"Pah." Omi slapped the captain hard on the face.

Not only did the captain not get angry, but he laughed and said, "Good fight, wonderful fight, I dare not scream at the slave."

Omi snorted, "What a cheap bone."

"A good scolding, a wonderful scolding, a slave's heart laughs."

Omi's eyebrows furrowed, "What are you doing, playing ventriloquism?"

"Sorry, master, I thought you would like it."

"Get lost, for the sake of your good attitude of admitting your mistakes, I'll spare you this time."

"Thank you, Master."

Omi didn't bother to torment the captain anymore and walked into Can's room, Can was still practicing.

Omi didn't disturb him, turned around and walked out, saying to the captain, "When Can finishes, tell him that I'm leaving this place, and when you're free in the future, go to this address to find me."

"Yes yes yes." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

Omi drifted away.

Omi soon arrived at the address that Senior Sang had said.

Only after arriving did Omi discover that it was a very solemn and luxurious God Emperor's residence.

"Wow." Omi arrived at this God Emperor's Mansion and was a little afraid to step into it, it was too sacred, as if he couldn't believe he could enter a place of this level.

Just at this moment, Omi's ear heard Old Sang's voice, "Wind Lightning, since you're here, just come straight in."

"Yes."

Omi cautiously walked to the front door, which was guarded by several low-level gods.

Those few low-level gods nodded to Omi and didn't stop him, as if they had been given the order to let him in.

Entering the God Emperor's Palace, it was very large inside.

"Senior, where are you?" Omi was standing inside the God Emperor's Mansion, but, he didn't know where to go, and Old Sang was nowhere to be seen.

In his ears, he recalled Old Sang's voice again: "Wind Lightning, although I promised you, I want to test you right now, will you accept my test? Of course, you can refuse."

Omi said, "Of course I'm willing, how does senior want to test me, please say."

"Wind Lightning, before I test you, I must make it clear to you, if you don't pass the test, you will most likely die in the test, are you sure you accept? Of course, the tests that I am offering here are only the most basic ones."

"Good, I'm willing."

In the next second, Old Senior Sang appeared and stood in front of Omi.

"Pay your respects to Senior Brother Sang."

"No need to be polite, come with me."

Omi followed Old Sang and arrived in a large hall.

Old Sang said, "This is a special temple, if you enter it, you will instantly be transported to a test space of my own making, this test of mine is only a very basic test."

"Oh."

"Go in, see, how much time it took you to pass this test of mine."

Saying that, Omi was pushed by Old Sang Senior.

In the next instant, Omi disappeared into the spot.

Omi felt like entering an inexplicable space that was so real that it was completely indistinguishable from the real thing.

"Wind Lightning, do you see the map beneath your feet? Follow the map, to the end, and then you're through, start the clock."

Omi immediately looked at the ground, and there was indeed a map.

Omi immediately followed the directions on the map, the first one to go through was a canyon.

Omi used the wild running speed

Degree rushed towards the canyon.

"Bang." A powerful force bounced Omi back.

"En, is there a restraint?" Omi was blocked in a daze and couldn't get past it.

Omi slowly walked up and touched the restriction that was blocking him.

Omi inwardly said, "This restriction, can't it be an existence that I'm completely unable to break through, or else there would be a need to test it for sh*t. There must be something about this that allows me to find a way to get through."

Omi pressed his hand on the invisible barrier, and his spirit penetrated inside it.

Sure enough, there were many messages coming from inside that invisible barrier, messages that were so jumbled and disorganized that they had no idea what they were saying.

Omi was smart, and with his intelligence it wasn't a matter at all.

Omi smiled slightly, "If I'm not mistaken, I just need to reorganize the jumbled information inside this barrier clearly, and this restriction will be automatically unlocked, to be frank, providing an unordered password, just a mental password, hehe."

Omi was confident.

The jumbled information, in Omi's brain, was reorganized almost at the speed of seconds.

Of course, it wasn't that it was easy, on the contrary, it was hard, and stupid people could be no good.

About half an hour later.

"Done." Omi smiled, and the invisible restriction blocking him was lifted.

Omi quickly rushed across the valley.

At this moment on Old Sang's temple, Old Sang's face smiled slightly, "Sure enough, he is quite sharp in the head and crossed the valley so quickly."

After Omi crossed the valley, the place where his eyes met was a plain, on the plain, there were many divine beasts, literally as many as mosquitoes.

Omi had to kill all the divine beasts in front of him and cross the plain to reach his destination.

If he couldn't kill them, Omi would be torn apart by these divine beasts.

Fortunately, these divine beasts were all about the same strength as Omi, and apart from being numerous, they did not have an advantage in strength.

Omi took out his sword and immediately started slashing them.

With Omi's strength, there was no problem at all with gods that were ten to twenty horses stronger than him.

Although there were many of these gods, they were not enough for Omi to kill.

Omi quickly killed his way through the plain.

After that, Omi passed through a few more places, and finally, managed to reach the end.

After reaching the end, Omi reappeared in the main hall.

"Not bad, Wind Light Cloud, your speed surprised me." Old Senior Sang said with a laugh.

"Senior is overpraised, it took me a total of several hours, and I wasn't satisfied with myself."

"Wind Lightning, you're a bit smug for saying that, you only spent a few hours, do you know that it would have taken a day or two for an ordinary god, to say the least."

"Er, so long."

"Of course, that only means those who can pass, more people are the ones who can't pass at all, or even die in the test."

"Ohhh, so."

"Wind Lightning, do you know why I made you do such a test?"

"Senior doesn't know."

Old Sang said, "If you want to marry Ah Luo, you have to be famous and powerful in the main world. In the main world, there is a very famous test called the 'God's Test', this God's Test is very famous in the main world, if you can participate in the God's Test and get a high ranking, then your fame will gradually open up, which is beneficial to you. That's why I'm letting you test it once first."

"I see, Senior, where is the God's Test and what do I have to do to participate."
