

Chapter 1037

The wanderer dodged his eyes, then nodded, "Hey."

There is a touch of sympathy on the woman's face: "Women who are homeless and wandering are really pitiful, eh, many things in this world are unfair to women."

After a pause, she said: "This girl was very happy originally. I heard that she married the richest man in Nancheng. This community is the most high-end community in Nancheng. The family of three is very happy, but it happened to happen to this stall."

The wanderer asked again: "What happened?"

"I heard that some of her half-sister had uremia and needed a kidney transplant. She didn't agree with her. The media all came up and said she couldn't save her and said she had no conscience. "

The tramp asked again: "This girl who was forced to donate her kidney is called...Suzi?"

The woman who drives the car is not surprised: "Yes, many people know her, because she has a strong husband, but in front of the media, even if her husband is strong, he has no chance to show off."

When the woman finished speaking, she saw that the wanderer was no longer holding her car door.

The wanderer left, her hunched and hunched appearance made the woman driving her sympathize again.

The woman sighed about the doctor, and drove away.

Here, the reporter is still stuck at the door.

They will not leave easily.

First of all, because the things about Arron and Suzi are definitely big events. Although they all know that Arron is cruel, there must be a brave husband under the reward.

All want to make a fortune.

What's more, there is Old Man Shu behind them to support them.

One of the reporters took the lead: "This Suzi, no wonder Elder Shu said that she is very clever and eats the men of the upper class in Nancheng to death. It turns out that she is so unscrupulous?"

"Yes! Even such a small child can use it! This is only five or six years old? Suzi actually let the child come out to deal with us!"

"Why are you so vicious? Is it your mother?"

"We'd better investigate further, maybe it's not our biological mother!"

"It's necessary!"

"Baby, little bun, you don't need to be afraid, your aunt said, is your mother your biological mother? Is she threatening you? You behave, you have to be honest, don't be afraid, the aunt will call the shots for you."

"Yes, my uncle helped you too, baby, this is a crime, so small, she has to come out to carry all this, her mother is simply not a human!"

"Let Mrs. Fu come out, we have to ask her questions in person!"

"Some things are useless to escape!"

"Let the child come out to protect her from the crime, can you ignore her as a crime and contempt!"

"This can only further illustrate that she is ruthless, cruel, and bad-minded. The rumors from the outside do not seem to be groundless. A woman who even her own daughter uses, let alone others?"

"Suzi, come out!"

These reporters are really getting worse.

He even said everything about the crime.

They even forgot that the main purpose of their coming here today is to put pressure on Suzi, let Suzi passively stand on the moral high ground, and put her in a dilemma.

Then she forced her to submit a little bit, and finally, under the exposure of the media, she had to contribute her own waist!

"My mother has a fever, she is very weak." The young girl patiently explained to the reporter with two tears in her eyes.

At this time, a stern voice suddenly came out behind him: "The only one..."

Chapter 1038

Suzi followed the only one out all the way and staggered to Arron, but was hugged by Arron.

Arron pressed her ears and said: "Listen to Suzi, you turn your head and go back now, don't let the reporter see you, don't go out these days, reporter affairs and online comments, I will deal with it as soon as possible afterwards. "

But Suzi watched his child helplessly!

My six-year-old child!

Real but helpless eyes that day.

That stubborn and pitiful look in his eyes.

There were tears in those big round eyes, but she tried hard not to let her tears fall.

She faced dozens of reporters alone.

She is still a child.

She is only six years old!

How cruel is it for God to be the only one to Shen?

Suzi heard Lilly say to reporters: "My mother owes you the kidney, and I will pay it back for her." When she heard this, Suzi felt that she had been cut apart on the spot.

Her heart was dug out abruptly.

She never heard what her husband said to herself.

She just cried abruptly, and then screamed: "The only one..."

She rushed out of Arron's arms, ran to Shen Yiu's, and held Yiu in her arms. Then she looked up at a group of reporters and said weakly: "Don't hurt my child, don't be in front of my child. Say it all right, okay!"

Seeing that Suzi finally came out, the reporters suddenly rose up.

No one cares about Suzi's face so pale.

No one cares about her walking around.

Reporters say you and me, vying for fear, for fear that you won't be able to ask anything.

"Excuse me, Mrs. Fu, why are you so heartless and unable to save you?"

"I heard that you were the fiancé of your sister who robbed you. Now that you are so unfeeling, do you hate your sister very much?"

"Mrs. Fu, your child is so young, how do you use her?"

These people really deserve to be reporters.

Really qualified!

While using Lilly, they were able to seamlessly insert the crime into Suzi's head.

At this moment, Suzi, who was once extremely powerful and could not be blown down by storms and rains, became extremely vulnerable.

She looked at the reporters with tears of tears, and said helplessly: "What did I do wrong! What did Suzi do wrong? I obviously have a biological father, but my biological father drinks my blood like a vampire. ! Why should I save his daughter?"

"My biological father lost my mother, and now my mother is still alive and dead! Who will get justice for me? What did I do wrong!"

She is very weak.

But her cry was loud.

It's the kind of hysterical sound.

This cry made the reporters present chill.

After all, people's hearts are grown in flesh, and no one is born with a heart of stone.

Two or three reporters left quietly.

"I won't make this kind of ignorant money, it's so fcuking cruel!"

"I think about it, if someone is worried about my kidneys someday, if I don't give it, just report me like this, I'm fcuking desperately with people! I'll go in with a white knife, and a red knife out!"

"Go, stop taking pictures!"

This is just an individual reporter.

After two or three reporters left, a ragged figure squeezed forward abruptly in the outer circle.

Helplessly, this scruffy figure really has no strength, she can't squeeze in.

When Suzi cried, the scruffy figure also cried silently.
