

A Billionaire's Reincarnation Chapter 411-420

Chapter 411

Seeing Xu Mucheng's shocked look, Chen Haoxuan smiled and said to Xu Mucheng, "Is there anything you want to say?"

Since Xu Mucheng was holding her head high, gazing at the Buddha statue on the stone wall, her subconscious mind replied to Chen Hao Xuan's words, "Yes, four words, majestic." Xu Mucheng swore that she had never seen such a majestic Buddha statue, inside the temple, the stone walls were filled with Buddha statues, each one carved in a lifelike manner, she silently counted them, and as she counted, she even forgot where she started, so she could see how many Buddha statues there were on the stone walls.

"You don't need to count, there are 9,999 Buddha statues inside this temple, none of them are duplicates, all of them are famous Buddhas." Chen Haoxuan said.

After a while, Xu Mucheng finally came out of her shock, and pointing to the top, she said to Chen Haoxuan, "Why is there no light at the top of this!"

Chen Haoxuan explained, "This is because I want you to feel that this temple is very, very high, so high that you can't see the top. So I had someone make a candle light in front of each Buddha statue, the light at the bottom is the brightest, then the higher you go the darker it gets, and at the top you simply don't have a candle light anymore, so when you look over, the top is dark and you can't see anything. I suppose you feel like it's very, very high up at the top too?"

"You're such a genius, you thought of all this." Xu Mucheng said to Chen Haoxuan in admiration.

"Thank you for the compliment." Being complimented would be enjoyed by anyone, no matter how big they were, and Chen Haoxuan was no exception.

Chen Haoxuan was like a tour guide, every time he took Xu Mucheng to a place, he would tell Xu Mucheng in detail how that place was built, and if it was one with a story, he would also tell one or two.

At the river, for example, he made two human statues, ready for visitors to worship. The reason he did this was to give the Chen family village some more legends, he didn't just make them up.

Xu Mucheng, when she heard it, even complained that Chen Haoxuan had deliberately made her cry.

The village was not very big, but Chen Hao Xuan needed to tell Xu Mucheng details about each place he visited, so Xu Mucheng stayed in the village for three days before completing her mission. When she left, she was reluctant to leave because she was really happy with the time she spent with Chen Haoxuan. In addition, staying at Chen Hao Xuan's villa made her realise what a rich person's life is like.

After Xu Mucheng returned to the tour agency, she wrote a very detailed information to her boss, and then brought their tour agency to bring Chenjia Village, so that they could familiarise themselves with the environment, otherwise it would be embarrassing to bring tourists over and get lost.

Within a few days, the number of visitors to Chenjia Village began to increase, and when there were more visitors, Chen Hao Xuan suggested that the villagers should set up stalls.

The villagers of Chen's village had not yet started to earn an income, but they could all see that it would not be long before they would be rich. Everywhere they went in the Chen family village, people envied them and said that it would be great if Chen Haoxuan was from their village.

Chen Hao Xuan is a big shot in China and can be considered the most famous rich man in China, his every move can easily make the news, he leads the villagers to transform the whole Chen family village, how big the project is, without hope, the people of China will scold those reporters for being unprofessional.

Fang Zhiyu (Chen Hao Xuan's sister-in-law) she saw the news about the Chen family village, she was moved to persuade her husband to return to the Chen family village, she thought that a big man like Chen Hao Xuan, as long as they stop looking for trouble with him, I believe Chen Hao Xuan will not look for trouble with them either.

Fang Zhiyu she told her husband about her idea and he agreed. In fact, without Fang Zhiyu saying it, Chen Hao Rong wanted to go back because he didn't want to work part-time, not only was he tired half to death every day, but he was often scolded by his boss. Now everyone in Chen's village has a chance to make a fortune, and there are not many such opportunities! If he doesn't go back sooner, he won't have any money left. He hadn't forgotten that he was a Chen family member, and that his account still belonged to the Chen family! He was also from Chen's village, but others were getting rich and he wasn't. He would be very upset.

Chen Hao Rong and his wife immediately packed up their things and boarded a long-distance bus back to Xinsan City. They didn't ask for the money they had earned in the factory, even though they were poor now, but they had been a big boss in the past.

When Chen Haorong returned to the village with his wife, they smiled when they saw the lively scene. The people of Chen's village had indeed become rich, each wearing decent clothes and glowing red, and it was clear from a glance that they were now leading a good life. Chen Haorong was probably so different from what he was wearing now that many of the villagers didn't recognise the couple, because Chen Haorong used to wear designer clothes, gold necklaces, gold rings and so on. But what about the current Chen Haorong! Wearing ordinary casual clothes and carrying two luggage bags, he was a bit shabby.

Chen Haorong, he remembered his home. When he pushed the door in, he saw his mother feeding the chickens in the yard. His mother, Li Xin, was poorly dressed, more like a peasant than a farmer.

"Mom, I'm back." Chen Haorong shouted.

Hearing someone shouting for her mother, Li Xin looked up and after seeing clearly that it was her son, Chen Haorong, she dropped the basin she was holding to the ground with a thud. "Hao Rong, go, go, go, when your father comes back, you will be finished." Li Xin said anxiously to her son, at first her son had put the couple through a lot, she could see through it now and let nature take its course, but her husband Chen Zhenghao had always hated Chen Haorong, and said that if Chen Haorong came back, he would kill him with his own hands.

Chen Haorong was not happy, he was a member of the family and their son, how could he kick them out as soon as he came back. He said angrily, "Mum, your son has just returned, so even if you care about me, how can you still drive me away! Do you really want to acknowledge me as your son?"

Fang Zhiyu, who spoke out to Li Xin, said, "Mom, how can you do this, do you really want to cut off the Chen family's incense?" After all, Chen Hao Xuan had already cleared his relationship with them, and only her husband could be considered a member of the Chen family, so if she drove him away, then the family line would naturally be broken.

Chen Zhenghao, who was carrying a hoe back, he was furious when he saw Chen Haorong and his wife: "Rebel son, how dare you come back, see if I don't beat you."

"Dad, are you crazy? I'm your son." Chen Haorong couldn't believe it, it had been a few years and his dad still refused to forgive him.

"I don't have a son like you. You could have left if you wanted to, but you ran up a huge debt and caused your mother and I to be almost killed by those employees of yours. After you left home, you haven't made a single phone call or sent a letter back, in your eyes you don't have a family at all. I guess you're back now because you want a piece of the pie with the Chen family village, right? Let me tell you, you don't want to dream, Chen Hao Xuan has long since stopped treating us as family, he has brought the whole Chen family village to get rich this time, our family has no part to play, so get back from wherever you came from!" Chen Zhenghao said angrily, he wanted to beat his son with a hoe, but he still couldn't bear to do it.

"No way, you're lying to me, but I've heard that those people who had problems with Chen Hao Xuan in the past, Chen Hao Xuan has turned all their problems into peace with them, we should be the same." Chen Haorong didn't believe what his dad said was true, but he had read in the newspaper that those people who had tried to take advantage of Chen Haoxuan in the past and had made Chen Haoxuan so angry that he moved his garment factory away had all made up with Chen Haoxuan again, so his family should have made peace with Chen Haoxuan too.

"You pig! You don't even think about what they did to Chen Haoxuan and what we did to Chen Haoxuan." Chen Zhenghao huffed.

Li Xin she spoke out to remind Chen Haorong, saying, "Haorong ah! You should understand very well that those who made Chen Hao Xuan so angry that Chen Hao Xuan helped the garment factory away in a fit of anger, and those who said bad things about Chen Hao Xuan, they were all just trying to take a small advantage from Chen Hao Xuan. And what about us! We treated him badly since he was a child, and then kicked him out of the house afterwards, and when he got rich, we shared our property with him, and finally tried to kill him. Now you now why Chen Hao Xuan hasn't forgiven us, right?"

