

A Billionaire's Reincarnation Chapter 461-470

Chapter 461

Chen Haoxuan carried Shen Ruyan into the cave where she was recuperating from her injuries. Shen Ruyan was a woman, so she had a separate room with a luxurious bathtub filled with nutritious water in the middle of the room. Shen Ruyan's feet were not convenient, so Chen Hao Xuan directly hugged Shen Ruyan and gently put her into the bathtub filled with nutritious water.

In the past, Shen Ruyan would have taken off her clothes to soak in the nutrient water because it was more comfortable, but now that Chen Hao Xuan was there, she didn't mind! But the problem was that Chen Hao Xuan didn't mind.

"You take good care of your injuries, I still have things to take care of, I'll go out first." Chen Haoxuan tenderly said to Shen Ruyan.

"The Dragon Group's experts have all been defeated by your bodyguards, what business can you have going out! You might as well stay and chat with me, I haven't communicated with anyone outside for a year, you should take pity on me." Shen Ruyan lay in the bathtub, aggrieved.

Shen Ruyan lying in the bathtub was full of temptation, the colour of the nutritious water was not very dark, so one could see clearly what was underwater. Shen Ruyan's clothes were white silk and cotton, once wet they became translucent, and although Shen Ruyan had brought a bra~ bra, it was still very tempting. Chen Hao Xuan was worried that he couldn't stand the desire to jump inside the bathtub and turn himself green, because since he had turned into a genetic warrior, he had a strong desire and couldn't stand the temptation of others.

"It's because all of the Dragon Group's experts are injured, that's why I have to go and make arrangements, otherwise it would be a problem if I let the enemy take advantage of the situation." Chen Haoxuan said.

"Hmph, go go go! What an unemotional log." Shen Ruyan said with a huff.

After Chen Haoxuan left, Shen Ruyan carefully took off all her clothes so as to be more comfortable, she looked at her perfect body and wondered in her heart, "Is my body not sexy?"

Chen Hao Xuan went out, he told Jiang Dong and the others to keep an eye on the Dragon Group, Jiang Dong and the others had been in the Dragon Group for a long time before and were already familiar with it, there was no need for him, Chen Hao Xuan, to make arrangements. Chen Haoxuan went to the pasture, he took a horse and slowly walked it around the grassland, enjoying the atmosphere of the prairie.

At night, Chen Haoxuan didn't go back either, and slept directly in the grassland. With his current body, he would be fine even if he was struck by lightning, and could sleep in peace.

The next morning, when Chen Haoxuan rode back to the Dragon Group, he saw the group leader at the door, it seemed that the group leader couldn't wait. "Hao Xuan, you're finally back, I've been waiting for you for hours." The group leader said to Chen Haoxuan expectantly, he also wanted to become stronger.

"Team leader, it's only six in the morning! The average person hasn't even woken up yet!" Chen Haoxuan laughed.

"Fine! I admit I couldn't wait any longer, as soon as all my injuries healed, I immediately went to look for you, knowing that you were out, I waited at the door. Look, I'm so sincere, am I going to inject our people with genetic warriors now." The group leader said expectantly.

"Fine." Chen Haoxuan nodded and said.

Chen Haoxuan returned to his residence and came out with a fine coded box in his hand, needless to say it must contain the genes of the genetic warriors.

Chen Haoxuan asked the team leader to bring the selected people inside the research institute he used to use, and then Chen Haoxuan injected one hundred and eight Dragon Team members with genetic warriors at the same time. After injecting those one hundred and eight Dragon Team members, the team leader looked at him blearily, that look seemed to say, "Is there more, give me one too."

"You don't have to look at me like that, how could I possibly forget you, Team Leader! This time, I have also brought a few more powerful genetic warriors, you and Elder Martial Fool and Elder Dongfang, Shen Ruyan, Kong Manni, Flower Speed, Smiling Tiger, Hercules, Speedy Legs, and Divine Stealer ..... all have a share, now you call them over!" Chen Haoxuan said with a smile.

The group leader's old face turned red with excitement, "I'm going to call them over."

Hua Speed and the others were already upset in their hearts, they had played so well with Chen Hao Xuan, but Chen Hao Xuan did not give them even when he gave benefits to others. When they heard the group leader's call, they flew to Chen Haoxuan's Institute. They were all friends of Chen Haoxuan's, so of course Chen Haoxuan had to leave the better ones for them.

After injecting them with the genetic warriors, Chen Haoxuan reminded them that they had to wait for a day before they could fuse with the genetic warriors, so Chen Haoxuan suggested that they go back to sleep. Hua Speed and the others went back to sleep, while Hercules, who liked to soak in nutritious water to sleep, ended up that he had already finished fusing with the genetic warrior after only a few hours of soaking. He himself was unaware that he had and turned into a real genetic warrior, he only felt as if he had become very strong and powerful, with inexhaustible divine power, so he couldn't wait to take a random calf made out of iron, he gently squeezed it, and the iron calf was immediately squashed by him.

"Holy sh*t, that's too strong! I used to be able to squeeze iron all over, but it was never as easy as today, it feels like squeezing cotton." Hercules marvelled.

A day had passed, people who had been injected with genetic warriors had gotten up to see just how strong they had become, Flower Speed, he was already fast, now he was even faster, faster than Jiang Dong and the others, the bullets from an ordinary gun he could use to catch, that was the scary thing about speed. He ran with the fastest speed, to leave a residual shadow, it can be said that, except for Chen Hao Xuan's speed is faster than him, in this world can not find a second person faster than him.

Chen Haoxuan had also jokingly thought that if he let Hua Speed go to the long-distance running in the Olympic Games, would he be angry with all the competitors who used to run long-distance with him?

A marksman, he could already fire bullets around corners and find the correct position of his enemies with his eyes closed.

Scud, there's no telling, he can already run on water, but Snowtrooper is still that far off.

Reaper, no one knows how he is now, he is as usual, he doesn't like to talk or show himself.

Speedster, he's just an expert biker, so not much has changed except that his body has gotten better and more agile.

Little Feier and Kong Manni have also gotten better.

In any case, Flower Speed and the others got a lot out of it. In fact, there was an even greater benefit that they did not know, the life expectancy of a genetic warrior could live for more than two hundred years if there was no accident, which could not be bought with money.

With Chen Hao Xuan, the Dragon Group has become lively again, with people challenging Chen Hao Xuan's bodyguards and even Chen Hao Xuan himself. Hua Speed was the first to challenge Chen Haoxuan to a speed contest, but as soon as Hua Speed called out for the start, Chen Haoxuan said, "You've already lost."

"What? Hao Xuan, you're too arrogant to say I've lost before we've even competed?" Hua Speed said discontentedly.

"Look down at your own neck." Chen Haoxuan said with a smile.

When Hua Speed looked down, he suddenly found that there was a red line around his neck, not a red rope, but blood emerging from a dao wound. It was then that Hua Speed felt the pain, and he looked at Chen Haoxuan in surprise, saying, "How is this possible, I didn't even see you strike."

"Because the eyes can sometimes betray people." Chen Haoxuan said mysteriously, he had just shaken his hand as soon as Hua Speed shouted start, the dagger hidden in his sleeve fell, he grabbed the dagger and swung it forward, he was using the fastest speed, all Hua Speed did not see or notice, because the speed was so fast that even if you cut the opponent's head off, the opponent would not die immediately.

"Flower Speed, if you lose, you lose, nothing is impossible, it's not the first time you've lost anyway." Hercules said loudly to Hua Speed, he walked up next to him and pushed him away very rudely, then said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Hao Xuan, last time we competed in strength, I lost to you, this time I'll compete with you again."

"Good! How do you want to compete?" Chen Haoxuan said readily.

"Just a fist fight!" Hercules roared.

"That won't work, I'm not as weak now as I used to be, it's possible that your hand will be shattered by my fist." Chen Haoxuan objected.

Chen Hao Xuan turned around and said to Speedy, who was sitting on the side watching, "Speedy, didn't you have some extra materials when you made the motorbike last time? I remember that you made a ball out of those materials and brought it for your collection. Let me see you take that ball out and let me compete with Hercules to see who can squash your ball."

"Hao Xuan, watch your mouth, what do you mean by crush my ball, I'll crush your ball more or less." The Flying Man was displeased, but he went back to get his collection of balls.

The silver ball was glowing in the sunlight, so he knew it was no ordinary product.

It was only Chen Hao Xuan, if it were an ordinary person, he would have been smashed to death by the Flying Car Man, because this ball was not an ordinary iron ball, he had made it out of various precious ores, and just this small ball weighed about fifty pounds.

