

A Man Like None Other Chapter 1821 – 1830

Chapter 1821

“You... you bold madman...” The woman’s face flushed with anger when Hu Mazi said this.

David also saw at a glance that this woman was just a soul, and no matter how strong she was in the past, she couldn’t exert much strength now.

“This lady, I heard that Jianzong has a divine sword. It’s in this sword mound. We just came to see it!”

David said with a slight smile.

“Bah, don’t think I don’t know your intentions, with me, you can’t even enter the land of the sword mound...” The woman said, and suddenly stretched out her hand: “The sword is coming...” The woman waved her right hand, and with a buzzing sound, a The sword qi burst into the air, and a spirit sword flew out from the woman’s back, the sword qi soared into the sky, and finally fell into the woman’s hands.

This spirit sword has a terrifying cold light, and it has a lingering aura.

“If you don’t leave, you’ll have to die under my Wentian sword!” The woman stared at David and said.

The woman’s spirit sword just appeared, and the Qiankun sword in David’s hand shook violently. If it wasn’t for David’s strong grip, it is estimated that the spirit sword would have been thrown out by himself.

David tried his best to control the already irritable Dragon Slaying Sword, and then looked at the woman indifferently.

The woman asked Tianjian in her hand, her face was full of sternness, but she didn’t know that the Dragon Slaying Sword in David’s hand was an ancient spirit sword, but the sword spirit had not fully grown, so it could not exert such great power. , so the woman did not put the Dragon Slaying Sword in David’s hands in her eyes.

“You and I are both spirit swords. Today I’ll show you. Not anyone can use a spirit sword to exert its power.” The woman looked at David with a sword in her hand, her face expressionless and her eyes burning.

“Do you want to compare swords with me?”

David asked lightly with a slightly raised corner of his mouth.

“Don’t you dare?”

There was a hint of sarcasm on the woman’s face.

“As a soul, I can let you strike, and if you can hurt me, I will leave here immediately and never step in.”

David said calmly and indifferently.

If he can’t deal with even a single soul, David might as well just hit him to death.

The woman was slightly taken aback, but looking at David’s expression, it didn’t seem like he was joking.

“Are you too arrogant?” The woman knew that although she was a soul, she could only exert part of her strength, but David could say such big words with a single sword, which was extremely arrogant.

“Don’t talk nonsense, come on!”

David slammed the Dragon Sword in his hand, ready to meet the woman’s sword.

Seeing David so arrogant, the woman’s eyes were filled with murderous intent. Since David was courting death, she wouldn’t mind giving David a ride.

Immediately, the Wentian Sword in the woman’s hand raised, with a buzzing sound, the sword energy was horizontal and tyrannical, causing Hu Mazi to feel a pain in the skin all over her body, the kind of pain that was cut apart by force.

Hu Mazi avoided far away, he didn’t want to be affected by two people.

And the woman stared at David, the breath on her body instantly rose to the peak, the blood surged, and the raging breath had erupted. Facing David, the woman would not be careless.

Since David dared to say such a thing and walked here unscathed, he must have some ability.

“Wentian Slash!” The

woman let out a low growl, and the Wentian sword in her hand instantly slashed towards David. On the Wentian sword, white mist rose in an instant, and the sword spirit was driven out by the woman, turning into a long white line. The snake, wrapped around the Wentian Sword, made a humming sound.

Looking at the woman's peak sword, David showed a smile on his face. He was still afraid that the woman would not urge the sword spirit. Now it seems that this woman is still afraid of himself, and even pushed the sword spirit from the beginning. moved out.

In this way, David also saved some things, and just let the Sword Spirit of Slaying Dragon devour the Sword Spirit of Wentian Sword.

Chapter 1822

After swallowing the sword spirit, David believed that the strength of the Dragon Slaying Sword would be even higher.

David took a deep breath, streaks of golden light appeared all over his body, and then bursts of green light erupted from the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand.

Looking at the woman who was getting closer, David's eyes were full of provocation.

The woman's eyes were cold, without a trace of fluctuation, the Wentian Sword in her hand slashed towards David fiercely, and slashed down, swallowing mountains and rivers.

The terrifying sword energy is vertical and horizontal, and this sword has the momentum of destroying the grass and pulling the rotten, and instantly slashes at the Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand.

