

A Billionaire's Reincarnation Chapter 401-410

Chapter 401

"Leah, hang in there, if you can escape this, I promise to be with you." Chen Haoxuan couldn't care less, he needed to give Leah a desire to live so that Leah wouldn't die so quickly and he would have time to get Leah to the hospital for treatment.

Chen Haoxuan wanted to run to the hospital with Leah in his arms but was stopped by Leah, who said to Chen Haoxuan in a very weak voice, "Chen Haoxuan, can I call you Haoxuan? I know I'm dying, I can't be saved even if I get to the hospital, I know I'm not willing to do it that's why I've been holding on until now. Kiss me quickly, if you don't kiss me I will die in peace."

Chen Haoxuan lowered his head and tenderly kissed Leah's sexy lips, Leah slowly closed her eyes love, a teardrop of happiness flowed from her eyes, her face revealed a sweet smile. She went, she left forever, she did not regret coming to Chen Hao Xuan, because when Chen Hao Xuan kissed her, she felt that Chen Hao Xuan liked her, Chen Hao Xuan's gentle kiss, so that she left without feeling any pain, only the feeling of happiness and joy.

Leah, who died in the pursuit of love, is a woman who deserves respect. (I can't give you a perfect ending, but I can make you happy for a moment.) Chen Haoxuan he raised his head, she saw Leah closed her eyes, he had a surprising feeling of reluctance in his heart, he shook Leah, Leah did not respond. Then Chen Haoxuan gently patted Leah's face again, Leah are no response. "Leah, Leah" Chen Haoxuan kept calling out.

Chen Haoxuan seriously looked at Leah's beautiful face and said, "Don't worry, I will help you get revenge, and I hope you can find someone who really loves you in your next life."

Chen Haoxuan he took out his mobile phone and made a call to Li De, asking him to use his power to arrest the person who hit Leah with all his might, then he called 120, the weather was now average, but to protect Leah's body he now took Leah to the hospital's freezer, as Leah was a MiG, her family would surely pick her up and take her back for burial.

The city of Johor Bahru was not destined to be peaceful today, police bells could be heard throughout the city and every now and then there would be news that there had been a car accident involving so and so and that there were two cars racing into trouble.

After Chen Haoxuan sent Leah to the hospital, he called his bodyguard: "Why haven't you caught him yet?"

"Boss, the other party's car is modified, it's not as fast as our car, but his driving skills are very good, we can't catch him for a while."

"You guys keep tracking, I'll have Lin Hao and the others come over to support you." Chen Haoxuan said.

Chen Haoxuan hung up the phone, he stopped a taxi and had it drive to the biggest and best motorbike shop, he called Lin Hao as he sat in the car and told them to get to Xinshan City as fast as they could now.

When he arrived at the biggest motorbike shop in Johor Bahru, he bought 37 motorbike racing bikes, all 250s, and heard from the owner that they could reach about 300 mph if they drove as fast as they could. The motorbikes Chen Hao Xuan bought for Lin Hao and the others were all 125s, which were very slow, and it would definitely not be possible to go after the racer that hit Leah, so that's why Chen Hao Xuan bought 27 250 mph motorbikes.

All of his bodyguards were only thirty-six and he bought 37 of them, so obviously he had one for himself too.

Lin Hao and the others came on the motorbikes that Chen Hao Xuan had bought for them before, and when they arrived, Chen Hao Xuan made them change into the new motorbike racing bikes they had bought. Chen Haoxuan showed them the photo of the racer that hit Leah, and then he called the bodyguard who was chasing the killer and asked him - where they were now.

After asking, Chen Hao Xuan gave a big wave and a group of men on motorbike racing bikes drove at breakneck speed. Lin Hao and the others weren't very good drivers, but it didn't matter, they were strong and weren't afraid to fall, so they dared to drive very fast.

Chen Hao Xuan, who was a clever man, told Lin Hao and the others to split up and wait for the murderer to pass by at various intersections, and to make some kind of mechanism on the road, in order not to let innocent people get hurt, Chen Hao Xuan's mechanism was very simple, it was to make a pile of earth in the middle of the road, only ten centimetres high, covered with a cloth, which did not look like a dangerous mechanism at all, but if you drive very fast, you are in danger, this protruding But if you drive fast, you will be in danger, the 10cm high pile of earth can make your car fly.

Chen Hao Xuan had already informed his two bodyguards, so his bodyguards slowed down when they were about to reach the place.

The murderer in the racing car obviously didn't scare Chen Haoxuan at all by the organs he had made, he rushed straight through, his car flew up when he passed the first small dirt slope, when it landed it skidded because there was sand on the ground, the car spun around a few times, but as soon as it stopped spinning he slammed on the accelerator and escaped. It seemed that this man was really good at driving, he was fine even like this and was still calm, he seemed to be a professional racer.

At that moment, Chen Hao Xuan and the others moved out, they had dispersed the citizens when they came, so they didn't have to worry about dragging innocent people into it, they were like a ten-sided ambush, they surrounded the murderer who was driving the race car as soon as they moved out. The killer was so ruthless that he didn't even swerve, he ran straight into Lin Hao and the others.

Lin Hao and the others weren't that stupid to let the killer hit them! They were about to be hit by the racing car when they fell backwards and rolled on the ground, their bodies rolled to the sides of the road, but their newly bought motorbike racing car crashed sideways towards the murderer's racing car. The two motorbike racing cars and a car racing car crashed together and there was a loud bang and a boom, an explosion.

Seeing the murderer's racing car explode, Chen Hao Xuan was angry and cursed at Lin Hao and the others, "I told you to stay alive, why didn't you listen."

Lin Hao and the others were also very innocent, the scene made them do that instinctively, so they forgot Chen Hao Xuan's words at that time.

"With the murderer dead, where am I going to find the mastermind who killed Leah?" Chen Haoxuan said in shame.

Jiang Dong, who was beside Chen Haoxuan, he reminded Chen Haoxuan, "Boss, you can go and investigate Leah, you might be able to get some clues."

Chen Haoxuan slapped his forehead and said, "Right! Why didn't I think of that!" He might have been angry and confused.

Chen Haoxuan pointed at Lin Hao and the other bodyguard and said, "You two disobeyed orders, as punishment you will pay for a motorbike racing bike out of your own pockets."

Hearing Chen Hao Xuan's words, Lin Hao and the two of them sighed with relief, they had just thought that Chen Hao Xuan would fire them! They didn't expect that they would just pay for the motorbike, which was only a few tens of thousands of RMB, which was not much compared to their salaries.

Chapter 402

"Jiang Dong, this matter is entrusted to you to investigate, and inform me immediately when you find any clues, understand?" Chen Hao Xuan said seriously to Jiang Dong.

"Got it boss, but can I call a few brothers to help?" Jiang Dong said.

"Yes." Chen Haoxuan answered.

Lin Hao and the others took their men back to the Chen Village, Jiang Dong took a few men to investigate He Haoming, while Chen Hao Xuan, because of Leah's death, he was in no mood to check on those companies of his anymore. Although he didn't like Leah, no matter what, Leah had died because of him, and if Leah hadn't been so determined to come and say goodbye to him, Leah she might not have been hit by a car and died.

Chen Haoxuan he saw He Haoming's family when he returned to the People's Hospital, He Haoming was whimpering and crying so much, the strange thing was that he didn't shed a single tear.

At noon, Leah's family arrived, and as soon as they arrived and saw Chen Haoxuan they frantically lunged at him, shouting that Chen Haoxuan had killed Leah. The bodyguards in charge of protecting Chen Haoxuan were all top experts, and two of them stopped anyone who tried to approach Chen Haoxuan.

Chen Haoxuan Leah's family, said loudly in English, "You guys go check on Leah first, when you're done look across the street and meet me at the cafe, I'll meet you there."

