

A Billionaire's Reincarnation Chapter 211-220

Chapter 211

"Usually when a person says something wrong, he is told to take it back. So I want you to take a big piece of paper, and I, the winner, will write the words "The Sick Man of East Asia" on it and make him swallow it. Chen Haohuan yin smiled.

"Yes, yes, yes, let him swallow the paper." Yang Lin excitedly said.

Yang Lin quickly ran out, he ran to the kiosk inside the school and bought a large piece of drawing paper and a brush and ink.

Soon Yang Lin ran back to the karate club with his things, he placed them in front of Chen Haohuan and gasped to Chen Haohuan, "Haohuan, I've brought everything."

"Yeah." Chen Hao Xuan responded, he squatted down, opened the drawing paper, which was only a meter and a half wide, picked up a brush and glued some ink on it before starting to write on it.

Matsui Ichiro, who was already on his feet, saw that Chen Haohuan really wanted him to swallow the drawing paper, he was afraid, the quality of the paper was good, so it was thicker than normal paper, over a metre and a half long, how is this going to be eaten!

"You can't abuse me like this," Matsui Ichiro yelled at Chen Haohuan.

Chen didn't look up, he was writing seriously, he said indifferently, "You are only allowed to bully us Chinese, but we Chinese are not allowed to bully you? You insulted the people in China, you're not just stupid! This paper - you have to eat it today if you don't want to, or I'll break your limbs and make you an invalid."

Matsui Ichiro impulsively shouted at Chen Haohuan, "I will challenge you."

By this time Chan had already written the four words East Asian Sick Man with golden hooks and iron strokes, bonhomie, vigour, like sand scratches and dragons and phoenixes. He picked up the paper and said to Matsui Ichiro with a smile, "Matsui Ichiro, you seem to be even more foolish than a pig, knowing that you can't beat me and I want to challenge you. Fine, if you fight me, I won't let you eat this drawing paper, but I need to warn you beforehand, I will break your limbs."

Hearing Chen's words, Matsui Ichiro remembered that he was no match for Chen at all, and that it was impulse that made him say the wrong thing. Matsui Ichiro squeaked, "I - I mean didn't you just say that there are many experts in your country, China? Then I'll get those friends of mine in a while and have a one-on-one match with you, none of us will be allowed to repeat the match, let me see if you have more experts from China or from our island." Matsui Ichiro said and the man got all arrogant.

"Yeah! You name it!" Chen Hao Xuan was quick to say that he wanted Lin Hao and the others to come and compete with these kids, so that Lin Hao and the others could have a long experience.

"Next Wednesday, that's October 10th, we'll hold a martial arts sparring competition at the University of Xinshan City, and let me remind you first that I'll be bringing more than twenty karate masters who are no worse than me, so you'd better get more masters to deal with it before it's too late! Hahaha" Matsui Ichiro laughed.

"Okay, no problem, now please eat this drawing paper first!" Chan smirked at Matsui Ichiro.

"Ah - you're still letting me eat?" Matsui Ichiro was surprised.

Chen snorted and said, "Hmph, a competition is a competition, and eating paper for the sake of eating paper is not to be confused. If you don't eat the drawing paper now, I won't have time to wait for you, so let me just waste you!" Chen Hao Xuan said walking towards Matsui Ichiro, as if he really wanted to waste Matsui Ichiro.

The fact that Chen had struck so hard made Matsui Ichiro dare not disbelieve him, and he said with extreme reluctance, "Fine, I'll eat, but on the tenth of this month, if you lose, all of you who entered the competition will have to eat drawing paper as big as this, and on it will be written East Asian sick man."

"If you guys lose, you guys will do the same, that's fine." Chen was calm, his men he knew, Lin Hao and the others were now much more powerful than before, if they fought unarmed against each other, he would be able to beat 30 to 40 ordinary people by himself.

"OK." Matsui Ichiro roared, he took the drawing paper in Chen Haohuan's hand, tore a piece, put it in his mouth and chewed it, this chewing immediately made his eyebrows furrow, he felt that the paper was really too unpalatable, so unpalatable that he wanted to vomit.

After eating a small piece, it took Matsui Ichiro four minutes, which made Chen Haoxuan dissatisfied, and he yelled out to Matsui Ichiro: "Hey, I said are you a man or not? Eat like a woman and take small bites, can you eat faster? I don't have that much time to spend here watching you eat and perform."

It was all Matsui Ichiro could do to swallow his anger, he imagined the drawing paper to be Chen Haohuan and started to gulp it down, when he was half way through the paper he couldn't hold back his vomit any longer, wow, it was very vomitous all over the place.

"Matsui Ichiro, I'm warning you, if you vomit again, I'll make you eat more of what you vomited," Chan coldly said to Matsui Ichiro.

"I really can't eat it, the paper is too unpalatable, just spare me!" With a bitter face, Matsui Ichiro begged Chan for forgiveness.

"No, one is for me to break your limbs, the other is to finish eating this drawing paper, you choose! I'll give you twenty minutes' time, and if you don't eat all the drawing paper within twenty minutes, I'll waste you." Chen Haoxuan was cold.

"I'll give you money, and I'm willing to give you 10,000 RMB if you let me go." Matsui Ichiro pulled his best trick, bribery. He is a karate club instructor at the University of the City of New Hills, and that's 4,000 to 5,000 RMB a month, so he thinks 10,000 RMB is a lot, and for the sake of 10,000 RMB, he guesses Chen Hao Xuan should let him go.

Matsui Ichiro has only recently arrived in the city of Xinshan and doesn't care about China, and no one has mentioned Chen Haohuan to him, so he doesn't yet know that Chen Haohuan is a billionaire. If he had known, he might have handed over his entire fortune.

"10,000 RMB? Hahahaha, did I hear that right? He wanted to give me 10,000 RMB to let him go, but he was so good at telling jokes" Chen Haoxuan laughed.

Yang Lin and the others laughed along with him, who in the city of Xinshan, or even the whole of China, didn't know that Chen Hao Xuan was a billionaire, even most foreigners knew that Chen Hao Xuan was a billionaire, and it was ridiculous that Matsui Ichiro, who was in the school where Chen Hao Xuan studied, didn't know who Chen Hao Xuan was.

"Is it less? Then I'll give you RMB 50,000, you let me off the hook and I'll cancel the match on the tenth day." Matsui Ichiro was serious about Chen Haohuan.

Chapter 212

Yang Lin pointed at Chen Haoxuan. To Matsui Ichiro: "Hahahaha, don't you know who he is? How ignorant are you? Who in the world doesn't know that Chen Haoxuan is a billionaire, and he is also the largest shareholder of the Communication Mobile Group, and has gathered countless investors to invest hundreds of billions of RMB in the Omniphone project, which he made. How dare you try to get him to let you go for 50,000 RMB, do you think he is a billionaire who looks down on you for 50,000 RMB?"

"Don't even think about bribing me, I'm not worried about losing on number 10 because I've got a lot of guys like him! You kids on the other side, that's enough." Chen pointed at Li Jun and sneered at Matsui Ichiro.

Matsui Ichiro was very confident in his friends, he didn't believe that all of Chen Haoxuan's men were as powerful as Li Jun and the others, so he thought, since Chen Haoxuan was so rich, he should find a way to get some, otherwise there was no benefit, his friends didn't want to come.

Matsui Ichiro spoke out to Chen Haoxuan: "Surprisingly you're so rich, so let's raise the stakes on our match! For each match, the stakes are 10,000 RMB."

Chen Haoxuan waved his hand, very impatient: "You are looking down on me, 10,000 RMB, I'm a few hundred thousand or so a minute, do you know that you now Lang spend my time can rebuild a regular campus? Hurry up and eat, within five minutes, if you don't finish eating, I'm going to do it."