Hu Mazi on the side was horrified, a look of worry appeared on his face, and his breathing was a little short.

He didn't expect a soul to be able to exert such great power. If this woman is not a soul, wouldn't the strength be even more terrifying.

Bang!

The sword fell, and the Wentian Sword and the Dragon Slaying Sword collided heavily. The ground shook and the mountains shook, and the entire sword mound trembled uncontrollably.

Without a splash of fire, two sword qi, one blue and one white, were instantly entangled together, rising into the sky, like two fighting dragons, intertwined and intertwined with each other.

Hu Mazi looked up with an incredible look on his face. He had never seen such a scene before, and two swords could fight together.

In fact, this is not the sword energy, but the sword spirit, fighting with each other, the green light is like a vast brilliance, and at this time, the entire land of the sword tomb is illuminated.

And the white light was desperately trying to cover the brilliance of the green light, but the white light was very small under the blue light, and was swallowed up at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“This... how is this possible?”

Looking at the scene in front of her, the woman's eyes were full of horror.

Soon, the white light disappeared, and the brilliance of the green light became even more dazzling, and then returned to the Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand. The sword shot out.

The terrifying sword qi instantly slashed a terrifying sword mark out of the land of the sword mound. The sword mark went all the way to the woman along David's feet. The woman was shocked, and then quickly retreated, followed by a leap Get up.

The sword mark continued for dozens of meters, and a deep ravine was cut out of the ground. The high bulge on both sides was divided into two, and the sword energy was horizontal and terrifying.

With one move, the victory and defeat were already clear. The woman looked at her Wentian Sword. At this time, Wentian Sword had already lost a trace of luster, like a piece of broken copper and iron, where there was still a trace of spiritual energy.

The woman was startled, and a burst of spiritual power poured in, and she wanted to urge Wen Tianjian to recruit the sword spirit, but no matter how the woman urged it, Wen Tianjian did not respond at all.

The Wentian Sword without the Sword Spirit is just a piece of broken iron, not even a treasured sword. This is a spirit sword created by the Sword Master of Wenjian Zong, but now it has become a piece of broken iron.

“Is it even better?”

David looked at the woman and asked lightly.

The woman’s face was expressionless, the Wentian Sword in her hand was casually dropped on the ground, and then she shook her head.

“Since you are defeated, let us in, I just came here because of the name, I just want to see the divine sword!”

David didn’t want to beat the woman to pieces, so he said.

But who knows, the woman suddenly smiled bitterly: “It’s not a divine sword, it’s not a divine sword, it’s a magic sword that kills people without blinking an eye, and our entire Sword Sect will be destroyed by that magic sword!”

“Our Sect Master Gather all the elders of the Sword Sect, and use all our spirit swords to suppress the magic sword here.”

“And after so many years, in the land of the sword mound, the original dead clansmen have absorbed the sword energy and become Sword puppet, even I haven’t dared to enter once in hundreds of years!”

“If you insist on going in, you will surely die...”

Chapter 1823

“Life is impermanent, who can not die? If you can do what you like, why not die?”

With a faint smile, David was not frightened by this woman!

Whether it's a divine sword or a magic sword, David's sword mound is set, no matter what kind of sword, the final outcome will be swallowed up by his own Dragon Slaying Sword!

Seeing that David was so determined, the woman sighed and said: "Maybe this is the number of days, stepping into this place is the real sword mound, where the sword energy is hundreds of times stronger than it is now, think about it yourself... .."

After speaking, the woman's figure became lighter and thinner, and finally disappeared completely.

"David, I think you should go in by yourself. With my strength, I'm afraid that I will need your protection when I go in, which will add a burden to you."

Hu Mazi was afraid!

If it was really as the woman said, the sword qi was a hundred times stronger, then Hu Mazi would be cut into pieces by the sword qi.

David nodded: "Master Hu, wait for me here, if I don't come out within three days, you can go back, you don't have to wait for me."

When Hu Mazi heard this, he hurriedly said: "David, you must If you want to come out, if you die, what will happen to your women? What a pity, think about your women, and you have to come out alive."

David was speechless for a while, besides women, he didn't know that there were other women in his mind. Nothing else.

"I'm in..."

