

Chapter 1341

Yet, how could it be such a coincidence?

He was out with the two Gibsons, but Sabrina had also brought a man over!

Their family was really unlucky!

At that moment, Sean was so angry that he forgot to hold back, and he said everything that came to his mind, "You... Sabrina! From that man's physique, he is definitely not the same person as the man who keeps disturbing us! Sabrina, it seems like you don't only have one man on the outside!"

Sabrina remained silent.

Thankfully, it was a high-class international hotel, so there were not that many people who came to look on and witness the commotion.

However, even so, Sabrina had no way of talking herself out of it.

She looked at her father-in-law, looked at Jennie, then looked at Lori.

Jennie and Lori were smiling at her innocently.

At that moment, Jennie said, "Sabrina... You ... Director Ford loves you so much. How could you do something like this? When

At that moment, Jennie said, "Sabrina... You ... Director Ford loves you so much. How could you do something like this? When Marcus was talking to my granduncle the other night, they talked about so many of your good points, but you were actually..."

The moment Lori finished speaking, Jennie spoke up as well, "Sabrina, we're actually considered your relatives. You're already a married woman, and you're even the madam of the Ford Group. You should be more cautious. Your actions right now are bringing shame to the whole Ford Group."

Sabrina was still silent.

The two of them harping on caused Sabrina to feel like she could not fight back.

She worked hard to restrain herself, forcing herself to remain calm and composed. She even bit her lips until blood had started to come out in her restraint.

After two minutes, Sabrina started to speak.

Her tone was unbelievably cold. "Jennie! I would like to ask you something. Whether or not I'm cautious, whoever I bring shame to, what does it have to do with you?"

When she asked that, Jennie could not answer at all.

answer at all.

Sabrina smiled coldly, continuing to ask, "Don't tell me that you already see yourself as my mother-in-law? Do you already think that you're already my father-in-law's wife?"

Jennie said, "You!"

At Sabrina's accurate words, Jennie jumped in fright.

Sabrina did not let Jennie off. "I'm sorry, Jennie! I have to remind you, I do have a mother-in-law. She might not be my biological mother, but she's still my father-in-law's lawfully wedded wife -- a wife that has been with him for forty years!

"The relationship between my father-in-law and my grandmother-in-law is something even my mother-in-law can't get in between. Do you think an old woman like you would have any hope?"

"Who are you calling an old woman?! My mother is only fifty this year, she's still very young!" Lori immediately protested.

"Ha!" Sabrina suddenly laughed.

After that, she shot a meaningful look at Jennie. "Old woman, it seems like your daughter is saying that you really are

Jennie. "Old woman, it seems like your daughter is saying that you really are trying to steal someone else's lover! That you're aiming for someone else's husband! You want to be my father-in-law's mistress, one of his many hidden lovers, right?"

Sabrina's words actually had two meanings behind it.

Her father-in-law had constantly been on her lately.

Each time, he claimed she had a man outside, which greatly angered Sabrina.

She was giving her father-in-law a warning. Could the number of women her father-in-law had played around with in secret even be counted?

Sure enough, Sean was furious at Sabrina's words. "You! How dare you?! You dare to slander and berate me?! Very well! You suspect that Jennie has something going on with me in secret? Then I'll prove our innocence right now!"

After that, Sean called over two guards. "You two, come here!"

The guards immediately walked over to Sean. "Deputy... Deputy director. What... What are your orders?"

on with me in secret? Then I'll prove our innocence right now!"

After that, Sean called over two guards. "You two, come here!"

The guards immediately walked over to Sean. "Deputy... Deputy director. What... What are your orders?"

"This is my daughter-in-law; make sure she stays here! Don't let her leave!"

The guards and Sabrina were speechless.

At that moment, outside of Grand Sage International Hotel were a pair of eyes burning with rage as they looked inside.

The man's eyes were furious as he mumbled, "Don't be afraid, Sabrina. I'm coming to save you..."