

A Billionaire's Reincarnation Chapter 121-130

Chapter 121

"I'm not as rich as Lao Zhou, so I give up." Hua Tianyu smiled bitterly, he didn't dare to gamble with 500 million RMB, although he was optimistic about the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda carved by Chen Haohuan, but just because he was optimistic, it didn't mean that he would necessarily make money, if he bought it and couldn't sell it, then his group would likely face the danger of not being able to run funds, but this danger was great.

"It seems that you are not destined for the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda, because someone has already offered a price of one billion RMB." Chen Haoxuan smiled proudly.

"One billion renminbi? Holy sh*t, twice as many as me. Who is it! So bull?" Zhou Xiang was surprised and asked.

"The world's tenth richest man, Amanci Binky, you should know for yourselves, but don't tell anyone else, yo! I am telling you this because I believe you." Chen Haohuan was serious.

"Don't worry, we're not nosy people. You are busy with your work! Lao Hua and I will just watch from the side." Zhou Xiang.

Chen didn't have time to chat with Zhou Xiang and the others, he continued to write his software program. Chen HaoXuan today is super busy, he needs to write a lot of software, such as antivirus software, firewall software, automatic maintenance software ..... Chen Hao Xuan knows that although the technology in this era is very backward, there are already a lot of hackers in this era as well, because the hackers nowadays are the most popular, the network protection is poor and hackers can often steal the information of the netizens.

To prevent hackers from messing with his site, Chan needed to write some protection software to help his site and all the surfers who come to his site.

At 17:30, Chen stood up and said loudly, "Off duty! You guys pack up your stuff and we'll go out to eat."

"Oh yea, finally something to eat." Yang Lin jumped for joy, his stomach had been hungry for a long time and Hua Lingwei and the others didn't say they were hungry, he was too embarrassed to say so.

Except Yang Lin and Liu Junfeng didn't have a car, everyone else had a car, Yang Lin and the two of them rode in Chen Hao Xuan's car together with Chen Yina.

When they arrived at the villa hotel, Chen Hao Xuan bullishly said to the waiter, "Give me one of your most luxurious private rooms, and in addition, bring up your most expensive wine and dishes."

During the meal, Yang Lin and Liu Junfeng saw what a rich man's life is like, eating mountains of delicacies and seafood and drinking hundreds of thousands of dollars of red wine.

After everyone had eaten and drunk their fill, Chen Haohuan called for the waiter, and when the waiter reported the amount spent, Liu Junfeng and Yang Lin were stunned, eating a single meal was more than one million RMB, this was money that an ordinary person might not earn in their lifetime! It was eaten by them in one meal.

In fact, the food is not much money, mainly because of the expensive red wine, Yang Lin alone drank two bottles, two bottles of almost half a million. Yang Lin did not know how expensive the red wine was, but he felt that it was quite tasty anyway, so he tried his best to pour it in as if it were water. If Yang Lin knew that he had drunk more than half a million yuan of red wine, he would have felt guilty and he would rather have Chen Haoxuan give him more than half a million yuan, which he would take outside to buy white wine.

The day finally came on the 11th of August and it was the busiest day in the online world, basically everyone who was online would go into Chen Hao Xuan's website Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda. Thanks to Chen HaoXuan's preparation, he wrote a lot of protection software yesterday, otherwise his website would have surged in popularity and would have probably crashed.

At 12 noon, Chen HaoXuan and the others were busy while eating, and the auction began. Chen HaoXuan sent out his reserve price of RMB 500 million, with each bid not less than 10 million. When it was sent out, no one bid, and everyone was in awe, discussing why Chen Haohuan's Thousand Buddha Pagoda was so expensive. Five minutes later, the first bidder was Zhou Xiang, who offered RMB 510 million.

Chen Hao Xuan had previously filmed the Thousand Buddha Pagoda on video and uploaded it onto the internet, in order to reassure buyers that they didn't have to worry that what they were buying was different from what they were seeing. This is because Chen HaoXuan has made it clear that if the Thousand Buddha Pagoda is different from what is on the video, he will never charge the purchaser money. The highest price is offered by the purchaser, who does not have to pay immediately, but comes to Chen Haohuan's house and delivers the goods with one hand and pays with the other, which is absolutely safe.

The second bidder was a man from country Y, Hadi, a well-known entrepreneur, who offered 600 million RMB for Chen Haohuan's Thousand Buddha Pagoda.

Then Amanci Binky, who is well capitalised, made a bid of RMB 800 million. This caused a sensation on Chen Haohuan's website, and some media directly made the site live so that those members of the public who were watching TV could also know what was happening on Chen Haohuan's website.

The fact that so much money can be made from a single pagoda has given many sculptors the idea of carving pagodas.

Rich people from all over the world will not be able to breathe a deep sigh of relief when they see the price of each one offered. The popularity of Chen Haohuan's website was really too big and this made the media all over the world want to get the first line of news, so this created something else, all the news was reporting on Chen Haohuan's auction of the Thousand Buddha Pagoda. If there was a TV station that didn't cover it, no one would watch it.

Zhou Xiang, now at home, was staring at his computer watching Chen Haohuan's auction, and next to him was his good friend Hua Tianyu. Hua Tianyu spoke out to Zhou Xiang, "Old Zhou, someone else's bid is up to 800 million RMB, will you still follow?"

"Do you think I'm a real millionaire? How could I possibly compete with the world's richest men with more money! No more following." Zhou Xiang was unhappy.

"I see that after Little Xuan passes today, tomorrow will be the beginning of his soaring success." Hua Tianyu enthused.

"Yeah! A pagoda carved from water stone can be sold for so much money, and if he keeps on carving, then he will not be far from being rich." Zhou Xiang exclaimed.

Chen Haoxuan had actually thought about this question, so why didn't he do so? Carving a stupa and then not carving it? That's because he knows that if he keeps carving things and putting them up for sale, then the price of his work will fall. But if he only sells one piece a year, or a few years, then the price of his work will probably only go up, not down.

In Chen's village, all the villagers were watching TV at home, and they were all very concerned about Chen Haohuan. They finally know today what Chen Haoxuan is capable of, there are no millionaires in their village, let alone billionaires. Although they were jealous that Chen Hao Xuan had so much money, they agreed that they also felt proud because Chen Hao Xuan was the man of their village.

Chen Haorong, whose family was also watching the news about Chen Haoxuan, frowned when they saw that the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda carved by Chen Haoxuan could be sold for 800 million, that's how they couldn't see others, especially those they had previously looked down on.

Li Xin, who was watching the TV, spoke out, "I didn't think that kid could make that much money?" She now regrets dumping Chen Haohuan a bit, otherwise she'd be a super-rich woman now, with lots of money to spend.

"It's not always good to be rich, maybe he'll be kidnapped by someone else in a few days!" Chen Haorong had a stern face and was unhappy. Only he knew how deep the hatred in his heart was. A few months ago, he had arrogantly called Chen Haoxuan a punk, but now what about Chen Haoxuan! He lives in a luxury villa, drives a multi-million dollar BMW and has a fortune of hundreds of millions of RMB. In Pingyuan County, it can be said that Chen Hao Xuan is the richest man.

The fact that he has created such a big distance between himself and Chen Hao Xuan in just a few months makes him very unhappy, but he doesn't have Chen Hao Xuan's ability to befriend so many rich people, nor does he have Chen Hao Xuan's business acumen. He has often used the idea that he is not as handsome as Chen Hao Xuan to comfort himself, but now he can no longer comfort himself in that way, because he is jealous of Chen Hao Xuan to the point of going crazy.

"Didn't you listen to the TV presenter? That kid has hired more than thirty security guards, all of them veterans, and even if someone wanted to kidnap him, he couldn't beat more than thirty veterans." Li Xin spoke out.