Chen Haorong he was still not dead, he spoke out, "Even if he doesn't forgive us, what can he do, to know that we are also people of the Chen family village, the river of the Chen family village, the mountain of the Chen family village, the land of the Chen family village, we all have a share as people of the Chen family village, he now expropriated our land, he has to pay me."

Li Xin spoke out again, "You are wrong, he is leading the villagers to develop the whole Chenjia Village, it is all the villagers who have a share, except our family."

Chen Zhenghao threw his hoe to the side and cursed at Chen Haorong and his wife, saying, "Is it clear now? If you're clear, get out of here."

Chen Haorong was in a bad mood, he threw the luggage on his back on the ground, pointed at his dad and shouted angrily, "Why should I leave, this small house is mine, if you want to leave, it is you who should leave." After saying that he turned to his wife, and said, "You take the luggage into our room and see what he can do to us."

The house was indeed Chen Haorong's, when he and Chen Haoxuan split up, he inherited all of Chen Zhenghao's family property, which was actually the farmland and this piece of land, and he became the head of the family, so the deed to this field and the deed to the house were written in his name.

Chen Hao Rong's words made Chen Zhenghao's face purple with anger, and he covered his chest, looking at his painful look, he might have had a heart attack from the anger.

When Li Xin saw her husband suddenly covering his chest with a very distressed look, she rushed over and asked anxiously, "Zhenghao, what's wrong with you, don't scare me!"

Chen Zhenghao, he said word by word, "Go and get our luggage out, let's go, I won't live in his house even if I die." (I didn't add the - sign, I was afraid you would say I was filling up) Li Xin, her face was pale, they left, where would they go to live? Could they go to Chen Haoxuan's place? She spoke out to her husband, "Zhenghao, we're leaving, there's no place to live, let's just put up with it! When Hao Rong's anger subsides, we can still get along as well as before!"

Chen Zhenghao was angry at the sight of his son, and if he continued to live here, he might be angry with his son one day. He said to his wife, "Go to your mother's house, don't you have a lot of old houses? We'll go and live in those old houses, it's better than seeing this rebellious son here."

Li Xin she also tried to persuade Chen Zhenghao, but Chen Zhenghao just wanted to go, and said that if Li Xin didn't want to, she would stay and he would go alone. In the end, Li Xin went with Chen Zhenghao.

The sound of Chen Zhenghao's family quarrelling was so loud that a few villagers who passed by his house heard it clearly. Gossip is the only entertainment in the countryside and villagers are fond of it. So it didn't take long for word to spread about the Chen Zhenghao family's quarrel, and half of the villagers in the Chen family village knew about it. If it had been in the past, it would have been known to the whole village, but now it was different, many of the villagers now had jobs, so the news did not spread as fast as before.

When Chen Hao Xuan heard that Chen Hao Rong had come back and kicked him, Chen Zhenghao and Li Xin, out, he was upset and he thought Chen Hao Rong had gone too far. He also felt bad for his parents, who had always loved their son, who had abandoned them a few years ago, and then, a few years later, came back and threw them out of the house, sadly!

Honestly, Chen Hao Xuan really hated Chen Zhenghao's family, that family, and although he used to have a part in it, he lived a life that was worse than a dog. His parents called him a bastard, his brother abused him every day because he was handsome, his sister-in-law took a liking to him and seduced him because of his good looks, and when he didn't comply, he was scolded by his sister-in-law every day, and finally provoked her husband to kick him out of the house when he was still studying.

This family is the most tangled family Chen Hao Xuan has ever seen, it is not too much to say that the people in this family are all psychotic, this is true, that is the old Chen Hao Xuan is also very abnormal, bullied by his family to be as timid as a mouse, can't do anything but study, even the girls drive to bully him, if this is not a problem of nerves, then what is it? If it wasn't for Chen Hao Xuan, who was reborn from the future century, this family, I'm afraid, would be even worse.

Chen Hao Xuan learned from the villagers that Chen Hao Rong had come back this time to share the money with the villagers, and when he heard this news, he laughed, he laughed at Chen Hao Rong for being stupid and rushing straight back to yell about sharing the money without inquiring clearly. He was not afraid of being beaten up by the villagers, because the money earned by the Chen Agricultural Company was all the money of the investors, and Chen Haorong, who had not contributed any money, would not agree to share the money with them.

Chen Hao Rong is still shrewd, he did not go to Chen Hao Xuan to share the money on the day he came back, he found a few friends who used to play well and spent a few hundred dollars to invite them to a meal to investigate the current situation of the Chen family village from their mouths.

The next day, early in the morning Chen Haorong bought some fruit and went to Li Ping's house, he inquired yesterday, now Chen's agricultural company Li Ping said, which made him happy for a long time, because he thought it was Chen Haoxuan.

Chen Haorong carried a fruit basket to Li Ping's house, he knocked on the door, no response? So he knocked again and shouted loudly, "Is anyone home?"

At that moment, a villager happened to pass by and kindly said to Chen Haorong, "Li Ping's family moved to a new house long ago, just off the highway. That most luxurious villa is Li Ping's family's, it's very recognisable."

Chen Haorong felt very bad because he couldn't see others well. Li Ping's family used to be the poorest in Chenjia Village, but now, apart from Chen Haoxuan, their family was the richest, and now not only did both couples become managers, they also lived in a luxurious villa.

Chen Haorong walked out of the Chen family village and came to the highway. He saw several houses built along the highway, and the most dazzling one was the luxurious villa like a palace. Chen Haorong he sighed and said, "Alas, such a person can get rich and live in a villa, God is really blind."

Chen Haorong came to the front door of Li Ping's house and rang the doorbell a few times, and it didn't take long for Li Ping to come out. Li Ping was wearing a lady's suit, and if she was given a pair of glasses, she would be more like a white collar worker.

Seeing Li Ping come out, Chen Haorong politely said to Li Ping, "Aunt Ping, do you remember me? I'm Hao Rong! I've been living next door to you." This was the first time Chen Haorong had ever called Li Ping by her name, but never by her name.

Li Ping did not like Chen Haorong, who had almost killed her future son-in-law, and she said to him indifferently, "What do you want from me?"

Chen Haorong said to Li Ping with an ingratiating smile, "Aunt Ping, it's like this, I just returned to the Chen family village yesterday, I heard that our Chen family village now has a Chen agricultural company, each person needs to invest to join, I am here to invest now, please help me to get a contract."

Li Ping shook her head and said, "I can't make the decision, because the investment has long passed, and besides, you haven't participated once in the renovation project of Chen's village in these six months, so it's hard for you to join now, unless Xiao Xuan nods, or more than fifty-one percent of the stockholders are willing for you to join."

He had a bad reputation in Chen's village, he had been involved in many fights and brawls, and he often stole chickens and dogs, and when he had made some money, he despised every one of them. As for Chen Haoxuan, he didn't dare to ask, because he knew he didn't have to - Chen Haoxuan wouldn't agree to help him either.

Chen Haorong was not willing to do so, he had thrown his job away and come back, if he could not get anything, he would not rest. How come I don't get a share? You know, I am also a member of the Chen Family Village, and I also have a share in those mountains."

Li Ping frowned and said, "Don't think that just because you're from the Chen family village, you'll get money, I'm telling you, there's no such thing under the sun. The soil by the river belongs to our village, but if we don't plant anything, there won't be any money! All the bamboo seedlings planted by the river are from the villagers in the mountains. The reservoir on the mountain, the pig farm, the chicken farm were all built by the villagers with great effort and it took them half a year to build them! Don't look at their initial investment of only a few hundred yuan, but in fact if you count their half-year labor, they each invested tens of thousands of RMB.