Forced to do so, Matsui Ichiro tearfully swallowed the drawing paper one mouthful at a time, vowing that he would take revenge and he would make Chen Haoxuan regret treating him this way.

When he left, Yang Lin, Li Jun and the others followed him and they sat down on the lawn in front of the library.

Yang Lin, who was envious, said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Hao Xuan, I didn't expect all your men to be so good, if only I was as good as them."

Chen Hao Xuan turned his head to Yang Lin and said, "If you were like them and used to train for more than ten hours a day, you would be as good as him."

"They have time, but I don't have time ah! I'm a student." Yang Lin defended himself.

"You - you're a student, I think you're almost a rogue." Chen Haoxuan gave Yang Lin a blank look.

"Alright, don't talk to you about that, I just think I'm a student myself anyway. Now I'm asking you, are all those thirty-odd men of yours really as powerful as Li Jun?" Yang Lin asked Chen Haoxuan seriously.

"Do I have to lie to you about this?" Chen Hao Xuan Dao.

"Damn, you're too powerful then, aren't you? With more than thirty men that powerful, I dare say that even a gang of a few hundred men won't dare to mess with you in Xinshan City in the future." Yang Lin looked at Chen Hao Xuan adoringly. He knew that all of Chen Haoxuan's men were retired soldiers with average strength, but he didn't expect that after half a year of Chen Haoxuan's training, they had all become experts.

In the past, Chen Haoxuan's physique was so poor that he didn't dare to fight with others and relied on his skills to win, but now, when Chen Haoxuan had just had a firefight with Matsui Ichiro, he could feel that Chen Haoxuan's physique was much stronger than before. It wasn't strange that Chen had become stronger, what was strange was that those of Chen's men had also become so strong, which made him feel that Chen was becoming more and more mysterious.

"The competition on the tenth, are you participating?" Chen Hao Xuan asked Yang Lin.

Yang Lin said awkwardly, "I can't, I'm afraid of losing face, I can't even beat Matsui Ichiro, let alone go to a match." Although Yang Lin was strong, he was more embarrassed, and he would never do anything to lose face.

"Just you wait! On the day of the tenth, I will make Matsui Ichiro and the other kids regret coming to China." Chen Hao Xuan smiled evilly, he had thought about it, he wasn't busy lately anyway, he would go home later, train Lin Hao and the others ruthlessly and make them show off on the tenth.

"I can't wait to watch the match now, that Matsui Ichiro is so confident, I don't know if those friends of his are even better fighters than him." Yang Lin worried.

"Don't worry, even if Ichiro Matsui's friends are even better than him, because Li Jun is not the strongest under me, he's barely average under me." Chen Hao Xuan.

Yang Lin wasn't very clear about the strength of Chen Haoxuan's men, he only knew the number of Chen Haoxuan's men, but he didn't expect Chen Haoxuan's men to be so strong that they were terrifying. He had just thought that Li Jun was the strongest of Chen Haoxuan's men, but he didn't expect it to be barely average.

If he were to compare himself with Li Jun and the others, he would probably only be at the bottom of the pile for Li Jun and the others. The word "high hand" was now impossible for him to find in himself.

"Hao Xuan, why don't I take a leave of absence to train with your men, or else when you let me manage those businesses at the Feng Yue place later on, I won't be able to beat anyone else if I'm bullied, and I'll lose face for you." Yang Lin seriously told Chen Haohuan.

"Okay, you go take your leave now! Come with me to Chen Village later." Chen Hao Xuan was very quick to agree, the reason he valued Yang Lin so much was because Yang Lin was an old fart in the triads, knew many people in the triads, people were righteous, the main thing was that he was not a bad person, did not like drugs, did not like stealing chickens and dogs and such things, there were very few people who could mix in the triads to be as pure as him, so Chen Hao Xuan valued him very much and wanted to cultivate him into a power in his darkness.

Chen Hao Xuan is a man who has lived two lifetimes, he is not very familiar with this aspect of business, but he knows that shopping malls are like battlefields, and many people are, if your business is better than others, others will try to harm you. So if you want to make your business bigger, better and more stable, it is necessary to develop all aspects of power, such as the government, shopping malls and the mafia, which no one dares to touch if you have people. It's also important that you don't do any illegal business. The biggest influence of others and the state cannot tolerate you.

When the time comes, Chen HaoXuan will let Yang Lin make his own world in the mafia in XinShan city, and then no one will be his enemy in XinShan city.

Yang Lin, he stood up and excitedly said to Chen Hao Xuan, "I'm going to hire a year and a half now, and I won't come back until I've outsmarted Li Jun and the others." Yang Lin is a gangster, he knows the truth that the strongest is the best, if he is not as strong as Li Jun and the others, what qualifications does he have to be the big brother.

Chapter 213

Yang Lin is a bully in the University of Xinshan City. This is something that all students and teachers know, he took leave very quickly, he ran to his class teacher's office and said, I have something to do, take a few months off, I'm leaving first. The reason why he took leave so quickly was because the teachers in the school were eager for him to leave, and it would be much more peaceful if he wasn't at the university.

Chen Hao Xuan left Li Jun and Li Botao to protect Chen Yina's safety while he drove Yang Lin to the Chen Village in his car.

When Chen Hao Xuan drove into Chen Jia Village, he saw that there were few people out to play in the village, and it was quiet, as if no one lived there.

After getting out of the car, he asked Yang Lin to go and look for Lin Hao and the others. Yang Lin had been here before and was familiar with the Chen family, and Yang Lin and Lin Hao had a good relationship, so he was not worried about being left out.

He saw Li Ping alone in the yard, chopping meat, and saw her rubbing her arm from time to time, so he knew she was very classy. Chen Hao Xuan went over and spoke out to Li Ping: "Aunt Ping, don't be busy, I'll do something for you first."

When Chen Hao Xuan came in, Li Ping didn't notice until Chen Hao Xuan made a sound and she realized that someone had come in. She raised her head and saw that it was Chen Hao Xuan, her face immediately revealed a kind smile: "Hao Xuan, you're back! Hey-, where's Nana? Is she not coming back?"

"She didn't, I came back because there was something I needed to take care of. Auntie Ping, when I drove into the village just now, I saw that the village was deserted, it wasn't even as busy as before, what's going on?" Chen Haohuan squatted in front of Li Ping and asked.

"When you started your business in the Chen Village, they made things difficult for you at every turn. But now that you've moved the garment factory away, those who were doing small business in our village have also left, and those who entered your garment factory have followed you to the city of Xinshan, so to speak! Those who can make money have gone out, and only those who can't make money and can't afford to stay in Chenjia Village.

In the past, when you were in Chenjia Village, all the villagers talked about was you, but now that you are gone, they have nothing to talk about. Bored they have to put their energy into ploughing the fields, now the villagers usually work in the fields and if they don't work they stay at home and rarely come out." Li Ping replies.

"Is this what happened as soon as I left? They're too dependent on me, aren't they?" Chen Hao Xuan was surprised.

"Who let you be great at it! Look at Xiao Min and her family, who relied on you to build their new house, and look at the women in the village who have gone into the garment factory and bought new furniture for their homes. You say that so many people who have followed you have not changed their lives? So the villagers want to get rich off you, and now that you've helped the garment factory to the city of Xinshan and the people don't come back often, they think in their hearts that you've abandoned them." Ping Li.

"Forgiveness is like this, just wait a little longer! If they do change, I'll consider bringing them to riches, as I'm not losing money myself anyway." Chen smiled.

"By the way, what are you back for?" Li Ping asked Chen Haohuan.

"There's a martial arts competition in a few days and I want Lin Hao and the others to participate, so I specially dared to come back and train them well for a few days while the competition hasn't started yet. Auntie Ping, you should cook more nutritious dishes in the next few days so that they can take good care of themselves." Chen Haoxuan told Li Ping.