Chen Haoxuan he took his bodyguard to the cafe opposite the People's Hospital, he had the whole cafe wrapped up. It didn't take long for Leah's family to arrive at the cafe in a huff.

Chen Haoxuan had long ago asked the waiters in the cafe to merge several tables together, with chairs on either side of the table, and a simple meeting room was completed.

When Chen Haoxuan saw that Leah's family had arrived, he stood up, made an inviting gesture, and addressed Leah's family, saying, "Everyone, please sit down."

Leah's family members sat down one after another, and a middle-aged, fat, rich-looking man said to Chen Haoxuan, "Mr. Chen, I heard that my daughter died because of you, so I hope you can give me a reasonable explanation. Otherwise I will fight you to the end even if I have to fight for my entire family fortune, and although I know I can't do anything to you, I can bring your reputation into disrepute and let the world know your ugly face."

"You are Mr Jack, the president of the Fei Teng Group in Rice, right? I think you need to calm down now, you need to hear me out before you get angry. What happened was this, your daughter hired a private detective as a driver, she sneaked behind my car early in the morning, I found out, I threatened her with your Fei Teng Group and persuaded her to stop pestering me, then I drove away with my bodyguard.

But not long after, your daughter came after me again. I asked my bodyguard to drive the car to the roadside, I was trying to see what your daughter wanted? Your daughter got out of the car at the side of the road and ran towards me as soon as she got out of the car. She had only taken a few steps when a racing car came by at great speed and the driver saw your daughter and drove the car even faster, hitting someone and fleeing without stopping.

I was going to save your daughter, but the car was going too fast, so unfortunately I didn't save her. You can ask your daughter's private detective and my bodyguard if you don't believe me. I sent my bodyguards to chase the car, and the private detective your daughter hired also went after it, but the car was so fast that the police could not stop it. The motorbike collided with the car and there was a loud bang and the murderer died, because the car was on fire so much that the murderer's face could not be identified.

Personally, I suspect that this was not an ordinary car accident, but a case of murder. Think about it! When people drive into people, they stop their cars and look at them, but that car, finding someone in the road, drove even faster and didn't stop for a moment when he hit them. If I hadn't sent out numerous experts, that racing car would have been able to escape." Chen Haoxuan recounted the scene.

Leah's dad, Jack, spoke out to Chen Haoxuan, "You said it was a murder case, so do you know who tried to kill my daughter?"

"I don't know, but I have sent someone to check, I believe I will know the answer soon." Chen Haoxuan said.

A noblewoman cursed and pointed at Chen Haoxuan, saying, "I think you are the mastermind, you hate the fact that my daughter haunts you all day, you had her killed, didn't you?"

"This lady, please don't be ridiculous, how could I possibly harm your daughter! Think about it! Your daughter is so beautiful and a thousand-year-old lady, I am happy that he is chasing me, but just because your daughter is very nice and I am someone who already has a girlfriend, so if I am with your daughter, it will only be your daughter who will be hurt. In order to keep her from being sad like this again, I have rejected her confessions time and again and deliberately made her hate me, and I have done this for her own good. Do you guys think that I would kill her?"

Do I look like a bad person? If I were a bad person I would not have rejected her, after all, there are not many beautiful women like her, I would have taken her to a room, I would have played with her feelings. I have none of these, so do you guys think it's possible for me to harm her?" Chen Haoxuan explained.

Jack, Leah's boss, believed Chen Haoxuan's words now, Chen Haoxuan was right, it was a matter of honour for a beautiful woman to like herself, so she would definitely not go and kill her. Jack he spoke out to Chen Haoxuan and said, "Then who do you think killed my daughter?"

"I'll say it - don't you dare tell anyone, I suspect it was He Haoming, because your daughter didn't have any friends in China, so to speak, her only friend was He Haoming. Ho Ho Ming is your future son-in-law, but your daughter has fallen in love with me. If you were Ho Ho Ming would you not be angry? Your daughter had the most contact with him, so I suspected it was Ho Ho Ming. In order not to alert the snake I didn't let He Haoming and his family in, and I've already sent people to investigate them, the ones I sent are all experts, I believe it won't take long for the truth to come out." Chen Haoxuan said.

"Mr. Chen, as long as you can help me find the mastermind who killed my daughter, this old life of mine is yours." Jack said seriously.

"Mr. Jack, your daughter died because of me, I feel guilty, so I don't need you to give me any benefits, I just need you to give me some time to find out the real murderer and avenge your daughter's death." Chen Haoxuan said.

Chapter 403

In the afternoon, Leah's family took Leah's body back to Rice, they are all big business people and have their own contacts, otherwise it would be impossible to transport someone's body back. Leah's family only left one behind to investigate the mastermind of Leah's murder, and that was Leah's brother.

When Chen Hao Xuan returned to his village, he found that the people in Chen's village were looking at him strangely. He went home and asked Chen Yina to find out that the television station in Xinsan City was broadcasting the news about Leah's car accident, probably because he had something to do with Leah's death, and the news had been on for a long time.

The news was all about what the private detective that Leah had hired told those reporters. Those news presenters were very good, making the car accident so touching that they didn't know how many young girls were secretly in tears in front of the TV, and the name Leah became famous in China because of this.

The posting was so hot that it was going up by tens of thousands every second. There was a poll of volunteers, and over 100,000 people were going to attend Leah's funeral in Rice, including people from other countries, because Chen Hao Xuan's website is world-class and people from all over the world like to visit his website.

When Chen Haoxuan saw that so many people were going, he couldn't afford not to go.

On the day of May 3rd, Chen Haoxuan arrived in Rice, he had come to attend Leah's funeral service. To Chen Haoxuan's surprise, there were so many people who came to Leah's funeral that he could not count them, but he guessed there were several million.

Everywhere they passed when taking Leah's burial, the roads were filled with people on both sides, those with a white cloth tied around their shoulders. Jack, he was naturally fond of big crowds, and no - even his daughter's funeral had been such a big affair. People in the city usually have their funerals carried by car, but Jack had the men carry it, eight men as strong as Hercules, each carrying Leah's coffin with one hand, which was more intimidating than a dozen-metre-long Lincoln.

It must have been slow to carry it with men, but there was an advantage to being full, and no, all the people who had come to Leah's funeral followed, and the streets were filled with people.

The rich were different. Jack had sold a hill in the countryside and built a grave at the top of it, nine metres high and 18 metres wide, with an iron headstone in front of it, which was actually a door. The eight strong men carried Leah in, put her away and walked out. Jack had a couple of electricians weld the iron door shut, so tightly that if you wanted to open it, you would have to use a chainsaw.

White flowers were placed in front of Leah's grave and when Chen Haoxuan looked back after they had left, the hill that sat there looked like a mountain of snow.

Chen Hao Xuan went back to China that night. At night Chen Hao Xuan watched the news and realised that during the day there had been too many people going to Leah's funeral, which had resulted in a few unlucky people being trampled on and even a few people being trampled to death, poor and pathetic.

I don't know if Jack was trying to advertise for himself, but he held a press conference for those who were trampled to death, in which he offered to take responsibility for those who were trampled to death and pay $1 million each.

On the evening of May 4, Chen Hao Xuan called Jiang Dong into his study and said, "Have you found out who the mastermind was who killed Leah?"

Jiang Dong said apologetically, "I'm sorry boss, I haven't found out yet. I've checked the people Leah had contacted in the past two years and found that she had no friends in the past two years, although she knew many people, they were all very ordinary and only existed in terms of interests. So I suspect it's Ho Ho Ming, Ho Ho Ming he rarely goes out these days, I have installed mee cameras and mee eavesdroppers in his room, his body, his car, his housekeeper's body, his family's room, I found a strange problem, they won't mention the word Leah no matter where they are, others are in their mention it in front of them, they will also deliberately go around to other topics."

