

Chapter: 1661

boom!

At this moment, Huo Dongying's scalp was numb, and the feeling of anxiety was intense at this moment.

He looked at Lin Fan in horror, he couldn't even speak at this moment. As long as he dares to speak again, the man in front of him will tear the corpse into pieces.

at this time!

In his eyes, Lin Fan looked like a peerless beast, terrifying!

"Lin Fan, what are you pretending to be a big-tailed wolf? Have you forgotten how I was fattened by me back then? Would you like me to review it for you?"

suddenly!

A young man stepped forward and looked at Lin Fan with contempt, with a provocative sneer at the corner of his mouth.

"Lin Fan, you still got through my crotch back then, do you remember? Slightly!"

"The waste still wants to show off? I immediately knelt down and apologized to Huo Dongying, or I won't let you go around!"

"Who allowed you to come here? Get out of here!"

One by one, Ge Bai Fumei stepped forward to insult Lin Fan.

Liu Xi!

Liang Guodong!

Song Shoushan!

.....

Looking at these familiar figures, Lin Fan sneered in his heart.

Sure enough, it's not that the enemy doesn't meet together!

The rich second generation in front of him had bullied and humiliated him before.

Because more than half of these people in front of them are the three big brothers of the Lin family, they like to abuse Lin Fan for pleasure on weekdays.

It's just that it was childhood!

Originally, Lin Fan thought that after so many years, these people should have changed, but who would have thought that they would be exactly the same as before, mean and domineering!

But I still want to slam him on the soles of my feet like before!

"Tsk tsk tsk tsk, Lin Fan, I haven't seen you for many years. You are still the same virtue as you were back then. I also heard that you became a door-to-door son-in-law. You are really promising!"

Liu Xi wriggled her hips and walked up, and at the same time looked at Lin Fan contemptuously:

"I remember when you were a kid, you wrote a love letter to me. It's disgusting to think about it now."

"You rubbish, worthy of writing a love letter to me? I am fond of cats and dogs, but I also despise you!"

Liu Xi's expression was perverted, and there was a thick ridicule in her eyes.

Fortunately, her parents planned to marry her and Lin Fan when she was young. Fortunately, she resisted desperately, and finally escaped.

If this were to marry this trash, he would be dragged down by him, and it would become the most comical joke in the entire capital!

"Lin Fan, give us a good talk, isn't the soft rice particularly fragrant?"

Liang Guodong also stood up and laughed loudly.

"Lin Fan, I heard your wife cuckold you everywhere, but you don't care at all, is it true?"

One by one, the elder brothers sneered and humiliated, as if not stomping Lin Fan on the soles of their feet, it seemed that they would not give up.

however!

What disappointed them was that Lin Fan didn't even have a reaction, and he was still laughing?

Moreover, it is even more exaggerated!

The smile on his face was full of sarcasm and playfulness, as if laughing at them.

Is this guy looking down on them?

What right does a little white face who eat soft rice have to look down on them?

At the moment, Huo Dongying and the others' faces suddenly sank, and a burst of anger suddenly ignited in their eyes.

But just when they were about to spray manure with their mouths full again, Lin Fan spoke at this moment.

With a playful expression on his face, he looked at Huo Dongying and other wealthy second generations with a caring look at the mentally retarded, and smiled:

"You are also invited here?"

"Nonsense! We are not only invited by Yao Lao, but also intend to reach a long-term cooperation with Yao Lao, and make more contributions to China's medical industry!"

Huo Dongying coldly snorted, a sense of pride spontaneously, as if he were a national hero.

"Huo Dongying, why are you talking so much nonsense with him? This waste probably doesn't understand what you are talking about. A waste that only knows about eating and waiting to die, how can you know the rise and fall of a nation and revitalize China?"

Liu Xi's contemptuous sarcasm.

However, Lin Fan was still alive, and instead laughed.

It's just that smile, but it's gloomy to the extreme!

"That's really a pity, because you can get out now!"