"Eh, what do you say we go and ask him for some money? He's so rich now he should be giving us tens of millions, right?" The sinister expression of Chen Zhenghao (Chen Haohuan's dad), said.

"How could he give! Just a while ago when I was shopping in the city of Xinshan, my wallet was robbed and he was there, and he didn't even help me, even when he saw me being beaten up by thugs, he didn't say a word and he just watched! A person like him would never give us the benefit of the doubt, even if we were his parents." Li Xin was exasperated, and whenever she remembered the day Chen Haoxuan saw death, he got angry.

"He dares not to give, we'll sue him if he doesn't give us money, the land of that house and the two acres of field are all mine, and I've raised him to be that big, does he dare not?" Chen Zhenghao was firm, in fact, what's the difference between this and blackmail.

"Right! He was raised by us and we gave him a room and land, so we should ask him which money he should give us." Li Xin was happy. She just thought, Chen Hao Xuan is so rich now, she should be able to get one or two hundred million RMB from Chen Hao Xuan, if she really has that many people, she can not live in a small house, and live in a villa instead, she can buy a lot of brand-name clothes, and drive a famous car .....

Chen Hao Xuan is not here, if Chen Hao Xuan was here, he would probably be angry and yell at Li Xin and the others: "Pay you guys, I give a hair, it's more or less the same to give you medals."

On Chen Haohuan's side, the auction ended only two hours later, and the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda was bought by Amanci Binky, who ranked tenth on the world's rich list, for 1.1 billion RMB. The price shocked the whole world, and Chen's value rose like crazy, with many rich people ordering his works from him, but Chen didn't even agree.

If you want to be famous, you have to be special, and the more he refused, the more those people would want his stone sculptures.

Amanci Binky contacted Chen Hao Xuan and told him he would send someone to China tomorrow to deliver the Thousand Buddha Pagoda to Mi. Chen Hao Xuan is full of promise, Chen Hao Xuan now can't wait to get the 1.1 billion RMB, with 1.1 billion RMB, he can invest anything, no longer need to whisper and beg.

Today, Hua Lingwei and the others came to Chen HaoXuan's residence as usual, and Chen HaoXuan was very happy that the Thousand Buddha Pagoda sold for a high price, so he proposed to go to the villa hotel again. When he arrived at the villa hotel, Chen Hao Xuan asked for the most expensive of everything, just like yesterday.

In the luxurious compartment, Zhou Xiang raised his glass of wine and said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Little Xuan, congratulations on your Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda selling for a high price."

"Thank you." Chen Hao Xuan picked up the wine glass and clinked it with Zhou Xiang, then drank it all with his head held high.

"Little Xuan, you now have 1.1 billion RMB and a stake in Home Communications Mobile City, you are now richer than me. Have you ever thought about what business you want to do in the future?" Hua Tian Yu asks Chen Hao Xuan.

"I want to enter the LCD TV industry, and then the computer industry." Chen was confident, although there are LCD TVs now, they are very expensive, so few people use them, and the same goes for LCD computers. Chen knows how to produce them, his method saves a lot of money and the quality is several times better than the LCD videos of this era! If he makes it and sells it for the same price as in this day and age, he must be making mad money.

"Do I need to find a partner?" Zhou Xiang looked at Chen Haoxuan with expectant eyes and said.

"No need for now, if I'm looking for someone to work with, I'll be the first to call on you." Chen Hao Xuan apologised.

"You want to enter the LCD TV industry and the computer industry, then you should need to build a factory, right? How about this, you come to my industrial park and I'll rent it to you at a discount." Li Jun smiled. Not only did Li Jun come today, but several other businessmen who were very familiar with Chen Haohuan came. Li Jun, Zhou Xiang, Hua Tianyu, Zhang Tianqi, Jiang Xianghan, Wang Long ....., and Yang Lin and the others.

"Well, yes, I'll look for you when I decide to come down here." Chen Hao Xuan was happy. Chen Hao Xuan doesn't rent the whole industrial park as soon as he rents it. Because that's what suits Chen Hao Xuan's style, not to do it, to make it big.

"Little Xuan, sister seeing you now is like a dream, I want ah! Is this still the same Xuan I know? You were just an ordinary student at the time and in the blink of an eye you've become a billionaire, which makes me feel like a dream. A sexily dressed Kang Heung Han said.

"It's thanks to your help, otherwise I wouldn't have become a billionaire so quickly." Chen Hao Xuan smiled.

"Little Xuan, look at my sister working with you so early in the business, now Zhang Tianqi relying on you is about to make a lot of money, when you also bring my sister to make a lot of money ah!" Kang Heung Chill joked.

"You really don't say, I really want to bring you to be rich together, because I started training ten women who know how to drive clothes a long time ago, I let them become skilled, I design some popular clothes for them to make, and when they are done, I will give them to you wholesale, and then you will definitely have something to earn." Chen Haohuan.

Chapter 123

"That's great, when are you going to design popular clothes wholesale for me?" Jiang Xiang Han couldn't wait.

"Not so fast, it might take a few more months!" Chen Hao Xuan Dao.

"OK! Just wait a few more months! I hope you won't disappoint your sister when the time comes." Jiang Xiang Han was delighted.

On August 12, this day, Amansi Binky will send his butler Jindal to deal with Chen Hao Xuan, so Chen Hao Xuan woke up very early today, Chen Hao Xuan took Jiang Dong and the three of them to Xinshan City Airport to pick up Jindal, in order to give Jindal face, Chen Hao Xuan also rented an 8 meters long Lincoln, in addition to Zhou Kexin's Ferrari borrowed, three famous cars to drive to the airport.

Chen Hao Xuan asked Jiang Dong and the others to wait outside while he went inside to pick up the others, but yesterday Chen Hao Xuan had already seen Jindal's photo, so he didn't have to worry about not recognising him.

The first time I saw him was when I was a young man, and I was very happy to see that he had just gotten off the plane. The first person at the front of the group of foreigners was Jindal, who was looking for Chen HaoXuan.

"Mr. Jindal, this way, I am Chen Hao Xuan." Chen Hao Xuan shouted in English, honestly Chen Hao Xuan hated English, he would rather not speak it if he could, in fact when he came to this century he had a bigger goal than being rich and powerful, and that was to make the whole world proud to speak Mandarin Chinese. Let the gringos take the Mandarin test, and grade it.

When Jindal heard someone calling out to him, he followed the source of the voice and found that it was the famous sculptor Chen Hao Xuan. Chen Hao Xuan's fame is now so great that everyone in Europe knows his name, and some young girls have made posters of his picture and put them up in their rooms.

Jindal waved to Chen Hao Xuan, indicating that he had spotted him, and walked towards Chen Hao Xuan with four of his men. "Mr Chan, I'm glad you came to meet me in person." Jindal walked up to Chen Hao Xuan and extended his right hand to shake his hand and smile.

"I'm also glad you could come to China, this way please." Chen made a gesture of invitation to Jindal. Although Jindal is only a butler, but his status is not low, just because he is the butler of Amansi Binky, want to ask him to help you say some good words in front of Amansi Binky, he will not open that mouth without tens of thousands of dollars, the more he said, he will charge more money, you can say that he, like money.

Arriving outside the airport, Chan walked up to the eight-metre-long Lincoln and opened the door for Jindal himself, smiling at Jindal and saying: "Mr Jindal, please get in."

The Lincoln has a special person as the driver, no need for Chen Hao Xuan and the others to drive, Chen Hao Xuan and Jindal in the Lincoln, while Jiang Dong and Jindal's bodyguard in the BMW and Ferrari.