Chen Hao Xuan thought for a while, then spoke out to Jiang Dong, "You do this, you buy some ladies to go and drink with him, after getting him drunk, then set his words, after the wine spills the beans! Maybe he will tell the truth. Remember, if he tells the truth, make sure you get something to record it."

"Mm, I know." Jiang Dong nodded his head in response.

"You check again to see if He Haoming has had any fights with Leah in the past two years, if he has, and if he's argued a lot, it's more likely to be He Haoming. Alright, that's it, you go do your job!" Chen Haoxuan told Jiang Dong Dong.

Jiang Dong walked out of Chen Haoxuan's study, and he went to investigate He Haoming.

He Haoming was a lustful man, and on this night of May 5th, Jiang Dong found some very beautiful ladies to accost He Haoming, and these ladies were all hired at the front desk place. The lustful Ho Ho Ming fell for it, he was drunk by a few ladies, then a few of them started to set him up, the delirious Ho Ho Ming said out, he said all the words were recorded by Jiang Dong.

That night, Jiang Dong took the tape recorder to Chen Haoxuan, who, knowing that He Haoming was Leah's murderer, let out a sigh of relief, "Leah, every day I will avenge you."

Because it was too late when Jiang Dong gave the recorder to Chen Haoxuan, Chen Haoxuan wanted to wait until tomorrow morning to find Li De and go with him to arrest He Haoming.

The next morning, Chen Haoxuan called Li De early in the morning. When Li De heard Chen Haoxuan say that he had found the mastermind of Leah's murder, he was so excited that he immediately mobilised all his men to go to Ho Ho Ming's house to kill him. It was someone else's if he wasn't active.

When Chen Hao Xuan arrived at Ho Ho Ming's house with ten bodyguards and over 50 police officers led by Li De, they searched the whole villa but could not find Ho Ho Ming.

It turned out that Ho Ho Ming had a characteristic that he would talk nonsense when he was drunk, but when he was sober he would still remember what he said when he was drunk. This was thanks to the fact that he had been drinking a lot and in the middle of the night he had an urgent need to pee, before remembering what happened last night. Leah was no ordinary girl, even if she was an ordinary girl, but when she was messed up by her great funeral, even ordinary girls could turn into princesses, and when things got too big, he could get nothing but a death sentence or life imprisonment if he was caught.

He was used to living a life of impunity, he didn't want to go to jail, let alone be shot, so he chose to run away. He was smart enough to know that his bank cards would be frozen, so he took a large amount of cash at home, both in yuan and dollars, and he took all his luggage, only the suitcase with the money in it.

He was not as smart as a genius, he took a taxi to the bus station to escape, and he didn't have to run long before he was caught. He was so stupid, there were several bus stations in Johor Bahru, so why did he go to the bus company owned by Chen Hao Xuan?

You know that Chen Hao Xuan's bus company is one of the top ones in China, because there are monitors installed in the bus, so whenever there is a thief or if there is an accident, the bus company people will know about it at the first time. If a thief steals something on the bus, the people in the bus company will call the police and the police will arrive in the shortest possible time. There are no thieves and the service is good, which makes many people choose to take the bus of the bus company.

He Hao Ming, who probably didn't think that much about it, chose to take a bus from the bus company to the provinces because he thought it was fast. He didn't expect Chen Hao Xuan to find him after he made a phone call to the bus company.

After Haoming was caught, Leah's family immediately rushed to China and demanded that the Chinese side punish He Haoming severely.

He Haoming was caught and Chen Haoxuan didn't have to bother with the fact that He Haoming wouldn't survive because Leah's family would not let He Haoming go.

Chen Haoxuan went on to check on his business, today here, tomorrow there, more business is busy. But he was happy to be busy, his businesses were getting better one by one. The most gratifying thing for him was Su Shiyin, who took his huge sum of money and helped him make tens of millions of RMB from stock speculation, which was not what Chen Haoxuan was gratified about.

A month later, Chen Hao Xuan looked at all his businesses and after he had done so, he wanted to stop developing for the time being and patiently run the businesses he had now, and only when they were all on the right track would Chen Hao Xuan develop other businesses. Because his current business, although it was starting to make money, was too small and he wanted to make the business he had now the biggest it could be before he would develop other businesses.

The business is managed by his subordinates, so Chen Hao Xuan only needs to supervise it from time to time, sign it, take ideas and so on.

Chen Hao Xuan, who was free, planned to bring the villagers of Chenjia Village to become rich. He did not want the people of Chenjia Village to go to the city to work, nor did he want to open a factory in Chenjia Village. Don't underestimate the importance of farming, but if you do it well, you can make a lot of money.

On the first day of June, Chen Hao Xuan called all the villagers of Chenjia Village out for a meeting, even the children. Chen Hao Xuan first asked Chen Xiumin to bring a few older girls to give out gifts and sweets to the children of Chenjia Village, while he stood on a makeshift lectern with the villagers of Chenjia Village below him, and he spoke out loudly, "Hello, folks, the first reason I called you all here today is that I want to give some small gifts to the children of Chenjia Village, after all, today is Children's Day! The second reason is to discuss with you about making a fortune.

I know that many of you think that if you can join the company I run, you can make a lot of money, right? Let me tell you, it's not true. It's very difficult to get rich from a part-time job, unless you are your own boss or learn a skill. So I'm not going to let you work for my company, and I don't want you to work for me, so I've decided to let you keep ploughing the fields."

"Ah..., what... what is this? Isn't this a trick on us? It's clearly said that he wants to bring us wealth and prosperity, and now he's saying that he wants us to continue ploughing the fields" The villagers of Chen Jia Village murmured.

Chen Haoxuan waved his hand and said loudly, "Everyone be quiet."

After everyone had quieted down, Chen Hao Xuan continued to speak out, "Do you all know why I suddenly moved the garment factory to Xinshan City earlier? It also caused those merchants who came to Chenjia Village to set up their stalls to leave along with them, causing Chenjia Village to return to its previous coldness, do you know why this is all?"

"I know." The one who raised her hand and stood up was Li Ping, she said loudly, "It's because there are many people in Chenjia Village who want to enter the garment factory, and when they can't, they say bad things, and they are the ones who forced them out than the garment factory."

Chen Hao Xuan nodded and said, "Aunt Ping is absolutely right, the garment factory was forced out by you guys, this has cut off your chances of being able to get into the garment factory. Think about it, before I asked you to learn to turn clothes on your own, but none of you were willing to learn, you all thought of all kinds of impractical ways to get into the garment factory, to put it bluntly, you want to get into the garment factory not to work, but to let me, Chen Haoxuan, support you."

In order not to interfere with the production of the garment factory, I had no choice but to move the garment factory to Johor Bahru. Look at those of you who are willing to learn, they are now earning several thousand a month, the equivalent of white collar. The time I asked you to buy your own sewing machines and learn to turn clothes, many of you did, but after a while you stopped learning. I remember that only two women were patient enough to learn, and after that they were recruited into the garment factory, where they studied and worked very hard.

I'm telling you all this for no other reason than to make sure you don't force me out this time like you did that time. I'm asking you to do your best, and if you believe in me, do it, and if you don't, I won't force you. Now I ask you all, do you trust me?"

"Believe." The villagers of Chen's village roared loudly, they had already lost one chance, if they lost it again this time, they might never have it again.

"Just believe, I will now talk to you all about how I will make you rich and wealthy. You all know about the river in our village, right? All the soil by the river is unowned land, in fact it is not really unowned, it should be considered as belonging to our Chen family village, I have gone to have a look and found that a large amount of bamboo can be planted by the river, there are many benefits of planting bamboo, firstly, it all prevents the soil from being washed away by water. Secondly, it can green up the banks of the river and make this section of the river in our village more beautiful. Thirdly, the bamboo can bring us a lot of income every year, the income earned from the sale of the bamboo planted by the river will be distributed to everyone at the end of each year, the money will be distributed to each household by Chen Yue Bin, while the village committee does the supervision, do you think this is okay?" Chen Haoxuan said loudly.

