

Chapter 1328

Sebastian looked at Lori without any emotion.

Kingston immediately berated her angrily, "Woman! Do you not want to live anymore?!"

It had been a long time since Kingston worked his muscles, and he was itching to move! He was just like his master, and never cared about hurting anyone, even if they were women.

If the Young Master ordered it, he would immediately cut that woman into pieces!

Kingston was about to move, but he was stopped by Sebastian.

Lori sincerely and humbly said, "I know your bodyguard wants to beat me to death."

Kingston said, "If you weren't trying to ruin the Young Master's marriage with the Madam, who would want to beat you to death?! Beating you dirties my hands!"

After Kingston said that, he did not expect Lori to admit it and say, "That's right, it really will dirty your hand if you beat me up; even I think I'm dirty, so of course you do as well."

Kingston was speechless.

He was stumped by that woman.

Lori looked at Sebastian incredibly humbly. "Young Master Ford, please give me one chance to speak. After I'm done, if you think I shouldn't stay in this world, I will kill myself; you don't need to be a coward and have your bodyguard to do it.

"I'm not trying to pull a reverse psychology move on you because I know that you're just as ruthless to women as you are to men.

"Regardless of their gender expression, as long as they offend you, you can just raise your hand, and the person's life would end. I know this; you are an equal opportunity punisher.

"So, please let me finish speaking. If you still want my life to end, I'll do it myself."

Those words had shocked Kingston.

He even started to be impressed by that woman.

He looked at Lori, tongue-tied, before looking at Sebastian.

Sebastian was still emotionless. "Speak."

Lori then said with a sad tone, "I know I used my cousin's VIP card that day to look for you. That was my fault.

for you. That was my fault.

"However, Young Master, have you ever thought about how much danger I put myself in to see you?

"However, I had no other way but to see you.

"I grew up overseas, but my mother always taught me to never forget how to speak English. My results had always been at the top since I was young, and I had been bilingual, which is why mother always planned on coming back. So, I was never truly able to make real friends overseas.

"After that, I had a boyfriend, who was also a man who did his business within the country.

"That man had a wife that was seriously ill, and I was still a university student then. I had been working part-time as a nurse at a hospital, and I got to know him while I was taking care of his wife in the hospital. They had a daughter who was three-years-old, and the man's wife asked me to take care of her daughter.

"So, I slowly grew closer to the man.

"After that, the man's wife died, and I ended up being his new girlfriend, and his daughter liked me as well.

daughter liked me as well.

"We were originally able to live very well as a family of three, but my other half needed to get some things done within the country. In the end, he never returned.

"Because he died in the country.

"I had no other way.

"All I could do was continue living with the daughter he left behind with his wife. My mother coincidentally started to want to come back due to her old age, so the three of us ended up returning.

"However, I just came back, and I have no money, nor do I have any connections.

"I might have a high education, and I might have a good job that pays me thirty thousand a month, but that's just how it looks. My boss gave me an order.

"That order is, I have to attract fifty million in investments within my first month.

"In one month! Where am I going to find fifty million?

"I have no connections, and I don't know this city at all. What am I going to do?"