After speaking, David continued to walk forward, and soon David's figure slowly became blurred and disappeared from Hu Mazi's sight.

When David advanced for a certain distance, the sword energy became stronger and stronger, and in front of him, it was densely packed with long swords on the ground!

These swords seem to be inserted randomly on the ground, but in fact they all have their own rules!

And David can clearly feel that in this sword mound, there are two auras that are constantly intertwining and fighting!

The sight in front of you is not just dead branches and leaves, but the branches and leaves visible to the naked eye on the big tree are growing rapidly.

It was just that it had just grown and was chopped off by the raging sword energy!

So back and forth, the two forces seem to be fighting.

David took out the Dragon Slaying Sword and frantically absorbed the raging sword energy. In this way, the branches and leaves on the trees began to grow rapidly, and finally became shady!

“It seems that this place is not as dangerous as the woman said, but fortunately there is this dragon sword!”

David’s face was filled with joy!

But just when David was happy, a murderous aura suddenly struck, David’s eyes narrowed slightly, staring straight ahead!

Soon a man walked slowly over, holding a sword in his hand.

It’s just that this person’s face is pale, his eyes are dull, and there is no other aura on his body other than murderous aura.

David saw at a glance that this should be the sword puppet that the woman said!

The sword puppet is killed by the sword qi, and then the flesh is immortal and refined by the sword qi.

After a long time, it became a sword puppet, directly dominated by the sword energy, without thought and consciousness, it was something similar to a zombie.

Because this kind of thing has no thoughts and is still a dead thing, it is not afraid of being hit at all.

Even if they cut off their arms and legs, these sword puppets still have no consciousness, and only the essence of sword qi controls them in their minds.

When encountering this kind of thing, David was a little worried. After all, this kind of thing is not afraid of death, so basically a sword pierced through the body, and the sword puppet would not take it seriously.

Once you fight with the sword puppet, unless you completely smash him into pieces, or there is no other way, there is another way to find the sword qi parent body, and then cut off the sword qi, but depending on the situation, that demon The sword is probably not easy to find.

Chapter 1824

David swung the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand and charged straight up.

When the sword puppet saw David rushing towards him, he didn't even react at all, and was still walking forward until David's Qiankun sword came to him, and then the sword puppet raised his arms worthy and directly used his own His arms blocked David's Qiankun sword.

The sword puppet is very difficult to entangle, but this cute and silly appearance makes David feel a little ridiculous. He even used his body to block the spirit sword.

At this time, the Dragon Slaying Sword has absorbed a lot of sword energy, and it has also swallowed a sword spirit, so its power is greatly increased. cut off.

However, his arms were cut off, and the sword puppet didn't show the slightest expression, waving the half of his arm and rushing directly to David.

David knew that it would be useless to chop off the sword puppet's head. He could only smash them into slag. Looking at the sword puppet rushing over, David's hand waving the Dragon Sword was airtight, huge and dense. The sword energy instantly enveloped the sword puppet.

"Break it for me!"

David roared, and the green light burst like fireworks in an instant, and the sword puppet instantly became torn apart, flesh and blood flying all over the sky, and it became slag.

Looking at the broken limbs and broken arms all over the ground, David's mouth raised slightly, and he was pleasantly surprised. The power of the Dragon Slaying Sword was much stronger, and the induction between the sword spirits was even stronger.

The sword puppet has been beheaded. David intends to go through the dense long sword to find the suppressed magic sword. He wants to see what kind of magic sword can actually destroy a sect.

But just as David took a step, all the long swords on the ground suddenly radiated light, and an obvious sword formation appeared in the air!

The light shone on David, and then the scene in front of David began to change!

In the end, the light disappeared, but David found himself in a dune!

The yellow sand dunes could not be seen at a glance, which surprised David!

It was clearly in the land of the sword mound just now, how could it suddenly be in the desert now?

Just when David was a little overwhelmed, suddenly under the sand dunes, a long sword rose into the air!

Immediately afterward, the sword energy stabbed towards David!

The long sword is not controlled by anyone at all, but it has a strong killing intent!

David was surprised for a while, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand suddenly waved!

Dang...

With a crisp sound, the long sword was directly cut off by David!

After the long sword was cut off, a faint light entered the Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand!

