

King of kings

2479

The main race of the Wubang World was the Wubang Clan, while the next door neighbor, the Wubo World, was the Wubo Tor, this two races were almost similar, just different skin color.

At this moment, the Wubang God King was very angry: "Wotto God King, what do you mean?"

"It's nothing interesting, I just heard that you're refining some kind of divine pills, and you're going to use hundreds of divine compartments to join in, attempting to go from being a Third Realm Godking to a Fourth Realm Godking, I can only say, delusional."The Wotto God King said.

"Don't you bully others too much."The Wubang God King gritted his teeth.

"You didn't deny it, so you're really refining some kind of pill."That Wotto God King laughed.

"I'm not."The Wubang God King denied.

The fight on the ground, let's forget about it for now, right now in the secret room, Omi was a bit dumbfounded.

This was the heavens all helping him.

Without saying a word, Omi immediately entered that secret room.

Omi immediately ate that pill.

Omi didn't care what kind of pills it was, there was definitely no harm in eating it. One second to remember to read the book

After Omi finished eating, he immediately slipped away and drilled through the underground of the wine cellar.

There was no ban around the wine cellar, it was easy.

Only after Omi had escaped far away did the battle on the ground almost end.

That Witchbang God King, was beaten and bruised.

"Wubang God King, next time if I find out what kind of pills you're secretly refining, don't blame me for being rude."After saying that, the Wubang God King walked away.

The Wubang God King gritted his teeth and immediately returned to the secret room.

This time, he decided not to wait for that pill to be refined, but to take it directly and enhance it as much as he could.

However, what the Witchbang God King didn't expect was that once he entered the secret room, his pills were gone.

“Ah, how did this happen?”

At that moment, the Wubang God King saw the hole that came in from the wine cellar next door and said angrily, “This must be the work of someone sent by the Wubang God King, yada yada.”

The Wubang God King didn’t go after it, but if this was premeditated, it definitely couldn’t be recovered.

Omi came to a very isolated place.

“Phew.” Here, it shouldn’t be possible to be chased.

Omi felt his body heating up, it seemed, the pills were working.

Omi immediately proceeded to close the door.

In Omi’s divine Gri, ten wills were expanding.

Previously, each will had only one divine power, but right now, each will had reached three divine powers.

Three horses of divine power per will, how much did those ten add up to?

Thirty horses.

Omi combined the ten wills together, and suddenly, Omi’s divine form emitted an aura that was the realm of thirty horses of the lower gods.

“Wow.” Omi himself didn’t expect that he had turned into a thirty-horsepower Lower God.

It was a full twenty horses stronger than before.

Omi tried to fly into the sky, ready to break out of the universe, maybe if he didn’t run now, it would be hard to have a chance or even get caught.

Omi could only fight.

The result was lucky, Omi managed to run out of the Wubang World.

After Omi ran out of the Wubang World, he ran as hard as he could.

At this moment, it was better to recapture the Sky World first.

After several days of running, Omi returned to the Sky World.

And in the Wubang World, it was because

The Wubang God King concluded that the Wotto God King had sent someone to steal that pill, so he didn’t track it down, as long as he couldn’t defeat the Wotto God King, so what if he chased it down.

Omi was lucky this time.

“Wubang God King, just wait for me, one day, I want your entire Wubang World to become my colony.” Omi secretly gnashed his teeth in his heart.

In the Wubang World Lilliput, a woman looked at the sky and muttered, “Omi, I hope you can escape.”

Omi returned to his home.

“Immortal Emperor, didn’t you say you were going on an adventure? Why did you return so soon?” Nian Tian saw Don Omi ask.

“Uh, soon?”

“Yeah, it’s only been out a few months, not even six months.”

“Oh.” Omi thought about it, he had been caught as soon as he went out before, and then imprisoned in the Witchbond World for several months, but now he had a hard time escaping.

Only, Omi felt that it had been quite a long time since he had gone out, perhaps it had something to do with the life and death experiences of these months.

“Alright, leave me alone, you guys go about your business, I might still get out.”

“Good.”

Omi stayed at home for another ten days, everyone was in seclusion, including Omi’s relatives, as well as Nian Shi, Blue Emperor, Qin Zhong, and other parahumans.

Omi had only stayed for ten days, and he found it so boring.

“It seems that I still have to go out, although if I go out there, I’m likely to encounter a calamity, but where is the gain without calamity, like this time, I almost died in the Witch State World, but as a result, I reached thirty horses in strength, this gain, is greater than the sky.”

“But, where should I go next to hang out?”

Omi opened the map, the universe was so big, he wanted to go for a walk, but he didn’t know where to go.

Omi flipped open that Huo Lun God King’s autobiography was a book again, to see how that Huo Lun God King, step by step on the path of the God King.

The following is the content of the autobiography of the Huo Lun God King: Huo Lun God King, originally a small character from a small world of the 20th level, spent 300 million years and eventually became a god. After he became a god, he was only the weakest of the lower gods in his world, but he did not want to be weak. So, he resolutely left his hometown and rushed out of the universe. The Huo Lun God King heard that the main world at the center of the universe was full of opportunities and challenges, so the Huo Lun God King went to the main world. After tens of billions of years, God King Huo Lun went from a one-horse lower god who had just stepped into the divine realm to a three-horse upper god. After that, the Huo Lun God King himself formed a Heavenly God Team, increased the process of plundering the universe, harvested countless treasures of the Hongs, grew stronger day by day, and eventually, became a generation of barons, a Six Realm God King.”

Omi looked at the first page of the Huo Lun God King’s autobiography book, which outlined the experiences of the Huo Lun God King.

Omi said under his breath, "The Heavenly God Team, once upon a time, the ten gods of the Heavenly World were killed by the Heavenly God Team, and they collapsed the Heavenly World."

The term Heavenly God Team was not unfamiliar to Omi.

Omi said, "In that case, I'll go to the main world as well."

Omi saw the rise of the Huo Lun God King and found a hint of inspiration as to why he couldn't emulate that Huo Lun God King.

Thus, Omi set out once again.

This time, Omi had only one destination, the Universe Master World.

The so-called Universe Master World was the one at the center, the most massive world on the map.

According to the map's instructions, Omi would need at least one month world to reach the main world and pass through the three no-space.

"Depart." Omi stood in the cosmic void and shouted, heading straight for the main world.