You could say this, Chen's Agricultural Company was built by Xiao Xuan who led everyone to build it, it was built by everyone's hard work and hands day by day, so to the villagers, Chen's Agricultural Company means a lot to them, and these cannot be measured in money. When you didn't pay anything in the beginning, now when you see that everyone is living a good life, you want to come and share the pie with everyone, there is no such reason."

Chen Haorong huffed, "Fine, even if I didn't pay anything, then I should be compensated with some money, right? Think about it, I am also a member of the Chen family village, now you have hijacked all the resources of the Chen family village, I have a share in all those resources, you won't let me join your company, then compensate me for my losses, get the money and I will leave immediately."

"I am the manager of Chen's Agricultural Company yes, but my boss is all the villagers, I can't make the decision, why don't you go to them? I will give you as much money as they are willing to compensate you. If it's too much trouble for you, I can do you this favour, I'll post a notice to the announcement board in the village and ask the villagers who agree to your request to come to me and sign it, as long as the shares they hold reach fifty percent or more, how much they say they'll give you - I'll give you, it's all their money anyway," Li Ping said.

Getting the villagers to agree to give him a share of the villagers' own money was not something anyone with a brain would agree to, because giving it to him would not benefit the villagers one bit, only the others.

Chen Haorong didn't expect such a result, he didn't have to go to the villagers to help him, he didn't have to go to the villagers to know that none of them would help him, because if he was a shareholder of Chen's Agricultural Company, he wouldn't want anyone else to share his money.

Chen Haorong he turned into a plea this time: "Aunt Ping, tell me, what other projects can be invested in Chen's village now? I can invest a few thousand dollars, and if it's not enough, I can take the house to the bank and mortgage it for a hundred thousand or so, and then use it to invest?"

Li Ping shook her head and sighed, "Sorry, now that the transformation of Chenjia Village has been completed, there are no other projects that need investment. Even the work in Chenjia Village is not available, as all the work in Chenjia Village is done by the stockholders."

Chen Haoxuan, who was carrying a thermos bottle in his hand, he was followed by a giant Tibetan mastiff, who had come to walk his dog and casually take some of the breakfast he had cooked for Li Ping's couple to try.

Li Ping she saw Chen Haoxuan coming, her smile suddenly appeared on her face, she happily shouted to Chen Haoxuan, "Haoxuan, you're carrying a thermos in your hand, you didn't cook us a delicious breakfast again, did you!"

"Aunt Ping, your nose is really smart, you can smell it from so far away, I brought you lobster congee today, it tastes superb." Chen Haoxuan smilingly said to Li Ping, Chen Haorong was in front of him, he didn't even look at him, he just ignored it.

Li Ping she opened the door, took the thermos bottle in Chen Haoxuan's hand, smiled and said, "You kid, do your best to please people."

Chen Haorong he said secretly in his heart, "Or should I bow down to Chen Haoxuan? Maybe if he is soft-hearted, he will be able to gain a lot of benefits himself."

Chapter 414

Chen Haorong turned to Chen Haoxuan with a pleasing smile, saying, "Haoxuan, long time no see."

Chen Haoxuan looked at Chen Haorong's disgusting smile, his brow couldn't help but wrinkle, he hated this kind of hypocritical smile. Chen Haoxuan his tone was devoid of any emotion, "I heard that you kicked your parents out of the house yesterday, I wonder if that's true?"

Chen Haorong's smile immediately disappeared, he didn't expect Chen Haoxuan to know that so quickly, what should he do?

Chen Haoxuan spoke out again, "What did you come to see Aunt Ping about?"

Chen Haorong immediately spoke out, "Hao Xuan, it's like this, I've been reflecting on the past two years outside, I regret treating you that way, I regret leaving home, I'm here to say sorry to you, I shouldn't have treated you that way in the first place, please forgive me."

Chen Hao Xuan asked interestingly, "Didn't you say you had reflected on yourself? Then why did you kick your parents out as soon as you came back?"

"Hao Xuan, you misunderstood, I didn't kick them out, they wanted to leave on their own." Chen Haorong hurriedly explained.

"Oh, really?" Chen Haoxuan said with an evil smile.

"Yes, I really didn't lie to you, I really didn't kick them out, they wanted to leave on their own, you can ask others if you don't believe me." Chen Haorong said to Chen Haoxuan with a serious look on his face.

"Oh." Chen Haoxuan responded and then walked into the villa.

Chen Haorong he couldn't help but stare, what kind of matter is this! I was still chatting with you! Why did you leave without saying a word?

Chen Haorong, who had now become very thick-skinned, saw Chen Haoxuan walk into the villa, and he followed him straight in. Li Ping, she didn't want Chen Haorong to come in, but being kind she was really embarrassed to kick Chen Haorong out.

Chen Haorong walked inside the villa, he was as casual as such home, he poured himself a glass of milk, then leaned back on the sofa to rest while he brought the Tibetan mastiff, very well behaved lying at his feet.

After Chen Haorong he walked into the living room, he didn't sit down, he stood aside and politely said to Chen Haoxuan, "Haoxuan, I came here today because I want to take a stake in Chen's agricultural company, I asked Aunt Ping and she said it was only possible if you agreed."

Chen Hao Xuan waved his hand and said, "It is true that I am the biggest shareholder of Chen Agricultural Company, but Chen Agricultural Company is not my decision alone, because Chen Agricultural Company belongs to the whole Chen Family Village, so if you want to take a stake in Chen Agricultural Company, you need to get the support of most of the people. How about this! You go and get a piece of paper with your application written on it, then get the villagers to sign it, if most of them sign it, Aunt Ping will let you in."

Chen Hao Xuan he didn't need to think about it, he knew that the villagers would never agree to it, because Chen Hao Rong was a guy who was hated by everyone, and most importantly he was the person he hated the most in Chen Hao Xuan, the villagers would definitely think that if they signed, Chen Hao Xuan would definitely hate them, and if that was the case, they wouldn't be able to follow Chen Hao Xuan to get rich and wealthy.

Hearing Chen Hao Xuan's words, Chen Hao Rong suddenly looked bitter as he pleaded, "Hao Xuan, it's not like you don't know that I have offended many people in the past and have a bad reputation in our Chen family village, if you ask me to beg them, they will definitely not agree. But if you promise it will be different, no one will dare to say anything if you promise."

"But why should I say yes?" Chen Haoxuan said with a smile.

"Because because" Chen Hao Rong squeaked never able to say a reason, he wanted to say it was Chen Hao Xuan's brother, but the problem, this brother of his obviously did not look like a brother at all, but rather like an enemy. He wanted to say it was someone from the Chen family village, but the problem was, it was none of Chen Hao Xuan's business! In Chen's agricultural company Chen Hao Xuan is just a major shareholder, while Li Ping is elected by the villagers, the ultimate power is still the villagers of the Chen family village.

Li Ping spoke out and said to Chen Haorong, "You can just go and beg the villagers of Chen's village, it's useless to beg us because we can't represent the whole Chen's village, so to speak! Xiao Xuan is just a shareholder, and I am just a manager who works for the villagers, so we can't even say anything.

Chen Haorong was embarrassed! Who doesn't know that the villagers are in charge, but the problem is that they all hate him, otherwise why would he come here and beg you like this?

It took Chen Haorong a long time to get a word out, and he said in a low voice, "Hao Xuan, Aunt Ping, it is because the villagers are unwilling that I have come to you, you have a very high place in the villagers' hearts, and as long as you agree, the villagers will never object. I am begging you, please help me! You may not know how I have been living outside for the past two years. I was cheated out of all my money, so I had to go to work, I had no skills, so I had to go to a factory.