David can clearly feel that the strength of the Dragon Slaying Sword has increased a little again!

This time, David was even more confused, and he didn't know what was going on.

Just when David was stunned, suddenly the sand dunes shook for a while, and then he saw a lot of sand began to roll!

Then these rolling quicksand finally formed the shape of a man, holding a sword!

Slowly, the human figure formed by this sand and soil turned into the appearance of an old man!

Seeing this, David hurriedly said, "Senior, I don't know where this place is? Who are you?"

David saw someone appear and wanted to ask clearly what was going on.

But the old man did not speak, but waved the long sword in his hand, and then countless long swords emerged from under the sand dunes, and then tightly surrounded David.

Seeing this, David frowned slightly, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand began to emit bursts of green light!

Then, countless long swords poured down towards David like a rain of swords...

David could only wave the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand desperately, thinking of it as an airtight sword wall!

Dangdangdang.....

The sound of metal collision continued, and there were broken swords scattered all over the ground!

Chapter 1825

However, David found that every time he cut off a long sword, the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand would increase by one point!

This may be the practice of his Dragon Slaying Sword!

Thinking of this, David waved the Dragon Sword in his hand even more vigorously!

After a while, there were more broken swords on the ground, and cold sweat began to appear on David's forehead!

But David still insisted on gritted teeth, he knew that this time was the sharpening of his opponent's sword, and it was also a sharpening to himself!

When David cut off the last long sword, the whole person slumped on the ground tired!

And the old man looked at David with a smile on his face!

"You have passed this level, I hope you can reach the end, and this will fulfill our centuries-old wish..."

The

old man spoke to David.

Just when David was about to ask who the old man was, the long sword in the old man's hand suddenly threw at David, and then the whole person disappeared.

I saw the long sword in the old man's hand coming towards David, but it finally stopped in front of David!

Immediately afterwards, the long sword emitted a faint light, and the light was absorbed by the Dragon Slaying Sword. In the end, the long sword fell directly into powder.

As the long sword turned into powder, the scene in front of David changed. He found that he was still standing there, and the sword formation in front of him disappeared.

Looking around, David didn't see anyone, and even the sword qi disappeared around him.

"Could it be that I can see the magic sword like this?"

David was very surprised, and then stepped forward!

If it's so easy to find the magic sword, it's a little too easy!

David continued to walk forward for more than ten minutes, and the sword qi that soon disappeared began to appear again, and this time the sword qi was even more violent!

However, what stood in front of David this time was not the dense long swords, but three finished swords stuck on the ground!

Looking at the three swords in front of him, David knew that this should also be a sword formation!

Since there is a sword formation, there must be sword puppets around!

Just after David finished thinking like this, he found that murderous aura was coming, followed by a dozen sword puppets, approaching David step by step!

The sword puppet I encountered this time was obviously much stronger than the one I encountered at the beginning!

These sword puppets are still wearing the clothes before death, and the clothes are embroidered with the beauty of Wen Jianzong!

It seems that these are senior disciples of Wen Jianzong!

David didn't talk nonsense, and raised the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand high. After all, these sword puppets have no thoughts, and what David said is useless.

“Nine Shadow Swordsmanship...”

David shouted, holding the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand, and the whole person rose into the sky.

The endless dazzling sword light fell, instantly smashing a sword puppet!

The huge shock wave sent other sword puppets directly into the distance!

But these thoughtless sword puppets didn't even know they were afraid, so they immediately got up and charged towards David!

David was wielding the Dragon Slaying Sword, and with every sword swing, a sword puppet was beheaded!

Soon, more than a dozen sword puppets became sgumbags!

The strength of the Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand has risen again!

After the sword puppet beheaded, David stared at the three long swords tightly. He knew that the sword formation should be activated at this time.

Sure enough, after all the sword puppets were killed, a beam of light began to fall from the three long swords!

The beam of light seemed to come from outside the sky, instantly illuminating the position between the three long swords!

David looked at the beam of light, stepped lightly, and stood directly in.

Soon, the light fell on David's package. At this time, David felt that his feet were light, and the whole person was slowly rising up.

David's body was suspended in mid-air, shrouded in that beam of light!

An extremely crazy sword energy began to surge in the beam of light!