"Well, I know." Li Ping should say.

"From now on, when it's almost time to eat every day, I will send a few people over to help you, so that you don't have to get so many things and get tired by yourself." Chen Hao Xuan was concerned to Li Ping.

"Xiao Xuan, no need, I can handle it myself, just let them train well." Li Ping was happy, she said in her heart: "I don't know which life I am blessed with, but I have such a good son-in-law."

"They train every day and go crazy after a while, so finding something for them to do should be done. Besides, things like chopping bones are perfect for them to do, as they are strong." Chen smiled.

"Alright then!" Li Ping was also too embarrassed to refuse Chen Haoxuan's good intentions any longer.

"Then I'll go back first, you take your time and get busy." Chen Hao Xuan greeted Li Ping and left.

In the past, there were always a few women in Li Ping's house who helped her, and he was moved to let them go into the garment factory to learn how to make clothes, but now, no one is helping Li Ping, and for this, Chen Hao Xuan feels a small sense of guilt towards Li Ping.

He went back to the villa, he went to the back of the villa, where Lin Hao and the others were training. When he arrived at the place where they were training, he saw that Yang Lin was being beaten by the worst of the security team, Li Wenshan, and he knew without thinking that Yang Lin must have asked Li Wenshan for a sparring session, otherwise Lin Hao and the others couldn't have cared.

When Yang Lin saw Chen Haohuan coming, he was worried that Chen Haohuan would misunderstand, he walked up to Chen Haohuan and said, "Boss, don't misunderstand, they are cutting and sparring, not fighting."

"Well, I can see that." Chen Hao Xuan smiled. I believe that from today Yang Lin will work out very hard, because he lost to the worst in his security team today, and he will fight to the death to save face.

Yang Lin, who had been knocked to the ground many times by Li Wenshan until he was bleeding from the corner of his mouth, shouted stop.

"Stop, I've lost." Yang Lin was dejected, he was feeling very bad at the moment, he was compared to the worst of Lin Hao and the others, he hadn't even been able to fight back, he had been knocked to the ground over and over again, this was really too big a blow for someone with a high self-esteem.

"Yang Lin, don't be discouraged, as long as you're willing to work hard, you'll surpass them one day." Chen Hao Xuan smiled to Chen Hao Xuan.

"This is of course, if I train every day like them, not to mention Lin Hao, you won't be able to beat me even if you're Hao Xuan." Yang Lin bullishly said.

"It's good to be confident, but if you brag too much, you'll hurt yourself," Chen Hao Xuan joked.

After Chen Hao Xuan and Yang Lin finished speaking, he suddenly shouted loudly, "All gather."

Hearing these words, Lin Hao and the others didn't have time to think before their own bodies quickly ran to line up in front of Chen Haohuan, an instinct they had developed over the years.

When Chen Haohuan saw Yang Lin standing dumbly on the side, not coming over to line up, he couldn't help but yell at Yang Lin, "I shouted all assembled, didn't you hear me! Come and line up." The training is different, you can't be as hip as usual, you have to be strict so that you can train awesome people.

Chapter 214

Hearing Chen Hao Xuan's words. Yang Lin came to his senses and he quickly ran to the end of the line.

When he saw that Yang Lin had lined up, Chen Hao Xuan spoke out, "This morning, I met an islander at the University of Xinshan City who called us Chinese sick men of East Asia, so I gave him a good lecture. But he still won't give up, he issued a challenge to me and he will then bring more than 20 karate masters to compete with me, so I also need to invite more than 20 masters to challenge what they call masters, one on one, which one of you wants to go?"

"Me." Lin Hao and the others shouted loudly at the same time, this competition was a great opportunity for them, it was up to them to make Chen Haohuan take them seriously this time.

"There are more than thirty of you, while I only need twenty, how about this! On the tenth day is the day of the competition, we will have a match by ourselves on the eighth day, whoever wins will go first and those who lose will be at the back of the queue, and then whether you will be able to go depends on how many places you take." Chen Hoxuan shouted.

"Boss, it's better than now, if it's set early, I'll be at ease." Lin Hao smiled and spoke out to Chen Hao Xuan.

"I will personally train you guys in the next few days, what do you want to learn - you can ask me for advice, when the eighth day, will you have a better chance of winning? But it's your choice whether to race now or on the 8th, so have at it! When to compare." Chen Hao Xuan yin smiled.

"Of course it's the eighth contest! Yes, eight than. Lin Hao's strength is now the strongest among us, of course he wants to compare now" All the security guards were shouting for a number eight match, they were no fools, they knew that their chances lay in learning from Chen Hao Xuan in the next few days, if they worked harder, they might have a chance to break into the top twenty on the day of number eight.

"Well then, you all chose number eight, so let's hurry up and train now! Now you find your own opponents, practice against each other, let me see your current strength, if there are any weaknesses in you, I will point them out to you." Chen Haoxuan.

"Yes." All of them responded loudly.

Lin Hao and the others all looked for someone with similar strength to themselves to compete, Lin Hao he was the strongest, so he looked for Jiang Dong who was the second strongest to compete. Yang Lin, he was so embarrassed! His opponent was still the worst one in that security team, he didn't have a choice, he didn't dare to dance the worse one, he just wanted to dance the worse one, but this worst one was so much better than him, how can we even compare!

"Brother, we are destined for each other!" Li Wenshan yin smiled at Yang Lin.

"Brother, I can't beat you, so you'd better go find someone else!" Chen Haohuan was embarrassed to Li Wenshan.

"You can't even beat me, you still want to fight with other people, I expert you, I'm the most gentle in this security team, if it's anyone else, you can see for yourself!" Li Wenshan said pointing at the people who were practicing against each other.

Yang Lin looked over and winced, if he hadn't heard Chen Haohuan say it was a duel practice just now, he would have thought it was a duel to the death, because he saw that Lin Hao and the others were all coming down hard on their opponents, and Chen Haohuan had just shouted to start, and now a few of them were already bleeding. And Chen Hao Xuan's expression was so calm, as if it was all normal.

Chen Hao Xuan his mind was much stronger than the average person, he could focus on several things at the same time and still remember that he had been focusing on Yang Lin from the very beginning, he saw Yang Lin watching the others practicing against each other, but he himself was not practicing against Li Wenshan.

Chen Hao Xuan walked into a stone table and picked up a whip, which was specially used by the instructor, Chen Hao Xuan picked up the whip, of course he wanted to whip someone! As for who to draw, I think the most likely one is Yang Lin, who is so obviously standing still!

Chen Hao Xuan came around to Yang Lin's rear, threw his hand and cracked the whip, Yang Lin suddenly felt his back burning hot and painful. Yang Lin turned to, and with a questioning face, said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Hao Xuan, why did you hit me?"

"Didn't I tell you to find someone to practice against? Why don't you get someone to practice against you, instead of watching someone else practice against you, are you here to watch the fun? If so - you need to get your ass back to the University of the city of Xinshan right now. If you want to learn here, you need to follow the orders of your instructors, and do what they tell you to do? Hear that." Chen Hao Xuan was serious to Yang Lin.

"Hao Xuan, I'm sorry, I'm going to find someone to practice against." Yang Lin was embarrassed to Chen Hao Xuan, he felt ashamed to be scolded by Chen Hao Xuan like this, but he wasn't angry because he knew the saying that a strict teacher produces a good disciple.

Yang Lin went to look for Li Wenshan with a bitter face, like Li Wenshan said, he is the most gentle, if you don't look for a gentle one, don't look for a tough one!

Chen HaoXuan is a professional instructor, he constantly corrects LinHao's moves and if anyone makes an extra move to look cool, he will whip them. Unlike Lin Hao and the others, Chen Hao Xuan can be considered a pioneer, because he created all his own fighting techniques, so powerful that he doesn't need any moves and has reached the point where he can do whatever he wants. If his body allows, he will not find another person in this world who is stronger than him.