Chen Haoxuan threw the ball to Hercules and said, "You go first, you just need to be able to squash this ball."

"Good." Hercules gave it a gentle squeeze, no movement, put out two layers of force, still no movement, five layers or the same, he was ruthless and used all his strength, finally leaving his handprint on top of the ball, but it was very shallow. Hercules gasped and threw the ball to Chen Haoxuan, then said to Speedy, "What are you doing with a ball that good for nothing!"

The Speedster gave Hercules a blank look and said, "I like it, you bite me!"

"Watch out, I don't like to be called a cheater." Chen Haoxuan reminded Hercules. Chen Hao Xuan pushed hard and his fingers went deep inside the ball, causing Hercules to break out in a cold sweat, thinking how strong it would take to squeeze the ball!

The ball, which was made of various precious materials by the Flying Man, was constantly deformed in Chen Haoxuan's hands, and finally Chen Haoxuan squeezed the ball into a rabbit and gave it to Kong Manni, who was overjoyed.

"Hao Xuan, you're not human, I admit defeat." Hercules said to Chen Haoxuan in a demoralised manner.

Hua Speed and the others had all competed against Chen Haoxuan. None of them could beat Chen Haoxuan. Little Feier, who walked up to Chen Haoxuan, did not want to compete with Chen Haoxuan, but to beg Chen Haoxuan to teach her more advanced computer technology. She had long learned the technology that Kong Manni knew, and recently she had been developing her own intelligent chatting software, but she had encountered difficulties when she first started to make it.

She asked Kong Manni for advice, but she knew what Kong Manni knew, so how could she teach her? So Kong Manni suggested that she ask Chen Haoxuan for advice, but Chen Haoxuan was busy all day, and she was too embarrassed to bother Chen Haoxuan. Now that Chen Haoxuan himself had come to the Dragon Group, she had to seize this opportunity and ask Chen Haoxuan to teach her some more computer skills.

"Hao Xuan, I've been making an intelligent chat software recently, I've encountered a lot of trouble and I don't know how to solve it, can you teach me?" Little Fei'er sincerely asked for advice.

"Good, Little Nee-san come along too! I'll teach you guys for a few days, you have to learn carefully, yo!" Chen Haoxuan said with a smile.

"Oh also." Little Fei'er jumped up happily.

"Hao Xuan, I wonder how many days you can teach us?" Kong Manni looked at Chen Haoxuan, her eyes full of expectation, and said.

"I don't have anything to do these days, so I'll stay for a few more days! A week, how about that?" Chen Haoxuan said.

"Yes, yes!" Kong Manni cheered happily.

When the other members of the Dragon Group saw how happy Kong Manni and Little Feier were, they all cast envious glances at Chen Hao Xuan, when would they ever be able to please Kong Manni and the others?

In the Dragon Group, Kong Mani, Xiao Feier and Shen Ruyan were the targets of all the Dragon Group members, but what a pity! Kong Manni and Xiao Feier spend all their time in the house researching computer technology, while Shen Ruyan, with her stony face, is privately known as the iceberg beauty by the members of the Dragon Group.

When Chen Hao Xuan arrived, Kong Mani, Xiao Feier and Shen Ruyan were surrounded by Chen Hao Xuan all day long.

Chen Hao Xuan lives in the Dragon Group and spends his days with Kong Manni and the girls, teaching them computer skills and walking the horses on the grassland with them when he is tired. Jiang Dong, on the other hand, was challenged by people every day, so their lives were different from Chen Hao Xuan's. Chen Hao Xuan was accompanied by beauty every day, while they were forced to fight by a group of fierce men every day. Jiang Dong and the others often said, "When will the boss take us home? I'm homesick."

The intelligent chat software that Xiao Feier wants to make is not really difficult, the hard part is to input a lot of dialogue, for example, if you send a hello to the intelligent chat software, the intelligent chat software will automatically reply with a, "Hello, dear. You ask if you are a boy or a girl, the intelligent chat software will automatically reply that you are a MM people are boys and you are a boy people are MM.

With the help of Chen Hao Xuan, Xiao Feier's intelligent chat software was successful. The final step was to enter a large number of chat conversations, which was hard for Xiao Feier and the girls, who had to think about what to say and how to answer every day, feeling like they had depression and talking to themselves every day.

A week later, Chen Hao Xuan took Jiang Dong and the others back, and when they left they each drove a motorbike like Chen Hao Xuan's, which was made by Speedy for Jiang Dong and the others. It was because he had lost a bet with Jiang Dong that he had stayed up all night to make 50 motorbikes for them. The Flying Biker was a great lover of transport, plus he had all the parts for everything at his residence, so he was very fast.

He wanted to ask Speedy to make one for him, but he said that he was tired and wouldn't see him. Chen Hao Xuan was furious! He really stole Speedy's precious motorbike, but he thought that Speedy loved cars like life, so if he stole Speedy's precious motorbike, it would be bad if Speedy could not kill himself.

Chen Hao Xuan didn't want to leave Jiang Dong and the others behind to take the plane back, so he took Jiang Dong's motorbike back. On the way, Jiang Dong and the others were racing wildly, constantly letting out cheers and screams. Chen Hao Xuan was happy to see Jiang Dong and the others happy, and he was happy too.

When Chen Hao Xuan and the others returned to Chen's village, Lin Hao and the others blocked Chen Hao Xuan and yelled at him to take them to the Dragon Group to ask Speedy for the same motorbike as Jiang Dong and the others. Jiang Dong's motorbike was the most advanced motorbike in the world, and the only other person in the world who could make it was Chen Hao Xuan himself. Lin Hao and the others wanted it so badly, but Speedy didn't want to make it, so Chen Hao Xuan had no choice but to do it himself.

Lin Hao and the others were all excited to hear that Chen Hao Xuan had made the motorbike for them. Jiang Dong and the others all started to flatter Lin Hao, wanting to trade their current motorbikes for the ones they hadn't made yet. Lin Hao and the others were not that stupid, who did not know that Chen Hao Xuan was the most powerful person, no matter if it was business or making something, as long as it was made by Chen Hao Xuan, there was nothing bad.

To be fair to Chen Hao Xuan, he made the same motorbike as Speedy made, and it took him three times longer than Speedy because a lot of parts needed to be made on the fly, unlike Speedy's dwelling where there was a big pile of parts for everything. Lin Hao and the others were very impressed, in order to make the motorbike for them, Chen Hao Xuan used most of his time, to know that Chen Hao Xuan's time is very precious, no one would not believe it when they say that Chen Hao Xuan's time goes up and down tens of millions of dollars a minute.

When Chen Hao Xuan made the motorbike for Lin Hao, he also made his daughter Chen Xiaonuo a small skateboard, the kind with handlebars.

Since Chen Xiaonuo had a skateboard, she took Ball to the village every day to show off: "Come on, Ball, let's go out and play." Saying that, she pushed the skateboard and ran out, and the ball appeared on Chen Xiaonuo's shoulder in a flash, da Shunfeng.

Ball is now playing very well with Chen Xiaonuo, just short of burning yellow paper, drinking chicken blood and worshipping each other. Maybe it's because they're both kids! So they are having a lot of fun.

For example, when Chen Xiaonuo and Ball were sleeping, Chen Xiaonuo often squashed Ball, but fortunately Ball was not an ordinary white mouse, even if he was squashed for a day without breathing, he could not die. Once, Li Ping went to wake up her granddaughter Chen Xiaonuo in the morning and Chen Xiaonuo rolled over to reveal the ball crushed underneath her. She thought the ball had been crushed to death by Chen Xiaonuo. When Chen Yina and the girls found out about this, their stomachs hurt from laughing.

Chapter 463

Chen Hao Xuan was bored one day and wanted to see how many employees he really had, so he made a form for all the branches subgroups sub factories branches ..... to fill in all their personnel. It took a week for all the sub-group branches ..... to figure out how many people they had, because some big factories had hundreds of thousands of people in one factory, and even some factories had millions of people, and the smallest factories had thousands of people.

After all the subgroups and branches of ..... had filled in all the forms, Chen Haoxuan spent half an hour to calculate the number of people, and when he did so, he was shocked that there were more than 100 million people. More than 100 million people were working for him! At the same time, it was the same as he was supporting more than 100 million employees. There are some small countries where all the people combined are not even 100 million, so you can see how horrible Chen Hao Xuan's business has grown! The average employee in all his industries is usually paid around 2,000, those in offices are usually paid 3,000 to 4,000, those at managerial level are paid tens of thousands with dividends and bonuses, plus those talents recruited by Chen Hao Xuan before, all of them are paid millions of RMB.