Seeing this, David hurriedly wanted to use the indestructible golden body to resist, but found that he couldn't exert any spiritual power at all!

Chapter 1826

David was shocked, he could only grit his teeth and rely on his powerful body to resist the attack of the sword energy!

The Dragon Slaying Sword at this time is like a dragon absorbing water, madly absorbing those sword qi, preventing those sword qi from hurting David!

The body of the Dragon Slaying Sword was shaking, and the blue light began to change slowly!

The Dragon Slaying Sword is madly absorbing the sword energy, but the sword energy seems to be absorbed forever!

Before David's body began to be cut by the sword qi, and the sword qi left wounds on David's body!

Om.....

Suddenly, the Dragon Slaying Sword made a violent humming sound as if it had burst.

David didn't care about the pain on his body, he held the Zhanlongjian firmly with one hand, and he could clearly feel that the spiritual power on the Zhanlongjian was constantly rolling.

Immediately afterwards, the Dragon Slaying Sword flashed, and the terrifying breath instantly blew away those sword qi, and even the beam of light disappeared!

David's body fell directly from the air.

David instinctively wanted to run his spiritual power and let his body fall gently, but David's spiritual power couldn't be exerted at all at this time, as if it was sealed!

At this critical juncture, the Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand broke free, and then held it at David's feet!

David swayed twice and slowly stood firm!

Seeing that the Dragon Slaying Sword was slowly falling while holding him, David's eyes were full of surprises.

If this continues, he will soon be able to fly with his sword. It seems that the land of the sword mound is really a good place for the growth of the dragon sword.

David landed slowly, ignoring the wounds on his body at all. He held the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand and hugged it. He found that the strength of the Dragon Slaying Sword was far more powerful than he imagined!

I don't know what level this Dragon Slaying Sword can reach after absorbing that Demon Sword Spirit!

David looked at it and found that the three long swords on the ground had disappeared, but David did not leave, but waited quietly for a while, the formation was broken, shouldn't an old man appear?

Just when David thought about it, a light flashed, and then a white-haired old man appeared, also holding a sword in his hand!

And this sword is green all over, exuding a faint light.

"Hundreds of years, you were the first to come to me, maybe the wish of these hundreds of years is really going to be given to you..." After the old man finished speaking, the emerald green sword in his hand was radiant, and then he In the green light, a firefly-like light spot appeared, and then the light spot floated to the Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand, and was instantly absorbed by the Dragon Slaying Sword.

"The presence of the ancient spirit swords may be God's will, and it may be considered that we are atonement for our own faults..." The old man laughed suddenly, and then slowly disappeared.

This time, David was immediately stunned. He didn't understand who this old man was, why should he atone for his sins?

But David didn't have time to think about it, after all, if he didn't go out for a long time, Hu Mazi would be gone!

If you tell Gu Linger and the others that they died directly in the land of the sword mound, I don't know what stupid things these girls will do!

Thinking of this, David accelerated his pace and continued to move forward!

This time, the sword qi was even more powerful. David launched the indestructible golden body, he could only hold on for a while, and the indestructible golden body was shattered instantly.

Fortunately, David has the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand, which is constantly absorbing the sword energy, so that David can move forward with difficulty!

Otherwise, I am afraid that David will not be able to move a step!

Soon, a sword appeared in front of David, and the sword was deeply inserted into a boulder!

Forgetting to look around, David cautiously walked towards the long sword!

If you follow the rules, there should be a sword puppet at this time, and its strength will definitely be stronger than the last time I encountered it!

Chapter 1827

But after waiting for a while, no sword puppet appeared, so David reached out and wanted to pull out the long sword!

But just after David approached the long sword, a light flashed, and then another old man appeared.

After the old man appeared, he reached out and pulled out the long sword on the boulder!

The terrifying sword energy erupted instantly, like a storm, slamming David fiercely.

So fast...

David didn't have time to react, his eyes narrowed slightly, and he was instantly smashed and flew out by the burst of sword energy!

There were wounds one after another on the body, and blood was flowing out!

The Dragon Slaying Sword in David's hand was greedily absorbing the sword energy, but David found that no matter how his own Dragon Slaying Sword absorbed the sword energy, the sword energy emitted by the long sword did not decrease at all!

