

Chapter 895

However, I was also a little bit reluctant to Lenny.

Rayna looked at the three beauties in front of him with embarrassment.

At exactly this time, Arron's call came in, and Suzi immediately connected:
"Arron?"

"Come back, and bring my sister-in-law back home. Kraig is here." Arron said.

"Oh, well, I will go back now." Suzi said.

After closing the line, she looked at Rayna and said in an obedient tone:
"Rayna, you are not married yet, just follow Kraig and see what you will do if you get married in the future."

"Oh, Suzi." Rayna blushed suddenly.

"Okay, okay, I'm joking with you, go back quickly."

"Yeah!" Rayna blushed and went to call the taxi.

Suzi looked at Galia again, and Galia immediately ran and said, "No, Sister Suzi, don't you, I won't go to your house, if my cousin finds out that I will go to your house, my cousin dare to beat me. ."

After saying a word, Galia had already taken a taxi and ran away.

"You die girl, just run away after taking advantage..." Suzi laughed and cursed behind him.

Reluctantly, she could only take the only one and Dalia home.

As soon as he walked in, Dalia felt the extremely strong family atmosphere.

The large flat-floor living room is full of children's playfulness.

"Aunt Shanshan, do you like my house?" Lilly held Dalia's hand and asked this and that. At this moment, Lilly and Dalia are better than his mother.

Suzi followed behind, carrying large and small bags.

When she saw Kraig sitting in the living room, she immediately said: "Mr. Jun, let's eat here today."

"That's what I think." Kraig was rude.

Dalia looked back at Kraig: "Kraig, is this... appropriate?"

"You're a sister-in-law, you can cook this meal today." Kraig smiled.

Dalia blushed slightly when he mentioned the word "sister-in-law".

Hearing this name, her heart was still quite warm.

In fact, apart from not giving her status and not letting her have children for her, Kraig treated her very well.

"Well, I'm cooking today." Dalia readily agreed, and then asked: "What do you guys want to eat? What kind of food do you have at home?"

"Report Sister-in-law, I want to eat steamed shrimp." Suzi raised his hand and said.

Today I ate a bit oily in the Food City, and now I want to eat something lighter.

"I want to eat some fire dragon fire salad." Lilly also raised his hand to report a dish.

Two men, you look at me and I look at you, and then the colleague said: "Whatever!"

"Whatever, it depends on my own mood." Dalia was very happy. She had already taken the apron from the domestic helper Li's wife. She tightened the kitchen with a smile. She didn't forget to turn around and say to them: "You all sit down. Play in the living room."

Play.

Suzi really can't.

As soon as she sat down, Arron said to her: "Suzi, pack up tonight, and tomorrow we will go to Jiaying Island."

Chapter 896

Suzi was immediately taken aback: "Why is it so fast?"

Although she had always known that Arron was going, and that Arron had been conspiring in the company for a while, she did not expect it to be so soon.

"Both..." Suzi asked slightly worried: "Are you all ready?"

She didn't see Arron preparing to fight.

Arron smiled and asked, "What do you want to prepare?"

Suzi: "Don't you need force? Every aspect?"

Arron laughed: "I went to Gasing Island. One was not to burn, kill and loot, but not to seize someone's property, and third, not to take it forcibly, so there was no need for those."

When he heard Arron say this, Suzi didn't understand: "Then..."

She had always thought that Arron was going to capture the entire Gasing Island.

Arron sighed: "The current monarch of Gasing Island is the Pan family. As early as fifty years ago, the Pan family was only the second family on Gasing Island. At that time, Gasing Island was not developed. So there is such a good prospect for later development because the Fu family in Nancheng went there to invest and then took a lot of advanced technology to where it was, which allowed the Jiaying Island in the small land to prosper."

Suzi had heard of Gasing Island.

It is indeed a small place.

Gasing Island is not even as big as half of Nancheng.

"Then what?" Suzi asked.

"Fifty years ago, the monarch of Gasing Island was surnamed Xia." Arron said quietly.

Suzi: "...Could it be..."

"Yes!" Arron's eyes had distant memories: "Fifty years ago, the island owner of Gasing Island was my grandfather Xia Jingzhong. My grandfather had a very large family in his early years, and Gasing Island was bought by them alone. It came out of the wasteland. At that time, it was the Pan family who bought the Canadian Star Island in a joint venture with them. However, the Pan family only paid 20% of the money, and the Xia family paid 80% of the money."

Suzi: "That's it."

"Later, the Fu family arrived on the island. For unknown reasons, they overthrew the Xia family, and then vigorously recommended the Pan family to take over as the monarch. The Xia family, the old and the young, plus the domestic helper Hundreds of people just flee and die to death. Grandpa and grandma have many children throughout their lives, but in the end, only my mother survived."

Hearing this, Suzi felt extremely heavy: "Arron..."

"At that time, my mother was only ten years old. Fortunately, my grandparents left her a sum of money to support her studying abroad and the best school. After graduation, my mother returned to Gasing Island, although she was not there. It's the princess of Gasing Island, but she just wanted to find a job in her hometown. When she was twenty-six years old, her mother met her father on Gasing Island."

When it comes to these, Arron's entire face is dimmed.

Kraig knows all these past events.

Therefore, when Arron said this to Suzi, Kraig kept silent.

When Suzi listened, the whole person was stunned.

Shanna's mother loves Fu Zhengxiong, and Suzi has always known it.

However, Shanna's mother never told Suzi about her and Fu Zhengxiong.

Knowing this time, Suzi heard Arron's heavy heart.

Fu Zhengxiong was the largest investor from Nancheng to Gasing Island at that time. The prosperity that the Fu family brought to Gasing Island was that the people of Gasing Island regarded the Fu family as a god, and Shanna, who had just returned to the island at that time, thought very much. Pure, she is poor and white, with nothing to rely on. How can a little girl who only wants to make a big splash in architecture can withstand the pursuit of a successful person like Fu Zhengxiong?

Before long, Shanna fell in love.

Then, Shanna became pregnant.