It was not that Chen Hao Xuan did not want to teach the money directly to the village committee, but those people in the village committee were so greedy that it was not too much to say that they were vampires, so Chen Hao Xuan gave the money directly to the villagers.

"Yes, of course" The villagers all replied happily, where can you find such a good thing! It could be said that after planting the bamboo, there would be no need to worry about anything, and at the end of each year, they would just be waiting for their share of the money, such a good thing, it would be foolish not to agree.

Chen Hao Xuan waved his hand again, gesturing for everyone to be quiet, and he spoke out again: "This is my first plan to lead everyone to wealth and prosperity. The second plan I have in mind is to build more reservoirs in Chenjia Village, so that we can raise fish and make it easier to fill the fields down the hill with water, and we can also plant some bamboo by the reservoirs and raise some chickens, ducks, pigs and other animals.

You should have heard about the ponds I used to contract, right? I am not afraid of your eyes, I will tell you directly that I have been raising fish in those mountain ponds for three years, in order to earn more than 100,000 RMB, of course, this cannot be done without my investment and Chen Shugen's management, so this fish farming is also very profitable.

For better management, I am determined to form a company, which will be managed by everyone, and the money will of course be paid by everyone. Everyone can recommend the person they think is trustworthy to come to be the manager of this company, and everyone who thinks so can recommend the name of the person they think can manage the company well, except, of course, me and Chen Yuebin."

The villagers began to discuss again, and after a long discussion no one named the first name. At this point, Chen Baojiang of the village committee stood up and said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Hao Xuan, I think we should let our village committee be in charge of the management! The mission of our village committee is to make a good life for the villagers anyway."

Chen Hao Xuan laughed lightly for a few moments and said out loud, "Is that so? But how come I heard that last year when the Dasan Reservoir released water and drowned many families, the Dasan Reservoir promised to compensate them, and all the other villagers got this compensation, more or less, but what about our Chen family village? Anyone who has received compensation raise their hand?"

As a result, no one raised their hands because they had not received it. Everyone knew about this matter, but no one took the lead, so they dared not go to the village committee to ask for it.

The people in the village committee all bowed their heads in embarrassment as the money was divided among them.

"No one raised their hands, which means that none of the villagers got the compensation from the Dashan Reservoir, what's going on? Could it be that the Dashan Reservoir didn't compensate us for the losses of the Chen Family Village? If the Dasan Reservoir has not been compensated, you people from the village committee should have to deal with it, if the Dasan Reservoir has been compensated and swallowed by you alone, you are not doing your part as you should, either way, you are not qualified to manage the company I propose to build." Chen Haoxuan said coldly.

"Right, we don't want this group of hypocritical people from the village committee to manage us, they will only take our money and never do the facts" One by one, the villagers protested angrily.

Chen Baojiang sat down and bowed his head, too ashamed to look up. They had already spent all that money long ago and asked them to take it out, they couldn't get that much money, and in order to keep the villagers from taking out that money from the Dasan reservoir than they did back then, they meekly bowed their heads and kept quiet. In fact, they embezzled more than just the money from the Dashan Reservoir, there was a lot more, they contracted out the mountains in the village or the ponds used to irrigate and water the fields, they also cut down the pine trees on the mountains and sold them to the wood factory, the money they made went into their own pockets.

Chen Xiumin's mother sat next to Li Ping, she pulled Li Ping's sleeve and said with a smile: "Sister Ping, why don't you become this manager, anyway, your family has the talent to be a big official, look, your future son-in-law, that is a billionaire, opened countless big companies, look at your husband, now with more than fifty men, your daughter is a university student, after graduation is certainly helping Hao Xuan manage the company, also a pawn manager, your son is Hao Xuan's brother-in-law anyhow, so he will definitely be a big shot in the future too, so it's fitting for you to be this manager."

Li Ping pointed at her nose and said, "Me? I can't, I only know how to do laundry and cook, managing a company, that would kill me."

Chen Xiumin's mother didn't care about that, she stood up and said loudly to Chen Hao Xuan, "I think Li Ping is the most suitable to be the manager of this company."

When Chen Xiumin's mother said that, this was a big deal, all the villagers said that they wanted Li Ping to be the manager, and having Li Ping as this manager was definitely a good thing for the villagers, because no matter what, Li Ping was also Chen Hao Xuan's future mother-in-law, so Chen Hao Xuan would definitely support Li Ping, and with Chen Hao Xuan's support, the company would definitely make a lot of money for everyone.

"Aunt Ping, do you promise to be the manager?" Chen Haoxuan asked to Li Ping, who was sitting down.

Li Ping stood up and squeaked, "I-I'm afraid I won't do well." Who wouldn't want to be a manager, and Li Ping was no exception. She wanted to be like her husband and make a career, so that she could live a life that was no longer ordinary.

Chen Hao Xuan could see that Li Ping wanted to be the manager, so he spoke out, "Okay, it's decided, from now on Li Ping is the manager. I'm going to name the company Chen's Agricultural Company. A company can't just have a manager, it also needs to have strange positions, I propose a few, Chen Shugen will be in charge of fish farming, in the future, fish farming, how he said, how we have to do.

Raising chickens and ducks I propose to let Chen Xing be in charge, the rest will be up to you to firm up, Chen Shugen and Chen Xing and people like them, you will call them advisors in the future."

This meeting, which went on for a long time, did not end until noon, and when it was over, every villager had a smile on his or her face, knowing that their day of prosperity was near. But there were ten or so people with bitter faces, those ten or so people were those from the village committee, they couldn't reach into the Chen Agricultural Company, which was a pity, besides the villagers of Chen Village hated them now, this was a great disadvantage to them!

The next day, Chen Hao Xuan led the villagers to the mountains to build a reservoir. It was easy to build a reservoir in Chen's village because there were many hills and mountains, so they got some soil off the sides of the hills and put cement on the soil to make a reservoir. Some people go to the mountains to dig those wild bamboo seedlings and take them to the river or the reservoir to plant them, some go to cut firewood, some go to dig the soil, all of them are set up by Chen Hao Xuan with a clear division of labor, I believe it won't be long before the people of Chenjia Village can live a good life.

With more people and more hard work, all the people in Chenjia Village who had nothing to do joined the work, which made Chenjia Village change rapidly.

In fact, Chen Hao Xuan could have asked the villagers of Chenjia Village to donate money and then hire someone to do the work, but he was worried that the villagers would not be able to pay, and also that they would not want to spend so much money to invest. So he simply took the villagers to do it themselves, which would have saved a lot of money, and the villagers had nothing to do anyway.

Chen Hao Xuan did not ask the villagers to invest much money, he only asked each person who had reached the age of 16 to invest five hundred yuan, if they did not have money, they could invest one hundred yuan, but then they would not get as much as others when the dividends were paid at the end of the year. In order to have an even share, Chen Haoxuan stipulated that all villagers could invest a maximum of one thousand yuan each and a minimum of one hundred yuan.

Now the villagers are working to eat and drink the villagers' own money, Chen Hao Xuan is responsible for helping the villagers to buy things, and temporary storage. Because Li Ping is not yet familiar with doing this manager's position, so she now follows Chen Hao Xuan all day long, what Chen Hao Xuan does, she is seriously learning.

Chen Haoxuan called Jiang Dong and the others out to help the villagers, they were helping the villagers for free. It was because they saw Jiang Dong and the others carrying a few hundred pounds of rocks down the mountain without changing their faces.

The bodies they carried were used to make ladders, and with these ladders, the reservoir could be poured without cement, saving another dollar. The stones that Jiang Dong and the others carried were made by their own chainsaws, for the sake of speed, so the stones they sawed were very large and long, unlike the others which were a hundred or so pounds and required several people to carry them down the hill.