This is a frightening figure! Even a medium-sized country in this world cannot afford to feed that many people, let alone pay that much, because the country also needs to spend money, to pay its soldiers, to pay its police, to pay its officials, and to carry out construction.

Chen Hao Xuan felt proud that he had achieved such a feat and was sure to go down in history, for which he held a press conference where he announced to the media the number of all his employees. The result was a worldwide sensation. Everyone knew that Chen Haoxuan had many people working for him, but no one had ever known the exact number, and now Chen Haoxuan said that he had over 100 million employees, and that the number of employees reached over 100 million.

As soon as the press conference was over, the media outlets scrambled to print newspapers and broadcast news to get the number one ratings. The foreign media were not far behind, and even before they returned to their home countries, they began to send information to their own companies by computer, so that they could report on it immediately.

The most intriguing of these stories was one with the headline "In the old days, there were landlords, but now there are wealthy owners". The news headline said that in ancient times, the richest people were landlords, and landlords not only had money but also had many employees, while Chen Hao Xuan bought a lot of land to build factories and companies, and also had hundreds of millions of employees, so Chen Hao Xuan was similar to the ancient landlords, but the difference was that the ancient landlords mainly relied on farming to make money, while Chen Hao Xuan relied on the production of various products to make money, and then took the money earned to invest, and money money, so it is more apt to say that Chen Haoxuan is called a wealthy landlord.

Chen Haoxuan also saw the news and he felt that what was said was very good and he admired the person who wrote it. So he made a phone call to that news station and asked who had written the news, and when he asked, Chen Haoxuan smiled. The manager of the news station told him that a reporter from the news station had come up with the idea, and also told Chen Haoxuan that it was because that reporter was a person who liked to fight landlords very much, and had no energy if he didn't fight landlords for a day, and also liked to use landlords and farmers to chat with others, and this time when that reporter heard that Chen Haoxuan had so many employees, the first thing he thought of was landlords, and thus a very creative news came out.

Although the reporter was not a talented person, he was lucky enough to come up with such an idea. In order to reward the reporter, Chen Haoxuan gave 100,000 RMB to the news station and asked the manager of the news station to give the money to the reporter.

Others thought Chen Hao Xuan was rich now, but only Chen Hao Xuan and Chen Yina knew that Chen Hao Xuan was poor now because he had taken most of the money to do good deeds, helping the poor people, building schools, paving bridges and so on.

Chen Hao Xuan can now be considered a leading figure, the world trend follows him, the economy follows him, because he gives his employees a raise, other businessmen also give their employees a raise, so that they are more motivated to work. To what extent has Chen Haoxuan reached? Even if Chen Haoxuan wore a piece of clothing worn by beggars out, people would say it was professional art, and if he wore an old piece of clothing from the past out, people would say it was now popular to be retro.

That afternoon, Chen Haoxuan's house had a guest, Huang Meilin, who came in person, she came with an invitation, she wanted to invite Chen Haoxuan to see her solo performance. Huang Meilin is now a big girl, curvy where she should be, big where she should be, small where she should be, as beautiful as her mother was when she was young. She is not the same person now, she is now a big star and has a reputation as a piano virtuoso.

Huang Mei Lin is now a star, with a reputation as a piano virtuoso. Everyone knows how she got to where she is now, but it was Chen Hao Xuan who taught her, and then followed Song Fang Fang around to perform, and with Chen Hao Xuan's massive publicity.

Chen Hao Xuan was the first man to make her feel handsome, the first man to think of her, the first man to change her life, and the first man to fall in love with.

In Chen Haoxuan's office (Chen Haoxuan had made an office at home for convenience and when he had to deal with his business, he would come here.) Huang Meilin sat on the sofa opposite Chen Haoxuan, her hands clutching a ticket tightly, she didn't know whether she was shy or nervous, or just too excited to see Chen Haoxuan, she squeaked and said to Chen Haoxuan, "Xuan - brother Xuan, do you - -Do you have time the day after tomorrow? I... I... our company has organized a piano recital for me, and I want to invite Brother Xuan to hear me play the piano."

"Good for you, Mei Lin! You've already given a solo piano recital. You're my pupil, you're having a solo piano recital, so of course I have to go as the master! You tell me where and when and I'll be there. I'll not only go, I'll also wear my trademark clothes." Chen Haoxuan said with a smile.

Huang Meilin stood up, walked over to Chen Hao Xuan's desk, put the ticket in her hand on the table and happily said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Brother Xuan, here are the tickets, my personal piano recital is at New City University, the day after tomorrow at 7pm."

"Good, I'll take this ticket, I'll definitely be there then." Chen Haoxuan smiled.

"Mhmm, I believe in Brother Xuan." Huang Meilin nodded her head happily.

Chapter 464

"Brother Xuan, the Chen Village is so much fun now, so many strange things! Brother Xuan, I want to spend a day in the Chen Village, can I stay with you for a day?" Huang Meilin looked at Chen Haoxuan expectantly and said.

Chen Hao Xuan waved his hand and said boldly, "Of course you can, I will not only let you stay in my house, I will also let you stay in the best house. I tell you what! There is a small house on the roof of my house, which is decorated in a very high class way, that's not the point, the point is that at night, when you look at the view from the gazebo on the roof, it's so beautiful! I don't even know how to describe it, so go and see for yourself at night! You'll be mesmerised."

"I'm sure you'll be fascinated, isn't that the mantra I used to use with my classmates? Brother Xuan, you stole someone else's idea." Huang Meilin joked.

"Hehehe ....., culture knows no boundaries, let alone language." Chen Haoxuan laughed.

Huang Meilin half of her body lying on Chen Hao Xuan's desk, hands propped up on her chin, a pair of big eyes looking at Chen Hao Xuan blinking, she posed like this not knowing if she was tempting Chen Hao Xuan, she said to Chen Hao Xuan in a delicate voice, "Brother Xuan, can you really see the night view from the roof of your house that can charm me into a frenzy?"

"Of course, you should know that the current Chenjia Village is not the Chenjia Village of the past, every household in the current Chenjia Village is living a well-off life, and they have installed many colorful colored lights in front of their homes or on their roofs in order to make the Chenjia Village more beautiful, so the Chenjia Village at night is colorful and is making people have a dreamy feeling." Chen Haoxuan explained.

"Wow, I really want to see the Chen Family Village at night right now." Huang Meilin said in awe, she hadn't seen the night view of the Chen Family Village which had now become very affluent.

"Are you going out to play now?" Chen Haoxuan smiled and said to Huang Meilin.

"Mmmmmm ....." Huang Meilin nodded her head desperately in excitement, she thought Chen Hao Xuan was going to accompany her to have fun.

"Wait a minute, I'll find you a little tour guide, she is a treasure of the Chen family village, with her taking you to play, you are guaranteed to have a pleasant is mood." Chen Haoxuan said with a mysterious smile.

"Who is it?" Huang Meilin said with a face full of curiosity, she had already heard out that it was not Chen Hao Xuan who was accompanying her to play, but someone else.

"Wait a minute." Chen Haoxuan said and picked up the phone on his desk and dialed a mobile phone number, after ringing for a while, the phone rang and Chen Haoxuan spoke out, "Hey, Xiao Nuo, come to daddy's office now, daddy has something very important to ask for your help."

"Oh yeah, Xiao Nuo can finally help daddy!" Huang Meilin heard a little girl's happy voice coming out of the phone.

After Chen Hao Xuan hung up the phone, Huang Meilin curiously said to Chen Hao Xuan, "Brother Xuan, I just heard a voice coming out of the phone, it seemed to be a little girl, you're not letting a little girl take me to play, are you?"

"Well, he's my daughter Chen Xiaonuo, she's four years old this year, she's on holiday now, so I'm letting her take you to play. Don't underestimate her, she is the treasure of our Chen family village, as long as she steps in, whatever you buy is at wholesale price, and with her, you can go anywhere, you don't even need an entrance fee to go to the temple to worship Buddha, she knows all the fun things in Chen family village, even if you don't go, she will drag you to play, so you will definitely have a good time when she takes you there." Chen Haoxuan said with a smile.

"But... but she's only four years old!" Huang Meilin said a bit speechlessly, a four-year-old child can't even walk very steadily, how can she still take her to play! Let her take the child almost.