The moves that Chen Hao Xuan taught Lin Hao and the others were the most used ones, he wanted Lin Hao to not allow them to use any moves that didn't help in the fight, when fighting not only needed a good body, but also a good mind, mind and body together were invincible, so Chen Hao Xuan even spoke up and asked questions when Lin Hao and the others were fighting.

Of all the people, the most fierce fighters were Jiang Dong and Lin Hao, who themselves were not convinced by each other. Because Jiang Dong had been leading the security team for the longest time, many people saw him as the captain, but Lin Hao, who was still lying in the hospital, became the captain, which made him feel very disgruntled, and he thought that he should not be the vice captain, but should be the captain, not the vice word.

Jiang Dong and the others knew that Chen Hao Xuan was interested in strength, so Jiang Dong thought that if he beat Jiang Dong, Chen Hao Xuan might give him the captain's position, so he looked for Lin Hao every time he practiced against him, but he lost again and again, and until now he had never beaten Lin Hao once, but he didn't give up, he believed that if he was willing to work hard, he could beat Lin Hao, and this was what Chen Hao Xuan told him.

Everyone knows what Jiang Dong is trying so hard for. In order to prevent Jiang Dong from surpassing him, Lin Hao himself also worked very hard, training for an hour on a project that others trained for an hour and a half, and that's how Jiang Dong was never able to beat him.

Chen Hao Xuan was very ruthless. He made Lin Hao and the others practice against each other for more than an hour, so tired that they were panting and, more importantly, they were already bruised and battered. But Chen Hao Xuan also forced them to change into camouflage clothes and a dagger and told them to run up the hill.

Poor Lin Hao and the others, it was time for lunch and they still needed to train non-stop, so Chen told them to run in front while he pushed them from behind.

Running for half an hour, half an hour was the limit, which made Lin Hao and the others run straight into the deep wild forest.

"Stop, rest in place." Chen Haoxuan suddenly shouted loudly.

As soon as the voice fell, Lin Hao and the others immediately stopped and sat on the side of the road, constantly catching their breath. Yang Lin his physique was better than Chen Haoxuan, but it was so poor compared to Lin Hao and the others that he now seemed to have no strength to sit and was lying directly on the ground, and if he wasn't still able to see the rise and fall of his body, Chen Haoxuan and the others might have wondered if he was dead.

Chen Hao Xuan himself was very tired, but he endured, and he persevered with his strong willpower.

"It's noon now, are we all hungry?" Chen Hao Xuan spoke loudly to Lin Hao and the others.

"Hungry." Lin Hao and the others seemed to have really practiced an invisible rapport that made them often speak in unison.

Yang Lin, who was lying on the ground, panted out, "It was another pair of training and extreme running, still running on the mountain, and now I'm so tired and hungry, I feel like I'm going to die."

Chen Haohuan kicked Yang Lin gently and joked, "My physique is worse than yours, you know that, but I'm still standing and you're already lying down, you're too embarrassed, aren't you? Can't beat the worst of my men, can't beat the least fit of us, you seem to have been born with a poor constitution."

"Who said I couldn't stand up, I got down to recover my strength faster, okay?" Yang Lin climbed up from the ground with difficulty and explained to Chen Hao Xuan.

Chen Hao Xuan said loudly to Lin Hao and the others, "It's already lunchtime, so I'll give you two hours to find food to feed yourselves, and we'll meet at the stream on the right."

"What's there to fill your hunger in this deep forest! It's not like the city can pay for it." Yang Lin was puzzled to Chen Haoxuan.

"You've heard the phrase 'living off the mountain, living off the water', right? We're in the mountains now, where there are countless mountain treasures and seafood, and it's up to you to find them out. If any of you don't find any food, you'll have to wait to starve!" Chen Hao Xuan was serious.

Lin Hao stood up, took out his dagger and said in a bullish voice, "I'm going to go shoot a boar for everyone."

"Everyone, go quickly! Time is running out." Chen Haoxuan told Lin Hao and the others.

Lin Hao and the others pulled out their daggers and scattered into the woods, Yang Lin but he was a city boy, he was very unfamiliar with the mountains, he was not really sure what could be eaten in the mountains, he only knew that animals could be eaten.

Chen Hoxuan he was the boss, he could have gone without, but he didn't want to feed on someone else's implement, so he too got into the deep forest.

The forest that Chen Hao Xuan and his men had made a mess of was filled with screams and laughter, and even the roar of wild boars. Wild boars are plentiful in the deep mountains near Chen's village, and because of their high reproductive capacity, one litter has several wild boar cubs.

At the moment Chen HaoXuan is walking with a meter-long bamboo stick and hitting the grass with it, he is trying to scare out the animals hiding in the grass and then catch them. Suddenly a pheasant weighing about two kilograms flew out of the bushes in front of him and was trying to fly away. Chen would not let go of the prey he saw, as he was really hungry.

With a swoosh, a silver light flew towards the pheasant, which let out a scream and fell out of the sky. The silver light was actually a dagger thrown by Chen Hao Xuan, who couldn't outrun the pheasant, so he had to use the darting method to get to the pheasant.

Chen Hao Xuan ran to the place where the pheasant fell and saw the motionless pheasant lying on the ground, he clasped his hands together and spoke out, "I am trying to make you reincarnate as a human soon, you should thank me."

Chen Haohuan returned with a pheasant that was about two and a half kilograms, enough for him to eat alone.

When Chen HaoXuan returned to the stream he had designated, he already saw several members of the team cleaning up their trophies there, some of them were rabbits, some were pheasants, and some were other birds It seemed that these people were very lucky to have caught prey so quickly.

Chen Hao Xuan just got some ingredients on his way back, otherwise it would have been hard to eat them roasted straight away.

After Chen had cleaned up his pheasant by the stream, he got some dry firewood, lit it, and sat next to it, roasting it at a leisurely pace.

Twenty minutes later, Lin Hao and a couple of men returned, carrying a hundred-pound wild boar, which was covered with knife wounds everywhere and looked so miserable that it could be likened to the term 10,000 arrows through the heart.

"Boss, look, we've just hit a big boar and five or six small boars, the others went after it." Lin Hao looked excited to Chen Haohuan.

"Tell me how you guys hit it." Chen Hao Xuan asked.

"We found the boar by following the footprints, boss, you don't know how powerful this boar is! If we hadn't been so nimble, we probably wouldn't have been able to subdue him because he was really too strong, so we decided to go together and a few of us held the boar down and stabbed it as hard as we could with our daggers until it was dead, so we were covered in blood," Lin Howe explained.

"Let's go wash up in the stream! Otherwise, if the villagers see you when you come down the hill later, they'll think I've taken you to kill someone." Chen Hao Xuan smiled.

Yang Lin, who was lucky to have followed Lin Hao and the others on a hunting trip, otherwise it would have been very difficult for him, who knew nothing about the deep mountains, to catch prey.

Chen Hao Xuan and his group of more than 30 people barbecued meat to eat together, the meat aroma of the whole mountain can be kissed. If there were animals like tigers and wolves in the mountain, they would be attracted by the smell of the meat.

Chen Hao Xuan suggested that Lin Hao and the others should get some of the same vegetables that he had, chop them up and sprinkle them on the roast meat, which would be more fragrant.

After the meat was cooked, Lin Hao and the others said it wasn't good, and the roast meat without oil, salt, sauce and vinegar was certainly not good!

Lin Hao and the others didn't want to eat, but Chen Hao Xuan forced them, and he said that as a master, you have to adapt to various situations, such as swallowing pain, eating the worst food and drinking the dirtiest water, all in order to survive, understand?

Chapter 216

Chen Hao Xuan and the others ate all the roast meat. After finishing the roast, Chen Hao Xuan asked Lin Hao and the others to rest for half an hour. Half an hour would be enough for Chen Hao Xuan to have Lin Hao and the others split into two factions and fight each other.