The stone that Jiang Dong got was a kind of pink stone, which was not very hard, so it was easy to saw with a chainsaw. There were plenty of such stones in Chenjia Village, as the village was surrounded by high mountains and wild hills, and the place where Jiang Dong and his men got the stones was a relatively square mountain, very large and high. Chen Hao Xuan had asked Jiang Dong to get the stones on this mountain for a purpose, because he wanted to make a temple out of this high mountain. He asked Jiang Dong to make a hole in the middle of the bottom of the mountain and start digging stones into it.

In this way, a temple could be built and the stones dug out could be taken to the reservoir to make a ladder, so it was really killing two birds with one stone.

Many people don't understand why Chen Hao Xuan wants to build a temple, and a temple of such a large size, is Chen Hao Xuan a Buddhist?

In fact! He built the temple to add character to the village, and to attract tourists to come and play, so that they can charge fees and the people of the village can do business here. There is also the fact that Chen Hao Xuan wants to transform Chenjia Village into a paradise, and at the same time let everyone in Chenjia Village live a well-off life.

A villager digging on the hillside by the reservoir whispered to the people around him, "Hey, what kind of people do you think Hao Xuan's men are? How come they are stronger than one another? Look, the strongest one, I think his name is Zhang Tiezhu, the stone pillar he's resisting, I think it's about a thousand pounds!"

"Hao Xuan is a big man, how can his body be ordinary!" A villager spoke out.

"Have you forgotten? In the past, Hao Xuan's men weren't as powerful as they are now, I think they must have taken some kind of medicine, that's why they became so strong." Another villager guessed.

Chen Shugen happened to walk over and when he heard the conversation between the villagers, he spoke out, "Don't talk nonsense if you are ignorant, Hao Xuan's men have this skill because they have worked hard to get it. If you can also train like them, you will not be much worse than them. So you guys should stop talking nonsense in the future, or else if Hao Xuan hears about it, there will be good consequences for you."

"Hey, it's just talk, it can't be taken seriously. We'll just never say it again" Those few villagers were still quite afraid of Chen Shugen, after all, in their eyes, Chen Shugen was a tube, their superior, and they should listen to their superior.

Chen Hao Xuan had the villagers build nearly ten large reservoirs, but although the reservoirs were large, they were not very deep, and the deepest places were only as high as five or six stories. By the time these ten reservoirs were built, the river and reservoir sides had all been planted with bamboo, and in another year or two, thank you Chen's village would be beautiful. It had taken three months to get all this done, and it was fortunate that there were so many people in Chenjia Village, plus Chen Hao Xuan had given those who worked in his company a holiday to go home and invest and help, so there were a total of five to six thousand people involved in this project, and if there hadn't been so many people, it wouldn't have been possible to build the ten reservoirs so quickly.

After the reservoirs were built, Chen Hao Xuan helped the villagers purchase many things, water pumping machines, chickens, ducks, geese, pigs, fish fry and so on. Chen Haoxuan asked the villagers to use the pumping machines to pump the water from the river to the reservoirs, wanting to make money quickly, not waiting for it to rain. Chen Hao Xuan helped Li Ping arrange for people to raise chickens and ducks, Those who did not work were arranged by him to do other things, some were arranged to plant trees, some were arranged to cook for the villagers at home, some were arranged to do sanitation, which was not casual, because they needed to do even the sanitation on the hills, and when they saw small trees they needed to be uprooted and planted with grass. Seeing big trees but water needed to be watered.

He gave Jiang Dong a piece of paper and asked them to carve out what he had drawn on the paper on the outside of the house. He didn't intend for Jiang Dong to carve out a masterpiece, he just wanted them to carve out the general appearance.

Chen Hao Xuan divided Jiang Dong into two parts, one to carve the outside and one to follow Chen Hao Xuan inside to carve the Buddha statue, those who carved inside were easier, they just needed to carve out the general appearance and Chen Hao Xuan would finish him.

Chen Hao Xuan could be doing his best for the sake of the Chen family village, and when the villagers of the Chen family village saw him carving Buddha statues in the mountains every day for the sake of the Chen family village, this made the villagers work even harder.

In the past six months, not a single person in the village worked in the fields, but all of them worked with Chen Haoxuan, making strange things. Originally! Chen Hao Xuan just wanted to bring the villagers to make money casually, but then he saw that all the villagers in Chenjia Village were very hardworking, so he simply brought them to make big money, and he invested one million in Chen's Agricultural Company himself, becoming the biggest shareholder.

Six months later. Chenjia Village has completely changed and become exceptionally beautiful, all because of the effect of Chen Hao Xuan leading the efforts of the whole Chenjia Village. The ten new reservoirs in Chenjia Village are already full of water and have raised a lot of fish, and there are many chickens, ducks and geese kept loose by the reservoirs, as well as pigs, although the pigs are kept in captivity. The bamboos planted by the reservoirs and the river have all grown tall and look very green from afar.

The villagers of Chenjia Village are no longer ploughing their fields, as Chen Haoxuan has asked them to grow medicine, and Chen Haoxuan buys all the medicine they grow. Chen Hao Xuan also handed over some women to make crafts out of vines, and when they were ready, Chen Hao Xuan bought them as well, but the person responsible for buying them was not Chen Hao Xuan, but Chen Yue Bin.

On the 19th of December, the village was very busy, because today was the opening day of the temple in Chen's village.

The lion and dragon dancers are Jiang Dong and his team, who are the best, and they learned how to do it in a few days. It was a dazzling sight to see.

Chen Hao Xuan's temple is majestic, but it is different from ordinary temples, because the statue of Buddha is carved to life, and it is so big that he feels like a giant looking down at him, so that people do not dare to have evil thoughts. There is also the fact that there is not a single monk in this if large temple, and the nuns have not seen one, all are in charge of the villagers of the Chen family village. There are Buddhist sounds in the temple, but they are put out by CDs.

In the 21st century, ordinary farmers have seen many new things, so when they saw the temple Chen Hao Xuan had made, they went to worship Buddha after a few words of chatter.

The temple is not Chen Hao Xuan's alone, and all the expenses today were not paid by him alone, but by all the villagers of Chenjia Village together, so he had to save money for the villagers, otherwise the money they had invested would have been lost in a couple of seconds. In order to save money, he told all the people who came to Chenjia Village today to eat vegetarian dishes, the reason being that today was a good day for the opening of the temple, and in order to respect the Buddha, so no meat could be eaten today.

Although there was no meat to eat, all the people who came today ate happily, for one thing, because there were many people and it was lively, so a happy appetite was good, and for another, Li Ping personally directed the villagers to make the food, so the food made, although it was light, was very tasty, even Chen Haoxuan himself could not help but eat two bowls of rice. Jiang Dong and the others even ate five or six bowls of rice, which made the people sitting with them suffer, because the dishes were almost all eaten by Jiang Dong and the others, and they were too embarrassed to take their bowls to the other tables to get the food.

The people who came to Chen's village today were not attracted by Chen Hao Xuan's advertising, but by the people of Chen's village, one spreads ten, ten spreads a hundred, a hundred spreads a thousand, and unknowingly people from ten miles and eight villages all know about it.

The people of other villages had heard that the Chen family village had changed a lot, but if you don't see it, you won't know it.

The next day, Chen Hao Xuan went to Danshan alone, he wanted to let the guide of Danshan take tourists to visit the Chen family village, so that the Chen family village can earn more money.

It's just a hassle for big people to go out, rather than as good as for small people to go out, because big people have to cover themselves up when they go out, so they either have to wear sunglasses or shabby clothes, or they are afraid that people will recognise them. On the other hand, the little people are just the opposite, they dress themselves up when they go out for fear that people won't recognise them.

