Chapter 2471

"Ah."

"At least a god, it's too easy to die, even if an immortal dies, as long as the gods don't perish i.e. they don't die, even if they die, they can still be resurrected from the three no-space. As a god, if I can perish just like that, it's too fake, they will definitely be resurrected again."

Omi was right, how could a god die so easily.

And now, at this moment, in the Batu World.

Two gods appeared one after the other.

"Fuck." Each of them cursed as they appeared.

"This is really sad in my life, luckily that bastard knows nothing and we were able to automatically resurrect."

"I don't know how big brother is doing."

"Hopefully, big brother can defeat that bastard."

The first two people who were killed by Omi said exasperatedly after resurrecting.

However, not long after, another god resurrected appeared. First URL m.kanshu8.net

"Ah, brother, you were killed by that man too? Resurrected?" Those two were quite shocked to see their big brother come back from the dead as well.

"Hmm."

"Big brother, that son of a bitch, why did he suddenly become stronger, what's the reason? Was he deliberately playing weak?" One of them asked.

"I don't look like it, I really don't know, what cards he has to be able to suddenly enhance. But fortunately, he didn't siphon off our God Grid, and we can still be resurrected."

"That guy, it seems like he doesn't even know what a divine grid is."

"That loser, he just became a god, knows sh*t."

"That's why we picked up a life, hopefully he won't come back."

"And what if he how to come back?"

"We definitely can't beat him now, he's at least a match for me in terms of divine power." That three-horse lower god said.

"Wouldn't we, then, have to be killed by him all over again, and this time, when he sees that we are still alive, he will surely perceive the reason."

"So, if he comes again, we must hide and pretend we are dead."

"And what if he goes on a killing spree in our world?"

"Also hide."

At this moment, in the Sky World.

Omi was about to go to the Batu World again.

The Bitter Sacrifice was busy saying, "Take us there, they killed so many of our Immortals in an instant, we have to help and exterminate them as well."

Omi nodded, "Good."

Omi immediately took the ten parahumans with him and rushed out of the universe. Then flew to the Batu World.

The Batu World could be said to be the neighbor of the Celestial World.

I didn't expect that neighbors would have to be so unpleasant.

But it was all their choice, so don't blame Omi.

A few hours later, Omi re-entered the Batu World.

The layout of the Batu World was different from the Sky World, and the Batu World only had a flat piece of land, which meant there was only one interface.

"Kill." Omi stood in the sky.

For a moment, the Batu World also suffered countless deaths and injuries.

Omi was always on guard to see if the three inferior gods were really dead.

Omi didn't believe that they were really dead.

A day and a night later, Omi and the others, killed off almost all of the more powerful immortals in the Batu World.

However, it would be hard to exterminate everyone, I'm afraid.

"That's it, let's go." Omi said.

Omi brought

The ten parahumans left and went back to the Celestial World.

"Immortal Emperor, it seems that those three gods are really dead, otherwise, why didn't they show up after we killed so many of them?" Blue Emperor said.

Omi snorted, "I don't believe in real death, I'll send you back now, and I'll return suddenly later to catch them in the act."

Omi sent the ten prospective letters back, and then returned to the Batu World.

And at this moment, in the Batu World.

"Ahhhh." The three Lower Gods looked at the countless corpses and roared wildly in anger.

That three inferior god said, "One day, I want them to destroy the Heavenly World, but today, I can only endure the humiliation."

"Brother, we must hurry up and become stronger, and surpass that Omi soon, when the time comes." Those two Second Horse Lower Gods advised.

Just then, Omi's voice rang out, "Yes? Do you think that there will ever be a chance?"

"Ah." The three of them turned around and found Omi behind them.

"You, aren't you guys gone?" The three fearful men asked.

"Hahaha, hahaha." Omi let out a loud laugh and hummed, "Sure enough, I guessed right, you guys definitely didn't really die, at any rate, you're gods, so how could you die so easily. Now, I guess there must be one more that is most important to the gods that has not perished, so you can be resurrected even if you die."

Those two two lower gods roared, "Brother, we'll fight him."

Omi said, "Fight with me? Are you being funny?"

"This is our world, I don't believe that you have any advantage in our world."

Omi said, "Do you know what I just did when I guarded your appearance in your Batu world?"

"What?"

"I just practiced, while waiting for you guys to show up, and even though I've only been practicing for a few hours, I'm another horse stronger, which means that I'm now, five lower gods."

"Ah, no way, how could you have cultivated so fast." The three of them were horrified.

"Why am I cultivating so fast, do I need to report to you guys? You only need to know the result, no need to know the process." The corner of Omi's mouth was popping, now that he had become a five-horse lower god, and then looking at the few two and three of them, they were simply weak.

When Omi had just returned to the Batu World, the three of them hadn't appeared yet, so Omi hid in the dark and waited for them, and along with that, cultivated the fifth will into a god. As a result, it was really only a few hours before they became gods, and the speed was so fast that Omi could hardly believe it.

Omi said, "Now, all of you can all go to your deaths."

The three of them looked at each other, afraid.

That three lower gods felt it, and sure enough, Omi's momentum had become much stronger again.

"It's true that it's cultivated to five horses."

"Ah, brother, what should I do, I don't want to die." One of the two horses down god said.

"Oooh, big brother, I don't want to die either, that wife I just married, I haven't even been able to open her yet."

Those two two lower gods immediately acted as if they were afraid to die to cry.

Their big brother, however, roared, "You two useless things, what are you crying for." After saying that, the three lower gods looked towards Omi, bit their teeth, and kneeled down with a loud "thump".

Omi's eyebrows furrowed, and thought that this three lower gods would see death as a matter of course, but to his surprise, kneeled.

After kneeling down, the three-horse Lower God immediately turned back to the two two two-horse Lower Gods behind him and reprimanded, "Insignificant thing, just know how to cry and cry, don't hurry up and kneel down with me, begging senior to spare your life."

As soon as those two Two Horse Lower Gods heard this, they busily followed and knelt down.