Maybe it's because the life was too hard, which made me realize life, I am ashamed of you Hao Xuan, ashamed of my parents' kindness to me, so I came back, I want to get back on my feet, so that my parents can live a good life. It was all an accident yesterday, it was my dad who moved away because he refused to forgive me, which makes me want to make more money and then bring them back. Hao Xuan, for the sake of me being your brother, please help me! I really want Mum and Dad to live a carefree life."

"You're not my brother, and your parents are not my parents, so I don't have any reason that I can convince myself to help you. If you want to earn more money to support your parents, you can go out to work and do business! Why come back to this small village? With the few thousand you have on you, even if you put those few thousand into the stock, you will still not make any money because you still need to work to join Chen's Agricultural Company. Have you seen the villagers who are fighting against things in the mountains? Have you seen the villagers who spend all day in the mountains looking for precious herbs? Have you done all of these?" Chen Hao Xuan gushed.

The first thing you need to do is to go to the farm.

Chen Hao Rong was not willing to do it, he thought of a way, he spoke out again to Chen Hao Xuan and said: "Hao Xuan, actually it's my wife who has a heart disease, she needs to take medicine every day or her life will be in danger, that's why I want money so much, help me! Either that or just give me some money as well."

Chen Hao Xuan looked at Chen Hao Rong and said, "My family is so rich that I can't spend it all in a few lifetimes, but why should I give you money?"

Chen Haorong showed an embarrassed expression as he squeaked, "Because--because my parents are your parents, I want them to have a better life, and it's only right that you support them. Besides, my wife is your sister-in-law, and she has a heart condition, so it's only right that you help out."

Chen Hao Xuan said with an evil smile, "Didn't you come here to apply for a share in Chen's Agricultural Company? How come this has turned into asking for money directly from me again?"

Chen Haorong couldn't beat Chen Haoxuan, so he simply said directly, "Just say straight up whether to give or not to give!"

"You say you're my brother, but my account doesn't have your name in it, nor your parents' names, and you're not in my house, so how can you say I'm your brother! Forget it this time, if there's another time, I'll have the police arrest you, get out of here!" Chen Hao Xuan coldly said to Chen Hao Rong, said. What did he care about his wife having a heart attack?

Chen Haorong's wife, Fang Zhiyu, whom Chen Haoxuan had seen with binoculars on the roof of his villa today, did not look like she had a heart attack at all, and even if she did, Chen Haoxuan was not willing to help. Fang Zhiyu was once someone who wanted to wall rape him, although in the end Fang Zhiyu did not succeed, but to the former Chen Hao Xuan heart illuminated a lot of damage, such a shameless woman, better dead.

Chen Hao Rong's body was shaking, he was not sick, he was angry with Chen Hao Xuan, he pointed at Chen Hao Xuan and cursed, "Chen Hao Xuan, don't think you can treat me like this just because you are rich now, I tell you, one day you will lose to me, when the time comes, I will make your life worse than death." After saying that, he turned around and walked out.

Li Ping she huffed and scolded at Chen Haorong who was walking outside, "How can you be like this, so rude, you don't even think about how you treated Xiao Xuan before, now you are in trouble and you want Xiao Xuan to help, is there such a good thing in this world? Don't you ever come to my house again, I don't welcome you, humph."

Chen Haorong, he swore in his heart that he would ruin Chen Haoxuan's career, make Chen Haoxuan have nothing, and then slowly torture Chen Haoxuan. Li Ping's family, he did not intend to let go either.

After Chen Haorong left, Chen Haoxuan said to Li Ping, "Aunt Ping, you should never pay any attention to him again, let alone bring him into the house, or he will dare to do anything when he gets angry. Also, this time, he approached you wanting to join the Chen Agricultural Company, you shouldn't talk so much nonsense to him, just let you go to the villagers directly and KO, if he doesn't want to, you don't have to pay attention to him, because it's not like you're persuading him, he's not your person either."

Li Ping nodded seriously and responded, "I know, I will definitely not talk to him again." For Chen Haorong, Li Ping really didn't dare to mess with him, because Chen Haorong knew a lot of gangsters, and Chen Haorong had even beaten her up before!

When Chen Haorong returned home, his wife Fang Zhiyu saw him coming back and immediately ran over to him and asked, "Haorong, has Li Ping agreed to join us yet?"

Chen Haorong said with a sigh of relief, "No."

Fang Zhiyu didn't want to give up just like that, so she asked, "What about Chen Haoxuan? Didn't you go to look for him?"

"I did, but he didn't agree and even scolded me. One day, I will kill him, humph." Chen Haorong huffed.

Fang Zhiyu had a bitter face, not being able to be a part of Chen's agricultural company, not being able to live a rich life like the villagers, this was not what she wanted.

"Hao Rong, then what should we do from now on?" Fang Zhiyu asked sadly.

"I think we should sell this house and go to the county, I have quite a few friends in the county, I'll hang out with them then, maybe I can even become a boss." Chen Haorong suggested.

"Fine! Going to the county to hang out - better than ploughing the fields in Chen's village." Fang Zhiyu said, lost in thought.

"Come on, let's go find the land deed, now that Chenjia Village has been developed, I think we should be able to sell our house for quite a lot of money." Chen Haorong said, unknowingly happy.

Chen Haorong and his wife excitedly searched the house for the deed, but they searched the whole small house but could not find the deed, no deed. So Chen Haorong thought of his dad, Chen Zhenghao, who he thought must have taken the deed away. He heard what his dad and his mother said at the door yesterday and knew that his parents had gone to his grandfather's house, so he immediately took the car and went to his grandfather's house.

After Chen Haorong came out of Li Ping's house, he asked Jiang Dong and the others to spread the news that Chen Haorong wanted to take a stake in Chen's agricultural company, he wanted to make the villagers all hate Chen Haorong, so that when the villagers saw Chen Haorong, it would be like seeing an enemy. It was better to be angrier than Chen Haorong and go away, so that he would not have to worry about seeing Chen Haorong in Chen's village, because when he saw Chen Haorong, he would be in a very bad mood.

When Jiang Dong and the others deliberately went to the village to buy snacks, they told Chen Haorong's purpose. The kiosk is a place that many people like to go, so the news soon spread, and the villagers who heard the news were angry and kept scolding Chen Haorong in secret for being shameless and offering a few thousand dollars for nothing, just to share the money with them, think better of it.

Li Xin her mother's family is in the rural area near the city of Xinshan, all Chen Haorong soon arrived, but he also soon came back, because he was driven back by his dad.

Chen Zhenghao, he was almost angry with his son, he left home a few years ago, got into a huge debt, didn't hear a word from him for a few years, and now he's back, but as soon as he came back, he kicked him out, and now he's trying to sell the house, how can he not be angry! So, when Chen Hao Rong found him and told him what he wanted, he went back inside, picked up a kitchen knife and chased after Chen Hao Rong, if Chen Hao Rong hadn't been quick to dodge, he would have been killed.

Chen Zhenghao was so ruthless that Chen Haorong was scared, so he came back to see if there was any way to get the deed to the house from his dad. But when Chen Hao Rong returned to Chen's village, he found that the villagers in Chen's village would all make very displeased noises when they saw him, "Hmph" And looked at him with a very annoyed look.

"What's wrong with these villagers? They were fine when I left, why are they looking at me like this as soon as I return? Could it be that something happened during the time I was away?" Chen Haorong said darkly in his heart as he walked quickly back to ask his wife.

When he returned home, he saw his wife walking around the yard, looking anxious, and he called out, "Wife, what are you doing?"