"Devil Slash..." The old man suddenly swung a sword towards David!

The boulder branches and leaves flying all over the sky are like the end of the world!

"Could this be the magic sword?"

David was a little surprised.

He didn't know who the old man was using this magic sword?

As the old man swung his sword, suddenly a loud roar came, and from the long sword, a black mist filled the air and turned into a human shape!

I saw this man wearing a black cloak, and his body exuded bursts of blood and terror.

And the sword-wielding old man spewed out a mouthful of blood, and his whole body instantly aged, leaning on a stone!

“Who are you?”

David asked the man in the black cloak.

I saw the man slowly take off the cloak, revealing an old face!

When he saw this man’s face, David was taken aback.

Because this person, following the old man who just swung the sword, looks exactly the same, not bad at all!

“I haven’t tasted human blood for a long time...”

Said, the man rushed towards David!

“Nine Shadows Divine Sword...”

David shouted, then jumped up, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand instantly emitted a green glow!

A large amount of divine dragon power gathered on the Dragon Slaying Sword, and then exploded!

One after another, the green light intertwined, and then moved towards the guy in the cloak!

Rumbling.....

The sound of explosions can be heard incessantly!

The entire land of the sword mound began to tremble continuously, and the trees flew!

But when the sword glow disappeared, David found that the guy in the cloak was gone!

But just when David felt puzzled, a black shadow suddenly descended from the air!

David was shocked and was about to swing his sword to block, but the opponent's speed was too fast, and he was directly punched by the opponent, and then the whole person flew backwards.

“What a powerful strength...”

David got up, wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth, and the undamaged golden body began to function again.

I saw that David's body was covered with golden scales, and then a golden light shot up into the sky!

A golden dragon started circling above David's head!

Seeing David's pair of magic apes, the old man holding the sword was a little surprised!

But the guy in the black cloak frowned slightly, then roared and attacked David!

David also shouted angrily, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand was instantly released, and the golden dragon also surrounded the Dragon Slaying Sword and attacked the guy in the cloak together!

Huh...

A golden light flashed, and the guy in the cloak was cut off by a sword!

It's just that the wound on the severed arm is extremely smooth, and there is no blood coming out!

The guy in the cloak didn't seem to care, just glanced at his broken arm, then showed a sneer, and then the whole body turned into a black mist, and instantly entered the long sword!

Soon, the long sword broke free from the old man's hand and was suspended in mid-air, the murderous aura on the sword...

Chapter 1828

Seeing this, David pointed at the sky with the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand, and a green light flew out of the Dragon Slaying Sword instantly. This was the sword spirit in the Dragon Slaying Sword.

I saw that green light instantly moved towards the magic sword, just hovering over the head of the magic sword, a black light flashed in the magic sword, and a black light appeared.

When David saw the black light appear, the corner of his mouth could not help but raise slightly, this was the sword spirit of the magic sword, one blue and one black were instantly entangled.

However, the strength of this magic sword is not bad. Although the Dragon Slaying Sword is an ancient spirit sword, because the sword spirit of the Dragon Slaying Sword has not yet grown up, its current strength has not been fully exerted, so it is obvious that the sword spirit of the Demon Sword is fighting with the sword spirit. fell.

But David didn't panic, his eyes flashed fiercely, and then he went straight to the magic sword, grabbed the magic sword, and stood on top of the boulder, David holding the magic sword.

Ding...

David flicked his finger at the magic sword, and the magic sword instantly made a crisp sound, and then broke into two halves.

Without the sword spirit's magic sword, when it is in David's hands, it is no different from an ordinary sword.

After the body of the magic sword was broken, the black light that had been dominant all along became much dimmed in an instant, and the sword spirit of Zhanlongjian seized the opportunity and swallowed the sword spirit of the magic sword in one bite.

The green light is infinitely enlarged, and the countless sword energy in the sword mound is quickly absorbed into the green light.

In this lifeless dead place, trees, flowers and grass began to sprout, and the sword mound disappeared instantly.

The strength of the Dragon Slaying Sword has reached the level of a sacred weapon, which makes David excited.

And the old man who was not far away, looked at the scene in front of him, the whole person was stupid, he never thought that the magic sword they had suppressed with their lives for hundreds of years was handled by David so easily.

old man sighed suddenly.

