I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2566

Galia asked incredulously: "You won't look down on me because of this?"

Christopher smiled, very laughing Cheerful: "You are such a cute silly girl. Of course I won't look down on you. On the contrary, I think you are very witty."

Galia: "..."

After a while, she asked, "Why don't you look down on you?" Me?"

Christopher thought for a while and said, "Many years ago, I met a girl, her life was much more difficult than yours at that time, she had a child at the time, and when she was looking for a job, because she didn't have a degree But she repeatedly hit a wall.

In the end, she couldn't help it, so she faked her education, and then she did her job.

Now she is a leader in the industry, but she still doesn't have a college degree."

Galia: "Really, Really?"

Christopher nodded: "Of course it's true."

He said to Galia in an encouraging tone: "Actually, a person's education does not mean anything, the most important thing is that the person is willing, practical, and capable. The most important thing is to make achievements. What do you think?"

Galia smiled shyly: "However, I have not been as successful as your friend."

Christopher was puzzled: "How do you say it?"

"I'm a junior high school student. I took a leave of absence and told people that I graduated from college. This is a bit of a bragging. Although I was hired, I was discovered not long after I joined the company

. , that is, everyone in the company looked at me differently.

As soon as they carried me behind their backs, they murmured at me, and then they didn't avoid me at all.

Many colleagues in the company are looking for trouble with me.

I know I'm wrong, and I... don't dare to resist.

Originally, I thought that the boss knew about this and would...the boss would fire me.

I did not expect that the boss deliberately held a company-wide meeting because of my business. Christopher looked at Galia in surprise: "

What a big deal, hold a general meeting?" As for? If you criticize you on a small scale, you will be fired! There is also an all-hands meeting! "

"No. Galia smiled lightly: "Actually, the company is very small, there are about twenty people in the office, and there are more than 100 people connected to the workshop outside the office.

Upstairs and downstairs add up, a total of 150 factories.

Not too big. "

Oh, even if there are very few workers in the factory, you can't hold a general meeting to fire you. You didn't steal the company's property, did you damage the company's public property, you just created a fake degree, that's all. .

Big deal dismissal! When she heard Christopher say this, Galia smiled bitterly: "If it's just dismissal, it might be a short-term pain, but my boss didn't dismiss me in public at that time. After a pause, Galia said gloomily: "

At that time, in front of all the staff, the boss told me that I had faked my academic qualifications, and he reprimanded me for my bad behavior. I wanted to walk away."

But, the boss said something at the time.

He said, look at me poor, give me a chance to reform, let me review in front of all the staff.

That doesn't count.

Since then, every now and then, the boss will talk about my affairs.

And every time I talk about me, I will be asked if I have reformed, so that I will always remember my shame.

Brother Christopher, do you know that feeling?

That is, to use a very civilized word, that is, to enslave you spiritually so that you have to remember your shame all the time. Not only that, but he wants you to thank him.

Thank him for nurturing you.

Be grateful for the opportunity he gave you.

Chapter 2567

and said in front of the whole company.

Since then, my position in the company is inferior to a dog if I say it myself, do you believe it, Brother Christopher?

But what can I say for myself?

One, I found this job that should not belong to me using my fake degree. From the vanity point of view, I really don't want to give up, because my company can let me in front of my mother and my mother's family. , raised his eyebrows.

Don't you all think that I'm a jerk, a useless person, a junior high school student, and I don't have a job after your children graduate from college, okay?

You see, I am no longer a white-collar worker in the office of a company in a big city.

Very fun! "

Christopher: "..."

At this moment, he didn't know what to say.

When Galia experienced this incident, he was not in it, he thought, if he was in it at that time, maybe in Under the pretense of the boss, and the girl really has a vanity, maybe Christopher will not like such a girl.

But now, after the incident, when Christopher listened to Galia about this matter, Christopher would not like it. I think Galia is also a frank girl.

At least, she is now facing the childish things she did in the past.

She should be more calm now than before.