"Hao Rong, you're back, did you get the land deed?" Fang Zhiyu asked happily, she didn't want to stay in Chen's village for a moment now, because she had just gone out to buy snacks and the owner of the kiosk didn't even sell to her, neither did the other owners, and the villagers all whispered to her that she was a pest, so she didn't want to stay in Chen's village anymore, she wanted to sell the house and leave here right away.

"No, the old man said that unless he was killed, he would never get the deed to the house." Chen Haorong said in a demoralized voice.

"How can that old man be like that, it's none of his business whether our house is sold or not." Fang Zhiyu cursed and grumbled.

"Let's think of another way!" Chen Haorong said with an unhappy frown.

Fang Zhiyu, she grabbed Chen Haorong's arm and said worriedly, "Haorong, you have to think of something quickly! Now the people of Chen's village don't know why, they point at me when they see me and sneakily scold us, if it was one or two I would have scolded them, but the whole village is like this, I suspect it's because they all don't want us to join Chen's Agricultural Company, that's why they are treating us like this, trying to piss us off."

"When I came back, the people in the village treated me the same way, I didn't think it would turn out to be because we wanted to move their interests." Chen Haorong said torn, they couldn't stay in the Chen family village now, they had to quickly find a way to get the deed to the house from his dad, then sell the house and go to live in the county immediately.

The next day, Chen Hao Xuan made an announcement that caused a stir in the Chen family village and even the next village, that he was once again buying all kinds of good-looking stones.

When the news came out, Chen Xiumin stopped even reading and took leave from her job at Chenjia Village. She had collected a lot of good stones, and she thought that by selling all the stones she had collected, she would be able to buy herself a computer and many more things she had always wanted. Chen Haoxuan's notice said that the sale would not start until 2pm, but as soon as Chen Xiumin's mother saw Chen Haoxuan's notice, she called her and told her to come back immediately to sell the stones.

Chen Xiumin didn't care about that, she came home with a basket of her stone collection and carried it to Chen Haoxuan's house, the time for the purchase hadn't arrived, but she thought it was permissible for her and Chen Haoxuan to have a special relationship. Not to mention, the bodyguard guarding the door really didn't stop Chen Xiumin and let her in straight away, but once inside she was told to wait downstairs while the bodyguard went to inform Chen Haoxuan.

"Mandy, you can go up now, our dad is in the living room on the first floor." The bodyguard came down from upstairs and said to Chen Xiumin with a smile, Chen Xiumin was a small star in the Chen family village, she was famous for selling rocks, and until now there had never been anyone who made more money selling rocks than her.

Before Chen Xiumin arrived, Chen Hao Xuan heard her voice: "Brother Xuan, come and help me! I've brought many stones."

When Chen Hao Xuan heard Chen Xiumin's words, he could not help but smile, feeling that Chen Xiumin was like the little girl who sold matches, but she was richer than the little girl who sold matches. Chen Hao Xuan got up and walked to the staircase, and saw Chen Xiumin who was holding a basket full of stones in both hands, not to mention that Chen Xiumin's strength was quite strong, and her basket of stones was at least fifty to sixty pounds.

Chen Hao Xuan hurriedly took Chen Xiumin's basket and said to Chen Xiumin with a smile, "Xiaomin, are you out of pocket money, so you came to sell stones?"

Chen Xiumin said with a smile, "My mother saved up my money and said she would give it to me when I went to university, so I am now a poor man, but after selling these stones, I will have money because I have agreed with my mother that only half of the money from the sale of these stones will be handed over. Brother Xuan, will you help me see how much these stones can be sold for?"

"Okay I'll help you take a look, little wealthy fan." Chen Haoxuan said with a smile as he placed the basket on the ground, squatted down and began to value these stones for Chen Xiumin.

Chen Xiumin was known for her luck in picking up rocks, but this time she was obviously not that lucky, the rocks she picked up this time were all good looking in colour and did not resemble a certain kind of stone, so Chen Xiumin could not sell this basket of rocks for much money. After Chen Hao Xuan had finished looking at them all, he looked up and said to Chen Xiumin, who was squatting in front of him, looking at him with bewilderment, "Xiaomin! I can't give you a very high price this time, because these stones you have picked up are ordinary stones that can only be used for carving or for paving the floor."

Chen Xiumin was disappointed that she could not sell them at a high price, so her computer and all the things she wanted to buy would be lost. She beamed and said a little aggrieved, "How much can it be sold for then!"

"If I say a hundred yuan, will you cry?" Chen Hao Xuan laughed, Chen Xiumin's stones could be sold for a hundred yuan, and this was still the high price Chen Hao Xuan gave, because there were many stones with good colours, and he had acquired many such stones before to use for paving the floor.

"How... how come it's so little." Chen Xiumin's eyes misted up, she used to sell stones for thousands or tens of thousands, but this time it was only a hundred, she was devastated.

Chen Hao Xuan pulled Chen Xiumin to sit on the sofa and comforted Chen Xiumin, saying, "Xiaomin! Don't be sad! It's like this in business, you can pay as much as you want, brother Xuan will not cheat you. But you look like you need money, tell brother Xuan, maybe he can help you!"

Chen Xiumin looked at Chen Haoxuan with tears in her eyes, this look made Chen Haoxuan want to hold Chen Xiumin in his arms and comfort her well, Chen Xiumin said in a delicate voice, "I want to buy a computer and good fun things, but my money is saved up by my old mother, I asked her to buy me a computer, she didn't even want to, saying that I am still young and can't finish the computer."

"Then what do you want to buy a computer for?" Chen Haoxuan asked.

"To watch movies, chat with QQ, and so on! I heard that there are a lot of good things to see inside the computer, and if there is anything I don't know, I can look it up when I go inside the computer. If I have a computer, if I don't know anything, I can go to the computer and look it up, how convenient!" Chen Xiumin explained.

"Tell you what! I'll take all your stones, I'll give you a hundred yuan, plus I'll personally give you a laptop of over four thousand yuan, how about that?" Chen Hao Xuan smiled at Chen Xiumin, and said.

"Brother Xuan, you're too good for that." Chen Xiumin excitedly quickly wrapped her arms around Chen Hao Xuan's neck and kissed Chen Hao Xuan's lips with her small lips.

Chen Hao Xuan felt his mind was blank, Chen Haoxuan had thought Chen Xiumin was going to kiss his face, so he didn't dodge, but he didn't expect Chen Xiumin to kiss him on the lips, to know that Chen Xiumin was only fourteen years old! Kissing a fourteen-year-old girl is against the law. Chen Hao Xuan did not push Chen Xiumin away because he was not yet awake.

Chen Xiumin couldn't help but kiss Chen Haoxuan when she was excited. She didn't think about it so much when she kissed him, but instinctively wanted to kiss Chen Haoxuan's lips, and she regretted it as soon as she kissed him.

She was worried that Chen Hao Xuan would stop caring about her after she kissed him, if that was the case, she would be very sad. Her lips slowly left Chen Hao Xuan's lips, and when she left, she pulled out a crystal silk, which was saliva! This scene could best be described as a root-root break.

At this point Chen Hao Xuan came to his senses, he sat up and straightened his clothes, he didn't dare to look at Chen Xiumin, he said out loud: "Xiao Min, it was an accident just now, wasn't it? Surprisingly it was an accident you should not say anything about it, okay?"

Chen Hao Xuan is also the victim, he is the victim, what is he afraid of!

Chen Xiumin's face turned red, she lowered her head, rubbed her hands on the corner of her clothes and said shyly, "Xuan... brother Xuan, I didn't mean to do it, you won't be angry with me, right?"

"As long as you don't say anything, I won't be angry." Chen Haoxuan said.