David put away the Dragon Slaying Sword, walked towards the old man and said, “Who are you?”

The old man slowly got up and said with a look of relief: “I’m the suzerain of the Sword Sect...”

“Who was that guy wearing the black cloak just now?”

David was surprised, how could anyone look exactly the same !

“That’s me too...” the old man said.

This time, David was stunned!

Seeing David’s dazed expression, the Sect Master of the Sword Sect slowly told David.

It turned out that the one wearing the black cloak was only the inner demon of the Sect Master of the Sword Sect, and this inner demon controlled the magic sword!

In fact, this sword used to be called Tianwai Feijian, and it was said that it flew from nine days away, and then inserted it into Wen Jianzong.

Over the years, Wen Jianzong has been guarding Feijian, and many people have learned a lot of swordsmanship from this Feijian!

But when it comes to this old generation, because of his own greed, he wants to take the flying sword as his own and get all the inheritance of the flying sword!

So he persuaded several elders to jointly pull out the flying sword outside the sky!

Afterwards, a few people devoted themselves to research, but unknowingly went into trouble and were controlled by the demon!

For a time, Wai Feijian was asking Jianzong to kill!

The entire Asking Sword Sect became a massacre field, with corpses everywhere, and rivers of blood everywhere.

At the last moment, the Sect Master of Wen Jianzong and several elders came to their senses!

Afterwards, he used all the sword formations of Wen Jianzong, including their lives, to suppress the flying sword in this sword mound!

With the loss of time, many people broke into this place, but they couldn't step into it at all!

And the sword formation that suppressed this flying sword and several of their souls have become weaker and weaker. I don't know when this flying sword will be reborn, causing harm to the world!

As a result, the sins of these people will be even heavier!

The sudden appearance of David now makes them all seem to see hope, which is why the former old man suddenly talked about atonement to David.

Chapter 1829

“Now that the magic sword has been destroyed, we can finally be reincarnated...” The old man looked at David with a faint smile, and then the figure slowly disappeared.

David sighed, but his greed for a while ruined a sect!

David walked out and found that Hu Mazi was no longer waiting for him!

So David could only go back the same way.

And at this time, Hu Mazi was sitting in the ruins with a frustrated look on his face!

“I think we should go back, David’s women, I have to think about how to tell them!”

“This guy is too strong, so many girls are waiting for him, he doesn’t cherish it and dares to go in.

” It’s good now, just hang up...”

Hu Mazi followed Fan Jiang and the others.

“No...Impossible? David won’t die. He promised to treat my father.”

Anna’s eyes were full of tears. If David died, who would treat his father?

“Master Hu, Mr. Chen won’t die so easily, right?”

“Did you see it with your own eyes?”

Fan Jiang also didn’t believe it, David was the son of the dragon, so he died so easily?

“Are you doubting me? It’s so dangerous inside, he definitely won’t survive...”

Hu Mazi said with certainty.

“I also don’t think David will die.”

Ge Yuhan also spoke at this time.

However, Ge Yuhan spoke, but Hu Mazi did not refute, because he knew Ge Yuhan’s identity and did not dare to offend her too much!

“Forget it if you don’t believe it, then wait here for two days. If we can’t wait, then we will leave. We can’t die here!”

Hu Mazi said helplessly.

“Master Hu, you didn’t even see it, you just said I’m dead, isn’t that cursing me?”

At this moment, David's voice came from behind Hu Mazi!

"David..."

After seeing David, Anna jumped over excitedly: "I knew you wouldn't die."

"Damn it, your life is really big, the sword qi in the Sword Tomb is so terrifying, You are still alive."

Hu Mazi was also a little surprised!

"Mr. Chen, what's the matter, is the Divine Sword in hand?"

Fan Jiang also asked with interest.

"Let's go out and talk while walking..."

David said.

.....

Ice Bear Island, in a hotel!

Gu Linger's group of girls are waiting for David in dissatisfaction! "What the hell does this David mean? It's been so many days. It's been a long time since we threw us at the foot of the mountain.

Huh?”

Every day a group of women waited for David to come back.

As a man, Zhao Chuang can only be reduced to the object of these women's orders. Whether it is shopping or pouring tea and water, Zhao Chuang has everything!

