

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2109 – 2110

Chapter 2109

David started to grab a handful of grass, and then took a sniff, a fresh smell entered his nose!

Heartbroken grass.

Soon, the name of this grass appeared in David's mind, and various introductions of this grass also appeared!

David looked at the heartbroken grass in his hand and suddenly threw it out!

He didn't expect this green and faint grass to look very good, but it turned out to be a highly poisonous thing. If it was eaten, it would be worth it?

Immediately afterwards, David excitedly began to look at the various plants in the secret realm. As long as David touched it, information would appear in his mind immediately!

"This is great, it must be because of this wordless scripture..."

David said, his consciousness entered the sea of consciousness and looked at the wordless scripture again!

This time, he opened the Wordless Heaven Book with ease, and the Wordless Heaven Book recorded the plants he had just checked!

"Sure enough..."

David's face was full of excitement, and then he took out a lot of items from his storage ring!

As long as David touches the item and injects a spiritual power into the item, he can immediately know the purpose of the item!

"This is like a fU**ing encyclopedia. With this wordless book, what else is there that I don't know?"

David flushed with excitement, and suddenly looked at Sonya and the others, an idea came to his heart!

Since this wordless scripture can identify anything, can it identify people?

Thinking of this, David ran over and hugged Sonya!

Sonya was shocked by David's sudden hug!

You must know that David has never been so proactive, and he is also in front of other people!

"David, what are you doing?" Sonya blushed, trying to push David away.

But David held Sonya tightly, and had no intention of letting go.

Seeing this, Xiaoru smiled slightly, turned her head aside and said, "Brother David, in front of me and Sister Meier, what do you want to do with Sister Yuqi?"

Wu Meier also tilted her head slightly. Side, the heart is a bit complicated!

David injected a spiritual power into Sonya's body, but found that no information from Sonya appeared in his mind!

"Is it because we know too well?"

David frowned slightly!

After all, he knows Sonya's past, so he doesn't need any information in his mind, he also knows!

David let go of Sonya, and then looked at Wu Meier!

David didn't know much about Wu Meier's previous experience!

Thinking of this, David rushed towards Wu Meier, and then hugged her tightly!

"David, you... what are you doing?"

Wu Mei'er was startled, her face flushed instantly!

Sonya and Xiaoru were also stunned, not sure what David was doing!

David put a piece of spiritual power into Wu Mei'er's body, but there was still no information about Wu Mei'er in David's mind!

"It's weird, doesn't it have any effect on humans?"

David let go of Wu Mei'er, frowned slightly, and slowly got up and walked away!

"Sister Yuqi, what's wrong with Brother David? Are you crazy?"

Xiaoru asked in a low voice when she saw David's strange appearance.

"I don't know either!" Sonya also had a strange expression on her face!

The three of them only saw David leaning on a big tree, looking at the sky blankly and confusedly!

No one bothered David, and David himself just stood there quietly!

I don't know how long it took, David's eyes suddenly lit up!

Immediately afterwards, a terrifying breath erupted from the body, and this breath began to spread rapidly everywhere!

Sonya and the others felt David's breath, they were all startled, and then looked at David intently!

I saw that David's face began to turn hideous, as if forcing his whole body to exert his strength!

Chapter 2110

When they saw David's hideous appearance, the three girls were terrified!

"Sister Yuqi, Brother David... What's wrong with him? It won't happen, right?"

Xiao Ru was so frightened that her voice changed!

Sonya also looked at David nervously, but they couldn't get close, because the breath of David's body at this time made them unable to move an inch!

After more than ten minutes like this, the breath of David suddenly disappeared, and the whole person fell to the ground like a collapse!

"David..."

"Brother David..."

Sonya and Xiaoru all rushed over!

At this time, David fell to the ground, his forehead was covered in sweat, but he was smiling recently!

"Haha...haha..."

David lay on the ground and laughed loudly, which fooled Sonya and the others!

"Chen...Brother David, aren't you stupid?"

Xiaoru asked when she saw David lying on the ground smirking.

"David, are you okay?"

Sonya also asked.

David sat up suddenly, and then shouted excitedly: "I know, I know, we can leave here..."

"David, what do you know?"

Wu Meier asked with a puzzled look.

Sonya and Xiaoru are also dumbfounded, they don't even know what David is going to say!

David calmed down, and then followed Sonya and the others and said, "I know how the exit of this secret realm has been opened..."

It turned out that David was using all his strength to perceive this secret realm just now.

David wanted to give it a try, could this wordless scripture even know the information about this secret realm!

But who knows, let David really find out!

According to the introduction in the Wordless Heavenly Book, this secret realm is a secret realm of Daoist Sect, but a sect can have such a huge secret realm, and you can see the strength of this Daoist sect!

It's just that hundreds of years ago, all the people of the Daoist Sect suddenly disappeared, and this secret realm was owned by the Demon Heart Sect!

This secret realm, Demon Heart Sect has not really used it, and there are very few Demon Heart Sect personnel who have entered this secret realm!

And this wordless book is the treasure of the Taoist sect, and David doesn't know how it got into Mr. Shi's hands!

Now that I know the origin of this secret realm, David also found out the method to open the exit of this secret realm!

"Brother David, you actually know the origin of this secret realm. What happened to Wuya Cave? Do you know?"

Xiaoru asked David curiously.

After all, after the three of them went in, their bodies were different, which made them very curious!

"This..." David's consciousness dived into the sea of consciousness and read it on the wordless book!

What's strange is that in the introduction to the secret realm, there was no mention of the Wuyadong thing at all! "It's strange. Could it be that this Wuya Cave was later developed by the Demon Heart Sect?" There will be no introduction to Wuyadong!

"David, don't think about it, since you know how to get out, let's go!" Sonya said impatiently. After all, she has never left the secret realm for so long, and has never seen her relatives!

"Okay!" David nodded, and then found a place according to the introduction on the wordless book!

I saw David move his fingers, and then read a spell!

A ray of light flashed instantly in the void, and then a door of light slowly appeared!

Seeing the open exit, David and the others all became excited!

“We can finally go out...”

Sonya looked at the open exit and was very excited!