"Hehehe ....., Mei Lin, wait you test her yourself, you'll be surprised." Chen Hao Xuan smiled smugly, his daughter he knew, his daughter could even speak English now, subjects below middle school would not be difficult for her at all, ordinary people trying to compare wits with her would simply be looking for death. So Chen Hao Xuan especially loves Chen Xiaonuo, he feels that Chen Xiaonuo is especially like him, he was a very smart little genius when he was a child, so he grew up to become the most prestigious chief professor, even the number one person in the country needs to treat him with courtesy kind of.

Chen Haoxuan could be sure that in the future his daughter Chen Xiaonuo would be a very great woman, perhaps even more accomplished than him. As for his other children, they were still too young to judge their future, but just by the fact that they rarely wet the bed, Chen Hao Xuan could assume that their minds were well developed.

Bang, bang, bang ..... A knock on the door sounded, a small sound, a weak person knocking on the door at first hearing. "Come in." Chen Haoxuan said.

With a creak, the door opened and the lovely Chen Xiaonuo ran in cheekily, she walked around the desk and ran next to Chen Hao Xuan, hugging Chen Hao Xuan's hand with both hands and pouting, "Daddy, what kind of help do you want Xiaonuo to do, tell me quickly, Xiaonuo is great now, Xiaonuo just helped Auntie Chen buy groceries!"

Ball he jumped straight to Chen Haoxuan's shoulder and stood up, both paws hugging Chen Haoxuan's neck and chirping incessantly.

"Mei Lin, let me introduce to you, this is my daughter Chen Xiaonuo, she is your little tour guide today. This white mouse on my shoulder is Ball, a white mouse with intelligence, very smart, he can understand human words." Chen Haoxuan introduced his daughter and Ball to Huang Meilin.

Huang Meilin bent down and smiled at the lovely Chen Xiaonuo, "Hello Xiaonuo, I am your daddy's friend, just call me Auntie Meilin."

Chen Xiaonuo held her head high, extended her right hand and smiled at Huang Meilin, "Auntie Meilin, hello, I'm Chen Xiaonuo, just call me Xiaonuo."

Chen Hao Xuan stood up, gently patted Chen Xiaonuo's little head and scolded him with a smile, "Xiaonuo, you're so young to be an adult! Go back to your soul and be your child."

Huang Meilin saw Chen Hao Xuan and her daughter Chen Xiaonuo being so funny and couldn't help but laugh, "Brother Xuan, your daughter is so cute, so young and so understanding, she can even shake hands, which makes me, an adult, feel embarrassed because I didn't even take the initiative to shake hands with her just now."

"She's learned this unconsciously from watching me talk business with others too much." Chen Haoxuan laughed.

Chen Xiaonuo didn't comply, in her mind she was already an adult and she didn't like people calling her a little kid. So Chen Xiaonuo beamed and said aggressively, "Daddy, Xiaonuo wants to tell mummy's that you are bullying Xiaonuo."

Chen Haoxuan obviously did not eat Chen Xiaonuo's words, Chen Haoxuan waved his hand and said, "Cut, what are you, don't your mommies know that! Just know how to play the pity and pretend to be an adult."

Chapter 465

"Brother Xuan, your daughter is so cute, she is as smart as you, she must be a big shot when she grows up." Huang Meilin enviously said to Chen Hao Xuan, just the performance of Chen Xiaonuo just now at a glance can know is a very smart child.

Chen Xiaonuo trotted to Huang Meilin's side, hugged Huang Meilin's beautiful legs and said smilingly, "Auntie Meilin, you are so nice, you are the most discerning, unlike daddy, hmmm." After saying that, he also made a naughty face at Chen Hao Xuan.

"Alright! Xiao Nuo you stop kissing your Auntie Mei Lin's ass and take your Auntie Mei Lin out to play! Remember, ha! Make sure you come back for dinner before 18:00 at night, or else you'll be beaten on your little butt." Chen Haoxuan laughed.

Chen Xiaonuo was very ungrateful to her daddy as she made a cute face at Chen Haoxuan, "Daddy, you're the one who can't let go!" She was right, Chen Haoxuan really couldn't let go, Chen Xiaonuo had grown up so much, Chen Haoxuan had never hit her, let alone scolded her, even when Chen Xiaonuo peed her trousers on Chen Haoxuan when she was little, Chen Haoxuan just laughed it off.

"Auntie Mei Lin, let's go, Xiaonuo will take you to play." Chen Xiaonuo's little hand took Huang Meilin's hand and walked outside, saying.

When Ball saw that Chen Xiaonuo was leaving, he immediately jumped off of Chen Haoxuan and then with a jump, he leaped onto Chen Xiaonuo's shoulder very accurately.

After leaving the villa, Chen Xiaonuo raised his little head and said to Huang Meilin, "Auntie Meilin, what do you want to play first? Do you want to see the scenery first or do you want to go to worship Buddha or go shopping first?"

Huang Meilin bent down, reached out her hand and gently scratched the bridge of Chen Xiaonuo's nose, smiling affectionately, "Our lovely Xiaonuo makes up her own mind! Wherever you take Auntie Mei Lin, Auntie Mei Lin will follow Xiao Nuo obediently."

"Auntie Mei Lin, then I will first take you to worship Buddha, then go to the river to see the scenery, and finally go shopping, and then go home for dinner, okay?" Chen Xiaonuo planned.

"Good, all according to Xiaonuo's arrangement." Huang Meilin said happily, could she not be happy to play with such a cute and smart kid? No wonder just now Chen Haoxuan said that as long as she was there to take her to play, she would definitely have a happy mood.

Chen Xiaonuo first took Huang Meilin to the temple to worship Buddha. The temple was at the top of a hill and she would be tired of climbing up there as a child, so she would do the sedan chair every time she came to the temple to play, and she rode in the sedan chair for free because no one wanted to charge her for it. The palanquin at the foot of the temple was a simple kind of palanquin carried by two people, which was actually two bamboos tied to a chaise longue. Since there was Chen Xiaonuo, a living treasure, around, Huang Meilin had a no-fee sedan chair ride up the hill.

On the way Chen Xiaonuo chattered incessantly, constantly introducing the scenery to Huang Meilin, every time she came to a place or passed a tree, she could tell fascinating stories, which made Huang Meilin admire Chen Xiaonuo, not everyone had such eloquence, especially when the other party was only four years old!

After worshipping the Buddha, Chen Xiaonuo took Huang Meilin to the river, which is now the most beautiful scenery in Chen's village, with many beautiful wooden bridges over the river, the most important thing is that the richest man in the world got married here, and when the wedding took place, there were also several top figures from several countries.

On the wooden bridge, Huang Meilin could not help but exclaim when she saw such a beautiful view, "It's so beautiful! I wish I could live on this wooden bridge for the rest of my life."

Chen Xiaonuo tugged at Huang Meilin's clothes and said in a delicate voice, "Auntie Meilin, the uncles on patrol said that you can't live here, you can only rest and play here." Chen Xiaonuo thought Huang Meilin wanted to live on the wooden bridge, her daddy had told her to take Huang Meilin to play, then she had to be responsible for Huang Meilin, if Huang Meilin wanted to live on the wooden bridge, she had to find a way, but she had no way, so she was torn.

Huang Meilin was a bit embarrassed and said to Chen Xiaonuo, "Auntie Meilin is just talking about not really wanting to live on the wooden bridge."

"Auntie Mei Lin, how about this, I'll take you to live on a luxury yacht, it's so much fun to live on a yacht, but Daddy won't let Xiao Nuo live there." Chen Xiaonuo said in a delicate voice.

Huang Meilin picked Chen Xiaonuo up and laughed, "That's because your daddy is worried about you, you know it can be very dangerous in the water, so Xiaonuo you should never go to play in the water alone in the future, you need to have an adult present even if you want to go to play in the water."

Hugging Chen Xiaonuo, Huang Meilin then took a good look at the ball on Chen Xiaonuo's shoulder, it was so cute and pink, with a somewhat human expression. When Huang Meilin saw how cute the ball was, she remembered what Chen Hao Xuan had told her, that the ball understood human words, so Huang Meilin became interested and said to the ball, "Ball, do you understand my words?"

The ball grabbed Chen Xiaonuo's collar with two paws, he looked at Huang Meilin with his eyes, twittered twice, and then nodded his head twice, indicating that he understood.

Seeing that Ball really understood human words, Huang Meilin was very surprised: "Wow, he really understands!"

Chen Xiaonuo took the initiative to answer Huang Meilin's words for Ball, she said in a delicate voice, "Auntie Meilin, Ball is very smart, he can fight and catch mice, he can also catch fish, don't believe me, Xiaonuo will let Ball go catch fish for you, when Ball catches fish, we will ask the boss uncle to grill fish for us at the barbecue restaurant by the river, it's delicious!"