Chen Xiumin turned her head, looked at Chen Hao Xuan, and very seriously to Chen Hao Xuan, said, "Brother Xuan, don't worry, I won't say anything."

"Mm, that's good." Chen Haoxuan nodded in response, he still didn't dare to look at Chen Xiumin as he spoke, if word of this got out, the world would be shocked that Chen Haoxuan was afraid of a little girl.

Chen Xiumin was in a strange mood, happy, worried, expectant and disappointed, happy that she had kissed her brother Xuan, whom she had always had a crush on, worried that her brother Xuan would ignore her in the future, expectant that her brother Xuan would be like those couples in TV dramas where the female lead takes the initiative to kiss the male lead and the male lead would do that, disappointed that Chen Hao Xuan hadn't made a move so far.

"Brother Xuan, can I - can I still come and play with you anytime in the future like I used to?" Chen Xiumin asked worriedly, if Chen Hao Xuan dared to say a word no, she would immediately cry out in tears.

"Of course you can." Chen Haoxuan smiled and then stood up and said to Chen Xiumin, "Come with me, I'll take you to get the laptop, and here's the money for the stones you sold." Chen Hao Xuan handed Chen Xiumin a hundred yuan and then led her downstairs.

Chen Hao Xuan's villa had a lot of laptops for Jiang Dong and the others, and each guest room had one for the guests, so he had prepared a lot of laptops, which were placed in a warehouse next door to Jiang Dong and the others.

Chen Hao Xuan took Chen Xiumin to the warehouse, and when they entered, Chen Hao Xuan pointed to a pile of boxes and said to Chen Xiumin, "These are all laptops, not the same brand, but there are many colours, so you can choose for yourself! Take as many as you like."

"Wow, a lot of laptops!" Chen Xiumin said in awe.

Chen Xiumin searched for a long time and finally found a pink laptop, she carried the box to Chen Haoxuan and happily said to him, "Brother Xuan, I want this one."

"Well, then let's go to the living room and try if it's good, and then I'll install some software for you." Chen Haoxuan smiled and said to Chen Xiumin.

"Brother Xuan is so nice." Chen Xiumin complimented again, and if she hadn't just uncontrollably kissed Chen Hao Xuan's lips, she would have stood on her heels and kissed Chen Hao Xuan's face now.

When he reached the living room, Chen Hao Xuan helped Chen Xiumin check her computer and after he found that it was fine, he helped Chen Xiumin download a lot of software, browsers, office software and so on.

After Chen Hao Xuan helped Chen Xiumin download the software, Chen Xiumin left because it was almost time for dinner and she was too embarrassed to dilly-dally with Chen Hao Xuan. When she got home, she gave her mother the 100 yuan she had earned from selling the stones, because she had agreed with her mother that she would pay half of the money she earned from selling the stones this time. When her mother saw that it was only a hundred yuan, she was too embarrassed to take it. As for the laptop that Chen Haoxuan gave to her daughter, she didn't object, Chen Haoxuan was so rich that a computer was worth the equivalent of a candy in Chen Haoxuan's eyes, so there was no need to be polite with Chen Haoxuan.

After Chen Haoxuan finished his meal, there were many villagers waiting at the entrance of his house before the time to buy the stones had arrived. Chen Hao Xuan he acquired the stones this time because he wanted to sell them to Su Yihan, those rich people who liked stones, if they were those stones with beautiful colours, he would use them for carving, he believed that with his current fame, anything he carved could be sold for a million dollars.

Don't look at the fact that Chen Hao Xuan now owns a large number of properties and people all over the world think he is rich, but only he and the leader of the Dragon Group know that he actually doesn't have much money right now because he still owes the leader of the Dragon Group more than five billion RMB. So he has to make some money and pay back what he owes to others first, because he, Chen Hao Xuan, does not like to owe people money.

Don't underestimate Chen Hao Xuan's stone business, he made a huge sum of 1.1 billion RMB from stones back then, and that was just from one work, so no one would doubt Chen Hao Xuan when he said he was going to pay off the 5 billion RMB he owed to the leader of the group by selling stones.

Chen Hao Xuan has nothing to do now anyway, and carving stones is something that is quite fun and can make a lot of money, so he plans to stay in Chenjia Village to carve art for a while.

Chen Hao Xuan did not expect the purchase of stones to be so sensational, as he saw that everyone who came to sell stones was either carrying baskets or pushing carts full of stones. Chen Haoxuan didn't think that he had made a lot of money for the poor villagers when he first acquired the stones, so this made the villagers couldn't help but pick up every good-looking stone they saw and take it home to put away.

There were too many people, and everyone had a lot of stones, so it was impossible to buy them all today, so Chen Haoxuan asked Jiang Dong to make a lot of tents outside the gate for the villagers to rest in, and also asked Jiang Dong to cook for the villagers.

Chen Hao Xuan's energy was extraordinary, as he collected stones for a day and a night, but he didn't sleep at all, which made the villagers feel very strange and wonder if Chen Hao Xuan had taken any medicine.

What made him even happier was that he had acquired more than ten water stones with beautiful colours and large bodies, which were best used for carving.

He believed that if the stones were carved, they could be sold for at least 100 million RMB. Since the money from rare and odd stones was small, it would be better to acquire those large and colourful stones and use them for carving, so as to earn more. So Chen Hao Xuan told the villagers that he would no longer buy all kinds of odd and strange stones, but only stones of large size and beautiful colours, and also marked them with a high price.

Chen Hao Xuan bought thousands of stones, all kinds of stones, and he couldn't handle them alone, so he hired a few women to clean them and then apply paraffin wax to them. Chen Hao Xuan was paid for their work, so the women worked diligently and washed each stone to make it shine like a precious stone.

Chen Hao Xuan began to carve, and now he was even more powerful than before, after all, his strength had increased so much that he could now carve very fast and accurately, without breaking the stones because of his speed.

The Chen family village and the nearby villages made a serious profit because Chen Hao Xuan once again bought the stones, the most they made was 100,000 yuan, the least they made was 20 or 30, 20 or 30 were some small children. The money was not a lot, but the villagers all made a profit, which put them all in a good mood and greeted them with a smile when they met people. Having made money, of course, they needed to celebrate, so every household in the Chen family village added dishes, which made the whole Chen family village filled with an aroma.

Families were celebrating, but Chen Hao Rong and his family, deady dull, were upset when others were happy, it was their unique instinct.

"? A cup, I'll take my ID card to the Land and Property Bureau tomorrow to register the loss of the replacement, anyway, this house is written in my name, the replacement is certainly no problem. That old man likes to take the deed of the house let him go to the earth with that useless deed!" Chen Hao Rong took a bite of the green vegetables and cursed.

As soon as her wife heard this, a bright light appeared in her eyes and she slapped the table, saying happily, "That's right! Why didn't I think of this idea before! It's better for hubby to be smart."

On Chen Haoxuan's side, he carved twelve pieces in just one day, some carved as flowers, some carved as Buddha statues, some as animals and some as four-sided, but beautiful works of art. Once Chen Hao Xuan had carved them, he put the photos of his works on his Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda website and then made a small software to auction them off to the highest bidder, which is the best way to make money. The auction was for three days, and whoever offered the highest price on the third day would be his.

The other stones Chen Hao Xuan also got to sell online, but not him, but Zhang Qing, Chen Hao Xuan helped Zhang Qing earn so much money, and also gave him his first business, let him help sell the stones, he dared not agree?

Zhang Qing is now a big boss, he has dozens of people under him, their work is relatively simple, they just need to understand their products, then introduce them to the customers if they want, after the customers are satisfied with the order, they just send the products to them, the procedure is very simple. They don't even have to send the courier themselves, a phone call from the post office will bring the car over.