Lin Hao will take half of the men with him, Jiang Dong will take half, and Chen Hao Xuan will be in charge of watching them fight.

Almost all of Lin Hao's men were farmers, and many of them knew how to install traps and the like, so they showed their skills and installed many traps.

Both Lin Hao and Jiang Dong had the same idea of defeating each other by using traps, but they waited for each other to attack, which took 20 minutes. Finally Chen Hao Xuan couldn't help but yell out, "You idiots, won't you attack if the enemy doesn't attack? Just be careful, what are you afraid of."

Jiang Dong, who was hiding on a small hill, said to his accomplices, "Walk gently, don't let Lin Hao and the others find out, follow me." Jiang Dong led his men and slowly felt his way towards Lin Hao's position.

On Lin Hao's side, he said to a member of his team, "Gao Jun, have you seen that high mountain? You quickly climb up and use sign language to master me if there is any movement." The sign language was taught to them by Chen Hao Xuan, it was not modern sign language, but a simplified sign language of the future century, except Chen Hao Xuan and the others could not understand the meaning of the sign language.

Jiang Dong wanted to sneak up on Lin Hao and his men, while Lin Hao wanted to wait for Jiang Dong and his men to arrive, and they would fight with Jiang Dong and his men with the advantage of traps and terrain.

Jiang Dong and his men, no matter how well concealed they were, could easily expose their target as long as they were moving, and Jiang Dong and his men were discovered by Gao Jun, who was on top of the hill, and told Lin Hao the situation in sign language.

Lin Hao knew from Gao Jun's gesture that Jiang Dong was a hundred metres in front of him. The corner of his mouth curled up in an evil smile and he whispered to his comrades, "Attention everyone, Jiang Dong and the others are coming.

Jiang Dong and his men were about to approach Lin Hao and his men when Lin Hao's side, fifty metres to Jiang Dong's left, suddenly stood up and shouted, "I'm here, come and get me!"

The men behind Jiang Dong saw someone 50 metres to their left and they tried to rush over. When Jiang Dong saw the situation, he shouted to his partner, "Don't go, they may have installed traps, we'll be trapped once we get past them.

Seeing that Jiang Dong was not trapped, Lin Hao told his men to spread out and draw Jiang Dong and his men to the place where they had installed many traps, and then make a surprise attack from all sides, Lin Hao called this plan a ten-sided ambush.

Lin Hao and his men retreated halfway up the mountain and then shouted, "Jiang Dong, we are here, come if you can!". There are a lot of traps in the mountainside, and as long as Jiang Dong brings people here, these traps will greatly affect their fighting strength.

When he heard Lin Hao's voice, Jiang Dong turned back to his men, "Be careful, they must have installed traps, each of us will take a long wooden stick and use it to explore the road.

Jiang Dong walked in front, they went up to the top of the slope, Jiang Dong used the sticks to probe the way, unintentionally triggered a trap, he followed a very thick rattan violently up, the rattan tied to the top of a sapling bamboo, listen to the time to know the intensity of the fear.

Jiang Dong said in his heart: "It's a good thing I used a wooden stick to find my way, otherwise my foot might have been dislocated if I had really been caught in this trap."

Seeing that a trap had failed, Lin Hao knew that Jiang Dong was prepared to prevent their trap, so he shouted out to Jiang Dong using a provocative method: "Jiang Dong, you JJ-less guy, I've been waiting for you for so long and you still haven't come over, are you afraid of me, if so - you can just say you surrender! and I won't flatten you again."

"Lin Hao, you shameless guy, don't think that I will fall for your trick, if you have the ability, just come over and fight us in a firefight." Jiang Dong loudly said to Lin Hao.

Seeing that Jiang Dong and the others hadn't made anything useful for battle for so long, Chen Hao Xuan frowned, if it was him, he would be able to make weapons out of wood bamboo and other items, while Jiang Dong and the others had made nothing else practical other than some primitive traps.

He bit the dagger into his mouth and quickly rushed forward, climbing a large tree from the top of the hill where he could see the entire battlefield clearly.

No matter how much Jiang Dong advised his men, two of them still hit the jackpot, one was dropped into a deep pit and the other got caught in a vine and fell high into a tree. Before Jiang Dong and his men could save them, they heard shouts of death from all directions, and seeing this, he knew he was surrounded by Lin Hao's men.

Lin Hao had scattered his men, but Jiang Dong didn't, he had all his men with him, so he thought of a surprise attack, if he took all his men in one direction, no one could stop him.

"Lin Hao is right in front of us, let's rush over and capture Lin Hao, we'll even win half the battle." Jiang Dong said loudly.

Jiang Dong's group of more than ten people quickly rushed towards the place where Lin Hao's voice had just been heard, and along the way, Jiang Dong triggered several traps in succession.

Lin Hao crawled on the ground and saw that Jiang Dong was almost there, he spoke out to himself, "If only I had a gun."

"Halt, all come over and gather." Chen Hao Xuan shouted loudly, he was too disappointed with Lin Hao's tactics.

Jiang Dong and the others heard Chen Haohuan's voice and felt like running to the bottom of the tree where Chen Haohuan was and lined up.

Chen Hao Xuan jumped down from the tree, he exhaled to Lin Hao and the others, "Do you guys have the feeling that you suck? What's the difference between your battle and a game of tag? Lin Hao, you scattered everyone to surround Jiang Dong, do you think you have hot weapons in your hands? In the age of cold weapons, surrounding the enemy with a small number of men would only get you killed, unless you had more than ten times as many men as the enemy to use this trick.

Jiang Dong, it is courageous to keep concentrating your troops forward, but this is folly, if they had made simple bows and arrows out of rattan and bamboo you would all be dead, or perhaps they hid and when you passed by they sneaked up on your flanks and you would have been half wiped out by the enemy before you even knew

"I've told you guys this before. No matter what it is, it is a good weapon if it is used properly. For example, bamboo can be used as an arrow shield to ward off enemy attacks. For example, you can make a stone thrower out of bamboo, so you can use a smaller one for your own people! A little bit of the vine won't kill you. Rattan, you can make it into all sorts of things, like a trip wire, like a whip. Wood," Even the pile of sh*t on the ground, he also suggested that Lin Hao and the others should thrust it into the enemy's mouth, which would not cause any great harm, but it would make the enemy temporarily lose his fighting power because he would vomit.

"It's still some time before dark, so you guys take this break in time to make weapons in the deep forest, make as many as you want, and whoever makes the best weapon and tells us what it's for, I'll reward him with 1,000 RMB." Chen Hao Xuan spoke loudly to Lin Hao and the others.

The money wasn't much, but Lin Hao and the others were still accumulating, they were using daggers to get materials inside the deep forest, most of what they were making was what Chen Haohuan had just said, it wasn't that they didn't want to innovate, but their knowledge was limited and that's all they could think of.

It's not that they don't want to innovate, it's that their knowledge is limited and they can only think of these things. Yang Lin, he was so proud of himself, his skills were no match for Lin Hao and the others, but his mind, his power of imagination was no less than Lin Hao and the others, he was leisurely working under a big tree, holding a few pieces of bamboo and slowly chipping away at them. He thought that in the Cold War era darting was like a gun, and as long as he had a lot of darts and a strong hand, he was not afraid of anyone coming. But to be on the safe side, Yang Lin sharpened ten or so knife-like darts, and then he also sharpened a dagger.

When Yang Lin was done, he ran up to Chen Hao Xuan, handed Chen Hao Xuan what he had whittled, and with a pleasing smile, said, "Hao Xuan, how do you like what I've made?"

"Darts and daggers, tell me what you're getting these for." Chen asked.