"Ball, go catch some big fish and we'll go eat grilled fish later." Chen Xiaonuo turned her head and shouted to Ball over her shoulder.

When Ball heard the words eat grilled fish, his eyes glowed greedily, he loved eating meat the most, as long as the meat was fragrant, he liked to eat it. He leapt straight off Chen Xiaonuo's shoulder and with a thud, Ball dug into the river.

Huang Meilin thought Chen Xiaonuo was joking, but she didn't expect Ball to really jump into the river, she was anxious, thinking what could be done! How could a mouse know how to swim? She said anxiously to Chen Xiaonuo, "Xiaonuo, wait here for Auntie Mei Lin, Auntie Mei Lin will go to the shore and call for someone to save Ball, don't cry!"

Chen Xiaonuo pulled on Huang Meilin's clothes and said seriously to Huang Meilin, "Auntie Meilin, don't worry, Ball will be fine, he was taught to swim by my daddy, he is so good, so good, others can't catch fish with a net, he can catch them with his claws, if you don't believe me wait for a while, he will catch fish soon."

Chen Hao Xuan was thinking of his daughter's safety, so he forced Ball to learn how to swim, in fact Chen Hao Xuan didn't teach Ball how to swim at all, he just threw Ball out again every time Ball struggled to swim to shore, or threw some coins, then Ball could find those coins out of the water, then he could exchange them with Chen Hao Xuan for delicious food, in this way, after the devil training Ball could not only swim, he could also catch fish in the water.

Chapter 466

Ten minutes had passed and Huang Meilin had not seen the ball emerge from the water. She was getting sad and blaming herself for not taking care of Chen Xiaonuo and the ball! If she had stopped Chen Xiaonuo from letting Ball go into the river to catch fish, Ball would not have been in trouble.

Huang Meilin kept her eyes on the place where Ball jumped, but not Chen Xiaonuo, who kept her eyes on the bank. Because every time Ball would catch the fish on the bank and then wait for her to catch it.

"Wow, Auntie Mei Lin, look, Ball has caught a big, big fish." Chen Xiaonuo pointed to the shore and jumped up happily, saying to Huang Meilin.

Huang Meilin looked towards the shore and found that somehow Ball was already on the shore, and her tense heart was finally relieved. She ran towards the shore with Chen Xiaonuo in her arms. When she reached the shore and saw Ball's adorable appearance, she couldn't help but laugh, she saw Ball grabbing the fish's mouth with his two paws, and because his body was so small and light, every time the fish flung it, it would fling him around and make him yippee.

Just because he's strong, doesn't mean he's heavy.

"Auntie Mei Lin, put Xiao Nu down quickly or the fish will run away." Chen Xiaonuo said anxiously to Huang Meilin who was holding her.

Huang Meilin put Chen Xiaonuo down, Chen Xiaonuo quickly ran to Ball, she took out a small rope from her little pocket and threw it on the ground, then two little hands held down the fish's head and tail, after holding it down, Chen Xiaonuo anxiously said to Ball, "Ball, quickly take the rope and put it through the fish's mouth."

This method was taught to Chen Xiaonuo by Li Ping, because several times in the past Chen Xiaonuo had caught fish and wanted to give them to her family, but several times when she was crossing the bridge the fish jumped - jumped out of her arms and rolled into the river, for which she cried several times! So for her precious granddaughter's pleasure, Li Ping gave Chen Xiaonuo some small ropes to tie whenever she caught something before she took it home.

If the small animals in Chen's village became extinct, it was definitely due to Chen Xiaonuo. Chen Xiaonuo caught everything she saw, be it fish swimming in the water, rats running on the ground, birds flying in the sky, she caught them all, and a lot of them, as long as they were edible, they had all gone into her little belly.

Huang Meilin was really speechless as she saw Ball take the rope and thread it from the fish's chin to its mouth in a very human way, and then even tied a few knots before giving it to Chen Xiaonuo. Chen Xiaonuo carried the two catties of fish and walked quickly to Huang Meilin, held it up like a treasure and said to Huang Meilin, "Auntie Meilin, look, the fish Ball caught is so big, there's enough for the three of us to eat. Come on, let's go to the barbecue shop over there, that boss uncle can barbecue."

"Here, this fish is too heavy, let Auntie Mei Lin help you carry it over." Huang Meilin said with a smile, reaching out to take the rope tying the fish.

Chen Xiaonuo led Huang Meilin to a small barbecue restaurant, which was built on the water, making people feel like they wanted to go in and sit down, after all, it was rare to see a barbecue restaurant on the water, and it was worth the trip to experience it.

Chen Xiaonuo took Huang Meilin to the barbecue shop, the owner of the barbecue shop was a middle-aged man with a big beard, he saw Chen Xiaonuo coming and said to Chen Xiaonuo very kindly, "Xiaonuo, did you catch another fish? Do you want me to grill it for you?" The owner of the barbecue restaurant liked Chen Xiaonuo very much, Chen Xiaonuo was really too cute and polite, although he was willing to take Chen Xiaonuo's money, Chen Xiaonuo often took some expensive snacks to him in order to repay him, more filial than his children, if it wasn't Chen Hao Xuan's daughter, he really wanted to adopt Chen Xiaonuo as his goddaughter.

Chen Xiaonuo took the fish from Huang Meilin's hand and held it up high, happily saying to the barbecue shop owner, "Uncle owner, look, the fish that Ball caught is so big and big. Uncle boss, you must help Xiao Nuo grill it so well!"

"Okay." The owner of the barbecue restaurant readily took the fish and turned around to start cleaning them, ready to help Chen Xiaonuo and the girls grill them.

"Thanks for your trouble boss." Huang Meilin said thankfully.

"It's no trouble, I like this girl Xiao Nuo, she knows what she's doing, I can't wait to help her with the barbecue!" The owner of the barbecue shop replied as he cleaned the fish.

The barbecue shop was doing well, all the seats were occupied, it was not difficult for Chen Xiaonuo, Chen Xiaonuo ran inside the barbecue shop and took out two small benches and a small table, this was actually Chen Xiaonuo's toy, she carried it out from home, just to have a place to sit when eating barbecue, as to why there were two benches, it was because there was another bench that belonged to the ball.

"Auntie Mei Lin, you do it! Soon Uncle Boss will have the fish ready to grill." Chen Xiaonuo said smugly to Huang Meilin, Chen Xiaonuo had chosen a good spot, she carried the bench and the table onto the bamboo row, every time the wind blew the water Lang would make the bamboo row swirl and was very comfortable.

Huang Meilin sat on the small bench and said to Chen Xiaonuo with a smile, "Xiaonuo, it seems you come here often to play, otherwise how else would you even have your own bench and table."

"Yes! Xiao Nuo likes to come here to eat barbecue when she has nothing to do." Chen Xiaonuo said in a delicate voice.

Huang Meilin really wanted to like Chen Xiaonuo especially now, Chen Xiaonuo was really too cute and she kind of wanted to be Chen Xiaonuo's mother like Chen Yina and the girls. Unfortunately, Chen

Hao Xuan did not agree to her, if Chen Hao Xuan agreed to her, she would have been twice as proud to take Chen Xiao Nuo out to play.

"Xiao Nuo, do you know how many mothers you have?" Huang Meilin asked in a small voice.

Chen Xiaonuo held out a hand and said, "Yes! It's five mommies."

"Xiao Nuo! If Auntie Mei Lin were to be your mummy too, would you be willing?" Huang Meilin asked in a small voice, she didn't want others to hear, after all, she was no longer the yellow-haired girl she used to be, she had grown up and was a big person now.

Chen Xiaonuo didn't care so much, as long as she was happy with what she was playing with, she liked it, she clapped her hands happily and said, "Yes, yes! Auntie Mei Lin will be Xiaonuo's mummy, so Xiaonuo will have six mummies, many mummies to love, Xiaonuo is so happy!"

"Xiao Nuo, this way, you can call me Mummy in private, but when there are outsiders around, you can call Auntie Mei Lin, remember! This is a secret between us." Huang Meilin said with an evil smile.

"Yes, yes, yes! Mummy Mei Lin, let's hook up." Chen Xiaonuo said happily.

Chen Hao Xuan still didn't know that his daughter had already helped him find a wife.

Huang Mei Lin was actually doing this just to satisfy her impossible dream, just like those people said, not to ask for a long time, just to have it once.