Zhang Qing's online shop is very hot, so hot that he can open his own courier company, which can save a lot of money. Seriously, if he really opened a courier company he would be successful, because Chen Hao Xuan has so many companies, as long as Chen Hao Xuan gives the order, all the companies use the courier company opened by Zhang Qing, if this really happens, Zhang Qing wants to not get rich.

Unfortunately, Zhang Qing has no such intention, and Chen Hao Xuan does not want to monopolize all the business, leaving a way for people to live is also considered doing good deeds.

Chen Haoxuan is famous for carving the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda, and there are many people who want to buy his carvings. It can be said that it is a great honour to get Chen Haoxuan's carvings, such as the 10th richest man in the world, Ah Mansi Binzi, who paid 1.1 billion RMB to buy Chen Haoxuan's Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda, and he often takes out Chen Haoxuan's carvings to hold exhibitions, the kind that charge admission fees, and earns millions every time, which shows how popular Chen Haoxuan's works are.

So this time when Chen Haoxuan put his carvings up for auction on the internet, it became an instant sensation and many news stations started broadcasting things about his carvings being auctioned. Rich people, when their money reaches a certain level, they will pursue other things, such as engaging in art and being a person of taste, which is why rich people like to collect antiques and taste wine and play golf, so Chen Haoxuan's carvings are a treasure that all rich people want to get.

Cowboys are just different, the average person auctioning something is from half the price of that piece, but Chen Hao Xuan, his lowest bid for each piece is one million, the highest is 10 million, which scares a lot of ordinary netizens to death.

Many people would think, they sold themselves and there sold for less than 10 million, what does this say? Isn't this saying that they can't even compare to a stone? Pissed off, but they have to admit that Chen Haoxuan's carvings are perfect and every piece is lifelike.

The world is full of rich people, no, all of Chen Hao Xuan's works have been bid on, Ahmansi Binqi, he is also among them, he auctioned for the largest tree, it is a pine tree, the body is very beautiful, very artistic, but the stone carving pine tree Chen Hao Xuan bid 10 million, Ahmansi Binqi this big money rich, he directly bid 20 million. He wanted to auction Chen Haoxuan's work because he wanted to use it for his own enjoyment, and in addition to show off. Other works he also auctioned, but the price was low after all, only ten or twenty thousand above others.

Chen Haoxuan, he smiled, he thought he should be able to sell these twelve works of his for 100 million RMB.

Chen Haorong, he was so angry in his heart! It was hard for him not to know about Chen Hao Xuan. When he went out, the villagers were discussing Chen Hao Xuan, and when he watched TV at home, there was a lot of news, and everyone was talking about Chen Hao Xuan. A single stone could be sold for tens of millions of RMB. Chen Haorong could not help but curse those who bought Chen Hao Xuan's work as fools, he thought that if he did not use the money to have fun, instead of using it to buy a stone, what was this if not an act of a fool?

Three days later, all twelve of Chen Hao Xuan's works were auctioned off, earning a total of RMB102 million. Ten of his works were bought by foreigners and two by Chinese, which shows how little the Chinese seek for art.

Chen Haoxuan did not know that the peony he carved was bought by Shen Ruyan, who had asked others to buy it for her. She had always wanted Chen Haoxuan to carve a flower for her, but Chen Haoxuan had stood her up time and again, so she had to pay for it.

Chen Haoxuan's work was bought out, but that was not all. Many people placed orders with Chen Haoxuan for him to carve things for them. Chen Hao Xuan is an artist, and artists should have the model of an artist, he refused all of them, for the simple reason that helping these people to carve would not sell much money, and it would be better to earn more than the auction.

It is hard to find good coloured stones, and all the good stones around Chenjia Village have been picked up by the villagers, the only ones that have not been picked up are the stones under the ground. A few days ago, when Chen Hao Xuan was buying stones, a man from the next village said he wanted to contract the sand at the bottom of the river near Chenjia Village, panning sand is very profitable, especially this section of Chenjia Village, on the bank of the river, you dig a few times, it is sand.

The man wanted to contract one to make money panning for sand, and two to pull out stones to sell to Chen Haoxuan in the meantime. When Chen Hao Xuan found out, he immediately sent Jiang Dong to warn the man, saying that if he dared to plunder sand near Chenjia Village, he, Chen Hao Xuan, would dare to make him unable to sell a single grain of sand.

For the sake of the villagers, the bottom of this river in Chenjia Village is very flat, all the water flows very fast and the water is not very deep. But if someone pours sand here, it would be different, and it would make many places one deep and one shallow, which is not a good thing for children who like to swim in the river. Therefore, for the safety of the Chen Village and the scenery of the river in the Chen Village, Chen Hao Xuan would never allow anyone to pan for sand near the Chen Village, not even in the next village.

Chen Hao Xuan he in order to get more stones with good colours, he made a posting on the website of the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda to buy stones, the requirement was that the stones must have good colours and preferably be large in size, and the larger the better, the higher the price given, and then the stones that were small, then they would make up enough for fifty pounds before selling them to him. This task was given to Zhang Qing again, if the stone was big and beautiful, he would set the price, if it was average, Zhang Qing could make his own decision.

Zhang Qing had been in the business for three years, if he didn't even have this vision, how could he have grown to his current size.

Not to mention, this method of Chen Haoxuan's really works, and many netizens have said that they have stones with great colours, but quite a few of them said that they offer the stones, Chen Haoxuan offers the art, and sells them at a discount once the carving is done. Such people, Chen Haoxuan all refused, in taking advantage of him, and did not weigh how much they were.

What made Chen Haoxuan excited was that a farmer from his province said that there was a very large stone in front of his house, rectangular in shape, somewhat like a small car, and he sent a photo to Chen Haoxuan to show him.

The farmer was overjoyed, for the stone had been there since ancient times, and had been placed at the entrance of the gate, where he usually sat and rested when he had nothing else to do. It has been placed at the entrance, and fortunately it was not stolen, otherwise there would be no place to cry. After receiving Chen Haoxuan's affirmation, the farmer immediately called his whole family to go to the door and carry the stone to his home.

Because Chen Hao Xuan had chatted with that farmer at the posting on the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda website, many of the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda website users knew about it. After knowing that Chen Hao Xuan had acquired a stone as big as a cart, many people asked Chen Hao Xuan if they could sell the work carved from that cart-sized stone in advance. Ah Mansi Binzi, who heard that Chen Haoxuan had acquired a stone the size of a small car, he knew that Chen Haoxuan wanted to carve something good again, and he got so excited that he called Chen Haoxuan's phone number and said that he wanted to spend one billion RMB to buy the work that Chen Haoxuan had carved from that small car-sized stone.

If it was an ordinary person he would have said yes, but Chen Hao Xuan refused, ah Mansi Binzi he was only ranked tenth on the list of the world's rich, there were nine other people richer than him! There are many reasons why they don't reveal their wealth, the first is that they are afraid that others will miss them, the second is that there are many hidden families that were great families or kings in ancient times and made great fortunes during wars, so if they are investigated, they will have a bad reputation, and the third is that people in the dark, such as terrorists, hackers, robbers etc., they don't dare to tell their wealth

So what! There are people who are richer than ah Mansi Binzi, there are a lot of people who are richer than ah Mansi Binzi, Chen Hao Xuan just priced it like that, it will make him lose a lot of money, it is better to auction it off.

The next day, the farmer brought the stone to Chen Haoxuan. Chen Haoxuan was very satisfied after looking at the huge stone, which looked as good as yellow field jade, Chen Haoxuan was going to give 100,000 RMB to buy it, but he was particularly satisfied after seeing it with his own eyes, so he added an extra 100,000 RMB.