Jindal has a lot of ink and knows a lot of things. After talking to him for a while, Chen Hao Xuan knew Jindal's hobbies, so Chen Hao Xuan picked the things that Jindal liked to talk about. He can't help it that he's not strong enough now and needs to suck up to people who are stronger than him, and when he's strong enough to kill him, he won't bother sucking up to foreigners and, according to him, drop his identity.

When he arrived at Chen's residence, as soon as he stepped out of the car, his eyes saw a glow, click click ..... and the sound of cameras taking pictures never stopped. There were more media today than in previous times, because today was the most important day, the day of the deal between Chen Hao Xuan and Amansi Binky.

Jindal and the others formed a wall of people holding hands and this was the only way for Chen Hao Xuan and the others to enter the house. As soon as they entered the house, Jindal asked to see the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda.

The pagoda was in the living room. Chen Hao Xuan pulled off the cloth covering the pagoda and the pagoda, which was glowing with divine light, was displayed before Jindal's eyes. "Is this God's masterpiece? It's exquisite." Jindal was amazed when he saw the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda, he felt it looked much better than the one on the video.

"Mr. Jindal, this is a magnifying glass, look carefully if there is anything wrong." Chan handed Jindal a magnifying glass and smiled.

"Thank you." Jindal took the magnifying glass and began to look at it carefully, the more he looked, the more he was shocked, he had never seen such perfect stone carvings, thousands of Buddha stone pagodas, thousands of Chinese Buddhas all carved lifelike, thousands of postures, coupled with the natural colour of the water stone, he dared to say, this is definitely worth 1.1 billion RMB.

Jindal was very careful, he would look at each Buddha statue for a long time, Chen Haoxuan did not disturb him, standing to the side and waiting patiently. Half an hour later, Jindal put away the magnifying glass and with a shocked expression on his face, he said to Chen Haohuan, "Mr. Chen, you are going to amaze me, your carving of the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda is really too perfect, you are definitely the world's best sculptor."

"Thank you for the compliment." Chen smiled, then Chen Hao Xuan said, "If there are no more questions, can we start trading?"

"Of course you can, I'll have Mr Binky send you money immediately after signing the contract." Jindal smiled.

"Let's sit down and talk it over." Chen Hao Xuan Road.

Jindal took a copy of the contract to Chen Hao Xuan, Chen Hao Xuan read it, found no problem and signed his name.

Seeing that Chen had signed, Jindal asked his bodyguard to bring his special laptop computer, which he used to report to Amanci Binchy, who was far away in the country, about what he had done in China. After Amanci Binky confirmed that the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda was real, he started to go through the money transfer procedure.

Since Amansi Binch wanted to see the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda earlier, after the deal between Jindal and Chen Haohuan was successful, Jindal made a phone call to a courier company to come and help him transport it to Mi, and they followed the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda in order not to have any accidents halfway there.

Jindal left, 1.1 billion RMB has not yet arrived inside Chen Haohuan's personal bank account, Chen Haohuan need not worry, after all, it is 1.1 billion RMB, such a huge amount of money so so quickly. And the bank still needs time to investigate whether the money comes from a normal source.

Everything is done, just waiting for the 1.1 billion RMB to arrive. Chen Haoxuan had already planned that once the money arrived, he would take Chen Yina back to the Chen Village and invite all the Chen Village villagers to dinner. In addition, he wanted to show his family, to see if he was a loser or not, he wanted to show them that he was now rich.

Chapter 124

In one of the nightclubs in the city of Xinshan, a few people who felt like bad guys at a glance were getting together to discuss things, and the thing they were discussing was Chen Hao Xuan, they were the Black Heart Gang, they already knew that Chen Hao Xuan had made a successful deal with Amanci Binky, so they started planning how to blackmail Chen Hao Xuan.

"1.1 billion RMB, it might not arrive that fast, so we'll wait for a few more days, anyway, many people are paying attention to Chen Hao Xuan, and if we touch Chen Hao Xuan at this time, it's likely to cause a big stir." The eldest brother of the Black Heart Gang, Black Heart, spoke out.

"I agree with big brother's attention." Mosquito spoke out.

"I'll do whatever big brother says." A bald man, out loud. Look at his four-legged, honest looks, but he's not a good person, he's just simple-minded, so he usually does things without thinking and cuts you down if he sees you upset. People like him don't dare to mess with him.

"I think it's just for a week! We'll move in a week's time. Mosquito, you continue to monitor Chen Haohuan." Blackheart.

"Yeah, I will." Mosquito nodded solemnly and responded.

On Chen Hao Xuan's side, he went to the University of Xinshan City today to look for talents, he was looking for a few people who were familiar with computer programs to help him manage his website. Looking for talent is of course indispensable Liu Junfeng, the student union president! Chen has asked him to help inform the computer science students who want to apply for the job to go online and attack a small protection software inside the website he runs, and whoever manages to break it, Chen will hire him.

In order to attract real talent, Chen Hao Xuan offers a very high salary, a base salary of 10,000 RMB a month, and there are bonuses for excellent work.

In today's society, the average wage earner earns just over a thousand a month, and university students are only a few thousand out of society, and very few university students can earn a base salary of 10,000 RMB a month. Who wouldn't want a job like this when you only work eight hours a day for such a high salary?

So the computer department was lively, basically no one went to class, all of them went back to their dormitories, because the computers were in the dormitories, the average college students would have computers, and if they didn't they would borrow them.

At the moment Chen HaoXuan is sitting on the lawn, drinking beer and eating, while looking inside the computer. Next to him were Yang Lin, Liu Junfeng and Ma Yichen, boys are like that, not as good as girls.

"Quite a few people have come! It's only been a short while and more than 200 have come." Chen Hao Xuan smiled. He watched as his QQ kept showing people applying to join, these could be treasures! If he didn't have much money, he'd want to recruit them all and spend his own money training them.

"Xuan, you've said yourself that no one can break the software you've designed, so why do you bother hiring someone else to manage it for you! Isn't this Lang's fee?" Yang Lin, who was seated next to Chen Haohuan, spoke out.

"I do have the confidence, but I can't get everything myself, compared to the fact that I'm just one person, and no amount of power is greater than the power of the crowd. For example, if I teach them what I know and get them to do what I want for me, won't I be free to drink tea! Even if I train you two the same, when I think you're ready to take up the job, you'll be senior white-collar workers, helping me run the company, and I'll be able to do nothing but money for the big things. It's called being the boss behind the scenes, the easiest boss, but also the hardest boss to be." Chen said.

"Leader, it's too bad you're not going to be an official." Liu Junfeng was jealous, he really wanted to pry open Chen Haoxuan's head to see how Chen Haoxuan's head grew and how he could be so smart. Ordinary people are reluctant to hand over their skills to others, worried that they will just pat themselves on the back and leave if they learn them. And what about Chen Hao Xuan! As long as you are a talented person, he teaches.

"I do have the potential to be a big official, but I won't be an official because I don't like constraints, I like to live freely, eat well, wear well, use well and live well ....." Chan squinted, pleased.

"Me too, being an official is like being a parent, everything has to be for the people." Yang Lin echoed Chen Hao Xuan's words.

Chen looked at his computer and saw that there was no one left to add to the group, so he posted an address for the computer science students to attack. That address was a small module of the website he ran, a small protection program he had written, and it wasn't very advanced, just five or six years beyond the network technology of this era.

Hacking techniques are all about finding the target of an attack, then finding the vulnerability of the target and going in through the hole. Students from the computer science department at the University of New Hill used all sorts of methods to break into the small modules that Chan had asked them to attack, some using viruses, others writing Chan's data .....

Twenty minutes later, Chan was lying on the lawn, his laptop next to him. He said in a faint voice: "Oh sh*t, can't even penetrate that bad protection program, is the network technology of this era really that bad?"

"I hear you say it all the time; it's a poor age for technology, I doubt you're from this age, do you talk like that? If you say he's bad, then why are you so good at networking." Liu Junfeng to Chen Haohuan.

