

King of kings

omi discovered that the ruins, which seemed to be a palace complex that was tens of kilometers in radius, was wrapped in a black shield. There were only two openings, and for some unknown reason, they cracked. One of the openings was bigger, on the south side of the palace, while the other was only a little bit cracked, and it was omi who got in.

After omi got into that opening, he jumped down from the roof of the palace, his entrance, which happened to be at the roof of a certain palace.

omi stood on the ground of that palace, feeling that the air carried an eternal smell, it was an indescribable feeling, as if no one had come for a long, long time to have this ancient and eternal smell!

omi surveyed the palace, and in front of it, there was a statue placed.

"A statue?"

What made omi strange was that the statue, carved was not a human, not sure what class it was, omi had never seen this kind of creature before.

However, omi intuitively felt that this kind of creature would be very strong in battle, because his appearance was very strong.

omi didn't find anything strange, there was nothing strange about the world.

omi walked up and touched the statue.

Suddenly, omi had an electric shock-like feeling.

"Ah." omi let go of the statue in a panic. First URL m.kanshu8.net

"What's going on?" omi was shocked, could this statue still be alive?

omi touched that statue again.

The electric sensation of touching it appeared again, and, in that sensation, there seemed to be a message.

"Barang and look at Hagorian splash wax mooshang."

omi's eyebrows furrowed, "What does it mean?"

omi couldn't understand what the incoming message meant.

omi didn't want to waste time and looked elsewhere, he had to get some sort of head start before the others came in.

However, what omi didn't know was that people from other forces couldn't enter.

Right now, at the other entrance.

The fight was unstoppable.

"Bill, block the entrance, don't let anyone in."

"Yang Hua, guard it."

"Gu Yue Ming, I'll cover, you must go in first."

"Want to go in, no way."

"This relic belongs to the Immortal Court, you troublemakers, don't even think about it."

But whenever one person was about to go in, there would immediately be seven or eight other forces pulling him down.

In mid-air, the Immortal Emperor saw that no one from the Immortal Court had gone in after so long, and became angry, "You sons of bitches, you dare to go against this Emperor."

A strong man sneered, "What are you, you really think you're heavenly, but just a stupid pig who obtained the King of Immortal Emperors by luck."

"Fayan, don't you dare say that again." The Immortal Emperor raged at the man.

"Sorry, my name isn't Fayan, my name is Fa Wu Tian."

"Looking for death."

"Haha, if you have the guts to fight me without using the Hong Meng Heart, I guarantee I'll tear you into hundreds of pieces."

At this time, the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage also laughed, "Fa Wu Tian, if you want to fight someone, add me to the list."

"Fine, Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage, it seems like it's been a long time since we taught someone a little lesson."

"Hahaha."

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage and Fa Wu Tian joined hands and charged towards the Immortal Emperor.

However, at that moment, the Three-Eyed War God stopped the front and said, "Trying to insult Immortal Emperor, it's up to you."

Throughout the entrance, the fight was extremely intense.

No one had been able to enter the relics since the beginning.

omi alone could have slept at the ruins first.

Unfortunately, omi didn't know that and thought that the others had also entered, but in a different direction.

omi left the first palace he entered and arrived in a courtyard.

There was a well in the courtyard.

Right now, there was a layer of faint light at the mouth of that well.

"Huh." omi felt that light was somewhat familiar.

Immediately, he approached and looked into the well.

"Wow damn."

omi saw that in the bottom of the well, the liquid that resembled water was all Hong Meng Qi liquid, and some of it had vaporized and dispersed to the wellhead.

"Oh my god, so much Hongshen Qi? A whole well?"

omi was pleasantly surprised, Hong Meng Qi was not something that could be gotten casually, in the Immortal Court, one could only get a drop by fighting to the death for a hundred thousand years, but right now, a well was all.

omi immediately sucked hard, and wow, like a heavenly dragon sucking water, all of the Hong Meng Qi liquid in the well entered omi's spatial ring.

"Haha, I didn't expect that I got so much Hongyi, it's worthy of being a Beginning Ancient Relic, it's really trembling."

omi didn't know that the Beginning Ancient Relic was the second era ah after the beginning of the universe, at that time, humans hadn't even appeared yet. If it was the Hongmeng Era, these Hongmeng Qi were just water at that time, and the water that the creatures drank was the Hongmeng Qi liquid.

omi didn't leave a single drop behind, and then immediately searched elsewhere, must find as much as possible, so as to make the trip worthwhile.

Thanks to omi's foresight, he found other entrances, otherwise he would still be blocked at the entrance at the moment.

At this moment, at the entrance, there was still a hot fight.

No one was willing to let anyone in, selfishness was really scary, and they all wanted to keep it all to themselves.

Fortunately, they didn't know that there were already people inside, or else they wouldn't be in the mood to fight here.

In the sky, the Immortal Emperor's flesh was smashed twice by the Ten Thousand Violet Sage.

However, Immortal Emperors with the Heart of the Hong Meng, whose bodies immediately polymerized as soon as they were smashed, seemed to be immortal.
