Chapter: 1576

what!

Lin Fan and the others suddenly changed their expressions, and their complexions instantly became unsightly.

"Wife, what's wrong with you?"

I was so happy just now, why is it suddenly like this now?

"Just now the company called and said that the vaccine we produced was forcibly detained when it was in the customs!"

"Those vaccines were produced in an emergency, but they are timeeffective! The shelf life is only one week. If they are not sold as soon as possible, they will all lose their effectiveness!"

"For this batch of vaccines, we have invested all funds into production.

If all these vaccines expire, we will be completely bankrupt!"

Bai Yi is almost limp to the ground!

"how so?"

Lin Fan frowned and said angrily:

"Long Jiu clearly said before that he will fully open the green channel for you. How come you get stuck at the pass?"

Bai Yi shook his head crying:

"I don't know, I'm sorry Lin Fan, I let you down!"

"I...I want to do something in front of you to make you proud of me, but...but..."

She was sobbed that she couldn't even speak.

Ugh!

Lin Fan sighed, then hugged her tightly in his arms:

"Fool, what's the big deal about this, I'll fix it!"

"you?"

Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan suspiciously, then shook his head:

"No way, now we don't have enough funds to continue production, and all the 10 billion investment has been lost!"

At this time, their capital chain has been completely broken. Where is there a way to find money again for production?

Furthermore, the reason for being detained by the customs is still unknown. Even if it is re-produced in the future, there is no guarantee that it will not be detained again.

"Isn't there a Mayweather here? He is our partner now, a grasshopper on a rope, how could he watch the new white cash cow fall?"

Lin Fan smiled and comforted. Mayweather quickly came up to show his loyalty, saying:

"Miss Bai Yi, please rest assured, I still have a certain degree of influence in the international arena. I will definitely resolve this matter!"

But he said in his heart, your husband is the king of the dignified blood prison, a man known as the king of kings, and what things he can't solve? This!

A hint of hope finally appeared in Bai Yi's eyes, gratefully said:

"Mr. Mayweather, are you really willing to help us through this crisis? If you save our Xinbaishi, you will be Xinbaishi's strategic partner in the future!" boom!

Mayweather's heart jumped suddenly, as if his brain was about to explode. What new Bai's partner, he doesn't care at all, what he cares about is Bai Yi's identity! If you want to become Bai Yi's partner, won't you have more opportunities to contact Lin Fan? Thinking of this, he was so excited that he was about to pee!

"Benefactor, benefactor!" "Miss Bai Yi, don't worry, my Mayweather will spare no effort, and I will definitely help you solve this problem! "

This! Bai Yi's family looked at each other, obviously begging Mayweather to save them. Why is Mayweather looking grateful? "It's not too late, let's start now!"

Lin Fan said with a smile, naturally knowing why Mayweather is so excited.

"Wife, you and your parents live here first, and then wait for my good news!" With that, he left with Mayweather.