The farmer was so excited that he knelt down and thanked Chen Haoxuan on the spot. He was overjoyed with the 100,000 RMB, but when he brought the stone in, Chen Haoxuan added another 100,000 RMB. How could he not be excited? Not to mention kneeling down, he could even give Chen Haoxuan a warm bed.

Chen Haoxuan explained on the Thousand Buddha Stone Pagoda website that the price of the stone would be at least one billion RMB when it was carved. There are many people who think that Chen Hao Xuan this is hype, and they all guessed right, Chen Hao Xuan is just hype, get the fame out and the work can be sold for a few more tens of thousands. Just like those celebrities in ancient times, a casual painting is a work of art, but an ordinary person's casual painting is said to be unbearable to the eyes, this is the difference between celebrities and ordinary people.

Chen Hao Xuan began to work, he moved the stone to the roof of the building to carve, carving this thing is not where to carve, he needs inspiration, so to be quiet, on the roof of the best. Chen Hao Xuan had already planned to carve the big stone into a car, the kind from the future century, which would be a sensation, as it was considered an innovation in the 21st century.

While Chen Hao Xuan was busy carving, Chen Hao Rong made up the deed to the house and sold it to a boss in Pingyuan County for a high price of 300,000 yuan. With this 300,000 yuan, the couple could have used it for about thirty years if they had saved it.

Chen Haorong took his wife to Pingyuan County, where he rented a bungalow for five hundred yuan a month, a bargain. After choosing a place to live, he went to look for his friends. In the years he had been away from home, he had learned that he was not cut out for business, so he stopped doing business this time and wanted to go out to be a gangster.

He used to be a gangster, and he did well, and soon he was playing with the gangsters in Pingyuan County. A few of the casino thugs offered to partner with him, and Chen Haorong knew that casinos were very profitable, so he agreed, putting up 200,000 RMB to invest.

The first day he opened a casino with a few gangsters, he made more than 100,000 yuan, which made him so happy that he called out to God. He borrowed a car and drove back to Chen's village the next day, wearing a gold watch and ring, dressed like a rich man, but unfortunately, no one cared about him.

Because now the villagers of Chenjia Village are not what they used to be, they are not rich now but they believe they will be rich in no time because Chen Hao Xuan has said that he will lead them to become rich and wealthy.

Chen Haorong he opened a casino with others, this business is profitable, but if you are unlucky, you can lose a lot, or be seized by the police, and if you are caught, your money will be surrendered and you will be fined. Chen Hao Rong he dares to cooperate with others to open a casino, mainly because they have hired a few gambling skillful gangsters, cheat the experts can not, but cheat ordinary people, come one slaughter one, slaughter until you walk out with empty pockets.

Chen Hao Xuan is not aware, if he knew, if he did not want Chen Hao Rong to have a good time, then Chen Hao Rong is finished, Chen Hao Xuan a phone call can make Chen Hao Rong go to jail.

Chen Haoxuan does not know that Yang Lin, who now manages the business has reached out to Pingyuan County, he is not so much money, and Chen Haoxuan let him step by step, or he directly in the Chen family village to open entertainment venues. He was so eager to develop that business to Chenjia Village, just to let Chen Hao Xuan see his talent, so that Chen Hao Xuan can reuse him more.

Yang Lin, he rented a street near the super supermarket in Pingyuan County, he wants to make this street a one-stop service, meaning he wants to open game halls, night clubs, internet cafes, dance halls, saunas, karaoke in this street, this is his idea, he didn't ask Chen Hao Xuan for advice. He thought it would be better to bring all types of businesses together for easy management and for his guests to have fun here.

Yang Lin his chain of entertainment venues is considered a big business, he took the whole street of shops, some of them renting the whole building, and once they were all rented out, he hired a large number of renovation companies to help him remodel them.

Although Pingyuan County is not considered a big county, there are seven or eight nightclubs, five or six game halls, and more Internet cafes than you can count Yang Lin, a foreigner, made it so big as soon as he arrived, those who run entertainment venues in Pingyuan County were definitely not happy, and you won't be happy if your interests are taken away by others, so they teamed up to try to get rid of Yang Lin.

Chen Haorong also went to the casino, because one of the people he partnered with originally opened a dance hall, in their underworld, brothers in need, on the knife mountain under the sea of fire is incumbent, not to mention everyone went, Chen Haorong is also embarrassed not to go, after all, want to mix in Pingyuan County, in the road without friends can not mix what achievements.

On the second day of January, Yang Lin was in the city of Xinshan. He did not know that someone was trying to smash his business, so he did not send any of his brothers to look after it in Pingyuan County. He was considered the leader of the triads in Xinshan City and no one dared to mess with him, but he didn't expect that someone would dare to challenge his authority in a small Ping Yuan County.

All this adds up to a huge loss! At least hundreds of thousands of dollars were lost, as the walls needed to be repainted, stools, doors, bar tables and other items needed to be bought again, and the renovation workers needed to pay medical fees.

If Chen Hao Xuan had not explained that no violence should be used indiscriminately, and that it was best to use the law if you could rely on it, he would have taken his men to Pingyuan County and taught those gangsters a good lesson. When he arrived in Pingyuan County that day, he went to the governor of Pingyuan County and laid out his backstage Chen Haoxuan, scaring the governor into sending all the police officers in Pingyuan County to arrest those troublemakers.

This time there were too many gangsters smashing Yang Lin's business, so it was easy to find out who did it. So the gang leaders in Pingyuan County were arrested one by one, and even their underlings were also arrested.

When arresting the gangsters, the governor also instructed the police officers to investigate the businesses of the gangster bosses, and if they were illegal or had incomplete documents, they would all be sealed. The governor did this to make Yang Lin take his anger off, because Yang Lin was doing a big business in Pingyuan County, which was a street business, and if Yang Lin made a big deal out of it, it would be a dereliction of his duty, because there were so many gangsters in the county he managed, and he smashed the business of a street, and he might be dismissed just because of that.

The casino that Chen Hao Rong owned in partnership with others was also closed down, but he was not arrested because he was seen by the police when they came to arrest him, and he escaped alone through a dark tunnel while the police did not surround the casino.

Those punks who smashed Yang Lin's business lost money for sure, and Yang Lin got a payout of three million RMB from those punks, which made Yang Lin so happy that he couldn't wait for those punks to do it again. The loss of hundreds of thousands of RMB was a profit of more than two million RMB.

Yang Lin didn't dare to be arrogant this time, he sent 400 waiters to Pingyuan County, because the shops were not yet decorated, so the waiters he sent didn't have to work for the time being, they just had nothing to do but patrol. The 400 waiters he sent were not ordinary waiters, but gangsters who had abandoned evil and turned from good to evil. Don't look at them in suits and ties, but if they got into a fight, they would be more ruthless than ordinary gangsters, after all, they were in the city, and were considered more senior gangsters.

Since Yang Lin sent four hundred waiters to Pingyuan County, no more punks have come to his area to cause trouble, not because he didn't want to, but because he didn't dare. All the gangsters in the county may not have as many family members as the others, who would dare to touch such strength?

Chen Hao Rong, who is now at home, was scolded by his wife: "You are really stupid, the fact that someone else can buy a street proves that he is very special, but you guys are good, gathering all the gangsters to smash other people's business. If you had persuaded your friends, your casino would not have been closed down and we would have been able to live a good life. It's also fortunate that you weren't arrested, otherwise I don't know if we could have ransomed you out with the remaining hundred thousand or so."

"Wife, don't be angry, I didn't expect this to happen either." Chen Haorong said with a bitter and aggrieved face.