"In this world, I'm kind of a weirdo." Chen Hao Xuan said indifferently, he was tempted to say, you're right, I wasn't originally from this era, I'm from the future century. But if he said it, who would believe it?

After waiting a while longer, still no one was able to hack into the small module designated by Chen Haoxuan. Yang Lin, as he drank, said to Liu Junfeng, "Liu Junfeng, you're a student union president anyway, you should have some skills, why don't you give it a try?"

"I'm the president of the student union, I can sit in this position because I'm good at management, as for network technology, you let me play games, it's almost as good, as for writing programs, you can simply kill me." Liu Junfeng.

Chen Haoxuan, who was lying on the lawn and squinting, suddenly spoke out, "Do you think I should lower my requirements?"

"Just wait! Maybe the experts haven't shown up yet, or maybe they haven't found the shortcomings of the small module you designed," Liu Junfeng suggested.

Room 405 of the girls' dormitory, Li Mingmei, who was at the computer trying to invade the small module designated by Chen Haoxuan, stopped and cursed with a dejected face, "Where did Chen Haoxuan learn this program, it's so powerful that it took so long to successfully invade."

Kong Manni, who was also at the computer, spoke out, "I advise you not to go, although there is money, he hires people without even a company and needs to sign a ten-year contract, what's the difference between that and selling yourself?"

Chapter 125

"Nina, haven't you seen the website he runs for the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda? The website was a huge hit and I believe he made a lot of money. He also explained that the person he hired to manage his website was earning a basic salary of 10,000 RMB a month! With bonuses, where else can you find such a great package?"

Little Niko, you are so good at networking, why don't you try and see if you can hack into the small module designated by Chen Haoxuan." Li Mingmei to Kong Manni.

They were both computer science students, and Kong Manni's nickname was Little Niko, a very cute name. Kong Manni, she is also a school flower, she has a pair of big dark and clear eyes, soft and full red lips, a delicate and exquisite small nose, plus the beautifully smooth lines of the cheeks, blowing pink face ....., petite posture. You don't look at her like a little woman, but she is very mature and thinks well in advance about everything she does.

But what about her! She is all about tomorrow's work, do it today, finish it today, do it the day after tomorrow. Sort of a very different kind of MM, she's very mature, so she's very cold to guys who can't afford it and want to pursue her, which makes her a bit withdrawn, and she basically has few friends at the University of the city of Xinshan, apart from her housemates.

"I'm not interested in him," Kong Manni said indifferently, the difference between Chen Hao Xuan and her is too big, although she admires Chen Hao Xuan, she is also very jealous of Chen Hao Xuan, she knows she can't compare with Chen Hao Xuan, so she chooses to go out of sight. If Chen had been a little less powerful, maybe Kong Manni would have developed a crush on Chen, because like Chen, she was a strong person who wanted to get rich.

"Little Nixie, haven't you been bragging about your great internet skills? If you're really good at it, come and try hacking into the small module designated by Chen Haohuan, he didn't stipulate that you have to work for him if you hack into it anyway." Li Mingmei said.

"It's just a small module, if I want to hack into it, I'll just dip into the general system of his website." Confidently, Kong Manny is capitalistic, as she has even hacked into the database of the University of Xinshan City, and it hasn't been discovered.

"I can't, if you're capable of shutting down Chen Haohuan's website, if you're really good, I'll admit that you're really good." Li Mingmei said to Kong Manny.

"Don't go."

"I think you're afraid that your internet skills can't compare to Chen Haohuan, right? Afraid of losing face?" Li Mingmei deliberately struck Kong Manni, she wanted to see how powerful Chan's website could be, and if Kong Manni couldn't even hack into it, then it would prove that Chan's website system was very advanced.

"I know you're trying to irritate me, how about this! If I succeed in hacking into Chen Haoxuan's website, you'll cover all my meals for this month." Kong Manny smiled cutely and said.

"No problem." Li Mingmei was full of promise and said. After saying that she moved a stool to sit down next to Kong Manni and watched carefully how Kong Manni invaded Chen Hao Xuan's website.

Kong Manni was so proud that she didn't hack into the small module that Chen Haohuan had designated, but directly into Chen Haohuan's website system. It was only a few minutes later that Kong Manni's eyebrows furrowed and she could not even find a loophole in Chen Haohuan's website.

Everyone in the Computer Science Department of the University of New Taipei City was desperately trying to hack into Chen Hao Xuan's website, and even the teachers of the Computer Science Department had their students hack into Chen Hao Xuan's website, treating this as a mock exam.

And what about Chen Hao Xuan as the culprit! He actually fell asleep on the lawn. And Yang Lin and the others didn't wake Chen Haoxuan up, they were drinking and chatting on the side, and the most direct topic the men talked about was women. The three of them kept bragging about how great they used to be and how MM would scream at the sight of them, and the more they talked, the more exaggerated they became, not knowing if they were drunk or not.

Sleeping on the ground was cool, the sun shining on the body was warm, ice and fire, very comfortable, so Chen HaoXuan slept very soundly.

An hour, two hours, three hours. The first time I saw him, I thought he should have paid an expert to write the program for him, otherwise how could a sophomore student, who is also in the Business Administration Department, have such great internet skills?

"Little Niko, I think you're just self-consoling, not daring to accept the fact that you lost to Chen Haoxuan," Li Mingmei joked.

"Maybe I'm really thinking this way to comfort myself." Kong Manny lost her way, she had always been only proud of her internet skills, losing to a boy younger than her, she felt uncomfortable and more than a little disgruntled.

"Niko, try hacking into the little module he specified, maybe you can hack into it not a bit," Li Mingmei suggested.

This time Kong Manni did not refuse, she once again put her hands on the keyboard and typed. The small module designated by Chen HaoXuan was not very technical, but it still took Kong Manni nearly half an hour to hack into it. As soon as she was inside, her computer suddenly went black, and then a cartoonishly handsome boy appeared on the screen, somewhat resembling Chen Hao Xuan.

"You have passed the assessment, please meet me on the lawn in front of the library." The cartoon character on the screen spoke out, his voice identical to Chen Hao Xuan's, and as soon as he finished speaking, Kong Man Ni's computer returned to normal.

"Wha-, Nee-chan, people are so jealous of you, yo! With a base salary of 10,000 RMB, and bonuses, and the chance to work with the number one headmistress of the University of New Hill, I'm so envious, yo!" Li Mingmei looked adoring to Kong Manny.

"Why don't you go impersonate me?" Kong Manni told Li Mingmei that a computer talent like her could make a lot of money by casually writing some software, or using her hacking skills to help others do shady things and earn more money than the salary Chen Hao Xuan pays.

"Little Niko, you're too good to people, I'm going to find Chen Haoxuan now and come back to buy you dinner." Li Mingmei was happy, her family was average and she wasn't as good at networking as Kong Manni, so she wanted a job that paid well.

When Li Mingmei ran to the lawn in front of the library entrance, she did see Chen Hao Xuan, but he was sleeping and she was struggling to decide whether to wake him up.

While Li Mingmei was struggling, she was spotted by Yang Lin and the others, who put their fingers in their mouths and whistled very loudly, "MM, are you here to see me?" Yang Lin smiled a yin smile at Li Mingmei.

"I - I'm here to find Chen Haoxuan." Li Mingmei protected her hands in front of her chest, as if she was afraid that Yang Lin would molest her.

Chapter 126

"MM Come and have a drink with us!" Ma Yichen had a ** look on his face, to Li Mingmei. His face and neck were both red, clearly a reaction to being drunk.

Chen Haohuan was woken up by Yang Lin's whistling, he opened his eyes, sat up, turned his head to look at Yang Lin and the others, and spoke out, "Can you guys be quiet? I had a hard time dreaming of getting rich, but you guys woke me up before I could enjoy it in my dream."