Chapter 467

The barbecue owner finished the fish and Chen Xiaonuo selfishly gave a head to Ball, Huang Meilin got the tail, and the best meat of her own fish went to her.

Ball already liked the head of the fish, and Huang Meilin couldn't possibly compete with a child for food, so they both didn't protest.

After eating the barbecue, Chen Xiaonuo took Huang Meilin to go shopping in Chenjia Village, which is now very prosperous and where you can buy basically everything. Huang Meilin is now also a rich person, she bought a whole lot of things back, even Chen Xiaonuo, who is only four years old, has bags hanging all over her.

Today was Huang Mei Lin's happiest day. After dinner, she went up to the rooftop with Chen Hao Xuan and the girls, and when he saw the night view of Chen's village, she was fascinated by it. In the darkness of the night, the whole village was colourful, and if she could stay alone with Chen Hao Xuan, it must have been a Lang roaming night.

Chen Haoxuan and the others are on the loose, unaware that there is a conspiracy waiting for him. Abel from the MiG's Secret Service has now left the Secret Service, she also took three senior agents with her. She had a very big and dangerous mission to do this time, and they chose to resign in order not to drag the Secret Service down with them. If they succeeded, they would be in a higher position than before, and although they would no longer be able to answer to the Secret Service, they would be able to enjoy the glory and wealth that their country offered them.

Their mission this time is the same as before, yes, it is Chen Hao Xuan, they will use the most despicable way to get all the technology they want from Chen Hao Xuan, and then kill him in the process.

Chen Haoxuan, they could not beat, and because of that they used the most despicable method, the method was Chen Haoxuan's weaknesses, his children, and as long as they grabbed one of them, it was equivalent to nailing Chen Haoxuan's dead center.

They are now targeting Chen Haoxuan's eldest daughter Chen Xiaonuo. They know that Chen Haoxuan's daughter Chen Xiaonuo goes out to play all day and has no bodyguards around, which is very advantageous to them, so this time, they will kidnap Chen Xiaonuo as their main target, and then threaten Chen Haoxuan with Chen Xiaonuo.

On Chen Hao Xuan's side, Huang Meilin went home the next day, and while she was home, Abel and the girls arrived. Although they are now in China, they can still get a lot of information they want, and this time they got the news they wanted most: Chen Hao Xuan is going to attend his pupil Huang Meilin's piano recital tomorrow night. Chen Haoxuan is not in Chen's village, so they have a better chance of catching Chen Xiaonuo.

Ai Beier and the girls were agents, and high-level ones at that, so they wouldn't be like ordinary kidnapers who would just grab and run when they wanted to. They couldn't do that because they couldn't fail. If they failed, they would be finished and the Secret Service would not let them live in this world.

Abel and the girls observed the terrain of Chen's village and planned several escape routes. At the same time, they used the large sum of money to get a rice merchant to advertise and sell electrical appliances in Chen's village. This was a front, an excuse for them to have this rice merchant selling electrical appliances in Chen's village, so that they would have an excuse to invite a large number of performers to warm up the stage, which would attract many people to come and watch, among which could be Chen Xiaonuo.

After all, it was night time, and adults don't usually allow children to go out at night, and children don't usually like to go out at night, so they needed to attract Chen Xiaonuo out.

If they succeeded, they would be written into history. Although their actions were despicable, their efforts would make the MiG a leading nation in technology again, but that was only possible if they succeeded, if they failed, their names would be remembered for years to come.

By mid-afternoon, Abel had the businessman they had hired to sell his appliances and had the performers start their show. There was something new to see, and it was only a matter of time before thousands of people were watching the performers.

At 3pm, Chen Haoxuan came out and drove out with a few bodyguards. This made Ai Beier almost laugh out loud, Chen Hao Xuan was their most feared enemy, as long as Chen Hao Xuan was not there, even if those bodyguards of his were powerful, it was useless, as they believed that wisdom was the most powerful.

Chen Xiaonuo, she ran out to play after she finished her noon meal, she heard that there was a performance inside the village, so she ran back to the village to watch the performance. Ai Beier and the girls did not expect Chen Hao Xuan to go out so early, if they had known this, they would not have arranged for someone to perform in the village, because just now Chen Xiao Nuo was playing by the river, there were many tourists by the river, but even more than that, there were not as many as in the village, if it was outside, they would not have had to bother so much, and it was not so dangerous.

Chen's village was patrolled by Chen Hao Xuan's bodyguards and it was dangerous to catch Chen Xiaonuo in the village. To increase their success rate, they made those performing stop and had a dozen of them dance a dragon and head outside the village. They were sure that a child as fun-loving as Chen Xiaonuo would follow.

Yes, Chen Xiaonuo did follow, as did a group of Chen Xiaonuo's children, and basically none of the adults. When they arrived at the river, Abel waved her hand and two of them, who were dancing with the dragon, suddenly lunged at Chen Xiaonuo's position with a sudden move of their hands against the dragon's roots.

Chen Xiaonuo was bouncing and running after the dragon dancers, when she saw the people who were just dancing with the dragon suddenly running towards her, she stopped in her tracks, her big eyes blinking as she saw the two people running towards her, and said with her mouth, "Are they going to perform something strange again?"

Abel's man was successful, his man ran up to Chen Xiaonuo, quickly hugged her and ran, Chen Xiaonuo didn't scream and neither did the children who had followed her to see the dragon dance, well! They just didn't get it.

When Abel saw that her men had managed to catch Chen Xiaonuo, she nodded her left shoulder with her right hand, then her right shoulder, then her forehead, and with her palms together, she exclaimed, "Thank God, thank the Lord, our country of Rice is saved."

Chen Xiaonuo, who was being held by Abel's men, was very uncomfortable because Abel's men were afraid that Chen Xiaonuo would run away and hugged Chen Xiaonuo tightly, which hurt and made Chen Xiaonuo very uncomfortable. So Chen Xiaonuo protested loudly, saying, "Uncle, put Xiaonuo down quickly, you are hurting Xiaonuo with your hug."

Chapter 468

The person holding Chen Xiaonuo had one hand free to pull out a piece of cloth from his own pocket and roughly stuffed it into Chen Xiaonuo's mouth. Chen Xiaonuo now felt fear, and she struggled desperately, with a whimpering sound coming out of her mouth.

Ball, who had stayed on Chen Xiaonuo's shoulders even when Abel's men grabbed Chen Xiaonuo, did not shake him off. Although his current IQ was only that of a human child of a few years old, he could see that Chen Xiaonuo was being held reluctantly by others, which he would not allow, as Chen Haoxuan had told him that he must protect Chen Xiaonuo and not let others bully her.

So the ball climbed up onto the neck of the person holding Chen Xiaonuo, and his two front paws desperately clawed at the neck of Chen Xiaonuo's bad guy. Abel's man felt a sharp pain coming from his neck, a pain that forced him to immediately drop Chen Xiaonuo, stop and reach out to grab - for what was grabbing his neck.

Chen Xiaonuo fell to the ground and she sat up, her small hands ripping the cloth out of her mouth and crying out with a wail, her tears streaming down her face in a pitiful manner.

"Quick, help me get the thing that's around my neck." Abel's man yelled at his accomplice.

"No, Boss Ai has instructed us that there can be no accumulation in this operation, so you can handle it yourself! I want to take Chen Xiaonuo away immediately." Ai Beier's henchman said as he quickly ran towards Chen Xiaonuo.

Although Ball he desperately tried to grab the bad guy who had just hugged Chen Xiaonuo, he saw another man trying to grab Chen Xiaonuo, he immediately ran back to Chen Xiaonuo's side to protect Chen Xiaonuo.

Abel's men didn't have the little thing called a ball in their sights, and Abel's men still ran towards Chen Xiaonuo.

Chen Xiaonuo, she saw that Ball was back and her guts seemed to have grown, she cried out to Ball who was standing on her shoulder, "Ball, Xiaonuo hates them, you should help Xiaonuo teach them a lesson."

Ball must listen to Chen Xiaonuo's words. After spending so much time with Chen Xiaonuo, Ball has already regarded Chen Xiaonuo as her elder sister, although Ball is older than Chen Xiaonuo, but it can't be helped! Although Ball is older than Chen Xiaonuo, he can't help it! Who made Ball a mouse and naturally his IQ is not as high as Chen Xiaonuo's, so he always treats Chen Xiaonuo as his sister. When his sister was bullied, he, as a younger brother, had to stand up for her.

He jumped onto the bad guy's head and clawed it desperately. Ball was not an ordinary mouse, he would claw it so hard that even the skin and flesh would be taken off. Now Ball seemed mad as he clawed desperately at the bad guy's head, the bad guy's scalp was now gone in a miserable way. With a loud bang, Ebelle's man fell to the ground with a crash, dead.