Today, Chen Hao Xuan was wearing those old-fashioned clothes he used to wear, washed-out jeans and a wrinkled shirt, a pair of cheap bobble shoes, an ordinary hat and a pair of flat black-framed glasses. When Chen Xiaohua dressed up and went out, no one recognized him, not even Jiang Dong and the others, who stayed by Chen Hao Xuan's side all day, and stopped Chen Hao Xuan to ask him who he really was.

It was not their fault, they had never seen Chen Haoxuan wearing shabby clothes when they first started following him.

Chen Haoxuan he walked out of Chen's village and wanted to take a bus to Danshan, firstly to see how the company managed by Zhou Ta was, and secondly because he hadn't taken a bus for a long time and wanted to experience what it was like to take a bus back in the day.

What Chen Haoxuan didn't expect was that while waiting for the bus at the entrance of the village, Chen Haoxuan met Chen Xiumin, he didn't strike up a conversation with Chen Xiumin, but Chen Xiumin took the initiative to come over and strike up a conversation with him, Chen Xiumin surprised Chen Haoxuan as soon as her voice came out, she walked up to Chen Haoxuan and said in a delicate voice to Chen Haoxuan, "Brother Xuan, are you going to take the bus?"

Chen Haoxuan was stunned, even Jiang Dong and the others did not recognise him in this outfit, but Chen Xiumin, a little girl, recognised him at a glance, did Chen Xiumin have golden eyes?

Chen Hao Xuan pulled Chen Xiumin to one side and asked in a low voice, "Xiaomin, how did you recognise me?"

Chen Xiumin stretched out a finger and bit it in her mouth, looking at Chen Hao Xuan like a curious baby, and said in a delicate voice, "Brother Xuan, you have the whitest skin and the best-looking features in our Chen Village, so I instantly recognised you, Brother Xuan, why are you asking me this all of a sudden?"

Chen Hao Xuan reached out and gave Chen Xiumin's pink face a pinch and smiled, "Xiaomin is so smart, she will definitely be able to do great things in the future."

Hearing Chen Hao Xuan's compliment, Chen Xiumin was very happy, she clapped her hands together and said happily, "Mm-hmm, when I grow up, I want to be Brother Xuan's female secretary and help Brother Xuan do great things."

A female secretary? Or a little loli, isn't that nakedly tempting me?

"Why do you want to be my female secretary, instead of wanting to be a manager or a boss?" Chen Haoxuan asked.

"Mum said, following brother Xuan has food to eat, going to be a boss is not as good as following brother Xuan to earn more money." Chen Xiumin said to Chen Haoxuan seriously.

Chen Hao Xuan sweat, wild sweat, what follow me will have food to eat, he is not a great good man, follow him will follow the food to eat, not the same as the incapable people he feeds. No - but a little loli like Chen Xiumin can raise a few, someone was yin~smiling in his heart.

"Okay! Then you have to study for days yo! Otherwise I won't let you follow me here." Chen Hao Xuan smiled at Chen Xiumin.

Chen Xiumin nodded solemnly and said in a delicate voice, "Brother Xuan, don't worry, I'll work hard."

At this time, the bus came, and Chen Xiumin was like a host, enthusiastically pulling Chen Haoxuan onto the bus, and when she got on the bus, she graciously took out four pieces of money and gave them to the conductor, saying in a delicate voice, "Two, for me and my brother Xuan."

Chapter 408

"Brother Xuan? The boss?" The ticket clerk said in surprise, then she drew back two yuan to Chen Xiumin and said, "Xiaomin, just take yours, the boss rides the bus, I wouldn't dare to take his money."

Yes, the bus was Chen Hao Xuan's, otherwise how could there be a bus to a place as remote as Chen's village!

She sat next to Chen Hao Xuan, chattering and talking to him, "Brother Xuan, you look so old-fashioned today! By the way, where are you going? Can you take me with you? Hey, your glasses are so trendy! Where did you buy them?"

Chen Hao Xuan reached out and pinched Chen Xiumin's cheeks and said, "You're asking so many questions at once, which one should I answer first!"

Chen Xiumin held her head high and said, "Then you should answer all of them!"

Chen Hao Xuan smiled and said, "I am dressed like this because I don't want people to recognize me, I am going to Danshan on business and can't take you there, I am wearing glasses in a large number at the two yuan shop, the little princess has not answered me yet no?"

Chen Xiumin nodded her head and said happily, "Satisfied, quite satisfied."

Chen Hao Xuan stroked Chen Xiumin's head, he liked Chen Xiumin as a cute little girl, don't get me wrong, his liking was a very pure kind, because he always treated Chen Xiumin as his sister.

Chen Hao Xuan is unaware that Chen Xiumin has not given up since she failed to confess her love to Chen Hao Xuan last time, she has always loved Chen Hao Xuan in silence. She thought that the reason Chen Hao Xuan rejected her was because she was too small, so she thought that when she grew up, grew taller and had fuller breasts, by then, Chen Hao Xuan would definitely like her.

It's a good thing she didn't tell Chen Hao Xuan what she thought, otherwise Chen Hao Xuan really wouldn't know how to handle this fling.

Chen Xiumin got off the bus when she arrived at the junior high school in Pingyuan County, while Chen Hao Xuan took a bus to the city and then transferred to Danshan. When Chen Hao Xuan arrived at Danshan, he went straight to the largest tourist agency in Danshan. Perhaps he was dressed too old-fashioned, and it was surprising that no one came to entertain him when he walked into the agency.

At this time a foreign couple walked in from outside and several guides went to greet them, while Chen Hao Xuan, as usual, was ignored.

This is no one's fault, the society nowadays is like this, people dress poorly, peasants look down on you. If Chen Hao Xuan he had come in his trademark suit, I believe everyone at the tour agency and their boss would have come out to greet him.

Xu Mucheng, who had just returned from leading a tour, saw a lone Chen Hao Xuan when she entered the tour agency. She was not like other tour guides who greeted people with money warmly and ignored those without. She walked up to Chen Hao Xuan and said to him with a smile, "This for you, sir, are you looking for a guide?"

Chen Hao Xuan he had actually come to look for the owner of the tour agency, but he saw that none of the tour guides had taken him on, and now that one had suddenly arrived, he was eager to see if this tour guide was as dog-eyed as the others. He said out loud, "Yes, I want to go to Chenjia Village for a tour, I wonder if it's expensive?"

"Go to Chenjia Village! The scenery there is beautiful, but since it hasn't been developed yet, few tourists know about Chenjia Village, so few people go there. If you want to go, I can be your guide to take you there, but then it will be more expensive, after all, it's just you." Xu Mucheng said politely.

Suddenly Chen Hao Xuan felt that the person he was following looked familiar, and he thought for a moment that this - wasn't this the same Xu Mucheng who used to take tourists to the Chen family village? At that time she even took him and Chen Xiumin as a couple! No wonder it was different from other tour guides.

Chen Hao Xuan he wanted to try Xu Mucheng's patience, he pretended to be stingy, covered his pockets and said out loud, "It's very expensive? I - I don't have much money, is fifty yuan enough?"

Inside the tourist agency is a large living room, the living room has a lot of sofas, is for the tour guide and tourists to rest, there are a few female tour guides sitting at their side heard what Chen Hao Xuan said, all laughed, one of them directly out loud said: "fifty yuan to want to hire a tour guide, laughing dead, hehehe" "

"Yeah yeah yeah! I don't know how many hundreds for a pair of high heels, this fifty dollars, can say nothing can be bought. I see ah! You'd better just take the bus to Chenjia Village and go play on your own."

Xu Mucheng she turned to her and said at the same time, "Li Xiaoling, how can you do this, whether he has money or not, he is our guest!"

Li Xiaoling, who didn't give Xu Mucheng any face at all, brushed her lips and said, "Is he our guest? It's only fifty dollars! It costs a few hundred dollars for a tour guide, not to mention hiring a guide alone.