Seeing that Chen Haoxuan was awake, Li Mingmei shouted happily, "Hello, Chen Haoxuan, I'm here for an interview."

Hearing the voice, Chen Hao Xuan turned his head and saw that it was a rather pretty girl talking to him. Chen Hao Xuan spoke up and asked, "You know I'm here, I believe you've hacked into the little module I specified, right?"

"Uh-huh, I intruded." Li Mingmei nodded seriously.

"You wait a moment, I'll see how many people have invaded inside now." Chen Hao Xuan said. Chen Hao Xuan checked the laptop and found that only one person had successfully intruded.

Chen waved to Li Mingmei and smiled, "Can you come over and perform how you hacked into my little module?"

When she heard Chen Haohuan's words, Li Mingmei revealed a nervous expression, she is not Kong Manni, her computer skills can only be considered an advantage, but her excellent level of excellence can absolutely not invade the small module designated by Chen Haohuan, unless Kong Manni help her.

Chen Hao Xuan saw that Li Mingmei was late and still looked very nervous, so he asked curiously, "What's the problem?".

"I - I forgot how to hack into the little module you specified." Li Mingmei was embarrassed.

Hearing Li Mingmei's words, Chen began to suspect that people with great network skills generally have good memories, so Chen suspected that Li Mingmei was not an impostor.

"It wasn't you who entered the small module I specified, was it? I guess it must be your friend, she doesn't want to come, so you take the place of her." Chan was blunt.

"Right - I'm sorry ....." Li Mingmei was embarrassed, she lowered her head, blushed, turned around and wanted to leave, she didn't think she had the face to stay here.

Chen called out to her: "Wait, if your internet skills are good, I'll agree to invite you, but you need to tell me who that friend of yours is."

Li Mingmei turned around in delight at Chen's words and said to Chen, "Really? Are you really going to invite me?"

"Yes, but it depends on how good you are at it, and tell me - your friend." Chen Hao Xuan.

"Her name is Kong Manni, she's my roommate, she's very good at networking, and she's also a hacker, don't get me wrong, she's a hacker but she never does anything bad, she's very nice, but she's just too mature, it's hard for ordinary people to get along with her." Li Mingmei said.

"It's not like you're in love with her, so don't worry about not getting along." Chen Haohuan joked.

"That's true." Li Mingmei nodded.

"You can take me to meet her." Chen Haoxuan to Li Mingmei.

"I-I'm worried that she doesn't want to see you, so I'd better give you her QQ! You talk to her on QQ." Li Mingmei remembered Kong Manni's comments about Chen Haoxuan just now in the dormitory, and she was afraid that Kong Manni would probably be angry if she took Chen to the dormitory.

"Yes, what did you say her QQ was?" Chen Hao Xuan Dao.

The company's website is a great place to find out more about the company's products and services. It is not expected that the application to add as a friend, as soon as it was sent out, there was a message back, a message of rejection.

"Why didn't she add me? Doesn't she though me?" Chen Hao Xuan was curious.

"She doesn't like those self-righteous rich children, so she doesn't seem to like you very much." Li Mingmei was embarrassed.

Chen Hao Xuan logged in using Kong Manni's QQ, the password he entered casually, and then logged in, and quickly popped up the password you entered was incorrect. Chen Hao Xuan clicked to retrieve the password ..... It took a few minutes to successfully log in to Kong Manni's QQ, and after logging in, Chen Hao Xuan added himself as a good friend using her QQ.

On Kong Manni's side, she was discussing Chen HaoXuan's website with other computer science students on the school's forum when suddenly her QQ popped up, Your QQ is online on the other side, and then dropped offline.

"Who is that bold? Even the hacker's QQ dares to steal." Kong Manni cursed petulantly as she felt logged into her QQ.

As soon as Kong Manni logged into her own QQ, she logged on, it didn't look like she had been stolen at all. At this time her QQ avatar flickered, she clicked on it and saw that one called Chen Haoxuan was looking for her. She was surprised, didn't she just reject Chen HaoXuan? When did Chen Hao Xuan's QQ go to her friends?

"Hello, student Kong Manni, I am Chen Hao Xuan, I would like to invite you to be the administrator of the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda, we can slowly discuss the salary." This was the message that Chen Hao Xuan sent to Kong Manni.

"Oh, I see, it must have just been Chen Haoxuan who stole my QQ using hacking techniques and then added himself to my QQ, yes, that must be it." Kong Manni conjectured.

Kong Manni sent a message back to Chen Haohuan: "Your Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda website, you hired an expert to do it for you, right?"

Chan returned, "No, I did it myself."

Kong Manni didn't believe it, she returned: "Then you are now using hacking techniques to control my computer, you can succeed and we will talk about work." Kong Manni knew that Li Mingmei must be next to Chen Haohuan now, otherwise how would Chen Haohuan know her QQ number, so she didn't have to worry that Chen Haohuan would cheat.

"No problem." Chen Hao Xuan returned.

Chen smiled as he placed his hands on the keyboard, crackling and typing some strange data on the keyboard. On Kong Manny's side, she did the same, and she protected her computer with multiple protective software.

The 21st century is too genius to compete with the future century, and it only took Chen five minutes to hack into Kong Manni's computer.

"Why is my computer not working? What's going on? It's not possible that he's taken control of my computer in just five minutes, is it?" Kong Manni was surprised, she can't use either the mouse or the keyboard now.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the video and see if it's a good match for you.

"How did you do it?" Kong Manni looked surprised and asked out of the blue.

Chapter 127

"I control it remotely and then modify your protection software and your computer system, so I can control your computer! Unless you switch off the power, your computer will always be under my control." Chan smiled.

"Awesome, can you teach me your networking skills?" Kong Manni asked seriously, she is now at a very high level of networking skills, teachers can no longer teach her, because she is better than them. In the computer science department, teachers usually only teach the basics, and students have to do a lot of research on their own. Now she sees a higher level of networking skills, so she wants to learn.

"If you come to work for me, I will not only pay your salary but also teach you advanced network technology myself, but I need to sign a ten-year cooperation contract with you, so if you agree, I can teach you now." Chen Haohuan spoke out. It's really hard to find someone with great networking skills in this era, so Chen Haoxuan needs to take advantage of the opportunity.

"You can't ask me to do anything else other than having something about network work, in which case I'll agree." Kong Manni was serious, the salary is not very much she cares, because she knows that Chen Haohuan is in such a position, it is impossible to offer too low a salary, what she values is Chen Haohuan's network skills, which is something that money cannot buy.

"OK, then come over now! Let's talk in person." Chen Hoxuan.

"Okay."

Chen Hao Xuan slept for a long time, he hadn't even eaten his lunch yet, he was hungry now, thanks to the many snacks left. Chen Hao Xuan picked up a chicken claw and nibbled on it, he also politely said to Li Mingmei, "Classmate, don't be polite to me, take whatever you like!"

"Thanks." Li Mingmei wouldn't dare to take it! The snacks were placed in front of Yang Lin and the others, and looking at the drunkenness of the three of them, she was worried that they would suddenly molest her.

Kong Manni arrived soon after, and after discussing the details of her work with Chen Haohuan, he taught her about network technology. As for the contract, it will be signed tomorrow.

He wanted to recruit more, but there are really too few talents in this era.

In the morning, Chen Hao Xuan was recruiting and in the afternoon, Chen Hao Xuan was teaching, it seems that Chen Hao Xuan's life is very busy. He didn't have an office, so he asked Kong Manni and the others to manage the website for him with the computer right in the school, and as for the rest time, they adjusted it themselves, but one person was online during the day anyway.