From a distance Ebelle took it all in, she had only brought out three of her men this time and now one was dead and one was injured, if she kept losing people like this she would hardly be able to complete this mission.

Abel pulled out her silencer-equipped pistol and ran towards Chen Xiaonuo, she had seen the danger of the ball and she was going to take it out and run away with Chen Xiaonuo in her arms.

Abel's Secret Service, in the Secret Service, were all marksmen, she ran next to Chen Xiaonuo and immediately fired at Ball. With a bang, Ball's was sent flying, he screamed miserably, and in mid-air Ball spat a few mouthfuls of blood, Ebelle's bullet was now lodged in Ball's stomach, half of the bullet was already lodged in Ball's stomach, it looked so miserable.

Ball was too small and the speed of the bullet hitting him was too fast, so Chen Xiaonuo didn't know that Ball had been hit by the bullet, after she dried her tears, she found that Ball was no longer there, she immediately shouted loudly, "Ball, Ball ....."

Aibel quickly took out a cloth, which was a piece of sticky ether, and as soon as she covered Chen Xiaonuo's mouth, Chen Xiaonuo whimpered twice and passed out. Aibel hurriedly hugged Chen Xiaonuo and ran, as for her men, if they died, they died, as long as she could complete this mission, it was worth it to die as many as possible.

The man whom the ball had first attacked was now on the ground in a faint, his neck had been scratched off by the ball and so much flesh had fallen by the wind that if he was not taken to the hospital, he would not see the sun tomorrow.

After ten minutes, a miracle happened, the ball did not die, he staggered to his feet, he looked around and did not find Chen Xiaonuo, he was anxious, Chen Xiaonuo must have been just those bad guys captured, so he forced the pain to go home. Ball, who had previously been an animal used by Chen Hao Xuan for experiments, had endured much worse pain, so he was able to endure it.

When Ball reached the door, he couldn't run anymore. He chattered and screamed to the bodyguard at the door. The bullet was not something that ordinary people could have. Chen Xiaonuo must have been in danger, otherwise how could the ball have been shot, and the ball would not normally leave Chen Xiaonuo.

"Xiao Wu, hurry up and take Ball to the hospital, make sure you save him, I'm going to inform everyone to save Xiao Nuo right now." A bodyguard anxiously said to his companion.

The one called Xiao Wu didn't say anything, and gently picked up Ball with both hands and ran towards the hospital.

The other bodyguard, running back to the villa, shouted loudly, "Something's wrong, gather everyone, something's wrong ....."

Jiang Dong, who stayed in the villa, took less than a minute for them to gather. "What's happened." Lin Hao asked seriously to the bodyguard guarding the door.

"Ball was shot in the stomach by some guy with a gun, and has now been taken to the hospital by Xiao Wu to treat himself. I suspect that Xiao Nuo has met a bad guy, Captain, let's go and save Xiao Nuo!" The bodyguard said to Lin Hao anxiously.

Hearing his subordinate's words, Lin Hao felt fear and guilt in his heart, their mission was to protect Chen Hao Xuan's family, they ate Chen Hao Xuan's, used Chen Hao Xuan's, spent Chen Hao Xuan's, lived in Chen Hao Xuan, even their current strength was given to them by Chen Hao Xuan, but what did they do for Chen Hao Xuan? It seemed that nothing had been done, so he felt guilty.

"Do you know where Xiao Nu is now?" Lin Hao asked anxiously.

"I don't know, but when she went out just now - she said she was going to see a show, I think he's at one of those places that just came to perform in Chen's village." The bouncer replied.

"Leave ten men behind, everyone else come with me, make sure you arrest anyone you come across who is suspicious, and if the other person resists violently, shoot to kill." Lin Hao said loudly.

Chapter 469

They found the group of children who were with Chen Xiaonuo and learned from the children that two men had taken Chen Xiaonuo and ran towards the river.

They found two dead bodies on the way to the river and they got nervous, they were now sure that Chen Xiaonuo had been kidnapped.

Abel, who was panting, ran over two hills and managed to meet up with her men, then the two of them carried Chen Xiaonuo as they desperately made their way to the forest.

Lin Hao and his men were genetic warriors, their genes were fused with various powerful creatures, so they also had a powerful sense of smell, and when they couldn't find Chen Xiaonuo on the mountain, they relied on their sense of smell to chase after her. Lin Hao and the others were not ordinary people, they were existences beyond human beings, they could fly just as well with in the mountains. An hour later, Lin Hao and the others finally heard the sound of someone running in front of them, Lin Hao and the others instantly increased their speed, needless to say, it must be the ones who had captured Chen Xiaonuo.

Because in the Chen Village, basically no one goes up to the mountains anymore, who wants to go up to the mountains to cut wood when there is money! So Lin Hao and the others were sure that it must be the group that had captured Chen Xiaonuo.

There were eighty of them, eighty of them dashing up the mountain, and the sound must have been very loud. Then Ai Beier noticed it, and as she ran she said anxiously to her men, "Quickly find a safe place to confront Chen Hao Xuan's men."

"Boss Ai, there's a small cave on the left, let's go there!" Ai Beier's men voiced out.

"Good, let's run, with Chen Xiaonuo around, we don't have to fear them." Abel panted and smiled evilly, she was trying to stop and ask for backup from the Mi's Secret Service, she only had one more henchman now, not having enough men could easily cause problems. She wanted to run to the cave before calling for backup was considered, she knew that Chen Haoxuan's men were not ordinary people, so she needed a place where no one else could see her and Chen Xiaonuo so that she could call with peace of mind.

As Ai Beier and the others ran into the cave, Lin Hao and the others arrived. Lin Hao and the others had been running for so long and none of them were out of breath, which alarmed Ai Beier's men at the entrance of the cave.

Lin Hao and his men stopped twenty metres away in front of the cave. Lin Hao spoke out and asked the men standing at the entrance of the cave, "Who are you people and why did you kidnap Chen Hao Xuan's daughter, don't you know how powerful Chen Hao Xuan is? Have you guys ever thought about the consequences. You had better let Chen Xiaonuo go now, or you will surely die."

Ai Beier's men sneered, "Heh heh ....., we are outlaws, what are we afraid of? In fact, we don't know. Chen Hao Xuan he is very powerful, but so what if he is powerful, does he dare to disregard his daughter's safety? You are Chen Haoxuan's men, I am warning you now, you go back now and don't follow us again, or else don't blame us for laying a vicious hand on Chen Xiaonuo."

If threats didn't work, then Lin Hao came up with a soft one, and he added: "Brother, aren't you risking your lives to kidnap Chen Xiaonuo for money? Tell me, how much do you want? A million? Ten million? Or 100 million?" Chen Hao Xuan had money, Lin Hao didn't need to save it for him, Ai Beier's men said secretly in their hearts, "Damn you, you really don't take money seriously, as soon as you say it, it's millions and millions and millions."

Before that, Ai Beier had already instructed that he wanted all the technology that Chen Hao Xuan knew, so Ai Beier's men spoke out, "You guys go back and tell Chen Hao Xuan to give us all his technology, as long as we confirm that it is true, we will immediately release Chen Xiaonuo. Now you go back immediately, no following, and we will contact you in a few days."

In the cave, Abel was on the phone to her boss, who was particularly excited to learn that she had succeeded, and when Abel said that there were not enough men, her boss immediately sent twenty senior agents over.

After the phone call, Ai Beier walked out of the cave with Chen Xiaonuo in her arms, she was holding Chen Xiaonuo in one hand and a dagger across Chen Xiaonuo's neck in the other.

"Xiao Nuo." Lin Hao and the others saw Chen Xiaonuo being grabbed by Ai Beier, that pitiful look deeply stung their hearts, Chen Xiaonuo was their baby! Every day, he would call out to them, "Uncle, Uncle", and bring them something good to eat, what a good boy!

"Ai Beier, it's you, you're so deadly, let Chen Xiaonuo go." Lin Hao yelled at Ai Beier.

"Ai Beier, you have lost to us time and time again, have we killed you? No, we let you go time and time again, I didn't expect to get this result in return, I should have known to strangle you in the first place." Jiang Dong roared in anger.

"I don't want to talk nonsense with you guys, if you want Chen Xiaonuo to live, go back through, no following, go back and tell Chen Hao Xuan to prepare all the technologies he has, when we get them and confirm that they are real, we will release Chen Xiaonuo immediately. But if you dare to mess around, then Chen Xiaonuo's little life will be killed by you." Ebelle chortled coldly.

