

Chapter: 1423

Although he knew that Lin Fan would certainly be on the same footing in the future, he didn't expect that Lin Fan's identity would be so exaggerated!

It turned out to be one of the eight patron saints of China?

This is incredible!

Lin Fan smiled and nodded:

“Yes, that's why I can arrange for you to enter the wedding banquet in Lin Zuo!”

Wow!

Upon hearing this, everyone was in an uproar and completely reacted.

Lin Fan is not bragging!

He is really capable of allowing the Li family to enter the wedding banquet of Lin Zuo, after all, he is the god of war.

God of War can't enter, so who else is qualified to enter?

They understood everything. It turned out that this was what Lin Fan meant as a vagrant. He was already a god of war, so where did he still need to work?

“Good! Good! I know my son is not an ordinary person! Good!”

Li Xiuyun's eyes were red with excitement, and he could only say yes, and he didn't know what to use to describe his mood.

Lin Fan, let him down!

On the contrary, it exceeded his expectations!

For a long time, Wang Yanli and Li Xian said that he had eyes and no beads, and they thought that Lin Fan could have a great future, but now?

Who dares to say that he has no eyes?

Lao Tzu is a wise eye and bead!

At this time, Li Xiuyun only felt that Lin Fan's ambition had brought him supreme glory and made him burst into tears with joy.

Mars?

Directly under Lin Zuo!

Based on the relationship between their Li family and Lin Fan, let Lin Fan recommend Lin Zuo. Isn't that a matter of minutes?

And the neighbors present are also very regretful!

After all, they and Lin Fan are old acquaintances. If Lin Fan was asked to recommend him cheeky, he should not be embarrassed to refuse, right?

But now, it's too late to say anything!

They insulted Lin Fan and cut off this last chance!

That's a dignified God of War!

Later, they are said to be relatives and friends of God of War, neighbors in the neighborhood, who would dare to insult them?

At the moment, the faces of those relatives, friends, and neighbors in the neighborhood are successively carrying heavy regrets.

And this time!

Lin Fan put an invitation letter on the table and said with a smile:

“Uncle Li, this is an invitation letter for the wedding banquet. With this invitation letter, your family can go directly to the infield and see Lin Zuo directly!”

“I can see that you are busy today, so we will drink the bar another day!”

Talking!

He was taken out of Li's house by Baihu under the gaze of everyone's regretful eyes!

At this time, Li Xian finally woke up like a dream, followed by like crazy, stumbled to the table, and opened the invitation letter!

“Golden Letter!”

Li Xian was completely desperate and recognized this invitation letter at a glance.

Immediately afterwards, her delicate body was shaky, and she fell to the ground feebly, muttering to herself as if she had lost her soul:

“It's really a golden letter, an invitation letter from the infield!”

She knows it very well!

Even Zhou Peize was just an invitation letter from the outfield, but Lin Fan...

No need to say anything, the facts are already in sight, Lin Fan is indeed the God of War!

The man she despised, now I'm afraid that she won't even look at her straight, but she actually has the face to insult him?

That's ridiculous!

Li Xian nowadays, can't wait to find a hole to drill, she guessed that Lin Fan was treating her like a clown at the time, right?

Own, actually missed a god of war?

Not to mention her, even Wang Yanli's heart is full of regret, that is the God of War!

The mighty God of War!

Marry him, his Li family must be among the first-tier giants!

But since childhood, she looked down on Lin Fan, and even more disagreed with Li Xiuyun's beating Li Xian to Lin Fan. Now it seems that she has no eyes!

At this time, both the mother and daughter had the urge to cry, and the expressions on their faces were terminally ill, full of despair.

But at this time, Li Xiuyun sneered and looked at Li Xian coldly:

“I regret it now? It's too late!”

“If you were nice to Xiaofan before, even if he despised you, but at least your nominal brother and sister of God of War, he would treat you badly?”

“At that time, did our Li family still need to rely on other brothers for charity?”

Speaking of this, Li Xiuyun shook his head because he hated iron and steel.

“Now, it's too late to say anything! From now on...”

“You have nothing to do with you anymore!”