The next day, Chen signed a contract with Kong Manni and Li Mingmei, and today he taught them for another day, and he needed to teach them some advanced internet technology quickly. As he is likely to be busy from tomorrow, the day after tomorrow is the first day of the sale of omni-phones and he needs to attend the opening ceremony.

August 14 was the craziest day of the century for Chan Ho Hin and Chen Yina, who shopped like hell, buying everything they liked, regardless of how expensive it was. The RMB 1.1 billion that Amanci Binky had remitted to Chen Hao Xuan had already arrived, so they didn't have to worry about running out of money.

On 15 August, Chen Hao Xuan attended the opening ceremony of the Omniphone held by Zhang Tianqi, it was a really crowded day, people came to want to buy Omniphone as soon as possible, because Zhang Tianqi said that Omniphone can not be sold nationwide yet, because there is not much stock, so those who want to buy Omniphone need to hurry up.

It is good to work with others, Chen HaoXuan does not need to do anything, just need to show up there, all the rest is responsible for Zhang TianQi.

On the 16th of August, Chen Hao Xuan went home, he drove a BMW, followed by 30 motorbike riders, these 30 people are the veterans Chen Hao Xuan invited, Chen Hao Xuan bought each of them three suits and each of them a 6,000 yuan knife motorbike, this knife motorbike is very manly, strong horsepower, heavy body, speed can reach more than 100 kilometres per hour, in order to make Jiang Dong and the others even cooler, Chen Hao Xuan gave them a choice! The motorbikes are black knives and they are given sunglasses to go with them. Awesome is awesome, but it looks a bit like a triad.

Li Jun and the two others, who had been staying at the Chen Village, had received notice of Chen Hao Xuan's arrival yesterday, so they dressed up early today and waited at the gate for Chen Hao Xuan's return. When the two of them saw the group of motorbikes behind Chen Haohuan's BMW, they were so envious that they wanted to go crazy.

They both knew that those were their colleagues. They were now wearing camouflage uniforms, with none of their transportation, and the camouflage uniforms had faded after wearing them for so long. The two of them were now compared to Jiang Dong and the others, like the difference between a beggar and an emperor.

As soon as Chen Haohuan's car stopped, Li Jun and the two of them hurried to help Chen Haohuan and Chen Yina open the door. "Welcome back Boss Chen." Li Jun respectfully shouted to Chen Haohuan.

"Well, you go and arrange for these brothers!" Chen Hao Xuan to Li Jun.

Hearing Chen Haoxuan's instructions, Li Jun ran to Jiang Dong, patted Jiang Dong's shoulder hard and said: "Good boy, wearing a suit and tie, and riding a knife motorbike. By the way, you all already have them, do mine and Li Botao's have any?"

"You be careful, it's a branded item." Jiang Dong slapped away Li Jun's hand.

"Damn, I believe I'll strip you of your clothes." Li Jun joked.

"Don't don't, I can't afford to buy expensive clothes if I break them. Both yours and Li Botao's are there, but they're kept at our boss's place in Xinshan City, so you'll get your benefits when the boss brings you along next time he returns to Xinshan City." Jiang Dong explained.

"Great, this wants the boss to go back now." Li Jun was excited.

"What are you so excited about! If you want, I can give you a suit first and lend you my motorbike, but you'll have to give me back a new one when you get it." Jiang Dong was very generous.

"Jiang Dong, brother, buddy, you're too nice, I've decided that if I'm a girl in my next life, I'll marry none other than you." Li Jun joked.

Li Jun and the others were clowning around, while Chen Haoxuan he went to Chen Yina's house first thing when he returned to Chen Village, as he always does, it's a habit.

Chen Yina had called her family yesterday, so Li Ping and the others knew that Chen Hao Xuan would be back today, and this time they saw Chen Hao Xuan a little different from before, they were much more polite to Chen Hao Xuan, perhaps because Chen Hao Xuan is now very high.

At Chen Yina's house, after Chen Hao Xuan had a chat with Liping and the others, Chen Hao Xuan suddenly took out a cheque from his pocket and handed it to Liping, saying: "Auntie, this is the money earned by Nana."

Chapter 128

Li Ping was very happy to hear that it was Chen Yina who earned the money, she smiled and said: "Nana earned the money, just give it to her, we can support ourselves now that we are working for you. We have no place to spend our money in the countryside, so it's better for you to keep it for yourselves."

"Brother Hen, when did I earn money to put with you?" She was curious about the money she had been given by Chen Hao Xuan, and wondered when she had put it there.

"You forgot the bet! The 100 million RMB one, I said I'll give 100 million RMB to whoever can answer it. You were the first one to answer, so you rightfully got 100 million RMB." Chen Hao Xuan smiled to Chen Yina.

"Ah-, brother Xuan, are you really serious?" Elaine Chen was shocked.

"Of course, I know you don't want it, so I won't give it to you, give it to your family." Chen smiled, then Chen said to Liping, "Auntie, I have more than a billion RMB now, so don't worry that I'll have no money to use, so you can accept this 100 million RMB! When I have time, I'll build a villa and buy a small car, and as my future in-laws should live like that." Chen Hao Xuan smiled.

When Chen Yina heard what Chen Hao Xuan said, her face blushed slightly and she happily leaned her head on Chen Hao Xuan's shoulder and said, "Brother Xuan, you are so good."

Chen Haoxuan had said so, and if she did not accept it, it was as if she did not treat Chen Haoxuan as one of her own. Li Ping received the cheque for RMB 100 million and said excitedly, "I'll take it then, thank you Little Xuan."

"Auntie, I would like you and Uncle to do me a favour, I would like to hold a banquet in our village on the 18th of this month and invite all the villagers and my friends from Chen's village to have a meal to celebrate my newly built villa and my becoming a real rich man. So I would like to ask you to help me inform the villagers that you are all responsible for this banquet, which will be different from the last one, and to buy whatever you feel is good and expensive. I want to show my relatives what a luxurious life I lead," Chen said. Chen Hao Xuan said.

"Well, Xiao Xuan, I know, don't worry, I will do it well." Li Ping was firm.

Chen Hao Xuan took out some papers from his clutch bag and handed them to Chen Yina: "Nana, this is a list of all the people I want to invite, you call them for me and inform them."

"Well, I know brother Xuan." Chen Yina passed the list handed to her by Chen Hao Xuan and responded.

"Okay, you guys busy me, I'm going back to make arrangements for those men of mine. Oh, right, Auntie, don't forget to cook thirty more meals for the men." Chen Hao Xuan said.

"Don't worry! I know that." Li Ping smiled.

When Chen Haoxuan returned home Li Jun had already arranged those security guards, all arranged inside the row of houses behind the villa, the front of the house was a vacant lot, there was also a lot of training equipment in the vacant lot, which was specially built for Li Jun and the others by Chen Haoxuan.

Chen Hao Xuan came to the house at the back of the villa, he stood on the open space and shouted loudly: "Emergency assembly."

As soon as the voice fell, the room was in chaos, and then Li Jun and the others quickly ran out of the room fully dressed and formed three lines in front of Chen Hao Xuan.

"From today onwards, Lin Hao is your captain and Jiang Dong is your vice captain, you will all have to listen to them from now on, understand?" Chen Hao Xuan spoke loudly to Li Jun and the others.

"Know." Li Jun and the others coaxed loudly at the same time, their voices were so loud that the whole village could hear this roar.

"From today onwards you will all learn the art of fighting, the essentials of fighting is the experience of fighting and familiarity with the human body, open your mind's judgment how to use the fastest time to subdue the enemy. I will be the instructor myself, and after a month, if one of you has the best results, he will receive a prize of 10,000 yuan.

