"Oh." omi laughed and asked, "Then what's the point of telling me that, you still don't want to be my daughter-in-law just the same."

Shen Ni said, "At least, I'm not as resistant to you now as I was before, but to accept it right away, I don't think I can do it. If you're really persistent, I can give you the chance to touch me slowly, and maybe someday I'll be so completely moved by you that I'll be willing to be your daughter-in-law. Of course, I'm just saying maybe, can't give you any guarantees. If you're willing, I can be friends with you now for a while, if you're not, then be my guest." After saying that, Godni let omi make his own choice.

omi said, "A fool wouldn't be willing."

"Alright then, from today onwards, I accept you as a friend. Alright, you can leave if you want."

"Hey, you're being unkind, since you've accepted to be friends with me, you're even chasing me away? I definitely want to stay by your side, or how else will my relationship with you progress?"

"This."

"Of course, I won't bother you."

"But."

"But what? Is what you call a friend just a verbal friend. If you really can't, you come with me and make a career with me."

"I'm not interested." Shenny knew at once what business Don omi was talking about.

"Then what do you do every day?" Don omi asked. Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

"Cultivate."

"You're already at the level of a High Immortal, why are you still cultivating, is there one stronger than a High Immortal?"

"You're alone in this, the Blue Emperor is also at the High Immortal level, but his strength is more than ten thousand times that of mine, why is there such a big difference in strength when everyone belongs to the High Immortal level?"

"That, indeed, I don't know."

"omi, go back, it's very boring for you to live with me, if you come to the South Sea in the future, I will never hide from you."

omi said, "But now the Immortal Emperor is hunting for me, Fa Wu Tian, and the Old King of Green Man are also looking for me. I just want to raise my strength now, to the point where I can stand up to them."

"Strength isn't so easy to raise."

"I want to enter the No Man's Land to train." omi said.

"You almost died just now, and you're going to a no-man's land." Godni scolded.

omi sighed, "I did almost die just now, I don't even know how."

The South Sea Divine Nun said, "omi, listen to me, don't go to the uninhabited area, unless you've reached the Blue Emperor's level of strength, you're really just looking for death."

omi was curious, "Once you reach the Blue Emperor level, you can go to the uninhabited area?"

"I'm not sure, but at least, when you reach the Blue Emperor's level, you won't be in danger of your life if you enter the No Man's Land. Do you know why almost no one has ever seen a strong person at the Blue Emperor's level, because they just live somewhere in the No Man's Land, and they rarely go to the Immortal Realm. In the future, if you do reach that level of strength, go back to the No Man's Land and make your way there, or even, find out the secrets of the No Man's Land."

"What are the secrets of the No Man's Land?"

"I don't know, you just came across it at the bottom of the sea, no man's land is by no means really no man's land, there were once many, many species in this world, and then they all disappeared, no one knows what happened, and it was only after the third era, after the beginning of heaven and earth, that humans appeared. But one never knows what happened to those once vanished eras."

"Oh."

"omi, the Immortal Emperor wants to arrest you, I can't do anything about it, although the Immortal Emperor doesn't dare to mess with me, it doesn't mean he's afraid of me. As for Fa Wu Tian and the Green Man Old King and the others, I can't do anything about it, I'm as strong as Fa Wu Tian as well as Much, the Old King of Green Man is much stronger than me."

omi was busy saying, "I have a treasure that was snatched away by Fa Wu Tian, it's a divine weapon, if you can help me get it back, I'm willing to give that treasure to you. It's now in Fa Wu Tian's hands, but he doesn't know the spell, so it's equal to useless."

"What treasure?"

"I can take someone away with a single incantation."

"Ah, isn't this the legendary Drykas Artifact?"

"Anyway, if you want to, if you possess this kind of treasure, then, Fa Wu Tian, the Green Man Old King, or your opponent?"

"Definitely not, but I'm afraid I won't be able to grab it."

omi hesitated and said, "Alright, I have a total of three of those divine treasures, and I still have two on me, so I'll give you one first, and you go and collect Fa Wu Tian and force him to hand it over."

"Good." After saying that, omi took out a basin, however, there were many Immortal Immortals locked up in the basin at the moment.

"Why is there someone in there?"

"I collected them before, and although I can collect them, I can't kill them, or you can help me exterminate them."

After saying that, omi chanted an incantation, and the people who were collected in the basin all appeared in the same place.

omi said, "Divine Nun, kill them, they are all immortal generals who went to annihilate the French Dynasty last time."

The dozens of people who had been released immediately said, "Senior Divine Nun, spare their lives."

"Senior Godni, we've been imprisoned for millions of years, please don't kill us."

Godni sighed, "You guys go back, I won't kill you, but don't kill omi either."

"Definitely."

However, omi was not happy.

"Divine Nun, you're wrong, if you let them go, wouldn't the secrets I carry be known to the Immortal Emperor as well."

The divine nun said, "As long as you take it out and use it, sooner or later, you'll know about it, unless you plan to never use it. These people are nothing more than people driven by the Immortal Court to spare them."

"Shit."

omi snorted, "Get lost, go back and tell the Immortal Emperor that the divine nun is my daughter-in-law, and tell him to be careful."

"omi, you." The divine nun's brows furrowed.

"What? You don't admit it, ah."

Godni lowered his head, hesitated, and said to the dozens of Immortal Generals, "omi was right, I did indeed marry him."

"Ah." Those dozens of Immortal Generals trembled, not knowing what kind of virtue omi had to be able to pay his respects to a divine nun.

This was, a woman that even the Immortal Emperor couldn't marry if he wanted to.

Back then, the Immortal Emperor also wanted to marry the divine nun, but he was rejected.

omi smiled heedlessly, and the divine nun didn't even deny it, he even admitted it of his own accord.

"Don't get out yet."

"Yes, thank you for not killing me." The dozens of Immortal Generals ran away in panic, and after the robbery, they had no hope.

It was expected that the Immortal Emperor would soon learn about the divine weapons that omi possessed, as well as omi's marriage to the Divine Nun.

I just don't know, when the Immortal Emperor learns of this, will he stop killing omi for the sake of Shenni's face, or will he become even angrier and more scrupulous, thus hunting omi even more vigorously?