Xu Mucheng, she turned away from Li Xiaoling and the girls, she said to Chen Haoxuan, "Fifty yuan is not enough to hire a tour guide, how about this! I'll take you on a tour of Chen's village at noon after work, and only charge you fifty yuan for the tour guide, how about that?"

Chen Hao Xuan, still pretending to be stingy, squeaked, "All I have is fifty yuan, can it be cheaper? Is forty yuan okay? Leave ten yuan for me to take the bus home."

Li Xiaoling and the girls couldn't help but laugh again, pointing at Chen Hao Xuan and laughing, "Hahaha, laughing my ass off, fifty yuan is less than enough, he even bargained, hahaha, laughing my ass off"

Xu Mucheng was also embarrassed, she didn't expect this person she was following to be so stingy, but then she thought about it, maybe this person really doesn't have any money, alas forget it, do a good deed for once and take him on a trip to Chenjia Village! She hadn't been to the Chen Village for a long time anyway, and she had heard that it had changed a lot, so it would be good to go and have a look. Xu Mucheng, who had made up her mind, sweetly said to Chen Haoxuan, "Okay, it's only forty yuan, but you have to wait for me to get off work at noon."

Chen Hao Xuan nodded happily and responded, "Mm-hmm, don't worry, I'll be here on time at 12 noon."

When Li Xiaoling and the girls sitting at the side saw that Xu Mucheng really promised Chen Hao Xuan, they couldn't help but despise Xu Mucheng and said out loud, "Yo yo yo yo, look, this is the good guy, forty dollars and he's willing to take someone to the deep mountains, maybe he doesn't want to make money at all, but thought of the deep mountains  this poor boy, so he can relieve his loneliness for a while."

"Xiaoling, you guessed all this, you're really good." A female guide sitting next to Li Xiaoling laughed harshly.

"You - you guys, I'm going to sue you at the boss." Xu Mucheng was furious.

Chapter 409

Chen Haoxuan he comforted Xu Mucheng and said, "Miss guide, don't be angry, just pretend they don't exist, after all, talking to people like them is twice as disgraceful."

Xu Mucheng agreed with Chen Haoxuan's words, she nodded her head and said, "Well, what was said is exactly right, talking to people like them, that's an act of looking down on yourself."

"You... you guys, you are a pair of dogs and men." Li Xiaoling pointed at Chen Haoxuan and the others and scolded.

Chen Haoxuan was not happy, no matter who was being scolded. Chen Haoxuan he walked to the reception desk of the travel agency and said to the receptionist, "Tell your boss to come out to see me, just say I have a big deal to talk to him about."

The receptionist froze for a moment, in all the time she had worked at the travel agency, she had never seen anyone approach their boss directly, and their boss had never instructed them not to allow ordinary people to approach him. In the end, the receptionist dialed their boss's number: "Hello, boss, this is the receptionist, there's a gentleman who says he wants to talk to you about a big deal, and he's asking you to come out to see him."

The owner of the travel agency, Li Qianfu, heard the words of the receptionist and his eyes lit up. He hurriedly said to the receptionist, "Give me good treatment for that gentleman, I'll be right there."

The receptionist hung up the phone and made an inviting gesture to Chen Haoxuan, saying, "Sir, you can sit there for a while, our boss will be here soon."

The lobby of the travel agency was not very big, so what Chen Haoxuan and the others said was heard by Li Xiaoling and the girls. Li Xiaoling she once again laughed at Chen Haoxuan and said, "Hmph, a poor man dares to sue our boss, let me tell you, I'm the tour agency's foreman and also the girlfriend of the boss's nephew, so no matter how you sue, our boss won't say anything about me."

Chen Haoxuan ignored him as he picked up the coffee the receptionist made for him and drank it elegantly. Xu Mucheng she was worried about Chen Hao Xuan, she went next to him and advised in a low voice, "Sir, I think it's better to forget about it, our boss must not still help you speak."

Chen Haoxuan took a sip of his coffee, looked up at Xu Mucheng and said with a smile, "Calm down and relax."

At this time, Li Qianfu, the owner of the travel agency, arrived. This Li Qianfu was wearing a pair of glasses, in his thirties, and looked quite shrewd. Li Qianfu ran to the reception desk and asked the receptionist which one was looking for him, when he saw that it was Chen Haoxuan, he couldn't help but frown, he thought that with a dress like Chen Haoxuan, what big business could he have to talk to him about?

Li Xiaoling, she walked up to Li Qianfu and whispered to him, "Boss, that man just now he took forty dollars and said he wanted to hire a tour guide from our tour agency, I said something about him and he scolded me and tricked you out, it's really abominable." This is called an evil man telling off.

Chen Hao Xuan he saw the owner of the tour agency coming, he arrogantly hooked his finger to the owner of the tour agency and said, "Boss, come over here, I have something to talk to you about."

Li Qianfu he was torn, he thought to himself did this man really have a big deal to talk to him about? He walked up to Chen Haoxuan with his doubts and asked, "Sir, may I ask what you want to see me about?"

Chen Haoxuan handed his business card to Li Qianfu, who, after reading the card clearly, hurriedly stood straight and bowed to Chen Haoxuan with a respectful expression, "Chen - Boss Chen, I'm very sorry, I didn't recognise you just now, I'm really sorry." Li Qianfu secretly sweated in his heart, "Holy sh*t, this damn Li Xiaoling, on the basis of being my nephew's girlfriend, she even dares to mess with the billionaire Chen Hao Xuan, if Chen Hao Xuan gets angry, what will happen then!"

Li Xiaoling, who saw her boss suddenly being polite to Chen Hao Xuan, couldn't help but ask curiously, "Boss, you've been tricked by him, he's not a boss, he's a poor man, he only has fifty dollars on him."

Li Qianfu he turned around and slapped Li Xiaoling, scolding, "Shut up, do you know who the poor man you are talking about is? Let me tell you, I'm afraid he has more wealth than our entire city of Xinshan, how dare you say he has no money, you - you get out of here now, I don't need an employee like you."

Li Xiaoling was confused by the sudden turn of events, her boss had told her to get lost over a poor man, and said that the poor man had more money than the whole of Johor Bahru, she was no ordinary employee! She was the girlfriend of her boss's nephew, and she was also the foreman of the travel agency, and telling her to get lost in front of so many people, how could she stay in the travel agency in the future?

At this moment, Chen Hao Xuan spoke up and said to Li Qian Fu, "I don't know what to call you yet!"

With a pleasing smile, Li Qianfu respectfully said to Chen Haoxuan, "Boss Chen, just call me Xiao Li."

"Oh, Little Li! I see that this travel agency you run is not doing very well? I think this poor business must be artificial, just like when I just came in, just because I was poorly dressed today, there was no one guide to entertain me, finally this Miss Xu Mucheng came to entertain me and took me on a tour as well, but a Miss Li Xiaoling even laughed at me and despised Miss Xu Mucheng, such a foreman will only bring down the staff." Chen Hao Xuan said indifferently.

As soon as Chen Haoxuan finished speaking, Li Qianfu turned to Li Xiaoling and said, "You've been fired, don't leave yet." Then smiling at Xu Mucheng, he said, "Ya Xiaoqing! You did a good job, you will be the foreman of the travel agency from now on, I hope you can keep them under control, you can't let them be lawless like this anymore."

"Yah! Boss, you can't be joking!" Xu Mucheng obviously didn't quite believe what Li Qianfu said was true.

"Who's joking with you? When I say you'll be the foreman from now on, you'll be the foreman." Li Qianfu smiled and said to Xu Mucheng, Xu Mucheng is Chen Hao Xuan's good guide, he did not dare to scold her, not to mention that Chen Hao Xuan is still next to him!

Chen Hao Xuan pulled Xu Mucheng's hand, so that Xu Mucheng had to sit next to Chen Hao Xuan, Xu Mucheng was curious, Chen Hao Xuan suddenly pulled her to sit down why? Did he want to take advantage of her?