Zhao Chuang can't afford to offend these girls, except for Xiao Ru, maybe all the girls here will become David's women.

Which one does Zhao Chuang dare to offend?

But just when these girls were chatting non-stop, David and the others came back!

Seeing David coming back, all the original complaints against David disappeared, and they all rushed up one by one, wanting to hug David!

It's a pity that so many people are here, no one is embarrassed!

“Did you miss me?”

David looked at the group of women in front of him, and then smiled slightly: "Come one by one, I will give you a hug."

"Hmph, you think beautifully, sisters, we ignore her. "..."

Xiaolan snorted coldly and gave David a blank look!

"Yes, ignore him, who told him to leave us alone."

Ge Jiayi said.

A group of girls went back to the room, but David could see that these girls were worried about him!

Seeing this scene, Hu Mazi's eyes turned red with envy!

Chapter 1830

"I'm not eating dog food here, I'm going to see my two little babies..."

Hu Mazi said, and hurriedly ran towards his room!

David and the others did not stay on Ice Bear Island for too long, but directly followed Anna to the capital of the Bear Country by special plane to treat Anna's father, Duke Ross!

Originally, Hu Mazi didn't want to go, but when Anna said that the women in the capital were more beautiful and more developed, Hu Mazi couldn't wait to follow!

When they got off the plane and saw the team that greeted them at the airport, everyone realized in a real sense that the royal family was awesome!

I saw more than a dozen Rolls-Royces lined up to greet them, and there were even hundreds of guards on both sides to maintain order!

This kind of pomp is not something they can do.

But when they got to Anna's house, these people were even more shocked!

Because Anna's home turned out to be a castle covering thousands of acres!

The beautiful castle attracted all the girls at once, and they were all excited to take pictures!

Anna arranged for someone to entertain Gu Linger and the girls, and another person to entertain Hu Mazi alone.

Then he led David into the castle and prepared his father to see a doctor!

In Duke Ross' room, Anna's brother, Prince Hal was also there, and there was also a wizard wearing various headgear, spraying some liquid on Duke Ross's body!

"What are you doing..." When

Anna saw this, she rushed up and pushed the wizard aside!

And Prince Nahal, after seeing Anna, the whole person is very surprised!

"Anna, you... when did you come back?"

Prince Hal asked.

He thought that Anna should have died on Ice Bear Island long ago, and Prince Hal obviously hasn't heard the news about the Ice Bear Island ruins.

Anna gave her brother a cold look. Although she knew that Prince Hal was sending someone to hunt her down, Anna had no evidence, so she couldn't do anything.

"Brother, father is seriously ill in bed, what are you doing?"

Anna asked Prince Hal.

"Of course it's for treatment. My father is sick, but you ran out to play, so I'm going to find someone to treat my father."

Prince Hal replied.

"Healing? Do you rely on this ignorant guy to heal?"

Princess Anna pointed to the wizard and said.

"Shut up, this is the master I invited from abroad. He has the art of resurrecting the dead and can definitely save his father's life. If you are talking nonsense like this, let me go out!"

Prince Hal glared at Anna and said.

"I don't think you want to treat your father at all, do you? You want to kill your father."

Anna was so angry that she couldn't understand why her own father could be harmed for the sake of power?

“What nonsense are you talking about? Father is going to be healed soon, it’s you who made trouble here, you get me out...”

Prince Hal reprimanded Anna.

But Anna didn’t leave at all, she didn’t believe her brother would cure her father’s illness!

“Anna, let me tell you, now that your father is seriously ill, I have the final say in this family. You are just a girl and you will get married sooner or later.”

“If you are obedient, I can let you continue to be a princess, if you don’t Be obedient, don’t blame me for being rude...”

Prince Hal’s face was gloomy, and he completely tore his face with Anna!

“I won’t go, I want to see how you heal your father!”

Anna said firmly.

Seeing Anna’s firm attitude, Prince Hal didn’t ask him to go out, but looked at the wizard and said, “Master, please do the same to save my father.”

While speaking, Prince Hal turned towards the wizard. winked.

However, this small action did not escape David’s eyes!

Just when the wizard was doing what Duke Ross did, Prince Hal gave David a cold look and didn’t care.