Apart from Li Jun and Li Botao, whom I have never taught here, I have taught you some of the others in the city of Xinshan, except for Lin Hao and the four of them whose skills I know, I don't know about the others, and I don't know how good you are. How about this! Anyway, there's still some time before dinner, so let's have a trial run and let me see how good you are." Chen Haoxuan majestically.

"How to compare! Boss Chen." Jiang Dong spoke up and asked.

"Take out what you think is your best skill and compare it to mine." Chen Haohuan bullishly said.

"I was a marksman when I was a soldier, and my best skill is using a gun, but I'm much worse at fighting. Without a real gun, how am I supposed to compete with Boss Chen?" Mao Yipeng spoke out.

"Are you a marksman? Oh ....., nice one! No wonder I said you were so bad at it, Zhang Qing even recommended you to me, saying that you were all powerful in the army. I can't get a real gun, but I can get an imitation one, so we'll have a match some other time. If you're really a marksman, you should be good at shooting from wherever you are, so let's compare it to a child's toy gun!" Chen Haohuan smiled evilly.

"Okay, I agree." Mao Yipeng was excited, the chance to showcase his abilities would be a pleasure no matter who he was.

"Jiang Dong, you go to the village and buy all the toy guns from the commissary, and return quickly." Chen Haoxuan told Jiang Dong.

"Yes." Jiang Dong turned around and quickly ran to the side where the motorbike was parked, and rode it out.

With the motorbike and the proximity of the kiosk, it only took Jiang Dong a few minutes to buy a pile of toy guns back. Jiang Dong put the pile of toy weapons on the ground and set them up.

Chen Haoxuan said to Mao Yipeng, "Mao Yipeng, choose for yourself! Choose as many toy guns as you like, and when you're done, we'll fight against each other. These toy guns can't kill anyone, but it's quite painful to hit someone."

"Okay, I got it." Mao Yipeng would say, he stood out, walked over to the toy guns placed in front of him, squatted down, and started to select the toy guns. Mao Yipeng would pick up each toy gun and try it out.

Chen Hao Xuan was also choosing toy guns like Mao Yipeng, Chen Hao Xuan chose a half-meter long toy gun, and two toy mobile phones that were similar to real guns, bullets, Chen Hao Xuan put a lot of them into his pocket, the bullets of toy guns are all made of plastic, Chen Hao Xuan chose a long gun loaded with such plastic bullets, if you shoot at a wall of about three meters, the plastic bullets and the wall collision will split apart, if it hits people, no one will die, but there are still traumatic injuries.

"Have you chosen it yet?" Chen Hao Xuan asked Mao Yipeng.

Chapter 129

"Okay." Mao Yipeng stood up and replied.

"Okay then, you go to the other side of the wall and we'll get started." Chen Hao Xuan Dao.

After Mao Yipeng went to the corner of the villa, he said loudly, "Let's start."

Chen Hao Xuan likewise went to the other side of the corner, he took his phone out and turned on the camera, he crouched down and put the phone on the ground and gently moved it out, he could see the other side of the wall by the phone's camera, this is the tactic, as long as anything is beneficial to the battle, Chen Hao Xuan will use it to his advantage. There was a few centimetres of grass on the ground and this was just enough to hide Chen Haohuan's phone so that it wouldn't be so obvious.

Mao Yipeng, who was a marksman and had once fought with special forces, was even better than Yang Lin and the others in terms of tactics, but not in terms of fighting, as he was suited to assassination.

He took off the sunglasses he was wearing, and used them as mirrors to see what was happening on the other side of the wall.

Mao Yipeng was still not as strong as Chen Hao Xuan, who put his mobile phone in the corner as soon as he reached it, and started monitoring the other side as soon as he put it there. Mao Yipeng, on the other hand, hid in the corner and only after a while did he put out his sunglasses.

The sunglasses were black and conspicuous in the daytime, so as soon as Mao Yipeng stuck out the sunglasses, Chen Haohuan saw the video from his phone. Chen Hao Xuan's reaction was fast, he saw a quick spin, he spun a stop, and then shot. He spun to a stop and then fired, spinning and firing.

Mao Yipeng's sunglasses were shattered by Chen Haoxuan with a loud bang, and from a distance of more than ten meters, it seemed that the killing power of this toy gun was quite powerful.

"Jiang Dong, what kind of toy gun did you buy! So much killing power." Li Jun, who was watching the battle from the side, asked Jiang Dong, who was beside him, curiously.

"I don't know, because I was in too much of a hurry to try it out, but I know the toy gun our boss chose wasn't cheap, costing 60 yuan. When I bought it, I wondered why a toy gun was so expensive! Only now do I know that it's not an ordinary toy gun." Jiang Dong explained, in fact, these toy guns were not available in Chen Village because the villagers could not afford them in the past, but now it's different, Chen Hao Xuan acquired things some time ago, so the villagers of Chen Village made a lot of money.

The first thing I noticed was that there was a lot of money in the market, and it was a lot of money for me. Because one of the older children was lucky enough to shoot a bird, the other children were interested in hunting, and they went to buy toy guns that had high killing power. In order to satisfy the children in the village, they went to buy some illegal toy guns to sell to the children in the village.

"Mao Yipeng, aren't you a sharpshooter? Why are marksmen so slow to react?" Chen Haohuan spoke up.

"Boss Chen, don't get cocky, you haven't won me yet!" Mao Yipeng replied loudly, he knew that Chen Haohuan was so good, but he didn't know that Chen Haohuan was also a marksman, and even better than him.

Mao Yipeng squatted down, the sunglasses moved carefully outside again, he found no one on the other side of the wall, so he slowly walked out. Suddenly a figure flew out from the corner, and Mao Yipeng immediately fired.

Unlike a real gun, a toy gun needs to be re-pulled every time it is fired, as it is fired by spring force. As soon as Mao Yipeng fired, a shadow flew out of the corner that had just come out of the wall again.

"Hiss, that hurts!" Mao Yipeng couldn't help but say that his forehead had just been hit by Chen Hao Xuan, he now knew that the power of this toy gun was similar to that of an empty cannonball, and that it hurt a lot to hit a person, he was sure that there must be a red spot on his forehead.

It wasn't Chen Hao Xuan who flew out of the corner just now, but rather Chen Hao Xuan's clothes, which Chen Hao Xuan used to confuse Mao Yipeng, and it was the real Chen Hao Xuan who came out of the corner afterwards. After Chen Hao Xuan fired a shot, he dropped the long toy gun, which had a strap for hanging around his neck, so as soon as Chen Hao Xuan let go of it, he didn't have to worry about the toy gun falling.

Chen Hao Xuan was very fast, he pulled out two pistol toys at the same time, bang, bang, two sounds, hitting the index finger of Mao Yipeng's right hand and the ulna of Mao Yipeng's wrist, which caused Mao Yipeng's right side to fall into a state of temporary paralysis.

Chen Haohuan threw the two toys to the ground and then threw the toy gun hanging around his neck to Mao Yipeng and said, "I didn't feel that you were a marksman?".

"This - this ....." Mao Yipeng was very embarrassed, he didn't know what to say to Chen Haohuan, he was tempted to say that he was definitely a marksman, at least that's what his comrades had praised him for when he was in the army. If he said he was, but he lost so badly that he didn't know how to explain it to Chen Hao Xuan.

Chen didn't want Mao Yipeng to be too embarrassed either, so he shouted to Mao Yipeng, "Return to formation."

"Yes." Mao Yipeng responded and ran back to the team.

Chen Hao Xuan walked to the front of the team again and said loudly, "Who else of you has great skills to come out and compete with me?"

"Boss Chen, I compete with you in strength, I can lift two hundred pounds with one hand and carry five hundred pounds." A very strong-looking man stepped out of the group and spoke loudly to Chen Haohuan. His name was Zhang Tiezhu, and he was as strong as an ox, and even people in the army who were stronger than him couldn't beat him, because he was as strong as fast steel, and ordinary attacks were useless against him.