Moreover, Christopher has experienced so much these days . It is not easy for everyone, including the past events of his uncle and aunt, and let Christopher understand that it is not easy for people to live in this world.

As long as she doesn't hurt anyone.

As long as you don't do anything nasty.

She is a little vain and hides something, in fact, most of them have a last resort.

For example, Galia now believes that when she was born, she was not a vain, conceited and inferior child, but the living environment and family gave her a deep-rooted concept.

The main reason is the mother's disapproval and protection of her, which led to the prejudice of her relatives.

All of these have led to her later vanity in her heart. In fact, she just wanted to be recognized, and she wanted to raise her eyebrows in front of relatives and people she cared about.

Christopher felt extremely distressed for such a girl, and Galia was his savior.

At the moment when Galia was saving him, she did not hesitate, she was very brave and very selfless.

In this way, Christopher understands that no matter how many flaws and unlikable a girl she has, she still has her cuteness and her respectable side.

"Brother Christopher, do you know how vain and inflated I was at that time? While I was enjoying the admiration from my mother and my mother's family, when I went back to my hometown, I always wore very fashionable clothes. In the big city, the more flamboyant and proud I am in front of my cousin, the more shameful and useless I am in my company."

Christopher: "..."

"Brother Christopher, In fact, you can't imagine how much I lost my self-esteem and inferiority during the three years I worked in that company. During that time, I even felt that I was a little inferior.

You know what, Christopher, I In order to be on an equal footing with my colleagues in my company, and in order not to make them look down on me or underestimate me, I tried my best to dress myself up and try to make my image closer to theirs.

My salary is spent every month. .

Then, the money I sent back to my mother was the money I borrowed at my own expense.

Do you know what it's like to borrow money in front of some people who look down on me in the first place?

Brother Christopher, you will definitely think that I am self-inflicted. I love vanity and spend all my money, so I go to borrow money. When Galia said this, her voice was hoarse.

Christopher could hear it. Galia was very painful when she was describing this. At this moment, Christopher felt so bad for Galia.

He said sincerely: "Galia Yan, you are a good girl, a brave girl I have never seen before. "

Chapter 2568

Galia's eyes filled with tears: "No, I'm not a good girl, Christopher , I'm too confused.

I'm not sensible at all.

Brother Christopher, I deeply regret the things I've done for me.

You know, there is a saying that, in this world, poor people are bound to There is something hateful.

Do you know when I was the most pitiful?

Not when I was found to have faked my academic qualifications.

Not when I stood in front of the whole company's staff and started a fight against me.

It was... ....

but in order to satisfy my vanity, in order to support my poor face in front of my family and relatives, I went to ask my boss, the boss who hated me very much and despised me very much Borrow money.

Guess what? Remember that the boss of the website is once again in front of the whole company, then I will be an example. In front of the whole company, say that my fantasies are too sweet.

Say me, a box of elegant, unrealistic You know how embarrassing I was at that time?

You can't imagine. At that moment, I thought I was a sinner, I thought I was a terrible mess, I thought how could my character be so bad, I was so inferior... I'm not as good as one of the most common cleaners in my company. What's even more ridiculous is that I was trying to express my sincerity.

In order to let the whole company know that I have a heart of repentance, I said something that should not have been said in front of the whole company.

I said that I really had a bad influence on the company. Although I was a manager in the office, my character was not as good as that of a cleaner.

Because of this sentence, my mouth is on the staff of the whole company.

As soon as my words fell, countless voices scolded me directly.

Even insulting me directly.

They say me, what is it?

Said, who stipulated that the cleaner should be used by you as a metaphor?

what happened to the cleaner?

Our boss doesn't look down on our cleaners. You are such a poor woman, you deserve to be compared with the cleaners?

You are also an office manager.

Are you worthy?

Who doesn't know your degree is fake?

Who doesn't know, you borrow money everywhere, what do you borrow money for?

Boss, fire this woman!

Such a woman in our company is simply polluting the air of our company!

Brother Christopher, you know, at that time, at that time, at that time, how did I come here?