"Of course darts are flyers! I flew him from a distance of a few metres and let him die under my darts before he even got close to me. If you're an expert, as long as you have enough darts, you can kill anyone. Daggers are used to fight with the enemy at close range, and as long as they are close to the enemy, his knives and guns will be useless, and at close range daggers are the king of weapons" The body of Yang Lin is no good, but he is very good at bragging, and he is bragging head on.

At this time, Lin Hao and the others had their things ready and were taking them to Chen Hao Xuan to go through them.

It was as if Lin Hao and the others had been enlightened, and the people had become smarter. The things they made were not very powerful, but they were more than enough to deal with people with bare hands.

The eventual winner, Yang Lin, won shamelessly because out of all those people, he was the only one who made two weapons and the rest one.

He was so excited that he kissed Chen Hao Xuan, who now knew why Lin Hao and the others were all so powerful, forgiving that the stronger they were, the more they earned.

"Still all the things you made, now assemble, extreme run home, the last one to help everyone wash clothes." Chen Hoxuan loudly.

"Wow, run fast" Lin Hao and the others heard Chen Haohuan's words and pulled their legs out and ran, if it was reward money, they might not have worked so hard because even if they lost, it was nothing, but Chen Haohuan said whoever arrived last would help everyone wash their clothes, this was a very disgraceful thing, for the sake of face, they had to run as hard as they could.

Thanks to the descent, otherwise Chen Hao Xuan really couldn't outrun Lin Hao and the others, after all, they had good physiques and he was now relying on his flexible feet to run, he was like parkour, he could run over anywhere without slowing down. Lin Hao and the others, on the other hand, followed the road and had to go around in many places. Wherever Chen Haoxuan is, he runs straight, and even a stream a few metres wide he doesn't stop and jumps straight across.

Lin Hao and the others followed suit, but they couldn't. In many places Chen Hao Xuan was able to dash across quickly, but they just couldn't, as they were often blocked by tree branches and had to slow down to go around or get through.

After a while, Lin Hao and the others didn't dare to learn from Chen Hao Xuan, his skills were too difficult for them. Normally they would have learnt it seriously, but not today, whoever was the last to arrive home today would have to help everyone with the laundry.

Yang Lin, for his part, was exhausted from the hike up the mountain, then another race, and now an extreme run, with continuous intense exercise that made him want to quit, or just declare that he would do the laundry.

Chen Hoxuan ran for fifteen minutes at a stretch, and in fifteen minutes he was running from the deep forest to the foot of the mountain. Chen Hao Xuan was also tired, so he took out a cigar, lit it up and walked slowly towards his house.

When Lin Hao and the others reached the foot of the mountain, Chen Hao Xuan reached the village entrance, Lin Hao he pointed at Chen Hao Xuan's back and said loudly, "There's the boss! Everybody, run! Catch up with the boss."

"To avoid washing clothes, I'll fight." Lin Hao and the others were passionate and ran as fast as they could.

"Wait for me, hey, you guys wait for me. Alas, my mother! I'm dying of exhaustion." At the top of the mountain there was a man there panting and sighing, this man was Yang Lin, he grew up in the city, the mountain paths were never walked at all, otherwise he wouldn't be so much worse than Lin Hao and the others.

At the foot of the mountain there was a man who waved at Yang Lin, the man was very happy, he said loudly to Yang Lin, "Yang Lin, thank you, if it wasn't for you, I must have washed everyone's clothes today." Needless to say, he was Li Wenshan, the worst one in the security team.

"Damn it, there's no mistake, I should have told Hao Xuan that I'm new here, I shouldn't be competing with them dead perverts." Yang Lin cursed to himself, saying that after all, the road still had to be travelled.

Yang Lin ran down from the mountain with a lot of effort, and when he reached the foot of the mountain, he sighed, "I now know that forgiving walking on level ground is so comfortable, it seems that I am bitter before sweet."

At the foot of the hill, Yang Lin ran again, and when he reached Chen Haohuan's house, he saw Lin Hao and the others all sitting inside the doorway, which meant that they had arrived home.

Chapter 218

Seeing Yang Lin panting and running back. Lin Hao suddenly stood up and shouted loudly, "Gather."

Yang Lin was stunned, he was thinking to himself, this is still a chance, do you really want to tire him out.

But who knew that Lin Hao and the others didn't all shout in unison, "Thank you Yang Lin for helping us wash our clothes at the same time." The voice went straight to the sky and was heard by the entire Chen Village.

Yang Lin was so angry with Lin Hao and the others that he gnashed his teeth, so bullying, helping you guys with the laundry and spreading the news of his embarrassment, where would his face be!

At that moment, Chen Haohuan walked out with a thick cigar in his mouth, he seriously said to Lin Hao and the others: "Go, go, all of you, go away, how can you treat our comrade Yang Lin like this!" Then Chen Hao Xuan said to Yang Lin: "Yang Lin, don't worry, you don't need to wash my clothes."

Hearing Chen Haoxuan's words, Yang Lin was deeply moved and thought to himself, "This is what a good brother does! But Chen Haoxuan's next words almost made him vomit blood, Chen Haoxuan then Dong'a: "My clothes are famous brand, if you wash them, I'll lose a lot."

"So it's because you dislike me, oooh" Yang Lin wanted to cry.

Li Wenshan oxenly waved at Yang Lin and smiled, "Come come come."

"What for?" Yang Lin asked curiously.

"What for? Of course you have to help us with the laundry when you lose! If you don't come over now, I'll take you to get my dirty clothes." Li Wenshan bullishly told Yang Lin.

"You're ruthless, when you fall into my hands that day, see how I'll fix you." Like a grumbling woman, Yang Lin went to collect Lin Hao's and his family's dirty clothes with a face of resentment.

What Yang Lin didn't expect was that Lin Hao and the others had so many dirty clothes, each of them had two or three sets of unwashed camouflage uniforms, all piled together as majestic as a mountain.

At the entrance of the security guards' dormitory, Yang Lin stood dazed in front of a high mountain piled up with clothes and said to himself, "I'm too lazy to wash my clothes, there are so many clothes here, how can I wash them?"

On one side, Li Wenshan was heartless: "Didn't the boss reward you with 1,000 RMB today? You can pay us to wash it ourselves!"

Yang Lin stretched out a finger and said in surprise, "You mean you won't let me wash it if I take out a thousand RMB?"

"I agree." Li Wenshan raised his hand.

"I also agree, you take out 1,000 RMB to buy us drinks and you won't have to wash our clothes." Lin Hao out joked.

"I also agree" Jiang Dong and the others raised their hands in agreement.

One thousand RMB spared the pain of washing the clothes, Yang Lin couldn't bear to part with it, he felt it was too much of a loss, if he took all these clothes to the laundry, it would be a few hundred RMB at most, it would take a thousand RMB at all. So Yang Lin spoke out, "Can you make it less? You know it won't even cost a thousand RMB to take these clothes to the laundry."

"Okay, two hundred and fifty then!" Lin Hao joked.

Hearing Lin Hao's words, Yang Lin almost said yes, it's a good thing he reacted quickly, otherwise he would have been made fun of by Lin Hao and the others again, he laughed at Lin Hao and scolded him, "You're the one who's two hundred and fifty! I'll pay 500 RMB and buy you a drink, OK?"

"Eight hundred, anything less is non-negotiable." Lin Hao spoke out.

"Fine, you guys are ruthless, eight hundred is eight hundred." Yang Lin exhaled, today's reward is considered to be a hundred collars, one thousand RMB still put on the body to let heat, it is eight hundred less, Yang Lin sad ah!

Li Ping prepared all the food and drinks for Lin Hao and the others, as long as they said so. But snacks, Li Ping was not responsible for them, so Yang Lin took all the 800 yuan to buy snacks. There's nothing good to buy in Chenjia Village, you need to go to the county, and to go to the county to buy things is of course to go to your own supermarket! Yang Lin is too tired, he does not want to go, Lin Hao is not familiar with the super supermarket, only Jiang Dong is the most familiar with the super supermarket, so there is he drove a motorbike to Pingyuan County to buy snacks.

