind was whirling, Lin Fan however had a look of indifference. He gave a small smile and said, "I think that we won't be the ones who will be bankrupt soon. I think it's your family instead, hm?"

Dong Mingfeng stiffened right then. He hadn't thought that Lin Fan would still dare to say such nonsense even with his imminent doom. He truly didn't know whether Lin Fan was confident or foolish.

"The Dong Family? Bankrupt? I think you've gone mad, haven't you? Don't tell me that two worthless things like you are capable of shaking the foundation of the Dong Family?" A look of cruelty rose on Dong Mingfeng's face. "Looks like you're still a stubborn lot even when you're in the face of danger. Let's see if you can still smile in a short while!"

He had just finished speaking when the cacophonous sound of car horns blared outside the house. One after another, luxury cars stopped right outside the Bai Residence, looking all stately. Before they could react, the passengers inside the car spilled out, scrambling, looks of panic on their faces.

Not only was Dong Mingfeng baffled then, even Bai Yi was taken aback.

How did the Dong Family come so quickly? Dong Mingfeng had only just hung up, so how did the Dong Family arrive so soon? How is this possible?

Another door opened, and a figure that Dong Mingfeng was very familiar with quickly stepped out. The man kept wiping away his sweat while calling for the others to head for the Bai Residence.

"F-Father?" Dong Mingfeng was startled. He had just only made that phone call, but his father was already here. This was an unbelievable sight.

That wasn't all; other than Dong Qianqiu, he had also caught sight of all the higher-ups of Dong Pharmaceutical. He watched as they filed in with panicked expressions.

Dong Mingfeng was utterly shocked. He felt that the scene before him was out of a dream. Did every higher-up in his family just descend upon Jiang City and come to the Bai Residence?

Seeing that all these important people from the Dong Family had come, unease flashed on Bai Yi's face.

Soon, a twisted smile appeared on Dong Mingfeng's face. "Bai Yi, my family has come. Just wait for your death! Hahaha!"

Dong Mingfeng naively thought that Dong Qianqiu was here to help him. He was all smiles as he walked toward his father. He laughed and said, "Dad, you've come at just the right time!"

Dong Qianqiu was also taken aback upon noticing Dong Mingfeng. "Why are you here?"

Dong Mingfeng's face darkened as he said poisonously, "I came to ask Bai Yi about working together, but she was unable to recognize the true value set before her and declined my offer to work with Dong Pharmaceutical. I was thinking of putting them in their place! Dad, you cannot show them mercy so easily!"

At those words, Dong Qianqiu and the Dong Family higher-ups all sucked in a breath, nearly dying from fright. Put them in their place? And asking the Dong Family to not show them mercy so easily? He's crazy! Isn't this practically insanity? The Dong Family had already gotten themselves into hot water and were forced to grovel for Divine Doctor Lin to forgive them and let them go, and yet Dong Mingfeng still had the guts to threaten them now?

All Dong Qianqiu could feel was the world spinning around him. He nearly fainted right there and then. Once he snapped back to his senses, he exploded and slapped Dong Mingfeng's face. "You animal!"

Dong Mingfeng fell to the ground, shock on his face. He looked at Dong Qianqiu in disbelief, as though he couldn't understand why his own father smacked him. "Dad, what are you doing? W-What did I do wrong?"

Even the members of the Dong Family were looking at him with gazes of intense resentment, as though he was some bringer of calamity.

"You've done nothing wrong. I'm the one who made the mistake of birthing you!" Dong Qianqiu gritted his teeth as answered. He now wanted to kill Dong Mingfeng.

Dong Huayu had already cried himself silly. "Dad, you've sealed the Dong Family's fate!"

What? Dong Mingfeng was even more confused now. He hadn't done anything, so how could he have sealed the Dong Family's fate? What on earth is going on?

Even Bai Yi was dumbfounded by this. Didn't the Dong Family come knocking on her door to stir up trouble for her? Why did Dong Qianqiu raise his hand against Dong Mingfeng?

Before Dong Mingfeng could respond, Dong Qianqiu led all of the higher-ups and walked over to Lin Fan and Bai Yi. They all then kneeled before Lin Fan in fear. "Please, Mr. Lin, forgive us!"

The entire place fell into complete silence once those words were said. Everyone was startled, unable to believe their ears right now. Dong Mingfeng and Bai Yi were completely dumbstruck right now. Did they just see all of the Dong Family kneel in front of Lin Fan and plead for his forgiveness?

Dong Mingfeng's face was ashen as disbelief showed on it. Impossible! This is impossible! This man is clearly a live-in son-in-law. How is he able to make my father get down on his knees willingly?