I'm really like a clown, I don't dare to cry, I don't dare to be angry, I don't dare to do anything, I just let everyone, wherever they accuse me.

My boss, watching from the side.

He said nothing.

It wasn't until everyone's anger was exhausted that my boss said to me, 'Galia, you have to make a statement, so many people are correcting your mistakes, in fact, they are all helping you, you have to recognize yourself Make mistakes, and then humbly ask for advice from the company, and learn slowly.

You have to show your attitude.

In front of the whole company, you make a statement. '''

Having said this, Galia's tears flowed out fiercely.

At this time, Christopher was just a listener, he didn't say anything, just frowned as a listener, and every now and then, he would pick up a tissue for Galia Wipe the tears.

Galia cried and cried.

Chapter 2569

The

kind of grievance is like a deep-rooted plant in her heart that cannot be pulled out.

"Brother Christopher, do you know what it's like to be brainwashed?" Galia raised her tears and looked at Christopher.

Christopher put Galia in his arms: "Tell me, who is that boss and where is he now?"

Galia shook her head and smiled bitterly: "Brother Christopher, don't blame that boss. Blame me. "

Christopher: "Don't talk about yourself like that, Galia!"

Galia shook her head firmly: "Brother Christopher, things have passed for so long, gradually, gradually I realized that some people may not become A white-collar worker, she is always on the front line of production. She is a little working girl at the bottom, but she can still live with the respect of others. Why is that? It is because she does not owe others, she is down-to-earth. She does not love vanity.

In a job position, she works hard to do it well, and uses her outstanding achievements to gain respect from others. She is not weak in her heart, and she never looks down on her situation.

Even temporarily She can endure being looked down upon, waiting for the cold winter to pass and the spring to come.

But I am not that kind of girl Christopher.

From the very beginning, when I went out to work, I had an idea in my heart that I would definitely go out to work. Looking for a job that can show my identity.

But, I never thought that my education level is not enough, and even if I was temporarily promoted to be a manager in the office, I didn't make any achievements.

Not only did I fail to get grades, I took the risk once again to get a fake degree.

My grades, and my fake degree, don't match.

This is the second step I went wrong.

The third step I took wrong, since the boss was harsh, but he finally left me, this is also an opportunity for me, I should think about it at that time, buy and work hard, and work hard Work done.

At that time, although I had no money, in addition to the money sent to my mother every month, I actually still had a few hundred yuan to cover my minimum living.

I shouldn't be comparing myself to others and overspending on so many beautiful clothes every month to satisfy my vanity.

At that time, I should work hard, learn my skills, learn a foreign language, and work hard to improve myself.

But I didn't do anything, and I didn't improve my abilities, so I went to ask my boss to borrow money.

Brother Christopher, I don't blame anyone else for this.

Blame myself.

I can't hate anyone.

It's just that the only thing I regret is that I shouldn't have been with that company at the time.

I should resign.

But I...

But I was overwhelmed by my boss's accusations and the company's various accusations at that time. I no longer had the courage, and I was so inferior that I didn't have the slightest opinion.

I obeyed my boss and stayed in the company and still in the office.

Still keeping me in charge of what I normally do.

At the time, I was grateful to my boss, and to be honest, it was a total throwback.

I think my boss is so nice, this is what gave me life.

I work hard, I usually do more work than others, and I also try my best not to make mistakes.

Although I have all kinds of vanity, all kinds of short-sighted knowledge, and I really have no education and no education, I have an innate advantage in learning business, and I learn very quickly.

The business I am in charge of is no worse than the people in my position.

Because the monthly business volume is allocated to everyone.

My degree of completion is not much at all every month.

But even so, I still find fault in every link, whether it is the sample room, the underground cutting room, or the finished product room, whenever there is a problem in every link, I will be questioned.

Their doubts about me were always blatant, and even when something was missing in the company, they directly named me and asked me if I stole it. Christopher suppressed the anger in his heart, and asked Galia gently, "It must not be you, right?" Later, things clarified? "