"Forget about comparing strength! I think you can see the strength of my body?" Chen was embarrassed that he was strong enough to carry up to a hundred pounds, any more and he was worried that it would crush him. He had little strength now, but he believed that in the near future he would be able to match the strength of an elephant.

"Then I'll compete with you in a fight!" Zhang Tiezhu spoke out.

"Fine, you make your move! If you beat me, I'll give you a thousand RMB bonus, and the same goes for everyone else." Chen Haoxuan was serious.

"Then I'll be more than welcome." Zhang Tie Zhu rushed towards Chen Hao Xuan like a tank after saying that.

Compared to strength Chen didn't dare to compete with Zhang Tiezhu, but compared to fighting, even if it was ten Zhang Tiezhu - Chen didn't take it to heart.

When Zhang Tie Zhu was close to Chen Hao Xuan, he swung his fist at Chen Hao Xuan's chest, not daring to hit Chen Hao Xuan in the head for fear that one punch would send Chen Hao Xuan to hell.

Who is Chan Ho Hin? With a spin of his body, he quickly grabbed Zhang Tiezhu's wrist with his right hand and pulled him forward, then pushed Zhang Tiezhu's back with his left hand while Chen Hao Xuan's right foot extended out.

Zhang Tie Zhu's own power to rush forward and the power of his fist, coupled with Chen Hao Xuan pulling and pushing him, prevented Zhang Tie Zhu from stopping right away. Zhang Tiezhu looked ahead, not down, as Chen Hao Xuan put him down. Zhang Tiezhu's huge body fell to the ground with a bang. Chen Hao Xuan ran to the side of Zhang Tie Zhu, the knee of his right foot pressed down on Zhang Tie Zhu, and the palm of his right hand slashed at the side of Zhang Tie Zhu's neck, a place full of arteries that could easily knock someone unconscious, but could be fatal if the strength was not well controlled.

Zhang Tiezhu grunted and passed out.

Jiang Dong and the others, their mouths wide open, looked at Zhang Tiezhu, who had fallen to the ground and fainted, with incredulous eyes. They knew that Zhang Tiezhu was an expert, but his body was so strong that it was difficult for ordinary people to hurt him. But Chen Haoxuan had subdued Zhang Tiezhu with just one move, something that none of them could do.

"Strong - our boss is too strong." Li Jun was surprised.

"Yeah! I can only really see the boss's skills now." Jiang Dong was also surprised, the last time he met ten strong masked men in the city of Xinshan, they were so busy with each other's enemies at that time that they didn't see how Chen Hao Xuan subdued them, now he really saw how fast Chen Hao Xuan's skills were.

Chen Haoxuan walked in front of Zhang Tiezhu and extended his right hand to pinch Zhang Tiezhu in the middle of his person, Zhang Tiezhu slowly woke up, he climbed up, raised his right hand and rubbed his neck, curiously said, "What just happened to me?"

"Zhang Tie Zhu, you still have the nerve to say that you were knocked unconscious by our boss in one move, it was really so bad that I'm embarrassed to say it." Li Jun joked.

"You cow, you come on!" Zhang Tiezhu was exasperated, he was put down by Chen Haoxuan in one move, so he was upset and so he took out his anger on Li Jun.

"I can't beat the boss, I know what I'm doing, so I didn't challenge the boss." Li Jun proudly said.

"Who else dares to challenge me? I'm rich if I win!" Chen Haoxuan smiled evilly.

"Boss, compared to intelligence we can't beat you, compared to physical strength we're not as good as you, apart from comparing strength with you, we don't even know what else we're good at compared to you." Jiang Dong spoke out, he meant what he said, he had been following Chen Hao Xuan all this time, Chen Hao Xuan's intelligence was one of the best of all the people he had met.

"Then you're all in this together!" Chen Hao Xuan was bullish.

"Old - boss, you're right, right? There are 35 of us here! Are you sure you can beat thirty-five of us who have been soldiers?" With a surprised look on his face, Jiang Dong asked Chen Hao Xuan, although he admitted that Chen Hao Xuan was very powerful, but how could one person beat 35 men? And it's thirty-five veterans who have been in the army.

"Don't you worry, I'll be fine, come on! All of you together, let me see if you are trash." Chen Haoxuan deliberately provoked Jiang Dong and the others.

"The boss has said so, we can't let the boss underestimate us. Brothers, let's go together." Jiang Dong yelled loudly, and after saying that, he killed Chen Hao Xuan first.

Chen Hao Xuan suddenly ran to the right because he wanted to disrupt Jiang Dong's plan of attack and they were heading straight towards him, so he suddenly ran to the right, which would make Jiang Dong and the others lose their target at once and need to turn around to chase him, it takes time to stop and turn around, this short time was Chen Hao Xuan's chance.

After running a dozen steps to the right, Chen Hao Xuan turned around and attacked Jiang Dong's side. As soon as he was close to Jiang Dong and the others, Chen used all his strength, his moves were simple, short, swift, interplaying fists and kicks, attacking and defending, dodging the truth and striking the weak, combining strength and softness, striking hard and soft, striking hard and fast, short fists and elbows, and slipping and slamming.

Chen HaoXuan's speed and strength gathered together to form a terrifying momentum, and whenever Chen HaoXuan approached Jiang Dong and the others, Jiang Dong and the others could feel the fear.

After only a short while, Chen Hao Xuan began to pant, unable to use heavy hands, unable to use deadly force, unable to hold a weapon, and partial to his poor physical strength.

Half an hour later, when Chen Hao Xuan had put down half of Jiang Dong and the others, Chen Hao Xuan finally managed to shout, "Stop."

Hearing Chen Haoxuan's voice, Jiang Dong and the others stopped their attack, and Jiang Dong curiously asked Chen Haoxuan, "Boss, why did you suddenly shout stop? Haven't we split the score yet?"

"Can't you see I'm gasping for air right now, you bastard? You should also know that my body is not as strong as yours, well, no more fighting with you, I will die of exhaustion if I continue to fight." Chen Haohuan panted.

"Boss, so does that mean we've won?" Li Jun excitedly asked.

"You guys are winning shit! I'm afraid of hurting you, I don't dare to use a heavy or deadly hand, otherwise you'd all be corpses already, and if you give me a dagger, I can kill you all in ten minutes.

Believe it or not?" Chen Hao Xuan exhaled, he alone put half of them in Jiang Dong, Li Jun still has the nerve to hate the bonus, can he not be angry!

"Boss, do you need us to help you to rest?" Jiang Dong was concerned and asked Chen Haohuan.

"No, I'm not that weak yet, you all go wash your faces! Dinner should be served later." Chen Hao Xuan.

Chen Hao Xuan went back inside the villa, took a shower and changed into a clean set of clothes before coming out, and Chen Hao Xuan went to Chen Yina's house for dinner as usual.

In the afternoon, Li Ping went to help Chen Hao Xuan inform all the villagers of Chen Jia Village, telling them that Chen Hao Xuan was inviting the whole village to dinner on the 19th.

There are thousands of people in Chenjia Village, and Li Ping had only informed more than a hundred families, and the news spread throughout the village. She was carrying a bag with all the invitations in it, and they were all in order so that she could notify people more easily, and she only had to follow the villagers' house numbers to know where they had been notified.

When Li Ping passed by Chen Haorong's house, she hesitated, the invitations were written by her, her husband and Chen Yina, and the whole village had them, but not Chen Haorong's house. "Should I give them the invitation or not?" Li Ping stood in front of Chen Haorong's house, torn.

"Yo! I wondered who it was! So it's Li Ping who got rich by selling her daughter! What are you standing in front of my house for?" Li Xin, on the first floor, sneered at Li Ping, downstairs.