He wasn't the only one startled by this; even Bai Yi was completely thunderstruck by this. Lin Fan had said earlier that even Dong Qianqiu would have to bow to him when he saw him, and here he was, kneeling right before Lin Fan. To her, this was practically like a dream. Lin Fan had already predicted such a thing would happen. That was why he never took notice of Dong Mingfeng. However, a more surprising turn of events came right then.

Dong Qianqiu gazed at Lin Fan pitifully, his eyes pleading. "Mr. Lin, please rescind your orders. Please don't destroy the Dong Family. We know that we were in the wrong!"

Thud! Dong Mingfeng collapsed to the ground in fear right then as he looked at his father with dazed eyes. This was the first time he had ever seen his proud and stern father kneeling like a dog on the ground and begging for someone's forgiveness, and the person he was pleading to was the Bai Family's useless son-in-law.

Dong Mingfeng was scared witless. Beads of cold sweat dripped endlessly from his forehead, making him feel that this whole thing was surreal and eerie. He deeply realized that he had caused a huge problem.

Bai Yi looked like she had just seen a ghost as she stared at Lin Fan in disbelief. "Lin Fan, what have you done?"

Lin Fan shrugged and grinned. "I haven't done anything!" He then shot a threatening look at Dong Qianqiu and the others.

Dong Qianqiu immediately shuddered before weakly saying, "It was Divine Doctor Lin. News of our intention to forcefully purchase the New Bai Family Group reached him. He warned us that if we do not appease Mr. Lin or Miss Bai Yi's anger, then he will cause us to go bankrupt!" Dong Qianqiu's demeanor was respectful to the extreme.

His words finally returned Bai Yi to her senses. So Divine Doctor Lin was involved. That wasn't surprising; the New Bai Family Group worked together with Divine Doctor Lin, so if Dong Pharmaceutical wished to buy them out, they naturally couldn't avoid Divine Doctor Lin.

However, Bai Yi felt that she had unbelievable luck, what with all these important people helping her out again and again. Now, Dong Pharmaceutical, a behemoth of the pharmaceutical industry, was kneeling right before her, begging for her forgiveness. She was practically in a dream.

Right then, Lin Fan pointed at Dong Mingfeng and said, "I don't like this guy. Kick him out of Dong Pharmaceutical, and I'll get Divine Doctor Lin to let you go."

What? Dong Mingfeng's expression shifted. Did this useless thing intend to kick him out of Dong Pharmaceutical? Immediately, rage and humiliation flashed on his face. This piece of garbage was just borrowing Divine Doctor Lin's name to parade about. Without Divine Doctor Lin to hide behind, both husband and wife were nothing. And now he had the guts to fan the flames to get his father to kick him out of the family? *D*mn it all!*

"Alright, I accept!" However, Dong Qianqiu agreed without thinking twice, for this was the only way to protect the Dong Family; he had no other choice.

"Dad... You!" Shock flashed in Dong Mingfeng's eyes. What did he just hear? Did his father actually agree? Did he intend to kick his own son out? Was he dreaming? Dong Mingfeng was utterly baffled. He was the master of the Dong Family and its heir, and yet he was being kicked out all because of Lin Fan's dislike for him?

Impossible! Instantly, Dong Mingfeng fired back mutinously, "Isn't he just Divine Doctor Lin? Why should we be scared of him? I have even more terrifying and imposing people backing me! I don't believe that a single doctor will really dare to do anything to me! You there, don't think that you're some bigshot now, just because you have Divine Doctor Lin sticking his neck out for you! If I so much as wish for it, I can make you never see the light of day again with just a sentence! I advise you not to force my hand!" He had gone behind his family's back and discreetly came to Bai Yi to get her to work together because of the people behind him. His backer had a history that was unimaginable; even Divine Doctor Lin wouldn't be able to match up with him.

"You traitorous boy! How dare you continue to speak nonsense? Apologize to Mr. Lin now!" Dong Qianqiu was nearly mad with anger. Things had already come to a head, and yet Dong Mingfeng was still as stupid and mulish as ever. He was practically signing his own death warrant. Did he really think that the man before him wouldn't dare to kill him?

However, Dong Mingfeng wouldn't listen to anyone right now. He coldly scoffed, "You are afraid of him, but I am not! And besides, my words still stand. I want the formula, and not even Divine Doctor Lin can keep it from me!" As he spoke, he fixed an arrogant stare on Lin Fan. "Inform that Divine Doctor Lin of yours that he should continue poking his nose in others' business if he wishes to die!" With that, he stepped out of the Bai Residence without turning back, looking high and mighty.

Upon seeing this, Dong Qianqiu gave a pained smile. "I apologize, Mr. Lin. It is our family's misfortune for having raised such a mad child who offended you!"

However, Lin Fan chuckled coldly, then looked at Dong Qianqiu meaningfully before saying, "Rest assured. If you cannot teach him a lesson, I think that Divine Doctor Lin is willing to step in for you!"
