"Ah, then Tzu-Chen just went to the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage, wouldn't it be."

"Don't worry, he will protect himself, the most important thing now is us, protect ourselves first, so as not to distract Omi."

At this moment, Omi's body trembled, and he just happened to hide in the Qiankun stone.

"Fuck." Omi cursed in a fiery voice, and in the next second, Omi left the Qiankun Stone in an instant, just as the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage seemed to be looking for Omi's trail.

"Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage, f*ck you." Omi shouted and struck at the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage with a sword at close range.

However, the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage was known to be physically hard.

Omi's sword slash didn't have much effect.

Omi could still only use the long-range attack method.

"Dang dang dang." A sound of a sword colliding with the body.

Omi always attacked from a distance of a thousand meters away from the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage, a distance where it was difficult for the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage to hurt Omi, and Omi could unilaterally hang the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage.

Although the Ten Thousand Violet Great Saint's body was extremely hard, it couldn't carry Omi's continuous slashes. The first website m.kanshu8.net

Ten minutes later, the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage was already drenched in blood, and if he continued, Omi would likely destroy his flesh.

"Stop." The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage shouted.

Only then did Omi stop.

"I've lost." The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage said in frustration.

"No, I'm not that great, at least I don't dare to get close to you, and I defeated the Three-Eyed War God and the others in the same remote manner." Omi said modestly, Omi didn't think he was powerful, if he got close, Omi would definitely not be a match for the Three-Eyed War God and the others, after all, the difference between a Beginning Immortal and a Higher Immortal couldn't be bridged.

"A loss is a loss, nattering fart."

"Fine."

"Omi, I'm willing to help you seize the heavens."The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage said.

"How to seize it?"Omi asked.

"You have the Exquisite Heart in you, right."The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage asked.

"Sorry, no."

"How is it possible, how can you shield the Immortal Emperor's senses without you?"

"Because I have fused a divine weapon with me, the Overturning Mirror, it's the Overturning Mirror that makes Immortal Emperors unable to sense existence, you should know that those divine weapons that appeared earlier, Immortal Emperors are also unable to sense existence."

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage was jaw-dropping.

"So, I can't kill the Immortal Emperor at all."Omi said.

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage snorted bitterly, "It seems that I overestimated you, and your future will be just like ours, just a small power in the Earth Immortal Realm."

Omi said, "That's not necessarily the case, I will definitely kill the Immortal Court in the future, and when I become a High Immortal, you will be no match for me at all."

"So what, you still won't become an Immortal Emperor, don't ask me why."

"I don't believe it."Omi said under his breath.

Gao Xiaolian and Shenni flew up.

"What's wrong with you two?Why the fight?"

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage saw the Divine Nun and yowled, "I never thought that the once as cold as the South Sea Divine Nun would have the day to submit to a man's feet."

The divine nun's brows furrowed and warned, "Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage, if you continue to be sarcastic, don't blame me for being rude."

"Fine, fine, who let me not even beat Omi now."

"Good to know."

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage looked at Omi and said, "Now that your power has far surpassed mine, are you going to continue to live in the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain?"

"Next, I'm going to claim the throne, I haven't found a plot of land yet, what does the Great Sage have to offer?"

Omi asked.

"I don't have any advice, remember to inform me on the day you call yourself king."

"Thank you Great Sage for holding the court, I will definitely notify you."

"I'm going to close the door, no matter when you leave, I'm not sending you off."

"Go."

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage looked at the mountain that had split into two pieces and flew to one side of it, shouting, and hardened the two split mountains together.

The Great Sage really had the power to move mountains.

Omi said, "Let's go, it's really time for us to find our own place."

Shenny asked, "Do you really plan to be king?"

"Or else, where in the world is our home? What, Kit, you still don't support me?"

Shenny said, "Since I'm already your woman, I will naturally give you my full support, I used to be alone, but it doesn't matter if I have my own place or not, now that I'm with you, I should really have my own place."

"Haha, very good, thanks for your support, Xiao Yue, how about you?"

"I'm just like Sister Kit, too." High.

"Oh, Jie-san? It's nice to be sisterly so soon."

"Ouch your head." Shenny glared at Don Omi.

"Hahaha." Omi laughed.

Back home, Omi called everyone together.

"Everyone, today, we're officially leaving the Ten Thousand Purple Mountains."

"Where to?"

"I don't know, let's see where there's a suitable territory for us, or, we'll just take over wherever we like." Omi said lightly, this would have been something that he wouldn't have dared to think about at one time, but now, it was finally possible, after so much struggle, he could finally become an overlord.

"But, I'm in the Great Sage's disciple, do I go too?" Mu Qianji said full of hesitation.

"Although you're the Great Sage's disciple, you're even more my wife, of course you're coming with me, the Great Sage won't blame you, besides, in the future, our forces, and the Great Sage's forces will have to take care of each other."

"Then I'll go and say goodbye to my master."

"No need, he's already closed."

"Oh." Mu Qianji sighed.

"Let's go."

Omi left with a group of people, and the son of the previous lady, Lao Xiaojun, also followed Mu Qianji, and Lao Xiaojun had officially worshipped Mu Qianji as his master.

Unfortunately, it was not easy to find a suitable place to claim the throne.

They had been running for a month in a row, but they hadn't found a place to call their own.

"Omi, exactly what kind of place would suit you here where the mountains and water are just fine." Tang Huan said, pointing at the piece of mountains and rivers beneath his feet.

Omi snorted, "Mountains and clear water are meaningless, immortal energy must be sufficient, in addition, the location must be good for future development, sooner or later we will have to build an army, in case the Immortal Emperor rises one day and sends troops to attack, or, in case the strength of the Immortal Court increases greatly again."

"Alright."

Omi searched and searched, and finally, he found a place that he was quite satisfied with.

That place was precisely the Northern Clubhouse Continent.

Omi said, "Let's do it here, and by the way, let's turn the Immortal Academy into our place as well. What do you guys think?"

The divine nodded, "After looking at so many places, this is good, and it's centrally located, going to the nearest place in all directions, except that most of the other powers choose places on the edges, but we choose the central area with a prosperous location, I'm afraid the Immortal Court will mind very much."

"Hahaha, that's how I like to do it." Omi said with a smile.