"Okay, as long as you don't hurt Chen Xiaonuo, we agree to all of it." Lin Hao said helplessly.

"Let's go, let's go back." With a big wave of his hand, Lin Hao turned around and led his people back.

When Ai Beier saw that Lin Hao and the others had all left, she couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief, it was normal for her to be scared when facing these monsters like Lin Hao and the others. For safety's sake, she immediately took Chen Xiaonuo and moved on.

They were the most agile and fastest among them, so it would be best for them to follow Ai Beier secretly. Lin Hao would instruct Jiang Dong and the others to save Chen Xiaonuo if they had the chance, even if it cost them their lives.

In Johor Bahru City, Chen Hao Xuan had wanted to watch Huang Meilin's piano performance, but before the piano performance could begin, he received a call that made him furious, from his bodyguard, who told him that Chen Xiaonuo had been kidnapped by Ai Beier. This time, he would definitely not let Ai Beier go again, he would let anyone who was a threat to him, die.

Before, he was worried about Ai Beier's backstage, but now, he was the richest man in the world, and his network of connections made everyone in the world feel powerful. The Secret Service in Rice, he was going to make him disappear from this world.

Chen Hao Xuan hurried back to the Chen family village, he used his computer to copy a large amount of technology that could not be measured in money, but for the sake of his precious daughter, he was willing to hand over all his business. Besides, these were technologies that were years beyond this world, and Chen Hao Xuan had a whole host of more advanced technologies in his head.

Chapter 470

Chen Haoxuan's terror, Ai Beier had learned several times, this time she did not dare to be careless at all, she did not dare to put down the dagger on Chen Xiaonuo's neck, when she was tired she handed Chen Xiaonuo to her men, when handed over both of them needed to put the dagger on Chen Xiaonuo's neck, just afraid that once the dagger left Chen Xiaonuo's neck, Chen Xiaonuo would be rescued by someone.

Ai Beier's choice was right, if her dagger dared to leave Chen Xiaonuo's neck by ten centimetres, Jiang Dong and Monkey, who were hiding in the shadows, would hit Ai Beier with darts on their hands and foreheads before rescuing Chen Xiaonuo as fast as they could.

Now is not ancient times, it takes years to get to a place, now there are planes, it takes a while to get anywhere. By the next morning, the twenty senior officers sent by the Rice Secret Service had already met up with Ai Beier, and they were now staying in the city of Xinshan, and still in Yang Lin's territory. As long as Chen Xiaonuo was there, they were not afraid of Chen Haoxuan.

After Chen Hao Xuan saved a large amount of technology into a USB stick, he once again went into his research institute, he was going to develop a colourless and odourless ecstasy, this ecstasy was not invented by him, it was invented by the ancient people of that world in his previous life, this ecstasy was very powerful, it was truly colourless and odourless, as long as you inhaled this ecstasy, you would immediately fall to the ground.

Chen Hao Xuan had already talked to Yang Lin and the police in the new city, as soon as he gave the order, everyone checked all parts of the room as fast as they could to protect the citizens' safety. As for saving people, having Chen Hao Xuan would be enough. The ecstasy developed by Chen Haoxuan was not life-threatening, but if you were to be suddenly enchanted while using dangerous household items such as gas, it could be very dangerous, so Chen Haoxuan then asked Yang Lin and the police officers in Johor Bahru City to protect the citizens anyway.

Chen Hao Xuan gave them the order, don't care so much, whatever the person's door is, smash his lock one by one, then go in and see if anyone is in danger. As for compensation, after getting Chen Xiaonuo out, he, Chen Hao Xuan, was willing to compensate the citizens for any damages, and that too tenfold.

Ai Beier didn't bother to rush Chen Haoxuan, she only started calling Chen Haoxuan on the third day of her kidnapping of Chen Xiaonuo, they were agents, a person's phone number was of course readily available, she dialed Chen Haoxuan's number and spoke out loud to Chen Haoxuan, "Chen Haoxuan, I don't want to talk too much, is everything I need ready?"

On the other end of the phone, Chen Haoxuan said, "Ready, when do you want it?"

"Of course it's now, you don't have to come yourself, just send a random person to deliver it, then it's true, I will definitely not hurt your daughter." Ebelle said.

"Good, I'll send it to you now." Chen Haoxuan said in a faint tone.

Chen Haoxuan he intended to go by himself, he could disguise himself, he relied on various techniques to turn himself into an ordinary man. In addition he had developed the ecstasy into a white powder, originally he had wanted to use the burning ecstasy method, but when he received a call from Abel, he changed his mind, the powder seemed safer.

After Chen Hao Xuan dressed up as an ordinary person, he took a flash drive and drove a motorbike to the city of Johor Bahru. He rode his bike and arrived at the nightclub where Abel was staying. When Chen Haoxuan knocked on the door and it was opened, Chen Haoxuan saw Ai Beier, the woman who annoyed her the most, and at the same time Ai Beier saw Chen Haoxuan, but she did not know it was Chen Haoxuan, but she knew that this man was dangerous because she felt a domineering aura in this man, which made her feel pressure in her heart.

It was impossible for an ordinary person to have such a domineering aura, so Ai Beier, who had already become cautious, immediately stood up and pointed at Chen Haoxuan at the door and yelled, "No coming in, I'm telling you, if you dare to mess around, Chen Xiaonuo won't live."

Chen Haoxuan held up his hands to show that he was unarmed and surrendered. Chen Hao Xuan spoke out, "I am helping Chen Hao Xuan to give you the flash drive, which is a hundred gigabytes and holds a large amount of high-tech technology."

"You put the flash drive at your feet and then you can leave, feel free to tell Chen Haoxuan that as long as the technology inside this flash drive is all true, we will definitely keep our promise to release Chen Xiaonuo when we leave safely." Ai Beier said seriously.

Chen Haoxuan obediently took out the USB stick that was in his pocket and put it on the ground, then turned around and left without saying a word. In fact, he had just sprinkled quite a bit of ecstasy in the air when he knocked on the door, and he sprinkled a little more when he took out the USB stick again.

When Chen Hao Xuan walked downstairs, he had already received a call from his Jiang Dong, who told him that Ai Beier and the others had all fallen to the ground one after another, and as for the room where Chen Xiaonuo was, he didn't know what happened because the room where Chen Xiaonuo was was blocked by the curtains by Ai Beier's men, so he couldn't see what was going on inside.

Chen Hao Xuan did not run up the stairs, nor did he take the lift up, as he felt that this was too slow, so he quickly ran outside, and with a stomp of his two feet, his whole body rose into the air and flew to the fifth floor, which was exactly where Chen Xiaonuo was being held.

Chen Hao Xuan grabbed the edge of the window with one hand and pulled out a knife with the other, which was specially designed to cut the glass. He was worried that the people inside the room had not fainted and if he broke the glass directly with his fist, it would scare the people inside and what if the people inside panicked and hurt Chen Xiaonuo, so he chose to use the gentlest method, a method that would not scare the enemy even if they saw it.

Chen Haoxuan cut an opening, then pulled out another knife, which is a shaving knife, very sharp, swish swish two sounds, the curtain was Chen Haoxuan cut a hole. This time Chen Haoxuan saw the scene inside, her Bao'er daughter was lying on the bed with a remote control bomb strapped to her body. There were fifteen other people inside the room, all of whom were now lost on the floor.

Chen Haoxuan didn't have to worry anymore and looked back downstairs to see if there was anyone there, and when he saw that no one was there, he raised his fist and smashed it against the glass, then used his hands to peel the guardrail off the window. Chen Haoxuan climbed into the room, and the first thing he did when he got in was to carefully remove the remote control from the hand of the man lying next to Chen Xiaonuo.

The explosives of the 21st century were simply toys to Chen Haoxuan, and he dismantled them in three or two strokes. After dismantling the bomb, he took out his mobile phone and made a call to Jiang Dong and the others, "Hey, Jiang Dong, you all come over and arrest them! Remember, as long as they are still alive, you can't leave them one step."

After making the call, Chen Haoxuan went back with Chen Xiaonuo in his arms. The reason why Chen Hao Xuan had Jiang Dong and the others personally go and arrest Ai Beier and the others, and even had Jiang Dong and the others keep watch over Ai Beier until Ai Beier was sentenced to death. That was because Ai Beier and the others were not ordinary people, if they were in the custody of ordinary police officers, they could have run away casually, and it was because of this that Chen Hao Xuan let Jiang Dong and the others take action personally.
