

Chapter 589

Some of Moira's body was already rotten, and had just been covered with medicine.

"Mom!" Lanita suddenly cried, "My father beats this, why is he so vicious? He is so vicious on his wife?"

Moira smiled and shook her head: "I also beat your father hard."

"What! Where's my dad?" Lanita asked.

"Lying on your side."

Lanita rushed to her side with a vigorous stride, but saw that her father was covered with white sand cloth all over her head: "Dad? My mother beat it?"

Jarod said viciously: "It's all the wicked obstacles who provoked me and your mother."

"D*mn Suzi, I'm going to beat her alive!" Lanita gritted her teeth and cursed. She just walked into the house, grabbed her bag and went out again.

For nearly a month, Lanita was credited with taking care of Elder Shu, and Elder Shu went to Kyoto to praise Lanita in front of the dignitaries. All the dignitaries who made the appointment were willing to interact with Lanita.

Some gave Lanita a luxury car directly.

Lanita accepted it without hesitation.

At the same time, she could see from a deeper level that grandpa's power in Kyoto was so great that Lanita would return to Nancheng to make a big fuss again. I believe that as long as grandpa loves her, in Nancheng, she would say that she is Second sister.

No one dared to call herself a sister!

Arron?

She Lanita is not afraid!

Lanita ran out crying, grabbed the bag at the entrance, drove this big red sports car from Kyoto to Nancheng, and drove all the way to the construction company.

Lanita has always known that Suzi works here, and she is here today to give Suzi a surprise, a vicious dismissal!

Isn't Siu all defeated, so that Siu can't leave Nancheng within a short period of time?

Isn't the storm over, is it raining and clearing now?

Lanita sneered!

Others are afraid of you Suzi, I am not afraid of Lanita!

I came up without warning and beat you Suzi directly. This is called no fight for nothing!

At the entrance of the construction company, Lanita stabilized the car, then quickly took out a torn sole from the car, entered the elevator happily, and went upstairs.

When he came to the front desk, Lanita didn't even answer her greetings, so Lin walked directly to the design department with a shoe sole.

"Miss, miss, who are you looking for, how did you come in, you can't go in, who are you, we will call the police when you go forward!" The small front desk followed the angry Lanita all the way.

Lanita didn't look back.

"Miss! We call the police!" the small receptionist shouted again.

Lanita turned her head coldly: "My cousin Darius is the biggest shareholder here! And I, the granddaughter of Nancheng Shu Jiashu's grandson, who dares to stop me!"

After speaking, Lanita continued to walk in happily.

The small front desk continued to chase: "Ms. Lin, you can't go in. There are guests in the company today, so you can't go in."

Even with this, Lanita had already come to the design department.

She also carried a torn shoe sole that was about to hit Suzi.

However, she saw this scene before she came to the design department.

In front of him, Arron was holding a towel in his hand, very gently wiping the sweat from the tip of Suzi's nose.

Chapter 590

At this time, Arron was very gently wiping the beads of sweat from the tip of Suzi's nose.

His actions, for fear that the sweat beads on the tip of Suzi's nose would be alarmed, were all a little bit rubbed and rubbed, and his expression reflected his incomparable favor with Suzi.

Others are stunned.

Suzi himself was very indifferent.

She didn't get used to it very much in her heart, but since Arron came back from Kyoto these two days, it might be because of her guilt. He was surprisingly good to Suzi. Especially at home, he even personally washes Suzi's hair and bathes, and he washes her most secret parts carefully and gently.

After taking a shower for her, he would personally blow-dry her hair, hug her to sleep, and pillow his arm all night.

She is very used to him.

Even if he was afraid of him and couldn't guess him, Suzi became accustomed to it every day when facing the living Hades in the eyes of others.

Habit is a terrible thing.

For example, everyone is afraid of Arron's urinary tremor. He didn't even dare to breathe. Even if Arron's expression was exceptionally peaceful today, those people were still afraid of Arron that they were about to cry.

However, Suzi's expression was unusually flat.

He wiped her sweat, and she asked him, "Didn't you mean you came to the company to find me?"

"Yeah." The man continued to wipe her sweat.

"Then you don't take care of your business, what are you doing with me!" In her tone, it turned out to be a bit blaming.

Gosh!

This makes the people present, those executives, and those who are scared of cramping their legs and calves, how embarrassing it is.

What a shame!

"Don't want to disclose my relationship with you?" The man asked Suzi.

Suzi: "..."

"Still want to maintain the image of being single, attract more handsome guys, and let them revolve around you? So that I can have more competitors?"

Arron asked again.

Compete with you mmP!

"You are boring!" Suzi was furious.

Never did she feel like this moment, why is he so boring?

Isn't it a matter of managing everything every day, isn't the management time accurate to the second?

So free!

How can she work like this?

There are still several drawings on hand for everyone to review together!

He was fine, here while wiping her sweat, while asking such a boring topic.

Lifting his eyes helplessly and quietly, Suzi saw Lanita in the aisle far away.

Lanita's lips whispered, "Four... Fourth Master Fu, you... why are you here?"

Originally, Arron looked at Suzi peacefully. When he looked back at Lanita at this time, his expression was still calm, but it made people feel a sense of tension that the pores were shrinking: "Is it possible for anyone to come here? This company? I have to ask President Shu, if this is the case, I will consider not cooperating with this company."

Lanita was so frightened that she explained again and again: "No...no Fourth Master Fu, I..."