The newest member of the team, Mr. Gao, has been a member of the team for more than 20 years and has been a member of the team for more than 20 years. When he saw the delicious snacks, Jiang Dong threw them into the shopping cart, including chicken legs, chicken feet, dried tofu and a whole lot of other things.

When the checkout time came, it was more than 3,000 RMB, and since they are Chen Hao Xuan's people, they only charge wholesale prices for things they buy here, so it was more than 3,000 RMB and only 1,050 RMB. Jiang Dong had no choice but to put the goods back on the shelves, so he had no choice but to pay the two hundred and five yuan himself. After paying the bill, Jiang Dong asked the waiter inside the supermarket to get a box for him and put the snacks into it, and Jiang Dong tied the box to the back of his motorbike before riding it back to Chenjia Village.

After Jiang Dong returned to Chen Jia Village and moved his things to their dormitory, he went to look for Yang Lin, but what for? Reimbursement, of course!

Jiang Dong found Yang Lin in their usual laundry area, where he was washing his pants! Jiang Dong walked over, handed the bill to Yang Lin and said out loud, "One thousand and five yuan, you don't have to give me the change, just give me two hundred yuan."

Yang Lin turned his head to Jiang Dong and said, "Damn it, Jiang Dong, what's wrong with you, I asked you to buy 800 RMB worth of snacks, why did you buy more than a thousand? I don't care, you're the one who wants to buy it, it's none of my business." Yang Lin said indifferently, he's not some rich kid, it's not easy for him to make money! If it wasn't for Chen Hao Xuan's monthly sponsorship of over 1,000 RMB, he wouldn't know how to live, unless he went to help people watch the casino, help people fight and so on.

"Go and look at the things I buy, those things cost at least 3,000 RMB to buy outside, but I go and buy them, only 1,000 RMB, don't you feel it's a good deal? Think about it, you know us pretty well though, don't you! In order to eliminate this generation gap, you should spend money on buying more snacks for everyone to try, so that the relationship can be nurtured easily. Look how good I am to you! It's all thought out for you, if you don't reimburse the two hundred RMB, I'll take eight hundred RMB worth of snacks to you at the market price, huh?". Jiang Dong was hard-headed.

"I'll give it to you too, but you have to teach me fighting techniques." Yang Lin was serious about Jiang Dong, he hadn't forgotten about the bet between Chen Haohuan and Matsui Ichiro, 10,000 RMB a game, and according to Chen Haohuan's past generosity, Chen Haohuan would definitely give the winnings to the winner. He just thought, if he could get 10,000 RMB, it would be the equivalent of fighting for three or four months less.

"If you want to learn fighting arts, look for the boss! The boss has the best fighting skills. What do you want from me?" Jiang Dong was confused.

"Hao Xuan's fighting skills are great, but how can he have so much time to teach me by himself, so I want you to teach me, you're a vice-captain anyway, so you can teach me without losing your identity." Yang Lin laughed and smiled.

"No teaching, two hundred RMB and you want me to teach you, I pooh, you're thinking pretty. Teaching you - I might as well use the time I spend teaching you to work out hard! As long as I'm strong, am I afraid I won't get any money?" Jiang Dong gave Yang Lin a blank look.

Yang Lin washed his hands and with a pitiful look on his face, he took Jiang Dong's hand and said, "Brother, my good buddy, please help me! Don't you know that I was bullied by that Matsui Ichiro so much that I can't even face anyone, if I don't take revenge, what face will I have to stay at the University of Shin-Shansan!"

"When you've been training with us for a long time, you'll naturally know the fighting arts." Jiang Dong said indifferently, Chen Haohuan often urged them that the proper fighting technique was the mind, a mind that operated faster than the body, so that it was the highest level of fighting technique.

"If you don't teach it, you don't teach it, huh." Yang Lin was unhappy, he turned around and continued washing his pants.

"You wash them slowly, I'm going to find Lin Hao and the others for a drink, bye." Jiang Dong was happy, he chatted and forgot all about coming to Yang Lin for reimbursement.

The company's main business is to help people with their needs, and to help people with their own needs," he said.

He was more tired than any of them, Linhao relied on his physical strength while he relied on his willpower, and if he didn't get some rest, his willpower might be in danger of collapsing. Besides, he wanted to train Lin Hao and the others early in the morning, he couldn't compete with Lin Hao and the others in terms of physique, so he desperately needed rest now.

The next day, Chen HaoXuan woke up at 5am, he was wearing a camouflage uniform, he walked up to LinHao's dormitory and shouted, "Emergency assembly."

As soon as the words "emergency assembly" fell, Lin Hao and the others were in chaos inside their quarters, Lin Hao and the others flew to put on their trousers and then their shoes, their clothes were all worn when they ran out, and by the time they reached Chen Hao Xuan they were fully dressed, they had all been soldiers before, they all had a foundation, and now with Chen Hao Xuan's strict management, they were now able to assemble in an emergency twice as fast as when they were soldiers.

Chen Hao Xuan swept a glance at Lin Hao and the others, he immediately noticed that something was wrong, Yang Lin was not in the group.

"Lin Hao, where is Yang Lin?" Chan wondered aloud.

"He's sleeping, I just called him, but he's sleeping like a pig, I can't do anything about it." Lin Hao replied loudly.

"You're the captain, you're also at fault if he doesn't listen to your orders, you'll double your training later, now you go and wake up Yang Lin, if you can't, flatten him, don't worry as long as you don't break his limbs." Chen Haoxuan was serious.

"Yes." Lin Hao responded and turned around to run back to the dormitory.

Soon Yang Lin's pig-kil ling voice could be heard from the dormitory, "Yang Lin, what are you doing! Don't! Don't pull my trousers"

The voices coming from inside the dormitory made Chen Haohuan and the others sweat furiously, thinking that the two of them were not that mouth, right? Everyone was waiting for them and they actually tried to take off their trousers.

Inside the dormitory, Lin Hao yelled loudly at Yang Lin, "Do you still want to learn fighting techniques? Where is everyone waiting outside for you? The boss will be angry if you don't go out."

"It's not even dawn yet, so why go out?" Yang Lin was puzzled, he had never been a soldier and had never trained, he knew nothing about training.

"Of course you have to train! The boss is waiting for you outside! You look at me again, I'm all dressed up, you look at the dormitory, there's no one there, you still have the nerve to say this and which one." Lin Hao was exasperated with Yang Lin, if Yang Lin hadn't been bed-ridden, he wouldn't have been punished.

"Is it okay if you don't go?" Yang Lin pleaded, he was really sleepy now, his eyes were so sleepy that he couldn't open them, and if he was forced to train, he doubted he would fall asleep while he trained.

"Boss said, if you don't get up, I'll flatten you, if anything happens boss he's responsible." Lin Hao rubbed his fist and was cold.

"Okay, okay, I'll get up, all right! What's the point of having someone back in the middle of the night? Even training can wait until daylight!" When Yang Lin got up to dress, he kept nagging Chen Hao Xuan about what he wasn't doing.

When Yang Lin and Lin Hao came out of the dormitory, Chen Hao Xuan and the others looked at them in unison, the look in their eyes was strange, as if they were looking at a couple.

"Hao Xuan, wait for me, I'll go wash my face and brush my teeth, I'll be right back." Yang Lin beckoned to Chen Hao Xuan.

"Stop, you want to phase wash your face and brush your teeth wait until you come back to get it, it's training now, no rest for you, none of you are allowed to do anything else." Chen Hao Xuan bellowed seriously.

"Alright!" Yang Lin lined up nicely.