Chen Haoxuan took off his glasses and smiled at Xu Mucheng, saying, "Do you still recognise me?"

As soon as Chen Hao Xuan took off his glasses, Xu Mucheng recognised Chen Hao Xuan, whose features were the best looking features Xu Mucheng had ever seen, she had seen Chen Hao Xuan once a few years ago and still remembered him clearly until now. She covered her small mouth in surprise to prevent herself from screaming in excitement as she said excitedly, "Chen - Chen Haoxuan, how is it you?"

Chen Hao Xuan put his glasses back on again as he smiled and said to Xu Mucheng, "What? Couldn't I come to your travel agency?"

When Xu Mucheng heard Chen Haoxuan's words, he quickly waved his hand and said embarrassedly, "No, no, no, I didn't mean that, I was just curious why you came to the tour agency and had to find a guide to go to the Chen family village."

Chen Hao Xuan laughed and said, "Secret, you'll find out later." Chen Haoxuan finished and then said to Li Qianfu, "Little Li, are you just going to let me sit here and talk business with you?"

When he heard Chen Hao Xuan's words, Li Qianfu became anxious, he had let Chen Hao Xuan stay in the lobby of the travel agency, knowing that Chen Hao Xuan was a big shot, he had companies all over the world, and each company was many times bigger than him, such a person could not be neglected, but he had not neglected Chen Hao Xuan. Li Qianfu was worried that Chen Haoxuan would be angry, he hurriedly apologised to Chen Haoxuan, "Sorry, really too sorry, I actually kept Boss Chen in the lobby of the travel agency, I am really sorry, please don't blame Boss Chen."

Chen Hao Xuan waved his hand with an indifferent look and said, "Find a quiet place and let's talk business!"

Li Qianfu made an inviting gesture and respectfully said to Chen Haoxuan, "Boss Chen, this way please."

After Chen Haoxuan followed Li Qianfu, the lobby of the travel agency was suddenly in chaos, and the employees of the travel agency all started chattering about Chen Haoxuan.

"Wow, so that guy dressed in old-fashioned clothes is Chen Haoxuan, I should have known that I would have gone to entertain him, alas, it's a pity, otherwise I would have been the foreman. Is that Chen Haoxuan? Didn't they say that Chen Hao Xuan was the most beautiful man in the world? Why don't I feel like it? Xu Mucheng, congratulations, you've got Chen Haoxuan's approval, you can really be a sparrow flying on a branch and becoming a phoenix, maybe in the future you'll be seen by Chen Haoxuan and become Mrs. Chen, then you'll be rich" The employees of the travel agency chattered and talked in the hall.

Half an hour later, Chen Hao Xuan walked out of Li Qian Fu's office, while Li Qian Fu followed behind Chen Hao Xuan, as if he was Chen Hao Xuan's little brother. Chen Haoxuan walked up to Xu Mucheng and smiled at Xu Mucheng, saying, "Miss tour guide, I just asked your boss for leave for you, now have you taken me on a tour of Chen Family Village today?"

"Ah..." Xu Mucheng let out a surprised cry as she looked at her Li Qianfu with a questioning look, as if asking, "Is this true?"

Li Qianfu affectionately said to Xu Mucheng, "Xiaoqing, just take Boss Chen on a tour of Chen's village! All your spending will come back to me for reimbursement, got it? If Boss Chen asks you to stay with him in Chenjia Village for a few more days, you can stay with him in Chenjia Village for a few more days, I won't deduct your salary."

"Oh, got it." Xu Mucheng nodded and responded.

Li Qianfu kept sending Chen Haoxuan to the door of the tourist agency, he had wanted to send Chen Haoxuan directly to Chenjia Village, but Chen Haoxuan refused.

Xu Mucheng, who had a women's motorbike, which saved Chen Haoxuan from having to take the free bus. Chen Haoxuan drove Xu Mucheng to Chenjia Village on her ladies' motorbike, and while on the way, Xu Mucheng couldn't help but ask Chen Haoxuan, "Boss Chen, what exactly do you want me to do in Chenjia Village?" She originally wanted to call out to Chen Hao Xuan as she did before, but when she thought of Chen Hao Xuan's current status, she didn't dare to do so anymore and simply followed Li Qian Fu and called out to Chen Hao Xuan as Boss Chen.

"Why don't you just call me Hao Xuan! I am trying to take you to Chenjia Village so that you can get familiar with the current Chenjia Village, then take pictures of all the nice scenery in Chenjia Village with a camera and make up a story about each scenery, and then there is the amount of time it takes to tour the whole Chenjia Village, which will be your task. If you do a good job on this mission, your boss has said that there will be a big reward for you, and I think that reward will be at least a few thousand dollars." Chen Haoxuan said as he drove.

Xu Mucheng was touched that Chen Hao Xuan treated her so well, if it wasn't for Chen Hao Xuan, she wouldn't have been a tour guide foreman, and now Chen Hao Xuan was giving her the chance to make her mark, if she wasn't in the car, if Chen Hao Xuan's identity wasn't very powerful, she would have offered to give her a fragrant kiss.

When they arrived at Chenjia Village, Chen Hao Xuan went straight back to his villa, where he changed his clothes before going out with Xu Mucheng. There were quite a few tourists in Chenjia Village now, but they were all villagers from ten miles and eight villages who had come to see the temple that Chen Haoxuan had made. Although the crowd was small, it was at least popular.

When Xu Mucheng saw the transformation of Chenjia Village, he couldn't help but be surprised and said to Chen Haoxuan, "I had heard that all the villagers of Chenjia Village had transformed Chenjia Village into a paradise under your leadership, but I didn't expect that it only took half a year to complete the transformation, and it was still so perfect."

"With me, there are miracles." Chen Haoxuan said proudly, he wasn't bragging either, he was from the future century and it would be a shame to be a person from the future century who couldn't get a little miracle.

"You're really not modest at all." Xu Mucheng laughed, she felt that Chen Hao Xuan was very easy-going and so nice to be around as he had been for a few years.

"What I said is true! Don't you think so?" Chen Haoxuan laughed.

"Fine! Count me as convinced." Xu Mucheng said with a smile.

Chen Haoxuan led Xu Mucheng to the temple he had built, and when he arrived at the entrance of the temple, Chen Haoxuan said to Xu Mucheng, "This temple is called the Chen Family Temple, I built it together with the villagers, and it took half a year to complete, the characteristic of this Chen Family Temple is that the whole Chen Family Temple is carved out of a mountain, and the biggest statue of Buddha inside the temple is Buddha Rudra, which is dozens of stories high, if you walk into this temple, you will feel that you yourself are as small as ants"

Xu Mucheng was shocked by the majestic building, the first time she had seen such a large temple, what made her feel more shocked was that this was, the temple was not built, but carved into it. In her heart, she secretly thought that just this one temple could attract countless tourists to come and visit.

"It's incredible." Xu Mucheng marvelled, saying.

Xu Mucheng was now the foreman of the tour guide, and Chen Haoxuan had told her so much in order to attract more tourists to visit the Chen Family Village. Chen Hao Xuan he continued to Xu Mucheng, said, "The stones you are standing on now were all made in the temple, each weighing about a hundred pounds, and several hundred pounds are also available. This project is not as big as the Great Wall built by Qin Shi Huang, but it's not far off."

Pfft, Xu Mucheng laughed as she smiled and said to Chen Haoxuan, "You're not ashamed to compare a temple to the world's greatest building."

Chen Haoxuan beckoned to Xu Mucheng and said, "Come on, I'll take you in, you'll be guaranteed to think that the Great Wall is actually very small when you get inside, and that my temple is the big one."

When Xu Mucheng walked into the Chen Family Temple, Xu Mucheng was once again amazed, just as Chen Hao Xuan had said, inside the temple you would feel very small.
