

Chapter: 1458

If Wang Feifei insulted her, that would be fine, but she happened to insult Lin Fan.

Lin Fan came to help her, but she repeatedly forgave those who insulted Lin Fan. Isn't this slap Lin Fan in the face?

Upon hearing this, Wang Feifei's whole body suddenly seemed to be frozen, and even Zhang Yichen was unwilling to intercede for her, and then she was completely finished.

Wang Feifei regretted it.

It should not be arrogant, nor should it be so overwhelming.

As a result, she was retributed, and even Lin Zuo personally opened her mouth to block her, then she would never stand up again in her life.

Then, Lin Fan looked at Li Quan:

"I want to borrow your office!"

With that said, he looked at the Dragon Tooth members:

"You guys, come with me!"

Those Longya members followed Lin Fan into the office and closed the door at the same time.

Puff!

Puff!

Immediately afterwards, kneeling on the ground one by one, the big man took the lead and said:

"The Dragon Tooth Legion, Kou Jianghuai, beg Lin Zuo to serve as the Chief Instructor of the Dragon Tooth!"

And the only female fighter also shouted excitedly:

"The Dragon Tooth Legion, Solanum, I implore Lin Zuo to serve as the Chief Instructor of the Dragon Tooth!"

All the members of the Dragon Tooth Legion yelled together, with deep respect on their faces.

Ok?

Lin Fan frowned and looked back at them:

"reason?"

Solanum hesitated for a moment, and said truthfully:

"Next month, it will be China's annual Legion competition, and the Owl Legion has won the championship for three consecutive years. We will not let them continue to win the championship in any case this year!"

When Lin Fan heard it, he understood.

The Dragon Tooth Legion and the Owl Legion have never been at peace, and there have even been conflicts and deaths due to this.

Back then, during a border guard, the Dragon Tooth Legion desperately resisted the opponent's 10,000 people with a number of 1,000 people.

The Owl Legion, which was a reinforcement force, was clearly stationed ten miles away, but it was too late to support it. They watched the Dragon Tooth Legion all die to death before appearing and repelling the enemy.

The reason is that no one can fight against them for military merit!

As a result, the people of the Dragon Tooth Legion died, but all the credit went to the Owl Legion, and even the Dragon Tooth Legion was notoriously infamous.

It was also from that time that the two legions had forged feuds!

However, Lin Fan was indifferent and said nonchalantly:

"Let's go, the Dragon and Tiger Legion never intervenes in the grievances between other legions. I am not interested in your little mess, and I don't want to get involved in the fight between you.

Dragon Tiger Legion is an extremely special existence among all legions.

They do not obey the orders of any party, let alone participate in internal struggles, because they only obey one person...

That is Lin Fan!

The Dragon and Tiger Corps have never participated in legion battles, but they have never dared to look down upon them.

Even the Owl Legion, which was the number one consecutive legion, had been ordered by the opponent, and in any case was not allowed to provoke the Dragon and Tiger Legion.

Because in this legion, it is really Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon, and there are many extremely terrifying existences hidden.

but!

Although Lin Fan is not afraid of the Owl Legion, he does not want to establish such a great enemy for himself for no reason!

Moreover, among all the legions of China, apart from some friendship with Nihuang's Northern Army, the other legions have never had any contacts.

The other party wanted to use him as a swordsman, it was a joke!

Upon hearing this, Solanum and others were immediately anxious, and said in amazement:

"As a soldier, don't you think what the Owl Legion has done is shameful?"

She originally thought that an existence like Lin Zuo should be hateful and hateful.

Like them, hate the despicable Owl Legion.

But Lin Fan smiled contemptuously and looked at the nightshade with an idiotic look:

"Are you joking? I have a family and a room now. Do you think I will abandon this stable life, but fight with you?"

Dragon Kwai's body was shocked, but he still said unwillingly:

"If you are worried about your family, then my Longya can assure you that as long as you promise to serve as our chief instructor, all our warriors in Longya will unconditionally protect your family!"

They must win the forest seat!

This is the only instruction given to them last time.

Because Lin Zuo is the youngest and best army seat in China, only if he serves as the chief instructor of Longya, can they have the hope of defeating Xiaoxiao.

Lin Fan just shook his head and said indifferently:

"You can go now."

But at this moment, Kou Jianghuai stood up and looked at Lin Fan with a playful expression:

"Lin Zuo, you will definitely agree!"