"Now all of you run towards the river at Chen Village." Chen Hao Xuan said loudly.

Boom, Lin Hao and the others ran neatly towards the river of Chen Jia Village, so the place they passed woke up many villagers, and many of them sighed: "Alas, up in the middle of the night again to scare people."

When they arrived at the Chen Village river, Chen Hao Xuan cut two bamboos with a dagger and put the iron ball in, then Chen Hao Xuan said to Lin Hao and the others: "All of you take off your clothes, and later you will have a water basketball match, the winner will add an egg at noon today."

"Boss, you're too stingy! There are only 30 of us in total, and now an egg costs one dollar, even if we all add one egg per person, it's only 30 yuan, which is very different from your usual!" Jiang Dong joked as he took off his trousers.

"Eggs are one dollar each, yes, but what you're eating is different, because he was cooked by my mother-in-law, think about it! A billionaire's mother-in-law cooks eggs for you with her own hands, do you feel happy and excited? I think if my mother-in-law cooked the eggs herself and took them out to sell for 100 yuan each, people would want them." Chen Hao Xuan joked.

When Lin Hao and the others were all naked, each wearing a pair of pants, Chen Hao Xuan shouted, "Lin Hao, Jiang Dong, you two stick these two heels of bamboo on both sides of this river, and stick them straight."

"Yes." Lin Hao and Jiang Dong responded, walked out of the group, picked up the bamboos and jumped into the water.

Jiang Dong and Lin Hao checked the basketball baskets with bamboo on both sides of the river. Both sides are two or three metres from the shore. When Lin Hao and Jiang Dong returned, Chen Haoxuan gave the basketball back to Lin Hao and said, "You choose your own team if the match."

They had already split the teams once yesterday when they were competing in the deep forest, so they followed yesterday's distribution this time.

It's 5:30 now and it's much lighter, so Chen Haohuan can see Yang Lin and the others clearly. Playing basketball on the water is dangerous, especially in a flowing river where you can be swept away by the water if you don't swim, and the river in Chen's village is not very fast, as fast as a person walking, but it is very deep, and the amount of water basketball in such a river is huge. So for the safety of Lin Hao and the others, Chen HaoXuan needs to keep an eye on them at all times to prevent them from drowning.

In order to get a better view of Lin Hao and the others, Chen Hao Xuan went to a big tree by the river and he climbed it in a couple of strokes, he looked down from the top of the tree and watched Lin Hao and the others play water basketball.

"Guys, for the eggs at noon, come on! Quick - give me the ball back." Lin Hao shouted to his team. They love to play games like this and they know why Chen Haohuan makes them play this game, it's all about getting flexible.

Chen Hao Xuan he was very laid back, he was smoking a cigar on top of a tree by the river.

When Lin Hao and the others had played for two hours, Chen Hao Xuan was on top of the tree and shouted, "All gather." Chen felt that enough was enough, knowing that Lin Hao and the others hadn't eaten breakfast yet, doing such intense exercise on an empty stomach would not be good for the body after a long time.

Lin Hao and the others were so addicted to playing that Chen Hao Xuan called them to gather, which made them reluctant to leave and eager to play some more.

When Lin Hao and the others had landed, Chen Hao Xuan slipped down from the tree and said to Lin Hao, "Get dressed and go home."

Jiang Dong, as he was getting dressed, said to Chen Haohuan, "Boss, we won this water basketball."

"That's fine, I'll add an egg for you guys at noon, while Lin Hao and the others have no egg." Chen Hao Xuan joked.

When they returned to the villa, Li Ping had already brought breakfast to the stone table where Lin Hao and the others usually trained.

After they ate the sumptuous breakfast, Chen had them do it in a circle on the lawn while he stood in the centre explaining to Lin Hao and the others about their fighting experience, and he also called people out to demonstrate from time to time.

When he realised the items Lin Hao and the others usually trained for, Yang Lin was deeply surprised, as Chen Hao Xuan seemed to want to train them to be like him. Is it just for your own safety? Is he so good that he needs protection?

"I've told you many times how to fight with borrowed force, but you don't seem to have used it. Yang Lin has just arrived today and he's never heard me talk about fighting with borrowed force before, so I'll try again! Listen up this time, I want you to use this method when you should use him, it helps because he doesn't require much effort from you, most of it is done by the enemy," he explained. Chan explained.

"Zhang Tiezhu, you come out." Chen shouted loudly to Zhang Tiezhu who was sitting on the floor listening to his explanation carefully.

Zhang Tiezhu stood up and walked over to Chen Haohuan, "Boss, what's the matter?"

Seeing Zhang Tie Zhu's body, which was even bigger than Matsui Ichiro's, Yang Lin said in his heart, "If he went to fight Matsui Ichiro in a firefight, Matsui Ichiro would be like a child in front of him."

"You run up and hit me hard in the chest with your fist." Chen said seriously to Zhang Tiezhu.

Zhang Tie Zhu was not afraid of hurting Chen Hao Xuan, he moved forward quickly and punched Chen Hao Xuan's chest as hard as he could.

Chen Hao Xuan he stretched out his hands to meet Zhang Tie Zhu's fist, after his hands held Zhang Tie Zhu's fist, his left foot kicked Zhang Tie Zhu's head, because Chen Hao Xuan grabbed Zhang Tie Zhu's hand, this made it difficult for Zhang Tie Zhu to dodge Chen Hao Xuan's attack, he could only tilt his head, when Chen Hao Xuan's foot almost kicked his head, he crouched slightly, but still Chen Hao Xuan's shoe left a footprint.

Chen's other foot was also up, and his body flipped over as if Zhang Tiezhu's arm was a twig playing on it. Chen Haohuan mentioned his hands and sat on his buttocks, and Zhang Tiezhu immediately knelt on the ground and begged for mercy in pain, "Boss, my arm is almost broken, let me go."

Chen Hao Xuan let go of Zhang Tie Zhu, then he said to Lin Hao and the others, "I just used the power of his fist forward to make my body light, that's why I was so floating with my feet off the ground, instead of landing immediately. I was riding on his arm and I could have broken his arm in a split second with my hands up and my hips up. The principle of borrowing power is very simple, and if you use it and pay attention to it, it will come naturally to you later. Some people still don't understand what it means to borrow power, so I'll tell you in the simplest description! It's hard to get up when you're climbing five or six metre high walls, isn't it? But if there is a protruding object in the middle, can you climb up with the help of this object? That's borrowing power."

"Do you think Zhang Tiezhu is strong?" Chan continues.

"Big." Lin Hao and the others said in unison, Zhang Tiezhu was known among them as a strong man, able to lift several hundred kilograms by himself.

"If I fight Zhang Tie Zhu in close combat, do you think I can win?" Chen Haohuan spoke up and asked.

"Boss, do you mean to say that you beat Zhang Tiezhu at a certain distance?" Lin Hao spoke out.

"Yes, I won't leave a distance of half a metre from him, and if I leave a distance of more than half a metre when I fight him, then I'll be counted as losing." Chen Hao Xuan was confident.

"This" Lin Hao and the others were torn, Chen Haoxuan's powerful skills were well known to them, but they used to know all about Chen Haoxuan's poor physique, if Chen Haoxuan fought Zhang Tiezhu under normal circumstances, Zhang Tiezhu would definitely lose, but without leaving Zhang Tiezhu within half a metre, they wouldn't dare to draw a conclusion, because the space for this activity was too low, and if he was caught, he wouldn't be at Zhang Tiezhu's mercy.

Chen Haoxuan saw that Lin Hao and the others were silent, so he said to Zhang Tiezhu, "If I don't leave you by half a metre to fight you, are you confident that you can beat me?"

"What if I suddenly run away? Then you're not more than half a metre." Zhang Tiezhu was honest.

"If you manage to shake me off, you will also win." Chen Haoxuan was confident.
